YEAR'S PROGRESS OF Y. M. C. A.

Officers Elected for Next Year and Reports of Retiring Committee Heard

After the address of Mr. Terry before the Y. M. C. A. on last Tuesday night a business meeting was held with President Glasgow in the chair for the purpose of electing officers for the next year and of hearing reports from the various chairmen of committees. President Glasgow stated that the object of the association had been to render the students practical service, to broaden its work, and to engage as active members the choicest men in college.

The election of officers was then proceeded with. Mr. C. P. Light rendered the report of the nominating committee and stated that the officers for next year selected by the committee were:

President, R. R. Witt.

Vice-President, W. M. Miller.

Recording Secretary, W. J. Wilcox.

Treasurers, C. P. Grantham, F. W. McWane.

As there were no other nominations a motion was made and passed that the report of this committee be accepted.

President Glasgow then called for the reports of the various committees.

NEW STUDENT COMMITTEE, O. T. KAYLOR, CHAIRMAN.

It was reported that during the summer the Student's Hand Book, together with a personal letter was sent to each new candidate for admission to Washington and Lee. Upon arriving the new students were welcomed by the committee at the train and were shown to their various boarding places. The committee conducted in Newcomb Hall an information bureau which was a new feature this year, the object being to give general information and to aid students in finding a suitable boarding place. Mr. Kaylor closed by urging that his successor see that the work is done thoroughly next year and induce some scheme of keeping in touch with the new students after their arrival.

RECEPTION COMMITTEE—W. H. BARCLAY, CHAIRMAN.

The work of this committee consisted in making arrangements for the annual reception to new students given on the first Friday night after college opened. Mr. Barclay reported that refreshments were served and that speeches on various phases of college life were made. The reception this session was a decided success and was thoroughly enjoyed by the four hundred men who attended.

MEMBERSHIP COMMITTEE—C. P. LIGHT, CHAIRMAN.

The membership has increased in keeping with the other departments of the work. We have now enrolled about 320 men of which 251 are paid members. It may be reasonably ex-

HAMILTON PROVES EASY FOR VARSITY

Two Games Characterized by Heavy Hitting and Abundant Errors Taken by One-Sided Scores—Last Game on Wilson Field This Season

The Washington and Lee home baseball schedule was finished last Friday when the Varsity took the second game from Hamilton College by the large score of 16 to 1. The first game was won by the score of 15 to 1.

On Thursday Moran lobbed them over, but the New Yorkers could only get three safeties. He repeatedly caught men off first and second. Varsity played baseball in every department, Erwin playing star game, worked the delayed steal to third, double steal, the squeeze play twice with Moran at the bat, and the first and only double play of the home season, besides stealing six bases.

On Friday Moran, Dooley and Gwathmey each pitched three innings. The latter two holding them hitless. The Varsity stole seventeen bases.

The first game, play by play, is as follows:

THE TRIANGULAR DEBATE

Johns Hopkins Team Defeated in Baltimore, But Pennsylvania College Victorious Here

The Triangular Debate on Friday night between teams representing Washington and Lee, Pennsylvania College, and Johns Hopkins University, resulted in an even break for Washington and Lee. Our team which debated against Johns Hopkins having won, and the team against Pennsylvania College having lost. The triangular form of debate was an innovation here, but this plan seemed very successful.

The question for debate was: "Resolved, That the present distribution of powers between the Federal and State governments should be revised in pursuance of a general policy of centralization." The team representing Washington and Lee against Johns Hopkins were Messrs. J. G. Herndon, Jr., J. T. Gray and H. B. Ferguson, alternate, and although defending the unpopular side of the question in Baltimore, they were victorious.

