SECOND ANNUAL MEETING S. I. C.

V. M. I. Admitted to Membership

BASEBALL DISCUSSED

Motion To Change Migratory Rule To Exclude Non-Letter Men Defeated.

The Southern Intercollegiate Conference held its second annual meeting since its foundation, again in Atlanta. Coach Fletcher was the potentiary delegate from Washington and Lee and R. A. Smith, graduate manager of athletics, also attended.

The first executive committee meeting was called Friday afternoon for the preliminary explanation of the problems to come up before the conference. It adjourned and was continued at eight o'clock the same evening and lasted until after midnight, being held up mainly by the discussion of the summer baseball problem.

The officers for the conference were: S. V. Sanford of Georgia, President; J. B. Crenshaw of Georgia Tech, Vice-President; and A. N. Dougherty of Tennessee, Secretary and Treasurer. They were elected to succeed themselves for the session of nineteen-twenty-three.

An unofficial committee composed of an athletic director or coach from each school was organized to discuss details and problems important enough to be brought before the regular conference. Of this committee Mike Donahue of Auburn was elected President and S. A. Bowles of Kentucky, Secretary and Treasurer.

The following is a brief account of the business transacted:

Mr. Fletcher proposed an amendment changing the number of schools from 20 to 21. This amendment was

ADDITIONAL TRYOUT FOR TROUBADOURS

There will be a second tryout for places in the cast and chorus of the Troubadours' mid-winter musical comedy at the Troubadour Room, third floor Main Building, Thursday night, 7:45 p. m. The parts to be filled are male and female roles, the requirements for which are a good singing voice and a graceful manner with, of course, any previous experience in this line as a considerable asset.

At tryouts held last Monday night about forty were given an opportunity to show their talents but it is felt that there are still a number of men in college especially adapted for the Troubadours' requirements who have not appeared for this enjoyable branch of campus activities.

Those men who have been tried out need not be present at the Thursday night meeting but all others who did not avail themselves of the previous opportunity are urged to come out at this final tryout.

An extensive trip is being planned for this Musical Comedy and it will be well worth while to those who are elected to parts in the production.

Thursday, Dec. 14, at 7:45 p. m.!

Sophs Defeat Proud Seniors

12-0 Victory Gained By Straight Football—Second Year Men Play Well.

Two more games in the elimination series of class football were on the schedule for Monday and Tuesday, but the game on Monday was forfeited to the Junior academics by the Senior lawyers because of inability to put eleven men on the field.

Tuesday saw the Senior academics go down before the Sophomores 12 to 0 on a rather muddy field. The Sophomores clearly outclassed the Seniors in straight football and were able to make gains through the line almost at will during the first half but the Seniors stiffened in the last half and refused to be scored on.

Burke, Taliaferro, and Lewellyn were mainly responsible for the victory, although the whole team played together well, considering that it was their first class game.

The Seniors only succeeded in making a showing twice during the game. Both times were due to long and well executed forward passes for about thirty yards each time from Mason to Steer. One of these passes after a twenty yard run put the ball on the Sophomore's 5 yard line, but after one play the Seniors fumbled and a Sophomore fell on the ball. This put a stop to the Seniors' opportunities of scoring. However, the whistle probably kept the Sophomores from scoring again as Dawson had just carried the ball to the 10 yard line on a pretty end run.

The Sophomores ran in an almost entire new team in the second quarter but soon replaced the first string

W. & L. MEETS DAVIDSON IN FORMAL DEBATE SAT.

Poindexter, Lowry, Waters and Brawner Lined Up for Negative.

The first debate of the year between W. & L. and Davidson will be held at 7:30 Saturday night in the Chapel. The subject for the debate is: Resolved, That the United States should cancel all loans made by her European allies since April 6, 1917. This question is one of vital importance at the present time, and the debate should be very interesting.

