

GENERALS MEET HAMPDEN-SIDNEY HERE TONIGHT

White and Blue Unable To Solve Virginia Defense and Cavaliers Win 41-27.

VIRGINIA IS STATE CHAMP

Van Horn Star In Game With Five Field Goals To His Credit—Lake Also Played Well.

Not discouraged over their last two games, the Fighting Generals have forgotten the contests with Carolina and Virginia and are bending every effort for the coming contest with the basketball quint of Hampden-Sidney, which furnishes the opposition tonight in Doremus gymnasium.

The team from the Death Valley always furnishes the White and Blue hoopmen plenty of opposition and the game will be a close one. The Bernier men have a winning combination this year and are pointing for the tilt with the Washington and Lee five tonight.

Strenuous practices were held every day this week, and the team seems to have come out of the slump which it had fallen into for the Virginia and Carolina clashes. The goal shooting of each man has improved greatly in the daily sessions held this week, and the team is hoping to be able to return to the form it showed during the early season games.

The game was originally scheduled for Thursday night, but it has been changed to Wednesday night.

The Virginia Game.

The University of Virginia basketball team clinched the title of "Big Four" of Virginia champs last Saturday night when they sent the Fighting Generals of Washington and Lee down to defeat by the score of 41-27. The game was played in the Fayerweather gymnasium in Charlottesville before one of the largest galleries of the season.

The Old Dominion quint, consisting of veterans of three years, proved too much for the Big Blue team. Their pass work was straight and true, and with two elongated men on the team, Miller and Holland, the Cavaliers did not have any difficulty whatsoever in taking the ball on down the floor.

"Mulligan" Holland was at his best last Saturday night. He just couldn't miss the basket, making long shots from past the middle of the floor and also caging several crisp shots. It was his offensive work that spelled defeat for the Generals. He shot eight baskets during the melee, five of which came in the first half. Holland was the man who put Virginia in the lead at the onset of the game with three consecutive two-markers.

With five minutes to play, "Pop" Lannigan, coach of the Virginia

BOXERS MEET CAROLINA HERE SATURDAY NIGHT

Wilkinson Will Fight In 158-Pound Class—Little Is Known of Strength of Carolinians.

Saturday night Washington and Lee will meet the University of North Carolina in a boxing match. This is the first year that the Generals have had a boxing meet with North Carolina, so little is known as to their strength. A stronger team than the one that met Virginia will be put up, although the pugs showed up well in that meet. North Carolina meets V. M. I. on Wednesday night, and the local boxers will be able to get some idea as to their strength.

All of Coach Brett's men are in excellent condition. Wilkinson will enter at 158 pounds and the middleweight will be a little stronger. More men are needed in the heavyweight class, however, and one or two try-outs will be held sometime this week.

FRESHMEN DEFEAT CHARLOTTESVILLE

Spotts Runs Wild Against High School Quintet, Scoring Ten Field Goals.

After having lost their first two games on their recent trip, the freshman basketball team hit their stride and defeated the Charlottesville High School quint 48 to 25. The Fancy Dress dances proved too much for the yearlings and it was not until Saturday that they overcame the set-back caused by their frivolities.

The outstanding feature of the game was the beautiful passing of the frosh, who early in the game gained the lead which they maintained throughout the afternoon. Spotts led the freshmen in scoring field goals with ten to his credit, while Shupp came second with five.

The freshmen's next game is with Keyser Preparatory School here Monday night.

INDOOR TRACK TEAM ENTERS TWO MEETS

Go To Charlottesville For Open Meet Friday and Richmond For Meet There Saturday.

Friday morning the indoor track team will journey to Charlottesville to compete in an open meet at the University of Virginia that night. From Charlottesville the team will go to Richmond to enter another meet at the University of Richmond on Saturday night. The personel of the team which goes to Richmond will depend upon how the men come out in the meet at Charlottesville.

The following are the entries and events in which Washington and Lee will participate:

- 50-yard dash—Manning, Milbank, Bean, and Simmons.
  - 50-yard hurdles—Davis, Simmons, and Bean.
  - Running high jump—Norman and Lowry.
  - Pole vault—Norman and Lowry.
  - 440-yard—Hill and Bean.
  - 1-2 mile—Gordon and Rushton.
  - 1 mile—Fulton.
  - 2-mile—Howard and Gannaway.
- Reardon, a freshman, will also make the trip to compete in the 50-yard dash and hurdles, which is a handicap race open to all.

