Randolph Macon Game.

W. L. U., 39---R. M. C. 0

Amidst a downpour of rain the referee's whistle blew and the game started between Randolph-Macon and Washington & Lee. R. M. C. kicked off and the ball was rushed forward until it went over the goal line the first time. Washington & Lee outweighed and outplayed the Randolph Macon team, consequently they crossed the goal line for seven touch downs and Campbell kicked four out of seven goals, making the score 39-0.

With six minutes left to play the substitutes were put in, which would seem to have slackened the work of the team, but it did not and with only six minutes of play two touchdowns were made.

The game was absolutely clean and free from slugging, and was noteworthy for its few accidents. Fuller, of W. & L. U. being the only man to retire.

Lewis made the sensational play of the game, getting the ball on the kickoff, he advanced a few yards and was downed. He was then given the ball again and with good interference, he ran over fifty yards for a touchdown. The team work of Washington & Lee was faultless and eleven men were in every play.

Besides the sensational run of Lewis, the work of Trundle, Alexander, J.H., Haw and Stone, of W. & L. U., and Robinson, of R. M. C., is deserving of special mention.

The line-up:

R. M. C.	Position	W. & L.
Davis	L. E.	Bagley, Fuller
Mast	L. T.	Withers, Lewis
M. Matt	L. G.	Miller, Jones
Level	C.	Jones, Stone
More	R. G.	Sterrett
Mills	R. T.	Stone, Trundle
McNeil	R. E.	Masterson, Ross
Robinson	Q. B.	Marshall
		Alexander, J.
Cross	L. H.	Campbell
Trexillian	R. H.	Haw
Walters	F. B.	Quisenberry
		Moomaw

Umpire, Master; referee, Dr. Jordan.

Dunlap and Farr are considerably better; Greenblott is convalescing.

Richmond College Game.

W. L. U. 10---R. C. 0.

In a most beautiful exhibition of football and a display of wonderful fortitude, under the most trying circumstances, W. L. U. beat Richmond College by a score of 10-0.

At no time during the game was W. L. U.'s goal in danger. Richmond College could gain nothing through W. L. U.'s line, around the ends, and only twice held W. L. U. for the necessary downs. In team work and in industrial playing, W. & L. far outplayed the Richmond College.

The small score was not the result of W. & L.'s failure to gain distance, but from the officials' constant penalizing. A fair estimate of the yards taken from W. L. U. in this way could not be less than 150. In fact the feature of the game was the wonderful exhibition of the officials, or rather one official in inflicting penalties on W. L. U., while Richmond College suffered only twice. It was a fact apparent to every one that there were more than eleven men opposing W. L. U., and the team deserves great credit for the way they fought against such odds.

Special features were the work of Capt. Trundle, Campbell, Alexander, Jr., Ross and Moomaw, and the penalizing of the officials.

The Line-Up:

Richmond	Position	W. & L.
Fraser	R. E.	Ross, Masterson
Snead	R. T.	Trundle, Withers
Anderson, R.	R. G.	Sterrett
Webster	C.	Stone
Powell	L. G.	Jones
Hudgins	L. T.	Lewis
Woodford	L. E.	Fuller
Smith (Captain)	L. H.	Campbell
Lankford	R. H.	Haw
		Alexander, D.
Spillman	F.	Moomaw
Toombes	Q. B.	Alexander, J. H.

Referee, Finnegan; umpire, J. G. Nelson; timekeepers, Dr. Howe, J. B. Wood; touchdowns, Campbell 2. Score 10.

In the absence of Dr. McBryde Rev. J. M. Robeson of Buena Vista, will conduct services at Grace Memorial church next Sunday.

Review of October Collegian

"A Not Uncommon Type of College Hero" takes the correct view-point and contains a quite obvious moral, but it strikes us as a trifle far-fetched in its instances. The second story of "The Circle," "The Soldier," is unquestionably good; interest in it does not flag from beginning to end. We are tempted to hope for the completion of the series.

"A Case of Circumstantial Evidence" is a typical modern love story and works up to an excellent climax.

As a clever little skit we note "A Stationery Tragedy." It is well worked out and has a conclusion that such work ordinarily lacks.

"Andrew Jackson in Florida" shows both acquaintance with Southern history and care in shaping material.

"The Beginning of English Drama" is an able and eminently interesting article, not presenting merely sheer fact but giving readable anecdotes as well.

Some real, natural humor is to be found in "Confession and Avoidance," a dialect narrative in verse.

Taken from a true story of the far South, "Free" gives us the nobility and the matter-of-course heroism of many a humble life its still larger pathos.

The timely editorial upon the damage done in the class scrap at the first of the year cannot be too warmly seconded. Precedent or no precedent, a cane-rash should prove the mettle of '07 and '08.

Epithalamium

Said Senator Platt to his colleague, Depew:

"Though no longer young, I'm as youthful as you."