E. W. Poindexter is chairman of the debate, W. & L. has the negative side of the argument, and the team is composed of the following men: F. B. Waters, C. W. Lowry, Jr. and Paul Brawner, alternate. Davidson has a high standing among the debating colleges, and the debate will not be easy for either side. The following men will represent Davidson: D. H. Ogden, Jr., W. A. Gamble, Jr., and D. B. Wharton, alternate.

After a careful selection, Col. Wm. Handley, Lexington; Judge Floridas Crosby, Staunton, Va., and Col. R. E. Dixon, Lexington, were chosen as judges for the debate.

Music for the occasion will be rendered by a twelve piece orchestra led by J. F. Houck, Jr. The Troubadour quartet will sing several songs.

Brooke's Jersey Helps In Frosh's 6-3 Victory—Wilson Solon Star.

The Freshmen triumphed over the Junior Lawyers in the first game of the inter-class series Saturday afternoon. Some wonderful football rewarded the two hundred faithful fans who fared forth to cheer the efforts of their class gladiators. Both sides showed symptoms of a well developed attack, but due to the muddy condition of the field the plunging backs often sat down before reaching the line of scrimmage.

An analysis of the game shows that the Freshmen had the better of it during the whole game, keeping the ball in the Lawyer's territory the entire time. The lone tally came when after having been held for downs on the Lawyer's one-yard line, Felsenthal received Wilson's punt on the 20 yard line and dashed across for a touchdown.

The broken field running of Mobley and the smashing line drives of Jack Frost, together with the Dazzling effect of Brooke's jersey on the Legal linesmen, were the high lights of the Freshmen's offense. George Wilson playing defensive fullback and running his team on the offense made some good gains and did most of the tackling for the lawyers.

The Freshmen made ten first downs, completed one pass, and intercepted a pass while the Lawyers

4:15-4:45—Varsity Swimming practice.

3:45-4:15—Swimming instruction in the pool on Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday. Any one wanting instruction come at this time.

All Sophomores who are in the Monday and Wednesday afternoon gym classes are asked to change to whatever morning class suits them best before Monday.

Indoor Track Opens Season

Coach Fletcher To Hold Practice Every Afternoon—Many Veterans Back.

Practice for indoor track will begin this afternoon and will be held every afternoon under the direction of Coach Fletcher. Last year the team took part in no outside meets with the exception of the Intercollegiate Indoor meet held in Baltimore near the close of the season, where Washington and Lee was represented. In the relay race. This winter, however, it is being planned to take the whole team to Baltimore for the Intercollegiate meet which will take place the last Saturday in February. In addition negotiations are under way to have Virginia come to Lexington for a dual meet.

The regular track monogram will, as usual, be awarded to men who are able, in the trials that will be held from time to time during the winter, to break the existing Washington and Lee indoor records. At the annual gym exhibit which will be held near the close of the basketball season, the indoor track events will be one of the leading parts of the program.

A large number of last year's veterans are back. They include: Norman in the pole vault and high jump, Rhodes and Simmons in the hurdles, Capt. Smith, Howard, and Guerrant, of the cross country team, in the one and two mile events; Heiskell of the cross country team in the half; Switzer and Garber in the dashes.

CITY DIRECTORY IS VALUABLE PUBLICATION

Lexington's Latest Enterprise Makes Its Appearance—Now On Sale.

What is considered an entirely new undertaking for a town the size of Lexington, is the City Directory just off press, and now being offered for sale at The Corner, McCrum's, Co-op, Weinberg's, Boley's, Wayland's, and Gorrells'. To attempt a complete enumeration of its contents, would be more like cataloging everything and everybody in Lexington, for such it contains.

A complete revised census of all people residing in Lexington, over sixteen years of age, together with occupations and street addresses, makes up a very considerable portion of the book. Fraternity houses, professors' homes, and other places of interest to students are all shown in an up-to-date map, printed in the directory. Fraternal orders, churches, complete railroad schedules to and from Lexington, and junction points, as well as clubs and other organizations are all included in the valuable publication.

An added feature of the Directory is the driving distances by auto routes to all the important towns and cities within a radius of a thousand miles, together with the railroad fare from Lexington to practically every town and city represented at Washington and Lee. Parcel post rate tables, auto laws, game laws, and other equally important information.

