SECOND TEAM VICTORIOUS

SCRUBS 5, AUGUSTA ACADEMY 0

The Scrub team played its first game of the season on last Saturday at Fort Defiance against the Augusta Military Academy and came off victorious, having defeated their opponents by a score of 5 to 0. The two teams were very evenly matched and both played a good hard game. Neither side scored in the first half but Lazarus secured the ball in the second half on the kick off and ran nearly the length of the field for a touchdown. Bagley failed at goal. Riser of the Scrubs, missed the early train Saturday morning but took the 12.10 B. & O. train and reached Fort Defiance in time to get into the second half. Messrs. Moomaw and Dangerfield accompanied the team, acting as umpire and timekeeper, respectively in the game. The length of the halves was 20 and 15 minutes.

The Scrub line up was as follows:

- Hutcheson, centre.
- Osburn, right guard.
- Baldwin, left guard.
- Witten, right tackle.
- Maxwell, left tackle.
- Bagley, C. F., right end.
- Norfleet, Riser, left end.
- Railing, Captain, right half.
- Anthony, left half.
- Lazarus, quarterback.
- Campbell, full back.

To Discontinue Bowl Fight

The faculty of the University of Pennsylvania are making a vigorous effort to break up the Freshmen-Sophomore clashes which have hitherto marked the opening of college. Their efforts are aimed especially at the historic bowl fight on account of a number of injuries which have resulted from it in the past few years. Should the faculty succeed it will leave Washington & Lee the only school having a Freshmen-Sophomore contest of this character, for, so far as we know, Pennsylvania is the only other school having such a feature.

Trans-Mississippi Club Meets

Nine members responded to the call for all thieves, cowpunchers and robbers from the Wild West.

W. F. Semple of Indian Territory, was elected president; W. A. Rav of Texas, vice-president; D. E. Pruitt of New Mexico, secretary; L. M. Stern, of Arkansas, treasurer.

A banquet was discussed and one will be held in the near future.

Coach Brown was lined-man in the Virginia-Bucknell game.

The Wash. Society

Last Saturday night the Society was called to order by President McDonald. The order of the evening was then taken up.

Messrs. Catber and Robinson, the declaimers, gave selections. Though one of the orators was not present the interest of the meeting did not flag, as so much attention was given to the debate. Mr. Gassman delivered a well prepared and polished oration on the need of every college man to study oratory and debate. The question for debate was:

Resolved, That Government Should Control Life Insurance Corporations. Messrs. Cooper and Baker argued the affirmative, and as the regular debaters for the negative were not present Messrs. Nix, Page and Moore ably defended that side. The negative won. Mr. Withers, critic pro tem., then rendered his just remarks.

The society sees there is fire and thunder in all her members, and it "will out" if they will only "out" to the meetings. Let every Wash. member be present Saturday night, as this is the last meeting in October and officers are to be elected.

Granam-Lee

We continue to get new men—and good ones. Claudie, Hobson, Hylton and Baldwin signed up last Saturday night.

Proceeding with the program Collins delivered an oration on "The Benefits Derived From a Literary Society." Steves was our only declaimer and we passed to the debate, which was on the subject, "Resolved that wealth causes more suffering than poverty." Reveley and Leech supported the affirmative, and Jones and Sapp the negative, Pilkington and Bandy making voluntary speeches. The judges decided in favor of the negative. Horsog and Sapp resigned from the preliminary contest for the first inter-collegiate debate and MacCluer and Benson were elected to take their places. The Society then adjourned and our Thanksgiving debaters met the Wash's representatives to confer about toggery for that occasion.

Ne'er "Loosen Up."

Mission Study Rally

Last Sunday afternoon was the time set apart by the Y. M. C. A. for the mission study rally. No pains were spared in the arrangement of the programme, and the efforts put forth were amply rewarded. T. D. Sloan our last year's president and Mr. J. P. Smith came over from the University of Virginia, to assist Dr. Morrison, the missionary to the Congo, in the service.

Dr. Morrison pointed out that interest in world missions is demanded by the feeling of philanthropy, by a sense of duty to Christ and above all by love for Christ. Ignorance of the scope of the work not only fails to arouse this needed interest, but also forbids us any claim to that broad and liberal education which should characterize a University man. Hence the mission study classes lay strong claims to a place in the course of every man in College.

Interesting addresses were then made by Messrs. Sloan and Smith, and after the exercises a short time was spent in organizing the classes.

