

State Prep and High Basketball Tournament Opens Here Tomorrow

John Marshall and South Boston Pry Off Lid
---Eighteen Teams Have Been Officially
Entered---Tourney Closes Saturday

John Marshall High School of Richmond and South Boston High School will officially open the second annual All-High School and Preparatory School basketball tournament held under the auspices of the Washington and Lee University Athletic Association. These two will clash at 2:30 o'clock on Thursday afternoon.

Eighteen teams have formally entered the tourney, which includes nine teams representing the High School class and nine net quints from the Prep School division. Charlottesville High School had sent in their entry blanks, but at the last moment they were forced to withdraw.

The tourney this year promises to be bigger and better than the one held last year, and the one notable fact is that there are more teams entered this year than the season before. The Tournament Committee in charge has gone to extra expense in providing entertainment for the visiting teams and in making this tournament one of the best ever held in the State of Virginia.

Games will be played throughout Thursday, including four games in the High School Class and then the evening's program which will consist of eight prep schools clashing with each other. Just after the John Marshall-South Boston tilt is over, Virginia High School, of Bristol, will take the floor against Staunton High School. This game comes at 3:30. At 4:30 the net quints from the Lexington High School and the Suffolk High School will lock horns with each other. Danville High School and Altavista High School will close the afternoon session with a game at 5:30. Roanoke High School drew a bye in the first round and they will play the winner of the John Marshall-South Boston game.

The prep school division will get under way on Thursday night. The first melee for this class is between Staunton Military Academy, of Staunton, and Randolph-Macon Academy, of Front Royal. As soon as these two fives complete their game the teams from Fishburne Military School and Chatham Training School will take the court and have their fight out. Massanutten Military Academy and Christ Church School will play the third set of the night at 9:00 o'clock. Augusta Military Academy and Randolph-Macon Military Academy, of Bedford, will furnish the excitement in the last game of the evening. Benedictine School drew a bye in this division.

The next round will be played on Friday afternoon, starting at 2:30 in the afternoon. Four games will be played in that session and on Friday night the third round will be played off. At this time two tilts will be played off. On Saturday afternoon, the semi-finals will be held and at 8 p. m. Saturday night, the winners of the Preparatory and High School classes will clash in the championship battle for the state title.

Each of the nineteen teams entered in the tourney has had a good record for this season and it is very hard to pick a favorite to win the state title. John Marshall, which won the tournament last year, is again in the fight and they are very anxious to make it two straight years that they can claim the title. Both the high and prep school quints no team having the edge. Bristol High School, which is in the meet for the first time, has an excellent chance to cop the prize as only last week they won the net tourney held by King College.

The five winning the title will be awarded the full size silver basketball which is being given by A. G. Spaulding, of Washington, D. C. The Washington and Lee Athletic Association are the donors of the half size silver basketball which is awarded to the runners-up. Eight miniature gold basketball charms will be given to the individual members of the win-

CAMPUS GREEKS PLEDGE NEW MEN

Nine Men Pledged By Eight Fraternities Since Beginning of Second Semester.

Nine men have been pledged by eight different fraternities since the beginning of the second semester. Seven of the Greeks have pledged one each, while Pi Kappa Phi leads with two men. The pledges present a cosmopolitan group, representing six different states. Among the list is Dr. Bean, professor in the University History Department, who has been pledged Phi Gamma Delta. Dr. Bean is also a member of Phi Beta Kappa, national honorary scholastic fraternity.

The new men of the various fraternities are as follows: Pi Kappa Phi, C. H. Wilson, of Crewe, Virginia, and J. B. Towill, of Batesburg, South Carolina; Kappa Sigma, Virgil France, of Roanoke, Virginia; Sigma Alpha Epsilon, John Yarborough, of Charlotte, North Carolina; Sigma Chi, Elliott S. Williams, of Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania; Pi Kappa Alpha, L. P. Southern, of Lexington, Kentucky; Zeta Beta Tau, Myron Seligman, of Shaw, Mississippi; Arcades Club, Wayne L. Keeley, of Franklin; and Phi Gamma Delta, Dr. Bean.

Beta Theta Pi, which has not initiated its pledges of the first semester, will initiate within the coming month.

TOURNEY TEAMS TO BE GUESTS AT SUPPER

Trophies and Prizes Will Be Awarded By Dr. Smith At Banquet Saturday Night.