W. & L. RETURNS TO GRIDIRON NEW YEAR'S

Bethel, Captain '18, To Lead Team Against "Bo" McMillan and His Stars.

SIX W. & L. MEN LISTED

On New Year's Day in Richmond, Va., at least half a dozen former Washington and Lee football stars will again don the pigskin and engage in a gridiron battle. Turner Bethel, star tackle and captain of the famous Washington and Lee team of 1918 which humbled Georgia Tech, has arranged a game between the Richmond Athletic Club and "Bo" McMillan's Western Stars. Substantial forfeits have been posted to insure the playing of Centre's famous quarterback and All-American star, and other star players.

Plans for this game were arranged last week, when Bethel for the Richmond Athletic Club got in touch with McMillan, and then, after meeting the guarantee required, started getting together a team of stars. Bethel has secured "Red" Johnson, premier backfield man of the University of North Carolina during the past season, and Glen Killinger, great halfback of the 1921 undefeated Penn State team, who won a place on the 1921 All-American team.

McMillan has announced seven men besides himself who will play on his team. Al Pierotti, Washington and Lee center and All-South Atlantic; Conzelman, All-Western; Copley, captain of last year's champion Akron team; Foon, second All-American from Tufts; Bell of Centre; Erickson, Washington and Jefferson halfback, who won a place on the 1922 second All-Eastern team picked by the New York Times recently; Winkleman, All-Southwestern; and possibly "Red" Roberts. Others who possibly may play on McMillan's team are: "Brick" Muller, great California end; Vick of Michigan; and Modart, Notre Dame fullback. The Western Stars recently defeated in Milwaukee a professional team headed by Jim Thorpe, famous Indian athlete.

Bethel has also quite a few stars from which to pick his team. Besides Killinger and Johnson he will have Andy Hillhouse of Brown (who will also help coach the team); "Mac" Cogbill, and "Ed" Bailey, Washington and Lee star back and guard, respectively; Maloney, Georgetown; Sloan, Yale; Hopper, back, on the University of Pennsylvania's 1921 team; Carter, University of Richmond; Stringer, back; Carpenter, end, and Wilson, end, all former V. P. I. stars; and Wilson of Maryland State's team of 1920. Lindsay Moore, our assistant coach of this year, has played on the Richmond Athletic Club's teams, and it is probable that he and Bethel will hold down the tackle positions. "Doc" Rangeley may be secured to hold down a guard position.

NOTICE

The Y. M. C. A. Promotion Force will hold its first meeting of the year on Thursday night, December 14, at 7:30 in the "Y" Room. All those desiring to take any active part in Christian work on the campus are invited to be present, and to affiliate if they so desire.

HOW ABOUT IT?

The indoor athletic season is on. Each afternoon Doremus gym presents a scene of athletic activity. Basketball, indoor track, wrestling, boxing, swimming, gymnastics, handball, and "suicide" constitute the principal sports. Of these, basketball, wrestling, boxing and swimming are intercollegiate branches of sport, for which schedules have been arranged.

With such a broad field from which to select, every man in Washington and Lee should be out for some branch of sport. True, all men are not good enough for the Varsity team in each sport, but all men are good enough to furnish competition and that is what is most needed to develop successful athletic teams. In athletics, quantity of material is quite as essential as quality of material, for only by having the former can the latter be developed.

There should be no man in the University, who is physically fit, who is not competing for a place on one of the Varsity squads. Any sort of supervised athletics are, of course, beneficial, but competitive athletics will do far more to develop a man than non-competitive athletics.

The time is here! While the season is yet young, every student that values a healthy body enough to work for its development, will report for some team. Incidentally, we've yet to hear a coach complain of having too large a squad from which to select his teams. On the other hand, a large squad of willing candidates will give a coach more real encouragement than anything else. Don't wait until after holidays, or until New Years to make a resolution that you'll go out for some sport, but seize the opportune moment and DO IT NOW!

