

Thirty-five States With Virginia Leading

Virginia Again Heads List With Tennessee Second and West Virginia Third.

Thirty-five states, one district, and three foreign countries are represented in the Student Body of Washington and Lee this year. With the beginning of the 176th session of the University the enrollment shows that Virginia heads the list as the state having the most students in the University, as usual, with a total roll call of 212 men. Tennessee is second with 66, and West Virginia third with 63. Florida, usually toward the foot of the list, came up to fifth place with a total enrollment of 40. Other states, with their enrollment, are: Alabama, 38; Arkansas, 31; California, 2; Connecticut, 4; Delaware, 2; District of Columbia, 11; Georgia, 27; Illinois, 12; Indiana, 2; Kansas, 1; Kentucky, 50; Louisiana, 20; Maine, 1; Maryland, 27; Massachusetts, 6; Michigan, 6; Minnesota, 1; Mississippi, 29; Missouri, 8; Montana, 1; New Hampshire, 3; New Jersey, 24; New Mexico, 3; New York, 31; North Carolina, 30; Ohio, 20; Oklahoma, 7; Oregon, 1; Pennsylvania, 34; South Carolina, 22; Texas, 34; and Wisconsin, 3. Of the foreign countries at Washington and Lee, Canada has one student, China six, and Russia one.

The academic school again leads in the total registration, which is 878, with 501 matriculated; the Commerce school has 218, the School of Applied Science 67, and the Law school 93.

FACULTY DECLARES TWO MEN INELIGIBLE FOR TENNIS TEAM

A rearrangement of the tennis team has become necessary because of the ineligibility of two players. Olinger Crenshaw, member of last year's team, has been declared ineligible because of the fact that he is teaching two classes. Although really a student, Crenshaw must, under the necessarily strict athletic rules, be considered as a member of the faculty. Paul Daugherty, a transfer from Rice Institute, Texas, and a member of their team last year, has also been declared ineligible. Daugherty showed good form in early practice, but could not play because of being a transfer.

Although his and Crenshaw's absence from the team will be a great loss, Washington and Lee still has bright prospects for the sport. Captain J. W. Cassell and C. V. Debiase, both of last year's team, will hold down two places. Dobbs and Miller, both showing up well this fall, will probably each have a berth on the team. As yet the fifth place seems to be vacant and competition will be close for it.

The match with Lynchburg College had to be called off as they have no fall tennis team, but a match will probably be arranged for this spring. Negotiations are under way with Roanoke College and V. P. I. and it is hoped that there will be at least two matches before the spring season.

ATTENTION STUDENT BODY

Information has been received from the C. & O. Ry. offering a special rate of $9.06 round trip per capita to all attending the West Virginia-Washington and Lee football game in Charleston, Oct. 31. This rate will be effective in case 125 students make the trip. If 200 go, a special train will be arranged to and from Charleston. Follow the Fighting Generals!

GENERALS RENEWING VIGOR FOR BATTLE WITH PRINCETON TIGER

UNDAUNTED BY LOSS TO PURPLE HURRICANE

Full Strength of Generals To Be Shown In Opening Line-up For First Time.

When the Generals oppose Coach Bill Roper's Princeton Tigers in Palmer Stadium Saturday afternoon they will be out to avenge a five-year old score when in the fall of 1920 the Tigers defeated Washington and Lee on the same field 34 to 0. On that date the Fighting Generals with such men as "Bullet Joe" Silverstein, Lindsey Moore, and Dorr Tucker in the line-up gave the Tigers one of the hardest battles they had during the season.

Although still smarting over the defeat handed them by Furman last Saturday the Generals have settled down to earnest work and have shown marked improvement in every department of the game during the workouts this week. The belated rush of the Purple Hurricane seemed too much for the Washington and Lee team to weather, against a backfield much heavier than their own.

