

GENERALS WILL ENTRAIN FRIDAY FOR KENTUCKY

Varsity Has Been Cut Down to Three Teams For Individual Instruction---"Wildcats" Will Prove "Plenty Opposition" As Early Season Record Shows

The Generals will leave on the B. & O. at 4 p. m. Friday for Lexington, Kentucky, where they will meet the "Kentucky Wildcats." Individual instructions were begun this week by cutting the Varsity squad down to three teams. This was a very important move as the Kentucky State team is one of the largest obstacles we have to meet.

Scrimmages of the Varsity with the yearlings will be a daily occurrence at the field this week, or at least until the coach thinks that they have had enough, before the game. The coaching will be especially hard on account of the long absence from playing that the team has suffered. Their line is said to average 190 pounds from end to end, but the Student Body is nevertheless looking for a victory from our team.

Kentucky's record to date is a defeat of Marshall College 41-0 and the University of Cincinnati 14-0.

Price McLean, one of the members of the team, received injuries in the Cincinnati game which resulted in his death Sunday night shortly after seven o'clock. He returned from the game Saturday apparently all right, but Sunday morning complained of a headache and by noon was unconscious. An operation was performed immediately, but without success. McLean was a popular student and a good athlete and the whole Student Body is in sorrow over his untimely death. An attempt was made to hold football practice Monday, but it was without spirit and the effect of the accident was evident on the whole squad.

FIRST ISSUE OF MINK IS NEAR COMPLETION

Will Be a Little Late Owing To Reorganization—Staff Is Announced.

The 1923-24 Mink will differ from its predecessors in the fact that it will have a tone of genuine humor backed by real literary ability instead of the old flapper-roll your own idea. This transition from one type of magazine to another takes time and some of the ideas of the editorial board are only partially developed so that the first issue of the magazine which appears on August 20, may not have the smooth finish of later issues. It will, however, be packed full of fun and humor and will contain some unique cuts—although later issues will contain about twice as much art work as this one. Under no conditions will second rate, mediocre art work be published in the Mink this year. It will suffice to say that the attractive cover design for the first number is among the best we have seen.

The Mink this year is purely a student publication just as the other publications are and as such deserves our support. Dut to some rather clever advertising ideas subscriptions are coming along at a fairly good rate, but in comparison with some other institutions the students of Washington and Lee are not supporting the Mink like they should. If we want our magazine to compete with the leading comics of the country we will have to get behind it. The Mink welcomes and solicits any contributions from the Student Body at large and also constructive criticism from any who see fit to give it. Due to business mishaps and the unfortunate business reputation of the Mink in the past the first issue will appear a little later than as at

Y.M.C.A. Announces the Year's Budget

Financial Campaign Will Be Made October 16th—Lyceum Programs Planned.

The Young Men's Christian association at W. and L. is a student organization. It is the medium by which effective Christian work may be done on the campus. Its privileges are available for every student, regardless of creed or standing. The budget given below indicates some of the activities of the association. Every student at W. and L. is entitled to a membership ticket which is generally recognized by city Y. M. C. A.'s for their building privileges. This year a high grade lyceum course of three members is offered free to all the Faculty and students. The Y. M. C. A. room is being equipped as comfortably for students as possible. The association aims for a better spirit on the campus, stands firmly for Christian ideals and unites students on this basis.

On October 16th, the annual call will be made to the students and Faculty to support this work. The budget printed below gives the details. Further information as to detailed expenditures will be willingly given by the General Secretary or any of the officers. The students and Faculty, therefore, will be given

BIBLE STUDY GROUPS MET TUESDAY NIGHT

Dr. William Brown In Charge of Instruction—About Fifty Students Attend.

The Bible Study sessions, under the direction of Dr. William Brown, began this week with an interesting lecture given to the normal training class of student instructors Tuesday night. More than fifty leaders attended the session.

Under the supervision of Andrew T. Roy, chairman of the Bible Study Committee of the Y. M. C. A., the student leaders will hold classes in the fraternity houses, dormitories, and boarding houses, once a week. The classes are to consist mainly of a discussion on the campus problems of religion. Arrangements have already been made with the three groups, consisting of the fraternities, dormitories, and boarding houses, for the holding of the classes, and the work is expected to get under way immediately. A banquet will be given to the class which has the best percentage attendance in each group. Dr. William Brown, head of the Department of Education, who has consented to give the lectures to the leaders, had charge of the group year before last. The book under discussion is "Jesus' Measure of a Christian," by Arthur Rugh. The normal training course will continue for ten weeks. Other members of the Bible Committee are Earl Bibb, Russell Jordan, Neill Riley, and R. L. Scott.

