

SWEET BRIAR GIRLS AT LOCAL THEATRE

Three One-Act Plays Given Last Night With Great Ability.

Paint and Patches of Sweet Briar College presented their annual show consisting of three one-act plays in the New Theatre last night before an appreciative but small audience. The last of the three, "The Trysting Place," by Booth Tarkington, was by far the most appreciated and enjoyed play of the evening. All of the parts in the three plays were splendidly executed, some very difficult parts being taken with unusual ability.

The portrayal of the part of Launcelot Briggs, the Boy, by Hilda Harpster was unexcelled for its realism and humor for a male role given by a girl. Miss Harpster undoubtedly made the hit of the evening by her clever lines, fine acting and excellent make-up. The other characters in "The Trysting Place" were all fine and well given. This play was greatly enjoyed by the entire audience and was of a lighter type than the first two.

In the first play, "A Merry Death," the portrayal of the difficult parts was exceedingly well done. The lighting effects were excellent for an amateur performance while the costume worn by "Death" was exceedingly unusual. "The Sweetmeat Game," as the second play, had a very effective setting with acting of the highest type in all of the parts. The make-ups of "Yiong-Yueng," the merchant, and "San-Chi" the blind son were especially fine with excellent moment and lines.

The program rendered by Paint and Patches deserves great praise with all of the fine details executed in the best manner possible.

The cast of the plays follow:
"A Merry Death," by Nicholas Evreion; Pierrot, Bernice Hulburd; Harlequin, Kathryn Klumph; Columbine, Gwendolyn Watson; Doctor, Celia Marshall; Death, Elizabeth Pape; scene in Harlequin's house.
"The Sweetmeat Game," by Ruth Comfort Mitchell; Yiong-Yueng, "Live Forever," a merchant, Muriel MacLeod; San-Chi, "Beautiful Bird," his blind son, Celia Marshall; Mrs. Lin-Moi, "Sweet Smelling Flower," his second wife, Elsie Wood; A White Devil, a New Year's Reveler, Bernice Hulburd; scene in China Town, San Francisco; time, an evening of the Chinese New Year.
"The Trysting Place," by Booth Tarkington; Mrs. Curtis, the young woman, Kathryn Klumph; Launcelot Briggs, the boy, Hilda Harpster; Mrs. Briggs, his mother, Elsie Wood; Jessie, his sister, Elizabeth Pape; Rupert Smith, the young man, Gwendolyn Watson; Mrs. Ingoldsby, the elderly gentleman, Muriel MacLeod; The umptuous Voice, male and abult, —; scene in room just off lounge of fashionable summer resort.

YALE PUGILISTS INFLICT DEFEAT ON W. & L. BOXERS

Lancaster Only Man To Get Decision In Bout At New Haven.

The strong Yale boxing team defeated the Washington and Lee pugilists at New Haven Tuesday night, 5-1. Though every bout was close, Lancaster in the 115 pound class was the only member of the Generals' team who succeeded in winning his fight.

A few of the W. and L. men suffered minor injuries, and it was found necessary to send for Rand to substitute for Ginsburg in the Army match. Ginsburg's thumb was broken in the Yale bout.
Tonight the White and Blue meet the Army team at West Point.
P. A. N. will have a meeting this Wednesday in the American Legion rooms at 8 o'clock.

MANY VISITORS HERE FOR INFORMAL DANCE

Event Promises To Be Most Successful—Southern Collegians To Play.

The informal dance, sponsored by the Monogram Club, to be held tonight after the final game of the Prep and High School tournament, promises to be one of the most successful of the year. With a large number of Hollins girls in town for the tournament finals and the informal, and those remaining over from the Sweet Briar show, the dance will be well provided with Calics.

This is the first dance the Monogram Club has sponsored and will be a fitting climax for the tournament. It is the purpose of the Monogram Club to show as much as possible of Washington and Lee's hospitality to the visiting athletes of the prep and high schools of the state. The informal is for them and in their honor.

