

DIAMOND SEASON OPENS WITH VICTORY

PHI DELTA PHI GOATS' ANNUAL MOCK TRIAL COMICAL, WELL STAGED

Finchley Is Sued By Gifford for Non-Performance of Contract.

FACULTY IMPERSONATED

Case Well Adjudicated—Verdict Not Applicable To Case.

The Phi Delta Phi initiates staged their annual mock trial in the courthouse last night. The trial was very comical and has as a basis some very interesting local color. The courthouse was packed to its utmost capacity by both townspeople and students.

The trial was a civil action against Finchley by A. S. Gifford for non-fulfillment of contract. The amount of damages which was sued for was fifty thousand dollars. The judge was "Hizzoner" Eddie Parks Davis. He was dressed to resemble the local circuit judge and he carried out his part very well, his rulings being of a very rare nature. The plaintiff was represented by Attorney Hugh A. White whose part was acted by Jean Ellis. The defendant was represented by "X" Parsons, who was impersonated by G. S. Wilson.

The first witness was Mr. Gifford, impersonated by J. C. Morrison. Gifford testified that he had been retained by Jack Wilkinson, a traveling representative of Finchley, as a sub-agent. He testified that his commission was only seventy per cent of the sales price and that Jack had neglected to pay him $777.77 of these commissions and on this basis he was suing for fifty thousand dollars damages. Gifford also testified that he had sold various pieces of clothing to several members of the faculty and that the faculty had neglected to pay for these. At this point Gifford remembered that he had received a case of imported whiskey but the judge promptly ruled that this was not evidence in his court but was for consumption.

The next witness was Dean H. D. Campbell, impersonated by J. R. Long, Jr. The dean testified that he

PUBLICATION BOARD MEETS

The Publication Board held its regular meeting Monday night, and since there was not much business to come before the board, several questions of importance were discussed. It was decided to send A. C. Kelley and J. N. Thomas, editor and business manager, respectively, of the Ring-tum Phi to the convention of the Southern Intercollegiate Newspaper Association to be held in Atlanta.

As announced before, it has been decided to give service certificates and possibly keys, to the members of the publication staff at the end of this year. Different designs for these keys have been received from leading jewelers, but none have been selected as yet.

Walton Rex will spend the holidays with friends in North Carolina.

NIGHTLY PRACTICE IS TROUB PLAN FOR PERFECTION

"The Lady in Green" Coming Next Tuesday In First Performance.

MUSIC IS SUPERIOR

Tickets On Sale Today—Road Trip Starts April 5.

The Washington and Lee "Troubadours" are practicing hard every night in order to secure the perfection of their latest show, "The Lady in Green," by Tuesday, April 5.

The music for "The Lady in Green" was written by Mr. John Graham and it is undoubtedly the best ever presented by the Troubadours. Several of the songs have been published and will soon be on sale.

The play was produced by the combined efforts of "Johnny" Morrison, "Charlie" Wright and Lidell Peck. It is divided into three acts and five scenes, and it is said to be so cleverly written that it demands the intense interest of the entire audience from beginning to end.

Every detail has been carefully attended to, and nothing has been left

W. AND L. WINNERS OF TRIANGULAR DEBATE

Unanimous Decisions Here and At U. N. C. Gives Victory To University.

With S. A. Glickstein and E. W. Poindexter of Washington and Lee upholding the affirmative, against C. G. Evans and Samuel Eisenberg of Johns Hopkins, of the question: Resolved: That the United States should favor a policy of cancellation of inter-allied war debts on condition that the German indemnity be materially reduced, W. & L. won one angle of the annual triangular debate between Hopkins, University of North Carolina, and Washington and Lee. At the same time H. M. Gould and Ralph Masinter won the negative side of the question against U. N. C. at Chapel Hill, obtaining the unanimous decision of the judges there. This is the first time in the history of the triangular debate between these schools that one school has won both sides of the question, and hence the debate, heretofore, a three-cornered tie always resulting.

The affirmative here maintained that the condition of affairs was such that the debts could not be paid. To remedy this situation a plan was proposed whereby the cancellation of inter-allied debts would allow France to release its pressure on Germany and would enable Germany to pay the maximum amount possible (about 20 billions instead of 33).