Members of the visiting high school and prep school teams and officials of the Tournament will be the guests at a buffet supper to be given at the University Dining Hall on Saturday night immediately after the final game of the net tourney. Dr. Henry Louis Smith, president of the University, will be the main speaker of the evening.

The trophies and prizes will be awarded at this affair by Dr. Smith, who is to make the awards to the various players. Arrangements for the buffet supper have been made by E. P. Davis, who is chairman of the committee. Music for the occasion will be furnished by the Southern Collegians.

The committee is anxious to have

President's Greeting

To the Competitors in the Second Annual Basketball Tournament:

As a Nursery of Southern and National Leadership since 1749, Washington and Lee is a great believer in high character and a well-trained mind, both doubled in efficiency by working through a vigorous, healthy, and well-trained body. The competitive games of the young men of today not only train our future citizens in bodily hygiene, the laws of health and habitual strength and activity, but constitute in addition a most efficient training in willing partnership, moral self-control, manly co-operation with others for a common end, and unselfish loyalty to one's friends and co-workers.

The University, therefore, most gladly welcomes to its gymnasium and its hospitality these teams of young athletes, extends to them its best wishes for health, happiness, and success, and wishes for every one of them the good fortune of winning his life-game wherever and for whatever purpose that game is played.

We welcome these young Americans especially to this sacred shrine of historic inspiration, and commend to them the historic and moral ideals taught by the names and lives of Washington and of Lee.

We would remind every one of them that this is the Age of Mind, of the expert, the engineer, the trained debater, the inventor, and the skilled manager of vast and complicated enterprises. We wish, therefore, for every young aspirant for future honor and success a thorough college and university training in some first class institution, and congratulate every member of every team on the energy, self-control, and success already attained in competition with manly competitors.

BASKETBALL INFORMAL IS GREAT SUCCESS

Over Fifty Girls Are Present To Help Toward Success—Southern Collegians Perform Well.

One of the most successful informals of the mid-winter social season was given Saturday night. The informal was sponsored by the Cotillion Club and given for the benefit of the Basketball Sweater Fund. There were over fifty girls present from the nearby feminine colleges and adjacent towns. This was the first informal of the year that the fresh-

BOXERS GET TIE WITH U. OF PENN

Felsenthal, Wilkinson and Spotts Win For Generals and Trip Closes With Tie Meet.

The Washington and Lee boxing team concluded its 1925 schedule Saturday night, tying the University of Pennsylvania battlers 3 to 3. There were bouts in all of the classes except the heavyweight division, which was omitted by agreement of both teams. The Generals were in excellent condition, considering that they had boxed at Yale and Colgate previous to meeting the Pennsylvania mitmen.

Hatfield, in the bantamweight class, had things his own way with Leon for the first round of their bout, but in the next period scarcely earned an even break. The third session was all for the Pennsylvania boxer and the judges called for an extra round. During the extra two minutes Hatfield was forced to take the defensive and finally lost the decision to his adversary, who barely won on points gained in the final seconds of the match, landing some long rights to the body and short hooks to the jaw.

In the 125-pound class, Captain Felsenthal was forced to uncover some clever boxing to defeat Kaplan, the Pennsylvania mitman, in an extra round, after the judges had disagreed at the end of the scheduled periods. "Eddie" lost the first round while sizing up his man but came back strong and took the next round and the added session. This was an unexpected upset of the meet as by the Pennsylvania supporters.

Hearon was defeated in the lightweight class by Schmoker, whose left jab to the body and face piled up enough points to win in the regular distance.

Captain Trachenberg, of Pennsylvania, won the decision over Durham in three rounds. The Penn boxer had everything his own way and was never in danger, although Durham showed flashes of recovering at various stages of the bout.

Wilkinson won his bout in the 158-pound class by cleverly outboxing Cohen, his opponent, the result of the bout never being in doubt. The Pennsylvania man was completely outclassed by his southern rival.

With the score standing 3 to 2 in favor of Pennsylvania, Spotts scored a technical knockout over Butler, a varsity football guard. The Penn boxer started out strong, but his rush was soon checked by Spotts, who had him all but out of the going, when the referee stopped the bout in the third round. This was one of the most exciting bouts of the evening, the two giants swinging madly at each other until Spotts forged ahead with a series of rights and lefts to his opponent's body.

Track Practice Progresses Well

Many Changes Being Tried Out By Coach Fleacher—End of Basketball and Wrestling Adds New Men.