Said "Papa" Depew to his colleague, Tom Platt:

"Come around in a year and we'll see about that." [Town Topics.

E. S. Dawson, who was hurt in the Richmond game, is sick in bed. He is, however, not in a serious condition and will be out in a few days.

Y. M. C. A.

The Y. M. C. A. service conducted last Sunday afternoon by Leroy Thompson. His subject was "The Outreach of Influence."

First he showed that there is power of influence, that is reaching and is being exerted every day, consciously or unconsciously for good or evil.

He then gave examples of those who have been influenced. Mentioning Livingstone from weaver to the great missionary in Africa. Lastly he showed some of the practical ways by which one can exert a good influence at & L. U.

We can exert this good influence by being affable. We can greet fellow students with a cheerful smile, be pure and elevating in conversations and avail ourselves of every opportunity for doing courteousies. We can influence our purer living, discourage profane and impure conversation, and be important of all constrain me to lead Christ-like lives.

The talk was an exception to the strong one and listened to with great interest.

The best interest of College and the Y. M. C. A., demands presentation of these important practical subjects.

Baseball

Those who failed to see the 'Varsity-Scrub baseball game of Friday missed a lively contest. Those who saw it witnessed an excellent game of ball. Under the captaincy of Riley Wilson the 'Varsity team has improved wonderfully so much so in fact that they played the 'Varsity to a standstill. The game was called at the end of the ninth inning the score stood 8-0.

With a second team as good as the first no position on the 'Varsity is secure. Any freshman, therefore, who has any intention of playing ball next season would do well to hand in now his name and the position he will try for to Captain Dawson.

EDITORIAL

Much ado about nothing seems to be the present fever situation. While it is true that there are several cases of fever among the students, it is not true, as has been reported and telegraphed abroad that there are numerous cases and that several deaths have resulted. The fever has not been of a malignant type, there are but few cases, there have not been any deaths, nor are any of the patients at the point of death. The fever is well under control, and in fact, for the most part has been in a part of the town which is not inhabited to a great extent by students. The fever is local and not general. The reports have no doubt emanated from homesick freshmen and weak nerved sophomores, seniors, etc., who take this means to leave college and return home. Such reports, besides not being true are unjust to the town and the school, which is liable to be disrupted thereby if such false reports are not refuted. It is a fact that there has been only one death in the town since Sept. 10, 1903, from typhoid; and as every precaution is being taken there is practically no danger.

There is absolutely no truth in the report published in the Lynchburg News that the law class of W. & L. had called upon the faculty to suspend. It has held no meeting and if it should no such action would be taken.

Statement of President Denny

"In view of certain newspaper publications it is deemed proper to say to the student body that, in the opinion of the University authorities, there is no sound reason for alarm with reference to the present health condition in this community.

It is true that a number of cases of typhoid fever, nearly all of a mild type, developed in Lexington some days ago, and several among students of the University, all of which, with one exception, are of a mild type.

The town authorities have taken expeditious action, and so far as known, only one case has developed since October 16th.

Considering the fact that there is a population of over four thousand in this community, this is not considered discouraging, but rather gives reason to believe that there is no special ground for apprehension.

GEORGE H. DENNY,
President

Graham-Lee Society.

The society held a very interesting meeting last Saturday night. Owing to the absence of the president, vice-president Hobson occupied the chair. Mr. Schaefer delivered a well written oration.

His argument bore directly upon "The advantages and disadvantages of the discovery of America." His oration was followed by a no less creditable declamation, delivered by Mr. T. E. Smith in a natural emphatic rather than a mechanical manner. The question for the evening, Resolved, That the powers of the speaker of the House of Representatives are dangerously large," was then discussed by the regular debaters, Messrs. Browning and Phillips on the affirmative, and Messrs. Sells and Wills on the negative. The decision favored the negative.

Mr. Blain, who was elected treasurer of the society a few weeks ago, resigned and Mr. Schaefer was unanimously chosen to take his place. There being no further business the society adjourned.

Rev. F. H. Barron, pastor of the Davis Memorial Presbyterian church at Elkins, W. Va., addressed a meeting of the Y. M. C. A. Friday night. Rev. Barron was captain of the baseball team of the University of Toronto in '97.

BRIEF FOR AFFIRMATIVE

I. The Anthracite Mines: a. Location; b. Area; c. History of growth.

II. Present System Inadequate: a. Irregularity of employment; b. Nature of demand; c. Prices for labor cannot be uniform; d. Nature of miners; e. Strikes cannot be avoided.

III. Injurious Results as Outcome of Existing Conditions: a. Riot; b. Loss of money; c. Stagnation of business and human suffering.

IV. Discussion of Other Systems: a. Ownership by individuals impossible; b. Ownership by a syndicate unsatisfactory; c. Ownership by State unwise.

