State Rivals Clash On Diamond Today

Baseball Team Meets University of Virginia in First of Contests at Charlottesville.

NO DEFEAT SINCE 1924

Prospects Bright For Continuation of Recent Unmarred Record.

Coach R. A. Smith and seventeen members of the varsity baseball squad left Lexington this morning by bus for Charlottesville for the first 1926 baseball clash with the Cavaliers. Coach Smith has been driving his charges hard for the past few days in preparation for today's battle.

Virginia has not triumphed over Washington and Lee nines since the first game of the 1924 series, and the Generals are out to continue their winning streak. In the second game of the '24 series, Lindberg set the Cavaliers down on the short end of a 4 to 2 score, and last year he pitched the locals to two more victories, the first a 5 to 4 thriller, and the second a 3 to 0 shutout.

To date, Virginia has won from Rutgers and North Carolina and lost a two-game series to Pennsylvania. Yesterday she lost to Richmond, 7 to 6. The Generals are still undefeated, having whipped Pennsylvania, Cornell, and Richmond.

It was announced yesterday that Folliard would labor on the mound for the Blue and White today. Fred Darlington, Virginia's ace, has not toiled since the game with North Carolina, and it is probable that "Greasy" Neale will start him against the Generals.

Those making the trip were Captain Seehorn, Tips, Spotts, Palmer, Eigelbach, Stearns, Jolliffe, Johnston, Folliard, Warthen, Fossett, Ginsburg, Maben, Woolwine, Wilkinson, Jones, Ritchie, and Manager Thatcher.

Wolfpack to Run Against Generals

N. C. State Cindermen To Come Here For Track Meet On Monday.

The strong North Carolina State track team arrived in Lexington today to meet the Generals in the first home meet of the season, which is scheduled for 3 o'clock Monday.

The Blue and White cindermen have been put through a week of strenuous training in preparation for the Wolfpack's visit. Carolina brings to Lexington one of the strongest aggregations of track and field men in the south. The Wolfpack cindermen scored a victory over Elon College of 12 to 6. Thus far the Generals have defeated Duke, but were forced to bow to North Carolina University.

Garber Will Retain Position As Manager

Possibility of Return Precludes Election of Successor For Track Management.

In the hope that John Garber, manager of the 1926 track team, who has been ill in a hospital in Harrisonburg, will return to school before the end of the present track season, no one will be appointed manager of track to fill his place.

There remains only one more meet away from home, and Coach Fletcher will take care of the duties of manager and coach. In the meets held on Wilson field, the responsibilities and duties of the manager will rest upon the two junior managers, J. P. Moore and W. H. Brown.

SPRING INFORMAL TO BE CLIMAX OF CONFERENCE

Washington and Lee will have its first spring informal next Saturday, April 24, as a closing feature of the Southern Federation of Colleges' conference. This conference, which is to be held here next week, is meeting with Washington and Lee as the host.

The informal will be the second of the semester. Music will be furnished by the Southern Collegians.

The dance is to be sponsored by the Cotillion club. George Maynard, president of the club, expressed the hope that there will be a large number of girls on hand to help show the delegates as good a time as possible, and make their stay in Lexington pleasant.

WET COURTS PREVENT NET CLASH WITH DUKE

Practice Sessions Before Oncoming Schedule Cut Short By Bad Weather.

Due to the poor condition of the tennis courts during the past week, the match which was scheduled with Duke University here on April 16 had to be called off. With the return of spring weather, daily practice will be held every afternoon, beginning at 3:30.

Captain Cassel and P. Daugherty will leave Sunday for White Sulphur Springs, where they will enter the annual spring tournament held under the auspices of the Greenbrier hotel.

The next match on the schedule is with Randolph-Macon College. This match does not come for two weeks, however, and at present there is an attempt being made to secure a match with the University of Virginia before the Randolph-Macon match. After the match with the Virginia school, the tennis team will start on their annual northern trip. On this trip, the Blue and White netmen will meet Pennsylvania, Swarthmore, and Georgetown. Following this trip, the team will journey to Atlanta to enter in southern conference matches.

Oak Ridge Wins Over Frosh Team

First Seven Innings Scoreless—Later Inning Errors Give Visitors the Lead.

