Orchestra, University Band, and Mandolin Club Give Enjoyable and Successful Performance in Carnegie Library.

Without doubt the concert given by the combined musical clubs of Washington and Lee in the Carnegie library Saturday night was the best musical entertainment that has ever been produced here by student talent. The affair was a success from beginning to end, and every member of the club is to be congratulated on his share in the success of the occasion. A special feature was the piano duet by Mrs. Watts and Mrs. Waddell, which added variety to the program, to say nothing of its own excellent merits.

The following program was rendered during the evening, with repeated encores:

PROGRAM.

1. R. M. B. March
University Band
2. Violin Solo—Souvenir
Mr. Paredes
3. Waltz—When I Marry You.....Mandolin Club
4. Piano Duet—Kermess, from Faust—Mrs. Watts and Mrs. Waddell.
5. Overture—The Bridal Rose
University Orchestra
Intermission.
6. Medley—Bunch of Rags
Mandolin Club
7. Waltz—The Singing Girl
University Orchestra
8. Mandolin Quartet—Rustic Dance—Paredes, Allen, Guerard, Falligant
9. March—The Ramblers
University Band

The university band is a unique institution in the history of Washington and Lee, and from its present popularity will likely prove a permanent feature. Notwithstanding the difficulty of organization and hard work necessary to keep it going, the band's share in Saturday night's program showed that Mr. Allen and his fellow members have the spirit and energy that will make it a success.

Announcement was made in last week's Ring-tum Phi that the orchestra had greatly improved, and it sufficiently dem-

MANAGER THACH ANNOUNCES SCHEDULE

Games With Georgetown, V. P. I., A. & M., North Carolina, Alabama — Davidson Played in Lexington.

Robert G. Thach, manager of the 1910 football team, has announced the following schedule to the athletic committee and student body of Washington and Lee:

October 1—Roanoke College in Lexington.

October 8—Hampden-Sidney in Lexington.

October 15—Georgetown in Washington, D. C.

October 22—Davidson in Lexington.

October 29—V. P. I. in Roanoke, Va.

November 5—A. & M. of N. C. (pending) in Lynchburg.

November 12—University of North Carolina in Norfolk, Va.

Thanksgiving—University of Alabama in Birmingham, Ala.

The first two games on the schedule—Roanoke College and Hampden-Sidney—in Lexington, are the same as last year. In all the other contests arranged, however, some change has been made.

The University of Alabama, in Birmingham, has been substituted as a Thanksgiving game in lieu of Georgetown in Washington, a game with the latter institution being scheduled for the third game of the season—October 15. This game in Birmingham should be a splendid drawing-card, owing to the large number of both Alabama and W. & L. alumni in the city, and should prove of great benefit to Washington and Lee's prestige in the far south. The fact that Dr. Pollard, formerly coach of the Alabama team will be connected with the Washington and Lee eleven will give additional interest to the contest.

Unfortunately the financial statistics of the Athletic Association has prevented the arrangement of but three games in Lexington, but the attractiveness of a game with Davidson here partly recompenses for the deficiency, this being one of W. & L.'s hardest and best

KENNOY WORKING SQUAD HARD.

Captain Stras and His Men Kept at Hitting Practice Until Completion of Diamond and Better Weather.

For the past ten days The Ring-tum Phi reporter has been watching the candidates for the baseball team at work under the direction of Mr. William Kennoy, of Pittsburg, who Manager McDonald was so fortunate to secure as coach.

Although the condition of the diamond has prevented any working out of the infielders, Coach Kennoy has been utilizing his time to great advantage by keeping the men hard at work with the stick. From 3:30 to 5:30 every afternoon the squad, divided into two sections, under the respective direction of the Coach and Captain Stras, are "swatting" the ball all over the lot. The men are learning to hit the leather in big league style, under Mr. Kennoy's admirable system of training, and with the good showing made thus far, the 1910 aggregation bids fair to give opposing pitchers all kinds of trouble.