With the advent of cooler weather Coach De Hart will be able to run his squad through their paces at a brisk gait and mixing scrimmage with signal practice will have them in the best of condition when they meet the snarling Tiger Sautrday.

Saturday will probably witness the first game of the year in which the full strength of the Generals will be presented in the opening line-up. The hospital list has claimed at least two or three regulars for the first two games with Pitt and Furman, but when the special car leaves for Princeton it is more than likely that the entire squad of first string men will be ready to go into action. "Red" Hawkins' sprained ankle which he suffered in the Pitt game seems well on the way to recovery and he will be seen in the line-up Saturday if he does not encounter further trouble in the last few days of practice this week.

With a decisive victory over the Amherst eleven Saturday by the score of 20 to 0, the Tigers promise to develop into a well-drilled machine before the season is well under way. Completing seven out of nine forward passes, the aerial attack of the Princeton team was beyond the defense of the Amherst team at all stages of the game. With the graduation of all of their varsity ends last year, a new set of wingmen has been trained during the first weeks of practice and where the Tigers were supposed to be weakest they have inserted capable material to help build up a championship eleven.

Captain McMillan at center and Gates, a fast 180-pound tackle, are the only veterans on the line, but with excellent material from last

"Red" Gilliam To Make Trip

Trainer Helped Coach of Tiger Squad When Roper Was at V. M. I.

In his eighteenth year as trainer of Washington and Lee athletic squads, "Red" Gilliam will leave here Friday night with the Generals when they invade the lair of the Princeton Tiger. This will be the second trip in his years of service that "Red" will have been taken to the New Jersey university with the local football team, the Princetonians not having played the Generals since 1920, but will enable "Red" to renew his acquaintance with the chief coach of the Tiger squad, Bill Roper.

"Red" first knew the famous coach when the latter had charge of the V. M. I. team here in 1902 and 1903. This was the first training experience that he had ever undertaken in Lexington, but was so much to his liking that, when Roper left the military school, "Red" immediately hitched up with the Generals, at that time coached by "Buster" Brown, an old Dartmouth star. Prior to his service at the neighboring institution, however, the Generals' caretaker had charge of the players at Harvard for three years, beginning in 1899.

Born in Lexington, "Red" has lived around here all his life, and for a year or two attended Lynchburg Seminary, where he played baseball. A number of winters in the early part of the century found him playing professional baseball in Florida, where he had several jobs as catcher. Every fall he came back to his old love, however, and it is his proud boast that since he began regular work here that he has not missed a single day from the training table. Sticking with the athletes on the field, in the gym, and on the diamond in the Spring, "Red" has been ever ready to render first aid and correc-

GENERALS DRUBBED BY TIGERS IN 1920

Princeton Whitewashed Blue and White By 34 To 0 Score At Princeton.

Princeton, 34; Washington and Lee, 0.

That was the score when these two teams last met in the fall of 1920. Under the direction of Coach Bill Raftery the Generals left for Princeton with the regulars in excellent condition and a good chance of taming the strong Tiger eleven.

Before a crowd of 6,500 people, considered a large turnout at that time for an early season game, the Generals won the toss and elected to receive. On the kickoff Washington and Lee brought the ball back to their own forty-five yard line after which "Bullet Joe" Silverstein tore off six yards off tackle on the first play of the game. Following this Dorr Tucker added three more yards around right end. On the next play the Generals fumbled and Garrity, Princeton fullback, recovered and with the aid of perfect interference ran 45 yards for a touchdown. This score coming in the first three minutes of play took the aspiration out of the Generals and they were forced to fight a losing battle for the rest of the afternoon.

Lindsay Moore, left tackle and captain of the Generals, was the shining light of the game, tackling, snatching passes and playing a brilliant game throughout. Tucker, Silverstein, and Raines carried the brunt of the offensive work until Raines was painfully hurt in the second half of the game and a substitute sent in in his place. "Fats" Barrow at guard played his usual steady game, throwing the Tiger backfield men for losses time and again.

