

OBSERVATION OF FOUNDERS' DAY

Compulsory Assembly Will Be Held In Gymnasium At 11:30 A. M. Saturday.

BATTLE TO MAKE ADDRESS

Procession Will Assemble In Front of the Main Building and March To Gym.

In commemoration of the services of and in acknowledgment of the debt owed to Dr. William Graham, the first rector of the old Liberty Hall, the birthplace of Washington and Lee University, and of Robert E. Lee, to whom the present life and influential position of the University is probably due, the annual observation of Founders' Day will be followed out Saturday, January 19, General Lee's birthday.

A compulsory assembly will be held in Doremus gymnasium at 11:30 a. m., where the Student Body will be addressed by George Gordon Battle of New York. He will take as his subject, "The Relation Between General Robert E. Lee and His Father, General Henry Lee, of the Revolution." In the introductory Dr. Henry Louis Smith will deliver his usual report on the progress of the University in the past year.

At 11:15 the candidates for degrees will assemble in front of the Main Building to take their place in the procession that will proceed from there to the gymnasium. The order of the procession will be as follows: The Rector, President and Orator, the trustees, faculty and instructors, the candidates for degrees. The latter will come in following order: Bachelor of Law, Master of Arts, Bachelor of Arts, Bachelor of Science in Commerce and Bachelor of Science in the school of Applied Science.

There will be two meetings of the Board of Trustees during the day, one in the forenoon and one in the afternoon.

FIRST Y SOCIAL PROVES MOST ENJOYABLE EVENT

Large Number of Students Enjoy Musical Program and Refreshments Sunday.

Last Sunday afternoon saw the first of a series of socials which are going to be put on by the "Y." This meeting was the first of its kind this year and proved to be a success in every way. Last year the Sunday socials proved a success indeed, acting as an incentive to get the boys together once a week. Another social will be held next Sunday.

The attendance last time was very good, there being seventy-five or eighty students present. It is hoped next Sunday will see twice that number as the program will be worked out to a better degree and will be varied each time.

Last Sunday's program was entirely musical, several violin solos by Henry Breazeale, selections by Charlie Wright on the banjo and vocal solos by A. S. Gifford furnished the afternoon's entertainment. Harry Cooper accompanied them on the piano. After the completion of the regular program hot chocolate and cake were served. The time of next Sunday's get-together will be announced late.

Two Holidays Coming.

Tuesday, February 5th and Wednesday, February 6th, will be the holidays given at the conclusion of the first semester. Classes will be resumed on Thursday morning, January 7th.

The Harvard and W. & M. baseball nines may tour Europe. Ted Sullivan would add baseball to the Olympic games. In the tour games will be played in London, Paris and other cities of the continent.

VICE-PRESIDENTS AND COMMITTEES NAMED

Miss Virginia Herbert Wilson To Lead Fancy Dress Ball With C. H. Minnich.

OTHER HONOREES NAMED

Decorations Will See Completion By End of Week—Many New Features Promised.

In spite of the threat of approaching exams the matter of the Fancy Dress Ball continues to hold the center of the stage in the thoughts and discussions of the students, an interest that was increased manifold by the announcement of the committees of the Ball and the leaders. C. Hagan Minnich, as president of the Ball, will be the central figure in dramatic, or rather tabloid feature of the event. He has chosen to assist him Miss Virginia Herbert Wilson of Rock Hill, S. C. The assistant leader, J. C. Morrison, will be accompanied by Miss Bunny Martin of Mullins, S. C. D. N. Farnell, the business manager of the Ball, will lead the opening figure with Miss Nancy Elizabeth White of Greenville, N. C.

The decorating force promise the completion of their work by the end of the week. The work has been throughout painstaking and the object a considerable degree of talent and thought. The result will prove a colorful combination that will prove superior and even more brilliant and beautiful than the displays of former years. Time and effort have not been spared to make the surroundings in keeping with the standard of the dance—the South's finest. A spot light of four colors has been secured to play upon the merry-making crowd, enhancing the beauty of the decorations, and forming a source of effects in connection with the varied costumes, both brilliant and weird. Director Gill has obtained a mirror ball that will be suspended from the center arch of the gymnasium to add its scintillating glints to the other effects.

A ballet dancer will again delight

WRESTLERS MEET V.P.I. HERE ON JANUARY 25

Eliminations Are Now Under Way—Hard Workouts Will Follow During Week.

Hard work is the order of the week from Coach Brett to the Wrestling team. A meet is scheduled for Saturday, January 25, with V. P. I., and in view of the fact that V. P. I. has an exceptionally strong team this year, the W. & L. grapplers will have to put in some real work to uphold their reputation of the past.