A temporary diamond has been lined up in the outfield and basemen have thus in the last few days been given some practice. The pitchers have been limbering up, and though "Jake" Paredes has not been out yet, and Black Watts will not be able to play, the staff of slab artists should be a strong one.

The squad has been three times cut, and there are now about thirty promising candidates regularly at work on Wilson field.

The old men who are out for the team are: Captain Stras, Hood, Rectenwald, Paredes, Gwathmey, Ed. Brown, Clark, Herring, Graham, Waddill, Webster Beddow, A. H. Jones, and O. W. Richardson. Hood and Rectenwald will hardly be able to play until after the Senior Law examinations are over, but they may then be counted on for their good work.

Jake Paredes and Bill Gwathmey may be looked to for some good pitching this

Y. M. C. A. ELECTS OFFICERS FOR 1911.

Thos. McP. Glasgow President and R. R. Witt Vice-President—Chairman of the Various Committees Announced.

The report of the nominating committee of the Young Men's Christian Association was accepted two weeks ago and at the last meeting of that organization the following men were unanimously elected as officers for the session of 1911:

Thos. McP. Glasgow, President.

R. R. Witt, Jr., Vice-President.

Edward Brown, Secretary.

G. W. Chaney, Treasurer Y. M. C. A. Fund.

J. T. Watson, Treasurer Secretary's Fund.

The Y. M. C. A. is to be congratulated upon its selection of such an efficient corps of officers to carry forward its work during the coming session. They are all influential men, representing every phase of college activities, and in every respect will be equal to the tasks which they are about to undertake.

Although T. M. Glasgow has been in the university only two years, yet the fact that he was born and reared in Lexington, where he has always been associated with college men, and his close connection with the different forms of student life since he entered college eminently fits him for the office to which he has just been elected. He was president of his class in his Freshman year and now represents his class on the executive committee of the student body. In addition he is a good athlete, having played two years on the basket ball team and rowed on the second crew of the Harry Lee Boat Club.

"Bod" Witt has none of the athletic attainments of his fellow worker in the higher office, but he has had practical business experience which fits him for the position that he is to occupy.

Ed Brown is prominent in all phases of college life, having played on the football and baseball teams for two years, and in him the association has a capable and responsible man as secretary.

The work as treasurer is to be divided this year between G. W. Chaney and J. F. Watson. The former will have charge of the regular expense account and membership dues, while the latter will manage the collection and disbursement of the general secretary's fund. As both of these men had business experience before entering college and have taken such an active part in Y. M. C. A. work during the present session, they will prove valuable additions to the executive staff and will be instrumental in promoting the interests of the association.

The newly elected president has chosen the following men to conduct the work of their respective departments and to constitute with the executive officers the cabinet.

Chairmen of the committees are as follows:

- Bible study—E. Watkins.
- Missionary—Lloyd Craighill
- Devotional—R. R. Witt, W. T. Riviere, Vice-Chairman.
- Membership—C. P. Light:
- Work for new students—O. T. Kaylor.
- Social—R. A. Waddill.
- Invitation—E. E. Brown.
- Reception—Houston Barclay
- Reading room—J. L. Larrick.
- Neighborhood Work—J. A. Bowman.
- Music—J. H. Campbell, Jr.
- Finance—J. T. Watson, Secretary Fund; G. W. Chaney, Y. M. C. A. Fund.

The following are the leaders of Student's Bands:

- Personal Workers—J. G. Herndon, Jr.
- Ministerial—W. McE. Miller.
- Volunteer—To be elected.

The staff of the "Handbook" will be composed of J. Burroughs Noell as editor and J. A. Champer, Jr. business manager. S. H. Williams will be regular correspondent to the college papers.

gridiron battles. In addition, the proximity of Roanoke and Lynchburg will allow many to see both the V. P. I. and A. & M. contest, and the management will probably run special trains to both games.

