Amherst Takes Two Games

VARSAITY SHOWED POOR FORM IN OPENING CONTEST

The baseball season was opened on Wilson Field Friday, with Amherst as the drawing card. The good sized crowd that attended the initial combat were somewhat disappointed, and were disposed to characterize the performance as a comedy of errors rather than a fair exhibition of the great American game. "Bill" Gwathney was chosen to turn the trick on the Northern lads and with fair support should have won his game. His control was exceptionally good for the opening game, but what was more pleasing than anything else to the rooters was the steam he had on his display. Brick, on the other hand, had very little that looked puzzling. The big fellow had miserable control.

W. & L.'s team is a new one all-round. Luhn, Anthony and Gwathney being the only old men who participated in the battles of a season ago. The youngsters on the team showed the effect of the first appearance by the stage fright which lasted throughout the entire game. The fans, however, left the field after the defeat with a silver lining in full view, big enough, almost, to envelope the cloud of disappointment. For our youngsters are certainly fast and hit like fiends. Coaches Brown and Krebs have the material, and their characteristic spunk justifies the boast that 'ere the season closes we will have a team worthy of the steel of the most stubborn foe.

The game was devoid of features. Chatham, for W. & L., played by far the better ball for his team, accepting several hard chances and lacing out a pretty single. Capt. Luhn played his usual good game. Pennock, for the visitors put up their best game. Donahey's throwing to second was superb.

DETAILS OF FIRST GAME

Bill Gwathney sent a fast one to Jube's slats, who stole second and went to third on Anthony's wild heave, and a moment later scored on Waddill's toss to Brown. Palmer singled and pilfered second. McCluer fled to Lemley. Guptiel singled, and went to third on a wild throw and a passed ball, Palmer scoring on the errors. Michaels and Donahey couldn't touch Gwathney's speed. Two runs.

W. & L.—Brown teased Brick for a walk, and took second on Waddill's sacrifice. Anthony fouled to left field. Brown came home on Donahey's passed ball. Luhn waited for four wide ones and went to third on a passed ball. Clark grounded to third.

2nd. Luhn took care of Brick's grounder and Pennock singled. Kane fled to pitcher. Lemley dropped Anthony's throw and Pennock got second. Jube and Palmer walked. Pennock scored on Brown's error and Jube scored on passed ball. Palmer thrown out at the plate.

Bagley tapped to infield. Lemley beat out a dinky to third and stol: second. Chatham singled to center and Lenley was thrown out at the plate. Gwathney singled to left and Chatham was nipped at the plate on his attempt to score from second.

3rd. Donahey hit through Gwathney and was out trying to steal second. Michael grounded to pitcher and Brick walked. Lemley took care of Pennock's fly.

Brown walked. Waddill fled to Pennock, who doubled Brown at first, Anthony fled out to second.

4th. Gwathney smoked three fast ones over for Kane. Jube grounded to Luhn and Palmer fanned.

Luhn hit to Brick. Glark and Bagley took four wide ones. Lemley popped to third and Chatham grounded to Brick.

5th. McCluer hit to Chatham. Guptiel couldn't touch the benders in three efforts and Donahey out, Lemley to Luhn.

Gwathney struck out. Brown got first on pitcher's error and stole second. Waddill grounded to third and Brown was caught napping.

6th. Michael's fleid to Waddill

National Democratic Convention to Be Held in Lexington May 4th

A meeting of the National Democratic Executive Committee was held on Tuesday, March 17th at 3 p. m. in the Engineering Hall. The representatives on the committee from nearly all the states were present and a very full meeting was held. Officers were first elected for this committee and then the date for the National Democratic Convention was decided upon. Mr. W. Neal Grubb was elected chairman of the National Democratic Executive committee, and Mr. W. M. Johnson was elected secretary and Mr. Raymond Kenny, assistant secretary. The chairman next appointed a sub-committee of seven members to act as the central executive committee. This committee consists of: Price, chairman; Deaver, Jackson, Carey, Ragon, Smithson and Cather.

