FIRST GAME WITH CENTRAL UNIVERSITY

Only 28 Batsmen Faced Porter

After everyone thought the baseball season had ended with the disbanding of our team in Lynchburg, after the disastrous trip to Blacksburg, the team was reorganized in order to meet the Kentuckians, who were very desirous to cross bats with W. and L. The varsity was, it may be said, unprepared to receive the visitors. They were without a coach and had not practiced for a week; but, owing to the work of Captain Johnson in few days practice, everything worked well and W. and L. was at every moment master of the game. The score, rather close, yet the game was really one-sided for the invisible southpaw called "Red" had the visitors completely at his mercy all the time. He allowed only two men to touch first base, which was the only one of the sacks that received the impress of a "Moonshiners" hoof in all nine innings. To his credit it must be added that he fanned 14 and allowed no hits. Starting with the fifth inning and running into the sixth Porter struck out five successive batsmen.

There was nothing left for the other members of the team to do, but make some runs. The seven were scarcely needed in the field. The game was never in doubt. The question was when would we score, not would we score? It was certain that the game was ours sooner or later.

It looked as though we would score in the second inning on Luhn's single, Anthony's draw and a sacrifice, but the men remained on bases until the batters retired the side.

W. and L. made two scores in the sixth, Harper hit Willis and then further aided things by making a wild throw of Johnson's bunt to catch Willis at second on which Willis scored and Johnson made third. Luhn again showed his ability to hit when hits mean runs, by making a pretty single and scoring Johnson. Porter reached first on Epperson's error and Luhn took third. Here followed a comedy, Porter allowed himself to be chased back and forth between first and second until Luhn started for home. The visitors turned their atten-

DRAMATIC CLUB TO PRESENT ANOTHER PLAY

On Friday, June 7th.

The Washington and Lee Dramatic Club, under the supervision of Miss Annie R. White, will give the last play of the session on Friday night before commencement. The title of this play is "School," and as the name denotes, the scene is laid in modern college life. The other plays given by the Dramatic Club were eminently successful and the public has every reason to believe that this one will prove of just as high merit as former ones.

In view of the fact that the great majority of the plays given in the Opera House during the past few months have been well patronized by the students, it does not seem that we would be doing too much to turn out in full force and insure the success of this play. Sure it is that we will spend our time just as profitably and without doubt be just as royally welcomed by the members of this play as by the many troupes that have visited Lexington.

It may be added quite incidentally that a great many of the Commencement "calic" will be in attendance, and Miss Annie has arranged to have the locker room of the gymnasium fixed up as an ice cream parlor for the express purpose of allowing the boys the opportunity of meeting the visiting girls. So boys it is up to you to do your part in making the "School" the most successful play of the year.

tion toward the latter and succeeded in chasing him down.

The visitors had a good day in the field and Harper had fine backing and plenty of luck in having the hard hit drives go direct to a fielder. O'Neal and Case made an easy double play in the eighth.

KENTUCKIANS AGAIN BLANKED

This Time by Johnson's Pitching

The second game with Central University, played last Friday, was very much like the one of the preceding day and Johnson also got a shut-out to his credit. The visitors made six hits, but this by no means tells that they were able to do anything with Johnson's delivery. Our captain was fully master of the occasion whenever hits would have proved dangerous and at no time was there any real likelihood of Central's scoring.

O'Neal also pitched well and from the number of hits made had the better of the pitcher's battle, and if he had not thrown wild to second in an attempt to catch Hood, whom he had previously given a pass to first, W. & L. would not have scored in nine innings. Besides the effectiveness of the pitchers, both teams had a good day in the field, which, together with poor batting, kept scoring in the background.

W. & L. had several chances to score but poor batting prevented it. This is especially true of the sixth inning when there were three men on bases with none down, yet the side was retired without a score being made. Bad base running figured here, however.

The lone tally of the game came in the fifth. O'Neal gave Hood four bad ones and then helped him around the sacks by throwing the ball away in an effort to catch the runner at second. Hood scored on Bagley's timely two-base hit to right field. This was the only tally made and proved sufficient to win the game.

Anthony caught well in both the games. His taking in all kinds and the batters hitting at high ones helped Johnson. Both Bagley and Ware played well at second base, as did Willis at third. The rest of the team fielded well but had no very difficult chances to handle and get in feature plays.

Thus ended the season by a double victory over Central University by a score of 2 to 0 and 1 to 0.

Harry Lee and Albert Sidney Boat Crews Selected

The committees of the two boat clubs have selected the crews which will respectively represent the Red and the Blue at the annual regatta, which will be held on Monday, June 10. Both clubs have shown unusual interest in the crew work this year and many candidates have left nothing undone in the way of hard work to prove themselves "worthy of the steel;" and therefore be chosen to pull an oar for their favorite color. Out of the large number of candidates—all big-boned, brawny, muscular fellows—it seemed very difficult at first to pick a crew, but after various critical tests had been made during the past two weeks, cuts in the number of those training were made from time to time, the best men being finally worked together in different crews, and hence their swift work as individual crews caused the committees to decide upon what they considered the best men for their respective places.

