Dedication

In honor of an old Calyx tradition from several decades ago, I would like to once again begin the tradition of dedicating the Calyx to several Faculty/Staff members of the Editor's choosing.

This year's 2003 Calyx is dedicated with gratitude to:

An Introduction...

I am about to break the cardinal rule of W&L. No, it's not committing an HV, or graduating without streaking the colonnade. I'm about to break W&L tradition.

The Calyx has never had an introductory article in its previous 105 years of existence, so why change now you ask? Because, I think it needs to. Tradition is tradition, but things can only continue for so long before they stagnate. So, I'm starting a new W&L tradition, the opening article of the Calyx; an introduction to the book that represents our school, an introduction to the year it covers, and an introduction to the people that make it all happen.

This year's title, "Burning Through Time" came about last year, when I realized how quickly things were actually speeding by. We are all so busy and active and over-worked (and occasionally hung over) that we don't realize how rapidly our time here passes. High school seemed like it would never end; but college is over far too soon.

So what is it that we, the class of 2003 have accomplished, seen and experienced in our years here, now that they have hastily pass us by and we depart for grad school, med school, law school, or the 'real world' outside the W&L bubble?

We are a class that has seen great change, in the world around us, in our country and in Lexington and the W&L campus itself.

We are a class that has fallen in love. Some with other themselves, others with their soulmates, and others with the idea of being in love.

We are a class that has made and formed friendships that have grown and flourished over the years, and hopefully will continue the rest of our lives.

We are a class that has experienced great loss and tragedy, from those older than us, those younger, and also from among our own ranks, and we pulled through it together.

We are a class that has grown together over the years from doe-eyed freshmen to experienced and worldly seniors.

We are a class that has traveled extensively, both around the country and around the globe.

We are a class of broad interests and majors, ranging from theatre and history to psychology, math, French and chemistry. The class of 2003 has members in every major offered at this school.

We are a diverse class of nationalities, religions, ethnicity and cultural heritage.

We are an active class, that has taken on positions of leadership across the campus, running almost every student organization has to offer.

We are a class with a big heart, which volunteers on campus, in Lexington, and out and around Rockbridge County, the Shenandoah Valley, and many other outreach projects around the country.

We have done all this in 4 years, and now are ready to move out of the protective fold of the W&L community and move forward. The years have sped past us, the seniors are scared to remember how old they thought seniors were their freshman year, and we all have to take a moment to step back and wonder, “how did we get to this point so fast?” Four Homecomings, Four Parent’s Weekends (with the requisite trips to Walmart) Four Christmas Weekends, Four Fancy Dress Ball’s and most importantly, Four Spring Terms. Its all gone past, with the Fourth Graduation since our freshman year, ours, about to take place.

Somehow, its all passed us by, without us even realizing it. Time has passed us by even more quickly than a candles wick burns down. We’ve truly been ‘Burning Through Time.’

So now, what is there left to say? Take a lesson from those that came before you, enjoy yourself. Never take a moment for granted, because you’ll never again have that moment to relive. Never put off till tomorrow what you can accomplish, or see, or experience today, because who knows when the next opportunity may arise.

Enjoy your time at W&L, and in Lexington, for no matter what your feelings are about this school, whether you are a super-senior who never wants to graduate, or someone who’s planning on graduating and getting out as fast as you humanly can, these are your college years, and this is your college. So throw care to the wind, drop your inhibitions, and love your time here, even if you don’t love the school itself. As a senior whose college days are numbered, you don’t have to take my words as infallible, but take them as what they are offered as, advice from someone who has seen the time pass by so quickly so that we seem to have been Burning Through Time...Just A Few Thoughts from:

Freshmen Move-In

President Burish quickly ingratiated himself with the freshman class of '06 by helping new students move into the dorms.

In a move that shocked and surprised many, B&G forbade the use of cinderblocks in the dorms this year, because they were tired of having to clean them out at the end of each school year in June.

