

Generals Awaiting Whistle For Old Dominion Fray

Injuries Sustained Against V. P. I. Are Slight and Squad In Good Shape—Hard Scrimmages the Order of Day On Wilson Field.

With the Virginia Poly scalps hanging at their belts, the Generals are driving toward the great classic to be played on Wilson Field this Saturday with the representatives of the Old Dominion.

During the period that Washington and Lee has played Virginia, even dating back before 1905 and last year, the two teams met either in Charlottesville or on foreign grounds, and this Saturday will witness for the first time a Virginia football eleven playing on Wilson Field.

Although some of the team suffered slight injuries in the game last week with V. P. I., they are quickly rounding into shape and will be ready when the whistle blows this Saturday. Coach De Hart has suffered no let down in his preparations for this game, and he had the squad out Monday correcting the faults shown in the V. P. I. game, instead of observing the usual custom of giving his team an easy day the Monday following a big game. The rest of this week will be devoted to scrimmages between the Varsity and the Scrubs, with long signal drills and wind sprints.

In all, the Orange and Blue have engaged in five gridiron contests this season, winning three of them and losing two, one to Furman and the other to V. M. I. In the first game of the season with Furman, Virginia could not cope with the playing of the South Carolinians and came out on the small end of a 10 to 7 score. Next meeting their jinx, Richmond, who the year before held them to a close score, at Charlottesville, they downed the Spiders by the count of 9 to 0 due to the fact that Benny Arnold, star half-back, was able to kick three drop-kicks, thus giving them enough points to be returned the victor. Their third game was an easy one as they had no difficulty in overcoming St. Johns by the score of 34 to 7. St. Johns scored their only touchdown as a result of a forward pass, while Virginia seemed to be her own and all the scrubs got into the game.

Meeting their ancient rival, V. M. I., the following Saturday, they succumbed to the short end of a 35 to 0 score. Virginia was outplayed in every department in this game, and only

EX-MEMBER OF '25 CLASS DIES IN HARRISONBURG

Byard Garber, Popular W. & L. Student Victim of Tumor Under Brain.

No occurrence could have been more sadly received by his friends and his fraternity brothers last Thursday morning when a telephone call from the home of Mr. Benjamin F. Garber at Harrisonburg announced the death of his son, Byard E. Garber, member of the class of 1925.

Garber died at the Rockingham Memorial Hospital 4:30 a. m. Thursday after being removed there by ambulance from Johns Hopkins Hospital, where he had been taking radium treatments in view of deterring the growth of a tumor under the brain. At Baltimore he was operated on by Dr. Dante, the leading brain specialist in the United States.

Funeral services were held last Friday afternoon from the home of his parents. Pall-bearers consisted of six of his fraternity brothers, Thomas Harmon, Frank Garber, John Garber, John Emrich, Beverly Dooley and Vickers Watts. A beautiful design, two and a half feet high, made up of red and white carnations in the form of a labaruh, the insignia of his

W. & L.-Virginia Cross Country Meet Friday

Little Can Be Predicted As To the Outcome of Harriers' First Race

HOWARD LEADS IN TIME

Virginia Has Practically Same Team As Last Year—Race At Four o'Clock.

That the W. & L.-Virginia cross-country meet this Friday will develop into one of the most hotly-contested track competitions which the Student Body has witnessed in the past few years was the prediction of Coach Fletcher when questioned as to our prospects today. According to Fletcher the "dope" is as follows: Virginia has practically the same team this year that they had last year: a team which is consequently much more experienced in all the tricks of the cinder path and the clay track. It is true that we defeated them rather easily last year, but the personnel of our team has changed much since then and several of our men are of an unknown quantity. In consequence practically anything may happen. On the one hand we may defeat them decisively, and on the other hand they may turn the tables on us. There is only one thing which appears to be reasonably certain, and that is that Howard, the particular pride of the Blue and White, is almost certain to finish first. While it is true that Hawkins defeated Stevens, who was Virginia's best man last season, conditions may be reversed this year, and the only possible prediction is that the fight for all positions from the second to the tenth will be extremely close; in other words it is "anybody's race." In order to emerge victorious the Blue and White will have to finish with five places out of the first nine.

The personnel of the team will be as follows: 1, C. L. Howard; 2, R. E. Wilson; 3, J. S. Hawkins; 4, B. F. Gannaway; 5, W. W. Heiskell; 6, T. W. Swope, and the last place will go to one of the following men: I. H. Pfeffer, R. A. Fulton, J. H. Beam, or R. L. Gordon. The race starts promptly at 4:00 p. m. on Friday, and it is especially urged that a large number of the Student Body turn out in order to encourage the team.

