MONTHLY ASSEMBLY

Mr. Oswald G. Villard The Speaker

The regular monthly assembly was held in the Chapel on last Thursday morning at 10 o'clock, upon which occasion the student body had the very great pleasure of listening to an excellent address by Mr. Oswald Garrison Villard, of the New York Evening Post. The speaker was introduced by Dr. Denny as a man of large affairs, but one who had the public spiritedness to give a great part of his valuable time to civic duties; and as one of Washington & Lee's staunchest and most valuable friends.

In his speech Mr. Villard showed in a clear and forcible manner the great value of criticism, and the extreme narrowness which is shown by those who object to others holding opinions different from their own. He began his address by declaring that while the defeat of the bosses in the recent elections was undoubtedly due in part to the revelations of a certain "frenzied financier," and to the discovery of the fraud and theft lying at the bottom of our insurance companies; yet the major cause was the just and patriotic criticism of certain Northern independent journals. The state of affairs in the South, said Mr. Villard, is similar to that existing in the North. The large majority of men who represent us in the national legislature are not typical Southerners. In our large cities there exists municipal corruption. It is for the young man of the South, said he, to remedy these things; for until we gain that desire to submit to criticism and profit thereby; to allow that there can be other opinions than our own; those evils cannot be done away with—and it is that desired spirit which is being cultivated at Washington & Lee and other Southern institutions.

The speaker had a clear and forcible voice and his address was well appreciated by the students and the large number of bodies and citizens of Lexington who filled the galleries.

The services were given that proper and much-to-be desired dignity by the fact that the faculty wore caps and gowns. Notwithstanding that it was forced upon them, as Dr. Denny says, by an ultimatum of the student body it is the correct thing and we are glad to see it.

At the conclusion of the exercises Mr. Villard was given a hearty applause and a Washington & Lee yell with his name on the end.

A CHAGE MADE

At Last Faculty Meeting

At a meeting of the faculty on last Wednesday afternoon, a new ruling was made in regard to the monthly Assembly and the examinations. In future the Assembly will not be held at 8.45 o'clock and classes postponed a half hour. Exercises will be held in the Chapel on the regular day, but the hour will vary, the particular classes coming at that hour being suspended for the day. This was done in fairness to the 9 o'clock classes which hertofore have been invariably interfered with by the monthly Assembly exercises. In order to prevent students from making out their tickets with the sole idea of getting the last few days of examinations holiday, and in order not to invariably throw the burden of the examinations on the same professors, examinations in future will be held in the same order but may begin with any of the 10 days. For example instead of beginning with day 1 and proceeding to day 10 as usual, the examinations may begin with day 4; and days 1, 2 and 3 will follow day 10.

Unique Concert Company

TO BE AT CHAPEL TUESDAY NIGHT

On next Tuesday night a company composed of four ladies, a trio of musicians and an elocutionist, will be heard at the chapel. This unique organization is recognized as one of the strongest concert companies on the Lyceum platform. Without exception the press has given them a hearty endorsement at all places in which they have given their entertainments, and it will be well worth the while of all students to take this opportunity of hearing them. The young ladies have studied at the best colleges and conservatories in the world and have attained such voices as can be produced by hard work and life-long training only. Miss Hardenberoh, the Soprano, has a large repertoire of both classic and popular songs, and her Negro and German dialect is highly pleasing. The contralto, Miss Edith Price, is said by the press to possess a rich and powerful voice; while both Miss McCausland, the elocutionists, and Miss Hornbrook, the pianist, are reported to be artists of rare ability. We hope that the students and townspeople will turn out and give this excellent company the audience which it deserves.

Athletic Association Meets.

MR. OWEN BAGLEY ELECTED PRESIDENT.

Last Thursday morning at the conclusion of the Assembly exercises a meeting of the Athletic Association was held in the chapel for the purpose of electing a president to fill the expiring term of Mr. Thos. G. Stone, who has left college. The meeting was presided over by Mr. H. M. Moomaw, vice-president of the Association, and upon nominations being called for Mr. L. J. Desha arose, and in a short speech, put before the house the name of Mr. T. Owen Bagley. Upon motion the nominations were closed and Mr. Bagley was elected by acclamation. "Shack" has been very prominent on both the football and baseball teams and on the track, and he will doubtless make an excellent president.

