TEAM PLAYS WELL AND TWO VICTORIES ARE RESULT

Carlisle Indian Game

What was, perhaps, the largest crowd that ever gathered on Wilson field witnessed the contest of Saturday last when the redskin warriors from Carlisle were defeated by Washington and Lee in a ten inning game. The afternoon started out with bad prospects for the management, for a fierce little storm arose and out-of-doors it was extremely uncomfortable. Luckily it lasted but a short while and then the sun came out from under the clouds, the cold wind ceased to blow and baseball weather reigned supreme.

The contest was all that could be desired by the keenest critic of our national game. It was exciting in the extreme and fraught throughout with brilliant playing. No crowd ever got its money's worth more than the one which witnessed this game, for it was the slickest article in the way of baseball which has ever been seen in Lexington.

For Washington and Lee Porter twirled a splendid game, giving but one base on balls and striking out ten men. Every man on the team fielded well. Johnson made a particularly brilliant catch in left field, and Temple got his hooks on to two extremely difficult ones in right. The Indians played fast ball; and when it came to fielding, with perhaps the exception of second base, were all there with the goods. Too much cannot be said of the clean ball which they play nor of their gentlemanly conduct on the diamond.

In the first inning neither side scored, both being retired in very rapid order. Our opponents made the first score of the day in the second but were checked there. From this point up until the sixth there was nothing in the doing matter of runs, both sides fielding well, both pitchers doing good work and neither team being able to bunch hits. But in the sixth Washington and Lee started the fireworks and gave the merry-go-round a shove. With two men on bases Pipes landed on one of Whitecrow's curves and batted it over the fence for a homer, thus scoring three runs. Anthony followed with a two base hit, but Porter was thrown out at first by Roy which ended the inning. The following inning gained nothing for either side, but in their half of the eighth our opponents tied the score and from then on the contest was excitement personified. Things looked better for Washington and Lee when the inning was over, for in the last half Luhn scored, making the score stand 4 to 3 in our favor. A silent prayer went up from the "rooters" that our fellows might be able to hold the Indians down in the ninth, but it evidently not made in the right spirit, for Whitecrow, having gotten to first on a single, made second on an error, then third on a wild pitch and finally crossed the plate when Youngdeer lined out a single. The next man struck one and Washington and Lee got another chance with the stick, but nothing doing. In the tenth inning the excitement reached its climax. After two men had been caught out on flies by Temple, Baird got a two bagger; advanced to third on Wahoo's single; and both scored on an error. Roy was caught out trying to steal second. This retired the visitors and Washington and Lee came to the bat for a final struggle. Luhn struck but reached first on a wild pitch, advanced to second on Bagley's hit and stole third. Pipes went out on a fly and Anthony struck out. Porter came up to the plate and a sigh went up from the rooters as two strikes were called; but "Red" lit into the next ball for a two bagger and the score was tied. Temple followed with another hit bringing Porter home and winning the game for Washington & Lee. Score 7 to 6.

A. & M. Game

The game with the Agricultural and Mechanical College of North Carolina was won by Washington and Lee by a close score, 4 to 3. It was an exceedingly exciting contest throughout, notwithstanding that A. & M. did not score until the eighth inning. Several times our visitors got the bases full but owing to Johnson's good bitching and the excellent support given him by our entire team they were unable to score. Capt. Trimble having hurt his thumb very badly in the game with Carlisle, he did not play in Monday's game. Anthony took his place behind the bat and although it is the first time he has caught on a college team he did exceedingly well. Foard took Anthony's place on third and "Ugly" Chatham was put in at short. Chatham did remarkably well; he accepted four chances each one of which was a hot liner and in three of the cases fairly robbed A. & M. of a hit, as well as getting his man out at first. Pipes got his accustomed home run and made an exceedingly difficult catch in centre field. The whole team played good ball.

The A. & M. boys played a fast game of ball but were a little disposed to dispute the decision of the Umpire. Shuford of A. & M. got three hits out of four times at bat. The visitors were slightly weak in the pitcher's box.

Methodists vs. Presbyterians

An interesting game of baseball was played yesterday afternoon on Wilson field between two teams representing the Methodist and Presbyterian Sunday schools, and the Methodists won by a score of 12 to 9 in a pretty ten-inning game. The batting of Chittum, fielding of Charlton, Ackerly and Hutton for the Weslemites, and catching of McCrum on first and fielding of Glasgow and Deaver for the Calvinites were features. The batteries were: Methodists, Gillock and Higgins; Presbyterians, Champ, McCrum and Youell, umpires, G. H. Miles and Maddox of W. L. U.