REPORTS ON OCT. 19 NOT TO BE SENT HOME

Have Bearing On Absence Rule; Dean Will Decide On Special Cases.

S. and U. reports (satisfactory and unsatisfactory) will be handed in to the Dean's office on Monday, October 19. These reports are not permanent, and will not be sent home to the parents of the students. They are for the purpose of letting the professors and the students themselves know the preliminary standing.

They also bear considerably on the leave of absence rule. No student receiving two U's will be allowed any but two permitted "cuts" in the subject in which he is deficient. This will obligate any other class if necessary by the Dean. Recipients of the mentioned unsatisfactory grades will be duly warned by the Dean.

Reports, such as these, are given out every year, covering a period of four weeks. The next reports to be published will be the mid-semester reports, and then the final grades for the semester will be given out.

CAMPUS GREEKS PLEDGE 212 MEN

Social Fraternities Pledge Unusually Large Number of Men This Year.

FRITNEYS HAVE TWENTY TRANSFERS

Kappa Alpha Leads List With Largest Number of Transfers, Having Seven.

The social fraternities on the campus began pledging, as usual, on registration day and have continued until now. Although active pledging is practically over, many men have been pledged during the last few days.

This season was marked by the unusually large number of men pledged by some fraternities, and taken as a whole, the number of pledges this year greatly exceeds that of any previous year on this campus.

The following fraternities announce these men as their pledges:

Phi Kappa Psi.

J. F. White, Roswell, N. Mex.; J. B. Chamberlain, Portland, Ore.; J. N. Steck, Winchester, Va.; W. B. Lott, Mobile, Ala.; A. P. Bush, Mobile, Ala.; E. Smith, Ivy Depot, Va.; C. E. FRESHMEN WILL ELECT OFFICERS TOMORROW

Tomorrow night at 7:30 o'clock in the gymnasium, the Freshmen will elect their officers for the present year, W. E. Tilson, president of the Student Body, announced last evening.

Much interest has been aroused among the first year men in the coming elections and indications point to several candidates for the various offices. The offices to which men will be elected are: President, vice-president, secretary-treasurer, historian and executive committeeman.

It is important to note that proxies will not be accepted unless the men are ill or out of town. One of the executive committeemen will preside during the elections and will be aided by several assistants.

On To Princeton!

Saturday the Fighting Generals will journey to Old Nassau for the first time in five years to beard the Tiger in his den. We welcome that date as marking the resumption of athletic relations between Princeton and Washington and Lee.

It should be a great day for W. and L. and one of the great gridiron battles on her 1925 card. The Generals will probably have to fight against odds, but they should not be overwhelmed. Washington and Lee teams have been noted since time immemorial for their fighting spirit. Saturday will prove no exception to the rule. The Generals will be in there with 'em and stay till the final whistle is blown.

The fact that our gridmen have come out at the smaller end of the score on two occasions this season need not mean anything. Such setbacks cannot be prevented. However, they can be forgotten and the tables turned on the remaining opponents of the year. The indefatigable spirit of Washington and the fighting genius of Lee are still with us. Our Generals will show it this week-end as never before.

On to Princeton!

The Freshman Class.

The Freshman Class of this year is the largest ever enrolled at Washington and Lee, numbering well over the three hundred and fifty mark. It is composed of men from every section of the United States and probably forms one of the most representative groups of young men that has ever come to the W. and L. campus.

They have already shown us a football team full of mettle and the unconquerable desire to win—which has been realized. In the remaining months of this, their first year at college, they will undoubtedly live up to their already enviable record, making their class excel in activities as well as numbers.

Truly they have a class of which to be proud, but not too proud. We would call attention to the fact that the Freshman Council will function again this year with a full quota of paddle wielders selected with great care from the ranks of the more muscular members of the Student Body. The speaking regulations and other rules are of prime importance, all of which go to make up the ideal freshman class. It is merely a form of assimilation which is absolutely essential to the welfare of the first year men. Without these regulations and the Freshman Council to enforce them, the uninitiated boy coming from the seclusion of his native heath to the endless bustle and turmoil of the great American campus, would be utterly ruined and drift carelessly and thoughtlessly through his duties.