WASHINGTON SOCIETY APPARENTLY REVIVED

To Hold Important Meeting Saturday For Election of New Officers For Term.

According to an announcement made last night by H. M. Gould, president of the Washington Literary Society, there will be a very important meeting of the organization Saturday night at 7:30, in the society hall of Washington College.

Several important matters will be attended to such as the Calyx representation and the election of new officers for the coming term. The committee which has been deliberating for some time now on the selection of a key for the organization is expected to make its final report Saturday.

In the past the society has not met very regularly and this matter will be given much needed attention. The society has accomplished much in the past few months, even though it has met at inconsistent intervals. It is hoped that all members of the society will be present at the coming meeting so that all matters may be attended to very discreetly.

All students are also invited to attend the meeting.

WRESTLERS LOSE TO WEST VIRGINIA 16-9

"Tex" Tilson Proves Individual Star By Defeating Pitsenberger Decisively.

West Virginia's Blue and Gold matmen triumphed over the Blue and White wrestlers Monday night, scoring a 16-9 victory. Coach Brett's warriors put up a game fight against the heavy odds facing them, but were only able to garner three decisions, while the Mountaineer aggregation amassed two falls and two decisions.

"Steve" Merrick's grapplers took the first two bouts by falls, and had the Generals 10 to 0 before the latter could annex a decision bout, when Walters, sturdy 135-pounder, gained a time decision over his opponent, Millander. This victory in the lightweight division stamped Walters as a matman of no mean ability, as this was the first time that Millander, present Eastern Intercollegiate champion, has lost a bout in the three years of his wrestling career.

Summerson and Smith, West Virginia, tussled and tugged in the bantamweight bout and although the former had a 55-second time advantage on his opponena, was forced to wrestle two extra three-minute rounds. Smith pinned the Blue and White grappler to the mat in 2 minutes, 29 seconds after the first extra period started, and was awarded a fall. He got another fall in the second period.

Wigglesworth opposed Stickler, West Virginia, in the 125-pound class, but the Mountaineer soon pinned the former's shoulders to the mat, gaining a fall in five minutes, thirty-four seconds.

One of the most exciting bouts of the evening took place when Walters faced Millander in the lightweight tussle. Assuming the aggressive at the start, the loyal wrestler gained a time decision of 3 minutes, fourteen seconds over the West Virginia, and grabbed three markers for the Blue and White.

Yankee took on Wylie, lanky Mountaineer, in the 145-pound class, and battled him toe to toe until the last four minutes of the bout. The

ANNOUNCES 1925 BASEBALL SCHEDULE

Majority of 21 Games Will Be Played At Home—Northern Trip Is Again Included.

The Washington and Lee Generals will play 21 diamond games this spring, according to the 1925 schedule as announced today by R. A. Smith, Graduate Manager of Athletics. Thirteen of the games will be played on the home lot while eight contests are carded for foreign ground.

The season will be opened with Roanoke College on March 31 here in Lexington and the last game of the year will be with the Navy on May 16.

The Generals will take their annual Northern trip this year, which includes six games. The team leaves here on May 11 and remains away for a week. New York University, Seton Hall, Fordham, Navy, Maryland and Georgetown are the nines to be encountered.

Home combats are scheduled with Cornell, Pennsylvania, Bucknell, North Carolina, V. P. I., Virginia, North Carolina State, Davidson, Emory and Henry, Lynchburg College, and Birmingham Southern.

Virginia and V. P. I. will be played two games, one at home and one away.

- The schedule:
- March 31—Roanoke College, Lexington.

WILSON ANNOUNCES FINALS COMMITTEE

Dawson Is Selected Vice-President and Hummer Sec'y-Treas.—Nine Others Are Also Included.

The members of the 1925 Finals Week Committee as announced today by President George S. Wilson are: H. A. Dawson, Vice-President; M. F. Hummer, Secretary and Treasury; C. E. L. Gill, Director; J. C. Morrison; J. Cook; H. M. Wilson; W. E. Tilson; J. K. Thomas; C. W. Meadows; P. W. Mullins; T. R. Nelson, and T. H. Broadus.