Dr. McBryde Leaves

Rev. Dr. Robert J. McBryde, rector of the R. E. Lee Memorial church closed his pastorate in Lexington on last Sunday. The sermon was not in the nature of a farewell address.

Dr. McBryde is intimately known by many of the students and alumni of this university having been rector of the Episcopal church for the past twenty-two years. During this time he was often thrown with the college boys and his departure will be regretted by many among the student body as well as his congregation.

Dr. McBryde succeeded the Rev. William N. Pendleton as rector of the R. E. Lee Memorial church in 1883. He left on last Sunday afternoon going from here to Fredericksburg as pastor of St. George's church which he served previous to coming to Lexington.

Scrubs go to Staunton

The second team left on the early B. & O. train this morning for Staunton to meet the team of the Staunton Military Academy on the football gridiron. This is the second trip the scrubs have taken and manager Miles is arranging for more. They will probably play the Randolph-Macon academy in Bedford City on next Saturday.

At Other Colleges

The Yale books show that foot ball at New Haven last year cost almost $27,000.

Teddy, Jr., entered Harvard this fall and made a try for the freshman team but failed to materialize.

The University of Chicago enrollment for this year is 2325, a gain of nearly 25 per cent.

At the University of California they have established closed practice with the exception of two afternoons a week.

U. Va., had four men on Spauldings all Southern football team. Two is the most any other college can boast of.

There are so many ringers on some of the Virginia college teams that some have concluded that the gridiron is rapidly being transformed into a swiss bell troupe or an auction sale.—Ex.

At Sewanee the coach gives no athletic pledge. He considers that each player's sense of honor and only to his alma mater should be enough to make him abstain from anything which would hurt him physically. The Sewanee team seems to be doing very well.

The Musical Clubs of the University of Virginia are contemplating an extensive concert trip through the South during the Christmas recess. This will be in the nature of a new departure at Virginia, though it is quite common among the northern and eastern colleges.—Ex.

The science of Jiu-Jitsu received a severe blow last week when Mr. Kosumi, of Harvard University, an expert in Jiu-Jitsu, was matched against Phelan Beale, an old Sewanee man, for a wrestling bout, best two out of three to win. Beale won the first fall in about one minute. During the contest Mr. Kosumi received an injury in one eye. He claims this was due to a foul by Beale, and declares his attention of going to Washington and laying the matter before President Roosevelt.

Sophomore Engineers Elect Officers

The Sophomore Engineer Class met in "Old Davy's" lecture room Oct. 19 and elected the following officers.

- L. C. Withers, president.
- T. N. Havlin, vice-president.
- A. K. Forney, secretary.

Winter is nearly here, but those granolithic walks of which we heard so much talk last spring and which we were all but certain of in the earlier part of September are not. 'Tis said that a certain "Summer Bulletin" proclaimed these walks a sure thing. Now if that is true some one has done wrong. If the University has not the money to give us granolithic walks they should not have been promised, but if the University is able to give us the walks we ought to have had them. They should have been begun on before now, for it is not long before the snow will make our present dirt walks resemble a hog pen. Summer was the time for these walks to have been put down.

Be this as it may, however, one thing is certain—Washington and Lee is able to have decent walks. But we haven't got them. A force of employees is kept constantly on the campus gathering up the fallen leaves. Looks may be a good thing but comfort is better. It would not hurt anything to let those leaves stay on the campus; in fact it would enrich the soil and make the grass grow better next spring. And meantime those same employees could be set to work elevating and grading the walks so that instead of their being a receptacle for all the water which falls on the campus, water could be drain off and we could go to classes dry shod.

To return to where we started, we don't believe the University has the money to give us granolithic walks; if it did we don't think the walk which extends from the rear of the reading room to the dormitory would ever have happened. This is a board walk (though it hardly deserves the name) composed of all kinds of wood, from decent boards down to splinters, most of it of such a quality that it could have been used but for one other thing—kindling. But as one of the students at the dormitory remarked, it's a "blessed" sight better than walking in the mud, so perhaps there should be no kick coming on that score.

Numerous complaints have reached the management from subscribers who fail to receive the RING-TOW PHI. We regret exceedingly that any such thing should occur, for a man who pays his subscription is certainly entitled to receive all the papers, and hope that all who fail to get them will continue to kick. We can hardly believe it is our fault since the utmost care is used each week in mailing them out, and while all human agency is subject to some mistakes we certainly believe that the same man's name could not be skipped by us for three times in succession, as some have complained of. In the future the names on the paper and on the mailing list will be rechecked, and if there are still complaints the matter will be distinctly up to the postoffice.

