FALL HOPS BIG SUCCESS

Hundred Girls and Wright's Music Make Social Diversion Welcome

The annual terpsichorean festivities connected with Thanksgiving opened last Monday night in the Gymnasium with a brilliant Cotillion given by the Sophomore Class. This was followed by a dansant in the Library in honor of the football team, while the brief social events were brought to a close last night with the Cotillion Club German.

The attendance on the dances numbered approximately a hundred girls and Old Man Wright, though not up to his usual standard, played very pleasant music until the wee small hours of morning.

SOPHOMORE COTILLION

The Sophomore Cotillion Monday night was led by President B. H. Arbogast with Miss Katherine Holt of Staunton, Va., assisted by R. S. Cherry with Miss Evelyn Ray of Lynchburg, Va.

Those dancing were:

- Miss Anna Baldrock, Lynchburg, Va., with L. G. Benford.
- Miss Kate Roberts, Sweet Briar, with J. P. Hill.
- Miss Kitty Chesterman, Lynchburg, Va., with L. S. Musgrove.
- Miss Ruth Cooper, Salem, Va., with Joe Engleby.
- Miss Virginia Smith, Covington, Va., with R. B. Price.
- Miss Elizabeth Miller, Charlotte, N. C., with Frank Lovett.
- Miss Rudine Bech, Atlanta, Ga., with S. H. St. Clair.
- Miss Sara White, Lexington, Va., with F. D. Compton.
- Miss Jean Lowry, Lynchburg, Va., with H. F. Madison.
- Miss Billie Burkes, Farmville, Va., with Cal McLeod.
- Miss Kittie Ballard, Welch, W. Va., with E. A. Hansbarger.
- Miss Janet Melon, Charlotte, N. C., with P. D. Howerton.

GENERALS CLOSE FOOTBALL SEASON TRIUMPHANT

Tulane Defeated in Thanksgiving Battle 7 to 0---Score Made by Raines in First Quarter

Wallowing ankle deep in mud, and in a continuous downpour of rain, the Generals added the final Chapter to the history of the 1919 Football Season, as they defeated the Tulane Greenbacks 7 to 0, thereby winning the Southern Championship title.

The game was fought in a sea of slush and was bitterly contested throughout the whole four periods. The Generals' lone tally came in the first quarter of the game after Tulane receiving a punt on W. & L.'s 40 yard line had worked the ball to the General's 20 yard line by a beautiful pass, Smith to Wight. Smith fell back to pass again, but as he drew back his arm for the throw the tricky oval rolled off of his outstretched palm behind him. Quick as a flash Corbett, who was rushing in to block the pass, swerved aside from Smith, scooped up the oval in full stride and dashed 70 yards to Tulane's 20 yard line before being downed by this same Smith. On the next play Sammy Raines, at his best, shot off right tackle, cut in and twirling and side stepping, averted the secondary defense and ran 20 yards for Washington and Lee's touchdown. Bethel kicked out to Silverstein, who made a perfect catch and Jimmy Mattox kicked goal without any trouble.

The game was fought from start to finish and was strangely similar to the Davidson game in that Tulane's bast attack lay in long end runs behind good interference and the use of the forward pass. On a dry field Washington and Lee would have doubtless run up a high score; her backs repeatedly lost their footing and fumbles were by no means few, then, too, the advantage was all with the lighter eleven, who could lie down in the line and in that mud were impassable unless hurled. A fair comparison between the two teams is best found in the number of first downs made, Washington and Lee counting 11 against 4 for Tulane. The Generals also had the ball on Tulane's 7 yard line three times and the half closed with it on their 10 yard line while Tulane only got the pigskin within W. & L.'s 20 yard line twice and one of these by a penalty.

Raines in the backfield played beautiful ball, making two 20 yard runs, one of which scored. His defensive work was exceptional, especially his breaking up of forward passes. Corbett on one end and Daves on the other continually outplayed their opponents, never allowing them to go down on a pass by smashing them into the line, and Corbett got loose for two long passes of 25 yards and 22 yard gains each. Captain Bethel, playing his last game for the White and Blue, covered himself with glory as well as mud. Time and again he would smear the play while it was still in its embryonic stage and even on the sloppy field he always seemed to open up a hole.

