White To Return To Campus— Fraternity Section To Be Prepared.

Due to the failure of a great many men to have their pictures taken for the Calyx much delay and inconvenience has been caused to the Editors. To help out matters a representative of the White Studio will return to the Campus in about two weeks to take the 100 remaining pictures. The local photographer, Miley, will take the group pictures of the Publication Board and the staffs of the different publications.

The fraternity section of the Calyx will be prepared in the next ten or fifteen days by H. L. Elias. In order to make this complete and successful in every respect, the various fraternities will have to co-operate with Elias. He will then prepare tentative copies of the membership and distribute them to the fraternities for correction. After being O. K.'d by each organization, these copies will be handed back to the editor for publication in the annual. By doing this, the responsibility will be placed on the fraternities and mistakes will be reduced to a minimum. The various local chapters are asked to be especially careful in revising these proofs, so as not to cause any mistakes in the final publication.

There are a few Seniors and Juniors as well as Senior and Intermediate lawyers who have not turned in their information blanks. These must be turned in to R. B. Campbell, University Editor, by Wednesday, January 31. A list of all men who have requested Senior representation has been posted on the main bulletin

SEVENTEENTH ANNUAL PROMISES BEAUTY

Attractive Display and Blending of Colors Obtained for Fancy Dress Ball.

The Bal des Operas, Washington and Lee's seventeenth annual Fancy Dress Ball, led by R. D. Jordan, with Miss Elizabeth Wall, of Richmond, assisted by R. H. Carr, with Miss Mary Anne Evans, will begin at nine o'clock Tuesday night. The ball has been sponsored and managed by the Troubadours.

The figure will be very beautiful, on account of its wonderful costumes, its tabeaus, and stage effects. The figure will begin at nine o'clock.

The entire gymnasium will be decorated in accordance with a general color scheme of pastelle. There will be a massive canopy of drooping fringes, interspersed with ballons, and with attractive lights and lanterns, blending with the general pastelle color. At one end of the gymnasium there will be an enormous stage. At the other end, there will be a throne for the Spirit of the Operas, and around this throne will be the Court of the Spirit.

The music will be furnished by the Garber-Davis orchestra, which has been wintering at St. Petersburg, Florida.

Two-thirds of the costumes have already been distributed and the remaining distribution will be finished Monday. All men who have not se-

MUSIC LOVERS SPEND ENJOYABLE EVENING

Miss Mary Potter and Boston Sym- phonic Quintette Please Audience.

The exquisite mellow voice of Miss Potter won the admiration of many lovers of classical music last Thursday evening, when the Boston Symphonic Quintet, accompanied by Miss Potter, appeared at the High School auditorium as the last number of the Lyceum course of the Y. M. C. A.

Probably the song "Mah Lindy Lou" held the greatest interest in the ears of the hearers, while the "Russian Rural Scene," played by the quintet was the most popular instrumental selection.

Examinations made it necessary for many of the students to leave before the performance was over, but in spite of this seeming discouragement, the company played with enthusiasm and zeal.

As an extra, Miss Potter sang an old love song, familiar to all the audience and much appreciated by them. "Faust Fantasie," played by Mr. Sulzen, proved very delightful, especially with the excellent charm of Mr. Sulzen as a violinist to render the piece.

Among the number of negro dialect "spiritual" songs, "Hard Trials" was deeply appreciated. Mr. Hoyt, pian-

To Our Out-of-Town Subscribers

There has been some complaint among out-of-town subscribers to the Ring-tum Phi, because of the fact that they have missed certain copies of the paper, or have received it with irregularity. The management wishes to explain that the trouble is not in Lexington. The paper is printed and delivered to the Post Office regularly on Wednesday and Saturday nights, and is mailed promptly on Thursday and Monday mornings. Every subscriber's paper goes out of Lexington.

The matter has now been taken up with authorities in charge of the Railway Mail Service in an attempt to trace the difficulty to its source. We hope in this way to remedy the situation, and to bring about satisfactory delivery of the paper to every out-of-town subscriber.