Owing to the fact that V. P. I. has administered several successive defeats to W. & L. in Lynchburg, it was thought advisable from a financial standpoint to change this game to Roanoke. The transfer of the North Carolina game to Norfolk from Newport News is also undoubtedly a wise policy; heretofore, the game has been played on a guarantee basis with no possible chance for profit. Even should Norfolk not turn out so well next year, the game eventually is sure to prove a permanent source of revenue to the athletic association of both institutions. The crowd at the W. & L.-V. P. I. games for the past several years would indicate that the A. & M.-W. & L. game in Lynchburg, will also be a good-drawing card.

From a football standpoint, the schedule seems a suitable one. The Roanoke College and Hampden-Sidney games will serve to round the white and blue squad into condition and the game on October 15th, with the strong Georgetown eleven will give Coach Pollard a splendid chance to size up the merits and deficiencies of his fighting machine as developed in the preliminary work. The team then has the advantage of being in Lexington two weeks prior to the V. P. I. game with no trips to interfere with practice, meeting Davidson here October 22. This should put the W. & L. eleven in fine fettle for the most important game of the season and at its highest state of development, it will fortunately meet its three hardest rivals—V. P. I., A. & M. and North Carolina. There are eleven days of rest before the long Alabama trip after these three strenuous encounters.

Captain Waddill is very enthusiastic over the prospects for next fall. The securing of a man with Dr. Pollard's ability to take charge of athletics here has brightened the football situation to a remarkable degree and in addition, about twenty of the best men on the 1909 squad will be in harness again, Waddill, Barnard, Earwood, Simms, Burke, Ed. Brown, O'Quinn, Ordeman, Hyde, Satterfield, Smith, Dulin, Brown, Lewis, Engleby, Hoyle, Jalonick, Efrid, M. Brown, and Ainsworth being among the number. Peters, prevented by sickness from playing this year, will be heard from next year and Ball, formerly of Wisconsin, will also be out on Wilson field. Already prospective material from several southern prep. schools and smaller colleges is looming in sight and on the whole the season of 1910 has a favorable outlook.

SPHINX BREAKS SILENCE.

University Senate at Last Breaks Into the Limelight of Publicity With Loud Scream.

The University Senate authorizes the announcement that sometime in the near future, in conjunction with the Senior class it will start Something Doing on the Campus on Friday Evening. For further details watch the bulletin board.

The interesting announcement above is printed by request of the Senate. Up to the time of going to press nothing could be learned of the nature of the proposed experiment further than that it is to be "something" quite unique in the way of college stunts, that the initial performance will be pulled off probably on April 1st and that it will be repeated throughout the spring term, provided it proves the popular success that it is hoped. It is understood, indeed, that the plans are already practically complete for "pulling off a huge one" on the above-mentioned date, but for some reason best known to themselves the Senate fathers have met all inquiries with a mysterious,

GEORGE H. DENNY
President

"Wait and see." The Senate committee in charge of the affair consists of Otho Jackson, Pat Osbourn, John Lyle Campbell, Ran Bledsoe and Doak Smithson.

A "prominent senator" when actually cornered by a Ring-tum Phi reporter, talked interesting, but somewhat vaguely of the proposed starting innovation.

"We expect to inaugurate something which is an entirely new and original feature in the university life," he said, "although somewhat similar ideas have been in operation for a long time at other schools, notably Yale, Amherst, Princeton and several of the western state universities. All such institutions, though differing widely in details are based upon the common and oft-observed fact of undergraduate human nature the world over that where two or three are gathered together on a warm spring night there is always present an irresistible impulse toward close harmony. The principal feature of our experiment then will be music—music and near-music. We want to provide a sort of common outlet for all the long suppressed melody pent up in the collective breast of the student body. Horrible idea, you think? Yes it is rough on the town I guess. But then the town don't properly appreciate our presence in its midst anyhow. And think what a joy it will be—five hundred leather-lunged warblers turning on the agony at one and the same time—solos, duets, quartets, double sextets and choruses!" the p s paused lost for a moment in contemplation of his infernal vision.

"Don't you anticipate any difficulty in getting the students to enter in the spirit of such affairs?" timidly interrupted the Ring-tum Phi man.