EXECUTIVE COM. HOLDS ITS INITIAL REGULAR MEETING

Discuss Final Ball Leader Issue and Draw Resolutions Concerning W. & J. Affair.

The Executive Committee held its regular meeting on Monday night in its room in Washington College. There was an unusual amount of deliberation on a number of matters but the main facts about the measures which were completely legislated follow:

A formal petition was made by F. C. Switzer for the privilege of conducting a drive for funds to meet the budget of the Y. M. C. A. This petition was later granted by the committee.

J. S. McMath and E. W. Bibb were both heard by the committee on why each thought that the president of the class which he represented should be given the privilege and honor of leading the Senior Ball of Finals. They then retired while the Committee deliberated the question. The decision, reached after much discussion and after receiving an opinion from two prominent and influential outsiders, was that there should be a "Leader of Senior Ball" elected by the combined Senior classes of Academic, Commerce, Science, Law, and probably in the near future, of Journalism, at a joint meeting; and that his leader may or may not be from among the presidents of the classes and that he shall have as his assistants the presidents of the classes and that if he (the leader) be one of the presidents, his own vice-president shall serve as an assistant.

The committee passed a resolution to send the Dean, the football team, the coach and the graduate manager a letter expressing the hearty approval of the Executive Committee on the action that was taken in re-

Gentleman's Agreement Was Made Concerning the Playing of West

Statement To This Effect By Graduate Manager Smith—Guarded Against Eleventh-Hour Embarrassment—Change of Attitude a Surprise.

Washington and Lee's action in refusing to play the Presidents last Saturday due to the presence of a negro player in the Northerners' line-up, has caused a revival of the much mooted question of negro competition in inter-sectional athletic contests. Knowing the natural antipathy of Southern institutions toward competing against colored athletes, it has long been the practice of the Northern schools, who had negro players in their line-ups, to tests with colleges of the South. The withheld them while playing in concase last Saturday presents a radical departure from the established custom in this regard. The Fighting Generals well understood before they departed for the scene of the encounter last week-end, that Charles West, negro halfback on the W. and J. team, was not to compete against them. Graduate Manager Murphy of W. and J., had assured Coach De Hart that he would not be in the line-up, and the latter accepted it in good faith. When the team arrived at Washington last Saturday, it was learned that West was going to start against the Generals. Completely disregarding all agreements and understandings entered into by him, Graduate Manager Murphy denied all knowledge of any such agreement, and the Generals, acting under orders from Dean Campbell, refused to play.

Dick Smith made public last night the following details leading up to the incident:

FROSH GRIDMEN PLAY A. M. A. SCORELESS TIE

Had the Ball Near to Goal Line When First Half Ended---On Defensive Most of First Period and on Offensive Last Half

The first gridiron game for the Washington and Lee Freshman football team ended in a scoreless tie, with Augusta Military Academy on the cadet's field last Monday. Due to the fact that there were only ten minute quarters, the Little Generals were prevented from scoring as they placed the ball near the goal line just as the first half ended.

The Freshman team could not get started and there seemed to be some disunion between them as several times men in the line did not know what to do on plays called. Maybe this was due to the fact that it was the first time the team had ever played together and also that Brewster, star tackle, was unable to participate in the game, and that necessitated shifting the men to different positions.

The first half of the game, the ball was in the yearlings' territory most of the time, but A. M. A. did not have the necessary punch to push the pigskin over for a touchdown. During the last few minutes of the first half, the Freshmen by a series of line plunges and forward passes advanced the ball to the Cadets' eight yard line, but here the whistle blew after one play was attempted.

However, in the second half, the Little Generals seemed to have heeded the words of their coach, as they had the ball in the Cadets' territory the whole time with one exception, when the military boys had the ball for one play and then lost it on a pass intercepted by one of the Freshmen. The Freshmen put the ball twice within the 15 yard line during this period but they could do nothing as the A. M. A. line would hold, or they would lose the pigskin through a fumble by one of their backs. In the last few minutes of play, the A. M. A. team took the ball from close to their goal line and advanced it to the middle of the field by a series of successful passes but here they were unable to go farther as another etheral attempt was intercepted. The Freshmen then took the ball, but the whistle blew ending the game before they could advance it.

The game was marred by many fumbles on both sides, and Coach Davis has his charges on Wilson Field correcting their mistakes of last Monday's game so that they will be able to work in unison against Staunton Military Academy next Saturday. A shift in the line-up is due for the next game as Coach Davis is going to have the men that start at the various positions know

Students Greet Team With Rally

Lusty Cheers For Generals On Return From Little Washington Sunday.

