WASHINGTON AND LEE UNIVERSITY, SATURDAY, APRIL 14, 1900.

NO. 23.

Roanoke Vanquished.

W. & L. U., 4; ROANOKE, 2.

The Chicago platform is no more. It was repudiated on Friday afternoon. The conquerors of Blacksburg have succumbed to the White and Blue. The team of 1900 has shown its true metal and is looking forward for more worlds to conquer.

The game with Roanoke yesterday afternoon was one of the best played in Lexington for a long time. Both teams played a strong game but our team outclassed their opponents in the field and had they proved equally as strong at the bat the score would have been different.

Our entire team played a brilliant game and the number of errors was reduced to a minimum. Our weakest point was in batting. Burns was a star in the catcher's box and Andrews' pitching was phenomenal. Booker played a brilliant game in left field, and Bagley one equally as brilliant at short, and it is sufficient to say that Crawford and Spencer played a game up to their usual standard.

The game in detail:

1ST INNING.

Lee to Hall to 1st; Crawford hit by pitched ball; pitcher tried to catch him napping on 1st but got to 2nd on throw; Bagley got base on balls; Andrews bunted and sacrificed both to 3rd and 2nd; Booker hit ball to the infield and Crawford in making a bluff for home drew a throw to the plate and got back safely to 2nd; Burns out on grounder to 1st.

For Roanoke, Stivesant, Smith and Reisinger flied out to Bagley.

2ND INNING.

Bledsoe out, 3rd to 1st; Moore and Spencer fanned the air.

Roanoke—Fox flied out to Booker, who made a star catch; Williamson struck out; with two down Bear made a hit, stole second to 3rd on a wild pitch, and Case fanned out.

3RD INNING.

Lee out to 1st; Crawford fanned, and Bagley out short to 1st.

Roanoke—Hall flied out to Booker,

Daughters fanned, and Stivesant out on foul fly to Burns.

4TH INNING.

Andrews hit hot liner to 3rd; Booker safe on a bunt; Burns hit a ball through 2nd and Booker was advanced to 3rd, taking 2nd on the error. Bledsoe hit one rather too speedy for short to handle and scored Booker and Burns. Moore out 2nd to 1st, and Spencer fanned.

Roanoke—Smith out to Spencer, but Reisinger dropped the ball on the wrong side of the net for a home run. Fox out to Booker; Williamson fanned.

W. & L. 2, Roanoke 1.

5TH INNING.

Lee struck out; Crawford out 3rd to 1st (good play); Bagley fouled out.

Roanoke—Bear struck out; Case out on grounder to 1st; Hall out from Bagley (nice play) to Spencer.

6TH INNING.

Andrews drew a base on balls, advanced to 2nd on error by 1st and scored (Bledsoe running) on two passed balls. Booker got a lift on Smith's error, stole 2nd, got 3rd on passed ball, got home on Burns' grounder through Williamson; Burns got 2nd on passed ball and stole 3rd; Bledsoe flied out to 2nd; Moore flied out to Williamson; Spencer out from Case to 1st.

Roanoke—Daughters made a hit, got 2nd on Stivesant's out; Smith flied out to Lee; Reisinger was thrown out by Crawford.

W. & L. 4, Roanoke 1.

7TH INNING.

Lee fanned; Crawford flied out to left; Bagley flied out to center.

Roanoke—Fox out to Booker; Williamson to Bledsoe; Bear got to 1st on muff by Bledsoe, got to 2nd on passed ball; Case out on fly to Burns.

8TH INNING.

Andrews drew another base on ball; Booker struck out; Burns forced Andrews at 2nd; Bledsoe flied out to Bear.

Roanoke—Hall struck out;

Daughters struck out; with two out Stivesant made a hit and stole 2nd; Smith struck out.

9TH INNING.

Moore out on hot grounder, 2nd to 1st; Spencer out to 1st; Lee struck out.

