LOST ONE; WON ONE

Western Maryland Game

Washington and Lee struck the easiest thing of the season on Monday last when we crossed bats with the Western Maryland College, defeating them by a score of 14 to 1. The game was uninteresting in the extreme, the Maryland boys putting up a very poor article in the way of base-ball. In consequence our team did not have to exert itself and the entire game was devoid of any brilliant plays.

The first three men up for Western Maryland were easily retired, two being struck out by Johnson. For W. & L. two men scored in this inning. Quite a surprise was sprung on Johnson in the second when the first two men up for our opponents landed out a two-base hit each, scoring their one and only run. The rest of the game was without interest; W. & L. batted the Maryland pitcher almost at will, especially in the fourth and six innings, in each of which runs were scored. In the former Pipes batted the ball into tennis courts for a homer.

The Maryland team, with the exception of one man, was unable to hit Johnson. Coaling, of the visitors, got three hits out of four times up, two of them for two bases. Adkins was the only other to make a hit, he landing out a two-bagger in the first inning. In the field the Marylanders were no better, making thirteen errors.

Score by innings: R. H. E.
W. M. C. 0 1 0 0 0 0 0 0—1 4 13
W. & L. 2 0 0 6 0 4 0 2 x—14 15 3
Summary:—Batteries—For W. M., Coaling and Hawks; for W. & L., Johnson and Trimble. Struck out—By Hawks 3; by Johnson 8. Pitched balls—By Hawks 2. Umpire—Sam Chilton.

Davidson Game

Not hard luck but exceedingly poor playing caused Washington and Lee on Tuesday last to go down before Davidson College to the tune of 12 to 5. Up until the fifth inning it looked as if we would win despite the miserable fielding done in the second when we allowed our opponents to score three runs without making a single hit. This was due to the good pitching of Porter during the first four innings; "Red" having started off by striking out the first three visitors up with ten balls delivered. Up until this time the batting of Washington and Lee was very good, but in the fifth Davidson removed Cooper from the box and substituted Anderson, a much better twirler, and the rest of the game was bad for W. & L. batting averages. Also, in the fifth the visitors scored four more runs and during the rest of the game our team seemed to have lost its nerve. Porter who until then had pitched a good game began to toy with the ball and in consequence Davidson got in a few hits. Several errors were made which did their part toward helping our opponents along. In fact, except for Porter's brilliant pitching during the first two or three innings, and Anthony's playing during the entire game the ball playing put up by Washington and Lee had no redeeming features.

The Davidson team was a fast one but perhaps not so good as either Syracuse or St. John's. They fielded well and threw with both speed and accuracy. Cooper, who twirled for the visitors during the first part of the game, was not much, but Anderson, who was put in his place, was a slab artist of no mean ability. At bat it is hard to say what Davidson is capable of doing. Certain it is that so long as Porter tried to pitch their hits were few and far between; but when Porter began to toy with the ball they batted him considerably.

Score by innings: R. H. E.
Davidson 0 3 0 0 4 0 1 0 4—12 10 2
W. & L. 0 2 3 0 0 0 0 0 0—5 8 5
Summary: Struck out—By Porter, 11; by Cooper, 2; by Anderson, 5. Base on balls—Off Porter 4, off Cooper 12. Umpire—Capt. Johnson of V. M. I.

Ernest B. Kruttschnitt Dead in New Orleans

A dispatch received here Monday announced the death in New Orleans of Mr. Ernest B. Kruttschnitt, an influential and honored citizen of Louisiana. Mr. Kruttschnitt had been in poor health for some months. He was a student at Washington and Lee under General Robert E. Lee and was graduated with high honors both in letters and law. He rose to eminence at the New Orleans bar and was prominently identified with movements for the betterment of his state, particularly in the great anti-lottery fight and in the fight for the reform in the suffrage. He was president of its constitutional convention which accomplished suffrage reform. He was ever loyal to Washington and Lee and occasionally revisited it.

Easter Dances.

THE GERMAN.

