UNIVERSITY IDEALS

OF the resources which a student claims from his university, only a small fraction consists of information or technical skill.

His chief reliance for achievement will be in certain intangibles: attitude toward learning, grace or social relationship, integrity of effort, capacity for honor and for faith.

These deposits in an individual student are usually derived from the ideals which govern his school. Only as a university sustains them can it be prepared to make the largest contribution.

This committee sponsors the Freshman Camp, which has taken its place as an indispensable feature of the orientation week. Largely through the efforts of Dean Frank Gilliam and Clarence P. Lee has the establishment of this novel feature taken place, to be recognized today as the fundamental stepping stone into Washington and Lee.

MUSIC BY BERNIE CUMMINS

Reenacting the court of Philip IV of Spain, beautiful ladies escorted by gallant young dukes, the grandees of the day, stepped forth to open the twenty-seventh Fancy Dress. Frank Bailey as Philip IV, led the figure with Miss Justine White of Huntington, to the more modern strains of Bernie Cummins.

Opening the set with a Junior Prom that equaled any in its history, girls representing every state in the nation sweetened the festivity into a brilliant affray. The following morning was ushered in by a dansant, the ATO's and the Phi Gam's playing host. House parties, dinners, and intermission dates keyed the interest into continuity. A typical Washington and Lee Dance.

FINALS OF 1932

Gayety and jubilation capped the finals of the 181st year of the school. Gene Martin with Miss Margaret Kolb lead the finals group in the figure, to the strains of Henry Theis and his Orchestra. Today this group is marked as the alumni, that so shortly ago were last year's Seniors.

EDWARDS, VICKERS, TYLER, METHVIN, LAMAR, WALKER, RIVERS, BEAR
RYLAND, WISE, HOMBERG, MCCLURE, COPENHAVER, FINKELSTEIN, CULLEY

WEEK-ENDS

The Sigma Chi house in its glamorous springtime hilarity makes life worth living. Notice the Editor of the 1932 CALYX in the front row.

Bill Stone, one of the moguls of "Mortgage Row," may be remembered as constantly gracing the campus with his lumbering presence.

From the vantage point of the Phi Kap house, the campus is but a park, full of towering trees, and those winding pathways which enter the portals of the college.

Quite unique to be remembered is the marvel of the D. U. house—the Haines twins.

A sure sign of Spring, . . . and finals. But one must keep his mind on the books.

Four dignified seniors, or maybe four seniors. Can you name them?

Saturday afternoon the roads, east and west, may be seen, full of care-worn students, looking for the sweets of the out-of-doors—or maybe Lynchburg.

AFTER THE BALL

A rare old snap shot in front of the K. A. house at 7 A. M. This picture has been published after numerous threats.

A rapidly declining luxury, on the campus. Once an automobile was the mark of success in the whirl of college life, now a rarity.

The president of Finals once had a habit of stealing someone else's girl. Notice his guilty expression as he finds himself caught with all evidence against him.

Two students of the Class of 1932, after final ball, with their lady friends.

What the well dressed lady and gentleman wore back in 1932.

The music had ceased but this melody will linger on.

As one might have seen the S. A. E. fire or maybe this is the boon-fire to send off the team to Virginia.

WORK AND PLAY WITH THE FACULTY

Dr. Livingston Smith will always be remembered as the enigma to every freshman, for his unique expressions in class.

Mr. Mattingly stands in our memories as the Czar of records and grade cards.

Professor Phillips, the scholarly teacher of commerce, maintained this pose especially for the CALYX so that his students may never forget.

Even the steps of the gymnasium are becoming worn with the constant tap-tap of feet. Soon this popular building will maintain an archaic look that characterizes the university.

Dr. Campbell, whose reign will be marked by historians, from the death of General Lee until the middle of the twentieth century, also posed for the CALYX.

Members of the faculty are invited to attend the Freshman Camp, so that they may prove to the students that they are human.

Henry W. Anderson, alumnus and Republican leader in Virginia, was escorted to assembly to speak to the students.

Billy Hinton, contemporary of Dr. Flick, posed just outside the Psychology laboratory.

Dean Moreland still maintains that the Law School is not a part of the university but IS the university.

One of the parodies of the "Sunny South" is the heavy snow that often occasions the section. This picture was taken in about two feet of snow.

FRIENDS OF THE UNIVERSITY

Mrs. Otis Mead, house mother to the Pi K. A.'s, may be remembered by her genial smile and constant kindness to the students.

Mrs. Lee, of Phi Kappa Sigma, always looking upon the students with sympathy, regardless of their week-ending.

Mrs. Mosby lends a ray of home to the A. T. O.'s and has converted the mansion from a dormitory into a real home.

Cy Young, coach, alumni secretary, ardent supporter of the university, always lends a helping hand to every activity.

Mrs. Barely is popular among the house-mothers as well as the students, and ranks among earliest of them all. She has been with the Phi Kappa Psi's longer than any of the present ones.

