Generals Trounce Roanoke College In Second Game—Score 44 to 16

Maroon Put Up a Stiff Fight But
White and Blue's Floorwork
Unbeatable

SHIFT MADE IN LINE-UP

Generals Tighten Up In Guarding and Opponents Kept
From Under Basket.

Showing a very marked improvement over the play as exhibited in the game with Bridgewater last Tuesday the Generals completely snowed under the Roanoke College team by the one-sided score of 44-16. A shift in the line-up and the experience gained in the game last Tuesday resulted in a much better exhibition of floor work and a tighter guarding system which with the good shooting of the team resulted in the top heavy score.

Shortly after the game started Lake dropped a foul through the basket for the first point of the game. Roanoke came back, however, and made a field goal immediately after this, giving them the lead. The Generals were not to be denied and soon took the lead again, never to be headed. The first half ended with the score 22-7 in favor of the White and Blue.

With the beginning of the second half Roanoke took a brace and for several minutes seemed to threaten the Generals' lead. It was short lived, however, and the team in white again started on a rampage of goals that could not be stopped until the gun ended the game with a final score of 44-16.

At no time during the game was Roanoke College able to penetrate the Generals' defense with any regularity and their tries for the goal were confined for the most part to long shots which failed to prove successful. The whole team was on its toes and it was seldom indeed that a Maroon player was able to get any kind of shot at the basket from a good angle. If the Generals continue to play as good a defensive game as they did last night they can be sure of a successful season with Lake, Lane and Burke to ring up the counters with the assistance of Henry Wilson and Cameron when they are off the defense. Coach Hines is to be congratulated on the

YEARLINGS' TANKMEN MAKE READY FOR COMPETITION

Randolph-Macon Academy Is First
On Little Generals' Swimming
Card—Feb. 9.

Coach Twombly's Freshmen tank men have gotten down to work in order to prepare for the coming meets. The first comes on February 9, when the Frosh meet Randolph-Macon Academy. The Freshmen give promise of having a first-class team. Their schedule is as follows: Feb. 9, Randolph-Macon Academy at Bedford; Feb. 16, A. M. A. here; March 1, R. M. A. here.

Two meets with Fishburne are to be arranged and there is a possibility a trip being made to Washington for a meet with Central High and DeWitt Prep School.

The Varsity has no meets scheduled at the present, but there are some chances that meets will be arranged with Georgia Tech and Clemson College.

NEW ORCHESTRA MEETS APPROVAL

First Appearance of "Southern Collegians" At Basketball Game
—May Make a Trip.

The Southern Collegians, the newest musical organization to make its appearance on the campus, made its debut at the game last night. This orchestra is composed of ten of the best musicians on the campus who banded together merely for the pleasure of playing. They have consented to play at the rest of the home games of the basketball season. Much praise and hearty applause was given them from all sides attesting to the approval accorded them by the Student Body.

Although they have been organized for but a short time, they have received many offers to play in nearby cities. If the consent of the faculty can be obtained, it is probable that they will make a trip lasting several days and extending as far as Petersburg.

Harry Cooper, leader of the orchestra, plays the piano. R. B. Thomas, who plays the bass horn, is manager. The other members are: Theron Harrell, saxophone and clarinet; Vaughn Grady, saxophone; W. E. Gage, trumpet; John Funk, trombone; Charles Mann, trombone; Henry Breazeale, violin; Walter Bishop, saxophone; Montgomery Murdaugh, drums. The organization is capable of forming a saxophone sextette, and trumpet, trombone, violin or piano duets.

FIRST OF SUNDAY SOCIALS TO BE HELD TOMORROW

Music and Refreshments Will Be a Feature of Afternoon Get-together At "Y."

Meeting with friends, good music, and refreshments.

That is the treat in store for those who at 4 o'clock Sunday afternoon in the "Y" room, attend the first of a series of winter socials to which the whole Student Body is invited. Attractive musical and elocutionary programs will be given and refreshments served at the Sunday afternoon socials which the Y. M. C. A. will conduct this winter.

The program that promises a wholesale social hour for Sunday afternoon is as follows: First, there will be some special music, vocal solo, violin solo, and several songs by the University quartet. Then the refreshments will be served by the entertainment committee of the ladies' auxiliary.

John Leggett is chairman of the "Y" committee which arranges for these socials. Mrs. R. N. Latture is chairman of the entertainment committee.

Students are invited to come to the social even if they will be unable to stay the whole time.

Baynard Lawton Malone, Jr., re-entered Washington and Lee at the first of this year to take the law courses of the spring semester. He is an applicant for the LL. B. degree this June.

