THE RING-TUM PHI.

BY THE STUDENTS AND FOR THE STUDENTS.

VOL. IV.

WASHINGTON AND LEE UNIVERSITY, SATURDAY, MAY 4, 1901.

NO. 26.

Songs.

(Practice and be ready to sing them in Lynchburg.)

TUNE—It's Gwine Back to Dixie.

We came down here to Lynchburg,
We came down here to Lynchburg,
We came down here to lick old U. Va.
O isn't it a shame boys,
They cannot play the game boys,
They are up against the real thing,
And they must play.

TUNE—The Blue and the Gray.

We're the boys of old Virginia,
Of Washington and Lee,
We play the swiftest game of baseball
Which wins us victory,
And the rooting of our students
The colors 're so bright,
Washington and Lee plays foxy
The Blue and the White.

W. L. U., 7; V. P. I., 6.

The game at Roanoke, though in our favor, was the loosest played game W. L. U. has had this season.

For W. L. U., "Bake" opened up with a nice single. Crawford followed with a "homer" over left field fence. Fox then hit into left garden but there was an error and Fox was safe. Andrews fanned. "Smut" hit it in the eye for a single, Fox scoring. Smith went to 2nd on play out of Boogher and then came home on error of shortstop. V. P. I. got her first man up to 2nd but he could get no further.

In the second inning Baker got to 1st on the shortstop's error, Bagley, S. C., and Spencer in the meantime having gone down. "Bake" then scored on the single of Crawford's. V. P. I. did the same work as in the first inning.

The third inning resulted in a goose-egg for both teams.

The fourth inning was opened by "Tit" being safe on 1st on an error of 3rd. Spencer then hit in short's territory, who got the ball to 2nd, cutting "Tit" off, but then erred in delivering the ball to 1st. Spencer then came home on the two-bagger of Baker's and the single of Crawford's.

W. L. U. began to play loosely, and with an error, a hit, a base on balls and four passed balls, V. P. I. netted three runs. The third run in this inning was the result of a base on balls and three passed balls.

In the fifth inning Andrews fouled out. "Smut" got his base on balls but was thrown out at 2nd on the ball being hit to short, Boogher getting 1st on the player's choice. Baker taking the runner's place, stole 2nd and came home on 2nd baseman's error. V. P. I. got her fourth goose-egg.

In the sixth W. L. U. could not make a run, though three men were on bases when the third man went down.

V. P. I. Upon two bases on balls, two errors and a hit down 3rd base line, which was a foul but the umpire did not see it that way, netted them three more runs.

Neither side could do anything further, and the game ended in W. L. U.'s favor.

Below is the score.

Score by Innings:	R. H. E.
W. L. U.—	4 10 1 10 0 0 0—7 10 4
V. P. I.—	0 0 0 3 0 3 0 0 0—6 4 4

Summary—Bases stolen, Baker, Crawford, Boogher, Bagley, J. W., DeCamp, Carpenter, Williams, Ware. Two-base hit, Baker, Smith. Three-base hit, Ware. Home run, Crawford. Double plays, Carpenter to Williams to Walsh; Johnson to Ware to Williams; Hall to Williams to Walsh. Base on balls, Crawford 1, Baker 3, Johnson 3. Bases on hit by pitched ball, Baker 1. Struck out, Crawford 5, Baker 1, Johnson 2. Passed balls, Bagley 5, Walsh 1. Time of game, 1 hr. 50 minutes. Umpire, Michael.

Y. M. C. A.

The association was very fortunate in again having Mr. H. McIlhany to address it on last Sunday afternoon.

After saying that he had no set speech to make, he made a few encouraging remarks upon the successful Bible study which the association had carried through this year. As compared with Greek or mathematics, the study of the Bible is far more important; for the latter provides both culture and practical utility, while the former affords mainly mental training to the great majority of students.

Speaking of the tremendous force and extent of college evils, and of the vast amount of skepticism abroad, he remarked that though we should sometimes be discouraged, we should not lose heart for "the Lord God omnipotent reigneth."

In conclusion Mr. McIlhany asked that as many men as possible go to the Y. M. C. A. conference to be held at Asheville, N. C., June 21-30, inclusive.

W. L. U. vs. V. M. I.

The game Saturday was a pretty one though there were one or two questionable decisions, the run given V. M. I. in the 7th inning being very questionable. In fact, the run was given to V. M. I. not upon any rule of baseball, but at the suggestion of Mr. Wertenbaker to satisfactorily settle the contention of the V. M. I. team.

