Half-Back "BUCK" SWEETLAND
Who Registered Both of the Touchdowns Saturday

V.P.I. Makes First Downs But Twice During Clash in Roanoke Saturday While W. and L. Advanced at Will

YOUNG SUFFERS BROKEN COLLAR BONE

BY REUBEN A. LEWIS

Crushed by the powerful attack of the mighty General machine, Virginia Polytechnic Institute suffered a striking defeat in Roanoke Saturday when Washington and Lee triumphed 13 to 0. Led by the irresistible Buck Sweetland, the General backs punctured the Tech line at will, while V. P. I. registered but one first down during the entire conflict, through the Washington and Lee staunch line, and received but one on a penalty. Four intercepted forward passes and the recovery of two fumbles alone saved the Techs from an overwhelming reversal.

The rout was complete. The four thousand followers of the two elevens saw Tech decisively outbattled. The Generals riddled their opponents' line for telling gains, while the cadets were hurled back with relentless regularity. In punting, Cy Young and Mercer Graham outdistanced the Tech punter—Powell at every turn. Viewed from any angle, Washington and Lee had a marked edge.

Sweetland the Star

The outstanding figure in the victory was Buck Sweetland, the dashing left-halfback. His speed and cunning were responsible for both touchdowns and single headed the hefty back earned a victory. Although Johnny Barrett, Cy Young, Battle Bagley and John Sorrells battered the line and skirted the Tech ends for telling gains, Sweetland's advances were greater than the aggregate gains of these four General backs.

Gaining the jump, Washington and Lee hammered the Techs with such a drive that V. P. I. immediately resorted to a defensive game but of no avail, for the Generals were not to be denied. But for the interception of four passes and two costly fumbles, the Generals might have trebled the count against the hefty cadets.

In an effort to batter down the game defense that Tech offered, Washington and Lee repaired to the use of forward pass and end runs of diverse formations. But none of these tactics were as fertile of gain as the bullet-like assaults against the Tech line. In vain, the Poly forwards hurled their massive bulk against the bitter onrushes of the resolute Generals in an effort to stem the march. But greater brawn was not to be denied its return and

Students Pledge Their Support of W. and L. Representative in India

That Washington and Lee will send "Pat" Osborne as a missionary to India was assured at the meeting held yesterday morning in the chapel. This comes as the culmination of a campaign to have a representative of W. and L. in the foreign field which was inaugurated during the early part of the past session. At that time the plan was explained to the students and a portion of the necessary fund subscribed. Osborne was then selected as the man for the place, but until yesterday the matter was held back because of the failure to raise the money needed.

The recent campaign consisted of a meeting in the chapel at 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon, several talks in the Presbyterian church Sunday night, and a student assembly in the chapel Monday morning at 10:30.

At the first meeting Sunday Arthur Rugh of the Student Volunteer movement and a recent missionary in China, Frank Slack who has been in India for the last eight years, Mimms Lee, State Student Y. M. C. A. Secretary of Virginia, and Francis Miller of the New York Office, were all on hand and ready to help the local men in bringing about the success of the movement.

W.V.A.U. GAME NEXT ON GENERALS' CARD

West Virginians Look Upon This as Their Biggest Game of the Season

The husky team from the University of West Virginia will be the next aggregation to meet the Generals on the gridiron and there is no doubting the fact that a hard, fast game may be expected. The battle will be staged, as it has been for the past several years, at Charleston, W. Va., Saturday, October 23.

The West Virginians have a good team this year which will be realized by their showing against Pennsylvania and Washington and Jefferson, holding the former team to one score, and getting a 6 to 6 break with the latter. Last year the Morgantown team held the Generals to a two point victory—8 to 6. That this game is looked upon as an important one by West Virginia can easily be seen from press notes being sent out from the University. It is spoken of as "West Virginia's one big game of the year" and "this is one game that West Virginia is expected above all to win this year". The Washington and Lee team will leave Lexington for Charleston at 4:15 Thursday afternoon, in a special Pullman, and will reach the West Virginia capital at 3:25 Friday morning. The team will rest all day Friday, being located at the Kanawha hotel as usual. The game will be called at 3 o'clock Saturday afternoon.

Arrangements have been made to have a special report of the game, play by play, from the grounds to the Lyric theatre here in order that the students here may get a realistic report of the clash.

During the game Wright's saxophone orchestra will be located in the bleachers playing the "Swing" and the cadet band from West Virginia University will also play. Saturday evening a dance will be given in the armory in Charleston in honor of both teams by the alumni of both institutions and about midnight the Generals will retire to their special car for the return trip to Lexington, reaching here at 1:05 Sunday afternoon.

