U. of Va. Bows to Generals In Season's Hardest Battle

CAMERON'S RETURN INSPIRES TEAM

Dashing Offensive Launched In Third Quarter Sends Pigskin Over For Only Counter of the Game--Score 7-0

November 3, 1923, will go down in football history as the date of one of the greatest if not the greatest game that has ever been played on Wilson Field. Outplayed the first half, the Fighting Generals came back from the kick-off at the beginning of the second half and by a steady march down the field carried the ball over the goal line. We say that the Fighting Generals did it and they did, but the whole fight centered around Captain Eddie Cameron, who went in at the beginning of the second half, having arrived in Lexington only a few minutes before. To say that he is the hero of the hour would be putting it too mildly. His name will join that of Young, Barrett, Shultz, and the many others of eternal Washington and Lee gridiron fame. Eddie's march down the field was the deciding factor. After the touchdown "Student" Frew kicked the goal. The scoring was over with a final decision of 7 to 0.

The Generals kicked off to Virginia at the beginning of the game and the Old Dominion started off with a bang, making three first downs by straight football before being forced to kick. The rest of the first quarter was a punting duel between Maphis and Frew with Maphis getting the best of it, although the ball was between the Generals' twenty yard line and the Old Dominion's forty almost all of the time. During the second quarter the two teams resorted to line plays and end runs almost entirely, only punting when necessary. The ball stayed in the Generals' territory most of the time, although they played much better football and invaded the territory of the Virginians farther. With the opening of the third quarter Frew kicked off to the five yard line and Diffey returned the ball twenty yds. They were unable to gain and Maphis punted to the Generals' forty-five yard line. From this position the Big Blue Team opened up and carried the ball down the field and over the goal line. Captain Cameron made the touchdown by a three yard delayed plunge over right guard. Frew kicked goal.

In the last quarter the Orange and Blue opened up with an overhead attack that threatened to take them for a touchdown. Several passes carried the ball to the Generals' thirty yard line for a first down, but here the Generals' back field set to work and broke up four passes that were headed straight for the hands of waiting Virginia men. This was the final turning point of the game and after the Generals took the ball on downs here, the victory was assured.

Pat Hamilton broke through the front line of the Old Dominion on an off tackle play twice with good interference and then gave a wonderful exhibition of broken field running through the Virginia backfield. He made twenty-five yards on both runs but got credit for only one as a penalty threw his second dash out. Pat played a beautiful game from start to finish. Frew and McMillan also did some wonderful work in the backfield. McMillan tackled with a drive that would be a credit to a man weighing 180 pounds and after he had hit, the man did not think about going any farther. Frew carried the ball well and his head work in running the team was excellent. In the line Daves, Hatcher, Budnick and Bemis were apparently the best, although the whole line played well and it was impossible for the Orange and Blue to gain there during the last half.

First Quarter.

Virginia won the toss and took the northern goal. Acting Captain Frew kicked off for Washington and Lee to Diffey on the goal line, who returned 8 yards. Arnold shot off left tackle for 8 yards. Arnold shot around left end for 8 yards. Diffey went through right tackle for two yards. On a criss-cross Diffey went around right end for nine yards. Arnold got a yard at left tackle. Arnold was smeared for a two yard loss. Maphis punted to Hamilton on his own twenty yard line. Time out for Virginia. Frew went over left tackle for five yards. Hamilton added two at the right side. Frew shot through center for a first down. McMillan gained a yard at the left side. Hamilton failed at right guard. Frew punted out of bounds on Virginia's 25 yard line. Arnold made eight yards around left end. Virginia penalized five yards for off side. Virginia failed to gain at center. Diffey was thrown for a two yard loss. Maphis punted to Hamilton on his own 30 yard line where he was downed in his tracks. Washington and Lee passed but it was incomplete. Frew got a yard at center. Frew punted out of bounds on Virginia's 40 yard line. Maphis took the ball through the line for two yards. Arnold gained a yard. Diffey failed at the right side. Maphis punted fifty yards to Hamilton, who returned five. Time out for Washington and Lee. Hamilton gained a yard at right tackle. Frew failed at left end. Frew punted to Virginia's 30 yard line to Diffey, who returned eight. Time out for Virginia. Arnold made three at left end. Diffey added one at right end. Arnold went off left tackle for two yards. Maphis punted to Hamilton on the 35 yard line. Frew went over right tackle for three. McMillan went around right end for two. Frew punted to Diffey on the 35 yard line; he returned eight. Arnold failed at right tackle. Quarter over with ball on Virginia's 45 yard line.

Second Quarter.

