

This letter sent to other editors or managing editors of state (and Washington) newspapers, as well as news directors of radio stations previously contacted.

May 4, 1956

Mr. T. Eugene Worrell, Editor
The Virginia-Tennessean
Bristol, Virginia

Dear Mr. Worrell:

We have rescheduled our Mock Convention for 8 p. m.
Monday, May 7, and it will continue all day Tuesday, May 8.

Part of the opening session will be devoted to some sort of tribute to Senator Barkley, and because of the wide attention focused on the convention by his unfortunate death you may wish to cover the remaining convention sessions.

Let me know if you plan to have a representative present.

Sincerely,

Frank A. Parsons
Director of Publicity

FAP/hsg