First A. & M. Game

Had Exciting Ninth

Porter Pitched Good Game and W. & L. Did Great Work at the Bat

Monday's game with A. & M. of North Carolina, during the final innings was one of the most exciting yet played on Wilson Field this spring.

It looked as if we would win in the game in the second time at bat, when Luhn and Anthony both hit, and Pipes sacrificed advancing them to third and second, but Porter and Miles failed to bring them in. Luhn started the third with a hit for two bases, Anthony made first on Drake's error and stole second. Luhn scored on Drake's failure to handle a grounder, but the scoring was suddenly ended by Porter, Miles and Hood all three fanning out. In the next inning Willis lined out one for two sacks, Johnson sacrificed him to third and Luhn brought Willis home with his third consecutive hit.

The Carolinians started their run getting in the seventh. Thompson reached first on Luhn's error and trotted to second on Porter's wild throw to catch him off the sack. Temple made the first hit for his team to right field scoring Thompson, but was caught off first. Farmer hit between left and center for two bases and tried to stretch it into a triple, but Johnson took his time and threw beautifully to Willis who finished it by putting the runner out.

Shuford's fancy one hand catch of Porter's drive robbed us of a score in the eighth.

The ninth started off to be the visitor's inning and our prospects for victory at one time were not favorable. Drake sent a fly to left, Hood failed to judge it and then didn't get it on a bounce so Drake made second. The runner scored on Luhn's error of Temple's grounder and before W. & L. settled down Temple had made third, from which he scored on Willis' letting a throw go through his fingers.

W. & L. came to bat in the ninth with the score 3 to 2 in favor of the "Tarheels." Miles hit safely and Hood advanced him to second with a sacrifice. "Shack" won the game for us by driving a dandy out between left and center for two bases, scoring Miles; Johnson sent a grounder to Drake, who made his third error which counted in our scoring, and "Shack" did some fine base-running and scored, making the score 4 to 3 in favor of W. & L. Luhn led the batting with 3 hits out of 4 times up. Porter struck out 13 and Temple 12.

Second Victory Over A. & M. by Score of 3 to 1.

The visitors entered the game bent on having revenge for the defeat of the day before and the first inning looked promising to them. Thompson hit and started to steal second. Anthony threw wild and he made third, and scored on Temple's two base hit, but the latter, not being satisfied with a double, in trying to stretch it into a triple was caught at third. This was the only run they were able to make, though they had several more chances which might have been turned into runs by a few hits or better base-running. The "Tarheels" were over reckless on the bases which greatly aided our players in retiring the side.

It at one time looked as if W. & L. would score in this same inning; when Sexten walked Bagley and hit Willis, and Anthony hit a long hard drive between left and center, but the swift Shuford made a beautiful one hand catch of it, repeating the performance of the day before and preventing us from scoring.

Both teams got a man to third in the second, but neither scored. Staples, for A. & M. reached third bag in the third, but was caught trying to steal home on Johnson's delivery.

Our first run came in the third on hits by Anthony and Pipes and the attempt of the visitors to close in on Pipes between first and second, which with Sexten's wild throw enabled "Mark" to score. The next event of interest was Hood's hit, which was very phenomenal.

Bagley starred in the ninth. His one-handed pick-up of Sexten's grounder on the run was a wonder, but not being contented with this he hit a beautiful two base hit in the last half of this same inning. Willis followed him and was safe on Staples' error. Luhn hit, scoring Bagley and Willis scored on Drake's failure to handle Pipes' grounder. Our scoring was ended by a double play made by Staples, Drake and Hox.

Neither side was able to score after this.

Johnson pitched a good game and strengthened as the game progressed. Though there were 7 errors made, yet the team gave Johnson good support, as the misplays were not costly.

When they think of his work on the gridiron last fall and on the diamond this spring doubtless the Carolinians think "Shack" an athlete.

FIRST P. I. GAME

Blacksburg, May 2.—In an errorless game the Varsity went down before the Cadets in the first game of the season. The score of 5 to 4. The game was opened in the box for Washington and Lee and the Cadets hit for nine safeties, thus earning all five scores. Wilsson pitched for V. P. I., the Lexington lads touching him up for the same number of hits, earning three of their four runs. Bagley, Luhn and Pipes got a couple of hits each, and Johnson landed on one for three sacks. The game was a batting match, the cadets securing the advantage in that their safeties were timely and usually counted good.

Washington and Lee played a beautiful fielding game and did not have an error to their credit. All of the fellows played in fine form. Johnson and "Red" brought down the grand stand with beautiful catches. "Shack's" base running, as usual, was a feature for the Varsity. Porter pitched the last two innings, and there was no more hitting as they couldn't see 'em.

