EXPECT HARD GAME WITH V. P. I. TONIGHT

Ten Men, in Addition to Coach Smith Left for Blacksburg Where Gobblers Will be Met Tonight.

GENERALS IN GOOD CONDITION

Carrying ten men, in addition to Coach Smith, Generals' court team lison, the Generals' basketball team left this morning in a special bus for Blacksburg, where they are scheduled to combat the V. P. I. Gobblers tonight. This is a return engagement of the game played here three weeks ago, in which the Blue and White trossers emerged victorious by a 43-to-30 score.

A light conditioning workout was held yesterday in preparation for the game, and the squad left in prime condition. The regular first string lineup, consisting of Lane and Captain Wilson at forwards, Spotts at center, and Urmey and Howe at guards is expected to start the game, although Coach Smith has ample reserve material on hand in the persons of Herndon and Shupp, forwards, Nance center, and Little and Eigelbach guards.

The Gobblers line up is expected to take the floor as it started here January 23, with Payne and Dear playing the forward positions, Johnson at center, and Pearman and Faulkner at guard. In the game in Doremus gym, Payne and Dear each accounted for twelve points, being lead in the scoring only by Spotts, who tallied sixteen markers. Lane with eleven aided materially in the locals' victory, while the entire Blue and White Team played consistently.

ENTRY BLANKS FOR PREP TOURNEY MAILED

Third Annual Basketball Tourney will be Held During Week-end of March 6, According to Present Plans.

Entry blanks were mailed today from the office of Graduate Manager R. A. Smith to prep schools and first class high schools in Virginia and neighboring states for their application for registration in the third annual Prep and High School Basketball Tournament, which will be held in Doremus gymnasium during the week ending Saturday March 6. Manager Smith is acting as director of the tournament.

While it is expected that championship play will begin the afternoon of Thursday, March 4, this cannot be definitely stated until the closing of the period for entries, which will be March 1. Last year twenty schools were represented by teams, and from the interest thus far manifested by letters of inquiry received here, the registration this year should go over the thirty mark. This growth will be attributed partly to the increase in interest on the part of Virginia schools and partly to the fact that for the first time in the history of the tournament the competition will be open to schools from without the state. This is expected to attract a number of West Virginia schools and others who have never before been entered.

Heads of Committees

While plans for the carrying out of the tentative arrangements are still in the process of formation, Director Smith has announced the following committee chairman, giving each one practically complete authority in carrying out his phase of the work: Richard S. Barnett, manager-elect of football, Finances and Advertising; Charles Allison, manager of basketball, Entertainment; Richard Thatcher, manager of baseball, Arrangement and Games; John Garber, manager of track; Reception; N. S. Lake, Forrest

Wrestlers Won Third Meet Last Night

Captain Tilson of Generals and Harrell of N. C. State Win by Falls; Others Decisions.

BLUE AND WHITE DEFEATS WOLF PACK

Washington and Lee's grapplers won their third successive meet last night in Doremus Gym when they defeated the wrestlers from N. C. State 17 to 8. There were only two falls, one going to Captain Tilson of Washington and Lee, and one to Harrell, of State. Captain Tilson's fall makes three falls and one decision for him in three meets this season. Washington and Lee won four events by decisions and one by a fall, to one decision and one fall for the Wolf Pack.

Driver of the Blue and White team, won the first match by a time decision over Spry, of the Wolf Pack, in the 115 pound class. Driver only succeeded in getting his opponent to the mat after 8 minutes of the time had elapsed. It was Driver's first match of the season. Time, 1 minute 6 seconds.

Burton, of W. & L., defeated Ginn, of State, in the 125 pound class after two extra periods. The two men had remained on their feet at the end of the ten minutes, but in the second extra period Burton stayed on top for 3 minutes. Time, 3 minutes.

Rule, of the Generals, defeated Kellam, of State, in the shortest decision match of the evening. Rule obtained a body scissors after 6 minutes and held his man for the rest of the match. Time, 5 minutes, 35 seconds.

In the 145 pound division Hicks, of State, defeated Walters, of Washington & Lee, after a spirited melee. The decision was the first victory for the Wolf Pack. Hicks was on top twice

FROSH CAGERS TAKE THEIR FOURTH STRAIGHT

Virginia Episcopal Goes Down by Score of 25 to 13 at Lynchburg Thursday Night.