West Virginia is doing its part to make the big game a "go" for a special train will be run from Morgantown to Charleston to carry the supporters of the University team. There seem to have been considerable difficulty in arranging for the cadet band to go to Charleston to attend the game, but the last issue of "The Athenaeum", the West Virginia University weekly, contained a story stating that the presence of the band has been assured.

According to this story the band is to give four concerts the proceeds of which will be used to defray expenses of the trip, and the committee in charge instituted a "tag day" collecting fifty cents from each of the students for the concert. Some idea of the importance of the W. and L. game to the West Virginians will be gathered from the following quotations taken from the band story mentioned above: "If we, as students, stop for a moment to think what winning the Washington and Lee game means to the university, who among us will refuse to pay the nominal charge asked? * * * "From all available 'dope' on the two teams they are very evenly matched, and if we, by giving our hearty cooperation to this movement can put an additional factor in the field to aid our team, by all means, let us do it! * * * "Now is the time for the student body to show what is termed 'college spirit'. Start in by investing fifty cents in a concert ticket, and let us all get together to show Washington and Lee what real spirit means".

As for the Generals, all Washington and Lee feels that they will do their part and that they will come back from "the enemy's country" with another West Virginia victory.

Kinnon, Adrian Boyd, J. L. Harrison, E. T. Davis, and R. A. McMillen.

The goats are: James Ambler, James Izard, Horner Fisher, Robert Gardner, Robert Vance, J. G. Ramey, Dick Campbell, R. S. Kime, B. D. Bryan, Flournoy Tillar, W. E. McClintock, Claude Covington, Allein Beall, W. F. Taylor, Matthew Paxton, W. N. Camp, A. E. Lusk, John Stephenson, W. S. Hopkins, Jr., T. G. Woodson, W. H. Estes, Charles Stribling, Marion Sanders, W. J. Cox, F. H. Gilbreath, Fulton Hoge, W. B. Trigg, G. T. Holbrook, L. L. MacKinnon, R. B. Baldwin, and C. A. Camp.

Neither of the Societies has revealed the date of initiation but it is generally thought that it will come about the first of December. As far as can be learned, no steps have been taken toward arrangements for the shows, but preparations for the annual laugh-fests will soon materialize.

GENERALS DEFEAT TECHS 13 TO 0

the Generals marched onward, profiting from their driving siege.

The Techs never threatened to cross the White and Blue goal line. Every attempt to record a gain was repulsed until the fourth quarter when the forward pass netted one, a substantial advance of 23 yards on Powell's toss to Dixon. The vaunted Tech line failed to hold, although Hall, Gregory and Powell threw the Washington and Lee backs for losses.

Score in First Quarter

The first Washington and Lee score came in the first quarter and was the culmination of a concerted march toward the goal, but the final touchdown occurred at a moment when it was least expected. The Generals received the punt and proceeded with telling gains to the 30 yard line, where Powell intercepted a forward pass and gave V. P. I. a significant taste of the strength of the Washington and Lee defense. Powell was forced to punt and, once in possession of the pigskin, the Generals went rapidly toward the goal, Sweetland scoring on a short plunge.

In the second period, the Generals reached the four yard line only to witness another interception by Gregory. Following Powell's punt, another spurt followed and died when Harrison attempted a drop kick from the 35 yard line. In the third period, it seemed as though the Generals would register after a temporary lull but Barrett's fumble was recovered by Henderson on the 26 yard line. The series of setbacks was climaxed in the final period when the Generals erred on the 14 yard mark and Huddle fell upon the straying oval.

When hope was ebbing away, Buck Sweetland received a forward pass from Battle Bagley, evaded the Tech forwards, sped past Huddle and out-distanced Dixon through a 40 yard zigzag course that closed with the second touchdown.

Before the critical eyes of his citizens, Jimmy Izard, at left end, put up a game that dazzled the spectators. The smiling left end patrolled his flank in such a fashion that the Techs found it impassable and suffered losses. Bob Ignico broke through the Tech forwards and hurled the Poly backfield for telling losses, although the most sensational defensive play was that of Izard. Shultz, in recovering fumbles, breaking up passes and opening the opposing line, was another striking figure.

The substitutes—Graham, Bethel, Moore and Bagley—made a strong impression. In penalties, Washington and Lee suffered more heavily than did V. P. I., as the Generals were reversed 40 yards and the Techs 30.