"Tex" is playing superhuman ball this season. One of the mainstays of the forward wall, Tex has contributed much to victory by his ability to get through.

ASSEMBLY HOURS SATURDAY

At a meeting of the faculty committee yesterday morning it was decided that the regular university assembly schedule would be followed next Saturday. Classes will start at 9 o'clock as usual and will last three-quarters of an hour, closing at 12:45.

The varsity football teams of several nearby prep schools will attend the game as the guests of the Athletic Association.

The "13" Club goats will be lined up to perform the ushering of the game.

Little Generals Will Also Have Their Turn With Old Dominion

Go To Charlottesville Where They Will Play University of Virginia Frosh Friday In Season's Most Important Game.

Friday morning the Freshman football team will go to Charlottesville where they will play the strong University of Virginia Freshman team Friday afternoon.

This is the most important game on the Freshmen schedule and it will be watched with much interest. It will be remembered that last year the Virginia Yearlings defeated the Little Generals 9-6 on Wilson Field, but only after a mighty battle in which the Washington and Lee Freshmen outplayed their opponents most of the time.

The team representing the class of '27 is anxious to avenge the defeat handed their classmates of '26 and a fight from start to finish is assured.

In their game against Chatham Training School last Saturday Coach Davis' men showed a great deal of improvement over their former games, both on offense and defense. Outside of a few minor bruises the First Year men came through Saturday's game uninjured and will be able to use their strongest line-up against Virginia Friday unless some one is injured in scrimmage this week.

The strength of the Virginia Freshmen this year is attested by their four victories and no defeats so far. Last Saturday they defeated the V. P. I. Freshmen by a nice margin. They have also won a victory from Augusta Military Academy, while the best the Washington and Lee Frosh could do with Augusta was a 0-0 tie.

RALLY FRIDAY NIGHT

There will be a real old-time "go-and-get-'em" rally Friday night at 7:30. Every man should hear Coach De Hart, who has consented to talk before the Student Body. Color megaphones will be on sale at 35 cents.

Saturday at 2:30 p. m. the Generals' "Big Blue Team" will play the most important game of the season, when they meet the Blue and Gold aggregation from the University of Virginia on Wilson Field. Thousands of alumni of both institutions and fans from all parts of the state will be present to witness the greatest football classic ever played on Wilson Field. The crowd is expected to far out-number any ever in Lexington to witness a football game before.

As the University of Virginia defeated the Blue and White team last year the Generals are looking for revenge and every member of the student bodies of both institutions will be present on the field fighting with their team. The bleachers nearest the gate will hold the Washington and Lee supporters and on the opposite side of the field will be the students and alumni of the University of Virginia.

The Virginia Student Body has already purchased 1500 seats and Graduate Manager Dick Smith is expected at any time a call for more tickets. A special train will arrive from Charlottesville about noon bringing the University of Virginia students. Besides this there will be a special from Lynchburg and probably one from Roanoke, bringing the enthusiastic alumni and supporters of both institutions.

There are at present on Wilson Field enough bleachers to seat approximately 5,000 people. It is expected that these will be filled and that large numbers of fans will be forced to stand on the side lines. The populations of all the neighboring towns and cities will be present in large numbers.

The "13" Club goats are to be the ushers to aid in seating the large crowds. The traffic is expected to be so heavy that Manager Smith is now looking for a club that will offer its services to act as traffic directors on the field.

OLDEST CIVIL WAR TWINS ARE G. P. AND J. H. HAW

One Studied Law At Washington College Receiving Diploma From Gen. Lee.

According to the Richmond Times-Dispatch, George P. Haw and John H. Haw, born July 29, 1838, at Oak Grove, Virginia, are apparently the oldest twins who served in the Civil War.

They fought through the war on the side of the South and both won distinction. George was commissioned Lieutenant, and lost his arm at the battle of Antietam.

After the war, Lieut. Haw studied law at Washington College, graduating in June, 1867. His diploma signed by Robert E. Lee, then president of the institution, is one of his most treasured possessions. For forty years he served as commonwealth's attorney in his county.

VIRGINIA BAND TO COME TO LEXINGTON

According to reports from Charlottesville the entire band of thirty-five pieces is scheduled to arrive with the team Saturday. They will board the special intact and play on the way down. The band will occupy the center of the Virginia section of the bleachers. W. L. Stinespring, the director, will also accompany it.

We are always glad to publish any communication that may be handed to us. We desire to call attention to the fact that unsigned correspondence will not be published.

Old Dominion Defeated.

