

BATTERY PRACTICE WILL START COMING MONDAY

Abundant Material Is Expected
To Appear At Initial Practice.

All baseball men are given notice that battery practice will start Monday. This applies to both the varsity and freshman batteries; freshman practice lasting from three o'clock until three-thirty, and varsity from three-thirty to four. There is abundant material and men wishing to land berths will necessarily have to report on time and be at practice regularly.

Practice for the infield and outfield will not begin until some later date, when due notice will be given by Coach Smith. Prospects point to another record breaking year as practically the entire varsity of last year is back, and in addition there are some sure comers from last year's freshman team. No man will be sure of a position, however, until he has earned it, inasmuch as that all men whether they have tried out before or not are eligible and positions are awarded on merit and skill. The more men out, the better will be the assured that Coach Smith's bambinos will repeat the record made last year.

Those men returning from last year's team are: Lindberg, Woolwine and Lackey, pitchers; Aylmer, first base; Wilson, second base; McMillan, third base; Switzer, Gwaltney and Dawson outfielders.

YEARLING TANKMEN LOSE BY BIG MARGIN TO A. M. A.

Feature of Event Was Plunge of 68
Feet Made By Estill,
A. M. A.

The Augusta Military Academy swimmers defeated the Washington and Lee Freshmen water dogs in a dual meet here last Saturday afternoon by the large margin of 46 to 25.

One of the features of the meet was the plunge event in which Estill, A. M. A., plunged 68 feet, outdistancing his nearest competitor, Dawson, W. & L., by nearly ten feet. Estill was still moving in the water when his time limit of one minute was up and would have gone farther but for this.

A. M. A. won two out of the three dashes, Taylor winning the hundred yard dash and Donnie the twenty. In the fifty yard event Porter, for the yearlings, was the victor. Sternberger of W. & L. took first place in the breast stroke and Sydnor, for the Rollers, took the back stroke. In the relay race, the keydets also captured the event.

Results:

Relay—A. M. A., time 1:37 1-5.
Breast—Sternberger, W. & L.; Gresham, A. M. A.; Moffatt, W. & L.; time 37 1-5.

Dive—McDonald, W. & L.; Latham, W. & L.; Taylor, A. M. A.

Fifty-yard dash—Porter, W. & L.; Smith, A. M. A.; Robertson, A. M. A.
Plunge—Estill, A. M. A.; Dawson, W. & L.; Hendon, A. M. A.; distance 68 feet.

One hundred-yard dash—Taylor, A. M. A.; Robertson, A. M. A.; Hood, W. & L.; time, 61 2-5.

Back stroke—Sydnor, A. M. A.; Watts, A. M. A.; Porter, W. & L.; time, 35 3-5.

Two hundred twenty-yard dash—Donnie, A. M. A.; Gresham, A. M. A.; Walker, W. & L.; time, 3 minutes 6 seconds.

DANCE WILL FOLLOW GAME WITH VIRGINIA

Following the game with Virginia in Lynchburg Saturday night, there will be a dance in the City Auditorium. "The Southern Collegians," the orchestra which has been playing in the gym during the games, will be the providers of the harmony for the occasion.

GENERALS BREAK EVEN IN FINAL HOME GAMES OF SEASON WITH V. P. I. AND MARYLAND

SECOND GAME LOST OF SEASON GOES TO MARY- LAND 22 TO 21

The Gobblers Are Easily Defeated
In the Second Tilt of Week.

MARYLAND GAME

Playing their last home game of the year, the Generals met their second defeat when the University of Maryland took their measure after forty minutes of the most exciting basketball that has been played on the floor this year. The final score was 22 to 21. There was never more than four points difference in the score and most of the game it was a difference of either one or two points. Although the Generals showed better floor work than they have shown in the last two or three games, their shooting was extremely off, and especially during the first half the shots were wild. Luck was against them in the last half, however, and not poor shooting. Try after try would look perfect only to bounce out or around the rim and fall outside.

