The Honorable George Bush

Dear Ambassador Bush:

I believe that you have recently received an invitation from the organizing committee of the 1980 Mock Republican Convention at Washington and Lee. My purpose is to let you know that it would give us all much pleasure and do us great honor to have you appear here if you can find it possible to accept the invitation.

As the invitation itself bespeaks, the students here plan these mock conventions well in advance and very carefully, and it is of course this care which explains the success which has attended these conventions over the decades.

I hope we will have the pleasure of having you visit us.

Sincerely,

Robert E. R. Huntley
President
