

Tech Battle Is Scoreless Tie

BOTH GENERALS AND GOBBLERS FAIL TO TALLY IN LYNCHBURG GRID TILT

One Drop-Kick By Dawson and Five By Don Rutherford All Fail—Lines Hold In the Pinches

The twenty-second annual gridiron classic between the Washington and Lee Generals and the Virginia Poly Gobblers ended in a scoreless tie last Saturday on the Lynchburg Fair Grounds after sixty minutes of the hardest fighting that has ever been witnessed by the immense crowd of 7,000 people that packed the park to see the contest. The game waxed furious as it progressed and each team presented a defense that was almost impenetrable. Both the White and Blue and the Orange and Maroon had chances to score but neither team had the necessary punch to shove the pikskin across the last white line when they were within the shadow of their opponents' goal line. Drop kicks were attempted by both sides, Harry Dawson trying one for the Generals, while Rutherford, for the Gobblers, failed in five attempts.

The Generals had their chance to win the game in the first quarter when one of the blue clad warriors recovered a fumble on V. P. I.'s thirty-five yard line. Line bucks by Wilson, Palmer and Cameron put the ball on Tech's ten yard line. Three attempts to pierce the line failed and Harry Dawson, who was substituted for Daves, had his attempted drop kick blocked by Nutter. This was the closest that the Generals got to the Tech goal line during the entire game. Later in the first period Rutherford tried a drop kick from the Generals' fifteen yard line, but it was blocked by Thomas, although Tech recovered the ball on the White and Blue ten yard line. Here De La Barre carried the ball on four straight line bucks and failed to make a touchdown by two feet.

"Duke" Perry, who substituted for Rauber, when the latter was hurt at the beginning of the third quarter, saved the day for the Generals with his wonderful punting. Time after time he would send the ball in a beautiful spiral for fifty to sixty yards at a clip. He once booted the ball for a distance of sixty-seven yards.

"Bo" McMillan's work in the backfield on the offense stood out for the White and Blue. It was he who stopped Roberts and Esleeck after they had gotten loose for long gains around the ends. He also gained more yardage for the Generals on the offense than any other man.

Maynard Holt played the best game for the Generals in the line, for he always broke through the Gobblers' fore wall and stopped the man for a loss.

Roberts, Esleeck and Rutherford stood out as the shining lights for the visitors on the offense, while Captain Graham and Frey were the stars in the Tech line.

First Quarter.

Van Horn kicked off for Washington and Lee to Esleeck, who ran the ball back 18 yards. On the second play of the game, De la Barre fumbled and W. & L. recovered on Tech's thirty-five yard line. Cameron and Palmer made first down on four line bucks. Cameron and Wilson again made it a first down. V. P. I. penalized five yard and the Generals got the ball on Tech's ten yard line. Cameron and Palmer, on a series of line plunges, put the ball on the seven yard line. Dawson was substituted for Daves, and his drop kick from the fifteen yard line was blocked by Nutter, Tech recovering on their own twenty-five yard line. Esleeck and De la Barre made 18 yards in two tries. After failing at the line, Rutherford punted 35 yards to Wilson, who was downed in his tracks. Wilson failed to gain and Rauber punted to Tech's thirty-five yard line. Esleeck and De la Barre carried the ball for a first down. Rutherford punted to the Generals' fifteen yard line where Palmer fumbled and a Tech man recovered the ball. After three tries at the line, Rutherford's drop kick was blocked and Tech recovered on the Generals' ten yard line. De la Barre made a try at the line.

DAWSON

Harry Dawson, stellar drop-kicker on the Generals' eleven this year. It was his toe that sent University of Kentucky down with a 10-7 defeat. His only attempted drop-kick in the V. P. I. game was blocked.

PERRY

"Duke" Perry, substitute fullback, whose wonderful punting probably saved the Generals from defeat in the V. P. I. game Saturday. His long spirals in that game averaged fifty-five yards.

Sophomores Hold Important Meeting

Sophomore Cotillion Plans Discussed and Dance Committees Are Appointed By Crockett.