ROANOKE GAME PROVES SNAPPY

V. P. I. Invades W. & L. Tonight

Expected To Prove One of Most Important Games On Gener- als' Schedule.

V. P. I. FIVE POWERFUL

Hines, Lake, Thomas, Schneider and Cameron Probable Line-up— Snively May Replace Thomas

One of the most important games on the Generals' schedule will be played tonight when the White and Blue meets V. P. I. in the Doremus gym. The contest will start at eight o'clock, but no doubt long before that time all the available seats and most of the standing room will be occupied by the large crowd expected.

The make-up of the Washington and Lee five will, it is expected, consist of Hines center, Lake and Thomas forwards, and Schneider and Cameron guards. It may be that Snively, who has been showing up so well in the last two games, will start instead of Jimmie Thomas. Pracele has been going on every afternoon during exams at 5:30. The lightness of the schedule during the last two weeks due to exams may cause some roughness in the Blue team's game, but Coach De Hart has been endeavoring to neutralize this by constant practice. The Lynchburg and Roanoke College games gave them some stiff practice also and this evening should find the Generals in good form.

A very interesting feature of tonight's battle is the fact that the two contestants, with practically the same teams, met last year in Lynchburg. Lake, Thomas, Hines and Cameron were in the Generals' line-up at that time and Carroll, Sutton, Rhodes and Brittingham were four of the Gobbler representatives. Without attempting to be prophetic it may be mentioned that the Generals won 38-32.

V. P. I. has a very powerful five this year as four regulars and several substitutes from last year returned to school. At guard there is Capt. Rhodes, last year's AN-South Atlan-

STUDENT ASSEMBLY IS HELD IN CHAPEL

Dance Regulations and Control of Freshmen Discussed Friday.

A short Student Body Assembly was held yesterday at one o'clock in the Lee Memorial Chapel.

The main questions discussed were the coming mid-winter dances—the Junior Prom and the Fancy Dress Ball; and the enforcement of the Freshman Rules.

W. E. Holt, Student Body President, presided over the Assembly, stating the business questions for which the meeting had been called.

Dean Campbell said a few words upon the influenza conditions at the University. He announced that an erroneous report had gotten out that the school was having a "flu" epidemic which might keep a few girls from coming to the dances. There are not over twelve or fifteen cases, he stated, and these are very mild and being well taken care of. He further announced that a few students think snow falls to make snow balls of, and windows are made to throw at, reminding the offenders that all damage done is paid for out of the Athletic Fund unless the offenders are known.

Short talks were then made by "Al" McCarthy, President of the Senior Law Class; "Bob" Carr, assistant leader of Fancy Dress; and "Dick" Jordan, leader of Fancy Dress, upon the various dance regulations which have been in effect for the last two years and which have done a great deal to improve the dances. These were stated and explained in a brief

Noticeable Improvement Is Shown By Varsity In Team Work and Speed.

41 TO 28 FINAL SCORE

McLung Proves Wizard At Winging Baskets—12 Pointers Out of 12 Fouls.

Last Saturday, the General defeated Roanoke College 41 to 28 in the snappiest game that has been seen on the Gymnasium floor this year. The victory was well earned and there was a very noticeable improvement in the smoothness and alertness of the team as a whole.

At the end of the half the score stood 20 to 12 in the Generals' favor, but as Roanoke did its stellar playing against V. M. I. in the last half, there was no general feeling that the game was already won. Roanoke did show a little spurt in the middle of the last half but the Blue quint came right back and with old time form dropped several field goals through the basket and a safe lead was acquired again.

Lake drew first blood in the game when he dropped the ball in the basket a short time after it went up at center. McLung for Roanoke, made a free shot on a personal foul by Snively. Lake came back, however, by dropping both free shots through the basket on a foul by Hurt. McLung made another free shot on a second foul by Snively. Lake made one more on another foul. A foul on Schneider gave McLung another shot which he made. After several minutes of play, Lake made one out of two shots on Miller's foul. The second field goal of the game was made

Intensive Track Work Wednesday

Annual Meet With Hopkins Feb. 24 Calls for Good Hard Work.