The debate between Pennsylvania College and Washington and Lee took place in the chapel Friday evening, the same time as the Baltimore debate. Here the Washington and Lee team, consisting of Messrs. C. P. Heavener and J. O. Adams, with W. H. Abramvitz, upheld the affirmative of the question against Messrs. M. H. Krumbine and C. M. Allabach, the Pennsylvania College team. Mr. Heavener was the first speaker and declared that the State governments are inefficient and have not prevented grave evils arising; that the National Government has proven more efficient; and that the people are demanding Federal legislation to check and wipe out present day evils; that in order to have this legislation, a redistribution of state and national power is necessary. Mr. Krumbine, the first speaker for the negative, traced the history of the constitution from the foundation of our government, attempting to show that this instrument is sufficiently elastic to give by Supreme Court interpretation all necessary powers as occasion may demand. Mr. Adams continued the argument for the affirmative by attempting to show that under the present distribution of powers, the Federal government is unable to exercise many of the functions of government, and stated that the only way to check the great corporations is by Federal or national license. Furthermore he contended that popular election of Senators will make the Federal government nearer to the people than the state governments. Mr. Allabach in closing for the negative, touched upon the fact of the equilibrium between the national and state governments in this dual form and declared that any revision of the powers would mean radical change in the constitution, would prove dangerous and in direct opposition to what the people demand, and likely to throw the government into the grasp of the powerful corporations. Each speaker was

The chapel will be the scene of a notable gathering next Friday night when the chapter of Phi Beta Kappa granted Washington and Lee last fall will be installed. Forty of Washington and Lee's most distinguished alumni have been invited to come into the new chapter as foundation members. Practically all of them have accepted the invitation, and will be present to be taken in on that occasion. There will be gathered on the platform a distinguished company of men, — United States senators, congressmen, judges of national and international reputation, — men concerning whom we are daily reading in the newspapers and magazines, — men who have brought honor and fame to their alma mater. The fact that these men are to be seen, and some of them heard, makes the occasion doubly interesting and inspiring. The gathering is one which no student of the University can afford to miss.

The rules adopted for the interclass baseball games make "scrub" varsity men ineligible for the class teams. This ruling seems to us to be incorrect on principle and unfair to the second team men. The very foundation idea of the interclass games is the development of potential varsity material. To attain that end it is perfectly plain that the men who show most promise of ever becoming varsity players are the ones who should be developed. With the added experience of the class games these men will be in better shape to do good work for the varsity next year. But the chief objection to the ruling is the hardship it works on the second team men. They have been out all season working hard, with no chance of making the regular team. Inspired by loyalty and patriotism fully as much as by love of the game they have put in afternoon after afternoon on ball field while their classmates were playing pool or lolling at ease in their rooms. Now they have been dropped without any sort of recognition—not even the trip they so richly deserved. To deny them the right to play class baseball will be to create another drawback to a man's going out for the team unless he is sure of making a place. The scrubs get no monogram, and this ruling shuts them off from winning even class numerals. Add to these objections the fact that this procedure is bound to detract from the quality of the games played and therefore from the interest manifested in them, and that it is contrary to custom in interclass games, and the case against the ruling is so strong as to be almost irrefutable.

NOTICE

The exercises incident to the re-interment of the remains of Rev. William Graham will take place at 11 a. m., Friday, May 5. Hon. William A. Anderson of Richmond, will make an address in the University chapel at that hour. Rev. Dr. G. B. Strickler of Union Theological Seminary will conduct the religious worship.

A number of distinguished alumni, including senators, congressmen, judges and other men of national reputation, will be present.

A meeting of the University Assembly is, therefore, called at 11 a. m., May 5. It is, of course, assumed that no student in the University would be willing to be absent on this occasion. The exercises will be brief, and the re-interment will immediately follow.

The remains of our first president (through whose influence the institution was incorporated in 1782 and thus began its chartered career) will be removed to Lexington from historic St. John's church, Richmond, on May 4, accompanied by a committee of the trustees and by representatives of the family. They will reach Lexington at 6.45 p. m., and it is requested that the faculty and student-body will meet the train and act as escort from the railway station to the University Chapel.

The following young men are requested to act as pallbearers:

Edward L. Graham, Jr.
John L. Campbell, Jr.
John A. Graham.
Thos. McPheeters Glasgow.
Wm. Houston Barclay
Wm. McElwee Miller
Chas. Ghiselin, Jr.
L. Berkeley Cox.
Thomas S. White, Jr.
R. R. Witt, Jr.