For the Cadets the Shepard boys played good ball. Worthington hit for two sacks.

Game in detail:
First inning: W. & L. had the field; the Cadets went out without scoring. W. & L. opened with three hits and two runs.

Second inning: Worthington hit for two bags and scored on Fontaine's single. W. & L. went out in order.

Third inning: Shepard, J., got a single, was sacrificed to second and scored on Powell's single. W. & L. went out in order.

Fourth inning: V. P. I. out in order. Pipes opened with a single, scoring on Johnson's triple. Johnson scored on Porter's foul fly to left.

Seventh inning: Worthington hit for three bases, scored on Fontaine's single. Fontaine scored on double of Shepard, J. R., who scored on single of Shepard, E. S.

Porter pitched the rest of the game for W. & L., striking out four of the six men who faced him.

In ninth Bagley got a nice single, went to third on Ford's error in left. Willis flew out to Ford, Luhn hit to Pitcher Wilson, and "Shack" was called out at home. Wilson hit Anthony; Pipes flew out to Pritchard (2b.)

Score by innings

The Students' Favorite

On Monday evening, May 6th, The Morrison Comedy Company, will play a return engagement at the Henry St., Opera House, in "Wealth and Poverty." A play of magnetic power and realistic splendor.

Mr. Morrison, when he played Lexington with his company early in April, appreciated the treatment he received from the student body, and gladly signed contracts with Capt. Pierson to play a return engagement.

Since playing Lexington Mr. Morrison has strengthened his company with some new people and an entirely new repertoire of plays, and vaudeville specialties.

Notice I

Attention is hereby called to the following resolution adopted by the student body in May, 1906, viz: "The names of all candidates for offices, to be elected by popular vote of the students, must be handed the secretary of the student body and posted by him at least one week before the election. It is hoped that those interested in these selections will hand the names of friends to the secretary.

THE CHAIR OF PHILOSOPHY

We are still deeply conscious of our loss sustained in the death of Dr. Quarles. The fact is borne in upon us however, that his successor must ere long be appointed, and awakens our zealous desire that the chair of philosophy may be filled in such a manner that the highest hopes of the Doctor's scholarly and progressive spirit, for the development and expansion of the department may be realized. While we have no power of effecting—even if we had the ability of judging—a suitable selection, yet we and our successors are the ones bound to be most vitally affected by the choice, and we feel constrained to let our aspirations be known.

The subject to be taught is a live and practical one. And since the field of speculative philosophy has been largely revolutionized during the past few years by the rapid developments in experimental psychology, we should like to have a man chosen who has the double qualification of (1) at least some training in these modern methods and (2) the power of imparting his knowledge to his students.

Recognizing ground-clearing as an important preliminary work, we attempt simply to point out some types which would not fully measure up to our desires. Here, then, are two such types:

I. OUR PHILOSOPHY SCIONS

Among the recent graduates in philosophy from this University several all round good fellows, and possibly some potential star teachers of the subject might be pointed out. But to develop this potentiality into actuality would require considerable additional training, and we do not think that the best interests of the University would be subserved by waiting through this period of training.

II. THE MINISTERIAL FRATERNITY

The fact that one of these "brothers" has spent some time in Lexington in looking over the field, and the further fact that one of the organs of his Church has published the seemingly ridiculous report that this man has been elected to the position call forth some reasons why we do not want a man of the cloth:

(a) Church Should Have a Square Deal

Even if the welfare of the Church were our most vital concern in the matter, we should be strenuously opposed to the selection of a preacher. For more than three years in college preachers from all quarters have been constantly dinging at us that the ministry is not sufficiently manned, but is in more dire need of recruits today than any other profession. If it be true, then, that the church is in need of even raw recruits, would it not be a capital crime for one of her veterans—even if he were thoroughly trained in philosophy—to desert the ranks and go into the "over-crowded" field of teachers?

(b) We Should Have a Man Who Knows

Some years ago when one of our professors asked a business man in town a question involving a minute knowledge of geology, the business man promptly replied: "How in the h— should I know?" Now in modified terms this question might be asked in regard to the preacher and philosophy. Preachers are an admirable set of men, but it is hard to understand just why a man, who graduated ten or twenty years ago and has since that time been devoting himself to his all absorbing pastoral labors, should now be expected to be fully equipped as a teacher of philosophy. We hope that no one of this class will be found as this saddest of all sad sights: "the man who knows not and knows not that he knows not." And even if the preacher had a thorough knowledge of the subject it is not apparent that the pulpit tends to develop the best pedagogical methods.