Washington and Lee's new ten-piece orchestra, "The Southern Collegians," will make their first appearance on the local dance floor. If they live up to the standard they have set in nearby towns and at the basketball games this year, they will be one of the best to appear at an informal dance. The dance will start immediately after the completion of final game and will last until midnight.

1924 VARSITY CATALOGS ARE NOW OBTAINABLE

Many New Endowed Scholarships Are Announced In This Issue.

The 1924 catalog has recently been compiled by the faculty catalog committee of which Dr. Kern is chairman. Copies are in the hands of the registrar and may be obtained from him at his office.

The 1924 catalog is larger than that of last year and is very complete. Several courses and classes have been added to the curriculum.

The list of endowed scholarships has been materially increased by the addition in the past year of three substantial bequests, the first of which a group of scholarships known as the General U. D. C. scholarships consists of eighty dollar scholarships which the University has placed at the disposal of each of the Divisions of the United Daughters of the Confederacy to be awarded for one year to those entering the University for the first time. The mode of selection is to be left to the discretion of the authorities of the U. D. C.

The second, the H. Mann Page Memorial Scholarship Fund, is a fund of ten thousand dollars established in August, 1923, by Mrs. Lizzie D. Page in behalf of herself and her late husband, Henry C. Page. The annual income is to be applied toward the expenses of three students, preferably students of medicine.

Another, the John H. Storer Loan Fund, was established in 1923 with a gift of one thousand dollars by its

At the end of the first half the Beta's led with a score of 10 to 2. With the beginning of the second half the Phi Gam's staged a hot rally with Hatcher and Hendrix as the chief scorers, winning out by one point, 15-4.

Fishburne and Fork Union Academies and John Marshall and Staunton High In the Semi-Finals

INFORMAL DANCE TO FOLLOW FINAL MATCH

Winner of High School Group Will Play the Winner of the Preparatory School Group For the Champions' Cup Of the State of Virginia.

As the paper goes to press the basketball tournament has simmered down to three games; the high school and prep school finals to be played at three and four o'clock this afternoon and the final meet for the state championship tonight. In the High School finals this afternoon John Marshall High of Richmond meets the High School from Staunton in a match that promises to be interesting to say the least. Although Staunton got off to a rather ragged start yesterday afternoon, they showed marked improvement last night and if they keep up this improvement they should give John Marshall a hard fight.

In the prep school finals Fishburne and Fork Union are the contenders. Fishburne is doped to win over the Fork Union team, but from appearances the Fishburne team has not any very great superiority over Fork Union and a good game is almost sure. The final game for the state championship will be played tonight between the winner of the High School and the Prep School brackets.

A short summary of each game through Friday night follows:

FISHBURNE DEFEATS MASSANUTTEN

In the first game of the tournament Fishburne Military School took the long end of a 37 to 13 score from Massanutten Military Academy. The game was closely contested and only the height of the Fishburne team over their smaller opponents kept the Massanutten score down. Spotts, star center, high point man with fifteen points, was easily the outstanding man for the winners and was closely pressed by Ebert who tallied 13. For the losers Captain Fouts played the best game and scored five of his team's tallies.

Fishburne (37)—Smith (C.) (2), r. f.; Ebert (13), l. f.; Spotts (15), c.; Luke (1), r. g.; Eades (6), l. g.

Massanutten (13)—Fouts (C.) (5), r. f.; Heisel (4), l. f.; Diekert (2), c.; Roscher, r. g.; Kahn, l. g.

S. C. I. OVERWHELMS CHRIST CHURCH

In the second game of the evening the Shenandoah Collegiate Institute overwhelmed Christ Church School by the one-sided score of 45 to 12. The game was decided shortly after the start when the excellent shooting of Wimer and Warren for Shenandoah made it very apparent that Shenandoah was far superior. Christ Church was unable to keep these two men covered and they made thirty-nine of their team's points.

Christ Church (12)—Ellsworth (2), r. f.; Harwood (3), l. f.; Davis, M. (4), c.; Taylor, r. g.; Myers, l. g.