V. Governmental Ownership will Correct Existing Evils and Secure Public Interests: a. Higher and uniform wages; b. A supply equal to the demand with fewer laborers and at less cost; c. Protection to mine and security to public interests.

VI. Governmental Ownership is Practicable: a. Nature of government ownership; b. Security of public interests under other governments.

BRIEF FOR NEGATIVE

I. Present conditions in the mines satisfactory; a. The recent strike caused by breach of contract b. We need only to enforce existing laws.

II. The government should not be involved in local enterprise and domestic troubles; a. Government enterprises have been failures. 1. They are not as productive as private enterprises. 2. They do not pay as well. b. There is always danger of jobbery and corruption. 1. Mail scandal recently detected 2. No one would be directly responsible for conduct of the mines.

III. Government ownership of mines would be dangerous; a. Offices would be given to politicians for services rendered. 1. Hence poor service. 2. No incentive to improvement. b. The policy in mining would change with each administration. 1. This would cause dislocation of supply and demand. 2. Variable prices

IV. Government ownership would be unprogressive; a. Little opportunity would be given for originality and inventiveness. b. There would be no competition to brighten the talents of officials. c. Government work is proverbially sluggish.

V. The system of private ownership is the best; a. It has brought the world where it is today. b. It develops utmost talent of employers and employees alike. c. History does not show government ownership to be a successful policy.

Mass-meeting

An enthusiastic student mass-meeting was held in Tucker Hall, Thursday night. The object of the meeting was to elect rooting and singing leaders for the coming football games and to form systematic plans for encouragement on the part of the students.

The meeting was called to order by Captain Trundle, who made a short address and called for other speeches, which call was responded to by Messrs. Howell, McNulty, Hartman and Duncan, who impressed upon the men the true worth of encouragement given by them to the team. After repeated calls Coaches Byles and Balliet made short but forceful talks.

Mr. Howell was elected chief rooter, and Mr. Riley Wilson songster-in-chief. It was then decided that each class should elect its leader, after which the assembly adjourned.

Mr. Bouchelle Resigns

It is with great regret that I place before the student body my resignation as business manager of the Calyx to which position I recently had the honor to be elected. The reasons are serious and of weight that compel me to reluctantly take this action. I wish to extend to the student body my sincere and heartfelt thanks for the confidence and trust that they have deemed fit to repose in me in my election to the above office. In asking that my resignation be accepted, I do so after mature deliberation, and with the hope that it will be considered favorably by those interested. Respectfully

J. F. BOUCHÉ

rd Society

Bradford Debating Society Thursday night to hear the case of Rice v. Butler argued by Messrs. Howell and Breedin for the plaintiff and Messrs. Bradham and Brittingham for the defendant. The court was composed of Chief Justice Green and Justices Wilson, Shields, Tillman and Duncan. The facts showed that Miss Rice, an infant, had purchased a bicycle from Butler and after using it awhile returned it to him and demanded the money which she had paid therefor, but which he refused to return. She thereupon brought her suit. The court held that Miss Rice could recover, Justice Tillman dissenting. Mr. Chevalier concurred with the court.

Washington Literary Society

At the meeting of the Washington Society for October 17th, the first production presented was a strong oration by Mr. Neel. Subject: "Paddle Your Own Canoe." Declamations were then given by Messrs. Hawkins and Grubb.

The debate on the question, Resolved, That Grover Cleveland should not receive the Democratic presidential nomination in 1904, was between Messrs. Duncan and McPheeters, of the affirmative, and Messrs. Hawkins and Kelly, of the negative. The judges gave their decision for the affirmative.

Thursday night at ten o'clock a few freshmen gathered in front of the Main Building for a night shirt parade. By giving the college yells incessantly and other noises this crowd was increased to sixty men in night shirts or pajamas, and about fifty upper classmen as onlookers. Leaving the campus they visited the Blue Hotel, then paraded up Main street and around to the home of Prof. Humphreys, who was called on for a short speech. Prof. Nelson was also visited but did not appear and the aggregation started for Prof. Crow's. On the way they were met by Dr. Reid White, who stated that there were many typhoid fever patients in town and asked if the crowd were gentleman, would they disperse and go home. As soon as the situation was explained to the men, and they realized that their cheering was disturbing the sick, they quietly disbanded and in a few minutes none were to be seen.

Some Athletic Notes

Mr. D. M. Balliet, of Myerstown, Pa., arrived on Wednesday. He will take charge of the line coaching, leaving Mr. Byles the work on the backs. With these famous Princeton stars coaching our football team, we may expect great victories this season.

A Tennis Tournament opens today. There are about 15 entries in the singles and as many in the doubles. This will be a sort of preliminary to the final tournament next spring.

Besides these activities on the "diamond" and the courts, several crews are rowing daily on North river. There are some promising oarsmen among the new men. Mr. Payne is in charge.