Captain Cameron started the scoring by a foul shot, only to have Burger shoot a field goal soon afterward. The rest of the first half was a see-saw back and forth with the Generals leading at the end of the half 11 to 7. The second half the same brand of basketball was played, except that it seemed impossible for the Generals to make a basket. Ball after ball would start for the basket with what looked like perfect aim only to bounce out or balance on the rim and then fall outside. Maryland took the lead after about five minutes of play, but soon lost it again and when there were eight minutes to go the Generals had a three-point lead. Several foul shots on the part of Maryland tied the score again and then a foul on a Maryland man gave the Generals a one-point lead. Ensor of Maryland came back with a field goal, however, which put them in the lead with two minutes to play. The rest of the game was taken up with efforts on the part of Lake to put one through the loop and stalling for time on the part of Maryland. Lake probably came closer to the basket more times than he ever has in his life with out making one, and the gun put a stop to play with the score 22 to 21.

Lake, Burke and Lane were all off on their shooting, Lake especially missing several shots by wide margins during the first half. It is to be hoped that the team has a reversal of form before they meet Virginia in Lynchburg Saturday. They have been below form for the last three or four games and Virginia should see them

UNIVERSITY ASSEMBLY THURSDAY

The regular University assembly for the month of February will be held on Thursday, February 21, 1924, at one o'clock, in the gymnasium. The regular assembly day schedule of recitations will be observed and attendance will of course be compulsory.

President Smith will be the speaker, and his subject will be: "Our University."

Washington's Birthday will be a complete holiday and no exercises of any kind will be held.

INFORMAL SECURED FOR MARCH 8th

According to information received from Page G. Wilson, the informal dance proposed for Saturday, March 8th, thus winding up the prep-high basketball tournament, has secured the sanction of the Faculty Committee on dances and is an assured event. This will be known as the Monogram Club dance.

It is unnecessary to urge you to make your plans and dates accordingly. We need many calls to make it a success, so keep that pen and the wires warm.

INTERFRAT BASKETBALL CREATES INTEREST

Schedule of Games and Rules Announced By Interfraternity Conference.

Everything bids fair that the campus cage fans are soon due to witness one of the most sensational basketball tournaments in the history of intermural athletics when the representatives of the various fraternities go on Doremus floor next week in the annual Interfraternity Basketball series. Already many of the frats are on keen edge for the fray and it will only take a few hours practice to put them in complete readiness to go into the game, each hoping that they will emerge from the series with the coveted laurels.

The series this year will start next Monday at 3 p. m. when the Zeta Beta Taus will meet Sigma Phi Epsilon. There will be two games each afternoon, at three and four o'clock, for the remainder of the month of February to complete the preliminaries.

Strict eligibility rules govern the personnel of the respective teams and the committee in charge of the series intends to enforce them to the letter. There is also a more comprehensive organization of the tournament this year than ever before. The rules, however, are as yet subject to confirmation by the Interfraternity Council, which meets tomorrow night, and if there are objections to them as they are set forth below, the objecting fraternity

MATMEN FALL BEFORE STRONG TRINITY SQUAD

Generals Unable To Gain Single Score in Encounter.

The W. & L. Grapplers were handed an overwhelming defeat by Trinity Monday night in Durham, N. C. Five of the bouts were won on falls by Trinity, one by a decision and one but ended in a draw, making the score, Trinity 28, W. & L. 0. Clark, in the 115-pound class, fought his bout to a draw, while the decision was given against Biddle. The rest of the W. & L. Grapplers were thrown. They met the University of North Carolina Tuesday night in Chapel Hill.

The Trinity meet was as follows: 115 class, no decision; 125 class, Hubbard thrown in 2 and 7 tenths minutes with a Jack knife hold; 135 class, Yankee was thrown; 145 class, Cummins was thrown; 158 class, Trinity man given decision against Biddle, W. & L.; 175 class, Captain Hatcher was thrown with a head and arm lock; unlimited, Holt was thrown with head and body lock in 6 and 7 tenths minutes.

BEST GAME OF SEASON PROMISED IN MEETING OF OLD RIVALS

Last Game of Season For the Old
Dominion Basketball Team.