Winning their fourth straight victory this season, the frosh cagers defeated Episcopal School by the score of 25 to 13 on the latter's court at Lynchburg Thursday night. Neither team could get under way in the first quarter, but Coach Twombly's charges succeeded in getting two field goals and three fouls near the end of the period to a single field goal for their opponents.

Early in the second half the Scholars started a determined rally, but this was soon checked by the Little Generals when Ebert caged the ball twice in succession. This rally tired the Hilltown quintet and the Blue and White team experienced little trouble in scoring from then on. The whistle ended the game with a total of 25 points for the Generals to 13 for the Episcopalians.

Ebert Star of Game

Ebert was the star of the game, accounting for five field goals. Groop was next with two and was matched by Goldsmith and Pinkerton of V. E. S. The members of the freshman team to make the trip were Ebert, Lowry, Lowden, Groop, Edwards, Spencer, Smith and Sproul.

Line-up:

Tryouts For Spring Troubadour Show Monday

Forty Men will be Needed for Cast and Chorus of Annual Spring Musical Comedy.

FIRST APPEARANCE APRIL 6

Two Road Trips now Under Consideration Management Says

Tryouts for the cast and chorus of the Troubadour spring show will begin Monday. These will be conducted on a strictly competitive basis and all men who have any talent for dancing or singing are urged to try out. About forty men will be needed.

As has been customary in the past, the spring show, which is the prime achievement of the organization, will be a musical comedy. Several good books have been submitted by students, which assures a good story. The Spanish theme will be the general trend of the show.

The first appearance of the musical comedy will be Tuesday, April 6th. The next day the show will be taken on the road for approximately a week's trip. At present two trips are under consideration, going respectively to Tennessee and West Virginia, but it is not known definitely which will be taken. An orchestra of about twelve pieces will also accompany the show.

INDOOR TRACK MEET IN RICHMOND TONIGHT

Virginia and Washington and Lee will Compete in Mile Relay Race to be Run in Richmond Indoor Track Meet Tonight.

Coach Forrest Fletcher has been busy during the past month grooming his indoor track performers for the meet which is being held tonight under the direction of Frank M. Dobson, Athletic Director of the University of Richmond. The events are being run in the armory of the Richmond Grays, and have become an annual contest for the possession of the large cup awarded by the Richmond Times-Dispatch to the winner of the competition.

The Indoor Games and Relay Carnival, as the meet is officially designated, is expected to surpass any meet of a similar sort which has preceded it. Last year University of Richmond, William and Mary, Maryland, N. C. U., and Virginia were represented in addition to the local track and field men, and this year all these and possible one or two more are entered. Both varsity and freshman competition is listed.

Mile Relay will Feature

A special feature of the meet will be a mile relay race to be run between the varsity teams of Virginia and W. and L. Coach Fletcher will enter Davis, Milbank, White, Summerson, Wilson, Gordon, and Clauch in this event, in an effort to beat the Cavalier runners.

The Times-Dispatch cup is awarded each year, and the winner of two years becomes permanent owner of the trophy. The Blue and White sprinters came out victorious last winter, and have drilled with the

"13" Club Announces New Pledges Today

13 Men Don White Hats in Recognition of Outstanding Prominence in Campus and Social Affairs.

The "13" Club, the oldest purely social organization on the Washington and Lee campus today announced its thirteen pledges for 1926. This organization annually elects thirteen members of the junior class for outstanding prominence in campus and social affairs.

The appearance of the white hats of the goats each year on Feb. 13 is hailed as one of the proverbial signs of spring.

The goating season continues until March 13 when the neophytes are made still more familiar with the symbolic "13."

The second of the Easter dances is sponsored by this club as well as the annual "13" banquet preceding the dance. Old members of the organization back this year are: L. L. Edgerton, C. W. Meadows, A. A. Payne, G. D. Conrad, C. W. Little, G. E. Burks, E. W. McCorkle, J. T. Bernheim, J. K. Thomas, G. T. W. Hendrix, E. P. Shoup, W. R. Henderson, J. Cook, R. M. Holt, H. M. Wilson, F. B. Waters.

BOXERS MEET CATHOLIC IN WASHINGTON TONIGHT

Lancaster, Felsenthal, Hearon, Price, Durham, and Streit Make Trip.

The White and Blue boxers will meet Catholic University at Washington, D. C., tonight, in the third meet of the season for the local pugs. The record so far has been an even break, with a defeat of V. P. I. chalked up, and a loss to Virginia.