Having won the toss, Washington and Lee elected to receive the initial kick from V. P. I. Henderson opened the clash with a 45 yard boot that Young gathered in and returned 10 yards. Sorrells aroused a feeling of impending rout when he ripped the Tech line for 15 yards. Barrett battered the forwards for an advance of 4½ yards but Washington and Lee was adjudged offside and subsequently penalized. On a delayed pass, Barrett made 2 yards. In attempting to skirt right end, Young was thrown for a 1 yard loss by Powell. Young hoisted a long sailing spiral that Dixon advanced to the 15 yard line.

Powell, standing on the goal line, spirited the oval from the danger zone when he punted 40 yards to Barrett, who squirmed 10 yards forward. Buck

Sweetland smashed the Tech line for 6 yards, while Sorrells added an additional yard on a line buck. On a forward pass to Izard from Young, the Generals embodied all hope for a touchdown, but Powell crushed the hope by intercepting the oval. Before he could be downed by a back, the powerful Tech had reached the 33 yard mark.

Bob Ignico broke through the Tech forwards and threw Powell heavily for a loss of 3 yards. On the next down, Powell punted 40 yards to Barrett with a resultant gain of 7 yards.

Buck Sweetland spurted off left tackle for 5 yards, while Sorrells punctured the mass line for one yard. V. P. I. was penalized five yards for offside play. Sweetland shot through left guard for 9½ yards in a meteoric mode, while Cy Young insured first downs by a buck through center. Barrett's attempt to circle right end was futile. At this turn, the Generals were penalized 15 yards for holding, the reversal placing the pigskin on the 45 yard line.

Shultz Recovers Fumble

Undaunted by the setback, the Generals generated a charge that ultimately resulted in the first score. Barrett buoyed up the pitch of the 4,000 fans when he twisted eight yards through a ragged line. Sweetland advanced 9 yards. Entrusted with the oval again, Sweetland punctured the line but when tackled, loosened his clutch on the ball in the midst of three Tech backs. But before either could gain it, big Ted Shultz' powerful arms had it within their embrace. The advance of 10 yards gave first down.

Sorrells caused the Tech supporters to quake when he went over right guard for 7 yards. Young circled left end for 2 yards gain and went out of bounds. Sweetland shot through left tackle for three yards. Sorrells registered a similar gain through right guard, while Young directed a forward pass to Sweetland for the other seven intervening yards. Four yards from the uprights marking the craved goal, Sweetland sped through center for 2 yards and repeated the identical attack on the next play and crossed the line. Young kicked out to Barrett and then registered an easy goal. The score 7 to 0 was recorded and remained thus until the final period.

Exchange of Punts

Henderson renewed the melee with a short kick of 40 yards, which Sweetland carried forward 13 yards. Hall replaced Bopp at left tackle and downed Barrett on the first play which netted two yards. Sweetland tested the left side and was checked without a gain. Young effected one of the most marvelous bits of footwork of the clash when he punted the oval from the 25 yard line to the 15 yard mark, where Dixon received it and returned 12 yards. Powell punted a low, bounding spiral to Barrett, who overtook it on the roll and then ran out of bounds on the 29 yard mark. Sweetland lost a yard, but Barrett made 3 on a delayed pass, as the quarter closed. The ball rested on the 31 yard mark.

A long forward pass from Barrett to Young was broken up and Young punted 50 yards to Dixon, who was carried out of bounds on the 20 yard line. Powell returned the punt but lost on the exchange, for Barrett returned 15 yards to the 39 yard mark. Sweetland annexed 5 yards, while Sorrells added one. V. P. I. was offside and suffered a five yards reversal. Cy Young reeled off a 24 yard spurt

THE BLACK PLAGUE

The time has come for the students of Washington and Lee to assert themselves once more and relieve the campus of a "dark" blot which was effectively removed last year only to reappear with new vigor this fall. The obedience following last year's mandate promises decisive results this year should it be necessary to issue warnings.

It scarcely comports with the dignity of this institution that the most public entrance to its campus should be graced every week day afternoon with a number of dusky females with their charges, disporting themselves in offensive proximity to the college gateway. This is not a suitable meeting place for a nurses' forum and we would suggest that means be taken to have them abandon their favorite haunt.

"The students' campus for students".

REGARDING THE W. V. U. BAND

The following is copied from the last issue of "The Athenaeum", the West Virginia University weekly:

"It has come to our ears that a certain member of our athletic board took upon himself to voice what was in his opinion the sentiment of the University. Here is the situation:

"He wrote a letter to the Washington and Lee management asking for financial aid for bringing West Virginia University cadet band to Charleston to the W. V. U. W. and L. game.