Y. M. C. A.

The first regular meeting of the Association for the year was addressed by Mr. F. A. Brown, the state secretary. He spoke on "The New Crusade," which term he used to designate the student volunteer movement. Mr. Brown told how this movement had been started by a few men who were at Northfield with Mr. Moody ten or more years ago; and how it had grown until more than six thousand college men throughout the country have declared their purpose to go as missionaries into the dark and distant lands of the earth, and more than three thousand have already gone for the work. "No longer," he said, "are we dominated by the mistaken zeal which led the crusaders of the middle ages on to recover the tomb of the dead Christ, but we are fighting in the cause for which Christ lived and died. Our motto is: The Evangelization of the World in this Generation."

The speaker then told of the agencies that are used for keeping the forces for the movement supplied. Prominent among these agencies is the great convention held every fourth year, which is to meet in Nashville, Tenn., this year.

After the address the Association decided to take steps to send a delegation of five men to the Nashville conference.

Dont forget the entertainment at the Chapel next Tuesday night.

Northlet will not return to college.

ORAL DEBATES

MONDAY, JANUARY 14, 1906

QUESTION:

Resolved, That Hearst's appearance in New York's politics was due to the municipal ownership idea.

SPEAKERS

Affirmative. Negative.

Schabe Hynson
Sanders Golwin

BRIEF FOR NEGATIVE.

A. General movement in country—anti-bossism. 1. Chicago in 1904. 2. Philadelphia. 3. Public sentiment and the press.

B. Problem in New York city one of corrupt government rather than municipal ownership. 1. Election frauds. Corrupt granting of franchises. (a). Remedy in deposition of "ring." 3. Placing of city corporations under government would lead to new wrongs.

C. Due to Hearst's wish for a prominent place in politics. 1. He had no platform except a stand-patter Democrat. 2. Main ambition was to be nominated.

D. Selected by Democrats because no one else could be found. 1. Very accidental that Hearst was on side of municipal reform. 2. His large number of votes due to hatred of Tammany.

BRIEF FOR AFFIRMATIVE

I. Growth of municipal ownership sentiment. (a) Chicago. (b) Cleveland.

II. Corruption in New York politics. A. Franchises on public utilities. (a) Subway (b) Monopoly.

III. Municipal ownership basis of political platform. (a) Past record. (b) Present declarations.

Mr. Sheafe, director of the Glee Club, has resigned from that position on account of his studies. In future the Club will be directed by Mr. Hynson and Dr. Reid White.

ADDRESS BY PROF. HU PHREYS

TO CURTIS LEE ENGINEERING SOCIETY

Last night the first regular monthly meeting of the Custis Lee Engineering society was held in Engineering Hall. The constitution was first read and adopted, after which Professor Humphreys addressed the meeting, telling some of his experiences while on the Missouri river survey. Aside from its instructiveness the talk was both amusing and interesting, and Professor Stevens made it more so by throwing on a large canvas sheet, pictures which were taken on the survey.

The Custis Lee Engineering society was organized shortly before the Christmas holidays, the purpose of the society being the advancement of scientific knowledge among its members. The membership of the society is restricted to Junior, Senior and alumni of the School of Engineering and the professors, meetings will be held monthly, at which times carefully prepared papers upon scientific subjects will be read by the members. In connection with the society a working library containing the current scientific periodicals will be maintained and one of its most important functions will be to keep in touch with the non-resident members, and to know just where each one is and what kind of work he is doing. The membership now numbers about thirty. The following is a list of officers:

President, H. L. Handley.
Vice-pres. Walter H. Dunlap.
Secretary, H. W. Miller.
Treasurer, J. D. Zentmyer.
Librarian, A. E. Griffith.

This is a society which Washington & Lee has long been in need of and it supplies a long felt want. Aside from the highly instructive and beneficial effect it will have on its members, it will serve as a further means of drawing a distinction between the Academic and Scientific schools. We wish the Custis Lee society a long life and all success.

Our last issue contained an article in regard to the Xmas dance, from which one might possibly infer that each and every member of the V. M. I. orchestra is a choice booze artist. It was not our intention to convey such an idea; and we wish to correct the mistake, having since learned that several members of that excellent organization are strictly wearers of the white ribbon of temperance. We have been requested by one of the aforesaid gentlemen to state in their behalf that on the night of Dec. 25th the V. M. I. orchestra was not intoxicated and that they had reasons of their own why they could not furnish music for the Xmas hop.

