

Dear Dr. Gaines,

I am herewith returning the blind copy of your letter to the newspapers so that even the possibility that I might inadvertently betray your confidence will be eliminated. I deeply appreciate your kindness in sending me a copy.

I have always been proud of the University and of its President, but never so much as now.

Respectfully yours,

Gordon Gooch