The negative maintained that cancellation of debts would not be justifiable because a great proportion of the money was not expended for war purposes; and also that Europe is perfectly able to pay. The gentlemen from Hopkins proved that the

AMENDMENTS TO BE SUBMITTED BY EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE IN COMING ELECTION

PRESIDENT OF FANCY DRESS

1. That the new office be created to be known as the President of Fancy Dress.

2. That this man shall be elected from and by the Student Body at the annual election in April.

3. That this office shall have charge of the affairs of the Easter period.

4. That he shall be leader of Fancy Dress Ball.

5. That he shall manage and direct or see that affairs are properly managed or directed. He may appoint as Business Manager any member of the Student Body other than the Business Manager of the Troubadours.

6. That he shall turn into the Executive Committee of the Student Body a report concerning the financial conditions of the Fancy Dress Ball by May 15 of the year in which he is elected.

7. That the President of Fancy Dress shall try to reduce the cost of Fancy Dress as much as possible.

8. That the Troubadours be allowed to recommend not more than two men for this office, other recommendations coming from the Student Body at large. Any student is eligible.

9. That in case profit is realized from the Fancy Dress Ball, fifty per cent shall go to the Troubadours and fifty per cent to the Athletic Fund.

10. That the Troubadours shall be financially responsible for Fancy Dress.

SENIOR COMMERCE CLASS

That the Senior Commerce class be organized as the other Senior classes and receive representation in the student government.

Crews Attaining Outdoor Condition

Both Crews Have About Thirty Men Trying For Places.

The Harry Lee and Albert Sidney boat clubs are becoming more active as Spring advances. The Albert Sidneys have been practicing in the gym for the last few weeks, getting in condition for the outdoor work which will begin in earnest after Easter. They were on the river Monday to test out the boats which have undergone extensive repairs. They have been painted and varnished. The boat house has also been remodeled.

Albert Sidney has about 30 men out for positions and among these are six coxswains who have had previous experience. Many of the prospects for other berths are showing up well. Both Pat Hatcher and Bill Holt of last year's crew have offered to help coach the men. The "Blues" won the races last year and with present prospects Captain Beard hopes to bring home the bacon again on June 4.

The "Reds" as the Harry Lees are usually called, had a meeting Tuesday night to organize, about 30 men being present. Another meeting will follow the day after the Easter holi-

New York University Taken Into Camp By 8-4 Score

TRACK PRACTICE FOR GENERALS IN EIGHTH

"MONK" MATTOX FRAILS PILL FOR TWO HOME RUNS —DAWSON GETS ONE—McDONALD PITCHES AIR-TIGHT GAME

The Generals opened the diamond season yesterday very auspiciously by taking the New York University nine into camp by the score of 8-4. The contest was interesting from start to finish and was very close until the Generals batted out six runs in the eighth, sending two pitchers to the showers. Up to this time the visitors had held a slight lead.

The Blue team showed the results of Coach Smith's training, doing some powerful hitting. "Monk" Mattox was the batting hero of the day, driving out three solid hits, two of which were home runs. In the sixth he tied the score by lifting the home-run far over the left field fence, sending Gwaltney across the plate before him. In the eighth he drove another in the same place, bringing home two other runners and breaking the three to three tie. Both of these drives were mighty, starting off low so that there was doubt as to whether or not they would fall short of the fence. Then they began to rise and passed over the fence many feet above it. His other hit was a screaming single over third base.

Dawson and Frew each got a long hit, Dawson's being a powerfully hit liner which went between the right and center fielders before they had a chance to move and rolled all the way to the embankment, giving Harry a chance to circle the paths. Frew got the first General hit, a solid two bagger. "Joe" Gwaltney got on base every time he was up, getting two singles and being hit by a pitched ball.

But a great deal of credit must be given to McDonald for the airtight game he pitched. He struck out eleven and held the New Yorkers to four hits and one earned run. In the first seven innings they only were able to garner one safe hit. In the ninth, after the game was well in hand, "Mac" let down and Troy and McLaughlin touched him for two two-baggers in succession. The way in which "Mac" then tightened up shows very well how completely he had the visitors in hand. He struck

TWO IMPORTANT ACTIONS TAKEN BY STUDENT BODY

Athletic Constitution Adopted As Revised—Students Contribute To Stadium Fund.