The basketball season has given way in the last few days to track. The wrestling season will also be over Saturday and will release Summerson and Biddle, which will greatly strengthen the high-jump and dashes. Van Horn will make an effort to displace the regulars in the discus throw and shot put, and Coach Fletcher hopes to develop him into a quarter miler, which would also greatly help Van Horn in his football next year. Coach Fletcher seems to think he has the natural ability to make a good quarter miler, and is expecting much of him this year in track. Although Biddle has never had much experience in the

BASE BALL MEN HARD AT WORK

Practice Is Still Confined To the Gymnasium On Account of Weather—Many Candidates Out.

Due to the cold weather, the last week's baseball practice has been confined to the gymnasium to get the men in good condition for stiffer work when fair weather will again permit outdoor practice. The work inside has been chiefly concentrated on the batteries while the other men report and go through sliding and bunting practice, and handling of ground balls by the infield. When the weather permits the coach hopes to have the men in tip-top shape to go on the field.

The freshmen infield from last year which consists of Neville, Ginsburg, Fossett, and Palmer is showing such promise that none of the regulars can be certain of their position.

Hickman, last year a substitute pitcher, is showing up well, and much is expected of him by Catch Smith. Perry is also looking good, and is expected to better his last season's performance, although he made a good showing then.

Jolliffe, McMillan, and May are out for the backstop position. In case either Jolliffe or May show up to advantage McMillan will be shifted to third base and Seehorn will go to the field.

Two of the varsity outfield are back, and the third place is being hotly contested for by Stearns, Goodrich, Hamilton, Leggate and Jolliffe.

WRESTLERS LEAVE ON NORTHERN TRIP

Win Over North Carolina Encourages Generals—Navy and Franklin Marshall Are Opponents.

The Blue and White grapplers left tonight on the first leg of their northern journey, meeting the Franklin and Marshall matmen in Lancaster, Pa., tomorrow. From the keystone state the Brettmen will hop over to West Point, where the Army will next be met.

Coach Brett will take seven men on the invasion, and is confident that his men will put up strong competition against both of their opponents. Summerson will tussle in the bantamweight division, while Wigglesworth will grapple in the featherweight class. Walters, sensational matman of the lightweight division; Yankee, 145-pounder of the Blue and White; Biddle, sturdy middleweight wrestler of the Generals; Tilson, star of the lighthweight class; and Capt. Holt, undefeated this year in the unlimited division, will compose the remainder of the party that will make the northern jaunt.

Nothing is known of the Pennsylvania team, though reports have it that the keystone possess a wrestling aggregation of no mean ability. The Army has its best wrestling team in years, and the Blue and White will have to demonstrate all of their mat knowledge to down the West Pointers.

North Carolina Meet.

The Blue and White matmen brought their home schedule to a close with a sensational victory over the North Carolina tusslers, Monday night, annexing five of the seven bouts to win easily (21-8. Heafner and Motsinger, bantamweight and featherweight wrestlers of the visitors, accounted for all of the Tar Heels' points. Summerson lost on a fall to the former, while Wigglesworth bowed to the latter, who gained a decisive time decision over the local warrior.

Walters annexed five points in the 135-pound class, when Coach Shapiro of North Carolina refused to let Vick wrestle the Generals' representative, claiming that the Blue and White

To the Tourney Guests.

To the members of the visiting basketball teams we extend a most hearty welcome to Washington and Lee campus. Although the annual prep and high school tourney originated by Washington and Lee is but in its second year the event has already attained considerable prominence in athletic circles and is a red letter event of the high and preparatory schools' indoor sport season.

For this reason we are indeed proud to be the hosts of the men taking part in such an event. There are more than a score of the best from the best student groups in their respective circles and we here at Washington and Lee feel it a great privilege to be again the sponsors of the tournament.

Therefore we welcome these men and invite them to virtually make themselves Washington and Lee men while here.

To the Tourney Hosts.

We realize that the tourney is a great benefit to the University. It introduces new men to the campus who possibly have never been here before and who perhaps may decide to make this their alma mater. We also are fully aware of the prestige it gives us in an athletic sense as sponsors of the affair and we ask that each and every Washington and Lee man get behind the affair and lend it his whole-hearted support. Attend all the games. If you cannot get to all of them attend as many as you can. And here is a little suggestion. Would it not be a good idea in order to lend spirit to the games if the Washington and Lee men were to form two groups and root for the teams playing. This was not done last year, but it certainly would greatly enliven the contests.