The Sophomore class held a meeting Wednesday evening, October 22, at 7:30 o'clock in the Geology room. C. J. Crockett, president of the class, presided and announced that the object of the meeting was to get preparations under way for the Sophomore Cotillion, the second of the Thanksgiving dances. This dance has always been given under the auspices of the Sophomore Class and the finance committee desires that all the members of the class pay their class dues of $5.00, in order that the dance may be assured the success it has had in former years. Committees for the dance were appointed with chairmen as follows: Decoration Committee, W. J. Dorsey; Finance Committee, C. J. Burton, Jr.; Reception Committee, C. M. Gwaltney; Refreshment Committee, J. L. Lanier; Program Committee, K. A. Durham.

Following the discussion of the dance, the subject of the pushball fight between the Sophomore and Freshman classes was taken up. This fight is an annual affair between the two classes and the contest between the two picked teams, of about thirty members each, is a source of keen rivalry. R. T. Foree was appointed captain of this year's Sophomore team and hope was expressed that the victory of last year's Freshmen would be repeated by the new Sophomore class.

In closing, President Crockett advised the class members to be more stringent in the future about sending in the names of Freshmen who are breaking the Freshman rules.

GAME AT CHARLESTON

Stadium Commission Wanted 20 Per Cent of Receipts Which Was Refused By Stansbury.

A final agreement has been reached whereby the Washington and Lee-West Virginia football game will be played in Charleston, West Virginia, on November 15 as originally scheduled. This compromise was brought through the efforts of alumni of both institutions, and according to a statement made by H. A. Stansbury, athletic director of the Mountaineer school, the game will be played in the capital city.

The members of the Stadium Committee wanted 20 per cent of the gross receipts or $3,000 cash for the use of Laidley Field for the occasion but Mr. Stansbury stated that this amount was too high and offered them 10 per cent or $2,000. This the Committee refused and then Mr. Stansbury made a public statement that the game would not be played in Charleston.

Alumni of both schools immediately took steps to have the game played in Charleston, and an agreement was made by the Stadium Committee whereby the alumni will have charge of the stadium for that date. The alumni in turn accepted Mr. Stansbury's offer.

A. Bliss McCrum, University of West Virginia graduate, and Brown Truslow, of Washington and Lee, headed the two bodies that brought pressure to bear on the stadium corporation.

The alumni, at first, wanted to accept the Stadium Committee's offer and to pay the difference out of their own pocket, but Mr. Stansbury refused to let them do it, saying that it was a matter of principle and not one of money.

As soon as the announcement was made public that the game would not be played in Charleston, other southern West Virginian cities telegraphed Mr. Stansbury requesting him to play the game in their town and not in Charleston. Richmond, Virginia, was anxious for the change to be made so that the contest would be played off in the Capital city of Virginia.

The Washington and Lee-West Virginia University football game has been played intermittently in Charleston since 1896.

HOWE AND ELDER STAR

Passes From Howe To Spotts Prove Very Successful—Frosh Score In Every Period.

The Washington and Lee Freshman football team defeated the Shenandoah Collegiate Institute eleven by the score of 61 to 0 in a football game played on Wilson Field here Friday. The visitors presented a light, green and inexperienced team which could do nothing with the attack presented by the Little Generals.

The first year men started scoring in the first quarter and registered markers in every period. Spotts and Elder made two touchdowns each, while Howe, Stratton, Crutcher, Tips, and Reardon registered one apiece. Howe kicked six out of seven attempts at points after touchdown.

Every man in uniform that was on the bench today was used in the game against the Daytonians by Coach Davis. Even the scrubs made as many points against the visitors as did the first string eleven when they were playing.

The visitors seemed to lack a knowledge of the fundamentals of the game and not once could they get started. Their line bucks were smothered before the backs could reach the line of scrimmage, while they had fair success with their passes, although none of the aerial attempts put them in a scoring position. This contest seemed to be more of a practice game for the Little Generals than a regular scheduled game.

On the other hand, the Little Generals made substantial gains through the line. The fore wall made holes large enough for a team of horses to Defeat Joint Team of Faculty and Townsman By Score of 4-3—Good Form Shown By Winners.