Above, the chaos that is Move-In day takes hold of the BDG quad, as parents and students quickly try and get all their stuff inside before the rain hits.

At left, every father's greatest fear for his daughter is to see a shirt like this immediately after stepping out of his car.

Perhaps a little happy to see the freshmen moving in, B&G acts a little goofy for the camera.

Above, parents and students both suffered through the long lines and confusing, meandering system of freshman check-in.

At left, Elizabeth Wilson helps serve up lunch to the hungry families on move-in day.

Below, Susan Woodward and Beth Gray get caught gossiping in the Theta Sorority house during Parents Weekend festivities. No doubt they were exchanging stories about their parents' crazy antics the night before.

Homecoming

At left, Homecoming is especially popular among parents who graduated from W&L and whose children also attend here, as attested to in this picture.

Below, newly appointed Provost Boestch, takes a leisurely stroll after the Homecoming game to work off some of the wonderful food that he ate at Tailgate.

At left, a happy mother and daughter enjoy Parents Weekend. Mom is thinking about the evening's cocktail parties, while the daughter is anxiously awaiting a trip to Walmart on Daddy's credit card.

Below, one of the many things parents aren't used to when they come to visit is the amount of walking they have to do.

Parent's Weekend

At left, Phi Kappa Sigma Alums Bob Thomas '79 and Glenn Moore '69, reminisce with each other about their old college days.

Below, "Did you SEE my parents last night? I can't believe they would embarrass me like that!" A conversation often heard once the parents are out of earshot...

At left, Matt Dougherty and the male capella group Southern Comfort lull the audience with their sweet voices and hilarious antics on stage.

Christmas Weekend

At right, Dan Walker, Joe Vita (Santa), and Andrew Spey sing Christmas Carols at the Beta house over Christmas Weekend.

Drew Lawhorne takes a couple direct hits in the Beta House Christmas Weekend foodfight.

The W&S Cheerleading Program began in the spring of 2000. This year, the squad cheered at home football games, selected away football games, and Men's and Women's basketball games. They do intermediate level stunting, jumping and tumbling and practice 3-4 times a week. They hope to compete in the Old Dominion Athletic Conference competition in March of 2003.

Try-outs for the 2002-2003 season were held August 29 and 30th for incoming freshmen. They are excited to have five new freshmen cheering with them this fall!

The Zeta Iota Chapter of Kappa Alpha Theta has done it once again! Under the superb leadership of President Diane Averyt and our newest President Kate Leggett, the Thetas made the most of the 2002-2003 school year. In academics, these shining stars led the way. We had girls initiated into Phi Beta Kappa, Phi Eta Sigma, ODK, and the Order of Omega. As for campus organizations- you name it, we were there: EC, SJC, FOC, SRC, KEWL, SAMS, Nabors Service League, FD Steering Committee, Kathekon, Jubilee, Mock Convention, and the list goes on. Of course, in true Theta fashion, our girls were star athletes on the cross-country, field hockey, soccer, volleyball, basketball, cheerleading, riding, swimming, tennis, and lacrosse teams on campus.

Theta girls busied themselves with a fun social calendar this year. We partied from Redneck Ball, Caddyshack, Tacky Prom, Pretty in Pink, and Twin Stars to Playboy Mansion, Millionaires and Trophy-Wives, Mash Bash, Find a Mr. for your Sister, Kite and Key, and Spring Fling. Oh, don't forget that we were also the 2002 Derby Days Champions! Theta girls also reached out to the community in our annual 5K Run and Pancake Breakfast for CASA, Valentine's Day Rose Sale for the American Heart Association, and in our co-sponsored blood drive for the Red Cross. Not to brag about winners again, but we owe a shout-out to the freshmen Theta rockstars who took home a second place win in the annual W&L lip sync contest to benefit SARAH!

Recruitment 2003 was a huge success. We were blessed to receive 38 of the most well-round girls on campus! They are sure to carry on the fine Theta tradition of excellency, picking up where our amazing seniors left off. We love our senior girls, and we will miss them. We wish them luck in all their future endeavors.

