

STAGE READY FOR EASTER HOPS MONDAY

Dances of Cotillion Club and "13" Club To Feature Holiday Prom Season Next Week.

All preparations for the Easter set of dances are nearing completion, and the stage will be set on Monday night for the event when the strains of Oliver Naylor's orchestra sets the first dance of the two-dance series in motion.

The Cotillion Club dance on Monday night will be the opening dance, and will be led by George Maynard, president of the club.

The second night will be marked by the "13" Club dance, led by E. W. McCorkle, president of the club.

Oliver Naylor's orchestra, which pleased local dancers so much during the mid-winter set of dances, will furnish the music for this set of dances, and although a number of students will be out of town for the holidays, the dances are expected to be a great success.

Dance Regulations.

T. L. Seehorn, vice-president of the student body, announced today that the Dance Regulations will be strictly enforced by the Floor Committee at the Easter set of dances. This will be the second time so far this year that the new regulation will be in force, and the committee hopes that it will prove as successful this time as it did at the last basketball informal.

Under this regulations, if a student expects to attend the dance at night he must have abstained from use of intoxicants after four o'clock in the afternoon. Being denied the privilege of attending all further dances for the period one a calendar year is the penalty for breaking this Dance Regulation.

VIRGINIA STARTS FIRST LACROSSE IN STATE TILTS

First State Intercollegiate Match Played Between Virginia and Randolph-Macon Yesterday.

Yesterday afternoon at Lambeth field University of Virginia and Randolph-Macon engaged in what is believed to be the first lacrosse game in the annals of Virginia intercollegiate athletics. For a few seasons more than twenty years ago Virginia had a lacrosse team, but the sport died out till last year.

Last spring the sport was given a trial in two games with the L'Hirondelle Club of Baltimore and it proved to be so popular that a regular place has been found for it in the universities' athletic calendar.

Dr. Allan F. Voshell, a former star of the Johns Hopkins team is coaching the players. The team is captained by B. F. Thompson and E. A. Alderman is the student manager.

Five games have already been placed on the schedule by D. E. Brown, the graduate manager of athletics of the university. The team has had no actual experience in action and it was thought wisest not to arrange too many games the first year.

GARBER IMPROVED BUT NOT ABLE TO RETURN

John Garber, manager of the Generals' 1926 track team, who has been ill in a hospital at Harrisonburg for the past two weeks, is reported as being somewhat better and is resting easily at present, although his condition is not improving rapidly. He is still in considerable danger, according to reports received from the attendant physician.

Regardless of the rapidity of Garber's improvement, it is very doubtful that he will be able to return to school this semester. Complications have arisen which cause his case to be serious.

Track Team Scores Victory Over Duke

Captain Davis Outstanding Performer In 70 To 58 Win Over Durhmites.

Washington and Lee, in its initial dual track meet of the present season, defeated the fleet-footed Duke University trackmen Thursday afternoon 70 to 58. The entire team showed up exceptionally well and ran in mid-season form. Coach Forrest Fletcher was very well pleased with the showing made by the team.

Captain Davis, of the Generals, was the outstanding star and high point man for the Blue and White. Davis captured first place in the high hurdles, the low hurdles, and the 220 yard dash.

Frosh Paint Town Red On Annual Rule Raising

Campus Walks Spread With Class Numerals In Bright Red—Statue Painted Also.

The class of '29 fittingly celebrated occasion of the annual lightening of all freshman rules on Thursday night by literally "painting the town red." The numerals "29" were profusely applied in a deep red hue on the walks of the campus on Friday morning, and the freshman class seems to have done a good job.

The annual custom, which comes immediately preceding the Easter holidays, includes the doffing of freshman hats, painting class numerals on walks, rushing the movie show, burning caps in a bonfire, and creating a noisy celebration, not to mention the painting of the statue of George Washington, which adorns the top of Washington College, in the class colors.

The newly liberated frosh will, however, wear civilian caps or hats the rest of the year, this being the only sign that marks them from upperclassmen.

Dr. Allen H. Foster To Speak Here Again

Educational Secretary Once More To Address Students On "Science and Religion"—Is Remembered From Last Year.