Once called the false face house, the Delta Tau Delta mansion has taken on a quaint colonial atmosphere of the decade of prosperity.

More snow to make the "Yankee" boys wonder why they came South, and the "Dixie" boys to look with amazement.

The officer of the Day at V. M. I. in charge of the neighboring cadets was caught on his post, to be snapped for the CALYX.

OFF MOMENTS

"Sigma" shines gather in a huddle, to praise George's name.

White Friar and PAN goats create quite a sensation in the fall.

Snorter Morrison alias Boss Tweed, calls the Mock Convention to order.

Beta's in a daze.

Student leaders at the Freshman Camp.

More shining "Sigma's," and the reason why fruit jars are more popular than ice tea glasses.

Just a typical West by god Virginian.

The Gym, freehold of athlete and social hound, a colosseum to recreation.

OUR ATHLETES

The disastrous game with George Washington University. They still gloat over catching the "Generals" on an off year.

Charlie Smith, sophomore football and basketball man.

Jabbo, fruit vendor, trainer and most popular face on "Mortgage Row."

M. Peel Rivers, or the reason why the Swimming team has such a good reputation.

Mattox tags out the champion base stealer of New York University.

The winner of the Finals Crew race, the Harry Lee Crew.

Freshman wrestlers are taught by Coach Mathis to be winners.

The start of the State Cross-Country meet.

Seaton flashes thru the opposition line.

From a viewpoint of scoring the 1932 team was a dismal failure, but each game was evenly contested regardless of the record. George Washington, won the opener with a suprisingly powerful attack. The next Saturday the Generals playing Davidson on even terms gave in by the score of 7 to 0. Navy then loomed up from an unsuccessful start to catch the Generals on an off day and administer a 33 to 0 defeat. Then Kentucky catching the Generals in a defeated mood fought their way to the long side of the score. In Norfolk, William and Mary was decisively outplayed, but the generals were outpointed again in scoring by 7 points. V. P. I. then with its superior team showed its ranking as a leader in the Southern Conference by administering a 32 to 6 defeat. But finally the Generals tasted victory for the first time, in defeating Virginia at their own homecoming. West Virginia, the jinks of the Generals and Maryland then played their parts to gain victories, until Duke finished the season on Thanksgiving by winning 13 to 0. May this season only serve as a battle cry for future teams.

Endeavoring to uphold the record as Southern Conference Champions of a year ago, and to maintain the times of the team of last year, the 1932 team has striven thru a hard schedule and has succeeded. Edmunds, dash man, finished the season without a defeat in his specialty. Cook and Rivers broke 6 feet in the jumps. The team regretted the loss of Finkelstein, who suffered a fractured ankle, whose place could not be filled.

APPRECIATION

FOR the service rendered by Andy McClung, thru his studio, André, we offer our thanks and wishes for success in their future undertakings. *Our gratitude to J. P. Bell and their personal representative, Raymond Thompson, we offer. Much of the honors of this publication may be heaped on their shoulders.

Harold Mann, to whom we attribute the novel features attained and the original ideas set out, we bow on bending knee.

Thru the kindness of Jules Pavlow, noted photographer of St. Louis, we are able to present some beautiful pictures.

To Harris-Ewing of Washington we are also indebted for their contribution.

We acknowledge the gift of a photostatic copy of the original sketch, of Newcomb Hall, drawn by Hanson. This being a presentation from the Travelers Life Insurance Company of Hartford, Connecticut.

To Richard Donner, internationally famous photographer, we are grateful, for a picture contributed.

To the studios of Underwood and Underwood, World Wide Photo, J. P. Bell, and Keystone we are grateful for their kindnesses.

For the aid rendered the Editor by Billy Vaughan of Lexington, by whom much photographic assistance was rendered, we return our thanks.

"Annuals on Parade"

If the thousands of annuals published by universities all over the country during the past ten years were assembled all in one place, you would find a very definite majority of them parading in Molloy Made Covers. And the "Calyx" would not be far behind, because, during the past ten years ten copies of the "Calyx" have carried covers made by the David J. Molloy Plant or its affiliate, the S. K. Smith organization. Now that the two organizations are combined under one roof, it can safely be said that there has been no break in the continuity of service to the "Calyx" staff during the past ten years.

A flexible organization, prepared to serve any annual staff in connection with the development of an unusual cover, regardless of the financial problem which that staff might face from the standpoint of budget, regardless of the art theme which that staff may have in mind, is prepared to work for you. Complete information and data will be furnished on request, and your cover problem will receive the personal attention of a man who has spent more years in creating and producing annual covers than any other man in the country.

THE IMPRINT of PRIDE

Bids for patronage on a basis of price alone get small response from people who know the true worth of good quality in PRINTING. They prefer to pay the slight difference in the cost of good printing over mediocre printing because of the vastly superior RESULTS obtained—and RESULTS, of course, are paramount.

BELL MADE ANNUALS are produced by skilled craftsmen to meet the most exacting requirements. But, measured by the standards of real service and satisfaction, they are, after all, the least expensive.