The Little Generals' baseball team went down in defeat for the second time this season, when they were trounced by the Oak Ridge nine yesterday afternoon, by the score of 5 to 2. The game was marred by frequent errors by both teams.

The Oak Ridge pitcher held the Generals to two lone hits in the nine innings, while a total of 11 hits were collected off Rainer and Edwards.

The two teams battled through seven innings to a scoreless tie, when a hit and an error allowed an Oak Ridge player to cross the plate with the first run of the game.

In the next inning a series of errors by Taylor, Cooper and Black permitted four more tallies for the visitors. The Little Generals scored two runs in the eighth, aided by errors by the shortstop and pitcher. In the ninth, Edwards held the visitors scoreless, but the Little Generals were unable to gather any more runs in their half of the frame.

Newberry and Smith were the only Generals who were able to solve the curves of the Oak Ridge pitcher, each getting a hit. The runs were scored by Black and Smith. Black reached first through an infield error, and Smith by a hit.

Generals Outscore Richmond Sackmen

Long Score Piled Up By Blue and White in Thursday's Contest On Local Diamond.

SPOTTS SCORES HOMER

Visitors' Fumbles Prove Costly—Maben Defends Position Well.

"Snake" Maben, versatile twirler for the Generals, led the Blue and White nine to an easy victory over the ball tossers from the University of Richmond on the home diamond Thursday afternoon, by the score of 10 to 3. The game was played on the old diamond, as the weather did not permit the use of the new one.

Maben held the Spiders to five hits in the first eight innings, but let up in that frame, allowing two tallies. Wilkinson went on the mound in the final frame and disposed of the first three batters, striking out a pinch hitter. One of the features of the game was the home run of "Babe" Spotts in the second inning, and Eigelbach's triple in the first. Richmond failed to score in the first, although Miller got a single. Palmer struck out. Eigelbach tripled, and scored on Seehorn's long sacrifice fly. Stearns flew out to Creath.

Spotts Scores a Homer.

Williams got on first on Eigelbach's error, but was put out while stealing second. The next two flied out to the fielders. Spotts, the first man up, drove the ball far over the left center fence, thereby scoring a home run. Tips flied out. Jolliffe got a single, and went to third on Johnston's bingle, but Maben retired the side when he lifted a fly to the fielder.

Richmond got a hit when two men were out, but the runner failed to score as the next batter rolled a slow grounder to the pitcher. The Blue and White team failed to register, although Seehorn got to third.

Richmond scored in the fourth when Creath got on through the pitcher's error, and went to second on Walden's sacrifice. Williams singled and scored Creath. Rouse went out, second to first, and the next batter struck out. In their half, the Generals also failed to register, though Johnston got a safety and stole second.

Generals Make Two More.

PHI DELTA PHI TRIAL NEXT THURSDAY NIGHT

Phi Delta Phi, legal fraternity, will present its annual mock trial Thursday night in the Court House, Main and Washington Streets, at 8 o'clock. Coach E. P. Davis is slated to preside. The pledges of the fraternity who will participate are W. H. Maynard, J. M. Rule, H. B. Sproul, T. B. Bryant, Jr., G. O. Clarke, R. C. Latham, and Capt. T. Lewis. Many surprises are said to be in store for those who will attend. Students and townspeople are invited. Admission is free.

"ABIE'S IRISH ROSE" WILL PLAY HERE ON MAY 4

"Abie's Irish Rose," which has the record for the longest continuous run on Broadway, comes to the New Theatre two weeks from Tuesday, on May 4. The original New York company, now playing in Norfolk, is making the trip, and the original will perform here, it is said.

GRIDMEN WIND-UP SPRING PRACTICE HERE YESTERDAY

Urged To Report Promptly Next Fall—Tilson and Thomas Subjected To Coarse Treatment.

Yesterday saw the final round of a six weeks practice period for Coach "Pat" Herron's 1926 gridiron squad. Football togs will be laid away until fall practice starts on Wilson field, Monday, September 6.

Following the drill yesterday, Coach Herron gathered the men together and spoke a few words to them regarding the results of the spring training, praising the candidates upon the spirit shown during certain times when the weather was anything but conducive to football practice. He complimented the men upon the work done under him, and urged all who are asked to return early to be on hand for the first practice in the fall, as the Southern Conference rules have cut the pre-season training period down to a minimum.