"All the students know that this band was to be taken to Charleston for the express purpose of rooting for the West Virginia team, and not as an entertainment for both teams. The Washington and Lee management no doubt know this. No wonder our athletic representative received an unfavorable reply. What else could be expected?

"We would suggest that in the future he should consult the proper authorities before dragging West Virginia University's name in the mud before another school.

"This action was taken without the sanction of the student body. We want Washington and Lee to understand that West Virginia Students have no such mercenary ideas.

SEVERAL STUDENTS."

BAGLEY WILL REPLACE YOUNG AT QUARTER

The following statement from Head Coach Elcock will clear up a large amount of speculation growing out of Cy Young's injury in the V. P. I. game Saturday, which will probably keep him out of the game for most of the remaining games.

By "JOGGER" ELCOCK

Many of the readers of this paper, students, alumni, and interested observers are anxious to know how the injury to Young will affect the chances of Washington and Lee in our coming games. In order to explain this matter, the editor of the Ring-tum Phi has asked me to make this statement. Young's injury is one of the most common in football it comes from the tendency of a man when thrown to attempt to fall on the large muscle under his shoulderblade. When a man throws his shoulder forward in an attempt to fall on this muscle, and misjudges his fall so that he falls on the point of the shoulder, inevitably something breaks. This happened, and that is all there is to it. It was the break of the game, it might just as well have happened to any other man. Now that we are without him, we are forced to look around for a man to take his place. Two courses are open to the coaches. One is to attempt to break in a new man, who has natural football ability, but little experience at quarterback, and who has the necessary build. The other is to play a man, Bagley, who is light, and inexperienced at running a big team, but who has a level head cool judgment in sizing up the opponent's defense, and has a bit more nerve than any other man on the squad.

The decision of the coaches after talking the matter over thoroughly is that Bagley is the man for the job. At the V. P. I. game on last Saturday, the rest of the team showed the utmost confidence in Bagley's ability to run them, he has always had the confidence of the coaches in his ability—size alone has kept him off the team during the past two years. Unless something unforeseen happens Bagley will start the game against West Virginia.

There is no need for worry on the part of the student body. Young's loss is serious, everyone admits that, and first of all, the coaches. Young is an ideal man to run a team, an excellent man with the ball, and best of all, one of the best punters playing football today. But even with him out we still have an excellent football team, and handled as the team will be handled by Bagley on next Saturday, we expect to come back with our record clean.

A Correction

In last week's issue of the Ring-tum Phi the name of Morris L. Masinger as Contributing Editor of the Southern Collegian was unintentionally omitted. The Ring-tum Phi takes this opportunity of correcting its mistake.

The Editor has received an unsigned communication from some one in Lexington which was evidently intended for publication. However since no name appeared to the communication we cannot publish it, but would be glad to do so if the writer will kindly disclose his identity.

Dr. J. W. H. Pollard left Wednesday night for New York and Chicopee, Mass., for the purpose of getting apparatus for the Doremus gymnasium and Biology laboratory.

MONEY IS RAISED FOR MISSIONARY

meeting. In a few well chosen words, he said, "This sending of an alumnus to India is not the action of the local Y. M. C. A. but the action of the whole student body. The movement originated at Yale some years ago, and since that time it has spread to Harvard, Pennsylvania, Virginia, Kansas. It is now time that Washington and Lee send a man to the foreign field to build up and spread there the true Washington and Lee character, loyalty, manhood and democracy."

Mr. Slack was then introduced by the chairman. Beginning with the statement that he was going to devote his talk to one class of people in particular, he went on describing the economic, social, financial and political side of India. He said, "The Indians are a people who challenge our admiration and interest. They are very proud of their history and civilization in the past. They are called 'God intoxicated.' A people proud, clever, clean and argumentative. Their passive virtues are unequalled, such as long suffering, self-control, and self denial." Continuing the speaker stated that their depth of friendship could not be surpassed. "They have a fine and gracious courtesy," he said. "When you come into contact with an educated Indian you must realize that there is something in him about ready to burst and take flame."

C. S. Osborne, the alumnus who has been selected to represent Washington and Lee in India, was then introduced. He said that he was immensely glad to be back at Lexington again and proud to have been selected as the one to inculcate the ideals of Washington and Lee in the people of India. "This sending of a man to India is greatly in need of help. It is giving to people of India a chance to live the right life and to become Christians," said he.