Diffey failed at the line. On a feint Maphis hit the line for ten yards, and a first down. Arnold was thrown for a yard loss. Arnold gained ten yards around left end. Diffey made another first down around right end. Walp went thru the line for four yards. Arnold got one yard off left tackle. Arnold fumbled for a two yard loss, but recovered the ball. On the twenty-eight yd. line Arnold failed in try for field goal. Washington and Lee's ball on

PEPPY RALLY HELD IN GYM FRIDAY NIGHT

Many Alumni Tell of Their Days On Campus—Silent Tribute To War Heroes.

Last night, the entire Student Body and a number of the alumni, who had returned for the game, participated in one of the best athletic rallies ever held in Doremus gymnasium. There was more of the old time spirit and enthusiasm shown than has prevailed at any rally held this year.

At seven-thirty, the Freshman class led by the Washington and Lee band paraded the down town streets. The parade stopped in front of the Corner where the students sang the "Swing" and gave a number of yells. All of the old men joined in the march back to the gym, where "Shorty" Waters, cheer leader, led in the cheers and also gave a talk, which resulted in selling all of the megaphones; the proceeds of which will go toward the Sweater Fund.

"Booze" Whittle introduced the alumni speakers, who were as follows: Cy Young, former captain of four teams and a winner of sixteen monograms, who urged the support of every man to back the team; Frank Padgett, All-Southern center, 1919, who played on the team that defeated Ga. Tech; Ed Brown, who played sixteen years ago on the team that last beat Virginia before athletic connections were severed; Lawrence Whitten, a former cheer leader. He said that W. and L. did one of the greatest things in its history by refusing to play W. and J. this year under the existing circumstances and he also paid V. M. I. a tribute by mentioning that it was

FROSH DEFEATED BY VIRGINIA YEARLINGS

20 To 0 Score Is Result of Virginia's Highly Successful Aerial Attack.

The Little Generals lost to the strong Virginia Frosh eleven in their annual struggle yesterday by the score of 20 to 0. The Yearlings played a good game of football but were not able to break up the aerial attack of the Virginia Frosh, which was working with much success during the entire game. The Virginia Freshmen kicked off, and the Little Generals returned the ball to the middle of the field where they lost the ball on a fumble after making a first down. The entire first half of the game was nothing but a march up and down the field by both teams, neither having the punch to put the ball over the line for a touchdown. Dorsey blocked an attempt at a place kick by the Virginia team and then recovered the ball for the Little Generals during the latter part of the second quarter.

The Yearlings kicked to Virginia in the second half and Laird returned the ball to the 40 yard line. The Orange and Blue then made three first downs on end runs and short passes. The Little Generals got the ball on downs but on the second play Tyler of Virginia intercepted a forward pass and ran 50 yards for a touchdown. Mackal kicked goal. Virginia kicked off to the Yearlings, Rector returning the ball to the 35 yard line. After completing two long forward passes the Little Generals lost the ball on downs on the 15 yard line. The quarter ended just as W. and L. received Virginia's kick and ran it to the 45 yard line.

W. & L. Harriers Victorious Over Old Dominion, 26-32

Lane Howard of W. & L. Sets New Record For the Six Mile Course—Easily Outdistances Goward, Virginia's First Man By 1:20 Minutes.

The cross country team of Washington and Lee defeated that of the University of Virginia Friday afternoon by the score of 26-32. Howard for Washington and Lee, who won first honors in the time of 32 minutes and 20 seconds, set a new record for the course and led Goward of Virginia, who finished second, by one minute twenty seconds. These two men fought for the same places in the South Atlantic meet last fall and a close race was anticipated. In view of this fact Howard's showing was exceptionally noteworthy.

Following Goward came Stevens of Virginia and Gannaway of W. & L., separated by only a few seconds. Gannaway made a desperate effort to overtake the Virginia runner in the last two hundred yards, but failed.

The most exciting race of the afternoon was that between Risher, Virginia, and Heiskell, W. & L. Heiskell had been the victim of a cramp and was forced to drop back until he was ten yards behind with two hundred to go. He began to sprint and the last hundred yards was run with the men almost even, Risher finally winning by two feet.

All matters of business should be addressed to the Business Manager, and all other matters should come to the Editor-in-Chief.

We are always glad to publish any communication that may be handed to us. We desire to call attention to the fact that unsigned correspondence will not be published.

To Eddie Cameron.

To Cap'n Eddie Cameron the Student Body extends its most sincere and heartfelt sympathy in his great loss. So universally admired and regarded with affection his sorrow will be felt by each individual Washington and Lee man. The death of his mother came as an unexpected and terrible shock to Eddie.