I am sure that our entire University organization, trustees, faculty, and student-body, will desire to participate in this interesting ceremony. We are loyal to Washington and Lee. Let us, then, seize this opportunity to show our loyalty to the memory of the man who nurtured the college in its infancy and brought it safely through the most perilous years of its chartered life. Let us make this event a great, historic event in the life of the college.

GEORGE H. DENNY
President

YEAR'S PROGRESS OF Y. M. C. A.

pected that there will be 300 paid up men before the end of the session, as compared with 240 of last year. This work represented hard consistent effort. Two thorough canvases of the student body were made, besides individual work. The chairman suggested that next year there be an early house to house campaign by a sufficient number of interested and competent men who will complete the canvass in one night. He also suggested that complete records be kept by the chairman of the committee and the recording secretary of the association.

MISSION STUDY COMMITTEE—L. R. CRAIGHILL, CHAIRMAN.

It was reported that this committee had organized twelve classes in mission study most of which successfully completed their work. The classes manifested an unusual interest and were entered into enthusiastically by the members. The total enrollment was 162. One of the most successful classes was led at Castle Hill by Dr. J. L. Howe on the Negro Problem, and Dr. Howe also before Christmas aided the association greatly by leading a mission normal class. Eight of the twelve classes studied the Negro Problem.

BIBLE STUDY—R. R. WITT, CHAIRMAN

It was reported that efforts had been made at the first of the year to enroll in the various Bible classes of the churches as many students as possible. One hundred and eighty were enrolled with an average attendance of 118. Since the holidays a new policy has been adopted by this committee. It has been the purpose to get into Bible study those students who are not reached by the Sunday Schools. Five classes in the boarding and fraternity houses led by students have been organized with an enrollment of sixty men. Reports indicate that this plan is most successful, that the leaders are putting enthusiasm into the classes, and that interest is shown by the members. This policy should be followed out next year until a larger number of students are enrolled in these classes.

MINISTERIAL BAND—WILLIAM MILLER, LEADER

The ministerial band this year consists of fourteen members, all of whom have definitely decided to study for the Christian ministry. Weekly meetings are held. The attendance is usually good and great interest is shown most of the members in the work of the band. Dr. H. H. Sweets of Louisville, addressed the students under the auspices of this band.

VOLUNTEER BAND—D. B. OWEN, LEADER

There are three members who intend to go to foreign fields. The band this year has held weekly meetings and has studied a course in line of their work.

DEVOTIONAL MEETING—O. T. KAYLOR AND S. T. RUCK, CHAIRMEN.

The work of this committee has been most satisfactory. It has been the object to study the problems which are peculiar to college life, and in the selection of speakers for the weekly meeting to endeavor to bring to the hearing of the students only those men who were best informed and most competent to present their message. This committee decided that W. D. Weatherford would be the best man for the series of mass meetings, and the unusual interest in these meetings showed the wisdom of their choice. Some of the speakers besides Dr. Weatherford have been Mr. H. H. Sweets on Service, Dr. Denny on Responsibility and Education, Dr. H. D. Campbell on Purity and Dr. Currell on Bible Study. Mr. J. H. Little of Louisville, gave an illustrated lecture on the Negro Problem, under the auspices of the association. It has been felt that the tone of the meetings has been characterized by marked interest and that those who attended have been greatly benefited. Twenty six meetings had been held up to April first. The committee also reported that weekly meetings were held at Castle Hill and that reports indicate that unusual interest has been shown in this part of the work. The strongest available men are secured for the Castle Hill meetings.

MUSIC COMMITTEE—J. H. CAMPBELL, H. C. ELEY, CHAIRMEN.

This committee has done effective work in giving music at the regular meetings and in furnishing from time to time special selections. The work of this committee can be made most effective and can be of great service to the devotional meetings.

PUBLICATION COMMITTEE—MARSHALL MOORE, CHAIRMAN.

The object of this committee is to give publicity to the affairs of the association. The work has been thoroughly reported in the Ring-tum Phi and in the Southern Collegian.

GENERAL SECRETARY FUND—J. T. WATSON, CHAIRMAN.