Preliminaries in the elimination for the team were held Monday and finals will be held Wednesday. Following are the results of the preliminaries:

125 pound class: Burton, winning a decision over Rissler, and Roach winning on a fall over Moise, will wrestle Wednesday to decide the competitor of Hubbard, of last year's team.

135 pound class: Yankee, winning on a fall from Stone, and Wigglesworth, winning on a fall from Milbank, will wrestle to decide the competitor of Harper, of last year's team.

145 pound class: Jackson, winning a fall from June, will wrestle Burton to decide the competitor of Cummins, of last year's team. The higher weights will hold their elimination January 17.

The pugilists, although progressing slowly at present, will be in good condition for their first meet with the University of Cincinnati to be held in Lexington, February 8.

The men showing up well are:

Lancaster and Bettis in the 115 pound class, Osterman and Felsenthal in the 125 pound class, Lewis and Massinter in the 135 pound class, Ginsberg, Sanders, Horton and Durham in the 145 pound class, Taylor, Rector and Enders in the 158 pound class, Stemmons and Rhodes in the 175 pound class, and Budnick in the heavyweight class.

Coach Charlie Moran has resigned as mentor of the "Praying Colonels." Movement is on foot to secure "Bo" McMillan's services.

Augusta Military Academy First To Enter Inter-Prep School Tourney

Doremus Gym Will Be Scene of Great Athletic Activity March 6, 7 and 8.

Augusta Military Academy has the honor of being the first team officially entered in the High and Prep School Basketball Tournament to be staged on Doremus court, March 6, 7, and 8. Although invitations were sent out only last week, the results thus far have been gratifying, and nearly every mail brings in additional entrants. In the meantime, preparations are rapidly going forward so that many weeks before the big carnival is due to be staged, everything will be in readiness.

Virginia is the last of the South Atlantic states to adopt the tournament idea for scholastic teams, and it was feared for that reason that the initial undertaking might meet with only fair success. Expressions of opinion received by Graduate Manager R. A. Smith from a number of schools, however, indicate that the big tourney is being heartily and enthusiastically received.

While no committees have been officially announced as yet, nearly a half dozen have been named and these men will shortly be assigned to their various tasks. A committee on trophies and awards will soon start active solicitation from business houses and the various fraternity groups, since it is planned to make the trophy list, the biggest single feature of the entire tournament. In addition, a committee on entertainment will arrange for housing and entertaining the visitors while in Lexington. All teams will of course receive free entertainment while here, and while it may necessitate crowding in some of the fraternity houses for one or two nights, those in charge feel that full co-operation will be had and the visitors well entertained.

Knockdown bleachers will be placed about the playing court in the gymnasium to provide for additional seating space. Many out-of-town visitors, other than the teams, are expected to be present for the big indoor meet, and nothing will be lacking to make the event complete in every detail. Manager Hatcher is negotiating for a wrestling match as an added attraction on March 8th, and it is probable that a swimming meet will also be held.

The cheering cup, a trophy to be awarded the best cheering squad, is expected to draw a good following from nearby schools, especially for the semi-finals and the finals. Entertainment of every kind will be provided for the visiting athletes so that their stay in Lexington will be both pleasant and profitable. Washington and Lee is indeed fortunate in having the honor to entertain the First Annual State High and Prep School Basketball Tournament, and it is believed the Student Body will lend its heartiest support to the enterprise.

UNION SEMINARY GOES DOWN BEFORE GENERALS

FRESHMAN QUINT DOWNS WOODBERRY

Take Early Lead Over Opponents And Come Off Victors—Score 23-20.

Displaying a brand of basketball that could not be stopped, the Washington and Lee Freshman basketball team defeated the Woodberry Forest School Tuesday afternoon by a 23 to 20 score in one of the closest games played this year on the latter's floor. The Little Generals were supreme throughout the contest and there was no doubt as to the outcome of the game.

Starting in with a rush that took the Woodberry Forest boys off their feet, the Freshmen took an early lead which they held during the whole encounter. However, the prep school team was not daunted by this and led by their star center, Van Storey, staged a comeback in the latter part of the game. At this juncture of the game, the yearlings called time out and took a much needed rest. This seemed to be very beneficial to them as they stopped the onslaught after this.

At no time during the game were the White and Blue first year team more than four points ahead of their opponents. The Freshmen completely outclassed the Woodberry Forest boys in the passing game as they would take the ball from one end of the floor and carry it to the upper end by short lightning passes, and then either Herndon or Davison would toss it through the hoops for a ringer. Also in shooting fouls, the Little Generals were the better.