With examinations out of the way, the indoor track team will begin intensive training next Wednesday in preparation for the annual meet with Johns Hopkins on February 24, at Baltimore. The prospects of a winning team seem very bright at present, many men from last year's squad having returned.

There is a possibility of a dual meet with the University of Virginia sometime this winter. Definite arrangements will be made while the Virginia basket ball team is here. It is hoped to also stage a meet between the Freshmen of the two schools.

An attempt will be made to lower the present record for the mile between halves of the South Carolina-W. & L. game and the record for the 2-mile between the halves of the George Washington-W. & L. game on February 13 and 15, respectively. The participants in these events have not yet been selected. Coach Fletcher stated today that outdoor practice would begin as soon as the weather permitted.

CHEER LEADER TRYOUTS

All men wishing to compete for the position of Cheer Leader for the remainder of the year, after the close of basketball season, are requested to hand in their names at once to "Bob" Carr.

"Red" Peters, who was elected Cheer Leader at the 1922 election, failed to return to school, and the Executive Committee appointed Carr to the position. "Bob," being a member of the track team, will be unable to handle the Cheer Leader's job after the basketball season, and a man must be found to take his position. Tryouts are to be conducted during the remainder of the basketball season, at the conclusion of which the student showing the most ability will be chosen.

For the position of head Cheer Leader it is desired that an upper-classman be secured, but Freshmen may compete for the two assistants' places, which will place them in line for the head position later.

All applicants must see "Bob" Carr immediately, and arrange for tryouts. This should be not later than Wednesday.

IS THIS A PREP SCHOOL?

There are but few of us who have not heard the facts of the recent snow-ball fight at Graham Dorm. Some of the students, no doubt, thought it "good sport" and apparently a most appropriate way to celebrate Lexington's first snowfall of this season. We believe, however, that any fair-minded student will at once brand such tactics as not only unbecoming to COLLEGE MEN, but for which PREP SCHOOL STUDENTS would be punished.

The fact is that every window broken, and not accounted for by an individual, must be paid for out of the general breakage fund, the surplus from which fund goes to athletics. Naturally, the less the fund must be drawn upon to pay for damages done to the dormitories, the larger will be the amount which goes to athletics. This matter has repeatedly been brought to the attention of the Student Body, and yet, certain individuals insist on having their "play" and the Athletic Association suffers.

It is high time something was done! The University has undertaken a big athletic program, and needs all the finances it can possibly command. Such practices as the Dorm outrage not only tend to discourage the Athletic Association in its efforts to give Washington and Lee the best athletics in the South, but further shows that a portion of the Student Body is failing in its support.

Think it over! The individuals responsible for the damage will, we believe, be men enough to make good that damage. When this is done, let us be on our guard that a repetition does not occur. Let us be COLLEGE MEN instead of PREP SCHOOL BOYS!

ON WITH THE DANCE

With exams out of the way, all arrangements completed, and enthusiasm at a high pitch, time alone remains until the mid-winter dances will be in full swing. For weeks, the dances themselves have been overshadowed by examinations, but with the last exam finished and the arrival of the costumes for Fancy Dress Ball, University life has taken on a new color, and, just as the dances have been relegated to a subordinate position during the past two weeks, so now will scholastic duties be left in the background, while the terpsichorean art holds sway.

Dance rules, we feel, have been sufficiently discussed to call for no further comment. May we all bear them in mind, yet at the same time feel no constraint so far as having a good time, which, after all, is possible only when the rules are strictly enforced. ON WITH THE DANCE!

GET VIRGINIA TECH!

V. P. I. comes to Doremus Gym tonight for the first major encounter of the Generals' 1923 schedule. Although handicapped by a lack of practice this week, due to exams, optimism presages tonight's game, as the White and Blue is determined to avenge the football defeat suffered at the hands of the Gobblers in Lynchburg last fall.

Following the Tech game, the Big Blue Quint takes on three state universities the coming week—North Carolina, Virginia, and West Virginia. Needless to say, the outcome of tonight's game will be eagerly watched, and much depends on the showing made by Capt. Schneider and his crew in this contest. Let's get 'em, Generals!