The annual northern trip will come next on the Generals' schedule, when the Army, Yale and Colgate will be met. Coach Mathis was unable to accompany the team to Washington on account of the wrestling meet last night with N. C. State, but will meet them there today.

The following men made the trip: 115 pound class, Lancaster; 125 pound class, Felsenthal; 135 pound class, Hearon; 145 pound class, Price; 158 pound class, Durham; and 175 pound class Streit. There is no entry in the unlimited class.

YEARLING GRAPPLERS TIE A. M. A. IN MEET

No Time Decisions in Meeting of Two Teams Wednesday at Fort Defiance; Score 15 to 15.

The Yearling wrestling team tied Augusta Military Academy 15-15 in a meet at Fort Defiance on Wednesday February 10. The meet was marked by the number of falls, no time decisions being given, though three of the bouts went over time. The freshmen had previously defeated A. M. A. here.

Results of the bouts were as follows: 115 pound class, Pryor, A. M. A., won by a fall over Malone, W. and L., in 2 minutes, 50 seconds.

125 pound class, Wilkes, W. and L., won by a fall over Snead, A. M. A., in 2 minutes, 10 seconds.

135 pound class, Hudson, A. M. A., won by a fall over Ecker, W. and L., in an extra period.

145 pound class, Taylor, W. and L., won by a fall over Johnson, A. M. A., in 2 minutes, 30 seconds.

158 pound class, Meadows, W. and L., won by a fall over Halsinger, A. M. A., in an extra period.

175 pound class, Stone, A. M. A., won by a fall over Kelly, W. and L., in a second extra period.

All Juniors, Intermediate Lawyers and Seniors are requested to fill out their CALYX Activities Blanks at once. They may be found in the Cop, Newcomb and Tucker Halls.

TARHEELS BEST GENERALS' QUINT

North Carolina Proves Too Classy for Blue and White and Take Long End of 43 to 26 Score.

SPOTTS LEADS SCORING

Cobb and Newcombe Star for Chapel Hill Quint; Game Replete with Thrills.

Coach Sanborn's basketball trossers from North Carolina University proved too classy for the Generals' best Thursday night in a fast and spirited game in Doremus gym, and left for their home in Chapel Hill with the long end of a 43-to-26 score. The game was replete with some fine exhibitions of floor work and individual shooting, the stellar performances of both Cobb and Newcombe standing out in particular for the Tar Heels. These two elongated basketeers kept the crowd on edge, especially in the second half, with their spectacular shots from almost impossible lengths and angles of the floor. Spotts led the attack for Coach Smith's men, while Nance showed good form during the few minutes that he was in the game.

The defensive and offensive work of the Generals was hard and fast, but proved unable to cope with the short passing and continuous attack of the invaders. Urmey and Howe, together with Captain Wilson, did some good work in taking the ball out of the danger line throughout the fracas, and on many occasions turned a threatened Carolina landslide from its course. Lane, the plucky forward of the Generals, was severely handicapped as a result of an injury to his leg received in the West Virginia game Monday, and for this reason his work was below par. He often broke with the ball, however, and contributed heavily to the scoring of the locals by his pass work.

Tar Heels Use Second String

The Tar Heels started their second string men, but the furious attack of Captain Wilson and his cohorts swept them off their feet and kept the game close regardless of the visitors' best efforts. Wilson drew first blood for the locals when, after several minutes of play, he looped a neat field goal. Urmey followed with another, and, after Barber had netted one, Lane retaliated with another double counter. N. C. U. was forced to attempt many long shots, and, after ten minutes of play, Coach Sanborn called upon his first string men to enter and stave off what was rapidly becoming a decisive lead for the Generals. For some minutes the rush of the locals continued, but the fresh stars made their presence felt and the half ended with the Carolinians leading 19 to 14.

Cobb and Newcombe Star

Not taking any chances with the Fighting Generals, who were showing determination even in the face of their opponents' lead, the invaders contin-

CALYX BEAUTY SECTION DEADLINE FEB. 15

Eighteen Girls will be Picked for Section in Annual Immediately After that Date.

Through an arrangement made between the society editor of the Calyx and the engraver, the time limit on pictures for the beauty section of the annual has been extended to February 15. All pictures must be handed in to Carl Knight or Pete Maddux before that date, as selections will be made as soon as possible after that time. Eighteen pictures are to be selected for this section and the Society Editor will be personally responsible for their being returned at the earliest possible date.