Two important actions were taken by the Student Body in the assembly called this morning at the request of the Executive Committee. The old Athletic Constitution, adopted in June 1911 and now considered inadequate, had been revised and was read by "Eddie" Cameron. The new changes called for the establishing of the office of Graduate Manager of Athletic and the abolishing of the Treasurer's office, the money being placed in the hands of the Graduate Manager. These changes were accepted by the Student Body.

The other important action was that of the new stadium fund. As the work on the new stadium is being held back on account of the lack of funds, three resolutions were offered; that a fund be raised from the contributions of the Student Body in order to resume work on Wilson Field, that for every dollar contributed by the Student Body, the University give two, and that a charge of ten cents be placed on the seats at every major game for the purpose of taking care of the interest on money borrowed to resume the work. This charge is to continue for five years. These resolutions were unanimously adopted by the assembly.

FROSH PREPARE TO WALLOP RUTGERS PREP

Many Candidates for Positions—Pitchers Especially Plentiful—Team Undecided.

Coach Twombly's Freshmen have been hard at work in preparation for their game with Rutgers Prep Monday afternoon, and considerable progress has been made. Practice has been going on now for approximately two weeks, and has consisted in the regular fielding and batting practice and games with the scrubs and varsity. From now on practice will be held every afternoon promptly at three.

From the large number of pitchers, Perry, Hendrix, Hickman, Burks and King have been retained, and have all been showing up very well. Perry will probably start in Monday's game. Behind the bat, Coach Twombly has Whipple, Rees and Marcus. Either Whipple or Rees will work with Perry.

The infield will probably consist of Smith, first base; Horsey, second; Ingram or Allison, shortstop, and Steele third. Falls has also been showing up well at first base.

The exact make-up of the outfield has not been determined as yet, but it is thought that it will be made up as follows: Seehorn, left; Lane, center, and Riley or "Jimmy" Hendrix, right.

THEY'RE OFF!

The 1923 baseball season is here! In Tuesday's exhibition the Generals showed the best form of any diamond aggregation, in an opening encounter, it has been our pleasure to witness in the last four years. The game was little short of perfection for an opener, and every member of the White and Blue is due all the praise an appreciative student body can bestow upon them.

With such a start, the Big Nine gives promise of treating Washington and Lee to some real baseball this season. It is a team of which any school should feel proud, and if the enthusiasm manifested yesterday is any indication of the manner in which the Generals' tossers will be supported during the season, the bleachers should contribute materially to the success of the 1923 outfit.

Let's give them all we have, Student Body. They're fighting for us, and for the love of Washington and Lee. Make yourself a contributing factor in every game, and give the players the "glad hand" after the contest is over. It helps a lot when the men on the team realize that the Student Body is appreciative of their efforts. Be liberal with your praise, and fight with the Generals.

EXCELLING

In times when it is almost necessary for one to be a specialist in some one line it behooves the individual to concentrate his energies so that he may become proficient at one thing instead of just mediocre at many. The old advice that it is unwise to "Put all your eggs in one basket," is due for a revising. It has come to the point where to be successful it is almost necessary to turn all your attention to just that one basket, and make it the goal of your endeavors.

It is a fine thing to have a general knowledge and to be on speaking terms with many different activities, but with this, one should be super-proficient in some things. He should be an authority and should excel. The world will listen to a man that excels, it counts him as a success. It has been said that the world would wear a beaten path to our door if we could make some one thing better than anybody else, no matter if it were only a mousetray. It should be the same with business and with pleasure. Instead of being contented with being just ordinary in this and that why not make it an aim to excel somewhere along the line. Identify yourself with something and work at it so that people will think of that particular thing when they see you. You can get the habit of excelling in your work and pleasure so that people expect it and will make way for you. The first success or victory is always the hardest one to win. After that they come almost of their own accord. Get the habit of being the best, of excelling, and of winning while you are in school and it will be easier when you start out in the world.