These new members are having a fabulous time with their new pludge sisters on Bid Night

The sisters of the Zeta Tau chapter of Kappa Delta had a fantastic 6th year under the leadership of past President Brodie Gregory and current President Amanda Basham. We had a spectacular recruitment and love our fabulous freshmen! Kudos to social chairs Courtney Berry and Lindsey Kneipper for filling our social calendar with date functions like Tacky Prom, Famous Lovers, and our Fall and Spring Formals; and themed mixers like Death by Disco, Revenge of the Nerds, Cinco de Mayo, Doctors and Nurses, and 40's and Floaties. We also made memories at school-wide functions like Fancy Dress, Foxfield, Lip Sync, and tailgating. KD's find time to contribute to many clubs, organizations, and athletic teams on campus. Our sisters are involved in the Mock Convention, Nabors Service League, Kathekon, Freshmen Leadership Committee, Dorm Counselor Staff, Fancy Dress Steering Committee, Freshmen Orientation Committee, University-Shenandoah Symphony Orchestra, University Chorus, Chamber Singers, JubiLee, GASD, and SAB. Our athletes compete like champs in Cross Country, Track, Volleyball, Soccer, Tennis, Lacrosse, Riding, Field Hockey, and Swimming. KD's participate in many philanthropic events throughout the year, such as our Annual 3-on-3 Shamrock Basketball Tournament, 5K Run/Walk, and Big Buddy tutoring programs. Many thanks to those who make our house Sweet Home Kappa Delta- Mama Sara, Mr. Bitz, Pattie, Carolyn, and Zola. We had an awesome year and cannot wait to come back stronger than ever in the fall! Congratulations and best of luck to our graduating seniors- we will miss you!

Kappa's strong commitment to community involvement and leadership continued under Presidents Julia Simmons '03 and Blair Sanzone '04. Kappas made countless contributions to all different facets of W&L. Many Kappas were out on the athletic fields during the year contributing to the soccer, field hockey, lacrosse, tennis, and track teams. Several members were named Academic All-Americans on their varsity teams. Several members were also initiated into Phi Beta Kappa, ODK, and Phi Eta Sigma. In addition to academics and athletics, Kappas made significant contributions to our campus through their positions on several different campus organizations including the Executive Committee, the Fancy Dress Steering Committee, GCF, Kathekon, Arete, Nabors Service League, and Habitat for Humanity. Numerous Kappas were also nominated for the Unsung General Award. Senior Harrison White organized a wonderful 5k run to raise money to help fight neuroblastoma cancer. Senior Kathleen Gibson won the title of 2002 Homecoming Queen. Junior Helen Hughes was elected to be next year's Executive Committee President. Of course, there was always time for some fun. Kappas had a great time at school-wide functions such as Fancy Dress, A Night To Remember, Lip Synch, Derby Days and tailgates. They also enjoyed the Kappa Fall and Spring Formals, Famous Lovers, Kite and Key, the Kappa Bowl-A-Thon, and several other fraternity and sorority events. As always, rush was an absolute success and we initiated a fabulous new pledge class that has already exemplified the united characteristics that Kappa holds true. We have truly had a fantastic year! We want to thank Steph, Sue, Brenda, Boo and Mrs. G for making the Kappa House a wonderful place to be. We also want to wish our graduating Seniors the best of luck...you have been such a great part of our chapter and you will be missed!

Kappa Freshmen Emily Bisso, Gina Von Sternberg, Blair Brading, Rachel Williams, Rebecca McRae, and Heather Roger were perfect Catholic School Girls.

Kappa Juniors Kat Emerson, Jisanna Schubert, Blair Sanzone, Virginia Snider, and Caroline Parker tailgating in the Lill at Wilson Field.