Welcome, Alumnus.

You bring with you the misty years of the past which enclose us in their glamour and glory. Warm regard for our Alma Mater ever becomes the keener under your influence, your evident love for her. Greater vision for the future is born. We like you. We want you to make yourself at home. We want you to come often.

The Acme.

Never in the years that have gone before has Doremus Gym trembled as it did last night to the volume and strength of student voices in unison. The spirit that moves mountains was abroad last night among the Student Body. To hear and to aid in these spontaneous, welling, irrepressible yells was to become a new man to whom a few dozen wildcats would prove no opposition. Men leaving the gym walked in the air, physical existence forgotten in the thought of the supreme objective and goal that must be reached.

Men of the old gang were instrumental in adding even a keener pitch to the intensity and excitement by relating their little experiences, as they would call them. We were glad and thrilled to see them and the old spirit which they possess found fertile ground in the hearts that were looking for victory. The tiny flame has started a conflagration which only time may be used to retard.

If ever the Generals had the Student Body behind them, they had it today. That personnel, affectionate interest in the individual man, that unified admiration of the squad as a whole who represent the University, the desire to see them in the lime-light of victory, made the students and supporters cheer beyond their powers. They soared into the realm of the unattainable.

It's Westward Ho!

Eyes west! and the hearts go with them. With Virginia's game's claim only to our memories the happy faculty of looking to the future has us in its grasp. We wonder what that future will hold in store for those fighting, gallant men in moleskins who are proudly wearing the Blue. Surely nothing but success. We can only desire that the wish could be father of accomplishment as well as thought. Sanguine we are in facing the game with the Mountaineers and with good right to be so.

Classic it is called and classic it seems destined to be. The Mountaineers have moved all down that have faced them except the Strong Penn state eleven, the conquerors of the Navy, and it played that eleven to a tie on the Polo Grounds. Consequently they are confident of crushing easily the opposition which the Generals will throw on the field. Strong in the knowledge of past victories brilliantly won, the Blue and White warriors will trot out on Laidley Field as they have trotted many other times, firmly resolved to give their best and with the spirit that the best team win. Failure may come, but it will be a manly, honorable defeat with ever man fronting the situation with that W. & L. acceptance of a loss. We can be good losers as well as good winners.

Reports coming in tell us that all available seating space has been engaged and tickets will not be put on sale. Laidley Field is capable of holding 8,500 people, and in the pinch now present we may be sure that provision for many more will be made. It has ever been a colorful game and the outlook now points to even greater excitement. The Generals accomplished the impossible and the unlooked-for last season when, in the greatest fight of their career, they tied a team undefeated in the whole season. Handicapped, slated to lose by many points, they gave the Mountaineers the scrap of their lives. This with the Generals present healthy record has proven the drawing card.

In the southern counties of the state the two universities vie with each other in claiming the students eligible for college, with the Washington and Lee contingent very slightly, if any at all, behind West Virginia. There the Washington and Lee adherents are many. These to a man will attend the game, so the Generals will not lack supporters.

Supreme confidence in the skill and grit of the team, reliance on the sagacity of Coach De Hart, encouraged, but not made over confident by past performances, the future has no bugaboos nor terrors for our thoughts. LET'S STAY BEHIND THEM, GANG!

CALIFORNIA ONLY SCHOOL WITH CLEAN GOAL LINE

At the present time, the University of California is the only big university that has not been scored upon this season. She has rolled up a total of 99 points. There are many teams of the East and Middle West that have not been beaten, but none have succeeded in keeping their goal lines from being crossed.

Dartmouth comes next in the ranking of perfection in that her opponents have scored only two points. Notre Dame, regarded by many experts as the greatest team in the United States, has been scored on by two teams for a total of nine points. She has run up 161 points altogether. Yale, Michigan, Wisconsin, and Syracuse have been scored upon only once. Cornell leads in the total number of points scored with 187, but she had her goal line crossed three times for nineteen points.

MANY NEW FEATURES ARE INSTITUTED AT CO-OP STORE

Clothiers Display Regularly—Have Suitable Xmas Gifts In Stock.

This year the Co-op has introduced many innovations, the latest of which are listed below for the benefit of the students.

Tickets for the W. and L.-West Virginia game will be on sale at the Co-op during the first part of next week. The complimentary tickets for the members of the team will be delivered from Dick Smith's office.

Mr. Cunningham, Guilford's representative, has just completed a most successful three days' sale of suits, topcoats, and tuxedos for the Co-op. He sold several tuxedos for the Thanksgiving dances and expects to sell many more on his next trip on Nov. 14, 15 and 16. The new complete line which he brings every two weeks has made a great "hit" with the students.