As it was impossible for the speaker selected for the regular October Assembly to be in Lexington on October 15, the request of the executive committee of the Student Body for an assembly on Monday morning, October 18, was granted by the faculty. The object of the Executive Committee in requesting such an assembly was to give to all the students an opportunity of learning about the movement on foot to raise the necessary funds in order to send an alumnus of Washington and Lee to India as a missionary.

"Ted" Shultz, president of the student body, presided at the meeting. The first speaker was Clovis Moomaw, one of the originators of the movement a few years back. In part Mr. Moomaw said, "It is a movement to place this university in the rank of other colleges and universities of this country that are sending men to the foreign field. It is a type of community service in which you should take interest, and it is the kind of service that you will respond to if you are interested in college work and activities."

Frank Slack, recent missionary in India, then made a few remarks. He told of the ignorance in India and the urgent need there of Jesus Christ. "Christ alone can satisfy India," said Mr. Slack, "and India is coming to Jesus Christ." "Men must go there and work for him and it is the duty of you men to place Washington and Lee on the firing line of Christianity."

"Pat" Osborne, who will represent Washington and Lee in India, was next called upon. While in college "Pat" was a member of the football team and remarked that he was certainly glad to hear of the recent victory of Washington and Lee over V. P. I. on Saturday for while he was a member of the team they always met defeat at the hands of V. P. I. Continuing he said, "I am proud to represent you and more than willing to give my life to the work. The Washington and Lee spirit means fellowship, harmony and unity, and I want to represent those ideals in India."

Arthur Rugh, General Student Secretary of China, was the last speaker. He said that he could plainly see that the whole student body was behind the movement and that it was sure to succeed. "We are living in the day of the dovetailing of the nations, in the time when all will be united in the United States of the World," he remarked. "Every part is coming closer and closer together, and each affects the other." Mr. Rugh then said, "If we do not make India Christian they will make us Hindoo. Washington and Lee must make India look up to its ideals as the whole South looks up to them."

At the conclusion of this speech, cards were passed among the students. After the collection of these and a hurried count it was found that more than enough had been subscribed. The students had responded liberally and "Pat" Osborn will go to India.

Dr. R. Granville Campbell Has Returned to College

After an absence of several months, Dr. R. Granville Campbell, of the department of Political Science in the School of Commerce has returned to Lexington. Since his departure from Lexington soon after Finals Dr. Campbell has been in Atlantic City and his condition is very much improved, due to his sojourn in that place.

Dr. Campbell will enter upon his duties as Professor of Political Science this week. None of his classes have been started except Politics I and II which have been taught by Dr. Hancock and Mr. Tucker. These classes will be taught by Dr. Campbell hereafter.

Miss Mary Virginia Scovell of Shreveport, La., is visiting her brother, L. S. Scovell, at the A. T. O. house.

Mr. J. M. Young saw the V. P. I. W. and game in Roanoke Saturday and returned to Lexington on the special with his son, Harry K. Young, to spend several days.

F. J. Gilliam, W. R. Burton, Larry Sutton, George Hearne and M. W. Paxton, Jr., went to Fort Defiance Friday where they attended the opening hop at Augusta Military Academy, going on to the game in Roanoke Saturday morning.

Among the students who stayed over in Roanoke for the dance Saturday night were W. C. Phillips, Horace Hearne, Larry Sutton, W. S. Hopkins, Jr., J. Izard, Preston White, J. A. Rew, J. M. Faulkner, Marian Saunders and J. L. Harrison.

Miss Clara McAbee, of Frederick, Md., was a visitor to Lexington during the latter part of the week. She accompanied M. A. Derr to Roanoke to witness the football contest between Washington and Lee and V. P. I. Miss McAbee returned to Frederick today.

Several of the fellows from the East Dormitory took advantage of the holiday last Saturday and hiked to Natural Bridge. They left here Friday afternoon about 3 o'clock and arrived there about 7. After spending the night there and seeing the Bridge they returned to East Dormitory about 2 o'clock Saturday, a tired and footsore bunch. In the party were: Danz Driscoll, Dick Harwood, Semp Evans, Nobby Treadway, Al Slemp, Hon. Booker T. Dodd, Fatty Moore, Senator Arrowood.