The varsity tennis team emerged victorious from its first match of the year Thursday afternoon, by beating the team composed of faculty members and two citizens of Lexington, 4 to 3. The final doubles match was called on account of darkness with the score at 6-6. This was the first real test the team has had this year and they played a superior brand of tennis and completely outshone the faculty team in most every department. During the past few weeks there has been an elimination tournament between the members of the squad and those trying out for places on the team. This play ended a few days ago and really helped put the men in condition

Yes! We Have a Band.

The Student Body was thrilled and not a little surprised Thursday night when the new band led the parade through the town during the rally for the V. P. I. game. That we have a sure enough band no one can doubt, and incidentally the best band in many years.

Much credit must be given every member and the leader, J. B. Funk, for their evident work in rounding out the organization which appeared Thursday night. Although this was not the first appearance of the band, they having played at the Wake Forest game, yet it seems that in the interval there has been much good work accomplished which has given to us a band to which we are proud to march in the parades in Lynchburg and Charlottesville.

Though the band is not a large one, having about thirty pieces, yet there are no "silent horns" in it. Every member seems to be a musician. Let's keep up the good work, band!

The Circus and the Sideshow.

College students have borne the brunt of a great deal of criticism in the past years and are perennially charged with being as a class a giddy, irresponsible pleasure seeking group of individuals with no greater purpose in view other than just getting by, and leading lives of ease. And it must be admitted that a great mass of the people in this critical world of ours think that college is a place to go to lead a life of leisure, and that the most the average college student does is run about yelling "rah-rah" and trip the light fantastic to the wild strains of a shrieking jazz orchestra. These people are just as confident that a college education is a useless waste of time and money, and that it is the surest and quickest way to ruin a young man. These well meaning folks have been for years reading the magazine sections of the sensational dailies, and the so-called exposures from the frenzied pen of some feature writer with little regard for the truth and who will shamefully and without regard distort certain scraps of news which falls to his notice until it is indeed little wonder that this portion of the public thinks that the college halls are the cause of the most of our social ills.

But what a dilution this is. What a distorted, and inadequate impression of us the outsider gets. Our faults are played up and the best that we do is ignored. Perhaps we do deserve some censure. Perhaps all we do would not be approved by a conscientious and zealous society for the upbuilding of public morality, but this is the side-show and not the circus. We suppose that if some of our critical friends were to step on the average college campus most any day during the school year, they would be surprised and possibly a little disappointed in finding that it was not what they had expected to find at all. "What! they really study sometimes? And why is not some poor freshman being horribly mangled at the hands of the rowdy upperclassmen? And don't the boys put calves in their favorite professors' classrooms, and all such pranks?" are some of the questions they might ask.

Some of these questions might well have been appropriate in the past. But not today. The college student of today likes the title of college MAN, and he is going to do everything in his power to be a college man, and he has neither time nor capacity for the playful "pranks" of yesteryear, and he is going to do everything in his power to prevent him being painted the silly, faddish weakling he is oftentimes represented to be. His task is to carry back to the public in general an authentic report of what college really is—to stress the circus and not the side-show—to let the public which has not had the unquestioned advantages of a college education know that a college is not a form of zoo, and that college men have brains and are using them.

Thus favorable publicity on the part of the chief participants will do more to gain the confidence even of the worst enemies of the college education, than anything that can be done. It is only natural that a student will dwell more at length on the light and pleasurable side of college life than on the work even though it consume three-fold the time of the former, but he cannot for his good and for the good of the whole college fraternity make it appear that college is nothing but a grand, glorious and rousing good time.

A Correction.

Through an oversight, an article went into the last Saturday's issue of this paper in which it was stated that Joe Silverstein was captain of the 1919 gridmen and booted the field goal which beat Georgia Tech. Though Bullet Joe's record is full of valiant service to his Alma Mater, it will be remembered that Turner Bethel captained the 1919 varsity and Jimmie Maddox's toe won the 3-0 victory over Georgia Tech.

Is Voluntary Association.

The committees for the preservation of order in the dormitories were not appointed by the Executive Committee of the Student Body as stated in the Wednesday issue of this paper, but are voluntary committees formed to look to the observance of the dormitory rules, which are the same as have been in force for several years. The Executive Committee only approved the plan which has been adopted, stated executive committeemen.

