Dear Sidney:

At this late date I want to thank you for your telegram at the time of Carson's death. I was very touched. However, after the autopsy I've been trying to accept that it was far better than had she lived.

The house in Nyack has been sold. Mother's things were left to me, and I've just finished overcrowding my apartment with the more fragile pieces. The rest is in storage until I can find a larger apartment.

I hope all is well with you, and when you're in New York I'd love to hear from you.

Love,

Rita