Pi Beta Phi

Virginia Theta
Established 1992

This year has seen a lot of excitement for the ladies of the Virginia Theta chapter of Pi Beta Phi. We have been busy all over campus in all sorts of activities including FOC, LIFE, GCF, RUF, SRC, Chamber Singers, University Chorus, Wind Ensemble, W&L Dance, KEWL and SAIL. We also have members on the riding, swimming, tennis, track, and cross country teams. Our GPA remains high, but we never skipped out on a chance to have a good time. We were front and center when Good Morning America came to campus, and we had the best booth at the Night to Remember. Social events galore, from Beaux and Arrows to My Tie, have kept our social calendars full. We have also served the community through a variety of projects, most notably our Flag Football tournament and the night we took over the D-Hall. With Winter Term came some awesome new sisters who are sure to make our chapter even stronger. We are excited to have them join us, and even more excited about the great things that are certain to come with the new school year.

Lambda Chi Alpha

Gamma Phi
Established 1922

Finally freed from the Head, the brothers of Lambda Chi at long last decided that it was time to "Dominate" in 2002-2003. While resident porr star Skye Justice returned from the Dark Continent to push the Gamma Phi chapter to new heights, the brothers managed to fall to such disgusting depths that even Conner would be proud.

In the fall, the parties were huge, the Keystone was plentiful, and the basement was radioactive. Tropical survived a drought, but the ladies still swallowed, like always. While the Doctor frolicked in the bushes, Mad Dog screamed for "Bring It On Home." VACO and Snack Bar appearances kept Squarrison busy crowd-surfing, while Kiely puked at the Pit, again, to the loud thumping of the relocated International Paki Disco.

Motivated by the idle threats of Big Bird, the brothers began a streak of intramural domination that would make even the Fiji Army cower in confused fear. Big Tex's left arm and Pete "The X-factor" Miller brought the Lambdachees up from the cellar and into the football playoffs. Pops remained "Unstoppable" in all things racquet, but the Arkin's Diet brought a temporary retirement, allowing Schaefer to bring home the bacon. Hell froze over in Winter Term as the Lambdas found themselves tied for first place – and then the world stopped spinning.

Thanks to the prodding of Hollywood Mellroy, every brother beside Schaefer and Smith went to class, where most did quite well. Brother Ass-Dog tried to keep control as best he could, but Cornthwaite was ready to leave and Imran wanted to wash his sheets. Meanwhile, Fitz filmed it all, Jeb' took pictures, and Schaefer wrote a song or two.

Like a Beamer out of a snow pile, Brother Part-Time surprisingly emerged as a huge Rush contributor. Then Lambda Chi caught a nasty case of the Skrodz. When the smoke cleared, the chapter gained 11, or 14, or 8 new pledges, thanks to fuzzy math. Brother Dieter's reign of terror was merciless as the entire pledge class de-pledged and rejoined 57 times. The Bukkake Kid returned from China, replaced Number One as perennial pledge-favorite, and was awarded with a free trip to the Big Apple, all expenses paid. The new guys couldn't shave, but it was a bonding experience, since Special K became so close to Cody Gavin.

The Capuck was an unexpected loss, and he has certainly been missed. Snuggles also felt it was time to make an early exit. The remaining seniors went to the Palms, except for Bonsi and Farhan McPaki, who shared quality private time at the rescue squad building. Hicks lent the use of his girlfriend for the occasion.

In the future, the Lambda Chi's will continue to put a unique twist on the Ring-Tum Phi, the fine art of dorm counseling, the Two Dead Guys ultimate frisbee team, WIUR, Soccer, Baseball, Tennis, Cross-Country, and, of course, the game of scrabble. We wish our outgoing seniors the best of luck, and hope that they will continue to contribute (hint hint) to the house that they managed to save.

Well, at least we can tell the party scene at W&L hasn't changed much since this picture appeared in the 1972 Calyx... W&L students all know when its time to party.