The features of the game were the marvelous pitching of Baker, the batting of Fox and McCabe—each getting a two bagger and two singles, and the superb fielding of W. L. U., the only place V. M. I. turned the tables, shutting us out the tune of 10 to 0.

Below is the score and detail of the game by innings:

SCORE BY INNINGS.

W. L. U.	R. H. E.
1 0 3 2 0 0 2 0 0—8 10 0
V. M. I.	0 0 0 1 2 0 1 0 0—4 7 10

Summary: Bases stolen—Baker 3, Crawford, Fox, J. W. Bagley 2, Koller, McCabe, Perry 2, Hudgins. Two base hits—Fox; J. W. Bagley, S. C. Bagley, McCabe. Bases on balls—Baker 2, Carneal 1. Bases on hit by pitched ball—By Baker 1, by Carneal 5. Struck out—Baker 14, Carneal 4. Time of game—1 hour 30 minutes. Umpires—Major Marshall and Mr. Robinson.

1ST INNING.

W. L. U. Baker got hit on the leg and trotted to first, stole 2nd and 3rd and came in home on error of Roller's in attempting to catch him at 3rd. Crawford got a hit but was thrown out at 2nd. Fox went to 1st on error of Perry's, but he also "died" there. Andrews got his base on balls, but was left at 1st by "Smut" failing to get the ball past Carneal, who put it to 1st before "Smut" could get there.

V. M. I. Roller didn't touch it. I. Johnson hit it but it fell into Baker's hands. McCabe made three dabs at the ball and the teams changed positions.

Score—W. L. U. 1, V. M. I. 0.

2ND INNING.

W. L. U. Boogher hit to pitcher, out at the 1st bag. Bagley, J. W., got to 1st on error of shortstop, then stole the next two bags. "Tit" struck out. "Lang" got hit but "died" on the 2nd in the attempt to steal.

V. M. I. Perry got a single, stole 2nd. E. Johnson "fanned." Carneal hit to Baker, who threw him out at 1st, Perry going to 3rd. Swift tried hard to hit but he couldn't. He had to be thrown out at 1st, however, but that was "dead easy."

3RD INNING.

W. L. U. "Bake" was sent to 1st on the error of Hudgins, and went to 2nd on Carneal's error in trying to catch him off 1st. He was advanced to 3rd on Crawford's hit. Crawford stole 2nd. Fox got hit and the bags were filled. Andrews hit to 2nd, but McCabe threw wild in attempting to catch Baker, he and Crawford scoring, Fox advancing to 3rd. "Smut" hit the ball into E. Johnson's hand and Fox stole home. Boogher hit to 2nd and failed to reach 1st. "Oom" could do no better, he hitting to Perry, who threw him out at 1st.

V. M. I. could not find Baker's "shoots" this inning.

Score—W. L. U. 4, V. M. I. 0.

4TH INNING.

W. L. U. "Tit" hit it in the eye for a two-bagger, but was caught at 3rd in attempting to steal. "Long" hit it into centre garden, but the fielder who took care of that place failed to take the fly in. "Bake" struck out. Crawford got hit a second time. Fox lined it out for two bags, Spencer and Crawford scoring. Andrews fouled out to Perry.

V. M. I. McCabe got a two-bagger. He was clearly out on 2nd while napping, but as "Smut" was between the umpire and the runner, the umpire called the runner safe. He came home upon the single of Perry's. E. Johnson, Carneal and Swift made three efforts each to hit the ball, but their efforts resulted in the teams changing positions.

Score, W. L. U. 6, V. M. I. 1.

5TH INNING.

W. L. U. Smith hit to 1st, out. Boogher got a single. "Oom" flew out to left. "Tit" hit to 3rd, out at 1st.

V. M. I. Langhorne registered another strike-out to Baker's credit. Hudgins got another base on balls,

Our baseball season is drawing to a close. Behind us is victory in every game save one. Every student, every professor and every alumnus cannot but be gratified at the success of our team. They have done well and we know it. We rejoice with them at the news of every victory. Now is there any doubt in the mind of any student or any professor that the heartfelt enthusiasm and interest of the student body does not go far toward making a team what it should be? We think no one will deny this. We have one more game ahead of us. One that we hope to win, and one we believe we can win. The faculty has given a holiday on that day so that every student may go on the excursion to Lynchburg. Surely every one wants to go; there may be some who can't go, but it is going to be an opportunity that is not often within the reach of all of us. At least 200 students should go. It will cost but little and be of great benefit to the team, to say nothing of the pleasure it will afford.