The National Committee now took up the question of the date of the convention and it was decided that the National Democratic convention for 1908 should be held at Lexington, Va., on Monday, May 4th, and that it should continue in session until its business was finished.

Among the arrangements for the convention it may be noted that the National Executive committee shall report to the convention the name of their candidate for temporary chairman. The temporary chairman shall make a speech, outlining the issues of the campaign and shall hold office until the second day when the permanent chairman is chosen. Under the direction of the temporary chairman all standing committees of the convention are appointed.

The permanent chairman shall preside over the convention for the remainder of its sittings and shall be chairman of the National Executive committee for the next four years.

The students of the University will in the near future be apportioned to the various states by the National Executive committee.

The member of the National Executive committee from each state will be the chairman of the state delegation.

In Democratic conventions, the rule has been in the past that a two-thirds majority is needed in order to nominate the presidential and vice-presidential candidates. The unit rule has been in force in the past, and owing to the fact that the delegates at this convention will scarcely be half of the regular delegates, it will be necessary to adopt the unit rule at this convention. By this rule, each state casts its entire vote as a unit.

This convention will offer an exceptional opportunity to all students of the University to see just how a national convention is conducted and will also bring before their attention the issues of the present campaign.

All students are urged to arouse interest in the convention and to work in behalf of their favorite candidate. Since, however, all students will take part in the convention and many are not allied with the Democratic party, the judgment of the convention, as to a fit leader for the party in the Presidential campaign cannot be regarded as a strict expression of political belief.

Rockbridge County News Print

At the games played on Wilson Field last Friday and Saturday the rooting was miserably poor. At no time within the past three years has there been such lack of college spirit. At Friday's game the two chief rooters engaged the services of a third cheer leader, in order to accommodate all those whom they supposed to be over anxious to loosen up the rah-rah's in their throats, but it took only three or four efforts to show them that the extra help was unnecessary, for it seemed that not more than a half dozen willing throats could be found. On Saturday there was a marked improvement in the rooting over the previous day, though not so much as should be. This state of affairs is indeed deplorable. How can you expect your team to show any ginger in a game if they know you are standing on the side line with a bunch of knocks for every misplay? You say they can't play ball? Well why should they get out there and put up a game so brilliant that it would make Hans Wagner change his bull-headed decision and go back in the game to guard well his reputation as the "King of Diamond Cutters?" They are not favored with any lucrative. "Ty" Cobb Salaries. They are only playing for the benefit of the University, certainly more or less benefit us, or else why do we boast so about beating Virginia in football. In arguing over the game we never say, "They beat Virginia," but we always say, "We beat Virginia," and invariably emphasize the WE.

Consequently the team is playing for us and is it quite the proper thing for us, when we are the recipient of the services of others, to stand by a mute as a tombstone? Wouldn't it be just a little better to commend their honest efforts? Well, at least it appears so, and since the old world got in the habit of so doing long before it ever contracted the habit of modeling after you and me it looks as if we would have to keep abreast of the time. This fad prevails in all colleges and universities, but you can't prove by Amherst that the fad has struck Washington & Lee. Quit your knocking on the teams and go to rooting and you'll get better results. When the chief rooter calls on you, respond. If he calls too often to him so and he will adjust the number of yells to suit your convenience as near as the occasion will permit. Everybody join in the yell because if you stand back others will. Come in to the crowd men if you don't join in the yell.

Mr. George's Status

Resolved, That the management and coach of the baseball team having pledged themselves to give Mr. George no financial aid, directly or indirectly, the committee on Physical Culture interposes no objection to the playing of Mr. George on the baseball team:

Provided, he is regularly matriculated and is regular in his University work, and

Provided, that Mr. George sign a paper, as suggested by the Student committee, stating that he has not received the benefit of any money from anyone connected with the University, and also stating that he does not expect to receive, and will not receive any compensation, direct or indirect, from anyone connected with the University, in return for his playing on the team.