Members of the faculty with their families and other townspeople who were in Roanoke are: Professor and Mrs. Martin P. Burks, Dr. H. D. Campbell, Dr. and Mrs. R. Granville Campbell, Dr. and Mrs. L. W. Smith, Dr. D. C. Humphries, Dr. and Mrs. J. R. Howerton, Professor Clovis Moomaw, Mr. Paul M. Penick, Mr. E. L. Graham, Mr. N. D. Smithson, Mrs. Nettie Dickenson, Miss Virginia Barclay, Miss Edmonia Leech, Miss Kitty Rogers, Dr. Reid White, Mr. Henry Miley, Mr. D. E. Strain, Mrs. E. B. Shultz, Mr. Leo Sheridan, Miss Edmonia Smith, Mr. Mason Deaver, James Robinson, Reid White, Jr., Mr. J. L. Campbell, Mr. R. L. Owen.

Y. M. C. A.

Dr. J. W. H. Pollard of the Faculty addressed the regular Y. M. C. A. meeting Tuesday evening on the subject "An Old Theme from a New Standpoint", and emphasized throughout his remarks the great value of physical cleanliness and purity.

The Y. M. C. A. meeting was marked by one of the largest attendances of the year. Every Tuesday evening there is to be a regular meeting in the Library not to last over an hour and every man of the campus is cordially invited to attend.

Dr. W. S. Hall Coming

Dr. Winfield Scott Hall has appeared on the Y. M. C. A. platform many times during the last few years and has visited Washington and Lee several times.

Dr. Hall is a speaker of unusual talent, possessing full knowledge of his subject. He is a Ph. D. of Leipzig, Member of the American Physiological Society; American Medical Association; American Academy of Medicine; and American Association for the Advancement of Science.

Dr. Hall will speak Saturday, October 23, at 7:45 p. m.

Cartoonist to Be Here

The announcement has just been made that Merritt LeRoy will speak to the students of Washington and Lee Friday evening, November 12. Mr. LeRoy is a powerful and entertaining speaker and will illustrate his remarks with crayon cartoons.

One, who has heard Mr. LeRoy speak, says, "Mr. LeRoy is an artist of great talent, a dramatic reader of considerable ability, an orator full of that mysterious something that we call magnetism, and an humorist with a fund of that is peculiarly his own".

Student Meeting Tonight

Coach "Jogger" Elcock, "Bill" Raftery and the two football captains, "Jiggs" Donahue and "Ted" Shultz, will speak tonight at 7:45 p. m. in the Library. The subject of their remarks will be "The College Man's Attitude". You are cordially invited.

JUNIOR LAWYERS ELECT OFFICERS FOR THE YEAR

The Junior Lawyers met Tuesday morning in Mr. Long's lecture room for the election of class officers, the meeting being presided over by Executive Committeeman Preston.

The Committee appointed to see the Faculty in reference to the removal of the Sunday "lid" reported that under the circumstances it was not suitable to press for the rescission of the edict; pursuant to the committee's report, the resolution for the reopening of the library on Sunday was withdrawn.

A resolution was adopted by the class by which the Juniors express their "unqualified disapproval of the practice of referring to text or note books while reciting (except where the professors are willing to allow such reference), believing this to be subversive of, and contrary to, the spirit of the Honor System".

In the election of class officers, there were four presidential candidates, Bane, McCord, Hobson and Woodward. Bane was elected on the third ballot by a small majority over Hobson. The newly elected president is a member of the Phi Kappa Sigma fraternity and an A. B. from Randolph-Macon College.

Barrow was selected as Vice-president, and Buchanan as secretary and treasurer. The class decided to have the president appoint the Historian of the class at some future date.

MANY STUDENTS AND ALUMNI AT GAME IN ROANOKE

A large majority of the students witnessed the downfall of the Virginia Techs in Roanoke last Saturday. Nearly fifty went to Roanoke ahead of the special train. The special consisted of ten coaches and made a good run to Roanoke, reaching there about 11:45. The return trip was made even quicker, leaving Roanoke at 8:30 and reaching Lexington at 11, making by long odds the quickest run of any special from a game in years. The C. & O. used a double header on the hill coming into town, and needed but one effort to make it.

In addition to the students attending the game a number of townspeople took advantage of the special train. Many alumni were also present, among them being:

M. P. Coe, W. G. Laughon, Isaac Shuman, ex '17, "Fats" Miller, Charlie Campbell, Pret Holland, Carey Barker, Rolfe Millar, Harry Miller, H. B. Goodlowe, Carl Davidson, R. L. Buehring, Cy Morgan, Red Hunter, Charles Burks, Red Moore, Tom Kirkpatrick, J. R. Caskie, Dearing Christian, F. H. Harte, Pat Clemmer, ex '18, H. B. Barton, Doak Davidson, Roger Bear, W. W. Cash, John and George Faison, W. M. Minter, Jack Kirkpatrick, R. L. Tarleton, P. C. Buford, R. L. Hundley, John Izard, Shorty Stras, Roger Winbourn, Bob Winbourne, and a number of others.