Mr. Oscar Strachbein, Assistant Professor of Commerce, leaves tomorrow for Washington where he will take the examination for the consular service.

EMINENT BARRISTER FOR FOUNDERS' DAY

The Hon. Geo. G. Battle of the New York Bar the Speaker
January 19.

The Hon. George Gordon Battle, of New York City, will address the regular University Assembly on Founder's Day, Saturday, January 19. Mr. Battle comes to us direct from the heart of the business world, Wall Street, and his relationships and dealings with men there have been of a wide range. The subject of his address will be announced later, but whatever its nature may be it can be assured that it will be one of interest and worth while attending.

Mr. Battle attended the University of North Carolina in 1882-1883, and the University of Virginia from 1886-1889, where he graduated with an LL. B. degree. He was admitted to the bar in 1891 and has since practiced in New York where he was assistant district attorney of New York County from 1892 to 1897. In 1909 he was Democratic candidate for district attorney of New York County. He is also a member of the New York Bar Association. Mr. Battle is listed in the latest volume of Who's Who in America.

Snappy Boxing Bout Entertaining Feature

Lewis and Sanders "Mix It Up" Between Halves At Basketball Game.

Coach Brett is to be commended on his boxing bout put on between the halves of the Roanoke College game Friday night. It was by far the best from the point of the onlooker that has ever been put on between games in several years at least. The two boxers, H. M. Lewis and E. T. Sanders, both mixed it up from the start and the match was really interesting and exciting from start to finish, something that could not be said of all of those seen in the past between the halves of basketball games.

If Coach Brett can put on some more matches like the one seen last night he can be sure that they will receive a warm reception from the students and that they will be fully appreciated as well.

Any complaint of failure to receive or delay in receiving copies of the Ring-tum Phi will receive immediate attention if directed to W. H. Cluverius, Box 899, Lexington, Va.

40 TRACK ASPIRANTS ANSWER INITIAL CALL

No Meets Scheduled—Attempts Will Be Made To Break Indoor School Records.

Forty men answered Coach Forest Fletcher's initial call Friday for the 1924 indoor track season, of which most of the men reporting are veterans from last year's outdoor track squad. All of the members of the championship South Atlantic cross-country team have also reported for practice.

According to Coach Fletcher, there will be no intercollegiate competition this year for his indoor track team. However, there will be special match races and several men will attempt to break the school records for various events which will be held between the halves of the basketball games.

Lane Howard, South Atlantic cross-country champion and contender for a place on the U. S. Olympic cross-country team, will endeavor to set a new mark in the half mile and two-mile runs. The half-mile record has been held by J. C. Robbins, who established it in 1917 and the two-mile by one of Howard's teammates, W. C. Smith, who broke the record last year. Other men who show additional promise in practice will also be given an opportunity to break some of the school marks and if they succeed in doing so they will be awarded a mongram.

Limbering up muscles and light workouts will constitute the main work for the indoor track aspirants for the coming two weeks until after examinations. After then Coach Fletcher will set down a rigid schedule of training that will have to be observed by all candidates for the team.

The main idea for having indoor track this year is to prepare for the coming outdoor track season which will start early in April and for which an exceptionally difficult schedule has been arranged.

TROUB MUSIC SHOW PLANS PROGRESSING

Musical Show Will Go On the Road
After Presentation At Local Theatre.

Though somewhat delayed by the coming examinations, the Troubadours are laying extensive plans for the coming spring, when they will present their next show. The name of the play has not been ascertained owing to the fact that they have on hand several good ones and have not made the selection as yet. However, they plan to make the next show a musical comedy with a twelve-piece orchestra. Work on this new production will start immediately after the first semester examinations are over, and the Troubadours will have ample time in which to perfect this work. They expect to make it the best piece of dramatic art ever put on by the organization.

After having a performance in the New Theatre on April 22, during the Easter holidays, the play will be taken on the road. The organization's schedule for this road trip calls for shows in four cities, two in Virginia and a like number in North Carolina. The tentative program is: April 23, in Roanoke; April 24, in Winston-Salem, N. C.; April 25, in Greensboro, N. C.; and April 26, in Lynchburg. In all these cities taken together there are seven girls' schools with an aggregate number of 4,000 girls. They will be entertained in each of the above cities and it is expected a dance will be given after each performance.

This trip will be the longest and will contain one showing more of dramatic work than has ever been attempted by the Troubadours heretofore.

The Troubadours have had offers from three schools and one other organization who want to come here to put on a show. A Sweet Briar organization may visit Lexington the latter part of the first week in February, though the contract has not been signed as yet.