Our coming battle with the strong University of Virginia quint, the only match between these two teams this season, in Lynchburg Saturday, is of momentous importance in that its outcome will determine which team shall be state champion, all other contenders having been eliminated. This is Virginia's last game of the season, and also the last one, the Blue and White team plays in the state, our next game being with North Carolina in Chapel Hill, on the way to Atlanta, where we enter the Southern Conference Tournament.

Both the Washington and Lee and the University of Virginia teams have exceptionally good records, neither team having been defeated by a Virginia quint. However, both teams have been defeated by the University of North Carolina, Washington and Lee by a margin of three points and the University of Virginia by eleven. The latter also suffered one other defeat, this time at the hands of the University of Kentucky. The U. Va. team is composed almost entirely of experienced men who were on last year's team. Last season, W. and L. met Virginia twice, being victorious once and being defeated once. In the past two years, Washington and Lee has lost two out of the three games played with the Virginians.

Some people think that Lynchburg is a "jinx" in so far as our basketball success is concerned. Two years ago, our team was doped to defeat the University of Virginia team by a good margin, but instead we were the team to be defeated. Lake and Cameron are the men who played on

PLANS FOR EASTER TROUBADOUR SHOW ALMOST COMPLETE

Four-Day Road Trip In Virginia and Carolina Is Contemplated.

The annual Easter show of the Troubadours will probably be the best show staged by this organization in some time. As last year, the play will again be a musical comedy. The title has not yet been divulged, but the play will be original and the writing of the book has already commenced. Many original songs have also been turned in and these are now being looked over that the cleverest and most suitable may be selected for the production.

After showing in Lexington during the dances the Troubadours are contemplating a trip during April 21, 22, 23 and 24th, including Roanoke, Lynchburg, Richmond and Raleigh, N. C. Larger crowds than last year are expected in each place, and the Troubadours are putting over some mighty extensive advertising to make this show a success. The American Legion is sponsoring the performance in Roanoke and similar organizations are doing the same in the other cities.

Troubadour practice will start in the immediate future and all candidates are urged to report promptly when the call is sounded.

TWENTY-TWO TEAMS ARE ENTERED IN TOURNAMENT

To Be Conducted In Doremus
Gym March 6th
Through 8th.

DETERMINE STATE CHAMP

Informal Dance Will Be Climax of Contests On Night
of 8th.

Twenty-two high and prep schools have already informally entered the first Virginia High and Prep School basketball tournament to be conducted on March 6, 7 and 8 under the auspices of the Washington and Lee Athletic Association. Plans are being rapidly formulated to accommodate the influx of the visitors for the tournaments and the seating capacity of the gymnasium will be enlarged for the occasion.

This is the first time in the history of the high and prep schools of the state that a tournament will be held to determine the champion in the sport of basketball for these divisions. Games will be played both in the afternoon and at night and will be solely handled by Karl P. Zerfoss, who has been announced as official referee for the tournament.

Blanks have been sent to every high and prep school in the state and by the time for the first game at least twenty teams, representing every section of the state, will be on hand to compete. Sectional championships are now being held under the present method, but this will be the first time that a team can be termed as champions of the Old Dominion State.

As a fitting climax to the basketball games, the regular mid-semester informal dance will be held on the night of March 8. All of the members of the visiting teams will be guests of the Athletic Association at this affair. This dance will be the only one to be had by the Student Body until the regular Easter dances.

Over five hundred dollars worth of prizes have been ordered and will be

Monogram Club Revived Tuesday

"Eddie" Cameron Heads Organization Which Proposes To Dignify
Monogram.

As a result of the meeting held last night the Monogram again becomes an entity and takes its accorded place among the organizations on the place among the organizations on the campus with "Eddie" Cameron, president; "Tex" Tilson, vice-president; and "Pat" Hamilton to control finances and record events. The purpose of the club as stated is the furtherance and fostering of athletics and the dignifying of the monogram.

Pursuant with this declaration of purpose, all monogram men appeared on the campus today wearing their monograms, an unusual sight, but a welcome one. The idea is to make the wearing a customary action instead of one attracting attention by its unusualness, thus lending great distinction to the monogram and permitting it to enjoy the prestige due it.