The Colonels

The Kentucky Club met Monday evening at Mrs. Pratt's as the guests of Col. Dangerfield. The seventeen regular members and Honorary Colonel, Jas. Lewis Howe, answered to roll-call. After the consideration of various items of importance the executive session was declared at an end, and it was then that Col. Dangerfield stepped into the breach in good earnest. With a table loaded with substantials and dainties direct from old Kentucky before them, the Colonels enjoyed such a repast as few have encountered since leaving the Dark and Bloody Ground. The fun continued until after eleven when they adjourned with "My Old Kentucky Home" and the Kentucky Club yell.

Engagement Announced

The engagement of Miss Georgia Middleton, a talented and strikingly handsome young lady of Roanoke, to Mr. Mercer Haatman an alumnus of Washington and Lee has been announced. Mr. Haatman received his B. L. here in 1904 and is one of the most prominent young lawyers of Roanoke. Miss Middleton is a graduate of Virginia College and is president of the Iota Pi sorority which is represented at that institution.

Capt. Chas. E. Vawter, superintendent of the Miller Manual School died yesterday morning. Captain Vawter was prominently known in educational circles having been professor at Emory and Henry College and for seventeen years a member of the board of visitors of V. P. L.

NOTICE SENIORS

A big consignment of the caps and gowns has arrived and the bill for the remainder received so that they will be ready for distribution Monday at room 13 Science Hall. As the goods will be sent to the committee on their promise to send money for same at once, it is urged that every man will raise the wind as soon as possible and thus save them any embarrassment.

Instead of two free gowns, the committee managed to secure three by dividing the order. One of these has been disposed of by the Law class, the Engineers received another and the third will be disposed of at a senior meeting to be held before the next assembly. But the men should not hold back paying now for their outfits on the hope of securing the free one and thus causing the committee trouble, but come on and get them out as soon as possible and the money will be refunded to the man who gets it.

Committee.

Football Prospects

No definite arrangements have yet been made but manager White is working hard to get a game with Richmond College and Randolph-Macon college. Although these games are not yet a certainty it looks very much as if we are to have them. In all probability they will be played next week; Randolph-Macon in Ashland on Wednesday and Richmond on Friday.

It is certainly very desirable that we get these games for it would show what our boys can do when they get up against a stiff proposition as Randolph-Macon would undoubtedly be.

The only other games on our schedule now are: V. P. L. in Blacksburg, on Nov. 11, A. & M. in Raleigh on Nov. 18th, and George Washington University in Washington on Thanksgiving. We may also get another game with Roanoke college.

Virginia-Davidson Game

Charlottesville, Va., October 27. By defeating Davidson College here today, 11 to 0, Virginia scored five more points against the visitors than did her rival, North Carolina. Waples scored the first touchdown from the kick off, and Johnson the second, after a 75 yard run.

Mr. F. M. Barker, who was a student here during the session of '03-'04, and who has been in Colorado the past 18 months on account of his health, has returned to his home in Lynchburg completely restored to health.

The Maryland Club will meet in Whip's room tonight. All members are urged to be present.

MISS ANNIE MAY ABBOTT

TO BE SEEN AT CHAPEL NEXT WEEK

Miss Annie May Abbott, the little "Georgia Magnet," will give an entertainment in the Chapel on next Tuesday night, Oct. 31st. The powers possessed by this young lady are a mystery to science. Some call it magnetism, others spiritualism. She is by some marvelous power enabled to defy the combined strength of many strong men, and about twenty representative citizens of Lexington and students will be invited upon the stage as a committee to take notes and test their against the 103-pound lady.

HOP

The hop which was scheduled for last Wednesday night was postponed on account of the bad weather and was held last night in the gymnasium. As is usual when a dance is postponed the crowd was very small indeed, but nevertheless the evening was thoroughly enjoyed by those present, and when at midnight, Sweet Home was rendered none of the dancers were ready to depart. The music was furnished by the V. M. I. orchestra. Miss Annie White, Mrs. Walker and Mrs. Humphreys were the chaperones. Among the dancers were the Misses Doyle, Haskins, Williams and Moore; Cadet Noland and Messrs. Steves, Pipes, Dunn, Hubbard, Allan, Oliver, B. C. Shields, Cooper, McCrum, Miles and Hanna.