For Tulane, Nagle, the wiry little quarterback, starred. Fast as lightning and shifty on his feet, he accounted for most of their gains and but for the fact that he stepped out of bounds a few inches would have had a touchdown which resulted from a broken field run of 70 yards, but he did step out and the ball was returned to midfield. Richeson at right end likewise played a beautiful game for the Olive and Blue. He was always the first man down under punts, one of which he recovered after a fumble and his tackling was hard and sure.

The continuous downpour all day did not keep real football enthusiasts indoors and about 3,000 loyal souls braved the elements to witness the contest. There were approximately 150 alumni present, who were ably led by "Cy" Young, officiating as Cheer Leader. Besides "Cy" among the alumni present were J. B. Atkins, Tommy Standifer, Roy and Paul Bryant, "Cot" Henley, L. K. Reddit, "Boots" and "Hooks" Gladney, Gus Fritchie, and a host of others, whose names appear on the alumni page.

DEBATING COUNCIL HAS IMPORTANT MEETING

Challenges From Several Colleges Being Considered — Council Favors Inter-Class Debating

Inter-collegiate debating, inter-class debating, and Literary Society work were discussed, and challenges for debates from West Virginia, George Washington, Pittsburg, Trinity, Davidson, Emory College, and Vanderbilt were considered at the meeting of the Debating Council last week.

Of especial interest is the fact that a triangular debate between George Washington, Pittsburg, and Washington and Lee is imminent. This, if it materializes, will necessitate two debating teams for Washington and Lee, and will mean that both Pitt. and Geo. Washington will be seen in action here. With this important engagement almost assured, and so many other schools applying for dates, a bigger debating season than we have known for years is in prospect.

The Council expressed itself as being heartily in favor of inter-class debates, and very deeply interested in the work of the Literary Society, which is the training school for intercollegiate debaters. It is the wish of the Council that the Graham-Washington Society, which is rapidly getting upon a pre-war footing, shall soon be divided into the old Graham-Lee and Washington Societies, in order that the element of competition between the societies may be brought into play.

Forensic work, debating and oratory, is one branch of inter-collegiate activities in which Washington and Lee has not shone as she should have one great element of training which our university has sadly neglected. With the energetic attitude that the Debating council has assumed this year, only the enthusiastic support and interest of the Student Body are needed to make us as famous in the world of brain as we are in the world of brawn.

ENJOYABLE RECEPTION GIVEN TO FOOTBALL MEN

Sweaters and Gold Footballs Given Team and Loving Cup Given to Coach

The "Fighting Generals" received their last formal tribute of 1919 yesterday afternoon at an enjoyable reception in the University Library. The entire Student Body and their visiting friends packed the building to the doors, and gave evidence of the Fighting spirit which has backed the team throughout its triumphant season. Further enthusiasm was aroused by the opening and intermittent selections by the W. & L. Shell Shock Jazz Kings.

IN MEMORIAM

November 22, 1919.

One year ago today services were held for the late Charles Allison Menkemeller and he was laid to rest in quiet Greenwood.

His brilliant young life—full of love, honor and truth, ever remains a sacred memory to all who knew him and loved him.

—Wheeling Register.

Charles Menkemeller was a Washington and Lee Alumnus, having received his degree in Law in 1915.

He was a member of the Kappa Sigma, Delta Theta Phi and White Friar Fraternities.

Ensign William McC. Junkin, U. S. Navy, who is still retained in the service having enlisted early in the war, visited his mother, Mrs. William Junkin, in Lexington during the week. He is now stationed at Newport, R. I.

J. Shirley Riley, '16, is a visitor at the Sigma Chi House for the dances.

Lester J. Fox, ex-'21, of Chattanooga, Tenn., has accepted an offer from the Million Dollar Campaign officials to enlist among the speaking corps in putting the campaign across. Accordingly, he started out on his itinerary last week.