The Co-op has just received a complete line of articles suitable for Christmas presents for both "that girl" and the homefolks. Among these are bronze college seals with mahogany and oak backgrounds, bronze fraternity seals set in mahogany, and large bronze book ends stamped with the Washington and Lee seal. These seals undoubtedly represent the best work of this kind ever shown in Lexington.

THE COLLEGE WORLD

Due to a heavy wind resulting in choppy water, a Yale freshman crew was swamped last Tuesday in mid-stream during practice. While the shell was settling under the surface the men swam to the coach's launch.

Announcement has recently been made of the establishment of a college under the auspices of the Klu Klux Klan within fifteen miles of Princeton. The name of the college which has been founded at Zeraphat, New Jersey, is Alma.

Oxford now has three of her most prominent students in this country for the purpose of debating at a number of our largest eastern colleges. Yale, Harvard, Princeton, Columbia and Cornell are on their schedule.

Captain Kennedy, of the Notre Dame cross-country team, recently broke a long standing record when the Irish team scored a victory over the Wabash harriers on the Notre Dame three and one-half mile course.

Nearly one-half of the men who have represented Princeton on the gridiron within the last twelve years have come from Exeter, Mercersburg, Hill and Lawrenceville preparatory schools.

With the slightest sign of mist we see the yellow slicker, the latest "campus rage," streaming out of all the dormitories, and taking The P. O., McCrum's and the Corner by storm. Whether or not the slicker is here to stay is still a question, but just now it is making a strong bid for first place in campus toggery fads.

During the week of November 19 to 24, Ohio State University will be the host of 700 boys and girls from all parts of Ohio, who were named county champions in one of the fourteen projects carried on this season under the guidance of extension specialists, county agents, and local leaders.

The club-work program includes active demonstration in club projects, recreation and entertainment, and a tour of the university and main points of interest in Columbus.

The Harvard Graduate School of Business Administration, according to advices received, has adopted a mid-year entrance plan to allow men to enter the school in February. Of the 443 men to apply in September only 332 were allowed entrance. To relieve such a situation the February entrance is permitted.

Raymond D. Smith and C. McC. Peale, graduates of Washington and Lee, are now taking courses in the school.

NEW ALUMNI BULLETINS ARE BEING MAILED OUT

Contain Vast Amount of Interesting Data Relative To Many Phases of Campus Life.

Interest and favorable comment has been aroused by the appearance among the Student Body of a few copies of the initial number of Alumni Bulletin for the year. It shows in its make-up and content the care and continued effort put in its pages by the editor, George T. Holbrook, Alumni Secretary, and his assistants.

The bulletin contains all information current and permanent that would be of interest to the alumni. Tersely it gives the chronicles and history of the University for the past month and a half, and also includes matters of importance which were decided during the past summer and the last spring regarding major policies of the University. Especially is stressed the Homecoming Day which we witnessed today. The issue was mailed to the alumni in good time to exhort them to return to Lexington for the big game today.

The Alumni Bulletin is to be published every two months, and in its publication marks the fulfillment of one of Holbrook's steps for a greater Alumni Association.

"Y" NOTES

Students have probably noticed the new table placed in the "Y" rooms. It is a "service table" and everyone is urged to make use of the clips, thumb-tacks, mucilage, and other useful articles put there. Mr. Zerfoss states that a typewriter is also to be placed on the table in the near future.

Frank Switzer asks all students whose "Y" pledges fall due on Nov. 1st or 10th to please make their payments at their earliest convenience in the office of the Y. M. C. A.

All men who desire a copy of the "Freshman Handbook" should make their request at the "Y" immediately as only a few remain.

The Billy Sunday Club of Lynchburg gave a very enjoyable program in the local "Y" rooms Thursday night. The speakers were Messrs. Peak, Payne and Murril, all plain business men, who did not attempt at all to preach, but succeeded in delivering in a very forceful manner their message.

Mrs. Watts, the talented soloist of the party, accompanied by Mrs. Moore at the piano, added to the enjoyment of the evening with their musical program.

LITTLE THEATRE GUILD TO PRESENT PLAY

Tuesday night at 8 o'clock Lexington's Little Theatre Guild will present "Mr. Pim Passes By." This is one of the most attractive plays ever presented by this organization. Last year's production evidenced the real worth of these plays and the talent of the Guild's members. Among the members of the cast will be: Miss Annie White, Professors Coan and Williams, Mrs. Derbyshire and Colonel Mosely.

The admission will be fifty cents. Tickets being on sale at McCrum's and The Corner.