"Of course," replied the senator, taking a hitch in the nether folds of his toga, there is always an element of chronic soreheads to be reckoned with. These, like the poor, we have with us always and the funny thing is that nothing starts them to kicking and knocking quicker than some attempt, like the present one, to alleviate their self-imposed misery by offering an opportunity to forget themselves and their painful dignity and to be merely human for once. You have observed, I suppose, the striking resemblance between the college sourbelly and the common donkey—at both ends, eh? But my own opinion is that the members and influence of this element at Washington and Lee has been greatly exaggerated. The average student is not sourbellied, but only lacks an opportunity to enjoy himself in a natural way. This we propose to furnish.

"What is needed at this place more than anything else is some break in the deadly routine of plugging, some way for the student body to get to know each other and itself better. In the past few years we have outgrown the day when every man in school had an intimate personal acquaintance with every other man and the general tone of college spirit has suffered in consequence. Taking this social element in college life the men go stale in their class-room work and when they do inevitably break loose the eruption is apt to take the shape of a large consumption of imitation "red eye" a la jockey alley and calculated to make a man fight his grandmother. There's nothing to that sort of thing, you know, and that is one of the conditions we hope to provide an antidote for.

"No, I can't possibly tell you any more of the details of the idea just now, for several reasons. One of them is that we wish to make sure of the cooperation of the senior classes and we have not had a chance, yet, to lay the plan before them. Every thing will be explained in detail on the bulletin board sometime during the next two weeks."

We are always glad to publish any communication that may be handed to us, but we desire to state that we will not be responsible for sentiment expressed.

We also desire to call attention to the fact that unsigned correspondence will not be published. Those who do not desire their names published should add a pen name and their wishes will be complied with.

ATHLETIC COURTESY.

With the bright prospects for a winning baseball team all the fans in college are taking a new lease on life, and are evidently impatiently awaiting the umpire's "Play Ball!" We only hope all the bright dreams of victories will be fully realized, and that the pent-up enthusiasm will burst forth at every game in a continuous series of songs and yells.

These columns, the readers will undoubtedly think, are ever filled with cheer-leader-exhortations to "ROOT AND ROOT HARD ALL THE TIME," and that we intend to eternally ding-dong the rooting mania at them. We believe, however, that the student-body is so fully aware of the nature and value of rooting that there is no need of further admonitions from us.

It is our purpose to urge, though, that though the rooting be as good and loud and continuous as five hundred leather-lunged individuals can make it, the rooters will never forget that our opponents are our guests, and extend to them every courtesy. The "personal-remark" element of rooting is as ungentlemanly as it is useless. It is rare that Washington and Lee students resort to "guying" the opposing players, but this year we hope to hear nothing of that nature. It should be the object of every man in college to make visitors know that there are no breaches of the code of conduct here, and to treat every member of the visiting team as a guest should be treated, on and off the field.

We want to root FOR OUR TEAM, NOT AT the opponents. Stay behind the white and blue nine, and let them look after their opponents on the diamond. They can do it, like the ball-players and gentlemen they are.

Washington and Lee always plays the fair, clean game, and we think that good reputation will always be hers. It is for the athletes who represent her and for the men who stand behind them to see that this name of hers is never sullied.

THIRD MARCH TERM MOOT COURT

Interesting Decision Handed Down—Two Cases Argued.
Two Continued—Court
Adjourns Until April Term.

The third March term of the Moot Circuit Court for Rock-bridge county was convened at 3:15 p. m., Thursday, March 10th, the Hon. Martin P. Burks, judge of the court, presiding.

After the reading of the orders of the last term, at which it was ordered that the defendant in the case of H. St. George Tucker v. Wm. L. Bur-russ, ejection, recover of the plaintiff his costs; and in the case of The Globe Electric Company v. Bunch and Bled-soe (condemnation proceedings), it was ordered that the petition of the plaintiff be dismissed, and that the defendants recover of the said plaintiff, their costs; the absentees from the last term were called and for reasons satisfactory to the court, were excused. Attorneys W. F. Barnard, Blackwell, Caperton, Coke and Garrett were, however, fined for absence from one roll-call.