Let's all get behind this tourney and extend a royal welcome to the visitors. Make them feel at home while among us. Give the games your support and we are sure that you will be amply repaid for time taken, for the teams to be represented are the best of their class in the state and we can look for some spirited clashes.

BEMIS HERE FOR WEEK-END

A visitor to the campus during the week-end was Doug K. "Tiny" Bemis. "Doug," who graduated last year, played guard on the football team, and was also a member of many campus organizations. At present he is connected with his brother, also an alumnus of W. and L., in the paper manufacturing industry at Bastroy, La., to which place he is now returning from a northern business trip.

The psychology department of Temple University will abolish all examinations.

SYRACUSE WINNER IN SPIRITED DEBATE HERE

In a spirited debate held in the Y. M. C. A. room last Monday night, the Washington and Lee forensic team was defeated by Syracuse University by the vote of two to one. The topic under discussion was "Resolved, that the Constitution of the United States should be so amended as to require a two-thirds vote of the Supreme Court in declaring an act of Congress unconstitutional." The Syracuse debaters upheld the affirmative side of the question; the Washington and Lee men sustained the negative side. Washington and Lee was represented by W. D. Mullinix, L. R. Henry, and J. S. Strahorn, Jr.; Syracuse University, by B. J. Kohlbrenner, L. D. Meredith, and David Levene. Each of the speakers deserves commendation for his admirable delivery and his forceful arguments; Strahorn, however, is entitled to especial praise for his skill in refuting the arguments advanced by his opponents. The most effective speaker on the affirmative side was Levene.

Herbert M. Goul, president of the Debating Council at Washington and Lee, presided over the contest with remarkable equanimity; C. W. Lowry, Jr., also a member of the Debating Council, acted as timekeeper. The judges were General John S. Malory, County Superintendent R. M. Irby, and Rev. J. J. Murray.

The argument of the affirmative was that the Supreme Court gave its decision that a law was unconstitutional by a five to four decision, when sometimes it was not clearly so. The burden of the negative was to disprove this, and they also contended that tampering with the judiciary tended to weaken the Constitution, and would undermine the government.

The main elements of the contest were, however, the last two addresses—the rebuttal speeches of Strahorn and Levene. The former disproved with admirable facility many of his opponents' contentions and pointed out the fact that the will of a majority of the members of the Supreme Court should always be final; Levene averred that whenever a case is brought before the Supreme Court there is always a presumption in favor of the fact that the law under dispute is constitutional.

The feature of the debate, perhaps, was in the clear and forceful argument offered by Levene, of Syracuse. He showed himself to be one of the cleverest debaters ever appearing here.

SOUTHERN SEM GLEE CLUB SINGS HERE SUNDAY

To Entertain At "Y" Social; Professor Fulbright Acts Portion of Plays.

Mr. G. S. Fulbright, Professor of Public Speaking, gave several dramatic interpretations Sunday afternoon at the Y. M. C. A. social. Refreshments were served after the program was finished.

Mr. Fulbright gave a short reading from Dickens' "David Copperfield," and two acts from "The Rivals" by Sheridan.

Next Sunday the Glee Club of Southern Seminary will sing at the "Y" social. The Glee Club is composed of 25 girls. After the program there will be a social. The place where this social will be held will be announced later, as the Y. M. C. A. room will probably be too small to hold the crowd.

ELEVEN CLUB HELD INITIATION FRIDAY

The annual initiation of the Eleven Club was held last Friday night, at which time the 1925 delegation of new men were taken in, their names to be formally announced sometime in the near future.

The Eleven Club was founded at Washington and Lee in 1920. The members may be selected from the senior, junior and sophomore classes, although at present there are no sophomore members. It is strictly a social organization, endeavoring to recognize men of inherent ability as leaders in their respective lines of endeavor. The present officers are: W. A. McRitchie, president, and W. J. Driver, secretary and treasurer.

CALYX WRITE-UPS MUST BE IN BY THIS FRIDAY

Fifty-Four Seniors Fail To Hand In Writeups and Delay Progress On Work.