As if to release the intensity with which they have been working for the past month and a half, the candidates administered a drenching to former Captains Tilson and Thomas, who have been aiding Coach Herron in his work. The former leaders of the Generals were treated to a thorough mud bath, as well as treatment from the water buckets, afterwards being allowed to spend the afternoon in the shower room removing the evidences of their mauling.

Coach Herron and his wife left this morning for Charlottesville, where they viewed the Cavalier-General battle this afternoon, and planned to leave immediately for their home in Pittsburgh, where he is engaged in the practice of law during the off-seasons.

Y. M. C. A. ELECTS OFFICERS FOR ENSUING YEAR

R. W. Simmons, President; G. Burks, Vice-President, As Per Thursday Elections.

The active members of the Y. M. C. A. met at 7:30 Thursday night, in the "Y" room, and elected the following officers for 1926-27: R. W. Simmons, president; George E. Burks, vice-president; Frank Charlton, secretary, and R. W. Jordan, treasurer. These men will be installed at the banquet for active members, which will soon be held.

R. W. Simmons, '27, is from Ravenswood, West Virginia. He is a member of Pi Kappa Alpha, social fraternity, and a member of the Alpha Sigma, literary fraternity. He has been on the Y. M. C. A. cabinet for the past two years. George Burks, '27, of Louisville, Kentucky, is a member of Pi Kappa Alpha, Alpha Kappa Psi, Pi Alpha Nu, and the "13" club.

Frank Charlton, '27, is from Lexington, Virginia, and has been on the "Y" cabinet for two years. R. W. Jordan, '28L, treasurer, is from Emporia, Virginia. He is a member of Pi Delta Epsilon and the Biological society.

VARSITY BASEBALL TEAM GETS NEW SWEATERS

The varsity baseball team trotted on the field Thursday afternoon in their new coat-sweaters, and fittingly inaugurated them by overwhelming the University of Richmond nine. The coats are blue with silver gray trimming, and have large square collars; on the left front pocket of each is the Washington and Lee seal and on the left sleeve is a number.

Favorite Secured After Last Effort

Last Drive For Funds Makes Possible Securing of Coral Gables Orchestra Which Has Previously Pleaded Local Music Lovers.

Jan Garber's 15-piece orchestra has been signed by President L. L. Edgerton to play for Finals.

This announcement comes as a result of the ready response of the student body to the appeal made by Edgerton for additional funds with which to secure the famous orchestra. This last drive was under Edgerton's supervision, and much of the success of the final campaign is due to the efforts of the Finals president.

Garber's orchestra will come to Lexington from the Coral Gables country club, where it is playing at present. While in Lexington, they will fill an engagement for the V. M. I. finals.

Freshman Track Team Developing Material

Weather Has Held Yearlings Under Shelter—Time Trials To Be Held Monday.

Due to weather conditions, the freshman track squad has been unable to get in the needed amount of outdoor training this spring. It is hoped by Coach Mathis that the weather will permit daily practices to be held on Wilson field from now on.

The squad has not been cut as yet, but Mathis plans to hold final time trials Monday. So far, the men showing up best in the respective events are: 100-yard dash, Swart; 220-yard dash, Swart and Harrison; 440-yard dash, Winn and Simmons; half mile, Nathan; mile, Pilley; high hurdles, Sproul and Swart; low hurdles, Swart and Price; javelin, Janney, Groop, and Edwards; shotput, Groop and Edwards; discus, Renwen; broad jump, Swart; high jump, Sproul; and pole vault, Pilley and Lufts.

The Goblers of V. P. I. will be met here on May 1 and the following Saturday the Virginia freshmen will be met on Wilson field. The only contest to be held on foreign ground is against Virginia Episcopal School, in Lynchburg, May 19. Negotiations are now under way to arrange a meet with Staunton Military Academy, or Augusta Military Academy, on their home field sometime this month.

Sixty to Compete For Crew Berths

Many Have Signified Intention of Trying Out On Albert Sidney and Harry Lee Shells.

Sixty men have indicated their intentions of reporting for regular practice of the Albert Sidney and the Harry Lee crews, which will start Monday afternoon. The initial practice has been delayed, due to the condition of the shells, but several men have worked on them this week, and have gotten them in shape to take the water by Monday.