In Van Storey, who plays the pivot position, the Woodberry Forest team has one of the best men in prep school circles. As a floor man, he was undoubtedly the best during yesterday's game. He led his team in scoring by making eleven points.

Herndon, star forward, was the shining light for the Freshmen as he was high point man of the game with twelve markers. Davison, with his beautiful floor work and guarding, also stood out as one of the stars.

Coach Brett will take his charges to Charlottesville today where he will hook up with the University of Virginia Freshman in battle tonight.

Those men making the trip are as follows: Coach Brett, Davison, Herndon, Funk, Ginsburg, Van Horn, Bowker, McCandless and Manager Brown.

CONVENTION REPORTS MADE TO LOCAL CONGREGATIONS

Delegates To Indianapolis Conclave Spoke Sunday—U. T. S. Men Taught Classes.

S. men, representatives of their respective schools at the Student Volunteer convention in Indianapolis, spoke on the main phases of the convention's program at the Sunday morning services of the A. R. P., Methodist, Baptist, and Episcopal churches, and Sunday night at the meetings of the young peoples' organizations. Besides speaking on several of these teams, the U. T. S. men took active part in other religious services.

The teams and the churches at which they spoke are as follows: C. W. Lowry, Jr., John D. Mayhew, and Cadet Washington, at the Methodist church; Cadet Meade, W. H. Cluverius, and Robert Fall at the Episcopal

Fast Floorwork and Close Guarding Again Bring White and Blue Victory

VISITORS OFF ON SHOOTING

Lane, Lake and Wilson Each Toss a Quintet of Field Goals—Mauze In Good Form.

Monday night the Generals added another victory to their list by a defeat of the Union Theological Seminary to the tune of 36-9. The team from Richmond was outclassed from start to finish and the game was never in doubt. Inability to make shots from the floor was the main cause of their poor showing although the White and Blue had them outclassed from the time the game started and there was never any chance of heading them.

The Generals' team in White, is fast developing a team work and floor work that is going to be very hard to beat and with the good shots that are on the team it is beginning to look as though the Generals were going to have one of the best seasons that they have had in a good many years.

U. T. S., although lacking much in shooting displayed a lot of ability in guard and floor work, especially in the middle of the floor. Their defense was not quite as strong at the crucial moments when a goal was possible, however, and the Generals usually pierced their defense by means of an excellent passing system that they have developed this year to a great extent.

The White and Blue had the game their own way from the start and it was simply a question of how big the score would be. Eight field goals and a foul shot for the Generals against one field goal and two foul shots for U. T. S. was the result of the first half of play and when the game ended the White and Blue had dropped the ball through the basket seventeen times from the floor and made two free shots against two field goals and five successful shots from the seventeen foot line.

Although the White and Blue played as a team and there were no individual stars at any time during the game. Burke was outstanding during the first half and Henry Wilson played a great game during the last half. The big feature of the game, however, was the way the team played together instead of playing individual basketball. It is not often that a school can put out a team made up of four good for-

MAPHIS TO LEAD VIRGINIA FOOTBALL TEAM IN 1924

S. W. Maphis, Jr., of Warrenton, Virginia, was elected captain of the 1924 football team to succeed G. B. "Benny" Arnold, who was first chosen to head the team but resigned. Maphis has made three football letters at the university and in the past two years has been one of the mainstays of the Virginia eleven.

Maphis and Arnold have been running mates in the backfield for two years. The record of Maphis as a punter has been as remarkable as that of Arnold as a dropkicker.

In every contest the punts of Maphis have averaged greater distance than those of his opponents. He out-kicked such men as J. Bennett of Georgia, White of V. M. I., MacDonald of North Carolina and Ruth-erford of V. P. I. Arnold made good five drop kicks out of eight tries, during the season. All of these were behind the 35 yard line and two from the 45 yard line.

What An Education Means.

The word "educate," says Prof. F.
D. Farrell in a recent editorial in the Kansas Industrialist, comes from a Latin expression meaning "to lead out" or "to draw out." Thus, it originally meant a leading out or a drawing out of talents already possessed by the person to be educated. To quote Mr. Farrell:

"Education stimulates a person's inherent powers in a thousand ways.
It quickens him by helping him to discover and to develop his possibilities, and by showing him how his powers can be used to promote the welfare of society, and thus to increase his own happiness. One of the greatest pleasures comes from consciously increasing the happiness of one's fellows. There are many ways in which one may do this. He may write a splendid book, produce a beautiful new flower, build a fine highway, discover a great truth, develop a superior variety of plant, or compose excellent music. His ability to do any of these things largely depends on whether he has the necessary native power, and on whether that power has been awakened, and his mind and spirit disciplined.