An extensive campaign will be launched the latter part of this week by the Committee and every student will be given the opportunity of contributing not only to the social functions of Finals Week, but to the commencement exercises of the University as well. In securing Mr. Gill for director of Finals Week, success is assured in the way of decorations as he has extensive experience along this line, having been connected for several years with Washington and Lee's Fancy Dress Ball which were planned and directed by him.

There will be a very important meeting of the Finals Week Committee Thursday night at a quarter to seven. There will also be a meeting of the subscription committee, composed of men from each class in the different schools, Thursday night, first floor Newcomb Hall, at 8:00 o'clock. President Wilson is desirous that all members of these committees be present. It was hoped that the meetings could be held earlier in the week, but basketball games and other campus activities interfered, leaving Thursday night the only night available. The campaign will begin immediately after these meetings at which plans for its conduct will be formulated.

Efficient Press Club This Year

Disseminating Agency Sending Out Four and Five Articles Each Week.

One of the most important organizations on the campus in its functions and operations is the University Press Club. This club has charge of all news sent from the student body and from the University as distinctive from the college and faculty, to the outside world. It is virtually a medium between the campus and the world at large. The purpose of this organization is duofold; first, to send out general information which would be of interest to outsiders, and, second, to send out particular information to the home town newspapers relative to students from that district who have achieved unusual prominence on the campus. The carrying out of this work is placed in the hands of the editorial and business staffs of the Press Club. The editorial staff is divided up into two departments; the athletic staff, which has charge of all athletic information available for publication, and the general editorial staff, which controls all other news, specific or general, of interest to outsiders. There are altogether about seven men connected with both departments. The athletic department is conducted this year by Louis S. Joel, assisted by M. D. Klein; the general editorial department, by W. G. Sale with C. H. Hamilton, E. W. McCorkle, E. A. Nabors, and B. F. Ward. C. B. Knight is in charge of the business staff and the Junior Managers are T. B. Bryant, J. C. Fox, I. Lebow, G. B. Witherspoon, and R. P. Carter. It is the duty of the business staff to mimeograph the articles written by the editorial staff and mail them. As a general rule, about four or five articles are sent out each week to the various newspapers, and one article may appear in as many as a hundred papers, all over the country.

Forty-Six Are Caught By the Automatic and Most of Them Are Having To Leave.

The Honor Roll for the first semester of the 1924-25 session contains thirty-five names, and, as is the usual case, the number of those who caught the "automatic" exceeds it in numbers. With a larger enrollment in the various schools of the University there has been the corresponding increase in both honor roll and "automatic" list, but the honor roll shows an increase of four over this time last year. The honor rolls announced at this time of the year do not contain any of the honor men in the Law School. There are 39 "automatics" and seven students in addition who may be on this list when they complete unfinished work.

Honor Roll men do not seem as apprehensive about their grades as do the students who make the lower grades. The office of the Registrar has been besieged since last Monday when grades were first being given out there, those grades which had already been handed in by the professors whose classes had early examinations. With resumption of classes last Thursday the students could obtain their grades from their various professors, and the work of entering on the University records and reports the good grades and those not so good could be carried on without in-

Crawford Adams.

Tomorrow night Washington and Lee students and people of this vicinity will be given an opportunity to hear the celebrated Crawford Adams, who comes here under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A. in the concluding program of its lyceum course. The attractions which have been brought here through this medium have been commendable, and the last number promises to even surpass the preceding ones.

It is seldom that one has the chance to hear an excellent violinist as Crawford Adams is reputed to be, and his added attraction of playing any selection his audience requests should draw a large number of students to his concert.

President's Paragraphs

No. 8

A "Fool" Idea.

There is no more silly and harmful fallacy on a college campus than the idea that if a fellow isn't at all "interested" in any course or subject or subject or task, it is natural, defensible, and actually "reasonable" to neglect it and concentrate on those subjects which are at the time "interesting."