TWOMBLEY HOLDING SWIMMING CLASSES

Instruction Classes Being Conducted Three Days a Week For Swimming Test Requirements.

Swimming classes for beginners and others who are not yet proficient at this branch of sport are now being held at 10 o'clock every Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday morning, with Coach E. P. Twombly in charge. Every student who does not swim should see him and enroll in the class at once in order to become able to pass the swimming tests required for graduation.

Those who are already sufficiently prepared to pass these tests may do so at any of the swimming classes. If it is impossible to attend these classes, arrangements should be made with the instructor so that the tests may be passed as soon as possible.

These tests are not at all hard for the average swimmer. They are as follows: Swim two length of the pool; tow a person the width of the pool; dive in and keep afloat five minutes by any method.

Practice for both varsity and freshman swimming teams will be started as soon as the freshman physical examinations have been completed. It is expected that these will be finished in two or three weeks. An opportunity for individual swimming practice is given now, as the pool is open from 4 to 6 o'clock every afternoon except Sunday.

The S and U reports are causing much consternation among the Freshman class. A large percentage of them have been called before the Dean and have been advised to get down to real work. A large number of the upper-classmen were also called to appear before the Dean and the same advice was accorded them.

The oldest college in California, the College of the Pacific, whose original campus was in San Jose, became the newest when it opened September 29, in Stockton. This first opening in Stockton marks the seventy-third fall opening of the college.

Two hundred and fifty thousand students, representing 500 colleges and universities in the United States, have been enrolled in Republican clubs by the National Republican headquarters. These members are pledged to vote the Republican ticket in the coming fall election.—Minnesota Daily.

DAVIS IS FEATURE OF ALUMNI MAGAZINE

Numerous Articles of Interest Appear in New Alumni Issue—Relate Formation of Davis Clubs.

Volume I, Number 1 of the new Alumni Magazine has made its appearance.

Beginning with a full page picture of Washington and Lee's candidate for the presidency of the United States, John W. Davis, '92; thirty-six pages of interesting material are presented. The success is due to the work of Verbon Kemp, Alumni Secretary. He issued the magazine in response to a demand from alumni themselves, and will have to pay for itself since alumni dues have been discontinued.

Scattered through the magazine are many articles in reference to Mr. Davis. These include stories on the formation of the Davis-Alumni clubs in various prominent cities throughout the country and one of the organization of the club here. There is also an article on the Clarkburg Reunion, by a classmate of Davis' who came all the way from Memphis, Tenn., to attend that event. Probably more interesting than any of these, however, is a picture of the graduating class taken in '92 in which we see John W. Davis together with Prof. Hale Houston of the present faculty.

Other items of interest include a letter by Thornton W. Allen, '10, author of the Swing, who has become a quite prominent song writer, and who was among the first in the university to take an interest in college dramatics. Two articles on the 1924 Generals and their prospects are offered, one by Dick Smith, Graduate Manager of Athletics, and the other by Forrest Fletcher, Track Coach. E. S. Mattingly, Registrar, has written an interesting account of matriculation and the growth of the university during the last ten years, and Treasurer Penick tells what becomes of the money after it is paid in. A detailed account of the illness and improving condition of Dr. Smith is included, and also pictures and write-ups of new members of both the faculty and the board of trustees.

Other interesting articles such as one on the new Beta Theta Pi fraternity house, one by Dr. Dickey on the new chemistry building, a few words by Karl Zerfoss on the work of the "Y," and a write-up of the new stadium by Prof. Houston conclude the issue. Alumni will be depended on to send in items of personal interest concerning themselves and their classmates for the next issue.

It is expected that the magazine will pay for itself as alumni dues have been discontinued.

LOCAL DEBATERS CHALLENGE AMHERST

Debaters of Alma Mater of John W. Davis Want To Debate That of Coolidge On Election Eve.