The subscription list contains the names of 311 subscribers, aggregating an amount of $360.50. Of this amount $222.00 has been collected, leaving an amount unpaid of $138.50. Practically all of these cards will be collected by the middle of May.

NEIGHBORHOOD WORK—JOHN BOWMAN, CHAIRMAN.

The object of this committee is to do Christian work in the neighborhood. Students aid in the work at House Mountain and on every other Sunday night at Beechenbrook. Most of the work of this committee is done by ministerial students.

ATTENDANCE COMMITTEE—ED. BROWN, CHAIRMAN.

It was reported that the increase in attendance was largely due to the efforts of the devotional committee in having live topics for discussion and in securing the very best possible speakers. Not including Dr. Weatherford's meetings, the average attendance this year has been fifty, as compared with twenty of last year. This committee inaugurated the plan of having posters in each class room on the day of the weekly meeting and these have done much toward bringing the Y. M. C. A. before the attention of the students. The committee holds meetings from time to time and canvasses the student body in its efforts to increase the attendance at meetings.

FINANCE COMMITTEE—G. W. CHANEY, CHAIRMAN.

It has been the effort of the association this year to handle its finances in a business like and practical way and much progress has been made. The finance committee consists of G. W. Chaney, J. T. Watson and Dr. T. J. Farrar, Alumni Treasurer.

REPORT OF PRESIDENT GLASGOW

The retiring President, Mr. Glasgow, then gave his report. He briefly reviewed the work of each department and pointed out that the association had made strides forward in each branch of the work.

He mentioned the great aid which Dr. T. J. Farrar had given as a member of the Advisory Board. Besides giving much valuable advice to the Y. M. C. A., he aided the Finance Committee by seeing that the affairs of the Association were run in a businesslike way.

Mr. Glasgow then commented on the work of the General Secretary and said that he had rendered the Y. M. C. A. constant and valuable service.

A few words were then said on the scope and possibilities of the Association. He said that it has been the aim this year to render practical service to the student body. The Y. M. C. A. stands for the development of men, all round men, and has enlisted among its members students who are leading in every phase of college activity.

The President then pointed out two new things which have been done this year which show the association's purpose to be of real service; first, the weekly Bulletin; and second the Alumni Letter. The students have found the Weekly Bulletin most useful. It has come to stay and it is now looked upon as a trustworthy statement of the events of the following week. The Alumni News Letter is sent out to a picked list of Alumni to keep them in touch with the affairs of the University and the Association. Its purpose is not to ask for money but to create a live interest among our alumni. Many letters received by the Association in reply to them show that the desired result is being accomplished.

Mr. Glasgow closed his report with a few words to the new officers in which he showed them the importance of the work and their responsibility. He appealed to them to push the Association even further to the front next year and make it an even stronger force for good.

W. & L. DEFEATS GEORGIA

In driving rain and muddy field Washington and Lee defeated Georgia yesterday afternoon in Athens. Moran held the Georgians well in hand, allowing only one hit. Varsity found Cox for eight hits. The final score was 2 to 0. In the fourth inning Brown hit for two bases, Turbyfill followed with a single through short, scoring Brown, and a moment later himself scored on Erwin's single. Notwithstanding the muddy field Varsity made only one error, while three miscues were charged up to the Georgians.

COMING

The Ben Greet company will give two of their admirable performances on the Washington and Lee Campus May 13th, at 3 p. m., and 8 p. m.

The plays to be given this year will be "The Comedy of Errors," in which Mr. Ben Greet himself will take the part of Dromio, in the afternoon and "She Stoops to Conquer," Goldsmith's charming comedy at night. Price $1.50 for the two performances, $1.00 for a single performance.

The two plays are so irresistibly amusing and the acting of these well known players is so good that we feel that all who attend will be richly repaid.

Informal lectures, free, will be delivered by Professor Currell on these plays at 4 p. m. Friday, May 12th in the high school auditorium, and all who may be unfamiliar with them are cordially invited to attend.

MISS A. R. WHITE,
W. S. CURRELL.