We are pleased to note that V. M. I. has entered the Southern Intercollegiate Conference. V. M. I.'s entry into this organization marks a new departure in the athletic life of the neighboring institution. All major colleges of the Old Dominion are now members of the S. I. C., and though the Conference is yet in its youth, it has brought about a decided change for the better in Southern athletics.

If you have not yet subscribed to the Student Friendship Fund, and wish to do so, please hand in your subscription immediately to Ted Shultz. The amount pledged to date is encouraging, but there are yet many men in the Student Body who have failed to subscribe. Don't put it off.

AN AID TO ATHLETICS

When each student enters the University in September, he pays a certain sum out of his tuition fees to the breakage fund. This fund is used to pay for all expenses incurred by the students in breaking windows and tearing up furniture in University buildings. This fund also pays for books taken out of the general library and never returned. Whatever amount of money remaining out of this fund at the end of the year goes to the Athletic Association to help support athletics.

In regard to taking books out of the library, whenever a student does not return a book that has been taken out, it must be paid for out of this fund and this lessens the amount of money that is turned over to the athletic fund. At present there are five students in the University who have books charged against them that are not returned, and these books must be paid for out of the breakage fund. Miss McCrum is anxious to have all these books returned and wishes that one man from each fraternity house and boarding house would look over his house and see if he is able to find any books that belong to the library.

The smaller the number of books that are lost each year from the general library will mean that much more money available for athletics at Washington and Lee. H.

LAST SOCIAL SUNDAY

The last Y. M. C. A. social of the year 1922 will be given in the "Y" room at 4:30 Sunday afternoon. This social will be similar to those held on Sunday afternoons during the winter months of last year, which the old men remember were much enjoyed. They should prove a delightful surprise to the new men on the campus.

An interesting program has been arranged for this first of the Sunday afternoon socials. Professor Fulbright will read Van Dyke's "Other Wise Man" (in abbreviated form). Miss Emily Penick will play some special Christmas music on the piano. There will be refreshments.

GARLAND ALEXANDER HONORED

It was announced at the "Y" that Garland Alexander, president of the local Y. M. C. A.; president of the State Student's Field Council; and representative of Virginia in the Southern Field Council; at a meeting of the latter council held recently in Atlanta, was elected one of two representatives to the National Field Council.

CONCERNING TRAIN ARRANGEMENTS

To the students of Washington and Lee:

The delay of Chesapeake and Ohio authorities in furnishing me information as to special trains on December 21, makes it impossible to publish full information and to secure from every student description of Pullman accommodations he desires.

I have wired their official in charge and hope sometime during Wednesday to post the full schedule of special and regular trains.

Let every student, therefore, keep an eye on the bulletin board and as soon as the schedule is posted, without the delay of an hour, fill out and sign his blank card, as Pullman cars are very hard to secure at the most crowded day of the year.

Sincerely,
(Signed):
HENRY LOUIS SMITH.

ALUMNI

Washington and Lee regrets to learn of the death of an alumnus, I. A. Edward, of Sumpter, South Carolina, which occurred in a train wreck near Charleston, S. C., on December 9. Edwards was returning home on a local train between Charleston and Greenville, S. C.

The cause of the wreck is attributed to a dense fog which obscured signals set by a delayed train ahead of the local. Edwards was rushed to a hospital in Charleston and received immediate medical attention but died almost immediately upon arriving at the hospital.

C. A. "Chick" Halsey, ex-'23, was injured in an automobile accident near his home during the past week. "Chick" was returning home with his brother about 9:30 o'clock at night when he was blinded by headlights from another car and was forced into a ditch. The car completely overturned but both occupants escaped with painful but not serious injuries. "Chick" will be on crutches for a short time but we are glad his injuries are not serious.

W. O. Burtner, '21, is practicing law with the firm of Stipes and Burtner in Harrisonburg, Va.

J. L. Daniel, a graduate of Washington and Lee University in 1910 was recently made professor of Chemistry at the Georgia School of Technology in Atlanta.