COILLION CLUB ELECTS TWENTY NEW MEMBERS

Coillion Club bids have been extended to twenty new men, bringing the membership up to the requisite number. The club this year will be composed of the following:

Old Men—R. B. McDougle, C. L. Christian, H. K. Young, E. B. Shultz, E. T. White, W. R. Burton, A. H. Boyd, E. A. Donahue, J. M. Faulkner, R. H. Gardner, J. B. Gladney, C. W. Gooch, Jr., W. C. Hagan, J. L. Harrison, H. C. Holden, N. K. Seeley, J. B. Wadsworth, T. P. White, B. F. Woodruff, T. C. Waters, J. M. Bauserman, Holbrook Barber, Reuben A. Lewis.

FOOTBALL RALLIES BRING THE DESIRED RESULT

Meeting Wednesday Poorly Attended, But Second Gathering Was Big Success

There was but little accomplished at the football meeting Wednesday night on account of the small attendance of the students. It did more to discourage the team than anything else, and the speakers did not hesitate to express their opinions of the student body for the lack of interest shown. The meeting began with a few feeble yells, led by E. P. Davis, and then Captain Shultz made a short talk and "cussed out" and absent members without comouction. After him came Manager McDougle, who explained the details of the trip and urged everyone to be at the game.

Tommy Glasgow made an eloquent appeal for more enthusiasm among the students. He especially urged them not to allow the fact that they realized W. and L. had a winning team to think that the team did not need their support. "Ted" Shultz admitted that he felt better after Tommy's talk, and the whole gathering took on a different aspect.

Eddie Parks Davis then proceeded to lead a few practice yells, but paused long enough to make some fitting remarks to the empty seats on the left side of the chapel. He finally urged the Freshmen in the rear of the building to occupy the vacant seats and proceeded with the practise of the yells and the "Swing."

The meeting Friday night started off with an entirely different spirit than was exhibited Wednesday and was full of "pep," and revived the spirits of every man on the team. Nearly all the students were there and cheered madly over the coming victory. Short talks were made by Davis, Shultz and the three coaches. Many, who had hitherto had no idea of going to the game, changed their minds that night and decided that the best possible way in which they could spend five dollars was to witness V. P. I's. defeat in Roanoke.

After practicing the yells several times, the meeting was brought to a close, and the students went to a moving picture party given by W. W. Preston at the Lyric, who opened the door's of Lexington's one "movie" as a climax to the evening of "pep."

Directory Due Soon

Tommy Glasgow has announced the directory of the student body is scheduled to arrive from the printers tomorrow, and will be distributed Thursday. The directories will be given out from the Y. M. C. A. office and every student desiring a copy should call for it Thursday. The supply is limited and the distribution will be limited to one copy to each student.

around left end, advancing to the 27 yard mark. Gregory relieved Cottrell at left end. Sweetland, with his usual consistency, gained 3 yards. A forward pass to the General mainstay succeeded, but was ruled out as Young was not 5 yards behind the line. Iard almost had a forward pass within his arms when Dixon knocked him to the ground and the Techs were penalized 10 yards.

Sweetland found a hole through left guard and gained four, while Sorrells failed to make downs by a plunge slightly short of six yards. Young made first down and brought the ball to the four yard mark. Sorrells lost one half yard, while Young was hurled backward 5 yards on a sally around right end. The forward pass was resorted to and again Powell snatched an expected touchdown from the Generals by intercepting the pass and returning it to the 17 yard line. On the first play, he punted to the 35 yard mark, Barrett permitting the oval to roll.

Drop-kick Fails

A series of telling gains followed. Sorrells plunged 5 yards, while Sweetland ripped off 15 over right tackle. Barrett annexed two, while Young's forward pass to Sweetland gave seven more. Young shot through the forwards for 4 yards and downs. Sorrells failed, as did a forward pass to the hefty fullback. A second pass that Sweetland missed lurking under the shadow of the goal posts caused a shift in tactics. Harrison attempted a dropkick from the 35 yard line, but the oval went low and to the left of the uprights.

The remaining minutes of the first half were consumed by a series of punts, in which the Generals bested the Techs.