W. & L. Wins Second Place

ANDERSON BREAKS POLE VAULT RECORD

In the intercollegiate track meet held at Charlottesville last Saturday Washington and Lee tied with George Washington University for second honors, Virginia winning first place. The following account of the meet is taken from College Topics:

The second annual intercollegiate and interscholastic track, field and relay meet, the biggest outdoor event of its kind ever held in the South, was pulled off at Lambeth Field Saturday afternoon in the presence of several hundred spectators. The colleges represented were North Carolina, George Washington, Washington and Lee, St. John's and Virginia.

Virginia had a big lead in the matter of points won by scoring a total of 98½, George Washington University and Washington and Lee tied for second honors, with 15 points. St. John's was third, with 7½, and North Carolina fourth, with 5.

Archie Randolph, of Virginia, equaled the Virginia record in the high jump by clearing the bar at 5 feet 9 inches.

Anderson, of Washington and Lee, treated the spectators to a big surprise by defeating Taylor in the pole vault. In his attempt to break the Virginia record Anderson cleared 10 feet 8½ inches.

From the view point of competition the best event of the afternoon was the North Carolina-St. John's relay race. Although St. John's won, it was only after the fiercest sort of struggle. Harrison, of St. John's, commenced his final journey around the track; he started a fine spurt which cut down North Carolina's lead. When the athletes turned into the home stretch Harrison gathered himself together and sprang across the tape, a winner over Catain Pittman, of North Carolina, by less than one foot.

Point winners were given handsome medals, and the winning teams were awarded pennants.

The following are the results of the events in which W. & L. gained a place:

Two-mile run; intercollegiate—Won by Lorando, George Washington; second, Harwood, Virginia; third, Offutt, Washington and Lee; fourth, Rummel, Virginia. Time, 10:51 2-5.

WORK ON THE RIVER

April with its warm sunny days has not found the clubs idle. Unable to get the new landing put in time we were compelled to patch up the old one for a few weeks' service; but hope to get a new one in a week or so.

The old Harry Lee boat, which has been covered with canvas and overhauled generally, is now making regularly six trips an evening. Although training in one boat necessarily makes the work slow, yet it has been going steadily forward and the crew committees will soon be able to begin dropping men preparatory to picking the crews.

The material this year is very promising, although at present it is too early to tell much about the men individually. For the Harry Lees Minutree, Light and A. I. Miller of last year's crew are back, and Dunn and Larrick, J. H., both of whom pulled a strong oar last year, are out again ready to make some one work for his place, while C. Newton will give some one a hard race for coxswain. Among the promising men from the freshmen class may be mentioned Baker, Powell, Davis, Moore Durance and Osbourne.

For the Albert Sidneys Riser, Withers, Hoge, E. C., and George Miles of last year's crew are back, while Hobson, C. N., Walker, Hoge, W. L., and Scott, all strong oarsmen last year, will make things lively for the old men. Manly, Geo. Miles and Gravely, who ran such a close race last year for coxswain, are out again with their old time rivalry.

Among the new men the most promising are Houser, McMurrin, V. M. Miles, Railing, Alderson, DeVane and H. M. White.

From present prospects both crews ought to be strong, and it is expected that the race will be a hard fought one.

It is hoped a scrub crew from each club can be kept in training in the old boat after the representative crews are picked. This will be a great step in the right direction and will aid greatly in fitting the crews for the race this year and the scrubs for next season's work. These scrub crews will be picked by the crew committees.

Last year we had tub and swimming races on the day of the race, and although gotten up hurriedly and ill-arranged, they proved such a success that we will have them again this year. A committee will probably be appointed in a few days to attend to these races and get the participants in shape for them. Appropriate prizes will be given to the winners.

Boating this year has taken on a new life, and although unable to row with the Richmond club, it is hoped and expected that we will be in a position to row with Richmond and probably others next year.

It has always been the desire of those interested in rowing to try our strength with others in the annual regattas, and we hope and expect to see the realization of our dreams in the next few years.

Graham-Lee Society

The proceedings of our meetings have not been reported regularly. The attendance has been fairly good. The chief work done for the last few weeks is the revision of the constitution and by-laws. The last regular election resulted as follows: A. P. Staples, Jr., president; R. S. Keebler, vice-president.

The society met in regular session Saturday last at 8 o'clock p. m., President Staples presiding. On motion the program was disposed with in view of the joint meeting; and other business came up also; J. P. Hobson, Jr., was elected secretary, which, under the revised constitution, includes both secretary and treasurer, and H. H. Leach RING-TUM PHI reporter.

We then held a joint session with the Washington Society to determine which society should represent Washington and Lee in the Intercollegiate State Oratorical Contest to be held in Richmond on May 4. We were represented by H. M. Bandy, who spoke on "An American Reformation." Our fellow society was represented by W. F. Semple, who spoke on "Public Opinion." Both orations were excellent. The judges, after some deliberation, decided in Mr. Semple's favor.