LETTING CONTRACT FOR STADIUM POSSIBILITY

Gavin Hadden Contemplated To Engineer Construction—Committee Appointed.

The Athletic association is contemplating securing Gavin Hadden, a New York engineer, to make the plans for the stadium and location of football gridiron and baseball diamond on Wilson field. Hadden drafted the plans for several of the stadiums of large northern schools, among which were Cornell and Penn.

At a meeting held Monday afternoon, a committee consisting of R. A. Smith, Dr. Houston and Coach Fletcher was appointed to consider making a contract with Hadden. Hadden has stated his terms but the committee has not yet decided to accept them. However, if a contract is not made with Hadden, some other engineer of recognized ability will be secured.

SEVEN FRESHMEN WIN NUMERALS IN CROSS COUNTRY

The Freshman cross country trials held Saturday showed that there is a good deal of promising material among the class of '26. Although the course was muddy and the weather hardly ideal, all of the times were very good and Coach Fletcher pronounced himself as being pleased with the results. Seven of those starting made the course under forty minutes and qualified for numerals. They were: Fulton, 37:12; Decker, 37:15; Lankenau, 37:20; Thames, 37:48; Allison, 38:30; Goodwyn, 38:35; Hickman, 38:55.

The students' Bible Class of the Episcopal Church began a new course last Sunday morning. The text book being used is one which has recently been published under the auspices of the Department of Religious Education, especially for college men. It is called "A Grammar of Belief." This book will be used in a discussion group every Sunday morning from 10 to 10:45 at the Rectory (next to the Post Office). Any student who is interested will be cordially welcome.

HOLIDAY NUMBER OF MINK EXPECTED SAT.

Permanent Staff Chosen and To Be Listed In Christmas Issue.

The Holiday Number of the Mink will soon be ready for distribution. It was sent to press on Monday, Dec. 11, and is expected to be out by Saturday night. This number of the Mink is to be filled with high quality jokes and stories, featuring the Christmas season. A very snappy and attractive cover design has been received, which will add very much to the general appearance of the magazine. One of the greatest features of this number will be the letters to Santa Claus. These are very well written and will be found to be exceedingly amusing.

The editor also announces that the permanent staff of his publication has been chosen and the names of its members will be given in the coming issue. A good many new subscriptions have been added to the list and the Mink seems to be gaining friends on every side. Many of these are from alumni of W. and L. As was the case with the last issue, the business manager has planned to have the Minks distributed at the Corner by one of the members of the staff. This policy will facilitate matters and save trouble for the staff. Posters announcing the hours of its distribution at The Corner will be put up on the campus and at the post-office. As usual the Mink will be on sale at the drug stores and newsstands.

MISS ANNIE WHITE NOW IN MONTE CARLO

Miss Annie White, former librarian of the University, friend of the students, and promoter of Fancy Dress Ball, is now in Monte Carlo. From there she will go to Naples, Venice, Sicily, then up to Switzerland, France and England. Miss Annie will return via Liverpool and New York sometime next June.

Miss Annie left Lexington last October and sailed for Palermo, Italy. She has been enjoying the Mediterranean climes since that time, and has made Florence her headquarters.

For the first time in seventeen years the Fancy Dress Ball of Washington and Lee will be directed by some one other than Miss Annie. And in the last week of January, when the time for the mid-winter dances rolls around, the students will realize more than ever how much we miss the one who has always taken such a keen interest in any student social functions.

An All-Southern eleven was recently published. It included four Georgia Tech men, three from the University of Georgia, one from Vanderbilt, one from Auburn, and "Red" Roberts and Covington of Centre. It wasn't difficult to arrive at the conclusion that this eleven is a Georgia concoction.

SUBSCRIPTION WORK FOR V. M. I. ADMITTED TO MEMBERSHIP
CHAPEL ACTIVELY BEGUN

Work On the Building Can Probably Start Within Two Years.

