

THE RING-TUM PHI

BY THE STUDENTS AND FOR THE STUDENTS

VOL. VI

WASHINGTON & LEE UNIVERSITY, SATURDAY, JANUARY 10, 1903

No. 13

M. A. Degree

The faculty, after prolonged discussion on the matter, modified the existing requirements for an M. A., so that at present they stand as given below. These new requirements have been handed in with request for publication, so that all students concerned may understand the changes. Washington and Lee students have the option between A and B.

A. The student must attain:

1. All requisites for the degree of Bachelor of Arts.
2. Passes in groups I, II and III, to the value of not less than ninety points. This must include:
 - (a) A minimum of twenty-two points from each of groups I, II and III.
 - (b) Five certificates with M. A. grade; one from each of groups I, II and III, and the other two from any of these groups. No two of these certificates may be taken from the same department.
3. A graduating thesis under the same conditions as for the degree of Bachelor of Arts.

B. Academic degree graduates of institutions of recognized standing will be awarded the degree of Master of Arts, upon the fulfilment of the following requirements:

1. Five certificates with M. A. grade; one from each of the groups I, II and III, and the other two from any of these groups. A minimum of ten points is required from each department in which a certificate is taken, and no two of these certificates may be taken from the same department.
2. A graduating thesis under the same conditions as for the degree of Bachelor of Arts.

(These five certificates may not include the one which has already counted for the degree of Bachelor of Arts of this University.)

HENRY HALL

At the beginning of another year and of another session, we are again assembled to resume our various duties. Under the shadow of a great sorrow we parted and under it still we reassemble. When, after many days of suspense, the sad news came, "Henry is dead," spoken with voice hushed and sometimes choked, we repeated the sentence to ourselves, in vain attempting to realize what it meant. How could it be possible? But now, when walking through the campus or at some chance gathering, a word, a sound, maybe, or one of many associations brings him before us, we feel that there is a place vacant, never more to be filled, and begin to realize the meaning of those words, at first so hard to comprehend.

After three weeks' sickness with typhoid fever, Henry Hall died on Friday, December 12, at ten o'clock P. M. The care of loved ones, the best medical skill, his unusual strength of body and the vigor of youth were of no avail. After a brief service on Sunday morning, the body started to Mobile, Ala., the home of his parents, where it was interred. The professors and students escorted the remains to the train. A committee of the faculty, consisting of Profs. H. D. Campbell and D. C. Humpreys, and eight students as pall-bearers, accompanied the remains as far as Balcony Falls.

Henry Hall entered Washington and Lee the session of '99-'00, at the age of seventeen, and was applying this year for the degree of B. S. During the past three years he had won the respect, admiration, and love of his professors and fellow-students. We all know his splendid record in athletics, his success in his classes and his moral worth and integrity. But we think of him most as the boy full to overflowing of life and the image of youth's vigor and strength. Among his fellows there was none more genial, loving and lovable. All who knew him were his friends. Few men possess this quality of inspiring affection in those with whom they associate, to such a marked degree.

His memory will last as long as the memory of our college days. As sharers of the faith which he held, we believe that one day we shall see him again.

On the afternoon of December 13, a mass-meeting of the faculty and students of the University was held in Tucker Hall, President Denny presiding. After making a few appropriate remarks in regard to the loss suffered by the University, in the death of Henry Hall, a committee of three was appointed by the chairman to draft suitable resolutions, expressive of the feelings of the faculty and students.

The subjoined resolutions were submitted and unanimously adopted:

The Faculty and students of the Washington and Lee University, in view of the death of their friend and comrade, Henry Hall, bear loving witness to his many attractive traits of character, exhibited in such marked degree on the athletic field, on the campus, in the lecture room, in the close companionship of friends.

In every relation that he sustained to those with whom he came in contact he was amiable, manly and helpful. We bear affectionate testimony to the fact that in all these relations he won and retained the respect, the confidence, and the affection of all who knew him.

We express our gratitude for all that he was, and we cherish the belief that he has entered upon a higher, holier and happier service.

To his bereaved mother, father and sister; to his venerable grandmother; and to his loving relatives we tender our sympathy in this great sorrow.

To express further our affectionate regard, we shall escort his remains to the train on its departure for the last resting place.