HERE AND THERE

Alabama has begun her march toward the Southern basketball championship by defeating Centre in a close game by a score of 27-18. Centre had won four consecutive victories but were repulsed in their attempt at trying to make it five over Alabama.

Robert Driscoll Shea, eighteen, student at Harvard Law School, who spends his vacation hopping bells at the Ambassador Hotel in Atlantic City, N. J., has just been awarded a three year Rhodes Scholarship to represent Indiana. He will start for England in June.

The University of Virginia will send their mile relay team, champions of the South Atlantic Conference for the past two years, to the M.E.rose games in Madison Square Garden in New York to compete in a mile relay race with Princeton.

The O. W. L. club, an honorary Journalistic society organized some twenty years ago, has been merged with the local chapter of the Sigma Delta Chi, a national journalistic fraternity, which has resigned its charter from the national fraternity.

Ten Indians have entered the short course of the Cornell University college of Agriculture this year. These students were selected from Indian reservations in New York state. The tribes represented include Mohawks, St. Regis, Oneidas, Canadaiguas, Cayugas, Senecas, and Tuscaroras.

The enlargement of the Athletic Field at N. C. State will begin directly at the close of the present baseball season. The part to be taken away is known as Riddick Mountain, the game of all outfielders and the haven for two base hits. The removal of this ridge will necessitate the removal of nearly 6,000 cubic yards of dirt.

Freshmen who break Student Council rules at Rhode Island State College are punished by five to ten hours' hard work on the school coal pile, by wearing a baseball mask two days, or by wearing a placard reading "Excuse me, I cannot be polite."

Lehigh is looking forward to a successful season in baseball this year, as they have plenty of Varsity material from last year and many men from the present Freshman class are going to turn up. The schedule includes a southern trip in which games with all the leading southern universities will be played. Lehigh is to play the Generals in the latter part of March here on their southern trip.

tic guard. The other guard is taken care of by "Half-Pint" Sutton, football captain-elect. Brittingham jumps center and Carroll and Rutherford are forwards. Carroll has been the high scorer in practically all the V. P. I. games so far this season. He is a dead shot for the basket and his floor work is excellent. Rutherford is a football player and the only new man on the team.

V. P. I. opened the season by losing to Washington College, 28-20, one point less in difference than the Washington and Lee-Washington College game. King College was defeated 27-18, Hampden-Sidney 26-9, V. M. I., 22-19 and Concord State, 41-11. The V. M. I. game was one of the closest and most exciting seen in Lexington for a long time. The game was in doubt until the contest was finished. The Gobblers won in the last few minutes of play with two successive field goals. V. P. I. made nine field goals, Carroll scoring six of those, and V. M. I. eight. The Concord State game was played Thursday in Blacksburg and was a walk-away for the home team. Coach Cabbage played the second team for the larger part of the contest. A unique play happened in this game, something very rarely seen in college basketball. A Concord guard, losing his sense of direction in the excitement of the play scored two points for V. P. I. by dropping a pretty shot through the basket that he was defending.

Washington and Lee will meet V. P. I. again February 17 in Blacksburg.

The N. C. U. game scheduled for next Tuesday has been moved forward to Wednesday because of the dances. V. M. I. has agreed to switch dates and play their game with the University team on Tuesday instead of Wednesday as originally agreed upon. North Carolina always is strong in basketball. Last year the Generals met them twice and defeated them twice, but by very close scores, the last one being 39-36. On Thursday, the Blue team meets Virginia here and immediately following leave for their northern trip on which they meet West Virginia, Washington and Jefferson, Carnegie Tech and Pitt on successive dates.

Probable line-up for tonight:

Lake	Rutherford
Thomas or Snively	Carroll
Hines	Brittingham
Schneider (C.)	Sutton
Cameron	Rhodes (C.)

by Snively, and Roanoke took time out. McLung added two points to Roanoke's score when a foul was called on Hines. Lake only succeeded in making one out of two on a foul by Wood. After McLung had rung up another free shot Lake made a pretty overhead shot for the third field goal of the game. Miller made Roanoke's first field goal soon after this. McLung followed with another field goal, and then dropped two free shots through the basket, putting Roanoke in the lead, 12 to 11. Roanoke took time out and a Roanoke man stepped off the floor, Lake shooting the technical foul. The Generals came to life and Snively and Lake both rung up field goals while Hines contributed two, one of them a pretty shot from the side of the floor. The half ended 20 to 12.