The court having maturely considered of its judgment in the case of Ira Cobbs v. David Earnest, an action of lease for malicious prosecution, stated that the question of whether the trial and conviction of a man before a justice of the peace, showed prima facie or conclusive cause for the now defendants' having sued out a warrant for his arrest, was an unsettled one; a careful review of the cases showed that the weight of authority was with the holding that this was conclusive cause for suing out the warrant; but that in Virginia this was only prima facie cause.

Judge Burks went on to state, however, that this court is not bound by the Virginia holding, and the defendant's demurrer on the ground that he had this probable cause was, therefore, sustained. Judgment was entered accordingly, and the attorneys instructed to prepare the order.

The first case on the docket was O. C. Jackson v. R. P. Ingram. Debt. Mr. Heaton for the plaintiff and Mr. Garrett for the defendant.

The defendant plead that the running of the statute of limitations barred the plaintiff's action on the notes on which he sued. The plaintiff replied that the action was begun in time to stop the running of the statute. The defendant then demurred to the declaration on the ground that it was not sufficient in law.

Mr. Heaton cited many authorities, with lengthy excerpts therefrom, and Mr. Garrett in support of his demurrer went into the law on the subject fully.

Mr. Heaton in his surrejoinder contended that this court is not bound by the Virginia statute on the subject. The court not being fully advised of its judgment took time to consider the same until the next term.

The next case called was M. H. Myers v. I. Archie Page and G. E. Pence. Meinhard Myerson, an attorney from Florida, appeared for the plaintiff, and one Thos. Cather—the erst-while proprietor of the famous C. C. C. tonsorial preparation—answered that the defendant was red-dy. This was an action of trespass on the case, brought by the said Myers against the defendants for assault and battery, committed in Rockbridge, though Pence resided in Harrisonburg, and Page in Norfolk.

The defendant entered a plea in abatement, to the jurisdiction, and contended that it be sustained, on the ground that the plaintiff did not in his declaration set out the county in which the assault occurred. The court stated that it did not see how the defendants could set up a defense wholly personal to each of them when they were sued jointly. The papers were turned over to the court for its further consideration.

The case of Cather v. Coates, debt, I. A. Page for the plaintiff, and W. K. Lemley for the defendant, was continued owing to the illness of the plaintiff's counsel.

Rosser J. Coke v. Fanny Deaver, detinue, Jackson for the plaintiff, and Witten for the defendant was continued owing to the illness of counsel for the defendant.

There being no other cases on the docket, it was ordered that the court be adjourned until the first April term.

SOCIAL.

Miss Nan Logan, who has been visiting the Misses Patton on the avenue, returned to her home in Salem, Va., last Saturday.

Mr. James Anderson, of Lynchburg, Va., will be the guest of his brother, Mr. R. H. Anderson, during the Easter dances.

Mme Fritzi Scheff will appear in Staunton the latter part of March.

The friends of Mr. Arthur Albertson will regret to learn that he has withdrawn from the university to go in the lumber business with his father in Jacksonville, Fla.

Mr. Sterling A. Mann has left for his home in West Virginia, but will resume his studies at the university on April 1, having only recently recovered from an attack of typhoid fever.

Mr. George Peters returned recently from Nashville, where he attended a convention of the Delta Tau Delta fraternity.

Mr. Warren Butler, from Savannah, Ga., is visiting in Lexington for a few weeks.

The concert given by the Washington and Lee Combined Musical Clubs last Saturday evening was quite a social event, a large number of Lexington society attending the splendid performance which was given.

Messrs. Dickey, Dutrow and Potter recently took the U. S. civil service examination held in Staunton, Va.

MINISTERIAL BAND OFFICERS CHOSEN.

Last Wednesday the Ministerial Band held its regular weekly meeting in the Y. M. C. A. office. The band has this year a membership of seventeen. The officers for the year beginning April 1, 1910, chosen at that meeting, are: Leader, Wm. McE. Miller; Assistant Leader, Wm. T. Riviere; Secretary, Sidney Ruck.