We request that a record of these expressions be made in the Southern Collegian and the RING-TUM PHI.

W. LECONTE STEVENS,
Chairman,
S. MCP. GLASGOW,
J. C. PANCAKE,
Committee.

University Assembly

At the first University Assembly of the year, Wednesday, January 14, 8:45 A. M., the address will be delivered by Mr. T. C. De Leon, the well-known editor and author, formerly of Mobile, Alabama, but now living in Washington, D. C.

Mr. De Leon is the author of a number of novels and poems, and of several extremely clever skits, notably "The Rock or the Rye," a telling parody on the Princess Troubetskoy's novel, "The Quick or the Dead," and a comic "Hamlet" which had a hundred nights' run.

His intimate knowledge of Creole life will make his lecture, "The Creole and His Habitat," interesting not only to the students, but to the citizens of Lexington, and we trust a large audience will be present to show their appreciation of his kindness in consenting to favor us with one of his lectures.

GEORGE H. DENNY,
President.

Baseball

While it is, as yet, a little early for baseball enthusiasm to be properly stirred up, yet there is a good deal of speculation being indulged in as to what sort of team we will be able to put in the field. The loss of Spencer and Smith, our first and second basemen of the past two seasons, who have been compelled to withdraw from college since the opening of the session, will be greatly felt, but we have still enough material, old and new, in college, to warrant the hope that we will be able to live up to our past reputation on the diamond. Undoubtedly we are much in need of a good pitching staff, but we hope that this want will be supplied by freshmen talent, of which there is reported to be a good deal in college.

The appended schedule, as arranged by Manager Tabb, is undoubtedly one of the best we have ever had. The management is particularly congratulated on securing games with Brown and North Carolina, and two games with V. M. I.

The schedule, in full, is as follows:

- Eastern College, Mch. 20, at Lexington.
- Fishburne School, Mch. 24, at Lexington.
- Pennsylvania Univ., Mch. 28, at Lexington.
- Brown Univ., Mch. 31, at Lexington.
- V. M. I. Apr. 4, at Lexington.
- St. John's College, Apr. 10, at Lexington.
- V. M. I. Apr. 14, at Lexington.
- Hampden-Sydney, Apr. 20, at Lexington.
- Richmond College, Apr. 24, at Lexington.
- North Carolina Univ., May 1, at Roanoke.
- V. P. I. May 5, at Lexington.
- U. Va. May 11, at Lynchburg.

ARTHUR TABB, Manager.

Business Notice

Owing to ill-health, Mr. B. D. Causey, the business manager of the RING-TUM PHI, will not return to college for the remainder of the session. The editor, W. J. Lauck, will act as manager in his absence, and all subscriptions may be paid to him.

The RING-TUM PHI is offered the balance of the session for $1.00. Hand in your name as a subscriber.

After a lapse of over a month, owing to examinations and the Christmas holidays, the RING-TUM PHI, with this issue, begins the New Year with the wish that for the University, students and faculty it may be a prosperous and happy one.

The winter term on which we are now entering, offers fewer diversions than do the other terms of the collegiate session, and consequently a better opportunity for hard study. To those who have fallen by the wayside in the recent examinations, we trust, that with a realization of this, there may come the hope and determination to make up past deficiencies; while to those who have already succeeded, we offer our congratulations and wish them even greater success hereafter.

Since the RING-TUM PHI last made its appearance, a great loss has fallen on the entire student body, in the death of Henry Hall, which occurred on Dec. 12.

An only son, bright, athletic, and a universal favorite with all with whom he came in contact, it seemed that his life was one which must bring success to himself, and which was indispensable to others. Seldom, if ever, has Washington & Lee been thrown into greater gloom than when it became known that his desperate and unequal fight with disease was over. But great as was the sorrow of his friends, at this time, it is particularly for the father and mother that we must feel, and to them we extend our sincere and heartfelt sympathy.

Moore-Thorn

From the Kentuckian-Citizen of Paris, Ky., of December 20th

The marriage of Miss Lois Thorn to Mr. Frank Moore, which took place in Millersburg, Ky., Wednesday evening at 7 o'clock in the Presbyterian church, is of much interest to friends in this State and in Virginia, the home of the groom. The ushers were Messrs. John Stuart, J. M. Thorn, Charles Jones, and Banks Neil.