Therefore, Freshmen, do not look upon the Freshman Council as your enemy, but as a friend always willing to help and guide your actions. The members of this august body do not want to have any more offenses than are committed brought up. However, they do want every just charge reported and the lawbreaker will be given his punishment, should it be found necessary to mete it out. The Freshman Rules are for your good, so do not frown upon them secretly or openly.

You have made a good start in the first several weeks of school. Keep it up.

We are glad to have you, Class of '29!

The Habit of Being On Time—Get It Now.

Let every student remember that he'll soon be looking for some "good job" under a really "big man" in some branch of "big business" and will be longing and hoping that the boss will soon promote him.

If these are your dreams, burn this fact into your brain, your hands, and your daily routine now, while your life-habits are hardening into unchangeable adamant.

I've known rather intimately several "big business" men. Almost every one is what the "fool kid" would call "a hopeless crank" on the subject of punctuality. I once saw a Christian business man lose big financial help and afterward go into bankruptcy because when we gathered at the millionaire's breakfast table he wasn't there. The big man almost insulted him when he came in with his laughing "good excuse," and after breakfast refused to have anything to do with his business enterprise, though all of us had considered his help certain.

Get the fixed habit, the incurable habit, the automatic habit of being on time, whether alone or with a "bunch of fellows," whether there are to be roll-calls and penalties or not, whether it is for a dinner, a church exercise, a recitation, or a "big exam." Get the habit of never manufacturing excuses because, in your case, excuses for not being "on time" are never needed.

"HOW TO STUDY"

The Students' Hand-Book of Practical Hints on the Technique of Effective Study

by

WILLIAM ALLAN BROOKS

A GUIDE containing hundreds of practical hints and short cuts in the economy of learning, to assist students in securing MAXIMUM SCHOLASTIC RESULTS at a minimum cost of time, energy, and fatigue.

ESPECIALLY RECOMMENDED for overworked students and athletes engaged in extra curriculum activities and for average and honor students who are working for high scholastic achievement.

Some of the Topics Covered

Scientific Shortcuts in Effective Study.	Diet During Athlete Training.
Preparing for Examinations.	How to Study Modern Languages.
Writing Good Examinations.	How to Study Science, Literature, etc.
Brain and Digestion in Relation to Study.	Why Go to College?
How to Take Lecture and Reading Notes.	After College, What?
Advantages and Disadvantages of Cramming.	Developing Concentration and Efficiency.
The Athlete and His Studies.	Etc., Etc., Etc., Etc., Etc., Etc., Etc.

Why You Need This Guide

"It is safe to say that failure to guide and direct study is the weak point in the whole educational machine." Prof. G. M. Whipple, University of Michigan.

"The successful men in college do not seem to be very happy. Most of them, especially the athletes are overworked." Prof. H. S. Canby, Yale.

"Misdirected labor, though honest and well intentioned may lead to naught. Among the most important things for the student to learn is how to study. Without knowledge of this his labor may be largely in vain." Prof. G. F. Swain, M. I. T.

"To students who have never learnt 'How to Study,' work is very often a chastisement, a flagellation, and an insuperable obstacle to contentment." Prof. A. Inglis, Harvard.

"HOW TO STUDY" will show you how to avoid all misdirected effort. Get a good start and make this year a highly successful one by sending for this hand-book and guide NOW.

MATHIS WORKING TWO SQUADS FOR PRACTICE

Bouts For Boxers With Virginia, Army, and Yale Already Scheduled.