Another Municipal Question

Tomorrow will be the third Sunday of the existence of the new rule in the Lexington post office allowing the clerks to put up no mail on the weekly holiday. For the third time in as many weeks, students, townspeople and others renting boxes will be inconvenienced by not receiving their mail on the first day of the week.

We are not in favor of Sabbath-breaking, or causing people to work on that day who would not ordinarily do so, but we think that putting up the mail in the Lexington post office on Sunday comes under the nomenclature of lawful occupations. Not being able to get one's mail on Sunday causes no end of inconvenience and unpleasantness for a fairly large number of people. The Ring-tum Phi does not as a general thing advocate reforms which add to people's worries. Putting up the mail on Sunday might add to the duties of the clerks in the office, but in comparison with this, look at the trouble caused the thousand and box renters of Lexington.

We hope that some action will be taken on this question by the government authorities and that in the near future Sunday mail will be put up in the Lexington post office as formerly.

A Mystery Dissolves

Some time ago the Ring-tum Phi wondered what organization was the perpetrator of the "blackhawks" legend on the sidewalks of the campus. Day before yesterday part of the mystery was solved by the name of Theta Nu Epsilon signed under the radical sign.

So they weren't Boy Scouts after all, as supposed by some, but the representatives of a full fledged national organization, wielding considerable power at many institutions of learning.

THE COLLEGE WORLD

Sophomore co-eds at the University of Colorado have formed a police corps for the purpose of enforcing the rule which forbids the wearing of high school insignia, rings, pins, and to arrest all first year co-eds who shall fail to wear their freshman badges. All co-eds arrested are arraigned before the Queen's Bench and if guilty, are given a trial and punishment is inflicted. The cops wear policemen's stars.

President Marion Edwards Park of Bryn Mawr said, in explaining the removal of the ban on smoking at that institution that, "No democracy can keep on its books a regulation no longer resting on intelligent public opinion."

Only seniors will be permitted to support mustaches at the University of Idaho.

The co-eds of Bradley Polytechnic are holding a "suppressed desire" dance for co-eds only. Each frolicker will reveal her unexpressed wishes and dress exactly as she wishes regardless of fashion, taste, or modesty.

Working one's way through college is made easy and interesting at the University of Chicago. The employment bureau there has placed men as detectives, opera ushers, bouncers in dance halls, and artist's models.

Razzberry walk is the name given by the University Daily Kansan to the walk in front of the law building there. The title was bestowed because a number of students gather there to pass flippant remarks upon the passers-by.

The student body of Furman University gave their football coach, Bill Daval, his annual "pounding." This consisted of a shower of sugar, coffee, sacks of flour and other good things to eat.

Antioch College has published a bulletin entitled "Tobacco and Scholarship." This bulletin is the result of an investigation among the students to find the effect of smoking on physique and scholarship.

President's Paragraph

No. 27 1925-26

A FOUR YEAR SCHOLARLY TRIUMPH

Supposition Number Two

Suppose that on entrance you consulted a "leading professor" who recognized your exceptional brains and personality, urged the great importance of "pure scholarship" and future "research", and outlined for you a "liberal" course of abstract disciplinary studies, untainted by any connection with future "money-making", or narrow "vocationalism", or non-literary "practical use" in your future life, or just because you "liked the subject." Suppose you finally "majored" during the last two years in Department XY, because the professor was a "good friend" of yours and a well-known "easy grader", and because he had personally urged you to do "advanced work" in his "unrivaled" branch of human knowledge.

"That's my work" — said Angelo, as he signed his Moses. "That's my work" said Stevenson as he put his name to Treasure Island. "That's my work" is just the idea we have in mind when we stamp the KNOX* name in a hat.

*The Knox "Fly" Avenue for Spring is priced at eight dollars and gives unusual wear coupled with great style satisfaction.

Graham & Father

A group of eastern professors now at Oregon Agricultural College believe that there is widespread difference between western and eastern college students. The average western student attends college for the practical value to be gained more than for the purely cultural side.

"Women always have been and always will be stronger than man", was the remark with which assistant Professor Lawson of the University of Denver surprised his sociology class.

CAMPUS GREEKS GIVING GOATS WEEK OF INITIATION HELL

It's being done just now! The day of the fraternity neophyte is here.

Fishing in the pail across from The Corner, counting the bricks between the post office and the journalism building, directing traffic, sweeping Lexington's streets, selling the courthouse, wearing "flaming youth" ties, orating and singing to those who will listen—all this is being done, for the time of horseplay is come.