With the material available, two first-class crews should be turned out. With only one letter man back on each crew, Captain Cooper Turner, Harry Lee, and "Count" Edgerton, Albert Sidney, there will probably be keen competition for places. A good many men are out who rowed on the second crews last year, and with their experience ought to make a good showing.

Jan Garber.

Jan Garber will be here for Finals. This announcement, made by President L. L. Edgerton last night, brings gladness to the heart of every member, as well as alumni, of the university, who enjoy good music for the terpsichorean art. The signing of Garber assures the success of 1926 Finals. The committee in charge, and the student body at large, deserve much commendation on the result of the final effort.

In addition, it means an innovation in the social attitude between our neighbor institution, V. M. I., and ourselves. Why the two schools have not co-operated previously in combining their efforts and finances to secure more competent music has been a source of bewilderment for some time. Now that the realization has come to those in charge that combined influence must necessarily bring better results, the plan should be continued in every possible instance. Garber will play for Washington and Lee Finals and remain in Lexington the following week to play for Virginia Military Institute Finals. The combined capital would lure even the most reluctant.

Orchestras and still more orchestras have played here, but popular Garber has been sorely missed. Fresh from sunny Florida where he has been engaged steadily at Coral Gables, he will come here to gladden hearts for four merry days.

An Alumni Directory.

Another one of Washington and Lee's many needs will be filled when the Alumni Directory goes to press in a short time—the work of Alumni Secretary Verbon E. Kemp. One will be enabled to locate every living alumnus with the exception of the few with whom contact has been lost.

Too little is being spent in keeping our alumni in touch with the university. Without funds, the secretary and his department are unable to accomplish the huge task which is ever present. Some means of appropriation or fund should be developed out so that the work can be efficiently carried on.

The directory is a step toward the right direction. The book will pay for itself by the sale of fifteen hundred copies at cost, and the abundance of information contained will cause one without a copy to feel that he is completely lost to the institution.

Another Opportunity.

Washington and Lee is known throughout the South for its ever-ready spirit of genuine hospitality. It is with a feeling of pride that each member of this student body can point to this institution as representative of the true southern friendliness which is so characteristic of our campus. No delegation has ever visited the local shrine without remarking and commending in the most praiseworthy manner that which makes Washington and Lee democratic and hospitable.

We welcome the opportunity which will be presented to this university when the Southern Federation of Colleges meets here on April 23 and 24. It will be the third such gathering of the year on this campus. An indelible impression was created on the minds of the youths who attended the annual prep and high basketball tournament, and the journalistic convention. Those who attend the coming convention will be adults, and they will be even more expectant than the former groups of the true hospitality which only this student body is capable.

Lexington, instead of being called the "Mecca of the South," as a local editor puts it, will soon receive the name of "The Convention City." As a means of making the outside world familiar with this university, there is no better medium, and we should grasp subsequent opportunities which will undoubtedly be presented.

President's Paragraph

No. 42. 1925-26.

A Foremost College President Thus Describes "The College of the Future."

"Distrust of intellectual excellence, which was associated with the pioneer spirit in America, is slowly disappearing.

The College of the Future will emphasize quality rather than size, and will limit its enrollment.

It will allow its students more freedom, will insist on more serious work, and will make larger demands upon intellectual independence and initiative."

Is this the W. and L. of the future? We hope so. Help its student body grow with this four-fold development of spirit and power.

Freshmen at the University of Washington have selected green gloves as their official insignia for this year.

cession, and the last one flew out to the left fielder. Palmer was safe on the shortstop's error and went to second when Eigelbach's grounder was muffed by the pitcher. Seehorn sacrificed and advanced the runners. Stearns singled and scored two runs, getting on second through the second baseman's error. Spotts was hit by the pitcher, but was caught at home on Tips' bingle. Jolliffe struck out. Miller flew out. Creath got a double. Walden lifted a high one to Stearns, whose thrown-in got Creath as he started for third on the toss. Johnston singled, Maben sacrificed him to second and Palmer to third. Johnson scored on the single by Eigelbach, and Seehorn went out, pitcher to first.

Errors Costly.