The Generals returned from W. & J. Sunday afternoon amid the cheers and yells of many W. and L. football enthusiasts who had gathered to greet them.

Early in the afternoon, the students gathered down town in front of the courthouse eager for news of the W. and L.-W. and J. affair. Loud and lusty cheers welcomed the first car, which brought a number of our players home from Buena Vista where they had detrained after their long trip from the abode of the Presidents in Pennsylvania. Each car following was greeted in the same manner.

The football men were swamped by students eager for news, facts and all the details concerning Washington and Jefferson's refusal to concede to W. and L.'s traditional request. One man could not answer all the questions that were being asked so a crowd gathered around each player, who told the students of the disrespect shown them by the entire student body of Washington and Jefferson. The students were plainly angered over the treatment our team had to endure after game had been called off.

Informal Dance Night of Oct. 20

Is Day of W. & L.-St. Johns Game—All-Southern Seven Will Syncope.

There will be an informal dance given on October 20 in the gymnasium under the auspices of the Cotillion club, as has been rumored. This is the date of the St. Johns game so it is expected that there will be quite a number of visitors and alumni in town for both features. Each is an added attraction to the other so there should be no trouble in getting plenty of girls if the men will do their part and invite them early.

The "All-Southern Seven" will furnish the music for the dance and those who have heard these syncopators before, know that the music which they "put out" will go a long way toward making the dance a success.

The Nadir of College Relations.

Sportsmanship, hospitality, gentlemanly conduct, all that the college man holds dear, was used Saturday as the door mat—to be trampled underfoot, to wipe the feet upon, by the adherents of the Washington school. Unbelievable at first, for it was inconceivable that a community bound to us by the comradeship ties of mutual interests and corresponding purposes could be guilty of such detestable action, that unbelief slowly crystalized as report after report came in confirmation, into shocked realization which found form in justified resentment and condemnation. We speak of the mob spirit that was abroad after the cancellation of the game.

It was unfortunate that matters were not set down in black and white where there would be no question of arrangements, where also man's word is as carved in stone and not to be retracted. Custom has decreed in the past that the South's traditions as regards color should be recognized in intersectional contests; a gentleman's understanding was formed last February between Coach De Hart and the W. and J. authorities when negotiations for the game were completed. In face of these and other ethical demands on their consciousness, our would-be opponents insisted in playing a negro. This followed the failure to respond to a letter sent to them the early part of the week asking for confirmation of February agreement. Possibly the fact that three of their veterans were out of the game and their almost sole dependence was placed on the negro influenced them to such a decision. Be it as it may it was in direct disregard of all laws of courtesy and reciprocity. One good value and benefit derived from the misunderstanding will be a lack of such in the future in intersectional competition. Contracts will make definite playing conditions.

The students and townspeople seemed to have gone into a frenzy of unreasoning anger upon receipt of the news of our refusal to play. Actuated by what motives we have yet to perceive. Was it an inordinate love for the negro West? Was it fancied insult and imagined reflection on their honor? Nothing could excuse the epithets and curses, vile and filthy to the nth degree, which were hurled at any one who looked like a Washington and Lee supporter; nor the insults or violence offered W. & L. colors and their owners. Retaliation would have been foolhardy and the representatives wisely forebore. In the aftermath the mob will possibly come to its senses and realize what a stain it has placed on the name of the institution and on all American ideals of fair play and intercollegiate relation. It was a disgrace of nation-wide interest and portent, with probably no equal in the annals of college history.

The editorial South with few exceptions are solidly behind Dean Campbell in his firm and unhesitating refusal. Enthusiastic commendations and praise of his action are flowing in continuously. Such warms the cockles of the heart even as it thrills. The Student Body to the last man, in all admiration, endorse his decision.

We regret most the reception accorded our adherents in the town, regret while we condemn. Many years will pass before the memory of such unmanly conduct will be entirely erased; if it is possible to ever erase it. It will always remain a blot on the escutcheon of Washington and Jefferson.

SQUARE AND COMPASS SHOWING ACTIVITY

All Masons now in college are requested to sign their names on the card which is now posted on the bulletin board for that purpose. The Square and Compass wants to get in touch with every Mason on the campus. As yet no definite plans have been made for this year's work. Frank Switzer, president of the local square, plans to call a meeting soon.

For the benefit of all new Masons who have not heard of the Square and Campus, it might be well to mention that it is an organization of college Masons banded together for the dissemination of democracy, friendship, and good fellowship among its members while they are on the campus. It was organized at W. and L. about three years ago, and since then it has grown from a local to a national organization with thirty chapters in the leading colleges of the country.