Ribbon Societies Renew Activities; Reorganized on New Basis

Joint Meeting Wednesday Night of Pi Alpha Nu and White Friars Resulted In Election of Officers For Coming Term and New Men Chosen As Prospective Members.

Reorganized on an entirely new basis and giving promise of holding a more important place on the campus than ever before, Pi Alpha Nu and the White Friars, the ribbon societies of the University, have arisen from obscurity and inactivity where they were placed by an order of the faculty in the latter part of 1921, to resume their accustomed place in the lives of the students.

At a joint meeting held in Newcomb Hall Wednesday night the following officers of the societies were elected for the remainder of the year: White Friars: I. M. Quillen, president; M. W. Hamilton, vice-president; A. A. Payne, secretary-treasurer. Pi Alpha Nu: R. G. Whittle, president; P. L. Bock, vice-president; W. W. Donnelly, secretary-treasurer. At the same meeting about fifty new men were elected to membership, bids being sent out Friday. This will make a total of nearly 125 men who will compose the personnel of the societies.

Pan and White Friars were organized many years back as interfraternity social societies to promote and foster interfraternity friendship and intercourse, and to provide another source of social activity. Their growth was rapid, their initiations, parades and shows becoming some of the most entertaining and long-looked-for events of the college year. In the year 1921 due to the over-enthusiastic production of the annual show which was reprehensible in many ways, the faculty deemed it best to dissolve them.

The present organization has eliminated the censurable features of the

A CORRECTION

This paper carried in the columns of Wednesday's issue, what was thought to be the 1924 baseball schedule. It has been learned, however, that the schedule as given out has never been approved by the Faculty Committee on Athletics, and is therefore unofficial. The reported in some manner secured what he believed to be the approved schedule, and it was given out in good faith. We take this means to correct our error and caution our readers that the schedule as yet is "unofficial" and when officially announced may contain marked changes.

former societies, their purpose and perspective being basically more constructive and broader. Their aim is to recognize popular juniors and sophomores as far as possible and, as a goal, to stimulate the undergraduates to strive for distinction. The surplus of the two societies will be given to some worthy cause.

Initiation will follow the mid-winter dances and as usual will enliven the campus with the green and red hats, which the neophytes must don for several days, to say nothing of the humorous features of the ceremonies. The cuckoo birds will descend from the clocks and walk the streets to proclaim the time of day, salaams will be popular with the cry of "Hail, great god Pan" startling and amusing the ambulant population. The Pan goats will be compelled to skip through the campus if on it after twelve at night; the White Friar initiates will be required to "cookoo" twelve times.

A morning german is being planned for Saturday morning of Finals, which bids fair to prove one of the most pleasing and joyous events of the festivities. I. M. Quillen, president of White Friars, will lead the dance.

The old men of the societies are listed below. The goats are withheld from publication in the present edition.

team that he has developed. Not only do they have ability, but also team work which is just as valuable.

Lake came forth with his usual good game both on the floor and at shooting goals. Lane also played a good game as his running mate and the pair show much promise at the forward positions. They seem to be able to manage the shooting end of the game regardless of guarding. Roanoke had some very good guards, but they could not match these two and they gradually ran the score up with the able assistance of Burke, who played his first game with the varsity. Burke exhibited a fine brand of basketball and his guarding and shooting were both good. He showed up very well, and it seems that he is going to prove a very valuable man to the Generals.

Captain Cameron and Henry Wilson both played a wonderful game at guards. Cameron was always in the way of the Roanoke offense and he seldom failed to get the ball when he went after it. Too much praise can not be given Henry Wilson for his playing. He has not only ability but an exceptional amount of fight, and he is truly a great mate for Captain Cameron at the guard position.

The next game is with the Union Theological Seminary of Richmond and will be on Monday night instead of Tuesday as is the custom. The ministers-to-be usually have a good team and the game should be well worth seeing.

Judge Joseph Luther Kelley, who Thursday tendered his resignation to Governor Trinkle, of Virginia, as Chief Justice of the Virginia Supreme Court, in order to return to private life and practice law, was last year the recipient of an honorary degree from the University. He was made a Bachelor of Laws. Efforts are underway in the State Legislature to retain him on the bench, and it is probable that judges' salaries throughout the state may be increased.

The students of Oklahoma University are strongly against the honor system established there. "If you don't crib you have a queer twist in the upper story," is the general attitude of the students toward the honor system. "If there is any one tradition that should be abolished absolutely at Oklahoma, it is the "honor system," declares a professor of the institution. "It has provided more legitimate excuses for cribbing and cheating, and is the safest method, I believe, that was ever devised. Dishonest students like it; honest students are indifferent to it."