According to an announcement of the Debating Council made public last Thursday, Washington and Lee challenged Amherst College two weeks ago to a debate on election principles to be held the night of Nov. 3. Washington and Lee is the Alma Mater of John W. Davis, Democratic Presidential nominee, while Amherst holds same honor in regard to Calvin Coolidge. Washington and Lee did not submit a place for the forensic battle, but merely put the proposition up to Amherst. To date no answer has been received. Should the debate take place it is certain to attract nation-wide interest, coming as it does on the eve of the election.

Washington and Lee has a veteran squad of debaters to back her forensic claims. The men to go against Amherst, should the debate be scheduled, will be picked from C. W. Lowry, Jr., Ralph Masinter, H. M. Gould, W. M. Roach and C. H. Hamilton.

THREE IN HOSPITAL

There were but three students confined in the hospital last week. They were C. A. Moomaw, J. C. Cowart and H. B. Neel. Moomaw is suffering from appendicitis, but is getting along well and a quick recovery is expected. He was operated on last Sunday afternoon. None of the others have serious ailments.

Washington and Lee was rated at the top of the S. I. C. with two victories up to last Saturday.

Many Students Sail Briny Deep

More Than Thirty Washington and Lee Men Visited Foreign Countries During Summer.

According to statistics recently compiled by E. S. Mattingly, Registrar, more men from Washington and Lee visited Europe and sailed the "Briny Deep" this summer than ever before. The tours of these men were not confined to the continent alone, but many of them sailed the southern seas and some even ventured to the land of the chrysanthemum, visiting the quaint cities of Tokio and Yokohama. Approximately thirty men went from Washington and Lee and a good percentage did not choose first class passage, but many of them preferred to start at the bottom and work upward, content with such work as grease wipers, oilers, scullery men, and numerous other jobs aboard ship. Many strange and exotic tales have been brought back to the campus by men venturing upon the seven seas this summer, stories of the brown skinned natives of the tropics to the gay night life of the famed French capital. After the circulation of these stories it is highly probable that the number of men who will become old salts will be greatly increased next summer.

FROSH TO DONATE FOR WILSON FIELD

Graduate Manager Smith Places Proposition Before Freshmen At Wednesday Meeting.

At the special Freshman class meeting Wednesday night, Captain Dick Smith, graduate manager of athletics, placed before the body the proposal of each Freshman donating $10.00 to the Stadium Fund, to be used for the purpose of grading and seeding Wilson Athletic Field. This will necessitate the cutting away of the present bank, for filling in purposes, and making room for the proposed cinder track which will encircle the field. The proposition was given a unanimous vote of approval. It is said that if the class of 1928 succeeds in the endeavor, a section of the stadium will be dedicated to the class by a bronze tablet being placed on it containing the names of the class officers.

SCORE GUESSING CONTEST RESUMED

Prize of $10 Will Again Be Offered For Person Whose Scores Come Closest.

A score guessing contest similar to that of last year will again be conducted by McCrum's this year, the contest to begin with the games played this coming Saturday, Nov. 1. McCrum's are offering a prize of ten dollars to the person guessing the scores nearest the actual scores of the following games, which will be played Saturday: Washington and Lee versus Virginia; Georgia Tech versus Notre Dame; North Carolina versus South Carolina; Yale versus Army; Vanderbilt versus Auburn; Penn State versus Navy; V. M. I. versus Hampden-Sidney.

The prize will be given the one whose winner's scores total and losers score's total is nearest the actual results.

Similar contests to the one Saturday will be held for the games to be played on Nov. 8, Nov. 15, and Nov. 22. The contest will open Monday morning and continue up until time of the game Saturday afternoon.

ALPHA SIGMA HAS PLEDGES PRESENT

At a meeting of the Alpha Sigma, honorary Freshman English fraternity, held Friday evening at 8:30 in Washington College, an interesting program was rendered, consisting of several papers read.

Among those present were several members of the faculty as well as the new pledges: D. A. McCandless, L. V. Grady, W. A. Shell, J. W. Cassell, Cooper Turner, Robt. Taylor, Marion Moise, and Horace Bell.

Harvard, Pennsylvania, Syracuse, Rutgers, Washington and Jefferson, Williams and Lafayette are the only teams in the east which have not been beaten or tied. Yale, Dartmouth, Princeton and Lehigh have been tied but not beaten.