Last year the Hoover-Smith Jewelry Co. gave a handsome cup to be awarded yearly to the Square having the highest scholastic average for the past year. This cup was dedicated to Dr. Thomas J. Farrar on behalf of his hard work and loyalty to the organization. It was largely due to Dr. Farrar's unceasing efforts that the Square and Compass has become the organization that is today.

THE OFFICIAL REGISTER LISTS 785 STUDENTS

From Thirty-Six States and Six Foreign Countries—Smiths Lead.

The preliminary register of students, just out, gives some interesting facts. At the time the register was published the enrollment was 795, but information comes from the Registrar's office to the effect that the eight hundred mark has been passed this month. This is the largest enrollment ever known at W. and L. We hope that it is not a case of "Many are called—"

Thirty-one states are represented and six foreign countries. Virginia leads the states with 231 students, while Tennessee is second with 64 and West Virginia third with 61. The widely known Smith family is present to the number of ten, while the Brown clan is second with seven representatives.

It is interesting to note that several upper classmen brought their younger brothers back with them this year. There are twelve couples of this nature. The upper classmen doing this are: Chas. A. Ball, Elbridge G. Barker, Albert M. Bernstein, Harry Dawson, S. A. Glickstein, P. D. Gwaltney, George W. Halstead, John F. Hendon, Chas. C. Lee, W. A. McRitchie, Thomas T. Moore, and James W. Spiers. The Freshmen favored thus by their brothers are: Richard A. Ball, George E. Barker, Henry Bernstein, John H. Dawson, Robert M. Glickstein, C. M. Gwaltney, Leon A. Halstead, Telfair Hendon, Henry Lee, Thomas B. McRitchie, John P. Moore, and Harry S. Spiers.

Six At Hospital.

There are at present six students in the Jackson Memorial Hospital and fortunately none are seriously ill. They all hope to leave the hospital by the end of this week so as to be able to attend their classes and to be with their friends once again. Most of the students are suffering from colds except one, who has water on the knee. The following are the inmates of the hospital: G. R. Stone, '24; J. Copper, '25; R. Ratlew, '25; R. Acevedo, '26; C. Poole, '27, and G. Adams, '27.

"CY" TWOMBLY SIGNS WITH BIRMINGHAM

Brought the "Rag" To Danville Last Summer—Was With White Sox.

Coach Twombly, better known to most of us as "Cy," has been signed up to play with "Stuffie" Stewart's Birmingham Barrons next summer. This year "Cy" pitched for Danville, and there is no doubt that it was his mastery of the mound which accounted for their winning the pennant this year.

"Cy" started playing ball in 1916 with Lehigh University. From there he went to Springfield Y. M. C. A. College, and during his three years there was known as the best pitcher among the New England Colleges. After graduating from Springfield he joined the Eastern League, pitching for Worcester for one season. It was there that one of the White Sox scouts found "Cy" and offered him a chance to play in the big leagues. It was at the White Sox winter quarters at Jacksonville that he proved himself worthy of the offer and was definitely signed up to play with them the following summer. Staying with Chicago for a year, "Cy" came to W. and L. in '21 to assist in the physical educational department as well as having full charge of the Generals' pitching staff. "Cy" is a lover of baseball, and he remarked at the time of his interview that if it hadn't been that he liked W. and L. so well he would be playing ball all the time.

ANGLO-SAXON CLUB STARTS EXISTENCE

John Powell Finds Interest Manifest Here In New Movement.

Last Saturday night the meetings of the two literary societies, the Graham-Lee and the Washington, were combined. Mr. John Powell, nationally known composer, addressed the two societies on "The Danger of Amalgamation of the White and Black Races." The hall was well filled, there being more than a hundred present. At the close of his talk, Mr. Powell asked that the Washington and Lee men form a local college chapter of the Anglo-Saxon club. The invitation met with immediate success and before adjourning the club was formed.

Mr. Powell is speaking on behalf of the Anglo-Saxon club of America. It was organized in Richmond and has since spread over nearly the entire state. Its primary motive at present is to have a bill passed in the next meeting of the State Legislature, forbidding the marriage of whites with anyone having a drop of negro blood in his veins. After the bill is successfully carried the club proposes extending its membership until it affects the entire country.

The gist of the lecture brought out the point that the intermarrying between whites and blacks is becoming more and more common every day, also that it is nearly impossible to stamp out the negro characteristics even after generations have passed. During the course of his address Mr. Powell gave many examples, showing that the problem is fast becoming one of the most serious in our history.

