Generals Close Baseball Season With Virginia Here Thursday

White and Blue Will Attempt To Wipe Out Previous Defeat By the Cavaliers—Maphis Will Probably Get Call To Work For University Outfit.

In the last game of the year, the Blue and White meet the University of Virginia on Wilson Field Thursday afternoon in the second contest of the season between these two teams. The Cavaliers have had quite a successful season and they are undoubtedly coming to Lexington with the intention of making it two straight from the Generals.

The Generals are determined that Virginia will not leave with a victory, however, and the result is going to be an excellent game when the two teams meet tomorrow afternoon.

Although the Blue and White have been below the average with the stick this year while playing at home, they showed quite a little improvement while on the trip and they should meet the offerings of Virginia's pitcher with much more success than in the last game, which was a pitcher's duel between Maphis and Lindberg. Although it is not known definitely, it is thought very likely that Maphis will be in the box for Virginia when the game starts tomorrow.

With the cancellation of the Freshman game with Handley High of Winchester, which was to have been played on Tuesday afternoon, the Generals' Freshman baseball season came to a close.

FORDHAM DEFEATED IN LAST GAME ON TRIP

Generals Win Final Game of Trip By 6 To 3 Score—Lindberg Right.

The Washington and Lee Generals ended their Northern trip by defeating Fordham College by a 6 to 3 score. The game was an uphill fight and four unearned runs scored by the White and Blue team in the first inning proved to be too much for the Maroons.

In the first inning, a base on balls and three hits, one of which was a triple by Tommy Seehorn, scored four counters. An error by Cart-

TRACKMEN PLACE THIRD IN VIRGINIA MEET

Very Successful Season Closed For Generals Saturday In Invitation Meet.

The W. and L. track team ended a very successful season Saturday by placing third in the Northern Division of the Southern Conference meet in Charlottesville. Although placing the second largest number of men in the final events, Washington and Lee was nosed out for second place by a slight margin. The track was muddy and the time for all the events was slow.

Probably the prettiest race of the meet was that between Howard, Washington and Lee, and Purser, North Carolina, in the two mile event. These two men ran shoulder to shoulder for a mile and a quarter where Howard took a slight lead only to lose it on the last straightaway. John Lewis, Washington and Lee, was exceptionally good on the broad jump, winning first place in that event, while Davis made unusual time in both the low and high hurdles only to be beaten by Moore of

Publication Men Banquet Monday

Short Talks Made By Rex, French, Kaylor, and Sale—Dr. Smith and Dr. Easter Also Speakers.

More than 85 men attended the publication board banquet held in the University dining hall Tuesday night. An appetizing dinner was served consisting of grape-fruit, chicken patties, potatoes, green peas, baked ham, pineapple salad, brick ice cream and cake.

After the meal several interesting talks were made. Dr. Easter acted as toastmaster and kept everyone in a good humor by his numerous jokes. He first introduced Rex, French, Kaylor and Sale, who made short, snappy talks on the prospects of next year's publications. Dr. Smith was then called upon to tell of the aims and scope of the School of Journalism. His aim is to have a five-story building costing $125,000 with four professorships in it. The four subjects taught will be Ethics and History of Journalism, News Writing, Publicity, and Operating. Dr. Smith closed by saying it was a long, hard road before this would be obtained, and that it required tremendous backing. H. D. Leake was then called upon and he expressed his appreciation as chairman to Dr. Easter and Dr. Smith for the service they had rendered at the banquet and also thanked the mem-

BASEBALL INFORMAL TO COME SATURDAY

Zu-Zu Orchestra To Perform For Dance—Will Be Last Informal of Season.

With the "Zu-Zu" Orchestra secured to furnish the necessary inspiration, local tea hounds and cake eaters are certain of a pleasant evening at the Baseball Informal in the Doremus Gymnasium Saturday night. The "Zu-Zu" Orchestra catering to the "cakes," are known to furnish a class of music that is very popular with local enthusiasts. The orchestra consists of the same combination which toured the South last summer with the All-Southern Seven.

The Baseball Informal Saturday night is the last informal of the season, and all proceeds will go for the benefit of the baseball sweater fund. Quite a large number have signified their intention of having girls up for the occasion, which will insure its ultimate success. However, it is not too late to wire that girl and have her here Saturday. "The more the merrier." Wire her immediately.

COTILLION CLUB ELECTS COOK TO PRESIDENCY

Defeats Broadus By 26 To 25 Vote In Run Off—George Hendrix Made Sec'y-Treas.