Shenandoah (45)—Wimer, (19), r. f.; Warren (20), l. f.; Roderick (5), c.; McLaughlin (1), r. g.; Stoneking, l. g.

FORK UNION TAKES MEASURE OF C. T. S.

Fork Union closed the play of the first evening of the tournament with a 16 to 11 win over Chatham Training School. Fork Union took the lead at the beginning of the game and when the first half was over, they were leading by a 10 to 4 count. The defensive playing of the Chatham quint featured the contest. For Fork Union, Davis was the shining light with his wonderful ability to cage the ball, while Sibold featured with good offensive work. Captain Mattox and Hutchins bore the brunt of the work for the losers.

Fork Union (16)—Banks (C.), r. f.; Coon (10), l. f.; Brasseur (5), c.; Sibold (2), r. g.; Vorbach (1), l. g. Chatham (11)—Hutchins (6), r. f.; Sanford, T. (4), l. f.; Coon, R., c.; Mattox (C.), r. g.; Ornella, l. g.

STAUNTON DEFEATS MARTINSVILLE HIGH

Starting the afternoon of the second day of the tournament Staunton High School defeated the High School from Martinsville 22 to 16. Both teams showed ability and although Staunton kept the lead from the beginning of the game, there was doubt as to their superiority until the game was almost over. Randolph showed good form for the victors while Andes played an excellent game for Martinsville.

Staunton (22)—Kivigham (5), r. f.; Randolph (12), l. f.; Reuken (4), c.; Stephens (1), r. g.; Woodberry, l. g.

Martinsville (16)—Whetner (4), r. f.; Fusfield (6), l. f.; Drurery (2), c.; Sparrow, r. g.; Andes (4), l. g.

LEXINGTON WINS EASILY

Lexington High won easily from Altavista in the second game of the afternoon's play, 24-8. The Lexington team presented a formidable quint in this game and made baskets with ease during the first half. Altavista took on new life at the beginning of the third period and played the Lexingtonites a close game. Altavista seemed to lack ability to sink a double decker as their attempts fell short. For the winners, Captain Wray and Wade stood out as the mainstays, while Lane upheld the losing quint by making six points.

Lexington (24)—Wray (C.) (8), r. f.; Wade (4), l. f.; Johnson, J. (2), c.; Woodward (3), r. g.; Johnning (7), l. g.

Altavista (8)—Dudley (C.) (1), r. f.; Lane (6), l. f.; Bowen, c.; Owen (1), r. g.; Frazier, l. g.

SUFFOLK GAINS DECIDED VICTORY

In the third game of the High School preliminaries Suffolk High School came out a decided victor over South Boston by the score of 23 to 10. The game was somewhat slow and uninteresting, although both teams showed signs of ability at different times during the game. For the victors Andrews and Brinkley played the best ball while Edmunds showed up well for the defeated.

Suffolk (23)—Brinkley (6), r. f.; Andrews (10), l. f.; Joynes (5), c.; Morgan (2), r. g.; Griffin, l. g.

South Boston (10)—Penick (2), r. f.; Hill (2), l. f.; Edmunds (6), c.; Powell, r. g.; Spears, l. g.

The Tournament Issue.

We are indeed sorry that our going to press so early prevents us from making this a complete tournament issue, one that would record all the events of the past three days; but the finals of tournament that came this afternoon and tonight and the informal must wait, until the next issue.

The first all-state prep and high school basketball tourney has furnished some attractive features for the week-end. None of the games have been disappointing. In all there has been shown notable skill and push plus fighting qualities that make up an interesting cage battle. To the spectators it has been more than a success and we feel that in other ways it has attained its desired end. The men who are responsible for its conception and carrying out are certainly to be congratulated on the splendid idea and the efficient manner in which it was planned and performed.

It has been a pleasure to have the youngsters with us for the few days and make their acquaintance. We hope that the feeling was mutual, that in the little breath they have had of Washington and Lee campus that they have found the quality and appeal that they would wish to find in the University of their choice.