Dr. Allyn K. Foster, who last year visited the campus of W. and L., speaking on "Science and Religion" in the regular classes and also at special meetings, will be here again this year on April 11, 12, and 13. Dr. Foster made a good impression on both students and faculty last year. For the past five years Dr. Foster has been visiting colleges and universities all over America seeking to show that a sympathetic understanding of the form and findings of science immensely deepens our conception of religion.

Dr. Foster is educational secretary of the Board of the Northern Baptist Church. He holds degrees from the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, Yale, and Brown. During the war he was engaged in Y. M. C. A. special work with the army overseas in France and Germany.

Favorable reports about Dr. Foster are received from every university that he visits. Professor Howard A. Carter of the department of physics and astronomy of the University of Georgia says of him: "Dr. Foster is well informed in Science, and he is an interesting speaker. The students gave him unusual attention. Dr. Foster's ability to unite the findings of science and religious truths is, indeed, most urgent and necessary to us."

On Sunday, April 11, Dr. Foster will speak in two of the local churches. Monday and Tuesday, April 12 and 13, Dr. Foster will speak in some of the classes and at 7:30 Tuesday night at a meeting in the Y. M. C. A.

PRESS CONVENTION PROGRAM SWELLED BY NEW FEATURES

Sixty Delegates To Submit Publications For Cup Awards—Miss Annie White and Roanoke Clergyman Are Recent Additions To Banquet Program.

DR. EASTER TOASTMASTER

Sixty delegates have registered for the meetings of the Southern Interscholastic Press Association meetings to be held here Monday and Tuesday, April 5 and 6. Distance records are to date held by delegates from Oxford, Mississippi, and Tuscaloosa, Alabama.

Major John S. Cohen, editor of "The Atlanta Journal," telegraphed yesterday that he would give two silver loving cups to be known as the "Atlanta Journal Prizes." These cups were substituted for two cups which were to be the donations of the Southern Newspaper Publishers' Association. The latter organization is giving one other cup, while the university is the donor of four cups to be known as the "Lee Journalism Prizes."

Miss Annie White, who was personally acquainted with General Lee, will give a reminiscent talk at the banquet. Dr. D. B. Easter, as toastmaster at this affair, will read an address written for the occasion by Richard T. Edmonds, editor of "The Manufacturer's Record." The address has been forwarded by Mr. Edmonds from his winter home in Florida. Mr. Edmonds has also loaned a framed placard to the banquet.

FROSH PROVE SELVES CHAMP PUSHBALLERS

Score Goal In Each Period In Contest With Sophomores.

The class of '29, made bold by the knowledge that there will be no more Freshman Council meetings, secured sweet revenge for the injustices of the past six months by fighting its way to a 12 to 0 decision over the sophomores in the annual pushball battle on Wilson field Thursday afternoon.

The sophomores were severely handicapped by the fact that only fourteen men, led by Captain J. L. Rule, were on hand to oppose the freshman array of thirty. The freshman team was cut to twenty. The superior numbers combined with the vengeful spirit of the first year men proved too much for sophomores, and a gain of ten yards, followed by a goal, gave the twenty-niners an eleven point lead at the end of the five-minute half.

During the half, Referee Twombly ruled out all freshmen wearing baseball or football shoes, and this evened the sides to fourteen each.

The frosh, led by Captains J. R. Moffett and John Stannard, scored another goal in the final period after a bitter fight which was featured by slugging, wrestling, and general roughness, making the score 12 to 0.

Tarheels Fall Before Generals' Cindermen

Captain Davis Breaks Southern Conference Low Hurdle Record At Chapel Hill Meet.

The Blue and White track team won its second victory of the North Carolina invasion on Friday afternoon when the University of North Carolina went down before the Generals' 88 to 38. An outstanding event of the meet was the breaking of the Southern Conference low hurdles record by Bill Davis, captain of the 1926 Blue and White cindermen.

Troubadour Show To Go On Road After Play Here

Will Leave Wednesday After Performance Here Tuesday Afternoon—To Play In Three States.