MANAGER PIPES
ANNOUNCES SCHEDULE

R. W. Pipes, manager of football for 1911, has completed the schedule for next fall. The list includes seven games, four of which will be played on Wilson Field. The season opens with Roanoke College on Wilson Field on Oct. 7, and closes on Thanksgiving with Tulane University in New Orleans.

The first game away from home is the annual contest with V. P. I., in Roanoke on Oct. 28. North Carolina A. and M. will be met in Raleigh, the date being Nov. 11. Davidson does not appear on the schedule this year, that game having been necessarily sacrificed for one with A. and M.

It is a matter of some regret here that the University of Virginia has no place on the schedule, but the fault for this seems to be outside of Washington and Lee, for the management at Charlottesville was offered a game anywhere in Virginia, except at home, but refused to play anywhere else.

The schedule is made out as follows:

October 7—Roanoke College on Wilson Field, Lexington, Va.

October 14—Hampden Sidney on Wilson Field, Lexington, Va.

October 21—Wake Forest College on Wilson Field, Lexington, Va.

October 28—V. P. I. at Roanoke, Va.

November 4—Medical College of Virginia, on Wilson Field at Lexington.

November 11—A. and M. of North Carolina, Raleigh.

November 25—Open.

November 30—Thanksgiving, Tulane University in New Orleans.

TEAM ON SOUTHERN TRIP

Georgia Met Yesterday and Today—Games With North Carolina, South Carolina, Trinity and A. and M.

The Washington and Lee Varsity baseball squad left Lexington Saturday night on their annual Southern trip. Besides Coach Pollard and Assistant Manager G. C. Jackson, Manager Stough carried twelve players on the trip. The following men compose the squad: 1911—Ed Brown, third base; 1912—W. L. Webster, center field, W. W. Gwathmey, pitcher; R. Bédow, catcher; 1913—Captain Smith, second base; Harry Moran, pitcher; W. A. Erwin, shortstop; Turbyfill, left field; H. E. Peeples, first base; 1914—Donahue, catcher; R. Moore, pitcher; Dooley, pitcher.

The team left Lynchburg for Atlanta on the Florida limited at 11 p.m. The first games will be played against the University of Georgia in Athens, Georgia, was the best team in the S. I. A. A. this year, but we are confident that Moran can beat them again and are hopeful that one of the second string men can cop the game today. Last year Moran let the Crackers down with one hit and fanned eighteen of their batters. Wednesday the Blue and White line up against the fast University of South Carolina in Columbia, S. C. They were trailed in the dust on Wilson Field last week to the score of 16 to 5, and we are confident of getting at least one of the games to be played in the Gamecocks' camp. In Chapel Hill, Friday and Saturday, they line up against the Tarheels for two games. Last year Washington and Lee beat North Carolina in Lexington 3 to 2 with Ebird in the box. The games will decide the championship of this division, as Carolina has twice defeated Virginia. Therefore Coach Pollard will strain every effort to get away with a clean slate. Washington and Lee believe that their premier southpaw, Moran, can beat any team in the division; his record on the mound is clean, with twenty-odd straight victories.

May 8 they go up against what they believe to be the hardest proposition of the year, A. and M. of N. C., in Raleigh. Last season with Moran in the box Washington and Lee battled A. and M. fifteen innings to a zero to zero score. Moran fanned 28 of the Farmers and let them down with four hits, only 49 men going to the bat, the team fielding errorlessly behind him and he not issuing a pass to first. For this work he was credited with the intercollegiate strikeout record.

Trinity College in Durham on Tuesday will end the season for Washington and Lee. Last year the teams played three games, each winning one and the third game a tie.

FIELD DAY SET FOR TOMORROW

The Annual Field Day which was to be held last Saturday was called off on account of rain, and will be pulled off tomorrow. As an additional incentive to men to enter the meet it is announced by Manager Bootay that the men who show up well tomorrow will make the trip to V. P. I. Medals will, as usual, be awarded to winners of first, second, and third places. Monograms will go to the man making the greatest number of points, and to those breaking Wilson Field records. The meet with V. P. I. will be held in Blacksburg on Tuesday, May 9.