Don't forget us, gentlemen. Drop in again. Who knows but we may see you again next year in the second annual basketball tournament. Certainly hope so.

One Year Ago Today

The Sigma Nu's had won the Interfraternity basketball cup for their second time. That means that if they win this tournament the cup is their permanent possession.

Spring football had just been introduced at W. and L., and Coach De Hart had called out his men for the next Monday.

The Class of '26 was called together by "Eddie" Cameron '24 and "Dick" Beard, '25. The ostensible reason was for the discussion of the pushball fight, but the article stated that the class as a whole was reminded by President Cameron that the Freshman Council was still functioning and that Easter was still several weeks off. '27, don't let this happen to you.

The Executive Committee sent a letter to the Student Body advising it as to the proposed amendment to the constitution. The amendment in consideration was that the Executive Committee should ratify all calls to be made upon the Student Body for financial support. They announced also that they had selected a ring worthy of W. and L. and were now receiving bids for its making.

THE COLLEGE WORLD

Vassar graduates hold a matrimonial record of women's colleges, according to statistics just made available. These tend to show that at least sixty per cent of the Vassar alumnae go to the altar or the justice of the peace. Within the last few years the time between graduation and marriage has been decreasing steadily.

The "Cadet" announces that the V. M. I. Final Ball "promises to be a most elaborate affair, and will apparently surpass all previous ones in the extent of its general features and attractions." The favors to be presented the girls will be made in London.

The "Yale News" has collected a series of illustrated articles descriptive of student life in foreign countries. It is the purpose of the publication to distribute these articles as widely as possible in the college papers, thus bringing the undergraduates of this country into closer touch with their co-workers in Europe and the Far East.

At its annual meeting of the Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools of the Southern States, membership was extended to V. P. I., thus recognizing it as a standard college. Tech is the first Southern A. and M. College gaining this distinction.

Walter Christie, veteran California track coach, has been appointed as a member of the Olympic games committee, and will have complete charge of all field events at Paris this summer. Two track coaches will have charge of the American track and field men. Robertson of Pennsylvania will look after the track men, while Christie will train the weight throwers and field men. Both men will determine the personnel of the team that will represent America in the games.

LOCAL LAMBDA CHI'S INSTALL NEW CHAPTERS

Degree Team of Local Chapter Administers Ritual At Trinity and N. C. State.

The Beta Pi fraternity of Trinity College, North Carolina, and the Pi Alpha fraternity of North Carolina State College were installed as the Gamma Theta and the Gamma Upsilon Zeta respectively of the Lambda Chi Alpha fraternity at a special celebration held at the Sir Walter Hotel, Raleigh, N. C., Monday afternoon and evening. The ritual was administered by a degree team of eight members from the Gamma Phi Zeta of Washington and Lee University.

At 6:30 the newly installed members and the visiting members, about seventy in all, enjoyed a four-course dinner served in the hotel ball room. At 9 o'clock the Lambda Chi men were the hosts at a dance given for the fraternity men of Trinity and North Carolina State.

"Y" NOTES

A deputation team of W. and L. men left today for Staunton where they will conduct religious meetings tonight and Sunday at Staunton Military Academy. The meetings were arranged for by the Social Committee of the "Y" of which Tom Moore is chairman.

The members of the team are: Tom Moore, Andrew Roy, Wilson Roach, Harry Spiers, Jack Thomas, Carl Zerfoss, and Robert Campbell.

A limited number of the pamphlets entitled "War, Its Causes, Consequences, and Cure," written by Kirby Page have been received by the Y. M. C. A. The price is the reading of it. Those desiring a copy should apply at the "Y" office at once. The pamphlet is highly recommended. A number of copies have already been given away.

Gray Funkhouser, '21, is doing graduate work at Columbia University and is also an instructor in mathematics there. He was managing editor of the Ring-tum Phi in '20-'21.