CATHER AND CAZORT CHOSEN FINAL ORATORS

Washington Society Also Elects Potter Presiding Officer of Final Celebration. Pence Chosen President for Third Term.

On Saturday evening, March 12, the Washington Literary Society chose Messrs. W. L. Cazort and T. R. Cather as its final orators to compete with two representatives from the Graham-Lee for the medal awarded annually by the University to the best orator at the contest during commencement week.

It was decided in view of the nearness of examinations not to hold a meeting next Saturday evening but to proceed to ballot of officers for the spring term.

The following list shows the result of the elections:

- President—G. E. Pence.
- Vice - President — W. T. Riviere.
- Secretary—H. A. Sacks.
- Treasurer—R. S. Walters
- Critic—O. T. Kaylor.
- Censor—T. McP. Glasgow.

The new officers begin their term April 2, 1910. The Presidency of the commencement week celebration belonging to the "Wash" this year, Mr. E. L. Potter was unanimously elected to that position.

The regular program was postponed in order to enable the members to attend the concert of the combined musical clubs of the University, which was held in the Carnegie library.

REUNION NOTES.

U. S. Senators Lead Van Of Coming Alumni Invasion.

(Note: During the rest of the session this column will be devoted to news of the great alumni reunion projected for the coming finals. Alumni and students are urged to send in as soon as possible all information as to alumni who expect to return and any other item of interest calculated to boost things.)

Those in charge of this year's alumni re-union are beginning to get definite returns from individual alumni in reply to the circular letters urging them to be back for the big round-up. Among those who have signified their intention of being on hand are U. S. Senator George Chamberlain and Prof. W. R. Vance of George Washington, who has recently accepted a chair in Yale University. There are also good prospects that Senator Robert Owen will return this year as well as Representative Miles Poindexter, of Washington state, whose strenuous insurgency during the present session of congress has so endeared him to the people of Washington that it is probable he will be promoted to the senate at the next session—tally three for Washington and Lee. It is more than doubtful at present writing whether Wade Ellis will be able to tear himself away from the Tartar he recently annexed in the shape of the general manager-ship of Ohio politics—by royal appointment—in order to revisit the scenes of his first political triumph in the literary societies; but from the above list it is evident that national politics will be sufficiently represented for all practical purposes. Besides we all know that the Hon. Wade will be here in spirit.

Senator Chamberlain and Prof. Vance will be guests of the Phi Phi house during finals, both of them being alumni of the local chapter of this fraternity.

A large contingent is expected from Washington, D. C., where is located one of the strongest and most active of the alumni associations. It is not known definitely yet just how many will show up from the capitol city and the vicinity but we understand that at the recent banquet of the association a large proportion of those present signified their intention of getting here in time for the boat race, anyhow.

Y. M. C. A. HOLDS MEETING.

Dr. Howe Makes Urgent Appeal to Students in Behalf of Missions.

The regular weekly meeting of the Y. M. C. A. was addressed last Tuesday night by Dr. James Lewis Howe. He based his remarks on general references contained in both the Old and New Testaments, in which God's people are directed to help save the heathen. Owing to our present advantages of civilization which are clearly our inheritance due to the benefits furnished by Christianity, what inherent right have we to Christ over other peoples. Therefore, if we do not aid others we are ungrateful for our blessings. The question is only "Can we aid them?"

In the first place we have Christ's three commands to "Go ye into all the world and preach the gospel," with His promise to give power and His presence. The progress of evangelism speaks for its cause the desire of God to have it done, and therefore we can not ask the question "Did God mean what he said?"

What is the meaning of nineteenth century advancement unless a preparation for the spread of the gospel? Every important invention furnish a means of enlightening the people of the whole world. God chose to have His gospel carried by men to men and hence it is man's responsibility to his fellows. If we hope to evangelize the heathen in this generation it is necessary that each man reach four each year. The heathen at home are so by choice whereas those abroad are so by circumstance. Are we giving them the square deal?

