

Lausche

Washington and Lee students have set up the biggest campaign headquarters claimed <sup>anywhere</sup> by Ohio Governor Frank Lausche.

The Lausche-for-president movement is in full swing ~~now~~ in preparation for W&L's Mock Convention to be held April 30-May 1.

The student Lausche committee has set up its ~~own~~ administrative headquarters ~~at Washington and Lee~~ and has been in contact with the Lausche forces in Ohio.

The student committee for Lausche is headed by Jack McQuinnigan of Xenia, Ohio who has been directing operations of the Lausche movement and the 58-man Ohio delegation.