ORATORIAL CONTEST AT ROANOKE COLLEGE

W. and L. Will Have Representative
At Thirty-Fourth Annual Event.

The thirty-fourth annual public speaking contest of the Virginia Intercollegiate Oratorical Association will be held at Roanoke College on May 2, 1924. The following institutions are expected to participate: Washington and Lee, William and Mary, Richmond University, Roanoke College, Lynchburg College, Hampden-Sidney, Randolph-Macon, and Emory and Henry. Each of the contesting colleges will be represented by one student. A medal valued at forty dollars will be presented to the winning school.

Every student at Washington and Lee is eligible to compete for the honor of representing the University in this way. Competitive trials will be held on or before April 10. All men interested in oratory should present themselves as candidates. Prof. George S. Fulbright, president of the W. and L. forensic council, declares that it would be advisable for all students wishing to compete to start preparing themselves for trial immediately.

In the contest which took place at Lexington last year, the University of Richmond was victorious. Washington and Lee was awarded second place.

A. M. A. CLUB IS FORMED
HERE WEDNESDAY NIGHT

I. M. Quillen Elected President At Organization Meeting—Much Interest Shown.

A meeting of the Augusta Military Academy alumni on the campus was held Wednesday night. The meeting was for the formation of an A. M. A. Club, which will hold frequent meetings and do all in its power to keep in touch with its Alma Mater, and in getting the boys of that institution interested in Washington and Lee.

The club was formally formed and the following officers were elected: I. M. Quillen, president; J. T. Bernheim, vice-president; J. Cook, secretary and treasurer.

A committee was appointed for the entertainment of the A. M. A. basketball team. This entertainment is to be held in form of a banquet.

The following men were present at the meeting: H. R. Sullivan, W. J. Dorsey, H. B. Sproul, A. A. Payne, A. W. May, A. M. Hammel, N. R. Black, M. D. Hay, D. V. Ruckman, C. L. Todd, H. L. Shuey, R. D. Holland, H. O. Smith, Harry Clemmer and C. J. Wallin.

Nearly four hundred students at Wesleyan University have voted to continue last year's Liquor Control Amendment, which provides heavy penalties for drinking.

JOURNALISM CAMPAIGN CARRIED TO ORLANDO

Pres. H. L. Smith Left Today For the Peninsula—Will Be Gone a Week.

The School of Journalism campaign will be carried on during the coming week in Orlando, Fla. Dr. Smith left today and is under engagement to address the Rotary club, the U. D. C. and an educational mass meeting at Orlando on Tuesday, March 11, and the Kiwanis Club at noon Wednesday. He may deliver several addresses in Tampa on Thursday and Friday and hopes to be back by Monday, the 17th. This will complete the School of Journalism campaign in Florida, the public campaign in Miami having been postponed till summer.

At the present rate the campaign will net about $75,000 per year. If the rate remains constant it means that it will be practically four years before a School of Journalism is firmly established. It is hoped, however, that the subscription rate will be accelerated in the near future. The campaign is now being carried on under perhaps the most unfavorable circumstances that will be met because of the fact that so much of the population is composed of people from the West and North who are not permanent residents of Florida.

The advertising that the University is getting from this campaign is both unique and effective. The reputation and traditions of Washington and Lee are being spread more rapidly than ever before.

FINAL TOURNEY CONTEST TO BE HELD TONIGHT

High School preliminaries, John Marshall High of Richmond scored a close victory over Lynchburg. The count was 23 to 11. The Richmond quint under the leadership of Kahn presented one of the fastest teams that has made an appearance in the tourney, and their offensive work was one of the features of the contest. Lynchburg did not get started until the second half, but it was too late as the John Marshall quint was too far in the lead to be overtaken. Captain Kahn and Mondy were the stars for the winners. For Lynchburg, Spencer and Pettyjohn played the best game.