The committee which picked the Harry Lee crew is composed of Messrs. Minetree, Osburn and Dunn, all of whom are entirely capable of judging and choosing the best material for the respective oars. Minetree, who has rowed for the past two years, made the Harry Lees a winning crew last year, and is undoubtedly the best man in college for stroke, while Osburn, Leap and Dunn will complete the oarsmen for the Red. Leap and Dunn, new men on the team, have shown up to the top notch in training and are undoubtedly the best men for the two vacancies. In the selection of the Albert Sidney crew, the committee, composed of Messrs. Hoge, Miles and Riser, had no trouble in judging the men to fill the vacancies, and as a result "Doc" Houser and DeVane will help to do some heavy pulling when the time comes round. Hoge and Riser are the old men on the crew. It is right difficult to pick the winning crew at present, or even to speculate as to the better crew, as both have strong men at the oars. Everything now depends upon hard crew work. Competent judges, who have been watching the work at the river say that both the clubs are better represented at the oars than ever before. The coxswain for the Albert Sidney will be chosen from Miles, Dickey or Greveley, while Harry Lees will have Harman, Hannis or O'Brien at the rudder.

This being the last issue of this year during the session, the editor wishes to take this means of thanking those students, without whose assistance the paper would upon many occasions have been a complete failure. To Messrs. Benson, Dunn, Riser, Lexington and Burton is due the credit of keeping the paper at its former standard, and any success accomplished is mainly due to the tireless efforts of these members of the student body. As we turn over our mantle of office to our worthy successor we hold an abiding faith in his ability to make the publication a success next year, and, as one who traveled the stony path, we ask for the new editor the hearty co-operation of the whole student body, without which you cannot expect our representative to make for the University a name in the world of college journalism.

Communications

Editor of the Ring-Tum Phi:
Now that the spirit of progress is asserted itself at W. and L., a material form, why can't more action be taken in regard to protecting our buildings. We have valuable collections in our museums and art galleries; fine libraries, and costly apparatus in our laboratories. But pictures and books will burn, and delicate instruments are not supposed to be fireproof.

It is true that we have been lucky in escaping the ravages of fire, but the old adage: "Every dog has his day," should be taken into consideration. The recent fire at V. M. I., showed a need of adequate fire fighting apparatus at that institution, although a bucket brigade was hastily formed. W. and L. needs fire protection even more than V. M. I. The students are scattered over the town, and a fire would make considerable headway before a sufficient number for a bucket brigade could be collected. To send for the Lexington Fire Department would necessitate going up town and calling a half dozen people before the apparatus could be gotten out.

An ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure. Install a chemical tank in the main building, hand grenades and fire hose in Science Hall, Newcomb, and the Dorm. We may never need them but the fact that we have ample fire fighting apparatus would make the Trustees and faculty sleep sounder of nights.

FIREMAN.

Field Day Very Successful

Five Records Broken

The tenth annual field day held Saturday, June 18th, on Wilson field was one of the finest exhibitions of track work seen at Washington and Lee during many years. The day was an ideal one for track work and every one took a live interest in the results of the many contests.

The first event of the day was the 100 yard dash. The entries for this were: Krug, B. M., Pease, J. N., Dorsey, S. S., MacClure, D. W. M., and Bagley, T. O. Bagley led off easily and would have made the distance much quicker had he not slackened his speed toward end of course. As it was he made it in 10:3.5 seconds. MacClure got second place, with Krug close on him as third.

The next event of the day was the shot put in which there were but two contestants, Minetree and Taylor; E. R. Minetree won easily over his opponent, the distance being 34 feet 6 inches; thus breaking the first record of the day.

At the start the 2 mile event was crowded but before many laps had been made the contestants began "dropping by the wayside." Offett, Hutton, Johnson, W. M., McCown, Glasgow and Larriek, O. R., were the entries, but only Offett, Johnson and McCown were able to keep the pace any length of time. Offett won first place by lowering the record 14 seconds, his time being 11 minutes and 4 seconds. McCown got second.

The record for the hammer throw was another that was broken on this day. Davis, S., Minetree, Bagley, T. O., and Boyer were the contestants; Davis winning first place easily by throwing the hammer 90 feet 8.1-2 inches. Boyer second place.

The 220 yard dash was one of the prettiest events of the day, especially was the sprinting of MacClure and Krug good, but owing to the start Bagley, T. O., had they were not able to reach him. Time made by Bagley, 24 seconds.

