University Assembly

DR. KELLY OF JOHNS-HOPKINS.

The University Assembly was addressed Friday morning by Dr. Howard A. Kelly, of Johns-Hopkins University. His theme was the Sphere of the University. Dr. Kelly said at the outset that his convictions were based on his long experience both as student and professor at the largest universities in this country.

The speaker showed how the university was the present life and future hope of the nation; yet the universities are turning out many of the worst criminals. These educated criminals are more degraded and unscrupulous than any other class. He then discussed the causes of such a state of affairs in our university life and suggested remedies. There are three kinds of development necessary for education in the true sense of the word. These are the spiritual, intellectual and physical. If any one of these is left out failure will result.

He affirmed that the educated criminal was the result of the overdevelopment of one, or possibly two, of these without the third. The physical has in late years taken too much of the student's time in order for him to have symmetrical development. The spiritual should stand first, because "the fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom." Spiritual growth has practically stopped in the universities, and it is so badly needed many of our educators are trying to revise it. What we need, the speaker said, was not morality, which is all very well, but it is too general moving on a horizontal plane. It is a strong individual spiritually which is not general and horizontal, but specific and moves perpendicular, ever Godward.

The remedy for these evils is through influence, and that is chiefly with the professors in our colleges. Therefore they should be above all else devout Christian men to be true educators. They should come in closer contact with the students as individuals, standing in the relation of an older brother to them.

Dr. Kelly presented his subject in a clear and forceful manner and it was a splendid discussion of present day problems which confronts our universities. He has been for 17 years a professor in the medical department of the Johns-Hopkins University of Baltimore, and is a surgeon of world wide reputation. He is also well known as a philanthropist.

Lelia Ball Recital

Not a large crowd but a very appreciative one heard Mrs. Lelia Ball Groppe last Tuesday night in the University Chapel. It is not for us to even try to criticize any one who is so perfect a contralto singer as Mrs. Groppe, but we do know that her tones, especially the low ones, often thrilled one because of their sweetness, richness and power.

The program was well selected, and we would particularly commend "Gae to Sleep" and Aria from "Samson and Delilah." Nor can we refrain from mentioning "The Little Boy Blue," a song which we are always delighted to hear. Miss Nellie Irvine was splendid in accompanying; we only wish we might have heard her on a good piano.

Indeed it is rare that we have such a treat as that offered by this recital. There surely should have been more students present to have enjoyed it as well as to have aided the baseball management.

Three Games Canceled

The faculty at their last meeting had the baseball schedule submitted to them and saw fit to cancel two games. They were the Harvard game, which would be played in Richmond, and the Richmond college game, which would have been played in Lynchburg. The reason for this action on the part of the faculty is that in their opinion it would keep the players absent from college for too long a time.

The game which was scheduled with the University of Virginia has also been canceled. This was done by Manager Toms, we understand, because the manager of the Virginia team insists that we play under the athletic rules of that institution.

Alumni Notes

H. C. Crabill, B. L. 1905, is practicing law at Monroeville, Ind.

Frank H. Rudkin, B. L. 1886, is Judge of the Supreme Court of Washington state.

M. Page Andrews, A. B. 1901, is teaching in the Jefferson School for Boys, Baltimore.

J. H. McLeary, A. B., B. L. 1869, is Associate Justice of the Supreme Court of Porto Rico at San Juan. Judge McLeary expects to attend Commencement of 1907 on his way to the Jamestown Exposition.

Professor Stevens

The University Press club met Thursday night in Engineering Hall and was entertained by an address from Professor Stevens. The speaker gave a talk which had a great deal of the interesting and amusing in it, but which at the same time was quite instructive and beneficial to those who heard it.

Professor Stevens showed how the effort to establish schools of journalism had met with but little success because they have no precedents like other professions. Everything that is done in that line must be something new, something invented. The laboratory system which is used so effectively in all other departments of study cannot in a large degree be made use of in the study of journalism.

Turning to our own institution, the speaker pointed out what he thought all prospective editors in Washington & Lee should especially direct their attention to. While it is desirable, even necessary, to get some knowledge of science and languages, it is to group II that the prospective editor should turn, and of the subjects in this group he should especially give his attention to English. Nothing short of a M. A. certificate will do.

The fault of being unable to spell correctly was duly emphasized; and many curious and amusing mistakes which have resulted from carelessness on the part of the printer caused a great deal of merriment.

Very few of the members of the club were present, which is to be regretted. It is hoped that all will be present at the next meeting.

Communication

Several times in these columns the University has been somewhat censured for delaying to put down suitable walks. These we need very much yet in thinking of our own comfort we would not overlook the more important welfare of the university buildings. A little leak if forgotten may do a great deal of harm. The guttering at the top of the porch in front of the main building is very defective and not only allows water to pour down by the bucket on the pavement below but is damaging the adjacent wall. Not knowing who has charge of the buildings we take this opportunity to call attention to a point probably overlooked. In view of the coming spring rains this dampness may seriously damage the wall and we would like to see it corrected.

Y. M. C. A.

An interesting and instructive address was delivered at the regular meeting of the Association last Sunday, by Rev. Mr. Boyd of the Episcopal church. The speaker said that as the disciples asked, "What manner of man is this?" when they saw that even the winds and the waves obeyed him, so we are constrained to ask the same question when we reflect upon the law, society morality and modern progress which Christianity has brought into the world.