By the way, what is that dark object in the branches of yon tree? Is it an escaped vulture from "The Lost World"? It has long flapping arms, and a high voice wearily is cuckooing out the hours. It is merely a goat imitating his friend, the cuckoo. And who is this pushing a baby carriage? And who is the baby in the carriage, its piercing wails breaching the quiet peace of this Virginia village?

And here comes a sailor, two coca-cola bottles in hand as binoculars. He sweeps the streets in his vision, and his gaze alights on one unfortunate "Ah, ha," exclaims the briny one, "So the missing link is found at last." Did his gaze rest upon you?

That freshman with the worried mien is searching for the inherent pulchritude of a cot. His fraternity brothers also desire that he bring them a disappearing left-handed monkey wrench, a wreath heather, and similar obscure objects.

Those journeying up Main street in the late twilight are about to take up their nocturnal visit with the dead—their fate is to search for hidden messages among the graves of the departed.

It's being done. So, dear campus, expect anything.

Adjoining Institution Acquires New Boxing and Wrestling Coaches Following Recent Upheaval.

The V. M. I. boxers and wrestlers will be seen throughout this winter's grind without the coaching of their old mentors, Willie Corbett, for the pugs, and Percy Quinlan, of the grapplers. These two coaches gave up their positions at the neighboring school shortly after the first of January.

The Cadet athletic authorities were quick to secure capable successors for the two, however, and within a very short time had signed William Shine, of New Brunswick, N. J., to coach the boxers, and Johnny Player, of Wheaton, Ill., to take charge of the institute's limb twisters. Shine has appeared in the ring as a pro performer for the past ten years, and is said to be a man of exceptional ability, especially along instructional lines. Player is a former teammate of Coach Mathis, of the local wrestling and boxing teams, and served as captain of the Illinois squad during his attendance there. He also held the Big Ten Conference championship in his weight.

Corbett is at present completing his law course at Washington and Lee, while Quinlan has joined the coaching staff of the University of North Carolina.

WHEN you've kicked off the pumps and tossed the collar on the table, while the music is still singing in your brain and memories of one dancing deb in particular crowd your thoughts, fill your pipe with Prince Albert and light up. Make it a night of nights.

P. A. is so genuinely friendly. It hits your smoke-spot in deep center right off the bat. Doesn't bite your tongue or parch your throat, because the Prince Albert process said "nix on the rough stuff" at the very beginning. Just cool contentment in every perfect puff.

Don't put off till tomorrow what you can smoke today. Get a tidy red tin of P. A. now. Snap back the hinged lid and release that wonderful fragrance. Tamp a load into the bowl of your jimmy-pipe and light up. Now you've got it . . . that taste. Say—isn't that the goods now?

P. A. is sold everywhere in tidy red tins, pound and half-pound tin humidors, and pound crystal-glass humidors with sponge-moistener top. And always with every bit of bite and parch removed by the Prince Albert process.

GENERALS' UIN

ued using their first team in the second period. It was during this half that Cobb and Newcombe went into action at top speed, and, with stellar work on the part of their guards, increased their lead until it amounted to seventeen points at the end of the game. Nance went in for a short while and aided in stemming the Carolina tide, and later Spotts returned to the game. Herndon substituted for Lane, who was forced to retire on account of his injury, but the attack of the Tar Heels could not be effectually stopped.

The North Carolina University quintet's game with the Generals Thursday night was the last battle of a seven-game Northern trip. The Tar Heels were victorious in four of the games of the invasion, and lost the three remaining by very slight margins. The only teams which emerged victors over Coach Sanborn's tossers were the Navy, which won out by one point after two extra periods had been played, Maryland, which also conquered by a single marker, and the Harvard Crimson, which led the way with three points to spare when the final whistle blew.

during the encounter, once for 1 minute, 4 seconds and once for 29 seconds. Time 1 minute, 33 seconds. Harrell, of State, threw Garvin, of W. and L., in the 158 pound class after 21 seconds of the second extra period. Time 13 minutes 21 seconds. Captain Tilson, of the Blue and White, threw Nicholson, of State, in the 175 pound class in slightly over 8 minutes. The match was marred by an injury to Nicholson's arm when he fell to the mat. Time 8 minutes, 25 seconds.

In the unlimited class Seligman, of W. & L., obtained a time decision over Lamb, of State. This match was not carried into extra periods and was won by a narrow margin. Time 1 minute 4 seconds.