An enthusiastic answer to the call for wrestlers and a poor one for boxers was the result of the first day of practice for the two squads. Coach Mathis urges all men who have any ability to report immediately, especially in the two heavier divisions. There are but a few old men out this year. Among them Captain M. P. Wilkinson in the 138 pound division, Manager Felsenthal in the 125 pound class, Heaton in the 135, and Lancaster in the 115 pound division.

The candidates for the wrestling squad numbered over forty, with several likely looking freshmen. Almost every weight is well represented except the 158 pound division. Captain W. E. Tilson, Holt, Walter, Yankee, Summerson, and Wigglesworth, all veterans, will be seen on the mats again this year.

Seven classes are included in each sport, the weights ranging from 115 to 175 pounds. Some men who will enter in the heavier classes are busy with football at present, but there are heavyweights who intend to try out this year who will begin the training grind immediately.

A number of bouts and meets have been scheduled already, with several more pending. Those arranged to date for the boxers are University of Virginia, Feb. 6; Army, Feb. 20, and Yale, Feb. 22. The wrestlers can be sure of meeting V. P. I. on Jan. 30; Navy, Feb. 6; N. C. State, Feb. 12; Franklin Marshall, Feb. 18, and Army, Feb. 20.

All candidates are urged to report promptly, the boxers at 4 o'clock, and the wrestlers at 5 o'clock.

Storer Loan Fund To Assist Students

The John H. Storer loan fund of $1,000 established three years ago at Washington and Lee University through the Harmon Foundation of New York City, has been renewed for the coming year.

This loan fund is intended to aid students who are in financial difficulties, and who want to obtain money through business methods rather than through charity. Those obtaining loans simply give their character as security, and repay the Foundation after leaving college. No collateral is necessary.

The maximum loan to any one student is $250.00. Except in unusual case no one will be granted the maximum amount. By this means it is hoped that a larger number of men can use the fund. Any student desiring a loan may apply to any member of the faculty committee in charge of the administration of this fund, consisting of Dr. W. M. Brown, Dr. L. J. Desha, and Prof. R. N. Latture.

Those eligible for the loan are students who are of junior grade or above, and who are partly or wholly working their way through college. High scholarship is desirable, but is not a requirement. One or more students to whom loans are made will be chosen to assist the faculty committee in administering the fund. Approximately $500.00 of the loan will be made during the first semester, the other $500.00 during the second semester of this year.

UNDAUNTED BY LOSS TO PURPLE HURRICANE

year's frosh and scrub elevens, the Princeton coaches have assembled a well-balanced forward wall, averaging close to 180 pounds. In the backfield the Tigers seem to be well fortified against all emergencies. Jake Slagle looks like the ideal triple threat man and proved his worth in the Amherst game when he led the attack, tossing passes and making brilliant runs with the ball. In Caulkins, their skillful quarterback, the Tigers have an efficient field general and with these two men reinforced by other speedy backs, the Princeton scoring machine will be hard to stop.

GENERALS DRUBBED BY TIGER IN 1920

and down in spirits, the Tigers unleashed a fearful aerial attack in the second half and had things their own way from then on. Princeton was penalized a total of seventy yards during the game, while the Generals were only forced to yield five yards in this way.

The third Tiger touchdown was the result of an intercepted forward pass, and using this method the rest of the game the Princeton team gained yardage at will. As the final whistle blew Washington and Lee intercepted a Tiger pass on their own one yard line, thus preventing another touchdown for Princeton. Captain Keck of the Tigers in this game is now one of Coach Roper's most able assistants in drilling the Princeton teams.

tive treatment in all cases short of broken bones.

Recalling the year of 1914, "Red" tells of the team that boasted of Captain Cy Young, star back, and "Battle" Bagby, 120-pound quarterback, both of whom distinguished themselves in playing behind a line composed of such men as "Fats" Miller, fast 165-pound guard. Looking forward to the future, the first aid and conditioning man says that he has promised some athletes now in school to be here twenty years from now to look after their sons who will come to follow in their fathers' steps as upholders of the Generals' glory and power.