(c) Dr. Quarles' Laudable Desire

The Doctor used to frequently express to his classes the desire that his successor should be a man capable of leading them into the best things known in philosophy; and he is said to have harbored a dread lest the chair might be considered as a place for a "broken down preacher." We do not fear that a broken down preacher will be chosen; but we do not believe that a hale preacher could readily be found willing to accept the work and carry out this desire in which we heartily concur.

(d) Denominationalism

If, though, a preacher of some sort is to be chosen, should not Washington and Lee now unfurl the banner of undenominationalism which she has for so long a time been claiming as her own? Probably since its foundation, certainly since 1865, the chair has been filled by a Presbyterian preacher; and it would seem that if there is really no touch of Calvinism about us the choice might now be made from some other field.

AN OPTIMISTIC STUDENT Field Day Program

Through the courtesy, and generous contributions of the Faculty and business men of Lexington, I am able to submit the following program for Washington and Lee's First Annual Track and Field Meet, to be held on Wilson Field, Saturday, May 18th, 1907.

The events are to take place in the following order:

1. 100 yards, gold medal.
2. Shot put, silver medal.
3. Mile, silver medal.
4. Hammer throw, silver medal.
5. 220 yards, silver medal.
6. Pole vault, silver medal.
7. 2 mile, gold medal.
8. High jump, gold medal.
9. 440 yards, gold medal.
10. Broad jump, silver medal.
11. 880 yards, silver medal.

Five (5) points will be awarded for every first place, three (3) points for second places, two (2) points for third places, and one (1) point for fourth places. The contestant scoring the highest number of points will be awarded a gold, All-Around Championship Medal.

No admission will be charged for contestants or spectators. The meet is open to all Washington and Lee students.

Men expecting to enter this meet, will please file their intention, together with the events they will enter, with me not later than the 15th, of May. The applications to be filed in writing.

The following officials will have charge of the meet:

Dr. W. S. Currell will deliver the address at the Commencement exercises at the State Female Normal College at Farmville in June.

Mr. E. Grey Moore, who has been confined to his room for some time past, is again able to be about.

Dr. James Lewis Howe was in Woodstock, Va., on Monday and organized a Young Men's Christian Association of Shenandoah county. Dr. Howe is a member of the State Y. M. C. A. Executive Committee.

Miss Frances Howe, daughter of Dr. Howe of W. & L., has been chosen as valedictorian for the '07 class of the Lexington High School. The commencement exercises of the High School will be held on June 6.

Hon. Wm. J. Bryan of Jacksonville, Fla., who graduated in the law class of 1899, will deliver the address before the Washington and Lee University Alumni Association at the approaching commencement. Mr. Bryan married Miss Janet Allan of Lexington, and is now a prominent lawyer of Jacksonville.

We regret to learn that owing to illness Mr. P. J. Grosboll of Illinois, who was elected to represent W. & L., at the State Oratorical contest, was unable to fill his position. All students deeply regret the fact, for Mr. Grosboll was a worthy representative and we feel that he would have done honor to himself and his University.

Rev. George E. Booker, D. D., pastor of Epworth Methodist Church, Norfolk, has accepted the invitation to preach the Baccalaureate sermon to Washington and Lee graduates on Sunday, June 9. Bishop Candler, who formerly accepted the invitation, finds that he will be unable to be present on account of duties calling him to Cuba.

LAWYERS ON THE DIAMOND

Last Saturday afternoon the Seniors gave the Juniors a drubbing by the score of 11 to 6.

The chief features of the game were the able arguments put forth by the contestants on the ruling of the umpire in close cases and the rooting of Crews and Burton for their respective teams. The yell, which was the product of the latter's fertile inventive genius, is an addition to the world's literature. It was a great stimulus to the sinking hopes of his classmates to hear this yell from the grand stand.

Peck proved his ability as a star performer by defending Wilson field from Negro intrusion.

Maxwell hit a clean home run through the legs of both Jackson and Staples. The only real playing of any merit was done by the author. "Bob" took in the last one and pocketed the ball.

The second game of the prize series was played Wednesday and went to the "Billy-goats" by a close score. With the exception of the first inning the Seniors clearly outplayed their opponents, both in the field and at the bat.

The Juniors were much strengthened by the addition of a bunch of ringers, especially at third and center field. When exams come these gentlemen are disclaimed as members of this class; but yesterday in the desire to get one game of the series the Juniors added both coaches and citizens to their roster.

The Seniors did not play their usual game. Dow fanned at a crucial moment.

The next game will decide who pays for the prize.