Professor Klocks in presided at the organ, discoursing sweet music while the guests assembled. The first strains of the "Lohengrin Bridal March" heralded the approach of the bridal party. Dr. Laird, the officiating minister, with Mr. John Stuart, came first, followed by Mr. J. M. Thorn; Mr. Chas. Jones and Mr. Banks Neil came next. The bride came in leaning on the arm of her maid of honor, Miss Lelia McClintock. She is one of Kentucky's loveliest daughters, possessed of personal charms and social graces that have won for her an enviable place wherever she is known. She was charming in a gown of white crepe de chene over white silk. Her veil was fastened with a handsome pearl brooch, the gift of the groom, and she carried a shower bouquet of bride roses. Her maid of honor was lovely in white silk trimmed in duchess lace, carrying a bouquet of Jacqueminot roses and ferns. At the altar they were met by the groom and his best man, Mr. Frank Laird, of Richmond, Va.

The bridal couple passed up the steps into the chancel, where they received the marriage vows with their attendants on each side.

Immediately after the ceremony, they left the church to the soft strains of Mendelssohn's Wedding March and repaired to the home of Mrs. Margaret Shannon and the bride's mother, where they received their friends at a charming reception of limited invitations.

A number of handsome presents of silver and cut glass were received besides other remembrances of the occasion.

Following the congratulations of friends, the bride donned her going-away gown of brown cloth and the happy couple left for a trip East, after which they will be at home to their friends in Lexington, Va.

Stockton Heath, of Radford, Va., has been in Lexington for several days.

University Monogram

In accordance with the regulations published in the RING-TUM PHI, Vol. VI, No. 6, the following students were declared by the Athletic Committee, to be entitled to wear the monogram for the part they took in the football season of 1902, and their names were read at the last University Assembly:

Alexander, Bagley, Campbell, M. D., Haw, Marshall, McNeill, McNulty, Meredith, Miller, E. C., Ross, Smiley, Smith, A. M., Sterrett, Stone, Trundle, and Walker.

By action of the Athletic Committee, the following students are entitled to wear the University Monogram as the result of success in athletics prior to the session of 1902-1903:

Baseball—Bagley, Baker, Boogher, Campbell, M. D., Causey, B. D., Lauck, Moore, G. D., Spencer, Smith, A. M., Wysor, J. L.

Boating—Coe, Douglass, McCrum, R. W., McNulty, Payne, L. C., Pendleton, Sampson, Stone, Thompson, R. D., Trundle, and Walker.

Football—Dotson, Glasgow, Haw, McNulty, Smith, A. M., Trundle, Walker, Whipple.

Gymnasium—McPheeters.
Track Athletics—Conover.
Tennis—Thomas.

Law Notes

One of the most enjoyable social events of the holiday season in Rockbridge, was the farewell dinner given on New Year's day, by Mr. Wm. Mahoney ("Judge") to his legal and other friends, at the Alleghany Hotel. Dillard, Ott, Lemon and Harvey represented the Law School, and were given a delightful time by the "Judge."

Forty covers were laid and an old-time Virginia dinner was served with accompaniments. Between the courses toasts were proposed and the responses were resplendent with wit and humor, Mr. Ott acting as toast-master. At the urgent request of his friends, Mr. Mahoney made a few parting remarks, reciting when he had come to Virginia, the many warm friends that he would leave behind, and that wherever he might be, whether on the Pacific or the Atlantic slope, the pleasant associations of his residence here would not be forgotten. He then referred very touchingly to his many acquaintances in the University, a few of whom he deemed himself especially fortunate in having with him at this time. The remainder of the evening was devoted to dancing and music.

Mr. Mahoney is a recent graduate of the Law Department of the University, and is a great authority on the iron industry of the State.

For many years he was manager of the Victoria furnace at Goshen. He will leave shortly for Seattle, Wash., where he will form a partnership with J. P. Wall, B. L. '02, for the practice of his profession. The RING-TUM PHI wishes him great success in his new home. We believe the new partnership will be recognized as one of the strongest in the State in the course of a few years.

Mr. Mahoney's family will remain at the Alleghany this winter.

Tucker Hall has been rather a quiet place during the holidays. Mr. Vance spent the Christmas vacation in North Carolina; Mr. Long visited friends and relatives in Lynchburg, and Mr. Burks spent a few days in Bedford City.