C. H. Patterson, who is teaching in Danville, Va., is a visitor at Washington and Lee.

McKown and wife were visitors at the Alpha Chi Rho House during the past week. After leaving Washington and Lee, McKown enlisted in the French Flying Corps, and is credited with three hundred hours over the German lines.

"Al" Pierotti, famous as the impregnable pivot of the Generals' line in former years, is a visitor at the University.

J. G. Glass, familiarly known as "Rosy," is visiting his Alma Mater. He is engaged in business in Cuero, Texas.

J. A. Mahoney, '17, of Bristol, Va., is a visitor at the Phi Gamma Delta House.

R. W. Fowlkes, '15, spent Sunday at the Phi Kappa Sigma House. He is at present a medical student at the University of Virginia, and a candidate for a degree this year.

"Dick" Watts, '18, former W. & L. athlete, is in town for the dances this week. He is living at present in Rome, Ga.

J. P. ("Smack") Garlington, '17, is a visitor at W. & L. Since leaving school he has seen service in the army, and is now engaged in the insurance business in New York.

Private James J. White, U. S. tank service, who was invalided back to the United States from France in the spring and has since been under treatment in the Walter Reid hospital in Washington, reached his home in Lexington Tuesday, to the great gratification of many friends, to spend the Thanksgiving holiday.

Mr. E. L. Graham, et al,
Executive Committee of Soldiers' and Sailors' Memorial at Washington and Lee University, Lexington, Va.

Dear Sir:

Your letter of November 12th reached me yesterday, and I take great pleasure in herewith enclosing check as my contribution to the Washington and Lee Memorial Gateway, to be erected on the campus of Washington and Lee University. As an old alumnus of Washington and Lee, I wish you success in the undertaking, which the Alumni members who gave up their lives in such a just cause justly deserve, to commemorate the action taken by members who either returned, or were willing to enter this strife.

I wish you every success in this undertaking and beg to remain,

Yours very truly,

ALBERT STEVES.

Mr. Steves is a prominent alumnus of the University, and is a member of the Executive Committee of the Alumni Association, Inc.

GENERALS CLOSE GRIDIRON SEASON TRIUMPHANT

First Quarter

Washington and Lee won the toss and selected to receive. While in their positions the men rubbed rosin on the their hands to insure a firm hold on the ball. Benny Smith kicked out of bounds and on the second kick off it rolled over the goal line for a touchdown. The ball was put into play on W. & L.'s 20 yard line. McDonald got 1 yard at left guard and Silverstein found another in the same place. Mattox failed to gain through the line and Silverstein circled right end for 9 yard and first down.

Silverstein stepped out of bounds for no gain. Tulane was penalized 5 yards for offside. Sammy Raines got a yard around left end. Mattox shot over center for 2 yards and then picked up another at right tackle, on punt formation, Mattox fumbled and recovered end, the ball went over to Tulane on the White and Blue's 20 yard line.

In two plays, one at the line and the other directed at right end the Greenbacks could gain nothing. A forward pass intended for the hands of right end Wright was pulled down by Sammy Raines and on the first play he went over left tackle for 2 yards. Bullet Joe could not gain around right end and Jimmy Mattox punted 20 yards to Nagle, who was downed in his tracks.

The Olive and Blue's ball on the Generals' 40 yard line. Fields got 7 yards around right end, a perfect pass, Smith to Wight, netted 14 yds. and placed the ball on W. & L.'s 20 yard line. Fields got 4 at right tackle and on the next play Smith fumbled and Corbett swooping down on the pigskin like a hawk picked it up and traveled 70 yards before he was downed on his opponents' 20 yard line.

Raines in a pretty exhibition of broken field running evaded all tacklers and crossed the goal line for a 20 yard run. Bethel punted out, Silverstein catching and Mattox kicked an easy goal.