FISHBURNE GAINS SECOND VICTORY

In the Preparatory School semi-finals, which was the opening contest of the evening, the Fishburne five scored their second victory by a win over Shenandoah Collegiate Institute by a 21 to 13 score. Both teams were guarding closely and as a result the score at the end of the first half was very close, Fishburne leading 12-9. Spotts, Fishburne center, could not be stopped last night and he was high point man of the game with six field goals and three foul goals. Ebert and Captain Smith played the best defensive game for the winners, while Captain Wimer and Stoneking shone out the best for S. C. I.

A. M. A. ELIMINATED

Fork Union went into the Prep School finals by winning a 19 to 12 game from A. M. A. in the second game of the Prep School semi-finals division. The winners presented the same strong defense in this game as they did in their previous win, and it was due to this that they emerged victorious. The game was closely contested, but A. M. A. could never overcome the Fork Union quint, who were always in the lead. Davis, Sibold and Captain Banks were the outstanding players for the winning five, while Mann, who was aided by Captain McArthur, scintillated for A. M. A.

LEXINGTON LOSES OUT

Staunton High easily defeated the Lexington High School team in the high school division, winning by a score of 29 to 5. Randolph and Stephens, both of Staunton, were the high scorers of the game and they were ably assisted by the entire team. The locals were entirely off form and could do nothing with their larger opponents.

Staunton (29)—Kavlighan (4), r. f.; Randolph (11), l. f.; Renken (4), c.; Stephens (8), r. g.; Woodbury, l. g.; Holland, Runnels (2).

Lexington (5)—Wray (2), r. f.; Wade (2), l. f.; Johnson, c.; Woodward (1), r. g.; Johanning, l. g.; Johnson, J., Acker.

JOHN MARSHALL RUNS UP HIGHEST SCORE

John Marshall easily defeated Suffolk High last night to the tune of 48 to 9, displaying the best form yet reached in the tournament. Their passing was well-nigh perfect, fast and accurate. Suffolk never had a show from start to finish. Kahn and Peterson proved to be the stars of the contest, the former shooting seven and the latter five field goals. This game marked the high score for the tournament so far and will probably continue so.

John Marshall (48)—Khan (15), r. f.; Peterson (11), l. f.; Sharp (10), c.; Mondy (2), r. g.; Mosely (8), l. g.; Carter, Underwood (2).

President's Paragraphs

(This space will be devoted to the regular contribution of Dr. Henry Louis Smith.)

A TIMELY QUESTION

If I find a study wholly tedious and uninteresting, wouldn't it be better to drop it and select something more congenial?

To select or pursue only those tasks which are at the time interesting and congenial is to remain a mere child, too fickle and undependable to win success in a world of grown people. Any lawyer, physician, or engineer pursuing such a course would be doomed to early bankruptcy.

To attain such control of your mental engine as to step on the accelerator and wake its fullest horsepower when the mud grows deep and the road hateful is the proof and measure of your mental maturity and the surest guarantee of success in this Age of Mind.

LITTLE INTEREST SHOWN IN BOK PLAN BALLOTING

Less Than Half Students Fill Out Ballots—243 Vote "Yes" and 42 "No."

Co-operating with the committee securing the nation's vote on the Bok Peace plan, at the recent student assembly at which he spoke on "Our University," Dr. Smith, president of the University, asked the Student Body to sign the ballots that had been distributed in the gymnasium. Some 305 students, less than fifty per cent of the Student Body, did so.

The balloting of the students was interesting, in that the percentage of students voting in favor of the plan was the same that up to February 14 in the nation-wide canvas had been averaged in over a half million votes from all over the United States. Forty-two, or about 13 per cent of the number of students voting, cast their ballot against the plan. Many of these either oppose the plan in substance, or are for full U. S. membership in the League of Nations, and thus voted "No" as the Bok award plan only advocates co-operation at present. Two hundred and sixty-three students voted for the plan, and all of the ballots have gone to the American Peace Award headquarters in New York.

Newspapers in various communities will run another blank between now and March 15, the date when the referendum is supposed to be completed. The committee handling the voting hopes to get the vote of every interested citizen, or those almost of voting age. They want a thorough going expression of the judgment of the American people.