What are we doing to help them?

season, as they have always done good work on the firing line.

Captain Stras will probably take his old place at the initial bag, and Brown, Herring and Webster are showing up well for the infield. Waddill, Graham, Clarke and Richardson are all fast outfielders.

Opposing these old stagers, however, is a bunch of new ball tossers, which look just about as good as were ever seen on Wilson field.

From Fishburne Military school are Moran, the two Efrds, Smith and Simms; Erwin, of Phillips-Andover; Ball, of Wisconsin; Harnsberger, of Hampden-Sidney; Peeples, of Atlanta high school; Wilkins, of Cluster Springs; Hardwick, of San Antonio Academy; Turbypill, Foreman, Bedinger, Roberts, Wright, Somerville, Jalonick and others.

Moran and "Jap" Efrd easily out-ranked all opposing "prep." school pitchers last season and are showing up in great form. Ball is working in fine style, has good speed and control, and seems to hit well. Moran is also a good man with the willow. This trio should make Washington and Lee great slab artists. Hardwick, Jalonick, Jones, and Harnsberger are in good form, and the prospects are that they will make themselves heard from in the box.

Watt Efrd is a reliable catcher and seems to use the stick to advantage. Simms and Foreman are also showing up well as back-stops.

Erwin handles himself in a way, that will make every infielder on the lot hustle for his job. He is said to be a fast man on either the second or third corner. Wright and Wilkins are working hard for the infield positions, and from this bunch of old and new material, Coach Kennoy feels that he can develop a very fast infield. Turnhill, Peeples and Roberts look like fast outfielders and all hit the leather hard. They will make the old men hustle for places.

The material is so good and there are so many men who "look likely" that not a single applicant for the team can be "sure of his place" at any time during the season. The man who plays in a game will have to show up in good style, if he expects to play in the next. From Coach Kennoy's attitude we are pleased to note that "making the team" means WORK and WORK ALL THE TIME.

THE COLLEGE WORLD.

The total enrollment at Illinois this year is 4,900 students.

Pennsylvania has devised a new plan for the awarding of the varsity "P" in baseball. The big games this year will be three with Cornell, two each with Yale, Princeton and Brown. All the battery men playing in at least three innings of two of these games will be eligible for a letter, while other members of the squad must play in at least three innings of two of these games will be eligible for a letter, while other members of the squad must play in a majority of the games.

Rufus Ried has been elected by the G. A. A. of Virginia to coach the baseball team this season. Although he is a student, he is barred from playing because he engaged in playing summer ball. Reid is both coach and manager of the team.

The Chinese government has promised to devote the $10,000,000 of Boxer indemnity claims, remitted by the United States to educational work. This year forty-seven students were sent to American colleges and next year the number will be greater by one hundred and forty-eight.

Wisconsin University has an arrangement by which all students may have the privilege of medical advice, calls, and medicine at the rate of one dollar per semester.

Brown University is building a new library to be named after their most famous alumnus, John Hay.

The baseball schedule for Dartmouth, as announced, includes games with Harvard, Holy Cross, Amherst, Williams and Cornell.

A Michigan professor says that the East is thirty-six years behind the west in oratory.

onstrated the truth of this statement. The addition of the 'cello and double bass helped out wonderfully and the orchestra numbers were among the finest on the program.

The piano duet by Mrs. Watts and Mrs. Waddell can hardly be done justice in words. These ladies are artists on their instruments and represent the best local talent, so that their number on the program, as might naturally be expected, was of the highest class and splendidly executed. Mrs. Watts played the piano accompaniment for Mr. Paredes' violin solo, and it is superfluous to add that she also played this excellently. Mr. Parades acquitted himself, as on many former occasions, in his usual perfect style.

The Mandolin Club showed wonderful improvement, and is to be encouraged to further endeavor. Efforts have been made for the last few years to establish a mandolin club that should be worthy of the name, so it is to be hoped that this year the club will stick together and accomplish something. It is certainly composed of capable and efficient material.