The man who cannot direct and control his own mind and attention is not only uneducated but is merely a child whatever his chronological age. A lawyer, architect, physician, judge, or engineer who couldn't study a "case" or problem unless at that time it "interested" him, would be not only a complete failure and a mere joke as a professional man, but would be quite fortunate if his outraged patrons didn't add hatred to their inevitable contempt. To master your most hated and least interesting subject is worth more as a preparation for life's future warfare than to make an unbroken line of A's on some subject which fascinates you.

PRESIDENT SMITH ENTERTAINS

Dr. and Mrs. Henry Louis Smith entertained the Y. M. C. A. Cabinet and Student Volunteers Sunday night with an informal reception for Dr. Judd. Other guests were the three Chinese students of W. and L., Hoh, Louis and Yen. Louie and Yen entered school at the beginning of the second semester.

With final examinations approaching at the University of Illinois, the fraternities ranking lowest last semester have been placed under strict all-day and night study rules.

The Daily Lariat, a publication of Baylor University, has begun a new column under the head of "Styles and Fashions that Come and Go."

WRESTLERS LOSE TO WEST VIRGINIA 16-9

West Virginian spilled the General for a time decision of three minutes and forty-three seconds before the gong ended the tussle. Score: W. and L., 3; W. Va., 13.

Biddle and Capt. Sudor, West Virginia, grappled in the middleweight division bout. Both tugged at each other for the majority of the time, toe to toe. However, the experienced Mountaineer got a time decision of one minute, sixteen seconds.

"Tex" Tilson stole a march on the West Virginians and kept Pitsenberger, their star, on the mat for a decision, winning the light-heavy event for the Generals. When the Blue and White matman had gained a time decision of four minutes, fifty-five seconds over his husky opponent, it marked the first time in four years that this Mountaineer had lost a bout.

Capt. Holt and Hobensack, West Virginia, furnished the comedy of the evening's entertainment in the unlimited division. The Mountaineer would run off the mat time and again, and thus was able to keep out of Holt's arms. The General was unable to catch his opponent on the canvas. The local warrior gained a referee's decision over the visitor for his aggressiveness, since the West Virginian would not stand battle.

Coach Brett's tugmen tackle the Mountaineers at Morgantown in a return bout Saturday night. This time the Blue and White expect to put up a better showing than they did Monday night, although victories were scored over both of the Mountaineer aces.

court men, sent his first string substitutes into the fray. The Generals took a much-needed spurt and came up to within six points of the leaders. At this juncture, he sent his first team back into the game and they took the lead from six points up to fourteen markers. Then the veteran coach sent his second team in for the remaining two minutes of the tilt.

The winning of this contest gave Virginia an unblemished record for the State title in basketball. They have already scored victories over their two ancient rivals, V. M. I. and V. P. I., and with this victory over the Generals, the title is theirs.

Van Horn, star center for the Blue and White quint, was the only man that could make any headway against the Cavaliers. Van was high point man for his team with five field goals, and his work on the defense was of high calibre. The long arms and legs of Van Horn were over the entire court and he continually succeeded in breaking up the Old Dominion's passing game.

The Blue and White were way off in their shooting as they missed many shots which they would have ordinarily turned into baskets. The ball would hit inside the basket, roll along the rim, and then roll out. "Panther" Lake made the longest shot of the evening when he sunk a field goal from past the middle of the floor.

The Cavaliers started off with a rush. They were five points ahead before the Generals were able to collect a single point. Holland would get the ball from the tip off, and then after receiving a pass from Walp, would convert his shot into a basket. Van Horn made the first two points for the Fighting Generals, when he caged the ball from one of the most difficult angles on the court.

Miller ably aided Holland in the initial period, and together they were responsible for 16 of the Cavaliers' 20 points. Brown, who had just recently been in the hospital, entered the game in the first half in Mackall's place and was a thorn in the Generals' side throughout the time he was in the game.

In the second half, the Generals held the Old Dominion team rather evenly as they scored eighteen points while the Cavaliers were only able to chalk up twenty-one markers.

Tyler, who took Miller's place towards the end of the second half, was the star for his team during this portion of the fracas. He was in the game about five minutes and counted three baskets.

Holland continued his wonderful goal shooting with three more baskets. Herndon, who went in for Lane, aided his team's total very considerably by scoring six points.