OUR NEXT ISSUE

With this issue the Ring-tum Phi suspends publication until after the Easter holidays, the next number appearing Saturday, April 7. A number of features are planned for this paper which will be our "Easter Issue." Ten columns more of news will be added, and some live political "dope" will be ready. Don't fail to get a copy of the "Easter Issue."

INTERCOLLEGIATELY SPEAKING

"Pop" Lannigan has sent out the "S. O. S." call for more track material, both for the varsity and freshman teams. At present there is hardly enough men out from which to pick teams, and the meet with Washington and Lee is drawing near. Unless the Virginia students show a marked improvement in their interest in track, the Orange and Blue team will be below standard.

The St. Louis Club of the American League has announced that a prize of $7,500 in addition to a one year contract with the St. Louis club will be given to college baseball players. The provisions of the contest stipulate that the player must be judged on three things: ability on the baseball field, scholarship, and character. This offer was first made to the University of Michigan, and the movement was fostered largely through the efforts of George Sisler, former Michigan student.

S. I. N. A.

The question now being asked in the Big Ten is whether Carl Lundgren of the University of Illinois will turn out another championship team. For the last two years he has brought the championship to Urbana, and has sent the captain of the 1922 team, McCurdy, to the St. Louis Cardinals. Lundgren has coached five Big Ten championship teams in baseball, two at U. of Illinois and three at Michigan.

Members of the football teams of Harvard, Yale, and Princeton met at the Yale Club for an undergraduate dinner, an innovation in the Big Three football relations. The dinner was presided over by Captain M. P. Dickerson of Princeton. The speakers for the evening included Captains Mallory of Yale and Hubbard of Harvard. No coaches, alumni or members of the faculty were present at the dinner.

Baylor University now has a student window cleaners' organization for the employment of students who are working their way through college. C. W. Rose, of Boulder, Colo., is director and organizer. The University of Texas has such a unit also and many other schools are adopting the idea.

Plans have already been made by the authorities of Columbia University to select a debating team which will tour Great Britain this summer. This is the first time that a team from Columbia has ventured forth to a foreign land. This proposed trip has proved to be a big incentive as the list of candidates for the team is said to be the largest in the history of the school.

Wyatt French, "Bill" Brock, Glenn Stoutt, and R. B. Davenport depart for Chattanooga for the holidays.

ALUMNI

Monday will see the beginning of the Easter festivities in Lexington this year. The first dance begins Monday night at 9:30 and lasts until 1:30 in the morning. The music will be furnished by the Virginia Seneaders. This is a new orchestra for Washington and Lee, but it has a fine reputation and it is expected that the music will be up to the standard, at least.

Tuesday morning there will be a dansant in the gym, with either the Virginia Serenaders or the All-Southern Seven playing. Immediately after dinner the Troubadours will present "The Lady in Green" at the New Theatre and at 4 o'clock, or as soon as the Troubadour show is over, the Generals will meet Johns Hopkins on the diamond. At 9:30 Tuesday night the second dance will start and it will last until 1:30 the next morning also. Classes will not start until Thursday morning. Cornell meets W. & L. Thursday and Friday on Wilson field.

There is a wonderful time in store for the alumni that come back for Easter and there will be plenty going on during the whole week. Monday and Tuesday are going to be banner days and you will not fail to enjoy yourself if you are here. Why not be here?

Alumni headquarters will be in the basement of the Carnegie Library and all alumni who will be back for the dances can register there. Cards can be secured for the dances there also and as it is necessary for all who are going to attend the dances to have cards it would be advisable for those alumni who expect to attend to obtain them as soon after arrival as possible. We are expecting you.

MORE BIG PICTURES FOR NEW THEATRE

Because of the unusually early closing of school this year and because of the large number of excellent pictures now being released, the New Theatre is booking most of the greater photoplays for exhibition here before vacation. It will be recalled that in the past only one so-called special feature was shown weekly. In order, however, to present as many of the new super-pictures as possible this year, two or more of the specials will be shown every week.

The calibre of the new programs may be gaged from the features to be shown at the New Theatre during the current and coming week.