Almost before the echoes of the annual Easter Troubadour show on Tuesday afternoon will have died away, the complete cast of the show and the Troubadour orchestra will embark on their road trip that will carry them through three states before returning to Lexington. The Troubadour show, which this year is being presented as a musical comedy entitled "For Pete's Sake," will be presented at the New Theatre here on Tuesday afternoon, and on Wednesday will be carried to Welsh, W. Va., where it will play that night. It will be presented on the following three night in Bluefield, W. Va.; Bristol, Tenn.-Va., and Johnson City, Tenn.

A total of forty men, which includes the entire cast and orchestra, will make the trip, accompanied by the executives of the Troubadours and Professor John A. Graham. All scenery and costumes which will be used in the Tuesday show here will be carried on the trip, and the presentation of the musical comedy will be greatly enhanced by having the Troubadour orchestra at each performance. The entire organization will return here on Sunday night.

SPRING FOOTBALL SCORES SECOND CASUALTY OF YEAR

Second Tackle Receives Broken Leg Wednesday During Scrimmage.

The second major casualty of the spring football training season occurred Wednesday afternoon, when another tackle received a broken leg during practice scrimmage on Wilson field. The first serious mishap was the injury in the form of a cracked bone which happened several weeks ago.

A regular tackle on the freshman eleven last fall, the second tackler, was playing in the defensive line when injured. A center rush by the opposing team resulted in piling men on his side of the line, and his leg was twisted under him. The injured man was rushed to the hospital, where an x-ray showed that the small bone of his left leg had been broken a short distance above the ankle. The fracture was reduced and put in a cast, and, although the member has been giving some pain since, no trouble is anticipated in the knitting process by physicians in attendance.

Southern College Papers Will Confer at Tulane

Ring-tum Phi Included In List of Twelve Newspapers Invited To Attend Confab At Tulane.

The formation of a Southern Intercollegiate Press Conference will be the purpose of a convention to be held at Tulane University this spring by representatives of prominent Southern college newspapers.

Those papers to which an invitation to participate in the conference has been issued are: The Auburn Plainsman, Auburn; The Tar-Heel, University of North Carolina; The Ring-tum Phi, Washington and Lee University; The Yellow Jacket, Georgia Tech; The Purple, Sewanee University; The Gator, University of Florida; The Diamondback, University of Maryland; The Reveille, Louisiana State University; College Topics, University of Virginia; The Commodore, Vanderbilt University; The Crimson-White, University of Alabama; The Kernel, University of Kentucky; The Hullabaloo, Tulane University.

Penn Team Downed In Diamond Opener By Score of 9 to 8

Slugging Contest Brings Retained Lead To Generals In Seventh Inning.

PITCHERS TOUCHED OFTEN

Ragged Playing Done By Penn Team In Lattermost Innings.

Washington and Lee's Fighting Generals started the season of 1926 by defeating the powerful nine from the University of Pennsylvania 9 to 8 on Wilson field yesterday afternoon. This is the first time this season that the Quakers have been defeated, having beaten the University of Virginia by the scores of 9-3 and 3-1, and Drexel University 9-3.

Penn opened the game with two runs, while the Generals annexed only one tally in their half of the inning. Thomas, lead-off man for the Quakers, struck out and Cole drew a walk. Mummell came to bat and after taking two strikes, polled the ball out of center field for a home run and scored Cole ahead of him. Tremper rolled a slow one to Maben and was thrown out at first for the second out. Fields secured a Texas leaguer for one base, but died there when Lindsey went out, Eigelbach to Spotts. Palmer went out, Trashjan to Lindsay, on a grounder, but Seehorn smashed out a three-bagger and then scored as Eigelbach got to first on a fielder's choice. Stearns made a safe single through short and Spotts went out on a slow one to the pitcher. Eigelbach scored the tying run. Jolliffe drew a walk, but Jones struck out, retiring the side.

Quakers Score Two.