There seems to be considerable talk about the loss of the Roanoke game being due to dancing, loss of sleep, etc., by the team. This is a mistake. Only three men went to the dance, with the permission of the captain, and they retired at an early hour, while the team as a whole could not have conducted themselves better. The loss of the game was due to the grounds more than anything else.

Washington and Lee Man in the Regular Army.

Among the 11 Virginians recently appointed by the president to second lieutenantcies in the regular army appear the names of two Washington and Lee men, Fielding L. Poindexter, and Nat M. Cartmel. The Baltimore News speaks of Mr. Poindexter as follows:

"Mr. Poindexter was a private in the Second Oregon Volunteer Infantry, which was part of the first expedition to the Philippines, and which was the first regiment to enter Manila, on August 13, 1898. The regiment was retained in the Philippines about six months after its term of enlistment had expired, and during that time was engaged in nearly every battle of importance that occurred. At the battle of Malabon on March 25, 1899, it lost 54 men killed and wounded within an hour.

"Mr. Poindexter is indebted for his appointment largely to the recommendation of Colonel Clarence R. Edwards, adjutant-general to the late Major-General Lawton. On May 2, 1899, during the taking of the city of Baliuag, Private Poindexter volunteered to go out and meet a supposed flag of truce. Arriving within 400 yards of the enemy's lines he was fired upon, the flag being only a decoy. In referring to the occurrence Colonel Edwards said:

"The act was one of conspicuous gallantry and so pronounced to me by General Lawton at that time."

"During the past year Mr. Poindexter has been engaged in newspaper work in Baltimore. He is a native of Rockbridge county, Va., where his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. B. Poindexter, now reside. He is a grandson of the late Judge Francis Thomas Anderson the the Virginia court of appeals."

Teachers for the Philippines.

Attention is called to the U. S. documents posted on the University bulletin board calling for two W. L. U. graduates to go to Manila as teachers in the pay of the government at $1,000 a year.

If you know of any persons who fulfil the requirements and would perhaps like to receive such an appointment, please communicate with Professor Hogue.

Dr. White's Address.

Dr. Lyman Abbott, editor of the Outlook, had been invited to address the students on last Wednesday morning, but on account of a previous engagement was compelled to decline. No doubt an address from him would have been a rare treat, but while denied this pleasure we enjoyed a highly instructive lecture by Dr. H. A. White, on the subject, "The First Act in the Adoption of the American Constitution."

The speaker began by referring to the famous "Person's Case," in which Patrick Henry took a strong and patriotic stand against the tyrannical encroachments of the mother country. He then showed the difference between the pleasure-loving loyal conformists that settled in the Virginia lowlands, and those sturdy Scotch-Irish Presbyterians that settled higher up in the Piedmont section of the state, showing that it was among the latter that those ideas were fostered and matured which strengthened such men as Patrick Henry for the struggle which culminated in the adoption of the constitution. He traced the events which led up to the first act of the great drama. Certainly nothing can be more interesting to the American student than this great chapter in our history.

Hello Central!

Well, who do you want? We want everybody. We are going to play the Carnegie act on a small scale by giving away a trip to Lynchburg on next Thursday. Like Carnegie's generous acts, there is a condition amounting to $1.00 for a round trip ticket.

One day in a civilized community is worth $10 after nine months in Lexington. Go to Lynchburg on May 9th.

The Trip to Roanoke.

The trip to Roanoke was a pleasant one and from a financial point of view was as successful as had been expected. Many friends were found in what was supposed to be a stronghold of our opponents, and old Washington and Lee was by no means in the minority when it came to the rooters.

The team arrived in Roanoke on Wednesday afternoon and put up at the Hotel Roanoke until after breakfast on Friday morning, when it went to Salem to play Roanoke, returning in time to catch the Norfolk and Western train to Buena Vista. A dance was given by the Roanoke College German Club on Thursday night in honor of the team but only several men went out on account of not being able to find accommodations in Salem for the night.

Personals.

Miss Buford of Richmond, is the guest of the Misses Ross.

Miss Mattie Denny is visiting friends in Baltimore.

Ran Shields is now an M. D. of the University College of Medicine.