NOTICE

For the convenience of those desiring to take the one o'clock bus to Buena Vista on Thursday, March 29, the faculty at its last meeting ordered that the regular Assembly Day schedule be observed on that day. The classes tomorrow, therefore, will begin at 9 and end at 12:45.

was personally acquainted with every happening on the campus and that Gifford was a very poor student, was inebriated upon numerous occasions, and that he had sold him an imported night shirt. The dean called upon his secretary on numerous occasions for his records of the happenings on the campus and he also recalled that he had neglected to pay for the night shirt. Following the dean President "Lefty" Louis Smith, impersonated by T. R. Nelson, took the stand. "Lefty" had purchased a track suit from Finchley and this purchase was described with flowing language which was unintelligible to an uneducated person. "Lefty" testified that his track suit had long sleeves and legs so that it would not be immodest. During his testimony he covered a very wide range of topics and wound up with a discourse upon the fair Washington and Lee.

Dr. Desha, impersonated by C. C. Dean, testified as to the numerous articles that he had purchased from Finchley. Dr. Desha was very insistent that his title should be attached to his name and he also testified that he was the fashion model of the students and that Dr. Hoyt had purchased a pair of knickers. Dr. Desha was called from court in order to attend a very important social engagement.

Jack Wilkinson, impersonated by E. A. Ames, was the next witness called. He testified that he did not employ Gifford as his sub-agent and that he was in no way connected with him. Jack said that he was an Englishman and was born in Michigan, a part of London. Jack did not have much to say about the case but could talk like an Englishman.

Finchley, a Jew, was impersonated by W. D. McRitchie. He testified that he received five dollars for each suit sold since Jack had employed Gifford as a sub-agent. He was not sure of his testimony but asked where Mercer Graham lived as he wished to have his fine reimbursed.

Judge Davis then instructed the jury who promptly returned a verdict that did not pertain to the case but mainly dealt with the idiosyncrasies of the faculty. They sentenced "Lefty" to six months in jail twice a year.

The Phi Delta Phi initiates are to be congratulated upon the excellent presentation of the trial.

NON-POLITICKING COMMITTEE MEETS

The permanent committee for the enforcement of the non-politicking agreement entered into last year met Monday afternoon for a discussion of the resolution and an interchange of the ideas concerning its effect on the campus thus far.

It will be recalled that this resolution, drawn to eliminate the old clique system—an ancient campus heritage, was signed by representatives of every fraternal organization in the University, and was in force during the spring elections.

The committee effected a permanent organization for the current year by electing R. G. Whittle chairman and T. R. Nelson secretary. A spirit of whole-hearted co-operation pervaded the meeting and presaged coming political campaigns free from objectionable features.

There was a meeting of the Y. M. C. A. Promotion Force held last night in the "Y" Room at 7 o'clock. The Promotion Force is now studying a book called "Christianity and Economic Problems." Dr. Young gave an interesting lecture and all those present seemed to enjoy it very much. The whole "Force" is taking a great deal of interest in these lectures, and much good is expected to be derived from them.

FINISHING TOUCHES TO SPRING FOOTBALL

Tackling Practice Is Main Idea for Pre-Season Activity.

Entering the last month of spring practice, the football squad is putting the finishing touches to their work for this year.

The work recently has consisted mainly in tackle practice. On Monday, the teams were put through the first signal drill of the year. The work was fast and snappy and the men showed up well. The first scrimmage was scheduled for yesterday, but owing to the fact that the field had to be used for the baseball game, it was postponed until this afternoon.

The training season has been entirely successful thus far and the men have shown a determined and willing spirit which is certain to be the basis for a winning team next fall. The attendance at the practices has been good and the men now out are to be congratulated on their good showing.

VICTORY OPENS DIAMOND SEASON

out Thorp and Dorkin and caused the third man to ground out.

The fielding of the Generals was not first class, but this was undoubtedly due to lack of practice caused by unfavorable weather conditions since practice was called. Aylmer put up the best fielding game, handling fifteen put-outs at first base in a creditable manner.

The first four innings went scoreless for both sides. In the fifth, New York U. got two runs on a base on balls and three errors. The Generals, however, came back with two runs, on Mattox's homer in the next inning. In the eighth the visitors broke the tie, and scored a run on two errors, a sacrifice hit and a passed ball. Then came the eighth.