On Monday last the Cotillion Club gave its annual Easter german. There were an unusually large number of girls present, and for some reason the stags did not come out in the usual immense crowd, so that the dancing was more enjoyable than it has been on other occasions, the only drawback being that the dance terminated at 12 o'clock, which is rather early for an Easter german. Several very new and pretty figures were led by Mr. Dunn with Miss Brookenbrough. Frozen ices were served during the evening. Music was furnished by the V. M. I. orchestra. The chaperones were Miss Annie White, Mrs. Kern, Mrs. Walker, Mrs. Huger, Mrs. Owen and Mrs. Watts.

The couples taking part in the dance were:

Miss Tait, of Norfolk, with Mr. Caperton.

Miss Allen, of Staunton, with Mr. Desha.

Miss Gilkeson, of Washington, with Mr. J. Campbell.

Miss Hale, of Florida, with Mr. Allen.

Miss Rust, of Lexington, with Mr. Miles.

Miss Williams, of Washington, with Mr. Jemison.

Miss Smith with Mr. Page.

Miss Williams with Mr. Brown.

Miss Howe, of Lexington, with Mr. Bagley.

Miss Haskins, of Lexington, with Mr. Stevens.

Miss Hitch, of Norfolk, with Mr. Anderson.

Miss Dunlap, of Lexington, with Mr. Dyer.

Miss Brookenbrough, of Lexington, with Mr. Dunn.

Miss Miller, of Roanoke, with Mr. Hamilton.

Miss Strayer, of Harrisonburg, with Mr. C. N. Campbell.

Miss Hamilton, of Staunton, with Mr. Trimble.

Miss Roller, of Harrisonburg, with Mr. Hubbard.

Miss Powell, of Minnesota, with Mr. Oliver.

Miss Moore, of Lexington, with Mr. Sheafe.

Among the stags were: Messrs. Shields, Miles, Powell, Cooper, Pipes, Hobson, Jones, Russel, Bledsoe, Hanna, Barclay and Glass, and Capt. Noland of the V. M. I.

S. B. C. DANCE

The S. B. C. ribbon society gave a most enjoyable dance on Tuesday night last in the McCrum hall. The room was tastefully decorated in evergreens, flowers and college and fraternity pennants. Delightful music was rendered by the V. M. I. orchestra, to which those present danced until 2 o'clock. Cool, refreshing fruit punch was served and everything combined to make the affair a success. Mrs. Kern, Mrs. Walker and Miss Annie White chaperoned. Among the dancers were the following:

Misses Strayer, Tait, Moore, Bloom, Allen, Gilkeson, Hale, Rust, Williams, Harman, Smith, Haskins, Dunlap, Brookenbrough, Miller, Hamilton, Powell, Hitch, Richardson and Howe.

Messrs. Steves, Allan, Sheafe, Hamilton, Miles, Hood, Bagley, Trimble, Caperton, Hubbard, White, Brown, Dyer, Anthony, Desha, Pipes, Lazarus, Hagood, Dunn, Campbell, C. N., and others.

EASTER HOP

The regular Easter hop was given on last Wednesday evening in the gymnasium. Dancing began at an early hour and lasted until midnight. Only about 15 girls were present and the stags were out in profusion. Nevertheless the affair was a complete success and every one present enjoyed it thoroughly and was sorry when it, and with it, the Easter festivities came to an end. Mrs. Huger, Mrs. Walker, Mrs. Kern and Mrs. Watts chaperoned. Among the dancers were: Misses Rust, Haskins, Smith, Hitch, Brookenbrough, Neill, Bloom, Williams, Tait, Hale, Howe, Strayer and Hamilton. Messrs. White, Spindle, Pipes, Bagley, Dunn, Hynson, Oliver, Davis, Steves, Anderson, Hood and many others.

Granolithic Pavements

W. W. Majors, contractor of Clifton Forge, is now here putting material on the ground to lay about 700 square yards of granolithic pavement at Washington and Lee university. The board of trustees in June last appropriated $10,000 to be applied toward this purpose and it will put down the amount stated. It is probable the board will make another appropriation to this work next June. Mr. Majors is arranging first to lay walks about Lees dormitory. He will then lay them about the university buildings. The walks are expected to vary in width from four to six feet. Work will be commenced in the next few days.

Cover is able to be out again.