Mattox kicked off to Wight on Tulane's 20 yard line, who returned 5, Daves downed him. At attempt to come around Corbett's end was frustrated for no gain. Tulane was penalized 5 yards for offside. On a criss cross end around end play Benny Smith lost a yard. Bookant shot through left tackle for 5 yards and the quarter was up. Ball in Tulane's possession on her own 30 yard line.

Score—W. & L., 7; Tulane, 0.

Second Quarter

Smith punted 40 yards out of bounds to Mattox. Jimmy swam around right end for 7 yards and twice was taken out for Big Ed Bailey who had hurt his leg. Here the Generals started another steady march down the field. Raines hit left tackle for 2 yards and Mattox got first down over center.

McDonald hit left tackle twice for 6 and 3 yard gains. Mattox got another first down over Paget. Raines circled right end for 20 yards more and still another first down.

McDonald got 3 at left guard and Tulane was offside for a 5 yard penalty. Silverstein crashed through the line for 8 yards, but Mattox failed to gain at right tackle. A pass, Mattox to Corbett, was intercepted by Bernie Williams playing defensive fullback for Tulane and he punted out of danger from his own 7 yard line.

W. & L.'s ball on Tulane's 25 yard line. Raines circled right end for 3, and Mattox failed to gain. The referee saw fit to penalize the Generals 15 yards, putting the ball on the 40 yard line. A magnificent pass Mattox to Corbett, netted 25 yards and first down. McDonald got 3 through left guard and Silverstein found 2 more at center. McDonald hit right tackle for 4 yards, but failed to gain the necessary yard on the next play and the ball went over on Tulane's 5 yard line. Williams standing behind his own goal line punted 15 yards to Mattox.

Silverstein's ankle began to give him trouble and Mattox replaced him at half. Cogbill taking Mattox's place at quarter. Raines failed to gain for the first time in the game. McDonald knocked off 5 yards at right tackle. Again the referee saw fit to penalize the Generals 15 yds. Dwyer replaced Fields at left half for Tulane. Raines got 3 yards at left tackle and a forward pass was incomplete. Mattox was the epitome of coolness in getting off his punt with men all around him, and kicked over the goal line. The ball was put in play on the 20 yard line.

Dwyer got 4 yards at right tackle and Williams punted 25 yards to Mac Cogbill, who came back strong for 20 yards shaking off at least four would-be tacklers. Raines hurled himself through left tackle for 7 yds. McDonald got 5 more at first down at the opposite side of the line.

Cogbill got 2 yards at left guard, and Raines a couple more at right tackle. Maloney replaced Johnny Wight at right end who had to be carried off the field with a broken blood vessel in his leg. Mattox shot a short pass to Daves, who fumbled and Tulane recovered on their own 10 yard line. Before another play could be run the whistle blew and the half was over. Score—W. & L., 7; Tulane, 0.

Third Quarter

Mattox kicked off to Maloney on his 20 yard line, who returned 10; Tulane fumbled, Bookont recovered, but lost 3 yards. Nagle got 6 at right tackle. Smith punted 40 yards for a touch back and the Generals were given the ball on their own 20 yard line. McDonald got 2 at right guard and Mattox picked up 7 off left guard. W. & L. fumbled but Mattox recovered. Mattox punted 40 yards to Nagle, who returned 20 yards. This would have been a touchdown for the Greenbacks, but for the fact that Nagle's left foot stepped out of bounds after he had run 2 yards.