Lake opened the second half by shooting a foul and following with a field goal. McLung dropped a free shot through the basket and Lake came back with another two points shooting from the midst of several Roanoke players. He soon repeated with another two points. McLung hung up another free shot and Hurt for Roanoke made a beautiful shot from the center of the floor. Rutherford and Miller added four more points to the Roanoke score, Miller's shot being another long one. Schneider came back with a field goal for W. & L. after some pretty floor work, and Snively dropped another one in after McLung had rung up another free throw. Hines added two and Lake added three points on a free throw and a field goal. McLung added another point for Roanoke on Snively's fourth foul and Jimmy Thomas went in for him. Lake and Schneider made two points each and McLung ended the scoring with a field goal and a free shot.

Lake and McLung lead their teams in points. Lake made 25 of the Generals' 41 points and McLung rung up 20 for Roanoke. McLung also made a nice record in shooting 12 out of 12 fouls. Lake made 11 out of 15 trials.

Strickley, who refereed the game handled it in a very efficient manner and brought forth much favorable comment from the Student Body. There has been some objection to the looseness with which the first two games were handled.

The line-up:

W. & L.	Roanoke College.
Lake	Rutherford
Snively	McLung
Hines	Miller
Cameron	Woods (C.)
Schneider (C.)	Hurt

Substitutions—W. & L.: Thomas for Snively. Goals: Roanoke, Rutherford 1, McLung 4, Miller 2, Hurt 1; W. & L.: Lake 7, Snively 3, Hines 3, Schneider 2. Foul goals: McLung 12 out of 12. Lake 11 out of 15. Referee, Stickley, Va.

Columbia has just joined with seven other colleges and Universities of the East to form the Intercollegiate Golf League. The rivals of the Blue and White in this association are: Cornell, Princeton, Yale, Dartmouth, Harvard, Penn., and Williams.

January 15 was a great day for the University of Alabama, for on that day two of Alabama's alumni were sworn in as Governor and Lieutenant-Governor for the next four years.

1923 FOOTBALL SCHEDULE IS SLIGHTLY REVISED

Game With V. P. I. in Lynchburg
Definite—Meet N. C. State in Norfolk.

The 1923 football schedule has been somewhat revised in the past week or two. It has been definitely settled that the annual V. P. I. game will be played in Lynchburg as usual. The fact that the University of Richmond had previously scheduled a game with Furman for the date in question led to the abandonment of the plan to move the game to Richmond.

N. C. State will be met in Norfolk Thanksgiving Day instead of at Raleigh as previously announced. This game should draw a great crowd as Norfolk is a fine sport town and games in the eastern part of the state have been conspicuous by their absence on the Generals' schedules of recent years.

By mutual consent the Hopkins game scheduled to be played in Baltimore November 17th has been canceled and the University of South Carolina will be met at Columbia, S. C. on this date. At the last meeting of these teams in the fall of 1919 the Generals defeated the Gamecocks in the best home game within the memory of the present Student Body. This game rounds out one of the best schedules the Generals have ever had.

Honor System Bears Fruit When J. Ed. Deaver Receives Owing For Three Years.

The students and the University are not the only ones to profit by the Honor System. J. Ed. Deaver and Sons also get their profit out of it. To show this witness the following story:

There was a student in the Class of '20 who was working his way through school. During his last year at college he contracted a debt of $40 at "J. Ed.'s" and due to his lack of funds at the time was unable to pay it. The firm being willing to help him through school and wishing to assist him in every way possible did not press his indebtedness to them and let the debt go on for a while. After graduating the student received two bills for the goods purchased at Mr. Deaver's establishment. But after almost three years, "J. Ed." received a check from him for the amount of the debt, plus six per cent interest for three years.

So the training which the student had in college by the honor system, both benefited him in relieving his mind and profited the clothing firm with which he traded. When asked about the honor system, one of "J. Ed.'s" clerks said, "It is all right, and it works."

board. Any man who does not desire this representation and whose name is on this list or anyone who desires representation and whose name is not on the list should see D. R. Snively before Monday night. Only about one-half of the Seniors in the academic school and very few Senior lawyers, as well as only a few Juniors and Intermediate lawyers have paid their representation fee for the Calyx. If this is not done by Feb. 15, the delinquents will be denied representation in this year's annual.

The Beauty Contest will close on Feb. 1. All men intending to enter girls' pictures for the contest should send them in immediately.

TWOMBLY'S WATER DOGS MAKE SLOW PROGRESS

Coach Twombly's swimming squad has been practicing from 4:15 to 5:15 Wednesdays, Thursdays and Fridays. Due to the smallness of the squad and frequent absences of its members during the examination period very little real progress has been made of late. There is a very serious shortage of men trying out for the team and Twombly wishes to urge every man who can swim at all to come out. The varsity has lost heavily by the departure of such men as Walters, Smith, Hock and Griener and as Freshmen are not eligible for varsity competition the ranks must be filled from the old men in school who have not previously been out.

Manager Rushton has scheduled a meet for the freshmen with A. M. A. here for Feb. 26 and the varsity has a two-meet trip pending on which Catholic University and George Washington University or some other Washington college will be met.

"Y" PROMOTION FORCE TO ENJOY SUPPER

The first meeting of the Y. M. C. A. Promotion Force in the new semester will be held in the Methodist Church on February 1, at 6:30 o'clock. This meeting will be in the form of a supper, and it is expected to surpass those given last year for the same force. Last year's were enjoyed very much and proved to be quite successful. At this meeting a series of discussions on Christian and economic problems, by Dr. T. K. Young, will be officially opened. These discussions will emphasize the need of our applying our Christianity to the things which we meet now and immediately after leaving college. This is a need which faces almost everybody and which will form one of the greatest problems that the college man has to face.

manner for the benefit of the new men and those who may have unintentionally overlooked or forgotten them. It was pointed out that sometimes their violation by one or two will serve to give visitors a wrong impression of the dance as a whole. For this reason the dance leaders urged the strict co-operation of all the students participating in the festivities, in order that the dances may be continually better and entirely above reproach. It was further stated that a student inviting a guest would be responsible for his conduct in every respect.

The Freshmen were then asked to retire, and "Eddie" Cameron, President of the Frosh Council, gave a short talk on the enforcement of the Freshman Rules under the new system, inaugurated this year.

cured their costumes yet, must do so on Monday.

There will be a figure practice for Fancy Dress after the V. P. I. game tonight, and a second practice on Tuesday at 4:45 p. m.

All visitors or guests other than the girls attending the dances must have invitation cards, which can be secured from Carl Gill, for the Fancy Dress Ball, or from Hagen Minnich, for the Junior Prom.

The Junior Prom will begin at 9 o'clock and will end at one-thirty. The general admission will be two dollars, for both Freshmen and Upperclassmen. There will be a Junior figure practice at the gym Monday afternoon at five.

ist, was a great asset to the company, and added much to the richness of the music, especially in the violin solo of Mr. Sulzen.

In all, the evening was delightfully spent by both audience and musicians, and the entertainment proved to be a fitting one for the close of the number of Lyceum concerts.

The fact that the Boston Symphony Quintet made the effort to hasten their rendition a few days on account of a conflict on the appointed day, occurring at the University, was deeply appreciated by everyone.

It is not yet known definitely whether or not the Lyceum concerts will be continued next year, but it is indeed hoped that they will.

The entertainment with the harps was indeed excellent, while The Adams Company was greatly admired.

Bebe Daniels, Alice Lake, Clara Kimball Young, Tom Meighan, and Alice Brady comprise the list of stars appearing in photoplays at the New Theatre next week. "The Pride of Palomar," with Bebe Daniels Monday and Tuesday, and "The Bachelor Daddy," with Tom Meighan Friday and Saturday head the excellent bill which will be presented with popular prices.