Any man who has won a major sport monogram is eligible to membership in the club.

The day of the Junior Prom at Gettysburg College, all juniors and seniors will cut classes. They have a campaign on to encourage professors to forget to call the roll that day.

Linesmen seem to be the favorite choice for captains of football this year. A survey of 43 college teams shows that 28 of them have chosen linesmen for captains.

"DAVIS FOR PRESIDENT" CLUB

From Frank J. Gilliam, '17, there dropped in on the editorial staff a suggestion pregnant with great possibilities and possible far-reaching consequences. "How about a 'Davis for President' club?" he says. John W. Davis who so recently captivated us by his brilliant, easy and humorous, if brief, address at the Founders' Day exercises has been held before the public for some time as a prospective candidate for Democratic nomination, being strongly supported editorially throughout the nation and receiving especially enthusiastic backing from the columns of the New York Times. Many Washington and Lee men have been watching the tendencies of the political situation with absorbing interest since Mr. Davis has announced his intention to run for the nomination.

What could be more natural than that Washington and Lee should support in every possible way a man who is distinctly a Washington and Lee man, a man to whom is offered the supreme honor of the nation, recognized as a representative American with strength of character and breadth of vision to fill the greatest executive position that the world possesses? What more appropriate and fitting than that the University in every way and means available should assist in placing laurels on the brow of a man who has given years of instruction in its confines, spent many years here as a student, who has an undying loyalty for his Alma Mater of which he is now an active Trustee; who has reflected credit on the University in the past and through the greater honors which may descend on the shoulders of this distinguished scion, in the future to reflect greater glory. The sincere affection and admiration we have for John W. Davis should bear fruit in some way. Our bit may be little but all must be offered in the cause of the man in whom, now that someone else has recognized them, we see the necessary qualifications for such eminent responsibility, in whom we have all faith and trust that he can fulfill the duties of such an office efficiently and well.

Irreproachable in his private life, which has been out of reach at all times of adverse criticism, possessing the traits of a true gentleman, radiating the charm of attractive and commanding personality, John W. Davis in his personal characteristics meets every requirement. We turn to his exemplary political and public achievements with pride that is justifiable as it is great. He was a member of the 62nd and 63rd Congress from which he resigned to accept the position of Solicitor-General of the United States. This position he held from 1915 until 1918. He was then appointed Ambassador extraordinary and plenipotentiary to England. During the War, from 1915 to 1918, he was Counselor of the Red Cross; was a member of the American delegation for conference with Germany on the treatment and exchange of prisoners. Recently he was one of the chairmen of committees in awarding the Bok peace prize. He received his A. B. degree from Washington and Lee in 1895. The same year found him with a LL. B. degree and safely through the bar examination. The following year he was Assistant Professor of Law at W. and L. He holds LL. D. degrees from Washington and Lee, University of West Virginia, Yale University, Birmingham (England) University and several others. He practiced law in West Virginia, becoming in a few years the President of the State Bar Association. He was a member of the House of Delegates in that state in 1899, four years after his graduation. At present he is a member of a New York firm, enjoying in that city a remunerative practice and the widespread esteem of his associates and clients.

Manifold honors have fallen to his lot, indications of his strength of intellect, executive capabilities, and his indefatigable energy in pushing to conclusion and success an undertaking. Many alumni feel, we feel, that destiny has marked for John W. Davis higher honors and greater accomplishments. That feeling struggles for outlet in futherling the interests of a man deserving and capable.

We recall the political clubs of four years ago, the interest taken in the presidential campaign and the resultant activity along those lines. Why not revive the practice? A "Davis for President" club that will solidify the support here in the University, which may bring into the circle the Alumni of the University and thus extend the movement to national proportions.

We would like to see some action taken along this line.

We are indeed glad to welcome back on the campus the Monogram Club with its recognition of the earners of the University athletic insignia, its fostering of athletics, the attendant dignifying of the monogram. It is as it should be. For many years the Club had held forth among the organizations of the campus, but due to the slacking of interest was allowed to die out last year. The previous year its activity was spasmodic and ill-directed.

