

Washington College

Lexington, Va., June 28 1870

Dear Madam,

I have the pleasure of communicating upon the action of the Faculty of Washington College commending your son W. W. Butler for his regular attendance on his college duties & for his industry and improvement in his studies during the late session,

With best wishes for his future welfare,

I am, respectfully,

R E Lee

Mrs. Fanny Butler

Commercial Hotel

Nashville, Tenn.