He then pointed out that Christ was a unique character; for all His work was accomplished while He was a young man. He chose His disciples in defiance of all recognized laws for the establishment of a great kingdom, and He has left no book and no writings that are known to us. Christ was brave and pure amid the impurity and immorality of His age; gentle, tender and patient with wicked; and He proclaimed doctrines that have proven universal in their application and in their influence upon the hearts and minds of men.

Graham-Lee Society

The society was called to order by President Flanagan and the regular order of business was dispensed with in order to proceed with the revision of the constitution. The Committee on Revision was in the midst of their report when we received an invitation to meet the Washington Society in joint session. It was decided in joint session that the offices of President and Chief Marshal at the Final celebration should alternate with the Societies each year, the President being chosen from the Washington Society this year.

The discussion of the revision of the constitution was postponed one week and we adjourned to meet for the last time this term on March 10, 1906.

Dr. Latane Chosen

Dr. John H. Latane has been elected one of a board of six editors on the recently established American Political Science Review. This publication is gotten out by the American Political Science Association with a view to concentrating into one magazine all articles bearing on the subject of Political Science. Dr. Latane will have especial charge of the department of International Law. Dr. Willoughby of Johns Hopkins is editor-in-chief of the review.

Everyone who had the pleasure of hearing the entertainment of the instrumental clubs last year knows that they were all to the good. The clubs this year are fully as good if not better than last, so you will get your money's worth if you come to the Chapel on the 15th. But aside from that you owe it to your college to come, for only by receiving the support of the students can these clubs be a success. The men in them have worked hard; show your appreciation of it by coming to their concert.

Simply because three games have been canceled it is doubtless now in order for the pessimists in college to begin predicting dismal failure for the base ball team in every particular. Just notice this, however. Each of these three games was to have been played away from home. There are still twenty games to be played in Lexington. The season tickets are just as much of a bargain as ever and when you are asked to sign up for one you ought to do it.

Concert

The Male Quartet and reader from the Ithaca Conservatory of music, will give a concert in the University chapel Thursday night March 21st at 8.30 P. M. The proceeds will go to base hall so it is urged that every student that possibly can will go and help the baseball team along. This is in the midst of examinations, but it was the only time they could be secured.

Any one having heard the male quartet will not fail to hear it again. So come, enjoy the evening, and at the same time help your base ball team along. Don't forget the date.

This is the last issue of the RING-TUM PHI which will be gotten out until after April 1st on account of the approaching mid-term examinations. We wish all students success with the exams.

Va. S. Celebrates.

Last night the Va. S. chapter of S. A. E. celebrated the 50th anniversary of the fraternity in a beautiful banquet at Hotel Lexington. The room and table were tastefully decorated in the fraternity colors and at 10 o'clock the merriment began. After an elaborate menu of some eight or ten courses Mr. V. M. Miles, the toastmaster, explained the significance of the occasion in a few well chosen words called for the toasts. That of Mr. Cole deserves especial mention for its graphic recital of the trials and tribulations of a "Goat," and also that of Mr. G. H. Miles to "Our Sisters," which from the wide experience of the speaker and his intimate knowledge of "Current Events" was full of instruction in addition to its wit. At a late hour the crowd broke up with a ringing "Phi Alpha Aleezer"!!! and a chorus from the boys as the girls went home.

Those present beside the immediate chapter were, Mrs. Nichols, Misses Rust, Graham, Miller, Dunlap, Miss Miles from Hollins Institute, Captains Nolan and Newman from V. M. I., and Mr. McElwee of Lexington.

The toasts responded to were: "Va. E.," Walter H. Dunlap. "The Boys from V. M. I.," Capt. Nolan. "The Alumni," Mr. McElwee. "Goats," Jefferson Cole. "Our Sisters," Geo. H. Miles. "Washington & Lee," J. C. Hamilton. "S. A. E.," Sorby Jemison.

Legislators Uphold Football

In the house of delegates Tuesday the bill of Dr. Powell of Brunswick, to make the playing of football a crime came up as a special order. He denounced the game as worse than prize fighting or the bull ring.

Delegate Early, the giant member from Madison, and former invincible center rush on the football teams of the University of Virginia and the Virginia Military Institute, opposed the measure. He raised a storm of applause by rising to his full height and declaring himself a monument of health to the football game.

Dr. Powell, who is himself a humorist, asked, "But how many have you killed?" When the demonstration had subsided Mr. Early, with an imperturbable smile, retorted, "Doctor, how many have you killed?"

The house refused to order the bill to its third reading and engrossment. Dr. Powell took his seat with the remark that he did not expect it to pass.

The Trans-Mississippi club will hold its banquet on the evening of April 30th.

The [Southern Seminary Dramatic Club will give an entertainment tonight.

The Glee, Mandolin and Guitar clubs will give their entertainment at the University chapel on next Thursday evening, March 15th and not on the 14th as announced last week.

Maryland Club.

The February meeting of the Maryland Club was held the night of Feb. 24, in Benson's room. At this meeting an extra meeting was called for March 3. At the latter meeting it was decided definitely to hold the proposed banquet on the night of April 2 at the Lexington hotel, provided two-thirds of the members should be in favor of it. The officers wish to announce that more than the required number have expressed themselves favorably and arrangements will be made accordingly. It is earnestly requested that every man from Maryland make a strenuous effort to attend this in order that it may be success.