Wanted—A Typewriter.

PETTY PLAYERS WILL PLAY "PAIR OF SIXES"

Shelve "You and I" Because of Royalty Involved—Admit New Talent.

At a business meeting held in Dr. Shannon's office on Monday night, the proposed production of "You and I" was shelved because of the excessive royalty asked for the play.

After a general discussion and a comprehensive study of many plays, it was definitely decided to make "A Pair of Sixes" the fall production of the organization, to be ready the second week in December.

The casting committee will meet applicants for parts on Monday evening, Oct. 16, at 8:00 p. m., in Graham Lee Hall.

Mr. A. S. Miller, experienced in stage lighting and set designing, and Mr. McPeet, one of the new English professors, were elected to membership.

POOLE IS WINNER OF FIRST GUESSING TEST

Difference Between Winners and Losers Coincides With Actual Results.

The first guessing contest of the year, which was put on by McCrum's Drug Company, was won by H. Poole of Washington and Lee. His paper scored on a perfect guess. There were around four hundred guesses handed in, the majority of which were those of University students.

The way by which the winner was picked was practically simple. He would have to pick every winner, ties would not be counted, the total number of scores of the losers were subtracted from the total of the winners. The man guessing the nearest total, and also naming all the winners, won.

The contest this time was pretty close, a number of men coming within one or two points of the correct total. A greater number guessed one more than the final outcome than the number guessing one under it.

The contest for next week, which will be run on the same basis as the last, will no doubt prove a harder one to win, making the trial more of a contest and requiring more work. As the season progresses there will no doubt be many "upsets" in the scores to make the matter of picking the winner a hard one. If enough interest is shown in the guessing, the contests will be continued throughout the entire season.

AGREEMENT WAS MADE CONCERNING WEST

surance from him that West would not be entered in the game with W. and L. October 6th. These steps were taken to guard against an eleventh-hour embarrassment. Relying on this gentlemen's agreement, the incident was considered closed and nothing further was said about the matter until October 2, when Dick Smith wrote Manager Murphy reminding him of the agreement previously entered into and stating that W. and L. would not play against the negro. To this communication no reply was received.

When the team arrived at Little Washington, Dick Smith to avoid any misunderstanding took up the matter with Manager Murphy in person. Mr. Murphy, at this time, denied all knowledge of any agreement entered into with Coach DeHart and took a firm stand in regard to using West that afternoon. This attitude came as a complete surprise and there was only one alternative left. That of refusing to play under these conditions.

Day of "Many Thrills."

Students returning from Little Washington had enough adventures to last them a long time, and many say that they have had enough of that type of excitement to last a life time. The college and entire city ran wild from the minute the game was called off until—none of the returned men seem to know, for they all left as soon as possible.

The W. and J. students were having a parade when the news that the game had been called off reached them, and parade promptly changed into a mob and many of the townsmen joining them. They started tearing W. and L. pennants from cars and buildings, throwing rotten eggs and pears at every one who appeared to be from W. and L. The policemen, the majority of which were negroes, stood around and enjoyed the riot, some even taking part in it.

The members of the team who were in the hotel at the time the riot started, had to leave one at a time to keep from being noticed by the mob, and make their way to Pittsburgh as best they could. They went in cars, trains and street cars.

Students who went to the game in cars had a hard time leaving the city, because the mob would rush them and hold the autos until they had covered the car and occupants with eggs and rotten fruit. Everyone who went agrees that W. and J. showed them a great deal of attention.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE HOLDS ITS INITIAL REGULAR MEETING

gard to the W. & J. game. It follows: Dr. Harry D. Campbell, Head Coach James DeHart, Graduate Manager R. A. Smith, Members of football squad, W. and L. University, Gentlemen:

As representative of the Student Body of W. and L. University, we take this means of expressing to you the highest commendation of your recent stand in regard to the unfortunate and regrettable situation that presented itself when our team visited Little Washington, Penn.

While we realize that the Student Body of W. and L. is by no means composed entirely of Southern men, it is gratifying to know that the ideals of our illustrious founders has become so engrafted in our entire Student Body, that we are not cognizant of one student who is not in accord with your stand.

Extending to you our heartiest support in any resulting difficulty, we are most sincerely yours,
STUDENT BODY EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

The Committee strongly endorsed the Washington and Lee Band and resolved to do all in its power to help his organization develop so as to make a creditable showing at the W. and L.-Virginia game and any other games at which they may play.

There were several matters which were not completed but tabled until the next meeting.

We are after V. P. I.