Washington and Lee teams in all sports have shown time and time again that they deserve the cognomen of Fighting Generals and this eighth inning was just another illustration of their right to bear the name. With the Blue team in the rear, and the game beginning to draw to a close, it is a fine spectacle to see the whole Student Body rise to its feet and plead for victory. Many a time has this occurred and just as many times have the wearers of the White and Blue come through. The spirit of fight was there, urged on by a loyal Student Body and to both the team and the students too much credit cannot be given.

"Bob" Stuart, who put up a splendid game behind the bat, was first up and singled. Gwaltney was hit by a pitched ball, and both advanced a base on a passed ball. Here Coach McCarthy took out Bacile and put in Hershfield, a southpaw. Frank Switzer took two strikes and one ball, and Coach Dick Smith sent in Weaver to bat for him, Weaver being a right hand batter would be at a better advantage against the left handed pitcher. With the infield way in to prevent Stuart on third from scoring and tying the game, "Bob" dropped a pretty Texas leaguer just over the shortstop's head and Stuart counted with the tying run. Up stepped Mattox and with him a new pitcher, Torpe by name. "Monk" greeted him with his second home run, scoring Gwaltney and Weaver. The score now stood 6-4, but "Bo" McMillan wasn't satisfied to let it go at that, so he knocked out a pretty single between second and first. Frew sacrificed him to second, laying down a well directed bunt. Dawson ended the scoring with the second home run of the inning, bringing "Bo" around with him.

New York University put up a fine game. That they lost was due to their inability to solve McDonald and to hold down the Generals' batsmen. Their fielding was of high calibre, as good as any seen on Wilson field for a long time. Krassner's work at third was particularly good. This game was their second on their Southern trip of six games. On Monday they defeated Virginia by one run. They play V. M. I. today.

undone which would add to its brilliancy. Henry Clay has been in charge of the costuming. Carl Gill has directed the chorus and Lidell Peck has trained the cast. The lyrics were written by A. T. Roy and Mr. John Graham. Much of the credit for the success of the show belongs to these able and original directors who have neither spared effort nor time in turning out the best.

The road trip for the Troubadours has been scheduled and all the arrangements made. They will leave Lexington on Thursday, April 5, and play in Lynchburg Thursday night. They will play in Roanoke Friday night and in Bristol, Saturday night. There will be a dance given at Sullins that night after the show for the players. Returning to Lexington from Bristol, the Troubadours will leave a week later to complete the season with a night in Clifton Forge and probably one in Staunton.

Tickets for the local presentation of "The Lady in Green" will be put on sale today. Use your better judgment and avoid the eleventh-hour rush.

The cast for the show is as follows:
Sylvester Pamarlee—"Charlie" Wright.

Jack Dalton—"Johnny" Morison. Miss Van Courtland—"Joe" Clay Roberts.

Mrs. Noyes—J. H. Hammond. The Professor—M. I. Walton. Cora—C. W. Meadows.

Mike Muffem—A. S. Gifford. Bobbie—C. W. Blandford. Rosco—"Bill" Norvell. Bill—"Gus" Bryan. Harry—L. D. Danforth.

W. & L. WINNER OF TRIANGULAR DEBATE

cancellation would neither be morally right nor to our interest. If these debts are cancelled do not forget that the United States will not wipe away her obligation to the American people, that if these debts are cancelled the American citizen will have to pay the eleven billion dollars out of his own pocket. A debt legally contracted is sacred. What would be the future of international loans if these debts are cancelled?

The decision as announced by Chairman Ragsdale and as rendered by the Rev. Gibson, Rev. Martin, and Col. Pendleton of V. M. I., gave the victory to Washington and Lee by a unanimous vote.

days are over, and it is expected that they will start going to the river then.

There will be some new methods in training this year, while one crew is on the river the other will be taking calisthenics. This will keep the river from being congested. Arrangements are being made to lease the land along the course so that people can park their cars and watch the race. The river banks will also be cleared of all underbrush so that a clear view will be obtained. New equipment has been ordered and faster crews are hence expected.

GOLD BASKETBALLS AWARDED

The gold basketballs have arrived and were awarded to the nine letter men and Coach De Hart. Mr. Weinberg of the Lexington Motion Picture Co. assisted greatly in raising the necessary funds to purchase these basketballs by giving a benefit picture.