"Education does not give a person
the right to live without working.
Rather it increases one's obligation to work harder and to do for society many important things which usually cannot be done by the uneducated."

"There is sophistication and fatu-ous innocence, there is the snob and the cad; but between the froth at the top and the silt at the bottom the clean strong current of American youth goes rolling on!"—John Lester in The Outlook.

Pictures Obtainable.

Football, Cross Country, Crew and group pictures of the Executive Committee of the Student Body and group picture of the Executive Committee of the Troubadours may be obtained from W. R. Crosby by anyone who desires them.

Slow motion pictures as a means of instructing the Michigan wrestling team in the fine points of the game are being used this season. It is predicted that in spite of a green team it will make a good showing because of this unique instruction.

THE COLLEGE WORLD

"The Children's Bible" is the title of a new abridged edition of the Scriptures being prepared by Cambridge University for school use.
The text will be trimmed so as to be about two-thirds the size of the authorized version.

Fencing at the University of Minnesota has sadly fallen from grace and is now listed with those sports in which women indulge as well as men.

Since some of the co-eds have entered the fencing class it is expected that this added attraction will greatly increase the number of male duelists. A mixed class is being conducted at present, but if the number of female students increase, two classes will be formed.

The first call for spring football training for the Ohio State athletes will be February 15. The first month will be composed largely of lectures.

The central heating plant of the University of West Virginia consumes between 30 and 40 tons of coal
each day.

A unique innovation has been introduced in college circles by Mr.
Charles Kennet, Iowa golf mentor, in the form of a golfing school. The sessions are devoted to demonstrations and practice in putting,
driving, and the proper use of the clubs.
At the opening of the school fifty persons were enrolled.

The appointment office of Columbia University has provided employment for 2,357 students during the past year. Out of this number 1,500 were men whose tasks ranged from play acting to detective work, and 857 women who were employed in work ranging from stenographers to artists' models.

A Senior engineer at Tulane University returned to school after the Christmas holidays to find that he had become famous on the campus.
Students and faculty members crowded around him to praise him on his excellent work. Even the dean of the college had a word of commendation for the supposed post, for a poem had appeared in the "Hullabaloo" entitled "Us Engineers," with his name signed to it.

This Senior, however, did not feel right about receiving praise which did not belong to him, and therefore denied the authorship. The true author is not yet known.

Ten Purdue students paid $219.60 for one Christmas tree, although they sell for one or two dollars at the stores. Desirous of saving that sum, however, they raided a grave yard to procure a tree for their fraternity dance. Fines of $11.50 were levied on each student, besides $100 damages and a severe reprimand from the fraternity heads.

SIX WEEKS DISCUSSING ON INTERNATIONALISM
TOPIC

Such Is Planned For "Y" Discussion Group Work To Start After Exams.

Beginning with the second week
after examinations are over, student discussion groups on the subject, "Internationalism and War," will be held once a week for six weeks.

The groups will discuss the present world conditions and the different phases, possible remedies, and the relation of the student to war. The course includes six concise, definite lessons with carefully worked out questions which should provoke discussion.

It is planned to have faculty members and mature students to lead the groups. On Monday nights a meeting of the group leaders will be held for the purpose of discussing the lessons before meeting with their groups. As yet the leader of the normal class has not been selected.

It is hoped to have groups in as many rooming houses, fraternities, and dormitories in which they are desired. The "Y" Committee on Missions, of which Paul Brawner is chairman, is in charge of this work.

GEN. NICHOLS RESIGNS AS V. M. I. SUPT.

Has Been In the Public Service For Fifty Years As Military Officer.

General E. W. Nichols handed his resignation as superintendent of Virginia Military Institute to the board of visitors last week at their meeting in Richmond. Action on the resignation has been postponed until a special meeting on March 5.

General Nichols has been in charge of V. M. I. for many years and previous to his being appointed superintendent he was an instructor there. He asked that the resignation take effect in six months "or as soon thereafter as my successor shall have been elected and reports for duty."

The superintendent's action was not unexpected as it has been known that for a number of years he has expressed the desire to retire from public service, in which he has been engaged for fifty years.

The board expressed deep regret of the superintendent's retirement from public service.

SPLENDID ADDRESS MADE BEFORE BIOLOGICAL BODY

The Rev. Churchill Gibson Spoke To Science Students On Evolution and Religion.