Y. M. C. A. QUOTA OVER-SUBSCRIBED

Over $1900 Raised in First Few Days Which Is Fine Showing.

The quota to be raised from students and faculty, $1800 for the Y. M. C. A. campaign was oversubscribed by 114 dollars according to a report made Tuesday afternoon by John D. Mayhew, Student Treasurer.

The bulk of this sum, over $1600 was raised the first night of the drive. The workers met for supper Monday night at the Episcopal Church, where the plans were explained and certain rooming places assigned to each man.

The total subscribed by Tuesday, $1,914.50 will probably be increased a little within the next few days as there are still a few men on the campus who have not yet been seen.

failed to make a touchdown and the ball went over to the Generals on the two-foot line. Rauber punted out of danger to the thirty-five yard line. Two line bucks failed to make a gain and Rauber intercepted a pass on the next play, and ran 5 yards before being stopped. Line plays could not make the necessary yardage and Rauber punted. Rutherford made a short punt to McMillan who ran it back 12 yards. The ball was on Tech's twenty-five yard line. McMillan made four. Cameron gained one. McMillan netted four more and Cameron failed to make a first down. Rutherford punted 40 yards to Wilson who fumbled but recovered the ball on the bounce and gained 5 yards before being stopped. Cameron fumbled the ball on the next play and Tech recovered. Three plays at the line failed and Rutherford's forty-five yard drop kick went wide. W. & L. put the ball in play on the twenty-yard line. Two line plays gained five yards and Rauber punted 40 yards to Robert, who was downed in his tracks. Roberts made 15 around end. Rutherford's attempted drop kick from mid-field went short and McMillan caught the ball on the Generals' twenty-yard line. The half ended with the ball in the Generals' possession.

Third Quarter.

Tech kicked to Wilson on his five yard line and the latter returned it 18 yards. Rauber hurt his shoulder on this play and Perry was substituted. Wilson failed to gain and Perry punted fifty yards to Rutherford, who returned it ten yards. V. P. I. was penalized fifteen yards for holding. Roberts punted to Wilson. Two line plays failed to gain so Perry kicked fifty yards to Roberts who returned it twelve yards. A line play failed to gain. Roberts punted to Wilson on the latter's 25 yard line. Perry then punted to Roberts who ran the ball back twelve yards to mid-field. Punts were again traded. Roberts kicked to Wilson who ran the ball back seven yards. On the next play McMillan fumbled the ball when tackled and Esleek picked it up and ran 35 yards across the goal line, but the referee ruled that the ball was dead, and it was brought back. Perry punted. Esleek broke through right tackle for seventeen yards. Two tries at the line yielded five yards. Esleek made four yards through center. He made six yards on the next play for a first down, on the Generals' 35 yard line. Roberts made seven yards around left end. Esleek made first down through center. The third quarter ended with the ball in Tech's possession on the Generals' fourteen yard line.

Fourth Quarter.

Rutherford's pass was intercepted and on the next play Perry kicked to Rutherford in mid-field. De la Barre and Esleek could not gain through the line. Esleek was thrown for a loss around left end. Rutherford kicked to McVay. Line plunges failed to net any yardage. Perry punted to Roberts. De La Barre was unable to pierce the line for a gain on two plays and then Rutherford punted to Perry. Perry punted sixty-seven yards out of bounds on Tech's 33 yards line. McVay ran Rutherford's punt back eight yards before being downed. McMillan failed to gain through right tackle and end. The Generals were penalized fifteen yards for holding and Perry was forced to punt. Roberts received it and was downed in his tracks by Holt. Three line bucks netted five yards. Rutherford kicked to McVay, who ran it back seven yards. After three attempts at the end were repulsed without gain, Perry punted out of bounds at mid-field. With less than a minute to play, Rutherford attempted a drop kick from the fifty-yard line, but the ball was wide. The game ended with the ball in Washington and Lee's possession on their own twenty-yard line.

go through and the backs had little trouble in gaining the necessary yardage. Passes from Howe to Spotts were very successful as they twice resulted in touchdowns.

Howe with his broken field running and generalship together with Elder's terrific line plunging were the stars for the first year men on the offense, while Mann, Spotts and Cooper were the best on the defense. Captain Warren of S. C. I. played the best game for his team.