(Signed)

H. D. CAMPBELL
JAS. LEWIS HOWE

March 31, 1908

Mr. George has regularly matriculated and signed a paper as is mentioned in the resolution, and will therefore play ball here. Everybody around college is gratified that we will not lose Mr. George from the pitching staff, and feels sure that he will be a strong addition to the team.

We regret that lack of space forbids our giving a more detailed account of the ball games.

Notice to Subscribers

There are a great many subscriptions not yet paid up, and all far past due. You will confer a great favor upon the manager if you will pay up at once. The paper cannot be run without money, and each subscription counts. So please make an effort to let me have your subscription. This means but a little to you but right much to the management. I have not pressed you for this amount heretofore but it is absolutely necessary that this be paid in the near future.

Hoping to hear from you favorably real soon, I am,

Yours truly,

J. W. ANTHONY, Mgr.

Old and New Friends

Make new friends, but keep the old;
Those are silver, these are gold.
New-made friends, like new-made wine,
Age will mellow and refine.
Friendships that have stood the test,
Time and change, are surely best.

Brow may wrinkle, hair turn gray,
Friendship never owns decay;
For 'mid old friends kind and true,

We once more our youth renew.
But, alas! old friends must die;
New friends must their place supply.

Then cherish friendship in your breast;
New is good, but old is best.
Make new friends, but keep the old;

Those are silver, these are gold.

Senator William James Bryan

The Lynchburg, Va., Alumni Association of Washington and Lee University met recently to pay respect to the memory of Senator William James Bryan; Senator Bryan was intimately known by several of the Alumni who recounted incidents of his life at college and dwelt on special traits of his character. The death of the young Senator seemed to have profoundly impressed every one present, calling so clearly to mind the uncertainty of human life, for Mr. Bryan was only 32 years old, and at Washington & Lee was one of the best athletes in college, being one of the greatest tackles the University ever had. No one remembered his ever being sick a day at Lexington.

On motion of Rev. Dr. R. H. Fleming, the President, Mr. F. Sydnor Kirpatrick, appointed a committee of two, consisting of Mr. Mosby G. Perrow, and Mr. S. Garland Hammer to draw up suitable resolutions, which are as follows:

"Whereas, death has removed our fellow alumnus, Senator William James Bryan, on the threshold of what promised to be a brilliant career, be it resolved by the Lynchburg Alumni Association of Washington & Lee University.

First, That our institution has lost one of its most loyal and distinguished sons.

Second, That Florida and the nation have lost a statesman who by his sterling worth and high order of ability had already impressed the country,

Third, That the sympathy of this association be extended to the bereaved family, and Fourth, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to Mrs. Bryan, The Lynchburg News, The Florida Times-Union, and the Ring-tum Phi.

It will be some time before the people know of all the laws passed by the Legislature, many of them in force right now. Here is one just reported: Under a recent act it is made a misdemeanor for any person to wear any emblem, badge, or insignia of any secret order, association, or fraternity, unless such wearer is a member of the order. This will prohibit women from wearing badges or emblems which may belong to their husbands, fathers or brothers. The penalty is a term in jail and a fine.

SECOND GAME.

W. & L. took a brace in the second game and held their opponents to a close score. Jake Parades was sent to the firing line for W. & L. and for seven innings the visitors could not touch his assortment of twisters. His mixture of speed and quick breakers was of mid term form. Errors permitted Amherst to get dangerous several times, but the game little Westerner would invariably retire the side before they were able to count. Pierce opposed Jake and pitched a splendid game.

Outside of Parades' superb pitching, the feature of the game was a catch by McCluer. Brown the first man to face Pierce, got a terrific smash that looked good for the tennis court, but McCluer tucked his head and began a sprint, and with his back to the ball reached up and pulled it down just before it struck the wire netting. Amherst's scores, as on the day before were the result of errors. The score:
