Juniors Again Class Champs

Spring Surprise By Defeating Both Frosh and Soph Teams.

JUNIOR-FRESHMAN

The Juniors sprang a surprise and won the class championship Tuesday afternoon by defeating the Freshmen by the score of 11 to 7. The first half was closely contested and ended with the score 3 to 1 in favor of the Juniors. During the first part of the second half the Juniors swept the Freshmen off their feet rolling up a large score.

Minnich was the high scorer of the day. He made several shots from difficult angles. McVay and Thomas also played well, their floor work being excellent. For the losers, Smith was the best performer, his guarding being good.

JUNIOR-SOPHOMORE

The Juniors sprang one of the biggest surprises of the class series thus far when they defeated the fast flying Sophomores by the score of 6 to 3 Monday afternoon. Going into the game rated as sure winners, the Sophomores were unable to break through the guarding of the Juniors and could make only one field goal.

For the Juniors, the work of McVay at forward was one of the features. This diminutive player managed to shoot two out of three foul goals, thus clinching the game. Stolz at center and Thomas at guard also proved to be stars. There were no outstanding players on the Sophomore team.

DEAN BAILLIE BRINGS IMPORTANT MESSAGE

Urges Co-operation Between the Two English Speaking Nations.

Perhaps the most notable person to visit the campus this year was the Very Reverend Albert Victor Baillie, chaplain to the King of England, Dean of Windsor, and a knight of the Order of the Garter, who made an excellent address before the entire Student Body and faculty in the Chapel Monday morning, bringing to them a message of vital importance.

After the invocation by Reverend Churchill Gibson of Lexington and a few words of welcome by President Smith, Reverend Baillie spoke for thirty minutes, stressing the importance of co-operation between England and America in the settlement of international problems of today and the future. "This co-operation," Rev. Baillie said, "is to be attained only by the development of a cordial friendship between the two nations, a relationship that cannot exist as long as they attempt to criticize and correct each other."

"There is no reason why there should be a union of friendship between England and America any more than between other countries," Rev. Baillie said, "but owing to the many common traditions of the two countries and the common language, a union between the two would be the logical starting place for a world-wide relationship of this nature." "In order to develop this international friendship," he pointed out, "that it would be necessary not only for the respective governments to represent the highest thoughts and ideals of the nation, but to train the many individuals in this mode of friendly thinking. Each nation has some specific contribution which they could use for the attainment of this international co-operation, and if they gave it unselfishly the desired relationship could be established. The result would not be the lessening of the individual patriotism for the mother country, but rather the gaining of a new regard for other nations. Taking England and America as examples, he pointed out the vast results to be gained by each in

FIRE IN WASHINGTON COLLEGE

The buildings of the University were threatened by a small fire which broke out in the middle wing of Washington College last night at about seven o'clock. The fire originated on the first floor of the chemical laboratory, in a room which is now used as a store room.

The local fire department was summoned immediately, however, and due to their quick response, the fire was soon extinguished.

It did not get out of the room in which it started, and as a result did little damage. The loss was estimated at a very small figure.

FEMININE LEADERS OF EASTER DANCES NAMED

Misses Jeannette Norris and Guy Bratton Honorees of "13" and Cotillion Club.

Miss Jeannette Norris and Miss Guy Bratton will be the feminine leaders of the Washington and Lee Easter dances.

Miss Norris will lead the "13" Club dance with J. L. Peck. She is from San Francisco, California, and is the daughter of Frank Norris, the famous author, and a niece of Charles G. and Kathleen Norris. Charles G. Norris and his wife will probably visit Lexington at the same time, not only to accompany their niece, but also in search of local color for their stories.

Miss Bratton, from Marlinton, W. Va., will lead the Cotillion Club Easter Dance with Cyrus W. Hall, president of the Cotillion Club. Miss Bratton is well known among the older men of the campus. She led the "13" Club dance with H. E. Henderson in 1921.

The orchestra for the Easter festivities will probably be the Mason-Dixon Seven or the Washington Syncopaters, from Memphis. The Mason-Dixon Seven is now in Charleston, W. Va., and Cy Hall was in communication with them last night. However, no definite arrangements were made. The result of the orchestral negotiations will be announced through these columns in the Saturday issue.

Roanoke High Cops Western District Title

Defeated Lynchburg High In Close Game By 14-10 Score.

The Roanoke High School basketball team won the championship of the Western District last Saturday night in the Doremus Gymnasium when it defeated Lynchburg High school, 14-10.

The winner was in doubt until the last minute, the score see-sawing during the entire game. The first half ended 5 to 3 in favor of Lynchburg but Roanoke came back strong in the second half and kept the lead, although a narrow one until the final whistle.

The Lynchburg team, although fast, was unable to break through the defense of the Roanoke quintet. For Roanoke, Metcalf played unusually well, getting six of his team's fourteen points, and playing a good floor game. The guarding of Eades for Roanoke was also good. The entire Roanoke team played together well and seemed to have the edge on Lynchburg in passing. Both teams were weak in shooting goals.

Word has been received by the Phi Kappa Alpha fraternity from William P. MacTaggart, who was thought to have disappeared about two weeks ago while on a trip to Philadelphia. MacTaggart did not reveal the purpose of the trip to his friends hence much anxiety was felt upon his failure to return. Preparation were being made to trace him, but this proved unnecessary as a letter was received from him a few days ago postmarked Philadelphia. At present he is working in that city.

GYM EXHIBITION VERY ENJOYABLE

Biddle and Felsenthal's Work Out- standing As Clowns and Acrobats.

A large number of students and townspeople attended the Gymnasium Exhibition last Monday night. The two clowns, Biddle and Felsenthal, were the outstanding stars of the evening, both as acrobats and comedians, although everyone helped to make the exhibition a success.

The program opened with an exhibition of pyramid forming by the Gym team. This was followed by a boxing match, at the finish of which the contestants, Ingram and Horton, were black with the powder from each other's gloves.

As soon as this was over the Freshman class marched on the floor. After drilling a few minutes they spread out and gave a dumb-bell drill. They closed their part of the exhibition with two interesting games—the jump stick relay and the blindfold relay. This was followed by a novelty love dance by the Gym team and several races and a pole vault by the track team. The Gym team then gave an excellent exhibition of apparatus work of various kinds.

One of the most interesting events of the exhibition was the "Specialty Tumbling" by Biddle and Felsenthal in which both of these men showed their ability as acrobats.

As soon as these men finished their part of the program the Gym team marched out on the floor in the bright red costume of the Scotch Highlander and gave the Highland Fling dance.

The interesting program closed with an exhibition of exercises by the Sophomore class.

PRESIDENT SMITH MAKES PHI BETA KAPPA ADDRESS

One of Most Impressive Talks Heard On Davidson College Platform.

Dr. Henry Louis Smith, president of Washington and Lee University and former president of Davidson College, delivered the Phi Beta Kappa address before a large audience in Shearer Hall at Davidson. His subject was: "Our Christianity Civilization in Peril—The Educator to the Rescue." This speech, perhaps the most impressive ever heard from a Davidson platform, was a keen analysis of the dangers of our civilization today and a forceful application of the necessary remedy.

Dr. Smith also delivered the main address at the meeting of the Davidson Development Association during his visit there. He gave the Association and purpose a big boost and offered much encouragement to the new enterprise. Dr. Smith stated that he had been told both in Richmond and in Atlanta that North Carolina is leading the other states in progressive improvements.

Spring always visits a few times before coming to stay.

Considerable Progress Made In Last Two Weeks.

DICK SMITH TAKES CHARGE

Scrubs Lick Varsity In Practice Game.

The spring weather which has been appearing intermittently in the past two weeks has given the baseball candidates an opportunity to make considerable progress. Since Coach De Hart's time has been taken up with spring football, Dick Smith has assumed charge of the baseball situation. A good many gaps in last year's team need to be filled, but a large number of aspirants have appeared and prospects appear favorable.

Pitching material is particularly plentiful. Lindburg, McCallum and McDonald from last year's varsity, and Woolwine, Lackey and Kline from the 1922 Freshman team are available. The catchers are: Cover, Stuart and Taliaferro. Stuart seems to be a find behind the bat. Bob Carr and Aymer, the latter from last year's yearlings, are fighting it out for first base. Charlie Terry will not be able to come out on account of his studies. The rest of the infield is made up of catchers, namely: Frew at second, Mattox at short and McMillan at third. Playing short-stop is, however, not a new experience for "Monk," as he filled this position at Fishburne. Franklin, Brown, Wilson, Hawkins and Bock have all shown up well and will provide these men plenty of competition. The outfielders showing up particularly well are: Switzer, Gwaltney, Dawson, Weaver, Lovelace, Bemis, Lake and Leggate.

On Monday the scrubs and varsity played a nine inning game which the scrubs won 6-2. McDonald and Lackey, in the box for the scrubs, held the regulars safe at all times while the scrubs pounded out some solid hits. Yesterday the weather prohibited outdoor work and the candidates worked out in the field house.

FRESHMEN EASILY DEFEAT F. M. A. SWIMMING TEAM

First Places Won In All But One Event—Score 41-26.

Coach Twombly's Freshman swimmers defeated Fishburne in the Doremus pool Saturday afternoon by the score of 41-26. The cadets only managed to secure one first place, this being Geisler's win in the 100 yard event.

The relay was one of the most interesting events of the meet. The Little Generals won this in a very close finish. Cook in the fifty yard breast stroke outdistanced his competitors and came within one-fifth of a second of breaking the pool record held jointly by F. M. Cole and C. M. Walter. He was also the high scorer for the Freshmen making ten points. Woolfolk came next with nine and Frost made six.

The results were:
Relay—W. & L. first (Woolfolk, Allison, Jones, Frost), Fishburne second (Sturts, Sweet, Curtis, Geis-

REFORM NEEDED

President Hibben, of Princeton University, recently voiced a prevalent discontent with the modern method of education, which is yielding entirely unsatisfactory results instead of rendering a more beneficial trend to the education of the college and university graduates. The opinion of Dr. Hibben is that the institutions of learning in the United States are subject to scathing criticism.

He charges these institutions of higher learning with the indisputable fact that they are insufficiently placing upon the undergraduates the burden of thinking for themselves, that they do not train the students to act independently and in co-operation with the instructors; but they place upon the victims the onerous burden of making them rely wholly upon their memories. The upper-classmen, the juniors and the seniors at least, should have the privilege thrust upon them of making independent and original researches. True, this has been accomplished to a certain extent in the matter of requiring a thesis in certain courses, before a degree will be granted, but there is ample room yet for development along this line.

Dr. Hibben would make of the upper-classmen pioneers and discoverers commensurate with their ability. He would not make of them dumb driven cattle before the lash of the system of recitation and examination. By this method the student would have his attention turned from the absorption of easily memorized facts to the development of his mental ability and capacity. The students would possess the mental processes essential to the educated mind, which are, according to former President Elliott, of Harvard, observing accurately; recording correctly; comparing, grouping and inferring justly; and expressing the result of these operations with clearness and force. The student would be trained to meet the exigencies of the situations which may confront him as a graduate in post student days.

President Hibben does not depreciate the great and coveted faculty of memory, but under his proposed scheme of making the juniors and seniors undertake individual and original study in co-operation with the instructors, the faculty of memory would still be a great aid to the undergraduates. The introduction of such a system of education would no doubt better prepare the students for their life's tasks, and would bring the curricula of our modern colleges and universities out of the rut into which they have in the past few years confessedly sunk.

Voice of the Student Body

In the letter of the Executive Committee to the Student Body published in last week's Ring-tum Phi the outlines were given of the proposed amendment to the Constitution to be voted on this spring. This amendment, briefly, calls for the approval of the Executive Committee for every campaign for funds that is put on during the year.

This is, I believe, a forward step; but I do not think it goes far enough. Would it not be better to provide for ONE CAMPAIGN during the year, a sort of Community Chest idea, all worthy causes being included in that one? A man could then make his contribution to campus activities once and for all, and could make as definite allowance for that as he could for his tuition. The amendment might also carry the provision that an extra campaign might be put on during the year for emergencies only upon the request of a definite number of students—200 or 300.

The items to be included in the ONE CAMPAIGN should be worked out by a definite committee. One suggestion would be that one representative from each of the activities approved by the Executive Committee, or approved in the amendment itself, the three Student Body officers, and a representative of the Faculty or Administration, make up the Committee. Tentative budgets could be presented in the spring, and careful consideration of the whole could be made during the summer in order to guarantee to the Student Body that nothing but necessities is included.

Would this not be better than continuing to have numerous campaigns throughout the year, even though approved by the Executive Committee?

A STUDENT.

INTERCOLLEGIATELY SPEAKING

Trinity College closed their basketball season with a victory over Wake Forest. This gave them second honors in the State championship race, since they have succeeded in winning fifteen out of twenty-two games played. Trinity has won from V. P. I., Davidson, and Virginia. In the collegiate games played they scored 503 points to their opponents' 411.

S. I. N. A.

For the first time in three years Tulane University will have a baseball team, practice for this year having already started. The last game that Tulane played was in 1919 when they beat L. S. U. for the state championship. There is quite a bit of material in school, and a successful season is expected.

S. I. N. A.

President Chandler of William and Mary has made an appeal to the student body to raise $10,000 in order that a new gymnasium and a men's dormitory be built during the coming year. This came as a result of a friend of the college offering to donate $60,000 toward the erection of the buildings if the student body would raise $10,000 for the same cause.

J. V. Penn and J. N. Thomas, business manager of the Ring-tum Phi, have just completed a speaking tour through Virginia and North Carolina. They made talks at various high schools in these two states for the purpose of interesting students in attending Washington and Lee next year.

Any man can make a success if he has enough chances to practice on.

GRAHAM-LEE PRESENTS DEBATE

The Graham-Lee literary society presented for debate last Saturday night the following question, "Resolved: That the United States Should Recognize Mexico." The upholders of the affirmative were R. B. Hilton and B. F. Gannaway while the defenders of the negative were R. G. Wickersham and E. A. Nabors. The affirmative won, securing the unanimous decision of the judges.

The program was also composed of a reading by D. G. Hon and Current Events by M. Sinberg. These were helpful and were enjoyed by the members of the society. The attendance lately has been good and the programs well prepared.

LADY WINDERMERE'S FAN TO BE STAGED MAR. 22

Due To Be a Cleverly Conducted and Performed Play.

The Pettyplayers will present "Lady Windermere's Fan," by Oscar Wilde, at the Lyric, Thursday, March 22. Miss Mary West as Lady Windermere is—to use the phrase of Lord Darlington—"a fascinating Puritan" who becomes more human with the advance of an intriguing plot. Lord Windermere, in all his distinction, is portrayed by Cleaveland Milair. Mrs. J. S. Moffatt accomplishes a difficult characterization in the part of Mrs. Erlynne, the charming adventures about whom the plot hinges.

Some of the brilliant scenes of the play will gain from the presence of Miss Catherine Glasgow (the Duchess of Berwick), Miss Sarah White (the sweet little Lady Agatha Carlyle), Mrs. Lewis Tyree (the flirtatious and worldly-wise Lady Plymdale), Mrs. Walter Sharp (Lady Jeddburgh), and Mrs. M. B. Coyner (Lady Stutfield). One of the cleverest acts takes place in Lord Darlington's rooms—here Paul Whitfield (Mr. Cecil Graham), Hy Bock (Mr. Dumby) and Ted Harris (Lord Augustus Lorton) give some of Wilde's most famous quips.

Wilson Roach as Mr. Hooper proves that Australia, despite its peculiar shape, is a real country, while N. W. Milair as Sir James Royston, and Kenneth Goode, as the perfect Parker, contribute to the atmosphere of English society life. In giving the play, the director, Mr. Fulbright, has attempted to provide suitable setting for what has been called the greatest English comedy of the past two hundred years.

CO-OP ENJOYS GOOD RETURNS

Sum of $500 Turned Over To Athletic Council As Result of Success.

The Co-Op. supply store operated for the benefits of athletics, has proven to be a decided success this year, according to reports given by the managers. Several weeks ago, after an inventory of the stock had been taken, the managers turned over about $500 to the Athletic Council. This represents the profit during the first semester.

The Co-Op handles all kinds of athletic goods along with sundry articles of all kinds. The store is run entirely by students for student activities. It has enjoyed a good business, being supported by the entire Student Body.

The honor system has aided the managers much in the running of the business. As it is protected by the honor system, each student waits on himself and pays the cashier. This method has eliminated the need of a large clerking force, thus saving a large amount of labor. The method has proven entirely successful and the managers have yet to find the student who will allow his desire to control his honor.

The managers wish to state that they appreciate the support given by the students and that in the future they are ready to serve them for the best. At the present rate of growth of the business, they expect the Co-Op. to be a big enterprise in a few years.

adopting a policy of co-operation. "This," he said, "can be obtained only by taking an unselfish attitude toward each other and rather than criticize, to commend the other." In concluding, he commended former Ambassador Page for his work in establishing a better understanding between the two nations.

At the close of Rev. Baillie's address, President Smith, in a few words thanked him in the behalf of the University for his inspiring message.

Rev. Baillie is touring the American continent for the purpose of studying the minds of the people of the different nations. He will make only about sixty speeches while in this country and the University is fortunate in securing him to speak here.

BENEFIT PERFORMANCE FOR GOLD BASKETBALLS

A benefit performance for gold basketballs for the 1923 Generals' quint will be given at the New Theatre next Wednesday. The management has agreed to co-operate with the Athletic Association in donating a generous percentage of the gross receipts of that day to be used in purchasing the valuable spheres.

Dorothy Dalton in "Dark Secrets," her latest and best Paramount picture, and a two-reel comedy, will be the program presented, and it is hoped that a large number of students will attend in order to swell the gross receipts of that day.

The initiates were: W. A. McRitchie, T. H. Broadus, F. D. Lowe, H. A. Dawson, O. W. Howe, C. L. Gaines, H. A. Hall, C. H. Minnich, C. W. Meadows, J. C. Morrison, J. T. McVay, C. E. Shropshire, and P. ## JUNIORS AGAIN CLASS CHAMPS

The game was close throughout and the final outcome was always in doubt. The stellar guarding of the entire Junior team proved to be the deciding edge. The game was one of the most interesting ones witnessed thus far, being very exciting.

FRESHMAN-2ND YR. LAWYERS

After playing loosely for the first half the Freshmen staged a comeback, defeating the Intermediate Lawyers 14 to 3.

During the first half neither side was able to shoot many goals. However, the Freshmen managed to shoot two field goals while the Lawyers were making one. During the second half the Freshmen ran wild and piled up a large score.

Horsely and Daugherty played good games at forwards for the first year men. The floor work of Smith was also good. Matheny and Tutwiler played a good game for the losers.

SOPHOMORE-SENIOR LAWYER

Completely outplaying their opponents from the start, the Sophomores defeated the Senior Lawyers Saturday afternoon by the overwhelming score of 36 to 13. The winner of the game was never in doubt as the Sophomores played consistently and well from the first to the last.

Burke and Gaines were the individual stars for the winners, each making six field goals and playing wonderfully on the defensive. For the losers, Hines and Terry showed the best form.

The whole Sophomore team played well and gave promise of developing still better during the remainder of the series.

WILSON ELECTED TO MANAGE BASKETBALL

At a meeting of the Athletic Council held Thursday afternoon "Dick" Wilson was elected manager of Varsity basketball for 1924. Dick was very successful with the management of the Freshman basketball team this year and it is the general opinion that he will uphold the business end of the Varsity during its next season with the same diligence and efficiency that he guided the Freshmen.

Dick is a member of the Phi Delta Theta fraternity and hails from Danville, Virginia. He is a member of "13," "11," and the Cotillion Club.

Roy C. Slack was selected as Alternate Junior assistant manager for basketball.

No doubt all have followed with interest the statements of a young lady in Michigan having a temperature of 114. We certainly agree she was a warm baby!

You must meet your expenses if you expect to meet your friends.

JAN GARBER OBTAINED FOR FINALS FESTIVITIES

Will Play For Four Formal and One Informal Dance At Commencement.

One of the most important factors in making Finals a success is the selection of a good orchestra. This year, after corresponding with several of the best orchestras of the country, "Eddie" Crockett, president of Finals, has succeeded in obtaining Garber-Davis to play for the Finals' dances. Jan Garber's orchestra made quite a "hit" with the Student Body during the Fancy Dress Ball, and is known throughout the country for its good music. This orchestra will play at one informal and four formal dances during Final Week. These dances will be held in the following order:

Friday, June 1—Interfraternity Dance.

Saturday, June 2 (morning)—Senior Law Dance.

Saturday, June 2 (night)—Sigma German.

Monday, June 4—Senior Ball.

Tuesday, June 5—Final Ball.

W. & L. STUDENTS CONDUCT SERVICES AT S. M. A.

A delegation composed of five W. & L. students made a series of talks at S. M. A. last week. The team was made up of the following men: G. S. Spragins, J. B. Holloway, C. W. Lowry, Jr., J. R. Leggate, Jr., and H. A. Dawson. They were received very cordially by the cadets. Three services were given there. Lowry gave the principal talk Sunday morning while Leggate spoke at the night service. On Sunday night after the service the chaplain of S. M. A. was asked to take charge of the service at the Methodist Church, but instead turned it over to the Washington and Lee representatives.

Lowry ably conducted this service, and received a great deal of praise for his ability as a speaker.