Our society returned to the hall and no further business appearing adjourned.

We are anticipating a superb inaugural address by the President on Saturday night, the 28th. Let us inspire him by a full attendance.

Team Takes Trip

The baseball team left on Monday for a trip north to play the following schools: George Washington, Mount St. Mary's, Villanova (two games), Lafayette, Georgetown, St. Johns and Naval Academy. Pipes, on account of studies, did not go, and the team was further crippled by the fact that Capt. Trimble's thumb was in no condition for him to play ball. So far the team has had anything but success. In the first game, with George Washington University, we were defeated by a score of 16 to 10. Mt. St. Mary's won from W. & L. Wednesday by a score of 4 to 0. In the first game with Villanova our opponents won by a score of 7 to 5, notwithstanding that Johnson pitched an excellent game, holding Villanova down to two hits. Eight errors were what told the tale.

Announcement has been made of the engagement of Miss Rosa Johnston Tucker, daughter of Hon. Henry St. Geo. Tucker, to Mr. Silas Boxley Mason of Frankfort, Ky. The date of this marriage has not been made public, but will be early in June. Mr. Mason is well known in Lexington where several years ago he attended Washington and Lee University.

Praise for Dr. Howe

Sunday's Lynchburg News; Dr. James Lewis Howe, the distinguished head of the chemical department in Washington and Lee University, will deliver a lecture next Friday night, April 27, in the Sunday school room of Westminster Presbyterian church on "Drinking Water." The lecture will be delivered under the auspices of the Teachers' Club.

Of the ability of Professor Howe to handle his subject there can be no question. A distinguished graduate of Dartmouth College, he has done considerable work in several American Universities, besides winning his Ph. D. degree at the University of Gottingen, he afterwards studied years at the University of Berlin.

Y. M. C. A.

Mr. W. B. Weatherford, the secretary of College Association work in the South, was with us last Sunday for the first time this session, and gave us a strong, interesting and helpful address on the dangers of "Inconclusive Thinking."

The speaker said that inconclusive thinking results in indecision of character, and is a special menace to college men; for it is fostered by the all-embracing curriculum of the present day college. Students are expected to delve into so many subjects that they cannot investigate them all to the fullest degree, and it is impossible that all the thoughts presented can take form in action. A willingness to receive the truth wherever it may be found is the glory of scholarship. But thoughts are useless until they are expressed in action. And while we are endeavoring to shun the Scylla of dogmatism we are in constant danger of being hurled into the Charybdis of inconclusive thinking.

A telegram from Manager Toms brought the welcome news last night that the hoo-doo had been broken and W. & L. had defeated Pennsylvania 6 to 5. Quite a demonstration was made by the students.

TRACK MEET

To be held in Lynchburg

Mr. C. F. Bayley was in Lynchburg this week to meet Mr. Smith of Randolph-Macon and between them they arranged for a track meet to be held in that city on May the 7th, between W. & L. and R. M. C. It is said that the "Catie" from the Woman's College there will be one in force to root for their name sake from Ashland, and there is some talk of running an excursion from Lexington in order that W. & L. may carry "rooters." As there is a holiday coming to us on the 4th we would suggest that it be delayed until the 7th in order that the students may have a chance of going down to witness the stunts.

Lawyers Play Ball

Amidst the wild applause of thousands of spectators the Junior Law Class defeated the Senior Class on Tuesday last in an extremely interesting game of baseball. Up until the fourth inning the curves of Campbell kept the Juniors guessing and the Seniors were two runs to the good, but in that inning Moomaw, the "Mighty Casey" of the Juniors, connected with the sphere and sent it spinning through the air in the direction of Brush Hill for a homer, scoring three runs. Charlie says it was an accident. From this point on the Juniors had it all their way.

As a base-runner Rutan established a reputation to be envied, though he was somewhat handicapped by having on a pair of lily-white duck trousers which he was loth to soil, and consequently he did not demonstrate his ability in sliding bases. Bandy is the only original in the way of a catcher. He certainly took things easy. There are few who can sit down and catch ball at the same time. The record for covering ground was won by McMurray, who not only played centre for the Juniors but backed up second base. It is a great thing for the team to encourage its pitcher by a little talk, and the seniors showed their ingenuity in this respect by putting Barney Mayer in at short. Barney kept up a sufficient stream of heated atmosphere to suffice for the whole team, and the other players were thus enabled to turn their whole attention to ball-playing.

The "scrubs" will probably go to Clifton Forge next week to cross bats with the ball players of that place. The Clifton Forge team desires a series of three games but the faculty will not allow the "scrubs" to take that much time off from classes. As next Friday is holiday Manager Allen has taken advantage of that and written to try and arrange a double header to be played then.