Several new men have matriculated in the Law School, and Mr. Huddle of last year's class, is back again.

Mr. J. Graham Sale, of last year's senior class, spent a few days in Lexington, recently. Since he left the University, he has been carrying on a lucrative practice in Pikeville, Ky., whither he expects to return very shortly. DeWitt Lemon was also in Lexington for a short time during the holidays. He has been engaged in explaining the law to anxious clients at Fincastle, Va., during the past few months.

J. R. Tucker, B. L. '02, spent the holidays at his home in Lexington, studying for the State bar examination, which was held in Richmond, yesterday. He will resume his law studies at Harvard for the rest of the session.

The regular debate of the Bradford Society was held on Thursday night, but owing to the cold weather only a small number of members were present. It was decided to continue the Society throughout the remainder of the year.

Present to the Coach

At the close of the season the football team wished to show the coach how much they appreciated his excellent work and the admirable manner in which he conducted it. It was not merely Mr. Balliet's work and his gentlemanly and straightforward method but his personality was an inspiration to each member of the team. Accordingly, a fund was raised and a committee, consisting of the manager and captain, was appointed to select a suitable gift.

A pair of old gold, link cuff-buttons, oval in shape and with the engraving, "Presented by F. B. T. '02, W. & L. Univ." reached Mr. Balliet by Christmas. The following letter explains itself.

Myerstown, Pa., Jan. 1, '03.

To Com. for W. & L. F. B. T.,
Lexington, Va.

Gentlemen:

I am in receipt of your generous gift. I shall never cease to remember the pleasant associations of the past few months and the many kind attentions I received at your hands.

If our relations and labors have been pleasant, I do not forget that they have been made so by your generous efforts and willing co-operation.

I shall always cherish your beautiful gift as a memorial of our pleasant time together, and can only wish that each of you, when occupying positions of trust, may be as warmly supported and as ably assisted by those in your charge, as I have been since my connection with yourselves. Please accept my sincere thanks and high appreciation for your generous gift.

I remain your friend,

D. M. BALLIET.

Personals

R. H. Wooters, of Crockett, Texas, passed through Lexington a few days ago.

Miss Annie R. White spent the holidays visiting friends in Philadelphia.

The friends of Mr. Dillard will be glad to know that he is able to be out again.

C. S. McNulty represented the local chapter of $\Phi. K. \Sigma.$ at its convention in Pittsburg.

Misses Mary Preston and Martha Moore are at home again, after a brief visit to Richmond.

Miss Virginia May, of Staunton, was the guest of Miss Rosa Tucker, for a few days this week.

Messrs. Arbuckle, H. S. Osburn, and Thomas attended the S. A. E. Convention in Washington during the holidays.

Mr. Isaac Herbert Kemper, B. L. '93, a prominent attorney of Galveston, Texas, was married on December 17, to Miss Henrietta Blum, of that city.

The many friends of B. D. Causey, deeply regret the fact that owing to ill-health, he will be unable to return for the remainder of the present session. He expects to do engineering work for the present, and come back next year.

Prof. and Mrs. Hoxie left Lexington at the close of last term, for Chicago, where Prof. Hoxie will resume his Ph. D. studies in the University of Chicago. He carries with him into his new field of work the best wishes of the many friends he has made during his residence here.

Profs. Howe, Campbell, and Stevens attended the convention of the American Association for the Advancement of Science, which was held in Washington during the week following Christmas.

Dr. Howe read two papers before the Association: one on "Some Double Salts of Organic Acids," which was based on the work of several of his students; and the other, a discussion of a new meteorite found in Augusta county, which was written by him and Prof. Campbell, jointly.

Dr. Willis to Resume Charge of the Economic Department

With the beginning of the New Year, Dr. H. Parker Willis, who has been absent from the University during the past eighteen months, again takes up his duties as head of the Economics Department. During the early part of his leave of absence, Dr. Willis was one of the members of the editorial staff of the New York Evening Post. This position he resigned to take charge of the Washington office of the New York Journal of Commerce and Commercial Bulletin, and the Springfield (Mass.) Republican. During the past six months he has been preparing a book on "Reciprocity," which will appear during the latter part of the present month.