Callan was the Jonah and Montgomery the Mascot of the trip.

Hon. H. St. George Tucker and Mr. John L. Campbell left for New York on Tuesday to attend a dinner given by Hon. Isadore Straus to the Wilson Memorial committee, of which ex-President Cleveland is chairman.

Removal Sale.

We are selling tickets for $1.00 to Lynchburg and return, so that everybody can remove for one day.

The Cadets were game to the last and took their defeat good naturedly. Crawford pitched a good game, as Johnson for the V. P. I. team, but there were many errors and as a whole the Washington and Lee men played the better ball and supported the pitcher better than the V. P. I. team.

* * * * *
The betting was in favor of Washington and Lee. Odds were offered at 2 to 1 before the game and found no takers.—Roanoke Times, Friday.

An account of the game with Roanoke College will be given next week.

Law Department.

Law Notes.

The quaintest and most amusing reported case in the library is that of Stradling vs. Stiles. It is reprinted in 14 Law Library as a specimen of Scribbrus' Report. The recital of the case states that "Sir John Swale of Swale Hall, in Swale Dale, fast by the River Swale, kt. made his last will and testament, in which, among other bequests, was this, viz: 'Out of the kind love and respect I bear unto my much honored and good friend, Mr. Matthew Stradling, gent., I do bequeath unto the said Matthew Stradling, all my black and white horses.' The testator had six black horses, six white horses and six pied horses."

Under this bequest Mr. Stradling claimed the pied horses. Atkins, pour le plaintiff, delivered himself of a magnificent eulogy on the horse and then proceeded to discuss colors. He stated that colors "are commonly of various kinds and different sorts, of which white and black are the two extremes" (Quere as to this last point.) That these two extremes comprehended everything between them, and hence included pied. That the words black and white connected by the conjunction copulative "and" meant a mixture of black and white or pied.

Catlyne, Searjeant, pour le defendant, remarked very pointedly that neminem oportet esse legibus sapientorem.

The court inclined to the plaintiff's view and so judgment fuit donne pour le plaintiff nisi causa.

But the defendant was not yet done for. He moved in arrest of judgment that the pied horses were mares and prayed an inspection.

Of course, the case was wrongly decided, but it is well worth perusal during some idle hour that Prof. Burks does not ask us to while away by reading the Code of Virginia.

Bagley, S. C., has a wonderful faculty for arousing sympathy, but little for raising money. He and Montgomery threw in five cents apiece and purchased a dozen handsome shirt studs to pawn on the trip, and all they gained on the transaction was an uncancelled revenue stamp and four kegs of sympathy.

sent to 3rd on single of Roller's. Roller stole 2nd. I. Johnson flew out to Boogher. McCabe got a single and Hudgins and Roller scored. Perry hit a grounder to "Bake," out at 1st.

Score, W. L. U. 6; V. M. I. 3.

6TH INNING.

W. L. U. Spencer "fanned." Baker hit to 2nd, out at 1st. Crawford got hit again, went to 2nd on hit of Fox's. But the side was retired by Andrews hitting to 3rd, who held the ball, forcing Crawford and the side out.

V. M. I. was given a goose-egg.

7TH INNING.

W. L. U. "Smut" flew out from short to 1st. Boogher hit in the same territory, but Hudgins made such a rank error that Boogher took 2nd. "Oom" got a two-bagger in left garden, Boogher scoring. "Tit" got a single, "Oom" then came home on an error. "Long" flew out to 2nd. "Bake" hit it into centre and Johnson made his second error. Crawford made the third man down by hitting to pitcher and being thrown out at 1st.

V. M. I. Langhorn struck out. Hudgins flew out to Fox. Roller got hit and went to 1st. I. Johnson got a single into deep centre, which started Roller on the move toward home. Johnson tried to lengthen his single into a double and ran hard to 2nd. Roller had in the meantime, by fast sprinting, reached 3rd, and was on his way home when Fox quickly returned the ball to "Smut." Smith caught the man before he reached the bag and before Roller reached home. Johnson overran 2nd and "Smut" turned the second time to put the runner out. Roller had by this time reached home. The umpire would not say whether Roller should be entitled to the run, and as both scorers were opposite in their views, the run was not credited until after the game, when Mr. Wertenbaker said that he thought the run should be considered. It was thereupon given.

Score, W. L. U. 8, V. M. I. 4.

As neither side could do any run-getting in the next two innings the score ended as above.