With a new set of ends, Graham and Bethel, on the General eleven, the fight was renewed. Henderson kicked 35 yards to Ignico who thrillingly returned the oval 20 yards. Young ran out of bounds without event, while Sorrells fumbled but Barrett recovered. Young's 60 yard spiral bounded over the goal line and the ball was put in play on the 20 yard mark. Barrett made a 10 yard return of Powell's 40 yard punt. Sweetland sped forward three yards while Young added two on a lateral pass from Barrett. Sweetland gained a yard off right tackle. Young punted diagonally to Dixon, whom Shultz brought to earth with a thud on the 20 yard line. Dixon gained  $\frac{1}{2}$  yard, but Bob Ignico tackled Powell for a four yard loss. Powell's toe propelled the oval 40 yards, but Barrett returned 10 yards. Denny was substituted for Funkhouser.

Gregory hurled Barrett for a 3 yard loss. Young's forward pass proved futile, Sweetland being knocked out during the play. Barrett's sweeping end run was barren of gain, while Young kicked out of bounds on the 20 yard mark. Powell came back with a counter punt which Barrett, profiting from Sweetland's interference, returned 15 yards to the 36 yard line.

Young is Hurt

Sweetland followed with a 5 yard onslaught through right tackle, but Young surrendered 4 yards when Gregory broke through the line and tackled the fleet-footed quarterback. He suffered a broken collar bone on the play and was carried from the field. Bagley relieved him. Treakle supplanted Benedict in the Tech line.

Sweetland ripped the Tech defense for 5 yards. Bagley fumbled and was tackled for a loss, but the Polys were offside. On the following play, Bagley punted to Dixon, who was downed on the 13 yard line.

Bethel threw Powell for a two yard loss. Powell's 35 yard punt was revoked, to permit the infliction of a 15 yard penalty on Washington and Lee for holding. Huddle relieved Gregory in time to down Barrett who advanced 10 yards on Powell's 35 yard punt. Mercer Graham, called upon to punt, dispatched the oval 55 yards to Powell who nearly endowed the Generals with a safety, escaping by a two yard margin. A parcel of hard luck hit the Generals when Barrett's fumble of Powell's 30 yard punt was recovered by Henderson on the 26 yard mark. Thus spared, Powell punted 40 yards, but Graham countered with a 45 yard spiral. As Powell's industrious toe propelled the pigskin to Sweetland, the whistle sounded following his ten yard spurt to the 31 yard mark.

Sweetland recovered Bagley's fumble, but V. P. I. was offside and penalized. Charging the line off right tackle, Sweetland gained  $4\frac{1}{2}$  yards and was thrown out of bounds. Barrett and Sorrells gained two yards each, while Bagley added three on a buck through center. With a "tango tis," Barrett advanced  $2\frac{1}{2}$  yards, and was followed by Sweetland's 3 yard plunge. Barrett ripped the Techs for two more, while Sweetland gained four yards off right tackle. The Polys were reversed five yards for offside play.

Sorrells pummelled the Tech defense for 2 yards. Bagley recovered a fumble and sprinted 22 yards around left end. Barrett added to additional yards, but the Generals fumbled and Huddle recovered on the 14 yard line.

Techs Make First Downs

Mercer Graham threw Dixon for two yards loss, while Sorrells held Powell without an inch gained. Powell punted to Sweetland and the mighty halfback returned 7 yards to the 30 yard mark. Buck hit the line for 2. Bagley forward passed to Barrett for 6 yards, while Sweetland gained downs on two short plunges. Despite a fumble, Bagley gained two yards. Denny intercepted Bagley's forward pass on the 33 yard line. Denny lost 7 yards, but Powell's pass to Dixon netted the Techs 23 yards advance and incidentally their first downs of the setto. Jimmy Iard sat Dixon down for a 10 yard loss, while Bagley tackled Hall after he had made 5 yards on a forward pass. Denny's pass to Dixon netted 8 yards. Powell's pass was broken up and the ball changed hands on the 35 yard mark.

With the fourth quarter slowly waning, Washington and Lee supporters had virtually surrendered hope of an additional score. On the first down, the attack was repulsed. With forty yards separating the Generals from the goal line, Bagley shot a short flighted forward pass into Buck Sweetland's tense arms. The speedy right halfback pursued a diagonal course through the broken Tech field, dodged the forwards and then described a parabolic spurt through the secondary defense. Dixon sped in pursuit of the deft runner and dived at his heels, but fell heavily, nurturing a vain hope. Treakle, ten yards to the rear, saw Sweetland cross the line with the ball tucked under his arm. Bagley tailed to kick goal, but the score stood, Washington and Lee, 13; V. P. I., 0.

Moore relieved Bethel, while Parrish replaced A. B. Moore. "Count Pierotti" kicked off, but the game came to a close just as Powell was downed.