Since it has been decided by the national organization of U. D. C.'s, numbering more than 70,000 members, that Lee chapel shall be reconstructed, active work has been begun in almost every state, collecting subscriptions for this purpose. The protest of the local chapter and the Richmond leaders has been ignored, although for a time they produced a feeling of uncertainty throughout the organization. The U. D. C.'s have announced that they will undertake no other financial obligations until the chapel has been completed.

From the previous history of similar enterprises, conducted by the U. D. C.'s, it is estimated that collections for this purpose will average at least $5,000 a month. It seems probable then that work on the building can begin within two years, and President Smith, together with the officers of the U. D. C., are already selecting the commission of nationally known memorial architects, to whom all plans will be submitted.

MILLION CAMPAIGN CLOSES THIS MONTH

More Than $1,300,000 Subscribed By 2,734 Donors—Nearly $500,000 Paid In Cash.

The million dollar endowment campaign, which began in October, 1920, will officially close this month. A total of more than $1,300,000 has been subscribed by 2,734 donors. Of this number 2,329 have been alumni of Washington and Lee.

Of the amount subscribed, $500,000 was given by the general education board and the McCormick family. $617,000 was given by Alumni and $109,000 by other donors. The Carnegie Foundation gave $50,000 and the remainder was given miscellaneously.

Nearly $500,000 of this money has been paid in and the remainder is payable within the next three or four years. Although the million dollar campaign is about to close, three other financial campaigns are already under way, with an ultimate object of $1,150,000.

passed and V. M. I. was admitted to the twenty-first member. A representative from Sewanee was present and applied for Sewanee's admittance to the S. I. C., but this was denied. However, a resolution was passed for all members to regard Sewanee as practically a member and to extend them all the courtesies possible until the conference saw fit to admit them.

The playing of summer baseball by college athletes was a subject of much discussion. It was ended by H. C. Byrd of Maryland proposing a motion that the men be allowed to play summer baseball after first securing the sanction of their own faculty chairman and that they should submit a report the following fall giving an account of his expenses and showing that no money was received except for expenses. This motion was passed 12 to 9.

It was decided that for a man to be eligible for the freshman team he must be a first year man direct from a preparatory school, but that he may be advanced in classes through summer work without being barred.

The most important subject at the whole conference was the migratory rule. As the rule now stands, if a man even participates in a sport he is barred from that sport at any other college. Mr. Fletcher proposed a motion that would allow a man to participate at another college unless he made his letter at the first place, but the motion was defeated.

The definition of the word college in the migratory rule was changed from: "an institution with as many as 150 students and requiring 15 Carnegie entrance units" to "an institution with as many as 100 students and requiring 14 Carnegie units."

The admittance of V. M. I. into the Southern Intercollegiate Conference made a total membership of 21 colleges which are: Alabama, Auburn, Florida, Tulane, L. S. U., University of Mississippi, Mississippi A. & M., Georgia, Georgia Tech, South Carolina, Clemson, University of North Carolina, North Carolina State, Vanderbilt, Kentucky, W. & L., V. P. I., Virginia, V. M. I., Maryland, and Tennessee.

mation make up the remainder of the book. The publication is copyrighted by its editor, A. D. Smith.

The Directory is an attractive little book, containing 92 pages, and a necessary catalog of information not only to townspeople, but to students as well. Many have already purchased them to send the home folks, while others will doubtless take one or two along with them when they leave for the holidays. The price is a bare six bits, and the book is worth several times the purchase price. If you have not already done so, get one today at any of the sale places, and take it home with you.

"HALF PINT" SUTTON TO LEAD GOBLERS

Blacksburg, Va., Dec. 12.—Harry M. Sutton, for three years, one of the scintillants in the Virginia Tech backfield, has been chosen to captain the 1923 team. Though handicapped by injuries for a time the past season, his work nevertheless was of high calibre, and he is considered one of the greatest backs that ever wore the Gold and Maroon. Eighteen members of the 1922 squad were awarded monograms for their work the past season.

The University of Georgia's football team will play Yale at New Haven on Oct. 13, 1923.