A highly interesting address was made last Thursday night at a special open meeting of the Biological Society, by the Rev. Churchill Gibson, of the Episcopal Church, who took as his subject Evolution and Religion. Dr. Hoyt of the Biological department was in charge of the meeting and introduced the speaker of the evening.

In his opening works Mr. Gibson gave a short reference to the study of biology and how it merged with ministerial study. He told of the formation of the world and the addition of plant life to it from the biological point of view, and the growth of animal life as illustrated by the development of the horse—how it increased from an animal a foot in height with five toes to its present state.

He said that as far as body and physical build were concerned man is no better than an animal, but in mind and mentality man is far beyond and it is this fact that puts man on the high plane where he stands.

Reading from an authorized text he showed that man was not descended from the ape, but that man existed as such long before the ape, and his family began to exist in the form that it now has. He stated positively that man was not descended from the ape, but long ago, perhaps hundreds of thousands of years ago man and the ape were descended from common stock. But man has advanced in mind to such a point that he has raised himself to the highest point of perfection. In conclusion he stated that the world, man and everything was in a state of progression which would end when the Day of Judgment comes.

About seventy-five students, professors and their wives and townspeople were present at the meeting.

during one of the interludes of the figure. Last year the dance proved one of the great attractions of the Ball and will prove no less so this year. Her name is at present withheld, but will be announced at a later date. Miss Emily Penick, talented graduate of Hollins, has consented to sing "My Lady of the Fan," words and music of which we are indebted to Professor John Graham. This is said to be a eminently beautiful lyric, and is with its application to central tableau an original and delightful novelty.

The order for nearly five hundred costumes that was sent off by the officers of the dance will go to assure full and overflowing attendance at the affair. There are many others that possess or will secure by other ways their costumes, thus increasing the attendance by scores. There will be no lack of the "more" that is conducive to the merrier time.

The committees and vice-presidents of the Ball as given out by Messrs. Gill and Minnich are as follows:

Fancy Dress Figure.

Vice-Presidents (Oriental)—O. W. Howe, W. W. Manly, T. L. Bear, J. T. McVay, C. W. Meadows, E. H. Burke, W. A. McRitchie.

UNION SEMINARY GOES DOWN BEFORE GENERALS; SCORE 36-9

wards and four good guards, but that is what Coach Hines has accomplished this year. With Captain Cameron showing up as though he was going to play the best brand of basketball of his career this year and with three others with a lot of ability at guarding to aid him when the team is on the defense the opponents of the White and Blue are going to have a hard time running up much of a score. On the other hand four of the five men playing on the first team are excellent shots and with the team work that they have shown this year it looks as though it would be a sure combination for goals.

Mauze was the mainstay of the Theologians and it was largely due to his work that they held the Generals down as low as they did.

The Generals will encounter Wake Forest next Thursday night instead of Friday as the schedule reads. This game shows signs of being one of the hardest games on the schedule as they are reported to have their complete first team back this year and last year they held North Carolina to a one point victory. It will be remembered that Carolina defeated us last year in Doremus gym. Prospects point to a good game.

church; Paul Brawner, Johnny Lovelace, and Cadet Washington at the Baptist church, and Jack Thomas, Cadet Marshall, and Carl Zerfoss at the A. R. P. church.

Each team covered the following subjects: inspiration and religious phase of the convention, economic problems, industrialism, race relations, youth and renaissance movements, and international relationships and war.

The first speaker of each team gave a panoramic view of the convention and its work. The speakers had time to present only the keynotes of the convention and to tell the views which some of the noted speakers expressed on each question.

Sunday night Paul Brawner, and J. F. Merrin of U. T. S. spoke at the B. Y. P. U.; E. A. Nabors and C. H. Pritchard of U. T. S. at the Epworth League, and A. S. Moffett, Cadet Meade, A. T. Roy, and John Mayhew at the Christian Endeavor.

On Sunday morning the members of the U. T. S. basketball team, C. H. Pritchard, R. R. Craig, G. W. Meauze, H. L. Vallee, Lorraine Sanders, D. L. Williamson, J. F. Merrin, J. W. Luke, and D. M. Chalmers visited the W. and L. Sunday School classes of the various churches, where they made short talks. Williamson and Pritchard taught classes at the Methodist and A. R. P. churches, respectively.

Craig, Mauze and Sanders spoke at a church in Woodside, a nearby town on Sunday morning. Also on Sunday night a delegation composed of Craig and Vallee spoke at a church in Beechenbrook. Sunday night Pritchard spoke at the Epworth League and Merrin at the B. Y. P. U.