After considering the various suggestions with regard to the proposed change in the RING-TUM PHI the present management has decided that the one submitted by the faculty fits the situation better than any other, and it will be placed before the student-body at its next meeting in the hope that they will see fit to adopt it. The plan, in brief, is this:

(1). A staff of five Associate Editors to be elected during the latter part of each collegiate year to serve the following year; these associate editors to be chosen as follows: one each from the Junior and Sophomore Academic classes, one from the Junior Law Class, and two from the School of Engineering.

(2). The five men thus selected, together with two others, chosen one from the Senior Academic and one from the Senior Law Class, to compose an electoral board, which shall elect, not later than June 1, an Editor-in-Chief and a Business Manager for the following year. The Editor-in-Chief and Business Manager may or may not be men already selected by their classes to represent them on the RING-TUM PHI staff, as the electoral board shall see fit.

(3). In consideration of their services the Business Manager and Editor-in-Chief shall receive 45 per cent and 30 per cent. of the profits respectively, the remaining profits to go toward the proposed enlargement of the athletic field. But so soon as the incomes of the Editor-in-Chief and Business Manager shall reach $100 and $150 respectively, then the further increase in profits shall be divided in the following ratio: Editor-in-Chief 10 per cent., Business Manager 10 per cent., Athletic Fund 80 per cent. At the end of each collegiate year the Business Manager shall make a detailed report of all receipts and expenditures to the Student Executive Committee and the report shall be published in the columns of the RING-TUM PHI.

The above is, in brief, the plan which the present management of the RING-TUM PHI, from its knowledge of the needs of the publication, deems most practical and advisable. By such a system the evils of an election by popular vote of the student body would be done away with and at the same time the students would have a direct voice in the control of the paper. Furthermore, such a system insures that the men chosen to serve on the staff of the paper will be either Juniors or Seniors during the time of such service, and thus we would be certain that all matter contained in the RING-TUM PHI would be from the pens of the older and more experienced students. In fact, we could name numerous points in favor of this plan; and have, as yet, found no fault in it. We sincerely hope that the students will give this matter their attention and adopt this plan when it is submitted to them at their next meeting.

Kappa Alpha Banquet

Alpha Chapter of the Kappa Alpha fraternity gave its annual banquet last Thursday evening. The affair proved to be the most enjoyable of Easter week for those present. The banquet room was decorated in the fraternity colors and pennants and American Beauty roses were strewn over the tables. Mr. Greenlee Letcher of Lexington, presided as toastmaster and the toasts were responded to by Dr. Latane, Prof. Long, Mr. Pipes, Capt. Johnson and Mr. Steves. Besides the members of the chapter the following were present; Prof. and Mrs. Long, Mrs. Greer, Miss Louise Haskins, Miss May Haskins, Miss Tant, Miss Barclay, Miss Lewis, Miss Brockenbrough, Miss Staples, and Capts. Johnson and LaPrade of V. M. I.

Y. M. C. A.

The last Sunday's meeting of the Association was held in the University chapel, and the largest crowd we have had during the year turned out to hear Dr. Hawes' address on "The Crisis of Choice." The speaker said that the necessity of choosing is ever before us and is constantly forced upon us, for choice is involved in the very act of refusing to choose. The crisis of choice then accompanies all the other great crises of our lives, and is the most important of them all.

Dr. Hawes' meetings were brought to an abrupt close on Tuesday night by an urgent call from a family of his congregation in Louisville.

Personals

Miss Annie White has been sick this week.

Porter was in Staunton the earlier part of the week.

F. R. Crawford is in Washington attending a convention of the Phi Kappa Psi fraternity.

Professor and Mrs. W. LeConte Stevens left yesterday on a trip north.

If you want a nice tailor made suit stop and look at F. L. Young's $22 suits. Fit guaranteed.

"Cousin Sam" Chilton was a visitor in Lexington this week. He umpired the game with Western Maryland.

Rev. Dr. T. M. Hawes addressed a gospel meeting for men at the Chapel last Sunday, his subject being "The Crisis of Choice."

Miss Guendoline Howe who has been visiting her parents Dr. and Mrs. Jas L. Howe left yesterday for Lynchburg where she attends the R. M. W. C.