Score: Generals, 1; Quakers, 2. The Quakers scored two runs to nothing in the second inning. Trashjan's fly was caught by Jolliffe and Connell drew a walk, taking second on Maben's wild pitch. Kruze got a double, scoring Connell and then took third on a pass ball. Thomas got a single, scoring Kruze from third. Thomas stole second and went to third on Cole's single. Mummell went out on a slow one to Maben and Tremper retired the side when he fanned. The Generals went out one, two, three, when Tips grounded to the pitcher, Maben fanned and Palmer flew out to Tremper.

Fields walked but was caught between first and second when he attempted to steal. Lindsay fanned and Trashjan went out, short to first. Seehorn flew out to second. Eigelbach got to first on Cole's error and went to second on Stearns' single through second. Spotts scored a triple and scored Stearns and

National Amateur Champ Turns to Pro Boxing Ring

George Mulholland, Butler Star, and Olympic Athlete, Turns Pro Boxer.

When "Red" Grange, the Illinois football star and all-American, went "pro," he set the minds of the college athletes to professional sports. The latest college athlete to turn professional was George Mulholland, guard on the Butler football team of Indianapolis, Indiana. But Mulholland is not going into professional football, he is going to become a pugilist. Followers of amateur boxing will remember him as the national amateur light heavyweight champion who went to Europe as a member of the American Olympic boxing team. Like Grange, Mulholland's decision was met with a great deal of adverse criticism at Butler, but now the undergraduates and alumni of his college understand his motives and are now cheering for him.

Enemies, Yet Friends.

The joint banquet held in New York City last night by the alumni of the Universities of Virginia and Washington and Lee in honor of Dr. Charles A. Graves was somewhat of an innovation in the relations of the two schools. Alumni of "friendly enemies" meeting around the same banquet board to do honor to a son of both institutions is somewhat of an unusual occurrence.

While the University of Virginia and Washington and Lee are bitter rivals for athletic and social supremacy, they are both children of the Old Dominion State. Such children generally disagree on matters of minor importance, but come together at times for a common cause. Such was the case last night when alumni of each institution met together in good fellowship to honor Dr. Graves, at present a faculty member of the University of Virginia, and an alumnus and former teacher of W. and L.

Meetings of this sort help the spirit of all concerned and draw students and alumni closer together in the bonds of honors held jointly. True fellowship is strengthened in the things that count, so that sons of each alma mater are proud to have such a distinguished rival.

Welcome, Journalists!

Tomorrow night and Monday morning will see the arrival at Washington and Lee of many of our younger brothers from high and preparatory schools of the South. They come this time as experts with the pen rather than of the basketball. Not to improve their teams, but to improve their publicity sources upon which much athletic success depends, will be the purpose of the First Annual Southern Interscholastic Press Convention to be held at Washington and Lee Monday and Tuesday.

Many of our guests will be in Lexington for the first time. Others will be merely returning after a previous visit. But all will be here for the common cause of helping scholastic journalism and bringing its personnel into closer contact. Work of this type will not occupy the minds of our guests entirely, we hope. To get something of the ideals and traditions of Washington and Lee and become friends of her sons, should be partly their purpose. To do this they will be given a glimpse of W. and L. in one of her gladdest moods. Athletics, social functions, movies, and several entertainments are scheduled to take place during Easter. These, along with the discussions of the convention, should prove sufficient to keep everyone busy until the final whistle blows.

And visiting journalists, we are glad to have you with us. Whatever is within our power to increase your comfort and pleasure in Lexington, we will do. Washington and Lee is at your service!

Safety First.

This may hardly be the place for a hackneyed motto such as that, but we feel that all members of the student body should keep it in mind at the approaching Easter dances. Careful observance of the recently inaugurated Dance Regulations will mean that dances at Washington and Lee will continue to be held at the usual times. Disobedience of these and conviction of many members of the student body for the crime, is liable to mean the suspension or abolition of dances at W. and L., depending upon the action of the faculty.

Everyone agrees that without dances, life here would be nothing at all, but the traditional scholastic grind with a few week-end trips thrown in. With dances this monotony is broken in several strategic spots, much to the delight of the fair sex, as well as students.