The entire work on the 1925 Calyx is being held up due to the failure of a large number of Seniors to turn in their write-ups. At present there are 54 members of that class who have, so far, failed to turn theirs in. Unless these are in by Friday, March 6, the University Department of the Calyx will have to write them. That department is very busy and this extra work will likely delay the publishing of the book. Also, they are not familiar enough with all these men to write them up satisfactorily. This would lower the standard of the book and is urged that those who have failed to comply so far, do so at once.

There are also many Juniors who have failed to hand in their slips. These slips can be found in the lobby of Tucker Hall or on the first floor of Newcomb Hall.

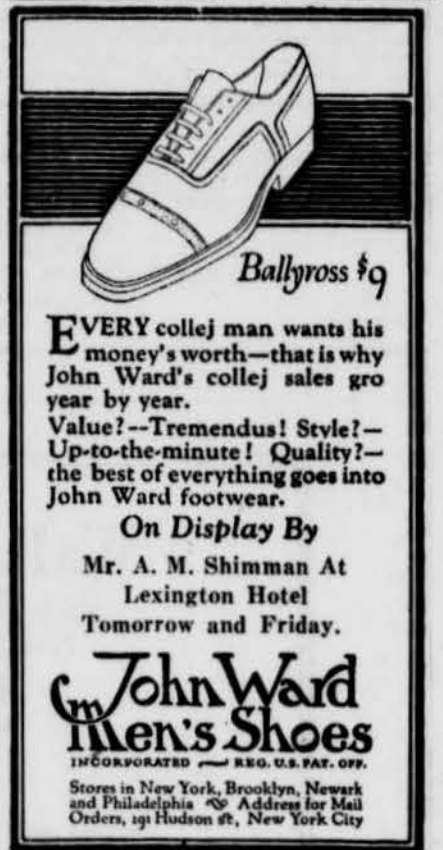

There have been a number of elections to the different Societies in the last few weeks, and those Juniors or Seniors who have been elected to any of them are requested to inform John Mayhew or I. Lebow of it as soon as possible.

PI DELTA EPSILON INITIATES TODAY

Admit Seven Men To Honorary Journalistic Organization This Afternoon.

Pi Delta Epsilon, honorary journalistic society, held its initiation this afternoon at 5 o'clock, at which time the following seven men were taken in: M. F. Hummer, E. W. McCorkle, B. F. Ward, E. A. Nabors, C. B. Knight, J. D. Reynolds and J. D. Mayhew.

Pi Delta Epsilon was founded at Syracuse University in 1909 and now has 46 chapters in the United States and Canada. The chapter at Washington and Lee was established from the local Iota Nu Kappa in 1923, and at the present time has 14 active members, with Dr. Farrar and Dr. D. B. Easter as faculty members. This fraternity has been extremely active in giving moral aid to publications and recognition to outstanding men in journalistic work. The officers of the local chapter are: President, W. G. Sale; secretary, D. G. Kaylor; treasurer, Jairus Collins. Two years' service on a campus publication is required for eligibility.

WRESTLERS LEAVE ON NORTHERN TRIP

matman was ineligible. The referee awarded the bout to the locals on a forfeit. Yankee registered his initial win of the present season when he gained a time decision over Morrison.

Biddle had little trouble winning from Blankenship, although the latter crawled off the mat throughout the entire match. The North Carolinian lost on a time decision, as Biddle was unable to pin his shoulders to the mat.

"Tex" Tilson threw Warren, expugilist, of the Chapel Hill aggregation, in the light-heavy match, getting the fall after three minutes and fifty seconds of sensational tussling. Capt. Holt won on a forfeit, as the visitors failed to have a representative in the unlimited class.

A. M. A. Meet.

The scrubs failed to win a single event against the A. M. A. matmen last Saturday night, and the visitors captured the meet by a 27-0 score. The Cadets presented a well-balanced team, and although pressed at times, managed to whitewash the locals, amassing three falls and four time decisions for their total. Driver, Rule, and Milbank lost via the fall route, while Rissler, Copper, Seligman, and Woolwine bowed to their opponents in time decision contests.

weight events, the coach hopes to develop him into a good man, in addition to his jumping.

Letcher, who is in the Law School, and was the star weight man of V. M. I. last year, is working with the track team, although he is ineligible to take part in any of the meets. In this way more interest is added to the practice. Fulton and Pfeffer, who are rated as the varsity milers will have stiff competition for their places in Gimson, Wigglesworth, and Powell.