The one sole cry of the Washington and Lee heart and the paramount desire of the season—Virginia's defeat. Truly Lexington Saturday will be the mecca of many an alumnus and gridiron fan—the objective of many pilgrimages, the direction of many prayers, the focus of many eyes. In great reality it will be the Homecoming Day. North, East, South and West promise their quota of loyal supporters of the Blue and White on Wilson Field here next Saturday. Lexington again will have the opportunity of rubbing its eyes in amazement before the return to the winter lethargy.

Optimism is prevalent. Let it be, but care must needs be taken that it not merge into stages of self-confidence and that foolish pride which so often invites discomfiture and chagrin. The victory last Saturday was eminently glorious and brilliant but the impetus will not necessarily carry us to sweeping victory over the Charlottesville lads. The coaching staff is not overly confident. They expect from the visitors a presentation of a most unusual and effective bag of tricks of which wily opponents are capable; they are expecting the most determined and fighting bunch of men they have ever faced on Wilson Field. And there is healthy fear in their hearts. The game means as much to the Orange and Blue, maybe more, as to us and they may be expected to expend the last gasp in downing old rivals and retrieving a poor earlier showing.

The General have their heart set on victory. The alumni must be greeted with the bacon, the stinging defeat of last year must be assuaged to some degree by reciprocation of treatment. Serious purpose is set in each warrior's mind. Knowing the exigency they are working hard to meet it.

We have a fight of mighty dimensions on our hands which must be met resolutely and with unclouded vision. We want Virginia, we want her badly!!! The blind of overweening confidence must be removed where it is present—we must fight! fight! fight! Up and at 'em!

Great Praise for Band.

Apathetic interest and listless condition gladly yielded place to the coming of the band in Lynchburg last Saturday. With the first blare the atmosphere took upon itself a radical change. There was born the tense excitement and the thrill of portending event. The spirit of W. & L. rose to the heights.

From everywhere and everybody came praise and commendation for the skill they displayed and the results they achieved. The football squad and coaches noted and remarked on the difference the little band of loyal instruments made. They were surprised and no less delighted. One remarked that it sounded like a regimental brigade band on parade.

They did well and for that they deserve the praise and compliments they received; they served the cause of their school immeasurably and for that they receive the commendation and grateful thanks of the Student Body.

Support the Harriers.

Two clashes with Virginia is the program for the week-end. Friday witnesses a dual clay path rivalry which promises the greatest race of cross country history. Both teams have prepared strenuously for the coming event, they come together rather evenly matched and practically the same rivals as met last year. The Blue and White will miss the services of Captain Smith of last year's championship squad, who helped the University so well in gaining the pre-eminence in the South Atlantic meet.

Probably the sport does not appeal to some. Possibly it does not possess the thrills which are necessary to attract. But, men, it does require the greatest stamina and perseverance. Small recognition in the ovation line do the harriers get, certainly inadequate to the efforts and energy expended. They deserve everything and it falls upon us to give them what we can.

Get out there Friday and show them that you are behind them. Give them the encouragement to put their best in that grueling six miles. Your presence will provide the stimulus to the greatest effort and will.

McCrum's TO GIVE PRIZE TO BEST GUESS ON SCORE

Will Award Ten Dollars For Closest Prediction of General-Virginia Game Outcome.

A prize of ten dollars is being offered by McCrum's this week for the best guess of the score of the Virginia game by quarters. Forms on which the guess is to be made can be secured free at McCrum's.

During the past few weeks, a contest has been held each week, and a prize of ten dollars awarded to the best guess as to the scores of five games of importance to local enthusiasts. Each time a Washington and Lee student has been the winner, H. Poole having won the first contest, H. W. Jones the second, and E. R. Lane the third. Inasmuch as all local interest is centered on the Virginia game this week, the contest, likewise, will be based on the game. The best guess will be announced and posted at McCrum's Sunday evening.

Y. M. C. A. NOTES

Secretary Karl Zerfoss of the Y. M. C. A. wishes to announce that the Billy Sunday Business Men's Club of Lynchburg, Virginia, will be here to conduct a religious meeting on Thursday, November 1, at 7:30 o'clock. VAST CROWD OF ALUMNI IS EXPECTED SATURDAY

Will Be the "Homecoming" Event of the Year—Many Ticket Applications Received.

With all indications pointing to a gigantic crowd for the game Saturday with the University of Virginia, plans have already been completed for entertaining the greatest number of alumni ever to witness a Washington and Lee game.

This occasion has been designated as Homecoming Day for all alumni, and from present indications it will be a huge success. Applications are pouring in every day to Alumni Secretary G. T. Holbrook for reserved seats and almost the entire space available has been sold out.