Quite a large number of town people and students attended the concert. Those who were unable to attend, or for other reasons missed the opportunity of hearing such an excellent musical treat, can only be consoled by the hope of hearing a second entertainment by the clubs in the near future.

The following are the names of the members of the different clubs, to whose individual and combined efforts the excellence of the entertainment is to be attributed:

Unfortunately the Glee Club was unable to get together for practice soon enough to justify its appearance on the evening's program, but it is hoped that it will be amply prepared to take part in the next entertainment.

GRAHAM-LEE HOLDS ELECTION.

Coates and Eggleston Chosen to Represent the Society in the Final Celebration.

The Graham-Lee Society held its regular weekly meeting on Saturday evening, March 5. Mr. Preston rendered a declamation and Mr. Womeldorf read an interesting paper on "The Ballinger-Pinchot controversy.

The question for debate: Resolved, That the president should be elected by direct vote of the people," was debated on the affirmative by Messrs. Coates and Saunders and on the negative by Messrs. Gregg and Bunch. The decision was rendered in favor of the affirmative. After the regular program was rendered the society elected the following men to serve on the program of the joint celebration of the two societies which will be held on Monday night of the final week.

- J. R. Coates, J. W. Eggleston, orators.
- F. C. Williams, vice-president.
- R. W. Alley, chief marshal.

EASTER DANCES TO BE BRILLIANT.

Cotillion Club Expanding
Every Effort—Beverly Orchestra Coming—
Baseball Games
April 1st and 4th.

All indications point to the coming Easter Dances as the most brilliant and enjoyable ever held at Washington and Lee at this time. As announced before, they will be held on Monday, April the fourth and Tuesday, April the fifth, the V. M. I. dances being given on the Friday and Saturday nights preceding. The second term exams are over March 31, so more suitable dates could hardly have been chosen for the festivities.

It is understood that an especially large number of visiting girls will be in Lexington, although it is to be regretted that the dates are too late to allow any of the Sweet Brear crowd to come. The baseball games arranged with Swarthmore on April 1 and Randolph-Macon on April 4 will add greatly to the entertainment of the fair visitors. Both of these teams are strong ones, and as the W. & L. squad is fast rounding into better shape than it has been for several years, the contests should prove interesting. The spring initiation of Phi Delta Phi will also probably take place about this time.

The Beverly Orchestra of Staunton will play Tuesday night and it may be that circumstances will prevent the Cotillion Club to secure their services for the first night also. Both dances will be held in the skating rink. A more suitable place than which could hardly be found, since its recent renovation. In event the Beverly Orchestra is not secured Monday night, the University Orchestra, headed by Messrs. Bootay and Allen, will in all probability be engaged.

LEES DORMITORY REGULATIONS.

The following regulations were adopted by the occupants of the dormitory, in a special call meeting Wednesday, March 9th, 1910, and will go into effect Monday, March 14, 1910, at 8 a. m.:

1. No negroes will be allowed in the dormitory, except between the hours of 8 to 9 p. m. Saturdays and 8 to 9 p. m. and 8 to 9 a. m. on Mondays, unless accompanied by a student or janitor.

2. All wash that is called for by negroes will be distributed by janitor at the end of the week.

If wash is not collected by boys by 9 a. m. Monday, the wash must be in the halls by 10 a. m., and will then be collected by janitor. Each bag should have name of owner attached.

3. No fire arms or fire works of any kind shall be expolded in the dormitory or out of the windows.

No glass of any description shall be thrown from the windows.

4. All singing, playing of musical instruments or other unnecessary noises are prohibited between the hours of 9 p. m. and 8 a. m. Saturdays and days before holidays excepted, in the dormitory or within 100 yards of the dormitory.

It was further decided that each wing have their own committee consisting of one man from each floor and the three chairmen of these committees to act as a general dormitory committee, the chairman of the general dormitory committee having power to call a meeting of all students of the dormitory.

Each wing shall have power to make local rules; provided they do not conflict with the general rules of the dormitory.