Tulane's ball on W. & L.'s 40 yard line. Here the Blue line held like a stone wall. Bookont failed to gain through the line. Ollie Daves smeared Nagle for a 10 yard loss. A pass, Smith to Richeson, was incomplete, due to the fact that Daves smashed him back into the line before the ball had left the passer's hands, but the referee ruled it interference and penalized the White and Blue 15 yards. Tulane failed to gain through line and then lost 5 yards on the next play. A pass was incomplete and Tulane was penalized 15 yards for holding. A pass, Smith to Nagle, advanced the ball to the first pole of the 10 yard line. Still 10 to go, Tulane was penalized 5 more for offside. Another pass, Smith to Nagle, advanced the ball 10 yards, still 5 yards remained to make the distance. Two more passes were incomplete. (Reader, for your own edification, count the downs here. We make it 8. It

THE FOOTBALL ISSUE

This issue of the Ring-tum Phi constitutes the last regular issue that will be printed prior to the Christmas Holidays. However, it has already been arranged that a special football issue de-luxe shall be published next Tuesday, which will be printed in six columns instead of four as is usual, and will contain a large picture of the football squad, individual pictures of the monogram winners together with cartoons, on the results of our most successful gridiron season.

The issue will be printed on a much better grade of paper than is used each week and will have in it not only a resume of the entire season, but also short individual write-ups and statistics on every member of the 1919 team. We also hope to print as many quotations as possible from other papers, showing what judges of the sport realm think of our Champions of the South.

One copy of this publication will be sent to each regular subscriber of the Ring-tum Phi free of charge, but most of our subscribers will want extra copies. The management has arranged to print extra copies for all who want them at a small extra charge. So get in touch with Manager Bryan and fix the matter up.

Any one knowing of articles in any newspaper telling of the strength, success, etc., of the 1919 Generals will help make the football issue a success by letting the editor know about them.

Dr. and Mrs. James Robert Howerston, of Lexington, Va., announce the engagement of their daughter, Mary Arney, to William Stanhope Tutwiler, of Savannah, Ga. The wedding will take place on December 25, 1919. There will be no cards.

LETTERS FROM OUR READERS

For the Ring-tum Phi:
 It has come to my attention that different students, finding that the door to my office is unlocked during the evenings, feel that that is sufficient permission for them to make free use of the typewriters in the office.
 I wish to call the attention of the student body to the fact that the administrative offices are not left open that the students may use the typewriters and supplies therein but because we have heretofore felt that we could rely upon the honor system to protect the offices from trespass. Will the students please bear in mind that the machines and supplies kept in my office are not for public use and that the administration offices are not left open for their convenience.

 Secretary to the President.

P. A. N.'s Present "Shimmie Not" — White Friars Hold Banquet at Dutch Inn

Pi Alpha Mu
 On Monday afternoon the "racey" Musical Comedy, "Shimmie Not," was presented at the Lyric Theater by the "goats" of the Pi Alpha Mu Ribbon Society. The entire "goat body" are entitled to the credit for the entertaining production, but especially do the "end men," Locke and Scott, deserve honorable mention. All characters played their parts unusually well, Miss (?) Haines and Barker in their bowery dance and the six "Shimmie queens" probably being the most popular roles of the cast.

WHITE FRIARS

The White Friar Ribbon Society show which was scheduled for Tuesday afternoon did not materialize. However, this seemed to have been the plans of the society for instead the White Friars assembled at the Dutch Inn to partake in a banquet where there tables spread for the old men and goats with their partners. The Inn was handsomely decorated with the colors of the society and a boquet of carnations bedecked each table. There were favors for each girl which contained a list of the members of the society and also a prettily designed White Friar insignia. The party ended just before the Cotillion Club German.

GRAHAM-WASHINGTON SOCIETY ELECTS OFFICERS

A very interesting meeting of the Graham-Washington Literary Society was held Saturday night, at which the officers for the next term were elected. Mr. B. A. Davis was elected president, Mr. P. Grissom, vice-president; Mr. F. Flournoy, secretary; Mr. E. W. Poindexter, treasurer; Mr. R. M. Bear, censor; and Mr. H. F. Madison, critic. Mr. J. W. Bowyer was selected to write up the meetings of the society for the Ring-tum Phi. The new Judiciary Committee is composed of the following men: Messrs. Parks, Messino, Townsend, Baber and Deaver.

A motion was brought before the society to the effect that the two societies continue as one society during the next term during which time the question of the division of the society into the old Graham-Lee and Washington Literary Society shall be definitely decided. This motion will be acted upon at the next regular meeting of the society.