Special trains in a great many sections are being chartered and with the arrival of these Saturday morning, the round of entertainment will start. Each social fraternity on the campus is arranging for a reunion of their alumni November Third. They will take care of their members in the various houses if possible, and if not they will assist them by arranging for space out in town. An undergraduate from each of the fraternities has been appointed to look after the alumni while they are here and to see that they get full enjoyment from the occasion.

All of the alumni are reminded that this is the first time in the history of the two schools that the game has been played in Lexington, and for this reason it is desired that a record crowd attend. The Big Blue Team is working hard this week to assure that their part will be carried out and it is up to you to do yours.

The entire Student Body regards themselves as your hosts. They want you to feel at home, to make yourselves at home, and to spend a great day with them.

Come back November Third not only to see a great game, but to live again your beloved life on the campus for a day. Meet old classmates and renew old friendships. Meet the young men who are following in your footsteps. Participate in a great football game.

Remember that the team will be out there fighting to avenge that defeat handed to a weakened team by Virginia last year. It is up to you to do your part in avenging. A true Washington and Lee welcome awaits you.

COLOR MEGAPHONES WILL BE ON SALE FRIDAY

To Be Distributed At Rally Friday Night and Sell For Thirty-Five Cents.

Megaphones in W. & L. colors for use at the Virginia game will be on sale Friday, according to Otis Howe, manager of football. There is a possibility that they may be on sale during the day Friday, but if not, everyone will have a n opportunity to procure one at the rally that night. They will be sold at thirty-five cents, a price representing almost cost.

The cheer leaders are very anxious for all students to take advantage of the opportunity, for all of W. & L.'s noise making facilities will be needed to overcome Virginia, a school with a much larger student body. It is also expected that the blue and white megaphones will add considerably to the appearance of the W. & L. cheering section.

fraternity, was placed on top of his coffin.

Garber was a member of the Alpha Chi Rho fraternity, and a member of the track team during his freshman year. He left college last February, and although he had been practically an invalid ever since he left, his wonderful stamina and cheerful disposition stuck with him to the last. While at Washington and Lee he had a great many friends, and all those who knew him will always remember him as a kind and Christian gentleman.

R. W. Ratliff, '25, a transfer from the University of Mississippi, who has been sick in the Jackson Memorial hospital for the past three weeks, has gone home for a few days to recuperate from his long illness.

THE COLLEGE WORLD

University of Nebraska is to have a "Dad's Day" soon. "Dad's Day" last year was an unqualified success according to the committee in charge. More than 1,000 dads took possession of the campus that day.

Off With the Moustache.

The Michigan maiden's ideal man is not mustachoid. A reporter on the Michigan Daily asked twelve of the prettiest girls at Ann Arbor their honest and heartfelt opinions concerning the habit of many men to neglect the shaving of their lips. The verdict in every case was thumbs down for the thatched lip. Six of the girls were brunettes, four blondes and two red-headed.

But after all perhaps the mustache wearers have the real inside dope that must be gleaned where the reporter fears to tread. Who knows?

A number of buildings at Harvard are already equipped or are being equipped with automatic fire sprinklers as a measure for fire protection.

At the University of New Mexico, a local fraternity, Omega Rho, has been organized for the purpose of regulating hazing on the campus. Membership is based on fifteen semester hours of average work.

Two free tickets to the Players' Club Home-coming production of Colorado University will be given to the writer of the best one hundred word description of "A Woman's Way."

We wonder which of the hundred ways is meant.

At the University of Minnesota approximately 300 students have been placed at part time jobs by the student employment bureau since the opening of the fall quarter.

Out of a total of 1935 applications for work last year, the bureau made 1708 placements, and the amount earned by students so placed was estimated at more than $89,000.

One thousand Jews, Catholics, and Negroes, students at Harvard University, are awaiting the contemplated move to organize a klavern in Cambridge, across the Charles.

Outside of the college there is a klavern claiming a membership of 1,000, but all of its meetings are closely guarded, and the officials have not yet dared to ask permission to parade in their hoods and night shirts.

the ability of "Bennie" Arnold kept them in the running.

By defeating Trinity College by a score of 33 to 0, Coach "Greasy" Neale seems to have rejuvenated his charges, and they staged a comeback against the Carolinians. This was done by shifting men and rearranging his line-up. On the whole this change seemed to have done the team much good as the score of last Saturday's game indicates.

Although the dope is in our favor, we are not underestimating the ability of "Greasy" Neale and his team, and the score ought to be a close one. However, with the Student Body and the Homecoming Alumni back of the Generals, we ought to come through with a clean-cut victory.