Roanoke—Reisinger flied out to left; Fox out on foul fly to Burns. With two out Williamson got a hit in right; Bear followed with another, scored Williamson on the fielding which followed and when dust had settled had landed on 3rd through Lee's muff and Bagley's low throw, of which Crawford made a pretty stop. But there being no coacher in the neighborhood (moral) Andrews slipped the ball back to Crawford, who caught the runner napping a few seconds later and the game was over.

Alumni Address.

Hon. J. W. Davis of Clarksburg, W. Va., has consented to deliver the address before the Alumni association during commencement week.

Mason and (Prof.) John Graves came to town with their ball team on Tuesday.

President Alderman of North Carolina has been elected to the presidency of Tulane.

W. & L. vs. V. H. S.

The V. M. I. game put the score at the ratio of 16 to 1, but the game on Tuesday placed the score nearer the true ratio according to some authorities—that is, at 31 to 0. Some of the unique features of this remarkable game were the diverting dog fights and the rabbit race taking in the entire circuit of the field. Otherwise, the sight of our boys encircling the bases would have grown monotonous. The visitors, considering their opportunities for training and experience, did well, but they were entirely out of our class.

Dr. Jas. C. Quarles entertained the ball teams last evening.

The cadets will entertain at a hop tonight.

The informal hop given by the students last Wednesday was well attended and was a most enjoyable affair.

In spite of the disagreeable weather quite a number of young ladies were out yesterday to encourage our boys.

The Cadet german next, Friday and the student german the following Tuesday both bid fair to be great successes.

The game with the V. M. I. on last Saturday was a disappointment to all concerned. An agreeable one, however, for the Cadets, who had anticipated defeat; a disagreeable one for us, for we were over-confident of victory. Although the "rattling" of our men by the rooters in the first part of the game seemed to have had a considerable effect in losing the game, the final score was not generally considered as attributable to that fact. It was commonly thought that we were outclassed.

The game with Roanoke, however, dispelled all such illusions. In that game we saw our team transformed and in their right minds, we saw them as they really were; we became aware that they were a tower of strength and realized that the team that played the Cadets was not the team of 1900.

All this has been gratifying and will also be beneficial to the team. It will inspire them with renewed confidence and enable them to continue the good work. There will never be a repetition of Saturday's game unless the score is reversed and the 16 placed opposite Washington and Lee. This indeed is not improbable.

"Rooting" of the right kind has its legitimate place in college athletic contests and should be cultivated by the student body. Every man should come out and encourage the team with his lung powers and other means at command. "Rooting," however, does not include the "guying" of players and the making of personal remarks about them. We have never treated our visiting teams in this way and we never shall as long as the traditional hospitality of W. and L. is maintained.

Personal Mention.

David Barclay is teaching in Pulaski.

Miss Hope Stuart is at home for the holidays.

John C. Dillon came up from Roanoke to spend a day last week.

Miss Rose Harrison is the guest of Miss Mary Quarles.

Mr. Martin P. Burks will be absent from the city for a few days.

Miss Hallie Alexander of Charles Town, is visiting the Misses Wilson.

Miss McGuire of Winchester, is visiting Mrs. J. R. Tucker at Blandome.

Mr. W. S. Robertson of Richmond, is here on a visit to his son, Mr. W. S. Robertson, Jr.

Miss Rosa Tucker and Miss Frances Dillon have left for Charlottesville to attend the Easter dances.

Miss Nellie Brown of Winchester, is stopping with Miss Brockenbrough.

Mrs. Charles A. Logan of Jackson, Ky., arrived in Lexington Tuesday to visit her father, Mr. Henry H. Myers and family.

Miss Thompson of Summit Point, who is attending school in Staunton, is the guest of Miss Maggie Freeland.

Miss Lydia Lee of South Carolina, Miss Myrtle Baker of Kentucky, and Miss Annette Polk of Texas, are spending the Easter holidays with Miss Dillon.

Announcements have been received of the marriage of Mr. Harris Garrow, Jr., C. E. '97, to Miss Martha Francis Delgado of Houston, Tex., on April 25th.

Boat Fund.