SUCCESSFUL TRYOUTS FOR RING-TUM PHI STAFF

P. D. Sprouse, and M. E. Wilson. These men are requested to report to the Ring-tum Phi office Monday and to ascertain from the bulletin board their assignments for future work.

The editor in charge wishes to congratulate the men who were appointed and to commend the tryouts as a whole for the good work done. Were it not for the limited number of vacancies, quite a number of the men who failed this time would have been given places and they should not be discouraged because they were not among the best nine out of the forty-two applicants. There will be another try-out held sometime after Christmas and these men will be at liberty to try over again at that time.

ENGLISH MOST POPULAR SUBJECT IN UNIVERSITY

Hygiene Displaces Commerce In Popularity With History Third and Mathematics Fourth; French More Popular Than Spanish By Fifty Students.

Some interesting facts are obtainable from the Registrar's record of the students in the various classes. As was the case last year, there are more students in the various English classes than in any other single subject given. Last year the courses in Commerce came second, but this year the commercial subjects are broken up into Accounting, Commerce and Business Administration, so Commerce has been displaced. In its place is found Hygiene. There are 526 in the English classes and 481 in the Hygiene classes. Of this number 275 are in freshman hygiene.

Classes in History are third in popularity and the various Mathematics classes are fourth, with History leading by an enrollment of about 50 more students. It will be seen that out of our four leading subjects studied, two of the three R's on which an education is based still are considered important even in college.

The courses in the School of Commerce and Administration are taken by more students than any other group of subjects, classified on a basis of Commerce, English, Language, Science, History, Education and Hygiene. One thousand two hundred and thirty-four students are on the rolls for the Accounting, Business Administration, Commerce, Economics and Politics classes. The sciences, including Engineering and Astronomy, come second with a total student enrollment of 1056. The language group rates third, having 883 students taking foreign languages, the most popular of which is French, leading Spanish by 11 students. English, Hygiene and History then follow in order.

There is a total enrollment in the various classes offered by the University this year of 4,733 students. To date 830 students have matriculated, which is a total equal to the number of students who matriculated during the whole year last year (1923-24). Eighty-six students are in the law school, leaving 744 students to make up the class enrollment of 4,733 students, which gives an average of 6.35 subjects being studied by each student.

A recapitulation of the ten subjects most popular for the Student Body, other than law, is as follows:

- 1, English 526; 2, Hygiene 481; 3, History 395; 4, Mathematics 349; 5, Politics 346; 6, Economics 334; 7, French 295; 8, Spanish 284; 9, Business Administration 231; 10, Geology 195.

Accounting, Commerce, Chemistry, and Engineering all have over 100 students enrolled in their various classes. Biology almost comes in this class, there being 96 studying this science.

NETMEN CLOSE FALL PRACTICE WITH WIN

for the matches with the faculty. If the men who played Thursday show the same sort of flashy work next spring Washington and Lee will have a splendid array of racket wielders to pit against any opponents.

The scores of Thursday's matches were: Singles—Crenshaw defeated Professor Williams 6-1, 7-9, 7-5. Cassel defeated Mr. Zerfoss 6-0, 6-4. Payne defeated Mr. Harlow 6-0, 6-3. Mr. Robinson defeated St. John 6-2, 6-4. Professor Funkhouser defeated Gould 9-7, 6-3. Glickstein defeated Professor Levitt 6-4, 8-6. In the doubles Mr. Zerfoss and Mr. Robinson defeated Payne and St. John 6-2, 1-6, 6-4. Gould and Cassel won the first set of their match with Professor Levitt and Mr. Harlow, but the second set was called on account of darkness with the score of the set at 6-6.

Many improvements are to be made on the courts next spring, and with the team under the guidance of Captain St. John a successful season should be enjoyed by Washington and Lee's court men.

To Represent W. and L.

Messrs. Robert D. Holland and Kenneth A. Goode will represent Washington and Lee University at the Baptist Students' Conference to be held at the University of Richmond beginning Friday evening, October 31. Mr. Holland will make an address before the conference on "College Campus Atmosphere."