DROPS U. D. C. BANNER

On Saturday, Oct. 27, the dirigible, Shenandoah, dropped a small parcel wrapped in brown paper and on which the finder was directed to turn it over to the proper authorities. A small boy found the package and carried it to the office of the treasurer and left it in charge of Mr. Penick, who opened it and found that it contained a banner from the United Daughters of the Confederacy at Washington, D. C. The banner has been placed in the Lee Memorial Chapel according to directions found folded up in the banner. The banner was dropped from the dirigible by Lieutenant Wiley, U. S. N.

Two of the records on California's fast cinder track were broken Tuesday at the interfraternity track meet. This was particularly interesting, for any contest was not allowed to participate in his own event.

Philip Barber, a sophomore, broke the 300-yard dash record in 33 seconds flat. The old record was 33 and 2-5 seconds. The three-lap (three-fourths of a mile) even record was broken by L. H. Schwoboda, a freshman, who did it in three minutes 20 and 3-5 seconds. The old time was three minutes and 30 seconds, thus the cut in time was nearly 10 seconds.

In order that many benefit and charity drives that are frequently made on the campus might be done away with, the student body of the University of California has organized a "Community Chest." This will be a sum of money raised by subscription among the students and faculty, that will meet all benefits that the students might be expected to meet.

This consolidation of all campus drives for charitable purposes is intended to do away with the individuals having to meet each benefit as it comes. A sum of money raised at the beginning of the year will be apportioned to the different causes by a committee controlling the funds.

Inter-fraternity and inter-club contests in track and baseball have been known and recognized for a long time at the University of California, but a new departure in this line has been made with the innovation of inter-college baseball. Previously the different colleges were never seriously competitive, but now the separate colleges will meet each other in combat.

Soon the College of Letters and Science will pair off with that of Law, and the College of Commerce will meet the Medical College, and so on down the lists.

Due to the constant increase in mechanical and chemical facilities on the Pacific coast, the War Department has decided to organize an ordinance unit and has assigned Major R. W. Pinger to the R. O. T. C. at the University of California, to organize such a unit.

"Men with engineering knowledge are greatly needed in the army," said Major Pinger, "and with the establishment of this department here it will give third and fourth year men an opportunity to participate in a little of the practical side of military life."

"TERRIBLE" TERRY
We are indeed glad to welcome back to the fold and to limelight "the terrible." Terry can be counted on to come through.

SIDELIGHTS ON SATURDAY'S EVENTS

"Cy" Young is present on the campus. He attended the V. P. I. game and will stay here for the Virginia game. Later he will go to Charleston for the West Virginia game. "Cy" is probably the greatest athlete W. & L. has ever turned out. He is the only man who has captained four major sports in the history of the school. He hails from Helena, Ark.

Officials of the game Saturday will be: McGoffin of Michigan, referee; Ryan of Michigan, umpire; Sugden of Harvard, head linesman.

LEXINGTON MERCHANTS
CELEBRATING THEIR 150th ANNIVERSARY THIS WEEK

It is not every town or hamlet in the United States in which the merchants' association can celebrate the 150th anniversary of its existence, but this is what the merchants of Lexington are doing this week.

Students have no doubt noticed or shared in the gratuitous gifts of free movie tickets to the Lyric Theatre this week without knowing the occasion. Nevertheless the merchants are passing out tickets very freely to all their customers and the evidence of good-will has been fully shared in by students and townspeople.

Special sales are also being conducted with notable reductions in prices.

CROSS-COUNTRY RECORD

Washington and Lee has a right to feel proud of her Cross Country team. This department of athletic activity was organized in 1914, under the supervision of Coach Forest Fletcher, who has continued in charge ever since, and to whom too much credit cannot be given for the wonderful record of his team. Since 1914 Washington and Lee has won five South Atlantic championships, and has come in second three times, never finishing lower than second; Virginia, our closest rival, has three firsts to her credit and three seconds. V. P. I. has one second. No race was staged in 1918.

The summary of the South Atlantic Championships is given below:
1914—W. & L., first; Virginia, second; at Lexington, Va.
1915—Virginia, first; W. & L., second; at Charlottesville, Va.
1916—W. & L., first; Virginia, second; at Washington, D. C.
1917—W. & L., first; Virginia, second; at Baltimore, Md.
1918—No race.
1919—Virginia, first; W. & L., second; at Lexington, Va.
1920—Virginia, first; W. & L., second; at Charlottesville, Va.
1921—W. & L., first; Virginia, second; at Baltimore, Md.
1922—W. & L., first; V. P. I., second; at Blacksburg, Va.
The teams competing in the championship were: Washington and Lee, Virginia, V. P. I., Catholic University, Johns Hopkins, North Carolina, and Maryland.