Miss Annie White is in receipt of a check for $25 from Mr. Francis C. Welch, a prominent Boston lawyer. As Mr. Welch was a member of the class of '69, before the boat racing days, it shows his interest in the University and her enterprises.

V. M. I. 16; W. and L. 1.

We have met the V. M. I. but alas, they are not ours. This was the impression produced on the minds of those who witnessed the spectacle of last Saturday, but will this impression be lasting is a question which the future will decide. The result of this first contest with our neighbors is explicable in one way alone—we went to pieces.

Several wild throws and reckless plays in the first inning gave the cadets two runs and cast a gloomy feeling over the boys. This, together with the rooting, demoralized them and they never rallied until after the fifth inning, when they played a stiff, strong game until the ending of the ninth.

The game in detail:

The game began with the Washington and Lee boys in the field and Roller, the V. M. I. catcher, at the bat. Roller hit to Bagley, S. C., but reached first McCabe followed, knocking the ball to Lee, who threw Roller out at second and McCabe reached first. Gettys hit to Bagley, S. C., made first and McCabe was thrown out at second. Gettys stole second, then Johnson struck out but Guion fumbled and threw wild to first. Gettys and Johnson came in, Swift struck out, retiring the side.

For W. and L., Lee was first at bat. He hit to Carneil and was thrown out at first. Crawford hit to McCabe but didn't reach first. Bagley, S. C., hit to Gettys and Johnson being off base when ball was thrown, was safe at first. Andrews struck out and side was retired.

2nd inning—V. M. I.: Montgomery hit for first and stole second. Ward struck out, Montgomery stole third and later came in on a passed ball. Hudgins hit to Bagley, S. C., who fumbled, and reached first. Carneil hit to right field, making second and Hudgins came in. Roller fouled and was caught out by Spencer. McCabe hit to left field, reached second and Carneil came in on a wild throw. McCabe stole third with Johnson at bat and came in. Johnson was thrown out at first by Bagley.

W. and L.—Bagley, J. W., struck out, McCabe caught Booker's fly, Bledsoe struck out.

3rd inning—V. M. I.: Swift hit to center for first, stole second and Montgomery was thrown out at first by Lee. Swift went to third, Spencer caught a foul by Ward. Hudgins struck out, ball passed, he reached first and Swift came in. Carneil hit for first, Hudgins went to third. Carneil stole second; Roller hit to center for first and Carneil came to third. Booker caught McCabe's fly and side was out.

W. and L.—Guion fanned, Spencer was put out at first and Lee struck out.

4th inning—V. M. I.: Gettys hit for first, Johnson sent the ball to center, made second and Gettys came to third. Swift was thrown out at first by Crawford. Montgomery hit through Lee, reached second, Gettys and Johnson came in. Montgomery stole third, Ward was thrown out at first, Montgomery came home and Hudgins fanned. Side retired.

W. and L.—Crawford struck out, Bagley, S. C., hit for first, but attempted to steal second and was thrown out. Andrews got a base on balls and Bagley, J. W., struck out.

5th inning.—Carneil struck out but reached first, stole second and came to third on a passed ball. Roller sent the ball to left field fence and Carneil came home. McCabe hit for two bases and attempting to make third was put out by Andrews. Roller scored. Gettys struck out. Johnson hit for first, stole second, and Swift was put out at first by Bagley, S. C.

W. & L.—Booker hit to third and was thrown out at first. Bledsoe was put out at first and Moore caught out on a fly.

Sixth Inning.—V. M. I.: Andrews caught Montgomery's fly, Ward struck out and Hudgins was caught out by Bagley.

W. & L.—Spencer and Lee didn't reach first, Crawford made first on a hit, stole second and Bagley, S. C., struck out.

Seventh Inning.—V. M. I.: Carneil thrown out at first by Crawford, Roller hit through Bledsoe for first and made second. McCabe hit for second, and Roller came in. McCabe stole third, and Gettys was caught out by Lee. Johnston hit through Lee for second and McCabe scored. Swift hit through Crawford and Johnston came in. Montgomery hit for first and Andrews caught Ward's fly.