The last home game proved a disappointment as far as the outcome—another defeat to face for the season. In excitement and thrills the game was all that could be wished for. But forget it, Generals, and let's get after Virginia's number. That in hand it will be Southward Ho! and our God speed and best wishes go with you. Opportunity beckons to wipe out the past defeats and become Southern Champs.

Appreciation is extended to the members of the orchestra which have made enjoyable many tedious waits between the halves of the home basketball games. It was a splendid spirit that prompted them to offer to play at all the home games. We are indebted to them.

Another example of admirable spirit and forethought was the starting and subsequent signing of the request that the money to be refunded on The Mink subscriptions be transferred to the Stadium Fund. Very good, Gentlemen.

Forty-five men in Richmond College Dartmouth won the President Harding winter sports trophy at Lake Placid this year. To accomplish this it had to defeat a field of nine colleges.

CAMPAIGN FOR SCHOOL OF JOURNALISM SUCCESS

Dr. Smith Leaves For Palm Beach In Its Interests Feb. 22.

The campaign for the School of Journalism is bringing forth pleasing and unexpected results. The response has everywhere been generous and prompt.

Ten days ago the canvas in Birmingham, Alabama, was completed. The citizens of that city subscribed more than eight thousand dollars to the fund. The work is now going on in Jacksonville, Florida, headed by the newspapers of that city.

A canvas will begin in West Palm Beach on February 25, and Dr. Smith is leaving for that place on February 22, having been invited to deliver addresses on General Lee and his School of Journalism before the Rotary, Kiwanis, and other luncheon clubs; and an evening mass meeting of citizens in the public square. Dr. Smith returns to the University on March the third.

President Smith reports that the campaign for funds for the School of Journalism has been very successful to date. He may be quoted as saying that the University is probably deriving just as much benefit from the publicity which it is getting as a whole, as from the campaign for funds. He says that in the towns and cities which he has visited personally the interest shown in the University and its work has been remarkable.

EIGHT STUDENTS IN JACKSON HOSPITAL

There are eight students in the Jackson Memorial Hospital. "Buster" Newbern, who has been confined to his bed for the past two weeks with pneumonia, is gradually improving. Mr. and Mrs. Newbern of Marianna, Arkansas, who have been in Lexington at the bedside of their son, hope that his complete recovery will be only a matter of short time. He will remain at the hospital until entirely out of danger. As yet no visitors are allowed.

E. L. Oast, who had a sudden attack of appendicitis the latter part of last week, was operated on Saturday and is doing well. He hopes to be back in school in two weeks.

M. M. Heuser, who is suffering with kidney trouble, hopes that his improved condition will enable him to be out in at least a week. D. Nabors, C. L. Todd, A. G. Isaacs, Zed Layson and L. M. Turner, all have a slight case of influenza, but expect to be able to attend classes again by the latter part of this week.

distributed among the members of the various teams. A silver loving cup, emblematic of the championship of the tournament, will be awarded to the winning team. Also gold basketballs will be given to the individual members of the winning team. Many other trophies and prizes will be given to members of the remaining teams. The feature trophy of the tournament is a big silver loving cup which will be given to the high or prep school having the largest cheering delegation at the tournament.

Up to date only two committees have been appointed by the directors of the tournament and they are: Entertainment: Page Wilson, chairman, D. H. Brown and Phil Howerston; Ticket: M. F. Hummer, chairman, Rhea Whitley and T. T. Moore. Other committees are to be appointed, but they have not been made ready for publication.

Those high and prep schools that have signified their intention of entering the tournament are: High Schools—Altavista, Lynchburg, Lexington, Martinsville, Newport News, Woodrow Wilson of Portsmouth, Rocky Mount, Suffolk, Petersburg, Maury of Norfolk, and Roanoke; Prep Schools: Augusta Military Academy, Randolph-Macon Academy of Bedford and Front Royal, Benedictine Academy, Blackstone Military Academy, Christ Church School, Chatham Training School, Fishburne Military Academy, Fork Union Military Academy, Massanutten Military Academy, Virginia Episcopal School, and Episcopal High of Alexandria.