We sincerely trust that every man at Washington and Lee during the Easter dances will realize his full responsibility to his school and his fellows in observing the Dance Regulations. None could be so rash or so selfish as to bring disgrace and punishment on the whole student body because of his own desire to enjoy himself in the forbidden way at dances.

BY SCORE OF 9 TO 8

Eigelbach. Spotts was caught between third and home when he attempted to come in on Jolliffe's fielder's choice. Jones got a single but Jolliffe was caught off second.

Score: Generals, 3; Quakers, 4.
Connell grounded out to second, and Kruse fanned. Thomas got a single, but was caught trying to steal second. Tips fanned. Maben went out on a grounder to the mound and Palmer lifted a high one to right field.

Score: Generals, 3; Quakers, 4.
Generals Even Score.

The Generals evened the score in the fifth. Cole went out, second to first, but Hummell got a pretty single over second and went to that bag when Tremper grounded out to short. Fields got a single and scored Hummell. Lindsay fanned. Seehorn got to the initial sack on Trashjan's error. Eigelbach fanned. Stearns singled and put Seehorn on third. Stearns went to second when Spotts grounded out to short, and took third on an error by shortstop. Jolliffe doubled and Stearns scored. Jones fanned.

Score: Generals, 5; Quakers, 5.

Trashjan singled and stole second. Connell flew out to center field and Trashjan stole third. Kruse drew a pass and stole second. Trashjan scored on Maben's wild pitch and Kruse went to third. Thomas went out to left field. Cole walked and scored on Hummell's single through short. Hummell went to third on the center fielder's error. Tremper lifted a high one to right field. The Generals scored three runs to even the score in their half of the inning. Tips singled and stole second. Wilkinson fanned. Palmer grounded out to second. Seehorn lined out a beautiful homer and scored Tips. Eigelbach singled over second, and stole second. Eigelbach scored when Stearns got to first on an error by short. Spotts got to second on left field's error. Stearns was caught off third.

Score: Generals, 8; Quakers, 8.
Jolliffe Scores Winner.

Fields went out to second. Lindsay flew to center and Trashjan got a single. Connell made third out by flying to left field. Jolliffe scored what turned out to be the winning run for the Generals when he singled and took second on Jones' sacrifice. Tips fanned. Wilkinson scored Jolliffe with a pretty single and took second on the fielder's error. Spotts, running for Wilkinson, was caught at the plate.

Score: Generals, 9; Quakers, 8.

The Quakers retired on three fly balls, Thomas to center. Cole to short and Hummell to left field. Knoblach's single did not help as it opened the inning. Seehorn grounded to first. Eigelbach fanned and Stearns lifted one to left field.

Score: Generals, 9; Quakers, 8.

Tremper went out to second. Fields took first when he was hit by Wilkinson. Lindsay grounded to second and Trashjan to short to end the game.

Baseball's opening game saw both teams hitting the ball frequently and using relief hurlers, but even these were not able to hold down the deluge of base hits. The features of the game were Jolliffe's sensational rough-ground fielding and Seehorn's homer and triple. Cole also polled out a pretty circuit clout.

The subjects constituting one's education are to be valued in proportion as they strengthen and enrich life. This, in Spencer's matured judgment, would rate the five elements of an all-round education as follows:

First. Those relating to the Person, personal health, personal habits, personal character, personal standards.

Second. Those constituting one's Vocational or Professional Training.

Third. Those preparing one for effective Parenthood and the Rearing of a Family.

Fourth. Those preparing one for future Citizenship and Public Service.

Fifth. Those fitting the individual for esthetic Appreciation and Enjoyment.

HONOR MILITARY SCHOOLS IN STATE

Virginia with four "honor" military schools, has more of these institutions than any state in the Union, it was pointed out today at the office of Adjutant-General W. W. Sale.

These schools are: Blacksburg Military Academy, Blackstone; Staunton Military Academy, Staunton; Augusta Military Academy, Fort Defiance, and Fishburne Military Academy, Waynesboro.

An inspection board of the war department will begin its annual inspections of the twenty-five "honor" schools throughout the country on April 5. No other state has more than three.

The colors start with the always correct blues and go on to gay mixtures, very light grays, contrasting over-plaids and other designs that are still just as correct, but far less conservative.