For Patrick Lawler's Graduation From Your Family with Love

Each and every day you've looked at the mountains.
The sunsets have come and gone.
Some you've seen, others have been missed.
But like the steadfast hills around you,
You have made a commitment to your visions.
Your dreams have been ours, too.

Go now into your future with your heart and your mind.
Carry with you the undying strength of the mountains.
The dance of the rivers-clear and bright.
The ageless elemental beauty of the Virginia farmland.

The warmth of her sunsets and the clarity of her mountain air.
These gifts of Virginia will embrace you wherever you go.
They are a part of you now.

Hear the songs of the wild, fresh, yet nourishing land.
They are the earth's own air.
They must truly be the heartbeat of the earth.
Timeless songs; passionate and guiding.
Listen to the music. Follow your heart.
With your memories, your newfound knowledge and visions.
As you become ready to leave,
Please know we will be traveling with you on your journey.

Chris,
 We are very proud of you. Keep your sense of humor and always believe in yourself. Your future is bright and

Blair Huffman . . . We Hope You Dance

We have the same hopes and dreams for you as you graduate from college that we had for you when you started kindergarten at age 4 ½. They are that...

- ...you remain the unique individual you are. It's what makes you so special to so many people.
- ...there is no obstacle in your path that cannot be overcome.
- ...you realize the full potential that is deep inside you. Never sell yourself short.
- ...you use every challenge and every problem that you encounter to grow and gain strength.
- ...you believe in the impossible, hold tight to the incredible, and live each day to it's fullest. You can make a difference in your world and the world of others.
- ...you never take for granted those things closest to your heart. Cling to them as you would your life.
- ...you're never afraid to admit that you are less than perfect. Give all that you have and be content in the satisfaction that you hold nothing back.
- ...you continue to dream. To be without dreams is to be without hope. Believe in tomorrow because it holds the key to your dreams.
- ...you have the courage to refuse to quit even when you're intimidated by what appears to be impossibility.
- ...you to carry the knowledge deep in your heart that no matter where your path leads, there will never be a moment in time when you are alone. We will always be with you, love you, and support you.

There is a saying that you "can't choose your family but you can choose your friends". Given a choice of any daughter in the universe...our choice would always be you. You have always and will always make us proud.

“I dare say you haven’t had much practice,” said the Queen.

“When I was your age, I always did it for half an hour a day. Why sometimes I’ve believed as many as six impossible things before breakfast.”

SPECIAL THANKS GOES OUT TO KATHIE HOWELL, JEB BROOKS AND THE ENTIRE STAFF OF THE 2002-2003 RING-TUM PHI

The 2003 Calyx was produced by Josten Publishing at their Winston-Salem, North Carolina plant. The book is 408 pages including 144 pages of full color. The largest and most colorful book in W&I history. The theme was developed by the Editor in the Fall of 2002 with the help of his staff. The cover was designed by Neal Willetts, with special assistance from Cory Foley. The staff would like to thank our Josten's representative, Jay Hollis. Our deepest appreciation goes to Carol Calkin for her understanding, patience and kindness with us during the year. Without her guidance there would probably not be a Calyx. Also, thanks to the business office, the Executive Committee, the Ring-tum Phi Publications Office, Dean Howison, and the faculty, staff and student body of W&I for their support in producing this annual. Also, Mr. Brian Laubscher and the Sport Information Desk and Website have been an invaluable tool in the production of this annual. The Editor also wishes to take this opportunity to wish the staff's graduating seniors. Allison Shank & Becky Mosis, thank you so much for your hard work over the years. Katie Frusti, three time business manager and Co-Editor while Neal was abroad, thank you for everything. Neal, you couldn't have done it without you. Neal Willetts, three time Editor-in-Chief, I can't really thank myself, but I just want to say it's been worth it, and I've enjoyed every minute of it (even the stress)! Noble & Kelly Jo-Good luck next year! I know you can do it! The Calyx is made available to all students for free in the fall of the following year, and is available to all alumni, faculty, staff and the administration for a fee of $50.