Williams got a single, but the Spiders failed to score when Rouse hit into a double play, Maben to Eigelbach to Spotts. Stearns grounded out to short. Spotts walked. Tips fanned, and Jolliffe got a safety and stole second, Spotts scoring on the catcher's error. Jolliffe scored when Johnston made first through the first baseman's error. Maben grounded to the pitcher.

Richmond secured two tallies in the eighth when Fary went out, Palmer to Spotts. McCarey reached first on Eigelbach's error. Cook fanned. Miller got a safety. Creath walked, scoring behind Miller when Walden got a double. Williams fanned. The Generals also tallied twice in their half. Palmer reached the initial sack on the shortstop's error. Eigelbach sacrificed him to second. Seehorn got a pretty single, and scored when the right fielder let it roll beyond him, Palmer crossing the plate ahead of him. Stearns grounded out and Spotts fanned.

In the ninth, Wilkinson took Maben's place on the mound and fanned the pinch hitter. Sanford flew out, as did Fary, ending the contest.

SPONSORS ARE PRAISED FOR CONVENTION SUCCESS

Journalism School Receiving Letters Commending Meetings.

Letters complimenting the Lee School of Journalism and Pi Delta Epsilon on the success of the Southern Interscholastic Press association meeting here, April 5 and 6, are being received by Prof. R. B. Ellard and John D. Mayhew.

All letters speak favorably of the conference, and emphasize the good the meeting did in aiding southern high school publications.

Miss Eva Moore of the E. C. Glass high school, Lynchburg, writes:

"The boys report that the convention was more enjoyable and far more helpful than the one in New York in March. From their account, Lexington is still retaining its high standard of culinary art and of hospitality.

"On behalf of the school I want to thank you for all that was done for our boys, and I congratulate you on the success of your enterprise."

"The boys report a very interesting meeting," writes R. W. Wanson, headmaster of Staunton Military Academy, "and say that they think it will mean a great deal to school journalism."

Mrs. W. R. Hill, journalism instructor of the Danville High School, writes Professor Ellard:

"Please let me congratulate you on the success of the convention. Billie (Danville delegate) and I not only had a thoroughly good time in Lexington, but we acquired much valuable information also. We spent the class hour today telling the journalism class some of the things that 'you authorities' said.

"We are awaiting with interest the arrival of the written criticism of the Chatterbox. I think I can guess some of the faults you will find with it."

A written two-page criticism of each paper, annual, and magazine submitted in the contest is being prepared by members of the Journalism department.

Mrs. Hill continues: "I believe that the S. I. P. A. will mean more to us in the South than membership in the big Columbia organization.

"It is certainly very gratifying to me to feel that some of the universities want to lend a helping hand to the high schools instead of condemning them for turning out poorly prepared students."

Mrs. Hill also asked in her letter that Professor Ellard come to Danville and make a talk before the journalism department there.

IN WHICH TILSON AND THOMAS GET A BATH AND PAT AND WIFE GO TO VIRGINIA FOR GAME

Tilson and Thomas got a bath; the football togs will get one next week, and the coach has gone home to Pittsburgh.

After the intense spring football training of six weeks, made necessary by the new Southern Conference ruling, the new men let off steam by drubbing the coaches attaches, Thomas and Tilson, in the mud. Somebody ought to have some mud beside themselves, the candidates thought, because they have had their

LIBRARY ROSTER SWELLED BY NEWLY-ARRIVED BOOKS

In the general library there is now a copy of Bruce Barton "The Man Nobody Knows." This has, for some time, been one of the best sellers at book stores and news stands.

Many new books and pamphlets have been added, both to the general and reference library during the past few weeks.

To the Spanish seminar room have been added fifty volumes of the Encyclopedia Universay Ilustrada, written in Spanish. Another of John Masefield's works, "Odtan," has been added to the general reading library. Among the new books are also two of the latest on Jefferson for which there have been many calls. One of these is entitled "Jefferson and Hamilton," and was written by Bower. In the reference library are now found the "Intimate Papers on Colonel House," the New York Times "Index," Oliver Elton's "Survey of English Literature" in four volumes, and Garrett and Gosse's "English Literature," also in four volumes.

Many new books on art have also been added, some of the most popular of which is Taft's "History of Art."