TOURNAMENT TEAMS TO BE GUESTS AT SUPPER

every varsity athlete attend the affair and they can make reservation with either Mr. Davis or M. F. Hummer. Members of the Student Body and local alumni are also requested to be in attendance. The price per plate is seventy-five cents.

John H. Ralls, blind student at Ohio State University, does not allow his blindness to shut him off from the outside world. For three years he has attended stock performances religiously, and seldom misses an athletic event. It is said that after attending a baseball game, he can minutely describe every play. Those of us who have been at W. and L. more than one year will remember that we had a student here just as remarkable if not more so in the person of R. Brown Hilton.

"Go to College Clubs" are being formed under the auspices of the University of California.

A gym class has been started for faculty men at the University of Nebraska. It is expected that at least fifteen will report for work each day.

STATE PREP AND HIGH BASKETBALL TOURNAMENT OPENS HERE TOMORROW

ning combination and eight miniature basketball charms have been donated for the runners-up. Eight men on the runners-up will each be given one of the silver basketball charms.

Five gold filled charms will be presented to the men making the All-State team to be picked from the various teams in the tourney. Three loving cups will also be awarded. One is to be given for the man scoring the highest number of points in one game and another for the best all-around player in the tourney. The other cup is to be given to the best foul shooter in the meet. These prizes were donated by the merchants of Lexington.

The various fraternities on the Washington and Lee campus will take care of the visiting players of the different teams. Everything is in readiness for the members of the teams to make their appearance in town. No visiting athlete will be under any expense while he is in Lexington, as he will be the guest of the University. All railroads in the state have given the various high and prep schools fare and a half rate for a round trip ticket.

Every member of a visiting team will be given a badge which he will wear during his visit here in town. None will be given to any but members of the teams.

The price of admission to the tournament for the entire six sessions to be held will be $1.00. In case one wishes to go to any one session the price will be fifty cents. This rate has been given by the Tournament Committee in order to let every student see every session for a reasonable price.

All the money to be made on the tournament will be divided among the teams according to the distance traveled. The larger the crowds are that are in attendance at the meet the more money will be given each five towards paying their expenses.

Last year there were only fifteen teams that sent in their blanks for the tourney, while this year there are three more. Among the teams that are in this year that were not represented last season are: Roanoke High School, Bristol High School, Danville High School, Randolph-Macon Academy, of Bedford; Randolph-Macon Academy, of Front Royal; Benedictine and S. M. A.

The personnel of the 1925 tournament is: R. A. Smith, Graduate Manager, is Director of Tournament; Rhea Whitley, chairman finance and advertising; D. H. Brown, chairman entertainment; Max Terry, chairman arrangement; W. K. Payle, Jr., chairman reception; M. D. Klein, official scorer; H. E. Rietze, announcer; Louis Joel, publicity.

The committee on awards for the various loving cups and charms are: E. M. Cameron, coach basketball; N. S. Lake, captain basketball, 1925; Forest Fletcher, coach track; R. A. Smith, Graduate Manager; and Henry Wilson, member varsity football and basketball.

The officials of the tournament are Jack Haas, of Washington, and W. S. Gooch, Jr., of Richmond.

BASKETBALL INFORMAL IS GREAT SUCCESS

men were given full privileges of dancing but, however, they were required to wear the customary green tie.

Music for the occasion was furnished by the Southern Collegians who are very popular among the Washington and Lee dancers. Their music was perfect and it greatly aided in keeping high the jovial spirit during the occasion. Although only organized two years ago, the Southern Collegians have reached their zenith in the amateur class, their class of music fully equalling that of many professional orchestras heard in the Doremus Gymnasium. They will travel this summer under the name of Meyer Davis' Southern Collegians, being booked by that company.

Weekly lectures on athletics are given to co-eds at the University of California.

MEETING AT "Y" TOMORROW

A Students' Meetings will be held from 7:15 to 8 o'clock tomorrow night in the Y. M. C. A. room. Several students will speak. This meeting is being conducted by the Religious Meetings Committee of the Y. M. C. A. of which R. C. Smith is chairman. The meeting will be over in time for the basketball game.

ONLY TWO IN HOSPITAL

There are at the present time but two men in the Jackson Memorial Hospital, Max Wilkinson and P. A. Leonardis. Neither is seriously ill. Wilkinson is suffering from a blow on the nose received in a recent boxing match, and Leonard's with sore throat. Both are expected to be able to resume their studies in the next few days.