HERE TOMORROW

Crawford Adams, the well-known violinist, Helen Leshler Adams, a reader who excels in giving humorous selections, and Miss Catherine Cummings, the pianist will give the last number of the Y. M. C. A. lyceum course at 8 o'clock, Thursday night, Feb. 12 in the High School auditorium.

As stated in the last issue of the Ring-tum Phi, Mr. Adams has become known as "Wizard of the Bow" because of his ability to play anything the audience requests, whether it be classical music, grand opera or folk songs and modernistic melodies. Crawford Adams gives a regular program first and afterwards the request numbers.

In the Mid-Western Circuit Chattanooga Helen Leshler Adams as Helen Leshler toured for two years with Adams. She made as great an impression on Crawford Adams as on her audience and they were married.

Students and faculty members are invited to attend the lyceum number free.

THIRTY-FIVE MAKE FIRST SEMESTER HONOR ROLL

Interruption by the Registrar and his assistants. The last grades were handed in Saturday, but too late for the Honor Roll to be published in the Ring-tum Phi.

The students who made the Honor Roll at this time, while made up of the usual number of Freshman, contains an increase in proportion among the old students. The seven or eight students who have won this honor each semester since they entered Washington and Lee have continued their good work, and four of their classmates earned the right to be classed with them for the first time since they entered here.

The larger portion of those on the dishonor list is Freshman, practically the same bunch that was in trouble at mid-semester, but sixteen students, either Sophomores or Juniors, got caught also. Those who make the dishonor list, who automatically sever their connection with the University, do so when they do not make two passing grades (a grade of D or better), or make a grade of F in half or more than half of their subjects. About eight of the 46 automatics made a grade of F in all of their subjects. "Automatics" can petition the Executive Committee of the Faculty for reinstatement, but more than a dozen of these students have quietly packed their trunks and departed hence. Of the remainder, only five have as yet been reinstated by the authorities, and given another chance.

The list of these students who fail to make the grades is slightly larger than at mid-semester, and an increase of six over last year at this time. In quite a few cases those who were on this list at mid-term have heeded the warning and escaped the worry of possible reinstatement, and several students found the examinations too much for them, falling below their mid-year averages.

PRESS CLUB MEETS

The University Press Club held a short meeting last night at 7:30 in its editorial room. The meeting was called to discuss ways and means of gathering campus news, and the make-up of college news also came in for deliberation.

Dr. Tucker, who has charge of the University publicity, was present and gave an interesting talk with many helpful suggestions. Those present were W. G. Sale, C. H. Hamilton, E. A. Nabors, B. F. Ward, and E. W. McCorkle.

THE COLLEGE WORLD

Cross word puzzles have been added to the curriculum of the Engineering course of the University of Kentucky.

The University of Chicago intramural department has introduced horseshoes as a regular sport, and is conducting a tournament between the fraternities.

Members of the class in parliamentary drill at Oregon Agricultural College will visit the legislature while it is in session to observe the actual working of parliamentary rules.

A memorial gateway costing $5,000 is proposed by the senior class of New York University. It is to be part of a memorial fence that that will eventually enclose the entire campus. Units of the fence are to be built by succeeding graduating classes.

Dartmouth and Princeton are tied for the lead in the Eastern Intercollegiate Basketball league, each with three victories and no defeats. Penn is third with an even break in four contests. Yale trails the circuit with no victories in three starts.

At the University of Colorado more than $700 worth of musical instruments have been stolen from the Sigma Phi Epsilon, Lambda Chi Alpha, Sigma Chi, Delta Sigma Phi, and Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity houses during the past week, according to reports of the Boulder police.

What does the undergraduate read? From Columbia University: Within a few hundred feet of the great library which shelters a world famous collection of 800,000 volumes under a tower of masonry, a spectator discovered that a campus subway news dealer disposes of 600 copies of each issue of "True Story," while he finds it unprofitable to keep a single copy of the "Bookman." While 150 people walk out of a certain book store, near the campus, with "Snappy Stories," "Adventure," etc., but 75 purchase "intellectual" magazines. It is interesting to note that among the latter class the "American Mercury" ranks first, two times ahead of publications similar to "Dial," and the "Atlantic Monthly" comes second.