THE COLLEGE WORLD

"The Limerick Man" will be one of the ten acts staged by the "Varsity Vaudeville a la '24," to be held March 20 at the University of West Virginia. In order to have the very best limericks possible the Press Club is offering a prize of $5 for the best five liner turned in by the students.

West Virginia has received offers of cats to be used in the laboratory work by the department of zoology from all parts of West Virginia, eastern Maryland, and even from New York City.

An epidemic of scarlet fever has put a ban on all social activities at Carnegie Tech.

The University of Minnesota baseball team is trying to schedule eight games with southern colleges so as to assure a training trip this spring. So far they have succeeded in securing games with Vanderbilt, Kentucky, Tennessee and Alabama.

The band of Tulane University has recently established a standard emblem; a green "T" set upon a lyre of gold. The lyre and the "T" form the interjoined "T. U." which is familiar to the students of the university. The symbol may be made in the form of a pin or as a watch charm.

The trustees at Gettysburg College have decided to abolish co-education. They were greatly influenced by the sentiment around the campus that the college should be a man's institution.

Lawrence Perry, New York sports writer, relates that Woodrow Wilson not only helped coach the football team of Wesleyan College, but also assisted during the 1890 season in coaching the Princeton team.

Penn State's hopes for a monster new gymnasium have been raised by a recent gift of $100,000 from the athletic association.

More than a thousand men have been attracted by Ohio State's dozen sports this year. These statistics do not include intramural or interfraternity contests, which claim almost as many more.

SEVENTY-FIVE ATTEND "Y" SOCIAL SUNDAY

Approximately 75 students attended the "Y" social Sunday afternoon, at which one of the best programs given this year was rendered.

The first number on the program was a number of violin solos by Mr. Piet Van de Kamp, resident of Kampen, Holland. Mr. Van de Kamp is a graduate of the University of Utrecht, and is now doing research work for his doctor's degree at McCormick Observatory, Charlottesville, Virginia. Miss Louise Thompson accompanied him on the piano. The selections were enjoyed by everyone.

Next came a number of selections by a male trio, the members of which are A. S. Gifford, M. I. Walton, and H. A. Dawson. They were appreciated so much that an encore was called.

As the final number Mr. Van de Kamp played a little Dutch dance on the piano.

Refreshments concluded the program.

ANNUAL HANDBALL TOURNAMENT FEB. 27th

The annual handball tournament will take place in the gym Wednesday, February 27th. Official balls will be furnished to all those who participate in the tournament. The preliminary matches will be decided by the best two out of three, while the final match will be decided by three out of five games.

The winner of the singles will receive a medal, and each of the victors in the doubles will receive the same.

Coach Fletcher, who is in charge of the tournament, asks that every man wishing to enter the contest, sign his name and whether he is entering the doubles or singles, on the card on the handball courts within the next few days.

CLOTHES FOR THE COLLEGE MAN

Character in Cravats

That subtle something that is so apparent to the eye, and yet so difficult to describe—Cravat Character—makes its presence felt in Graham's Cravats in a highly satisfactory degree—satisfactory to the man who wears them and to the shop that sells them. "Scotch Plaids" featured new. New stock every 10 days.

should communicate such objections through their representative at the meeting of the Council. The rules are as follows:

1. Games begin at 3 p. m. and 4 p. m. each afternoon. Games must be started with reasonable promptness.

2. A fraternity not having a team on the floor at the appointed time shall forfeit the game. No game shall be postponed except with the permission of the committee.

3. Games shall be played by quarters. Each game except semi-finals and finals shall be in seven-minute quarters. Semi-finals and finals shall be in ten minute quarters.

4. Captains of the respective teams shall arrange for the officials and have at the gym at the time appointed for their game.

5. The Committee hopes that all fraternities will read carefully the rules of eligibility, a copy of which is hereto appended, and will observe same strictly so as to avoid unnecessary squabbles at the time of the contests. Controversies will be subject to the decision of the Committee.