It was also moved and passed that the next meeting to be held Dec. 6 will be the last before Christmas. The program for that date should be of especial interest. Mr. G. F. Mitchell will deliver an oration. Messrs. Townsend and Warren will endeavor to prove "that the so-called and now proposed Budget System of Finances should be adopted by the National Government." The negative side of the question will be upheld by Messrs. Beatty and Grimely. An unusually hot discussion is expected.

W. & L. REPRESENTED AT STUDENT VOLUNTEER CONFERENCE

The Y. M. C. A. Secretary and Six Students To Go As Delegates

Washington and Lee will be represented at the Quadrennial International Student Volunteer Convention, held in Des Moines, Iowa, from December 31 to January 4, by E. B. Shultz and six students.

It is certain that C. G. G. Moss, L. A. Cushman, W. E. Holt, Jr., and S. H. St. Clair will go, and the following men have been asked to consider the matter: H. T. Garard, W. F. Stephens, J. S. Hawkins and Dan Blain. Of these four, only two will make the trip since the colleges of America are allowed only one student representative for each one hundred in attendance.

Thermometers are not the only things without brains that are graduated.

FALL OPENING

The young man of today is particular about his clothes.

He insists upon quality, of course; GOOD FABRICS, HONEST TAILORING, all of the points which mean long, serviceable wear.

But he insists on more. He must have THE BEST and LATEST STYLE; he wants to dress appropriately to his age and style.

We sell ALCO Clothes because after careful examination of all good lines we find in them the very qualities which appeal to young men.

Alco Clothes are made of ALL WOOL STANDARD FABRICS exclusively; they are hand tailored by experts, and, above all, they represent the last word in snappy, up-to-date style.

The prices are strikingly low when the quality and style are considered.

We sell Florsheim, Walkover & Packard Shoes. Make Suits to order. Fit guaranteed.

GENERALS CLOSE GRIDIRON SEASON TRIUMPHANT

Raines got 5 yards off left tackle, and Mattox added 3 more in the same place. Tulane was offside and a 5 yard penalty was added. Mattox circled right end for 3 yards and Raines shot off left tackle for 4. A fumble was recovered by Mattox, who kicked 20 yards on the next play, Corbett downing the ball.

Tulane's ball on her own 45 yard line. Nagle got 10 yards around right end, but was called back to suffer a penalty of 5 yards. Dwyer could only get 1 at left tackle. A forward pass was unsuccessful, and Smith punted 60 yards over the goal line for a touch back.

Raines got 6 yards off right tackle, and Mattox squirmed through for 5 more at left tackle and first down. Cogbill wiggled through right tackle for 6 more and the quarter was up with the ball in W. & L.'s possession on her own 37 yard line.

Fourth Quarter

Raines hit left tackle for 3 yards and Mattox got a foot over center. Cogbill made it first down in the same place. Mattox got 8 more over right guard, Sanford cleaning the way and Jimmy repeated with three more at right tackle for first down. A forward pass, Mattox to Corbett, netted 22 yards and first down.

The ball now on Tulane's 20 yard line. Mattox picked up 2 at center, and a pass, Mattox to Corbett, was intercepted by Maloney on his own 10 yard line. He returned 15. An end run over Daves lost 1 for the Greenbacks. Tulane fumbled and W. & L. recovered. McDonald got 2 over right tackle, and a fumble was recovered by Mattox with the loss of a yard. A fumble by Mattox was recovered by Benny Smith for Tulane, who promptly kicked 40 yards to Cogbill, who returned 10.

McDonald lost 2 on an attempted end run. Mattox circled right end for 6 yards. W. & L. kicked an on-side kick which failed to materialize, Nagle catching it on the fly. Stevens went in for Mattox, who in turn replaced Cogbill.