Owing to the fact that Bagley had been in the majority of the other events he was unable to put up a good fight against Taylor in the pole vault. Taylor had it all to himself after the 8 foot spot was reached and he did some pretty vaulting. He was unable, though, to break the record of Anderson of 10 feet 6 inches, the highest Taylor could go being 9 feet 2 inches.

Firebaugh, Hutton, Johnson,

W. M., McCown, Withers and Koolitz were the entries in the 1-mile event, but in the two mile chase there were very few of the students in the race when the last lap was reached. McCown won off. Time, 5 minutes, 22 seconds.

Hodges, Moore and Bagley T. O., entered the high jump. This was one of the finest events of the day. Hodges won first honor by breaking his own previous record, when he entered the meet at U. Va. His record this time being 5 feet 7 1/2 inches or 11-2 inches better than he did in the Charlottesville meet. Mr. Hodges has fine form and has the makings of a fine athlete.

Then followed in order the 440 yard dash, the broad jump and the 880 yard event. The 440 yard was won by MacClure, time 55 seconds, breaking the record by several seconds. The broad jump was won by Sullivan against Bagley, T. O., and Krug. Distance 19 feet 3-4. The 1-2 mile was won by Sullivan, time 2 minutes 25 3/5 seconds.

The last event of the day was the relay race between the Senior and Junior lawyers, which was won by the latter. For the Senior's Miller, Maxwell, MacDonald and Moonaw did the sprinting, while Harris, Pipes, Phlegur and Jackson were the juniors.

Mr. Crockett of Kentucky, Valedictorian

I want to take this opportunity to say to the Student Body that the Senior class Valedictory will be delivered by Mr. Crockett and not by myself as the commencement invitations and Calyx state. Due to a large loss of time from sickness, I felt that it was imperative that I resign, whereupon Mr. Crockett was unanimously elected, but unfortunately it was then too late to have a correction made in the invitations or Calyx.

I feel that it is due Mr. Crockett that this public statement be made and I trust that it will meet the eyes of everyone concerned.

Annual Election of Student
Officials

SECOND BALLOT HAD TO BE TAKEN

One of the most closely fought campaigns ever held at Washington and Lee was brought to a close Monday night about 8.40 when the successful candidates were announced. For many moons the silent (?) politicians have been steadily working their respective nominees to the front, and now that it is all over we can all unite in making the winners in this election feel that they are everybodys choice.

The polls were opened in the Chapel at 3 p. m. sharp and before six o'clock every man in college, with perhaps one or two exceptions, had cast his ballot for the twelve officials to be elected. There being three candidates for President of the Final Ball for next year, a second ballot was necessary between Dow and Stephenson, Bryant being dropped on the first ballot. For the chairman of Athletic Committee there were four candidates and no one of the four receiving a majority on the first ballot it was necessary to take the second vote. Bagley, C., and McMurran, W. R., being dropped and the second vote being between Hoge and Osbourn. On this second ballot, which was taken at 8 p. m. and closed about 9 o'clock, the vote polled gave Mr. R. B. Stephenson the presidency of the final ball by the vote of 176 to 160 for Dow. In the contest between Hoge and Osbourn for Chairman Athletic Committee the second ballot gave the election to Osbourn by the vote of 190 to 131 for Hoge.

When the first ballot was taken it was thought that the results of the first would be given out, but the successful candidates were not announced until the completion of all voting. Besides the two elections mentioned above the first ballot showed the following men to be successful: for president of Student Body, J. H. Larriek; vice president of Student Body, Hood; secretary of Student Body, Campbell, J. L., Jr.; vice chairman Athletic Committee, Pruitt; secretary Athletic Committee, Jackson, O. C.; treasurer Athletic Committee, Frank Moore, Esq.; editor of Calyx, Ramsey; business manager of Calyx, Mason Deaver; editor of Ringtum Phi, N. D. Smithson; and for business manager of Ringtum Phi, J. W. Anthony.

J. M. Glenn, an alumnus of Washington and Lee, has been appointed to administer the ten million dollar fund endowed by Mrs. Russel Sage for the purpose of improving social and living conditions in this country. Mr. Glenn is a well known leader in charity work in this country, having been at the head of many Charity Boards.

Wash. Society

The Washington Literary society convened in regular session at their hall last Saturday evening with president Speight in the chair.

The meeting was a very enthusiastic one, as elections were on and the usual amount of politics were displayed. All of the candidates for the respective offices were good men and with such good men as these to guide us into the next year "Old Wash" should stay in the front.

The following men were elected: President, Mr. Cather; Vice President, Mr. Montgomery; Secretary, Mr. Batton; Treasurer, Mr. Johnson; Critic, Mr. Smithson; Censor, Mr. Lease; Reporter for Ring-tum Phi, Mr. Ragan.

A resolution was adopted empowering the president to appoint a committee of five to draft certain proposed amendments to the constitution, these amendments to be submitted to the body to be voted upon before becoming a part of the constitution. The regular order of business was carried out after which the assembly adjourned.