Washington Society

After a slight delay occasioned by the bad weather the society was called to order with a very creditable attendance. Mr. Doub then gave a well prepared oration on "Discovery of America and its effects." The speech showed up well for a mere beginner. The other orators and declaimers were absent.

Mr. Lease and Mr. Iden then entertained the society for five minutes with extemporaneous speeches, whereupon, desiring more amusement, Mr. Murrey was called upon. He spoke for 30 minutes on "The Glories of Tennessee." All were surprised to find that state had so much of interest in it.

The debate Resolved, that Union labor is beneficial to the country at large, was upheld by Messrs. Robinson and Syron on the affirmative and McDonald on the negative. After listening to treasurer's report, the society entertained an apology from Mr. Rowe of the Southern Seminary occasioned by the late reception given to our organization. This was duly accepted and the motion of adjournment was carried.

All but two of the Stanford university buildings are reported to have been ruined by the earthquake.

The men who are to represent W. & L. U. in the intercollegiate track meet at Charlottesville left yesterday at 12.10.

As we go to press the game with the Carlisle Indians is on, a full account of which will be contained in our next issue.

Second Team Takes Trip

The second team left early Tuesday morning to play Bridgewater college and the Harrisonburg High school. The men composing the team are; Allen, manager; Hood, c.; Quisenberry, p.; McCreary, p.; Bagley, 1b.; Geo. Miles, 2b.; Chatham, p. and s. s.; Maxwell, 3b.; Cartis, 1. f.; Jemison, c. f.; Dow, r. f.; and Glasgow, sub.

A Harrisonburg newspaper contains the following concerning Tuesday's game:

The Reserves from Washington and Lee University were defeated yesterday by the Bridgewater College baseball team on the College Athletic field by a score of 18 to 1. Bridgewater made two runs in the first inning and fifteen in the second. At the close of this inning, Quisenberry, the left handed twirler, whom the College boys knocked out of the box, was superseded by Chatham. After this the game proved to be a more interesting contest and each team made but one more score, both of those being in the fifth.

Price did the pitching for Bridgewater and put up a steady game. Hoover did excellent work in catcher's place. The College team is composed largely of new material this season, but it is probably the best they have had. They would have done even better yesterday but for the fact that the one-sided score up to the third inning gave the Lexington boys no chance of winning.

In the game with the Harrisonburg High School the "scrubs" won by a score of 15 to 2. McCreary pitched in the second game and did good work. It is said that the Harrisonburg boys were much better than the Bridgewater team, but the "scrubs" claim that in the first game they were playing against ten men and stood no show. The team arrived in Lexington this morning.

Alumni Meeting

A meeting of the Lynchburg alumni of Washington and Lee was held on Wednesday last in that city to do honor to the name of the late Hon. Earnest B. Kruttschnitt of New Orleans. Mr. F. S. Kirkpatrick presided and Mr. W. G. McDowell in a brief address outlined the life of the great Louisianian, mentioning the great number of honors which have been conferred upon him and bearing testimony to his traits of high moral character and intellectual superiority. A committee consisting of W. G. McDowell, John G. Haythe and S. G. Anspach was appointed to draw up suitable resolutions of respect.

The Delta Tau Delta fraternity gave a banquet on last Thursday evening.

Prof. Hart of Harvard Speaks

The University Assembly was held on Tuesday last at 11 o'clock, upon which occasion the students had the pleasure of listening to an extremely interesting address by Prof. A. Bushnell Hart, LL. D., of the Department of History of Harvard University.

The subject of Prof. Hart's address was "George Washington as a Literary Man," and he handled it in a manner both amusing and instructing. Beginning with the home influence of Washington he ignored all those myths which have sprung up around the Father of His Country and traced the development of the real man; showing the effect of his life influences upon the character of his letters and other writings.

Prof. Hart paid a tribute to Washington and Lee in his opening words. He said, "Living in the hope of visiting this renowned institution of learning my ambition of 30 years is crowned at last." His references to Gen. Robert E. Lee were such as could be uttered only by a broad minded Northerner, and they were received by the students with great applause. Virginia's claims to the great and noble Washington were shattered by the speaker when he said that George Washington was born in the British Colonies, lived in and died in the United States.