Tulane's ball on their 20 yard line. Dwyer fumbled losing 6 and Smith punted 40 yards to Stevens, who fumbled. Richeson recovering for Tulane. A forward pass was incomplete. Bookont was tackled by Moore for a 2 yard loss. A pass, Smith to Bookont, placed the ball on W. & L.'s 20 yard line. Nagle gained 2 yards. A forward pass was incomplete. A fake end run calminating in a forward pass was incomplete. A long pass over the goal line was almost good, but not quite good enough, and the ball went over.

McDonald lost 2 yards. Raines failed to gain, but picked up 6 yards at right tackle. Mattox punted 40 yards to Nagle, who returned 5 yds.

Tulane's ball on her 30 yard line. Williams on an end around end play handed the ball in turn to Richeson on the other end who doubled back for a gain of 7 yards. W. & L. was penalized 15 yards and on the next play Tulane suffered the same penalty. Paget being the unfortunate one to suffer. He was hit on the head and Collins replaced him.

McGraw went in for Bookont at right halfback for Tulane. Tulane attempted three unsuccessful forward passes, the smashing tactics of Daves and Corbet being very effective. A pass to Dwyer was completed but for no gain, and the ball went over.

W. & L.'s ball in midfield. Stevens recovered a fumble and the game was over.

Score—W. & L., 7; Tulane, 0.

The line-up was as follows:

W. & L.	Tulane

Substitutions—W. & L.: Collins for Paget, Cogbill for Mattox, Mattox for Silverstein, Stevens for Mattox, Mattox for Cogbill.

Tulane—Williams for Wight, Barnes for Stewart, Palenno for Barnes, Dwyer for Fields, McGraw for Bookont.

ENJOYABLE RECEPTION GIVEN TO FOOTBALL MEN

E. P. Davis presided over the meeting, and after a brief tribute to the Team, introduced Dr. "Granny" Campbell.

Dr. Campbell touched upon the various games during the season and showed where the work of the man "Behind the Lines" was displayed. In closing he presented Bill Raftery, Head Coach of the Generals, with a handsome Loving Cup, as a token of appreciation from the Student Body. Coach Raftery responded, both as Coach and as a W. & L. Alumnus, with a tribute to the Team.

Assistant Coach Shultz was presented with a gold watch chain by Dr. L. W. Smith. This completed "Ted's" Time-telling collection, of a watch from the Student Body in 1915, and his Gold football.

An old W. & L. custom was revived—that of presenting the Field Marshal of the "Generals" with a handsome gold watch, as a token of the appreciation for his work. Prof. Williams of the Law School, made this presentation to Capt. Turner Bethel, of the Southern Champions, on the side-lines.

Dr. Pollard presented a Gold watch to Manager Bob McDougale, as being the "Greatest Manager of the greatest team that has played the greatest game for Washington and Lee, the greatest Generals."

Mr. E. L. Graham, Sr., representing the Alumni Association awarded the Monogram Certificates, Sweaters and Gold footballs to the members of the Team. Those receiving these were:

Coach W. C. Raftery, Assistant Coach E. B. Schultz, Capt. E. T. Bethel, Manager McDougale, and O. R. Daves, L. L. Moore, R. P. Sanford, F. M. Paget, E. G. Bailey, J. D. Corbett, M. B. Mattox, L. P. Collins, J. P. Mattox, J. Silverstein, J. W. McDonald, Jr., S. L. Raines, and M. A. Cogbill of the 1919 "Generals" and J. B. Waters, Manager of the 1917 Team.

The Reception was concluded around the Punch Bowl, presided over by Mrs. Powell. The Jazz Kings furnished music that would out-wright Wright for a short Dancesant.

KAPPA SIGMA ENTERTAINS WITH A DANCE

On last Tuesday afternoon the local chapter of the Kappa Sigma Fraternity very delightfully entertained with a small informee dance at their Chapter Home on Letcher Avenue.

Old Man Wright furnished the music for about forty couples, who triped the light fantastic toe from two until four o'clock, when the dance adjourned to permit the guests to attend the football reception in the Library.

It will be to the advantage of every man who is to remain in Lexington during the holidays to sign the paper on the Bulletin Board.