W. & L.—Andrews and Bagley didn't reach first, Booker hit through Carneil for first and stole second. Bledsoe hit for one base and Booker came in. Bledsoe stole second and came to third on Moore's hit. Spencer was put out on first.

Eighth Inning.—V. M. I.: Hudgins caught out by Andrews. Carneil hit for first and Swift running for him, attempted to steal and was put out. Roller struck out.

W. & L.—Lee put out at first, Crawford was hit by pitcher and went to first. Bagley, S. C., thrown out at first and Crawford made second. Crawford stole third and Montgomery caught Andrews' fly.

Ninth Inning.—V. M. I.: McCabe struck out, Gettys got a base on balls, Johnston thrown out at first by Lee, Gettys reaching second. Smith caught out by Crawford.

W. & L.—Bagley, J. W., hit for two bases, but was put out on third. Booker struck out and Bledsoe was thrown out at first.

Collegian Election.

Very few members of the societies failed to answer to their names on last Saturday night for the reason that the annual election of the editors and business manager of the Southern Collegian was to be held on that night. All the candidates had made a close canvass and there was much speculation as to the result.

When the ballots were counted Mr. Keeble of Texas, was declared elected to the position of editor-in-chief. He is a man well qualified for the position and under his control we hope to see the Collegian returned to her former high standard among college magazines.

Mr. Turner of Georgia, was the successful candidate for assistant editor. He is a new man and has had no opportunity to display his powers but no doubt he will be fully able to meet the requirements of the office.

Mr. W. C. Moore of Virginia, was elected business manager and is a man well fitted for the position.

After the adjournment of the joint session, Mr. Pendleton of Virginia, was elected as one of the representatives of the Graham-Lee society on the Collegian staff.

Mr. Hughes' Address.

As Mr. Tucker said last Wednesday at Chapel, Washington and Lee owes much to Mr. Robert M. Hughes, but we think that the debt is greater on account of his address and not less as the Dean intimated it would be. The speaker began his reminiscences with the founding of William and Mary college in 1667, which he assured the audience he had witnessed, and sketched rapidly some of the leading facts in the history of this oldest of Virginia's institutions of learning. At first the college had but a feeble existence, but in 1691 Parson Blair went over to England and raised funds which gave it a new lease of life. Mr. Hughes showed how absurd the imported-brick theory was and said all that was meant by English brick in colonial times was that they were made after the English fashion.

Sir William Berkley, who was governor of Virginia during Bacon's rebellion, doesn't seem to have been an advocate of education, as he on one occasion prayed that the Almighty would protect Virginia from the spread of learning among the people and also from printing presses. William and Mary continued to be center of education in the colonies up to the revolution and numbered many of the signers of the declaration among her students. William and Mary claims to have discovered George Washington and Thomas Jefferson studied within her walls.

The college has been a great sufferer from fires, the first one being in 1705, another in 1859 and another in 1862. This last one was an outrage, the buildings being set on fire by the Federal troops. When the citizens came up to rescue the priceless library the Fifth Pennsylvania regiment of cavalry drew their sabres and formed a hollow square and refused to let any one try to save a single book. Such vandalism is rarely heard of. Since the war William and Mary has had a hard struggle, its doors being closed for a number of years. The state now appropriates a sum of money annually to its support, in return for the free education which it gives to teachers. The famous P. B. K. society was founded there, into which President Wilson and Dr. H. A. White have recently been initiated.

There were many excellent anecdotes told by Mr. Hughes, which it would be interesting to recall if time permitted. The regulations of the William and Mary faculty in regard to marriage and temperance were most amusing. Since there was an Indian school in connection with the college, he attributed the probable origin of the college yell to this fact. Washington and Lee ought to have such a department to make the yell more often heard. He said in conclusion that he was a believer in the small college as the best place in which to develop individuality and acquire sound scholarship. The attention given the speaker was fine throughout and Washington and Lee will be glad to hear from him again on "Reminiscences" or any other subject he may choose.