Board of Health

W. & L. NO LONGER REPRESENTED

Professor D. C. Humphreys tendered his resignation as a member of the Lexington board of health to the town council at a regular meeting of that body on Thursday last. The resignation was accepted. Having taken up his residence at Mulberry Hill, which place is outside of the corporate limits, some weeks ago, Professor John H. Latane thereby vacated his office as a member of the board of health. This leaves Washington and Lee unrepresented on that important and all-powerful board.

Invitations Issued

Mrs. Margaret H. Lyle of near Brownsburg has issued invitations to the marriage of her daughter, Miss Margaret Alexander Lyle, to Mr. William Goshorn McCorkle. Mr. McCorkle is a son of former Governor William A. McCorkle of West Virginia. He is a graduate of Hampden-Sidney College and attended Washington and Lee the two past sessions. The marriage is to take place on January 16th.

Challenge from U. Va.

Mr. McMurrin, manager of the basket ball team, has received a challenge from the team at the University of Virginia. The game, if it takes place, will be played in Lexington. It is to be hoped that all men who can play will come out so that the team can be quickly organized and the necessary arrangements made for the game.

Tennessee Club

The Tennessee Club held a meeting at the Dormitory last Saturday night in the room of Mr. Knox Walker. Light refreshments were served and after a few hours enjoyably spent in chatting and smoking the Club adjourned.

LITERARY SOCIETIES

The Wash Society

At our first meeting after the holidays, the society was called to order by vice-president Nix. After reading and approving of minutes of two previous meetings, President-elect Light delivered his inaugural address. The new officers then took their places and the regular program was set aside in order that special business might be transacted. A committee appointed on constitutional revision consists of Messrs. Bell, McDonald and Murrey. Mr. Semple was unanimously elected to compete with a member of Graham-Lee for the position of state oratorical delegate. The society decided to send an invitation to the Buena Vista girls to be present at the intermediate celebration. We adjourned at ten o'clock. Let all members be present next meeting.

Graham-Lee

The meeting of the society was called to order at eight o'clock by president Hobson. Secretary Blain protom called the roll. The program was then passed to as there was no business matter on hand.

Owing to the facts, that the holidays were just over and a dance at V. M. I. the attendance was small and only a few of the speakers were present. The two members for orations having presented acceptable excuses the subject of orations was dispensed with. After a few minutes wait one of the declaimers Mr. Larrick entered and entertained the society.

Three of the members for the debate were absent and their representatives were appointed by the president. The question "Resolved that Co-education is desirable in Colleges," was upheld by Messrs. L. Collins and Kebler and the negative by Messrs. Leach and Howser.

The judges Messrs. Sapp, Larrick and Michler, decided in favor of the affirmative.

There being no other business the motion for adjournment was made and carried.

The Colonels.

The Kentucky Club was entertained by Col. R. S. Sanders at the University Inn Tuesday evening. Roll call showed all members but one present, and the comprehensive system of fines imposed by the new constitution will doubtless be a powerful auxiliary to the good time always in producing attendance in the future. After the regular business was transacted suitable (solid) refreshments were enjoyed by all and the club adjourned at 11 o'clock with a yell or so for the host of the evening.

December Collegian.

In general the December issue of Southern Collegian is decidedly better than its two predecessors. The poetry is good, the fiction is entertaining and the departments are well edited. There is no reason under the sun why our magazine shouldn't be just as good as any published. Let the motto for the writers be: "Adelante, siempre adelante." To take up the contents seriatim: The initial poem, "Vacation," is good; "The Destiny of the South" is well written and should stir the heart of every patriotic Southerner.—We call attention to Mr. Sapp's optimism and figures of speech; the "Paraphrase from Horace" is clever; "The Cause of the Delay" is an interesting story and attests the author's familiarity with the recesses of the heart feminine; "Music in Poetry—Poe" shows good work; "The Voice of the Hills" is slightly husky, but sweet nevertheless; "The Count of Huelva" evinces imagination and narrative power. We advise Mr. Shields to study Ecclesiastes more; he by no means exhausted the subjected. Comment on Williams' oratorical chef d'oeuvre is unnecessary. The editorials evidence much thought and knowledge of national politics. We suggest, however, that the editor turn his attention to local matters. Quite a salutary editorial might be penned on "Snobishness"; or, "Fools and Their Folly." The poem, "Evening," is up to Mr. Payne's standard of excellence.