Especial attention is called to the fact that if there are any fraternities not expecting to compete, they should report such fact at once so that the schedules may be rearranged.

The rules of eligibility are as follows:

"No man shall be eligible who has engaged in any part of a varsity or freshman game.

"No man shall be eligible who has made his monogram at any other college.

The schedule for the preliminaries is as follows:

Feb. 25, 3 p. m.:

1. Zeta Beta Tau. Sigma Phi Epsilon.

Feb. 25, 4 p. m.:

2. Sigma Chi. Sigma Nu.

Feb. 26, 3 p. m.:

3. Alpha Chi Rho. Lambda Chi Alpha.

Feb. 26, 4 p. m.:

4. Sigma Alpha Epsilon. Arcades.

Feb. 27, 3 p. m.:

5. Phi Kappa Psi. Kappa Sigma.

Feb. 27, 4 p. m.:

6. Phi Kappa Sigma. Pi Kappa Alpha.

Feb. 28, 3 p. m.:

7. Alpha Tau Omega. Pi Kappa Phi.

Feb. 28, 4 p. m.:

8. Delta Tau Delta. Kappa Alpha.

Feb. 29, 3 p. m.:

9. Beta Theta Pi. Phi Epsilon Pi.

Feb. 29, 4 p. m.:

10. Phi Gamma Delta. Phi Delta Theta.

The semi-finals schedule is as follows:

I. The winner of group 1 and 2, March 3rd, 3 p. m.

II. The winners of groups 3 and 4, March 3rd, 4 p. m.

III. The winners of groups 5 and 6, March 4th, 3 p. m.

IV. The winners of groups 7 and 8, March 4th, 4 p. m.

V. The winners of groups 9 and 10, March 5th, 3 p. m.

Finals:

Winner II plays winner of III.

Winner I plays winner of V.

Winner IV plays winner of I & V.

The dates of the finals are to be arranged later.

Those fraternities which feel that their teams need any practice before going on the floor should see Coach Fletcher about the hours available. However, there will be no reservations made ahead of time—first come first served. The floor will most likely not be in use for other purposes in the hours before Varsity practice, from 6:30 to 7:30 and from 8:30 p. m. on.

The Athletic Association has spent $20,000 to date on the actual construction of the stadium, and $6,000 more in excavating.

This is one undertaking in which Student Body, Alumni and Faculty share alike the joys and responsibilities.

V. P. I. GAME

The Generals added another game to their total Saturday night, defeating the V. P. I. quintet by the score of 29 to 17, the same margin of twelve points in which the previous game resulted. The team was off their usual form, especially during the first half. Starting off with a bang, a score of 12 to 5 was rolled up in the first ten minutes of play but at this juncture the bad passing and inability to find the basket started and in the rest of the half the Generals failed to score, while V. P. I. crept up to within one field goal of tying the score due to several long and sensational shots of Sutton, the outstanding star of the visitors.

A comeback was staged in the second half, however, "Panther" Lake getting right, and before the team was stopped, a comfortable margin had been rolled up. Then with five minutes left in the game, Coach Hines ran in his scrubs and they finished the affair. V. P. I. could not do anything with this bunch and a battle royal ensued with both teams scrapping hard for a score and neither being able to get it. Carrol of V. P. I. made the only counter, checking up a foul shot on Minnich's personal. The game was one of the cleanest which has been played on the local court this season, only about twelve fouls being called on the two teams during the game. Lake again was the star of the Generals' quintet, scoring seven out of twelve of the field goals and shooting his only foul try. For V. P. I. Sutton and Carrol were the high scorers, each shooting three field goals and the latter making good one of his foul tries.

VIRGINIA IN LYNCHBURG NEXT GAME

Captain "Dick" Smith has made every effort to have a special train run to Lynchburg Saturday for the game, but this will be impossible as an insufficient number of men have signed up. It is necessary that at least 125 sign up to get a special train with regular fare, and 200 to be able to get a special rate of a fare and a half round trip.

LOST

At the game last night a lady's purse containing a diamond bracelet. Will finder please return the pure to P. G. Wilson.