And—in every case—the materials have been put through our own tests to prove they're the best of all-wool and color fast.

SCHOOLS ALIGNED FOR HONOR SYSTEM FRAY

The annual honor system battle has begun. Information received by The New Student makes it possible to draw up two mythical teams, composed of Universities which favor and those which oppose the code. It turns out to be a game of Pacific Coast vs. Middle West, the Coast champions and the Prairies challenging the honor system.

In favor are: the University of Washington (on one year's trial), Stanford, Southern California, Southern Branch. All these rely on student "honor" in some form or other.

Opposed: Illinois, Michigan, Nebraska, Wisconsin, Chicago; while strenuous efforts are under way to capture the University of Texas for the opposition. All these rely on faculty spies. The rest of the South and the East have not been heard from, except scatteringly.

Chairman Rogers of the faculty-student committee on the honor system at the University of Texas feels that things are in a bad way. "The student body is too big physically and too small mentally to accept an honor system. They want all the privileges and none of the responsibilities. Of the hundred odd cases the Men's Council has decided this year, a total of five were submitted by students, and of these, three got cold feet and refused to testify against the defendants. All the others were submitted by faculty members.

"The faculty members are not cooperating. In some instances faculty members have been heard to tell their classes that they should not under any circumstances report violations. The faculty, regardless of how frequently they are pried up, will not read the pledge.

"Most of the cheating takes place outside of the classroom where the examinations are held. The regular price charged for passing a final exam is $5.00, while a standard price of $25.00 is charged for passing a course in correspondence. I am asking the committee to abolish the entire honor system."

quiet committee which displays the industrial status of the southern states.

"What the Church Expects of the Newspaper" is the subject of an address by the Reverend Mr. Carl Owen of Roanoke which was added to the banquet program recently. The addition of these features has been made within the last few days.

THE COLLEGE WORLD

In what possibly is the first intercollegiate spelling bee, the University of Oklahoma spellers defeated the Oklahoma A. & M. College. Each player was automatically eliminated after he had misspelled a word.

Freshmen at Drake University who were pledged to fraternities were forced to release fair co-eds from their arms at a dance and were paddled by upperclassmen.

The new rules for the girls of the Women's College of Bucknell University permit girls to "fuss" in the stadium until six o'clock in the evening, but the cemetery is considered as being "out of limits."

The Men's Council of the University of Kansas passed a rule limiting the number of "stags" at varsity dances.

SOUTHERN COLLEGE PAPERS WILL HAVE CONFERENCE

tercollegiate Press Conference will be similar in its workings to the Pacific Coast Intercollegiate Press Association, the Big Ten Conference and others. It would have for its purpose the fixing and maintenance of standards, the regulations of reprinting, the study of editorial policies and general co-operation.

Several Washington and Lee men left Friday to attend the Bruce Curry Bible Institute which is being held at the University of Virginia on April 2, 3, and 4. Among those attending the institute are: R. W. Simmons, Harry Neel, Mr. W. W. Morton, John Pilley, E. L. Stewart and Karl Zerfoss.

When old grads drop in—and around the fire experiences of them are fondly retold—have a Camel!

WHEN famed men return. And by dancing firelight they relate their stories of old—have a Camel!

For Camel helps all men who rise proudly to rise higher and more jauntily. Camels never harm or tire your taste, no matter how plentifully you smoke them. You'll never find more friendly flavor than you get in Camels.

So this night when those from long ago return to think of the roads that join. As you see in their past your future unfold, then zestfully taste the smoke that's prized by the world's experienced.

Have a Camel!

Our highest wish, if you do not yet know Camel quality, is that you try them. We invite you to compare Camels with any cigarette made at any price.

R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Company Winston-Salem, N. C.

Into the making of this one cigarette goes all of the ability of the world's largest organization of expert tobacco men. Nothing is too good for Camels. The choicest Turkish and Domestic tobaccos. The most skillful blending. The most scientific package. No other cigarette made is like Camels. No better cigarette can be made. Camels are the overwhelming choice of experienced smokers.