At the Cotillion Club election last Monday night, Jennison Cook was elected President for the coming year and George Hendrix was elected Secretary and Treasurer. Cook had two opponents in L. E. Reynolds and Tom Broadus and in the second ballot with the latter won by a small margin. It was probably the closest race for President of the Cotillion Club in some years. Hendrix was unopposed for Secretary and Treasurer and unanimously elected. Both of these men are well known and popular on the campus. Cook is a member of the Alpha Tau Omega fraternity and Hendrix is a Phi Delta Theta.

Flood Plays Havoc Along James River

Mail Service Severely Handicapped By Washouts—East Lexington Hard Hit.

The inhabitants of East Lexington awoke Monday morning and found themselves quite a little distance out at sea. Due to the excess rainfall during the past few days, the river had so enlarged itself that "the island" and part of the main road were completely submerged. However, the most disastrous result of the flood was the undermining and destruction of a part of the railroad trestle, which crosses at a point just below the dam. The exact extent of the damage has not been determined, but it will be attended to as soon as possible.

The most interesting and undoubtedly the most important result of the C. & O. disaster, is the fact that the mail is necessarily being delayed. However, it is being brought over from East Lexington immediately after every train, and the delay has not been serious enough as yet as to

Wet Platform Refused by Convention By a Vote of 199 to 119 This Morning

SOLDIER BONUS PLANK REMOVED

Convention Balloting Promises a Fifteenth Or Sixteenth Vote. Excitement Increases With Balloting.

With the close of the second ballot, the one just preceding the going to press of the Ring-tum Phi, McAdoo was leading with a combined vote of 202. Smith was his nearest competitor, polling a total of 114 votes. As yet there is not apparent any movement towards road rolling or evident a leaning towards any one favored candidate. It was expected that the vote would remain practically static until the fourth, fifth or sixth vote. Davis polled a vote of 64, Underwood 44, Robinson 21, Glass 79, Baker 28, Ralston 69, Ford 19, Cox 33, Edwards 18, Palmer 54, while Sallsbury received none. There was a slight increase in Davis' vote which gave a good promise of future balloting.

The Convention was formally called to order by J. S. Stump acting as Chairman pro tem. at 3:30 p. m. Tuesday afternoon. The temporary organization offered — Honorable Wirt W. Donally of Wisconsin as temporary Chairman, Honorable M. P. Matheny for temporary Secretary, Professor R. N. Latture as Parliamentarian, Honorable E. M. Cameron of Pennsylvania, as Sergeant-at-arms—was adopted by the Convention by acclamation. Mr. Stump asked Messrs. Morrison, Spencer and Tilson to escort Mr. Donally to the platform where he relinquished to him the chair. Mr. Donally delivered the keynote speech of the convention; ably, forcefully and eloquently expressing the Convention's position and desires. A standing silent tribute of a few moments was made to that immortal Democrat and statesman—Woodrow Wilson. Adjournment until 8 o'clock Tuesday followed the naming of committees and the assignment to a headquarters.

Nominations for candidates were started at last night's session and were completed this morning after thirteen names had been presented. Those candidates up for nominations included John W. Davis of West Virginia, Oscar W. Underwood of Alabama, Joseph T. Robinson of Arkansas, William G. McAdoo of California, Alfred E. Smith of New York, Willard Sallsbury of Delaware, Newton D. Baker of Ohio, James N. Cox of Ohio, Edward I. Edwards of New Jersey, A. Mitchell Palmer of Pennsylvania, Samuel M. Ralston of Indiana, and Henry Ford of Michigan. The speeches that presented these men were revelations of oratory.

The report of the platform committee was heard this morning, a lengthy article embodying all that the present convention desired to endorse. A heated controversy over prohibition threatened to disrupt the peace of the convention when the wet element, fighting for an amendment for wines and beer as a part of the party platform clashed with the proponents of the platform as it was presented to the Convention—for unflinching enforcement of the laws of the government as representative of the will of the people. Those opposed to that plank in the platform contended that it is contrary to the popular will of the people, especially the working classes, and while opposed to open saloons sought modification of the Volstead act to permit wines and beer to be sold. Several heated speeches were made pro and con. A telegram was read a few minutes before a vote was taken from the Plumbers' Union of Bangor, Maine, urging the convention to take action toward modification of the Bone Dry law. Closeness in attitude as shown by the aye and nay vote made a vote by states necessary, the dries, voting to adopt the platform as it was presented originally, winning out by 199 votes to 119.

STADIUM FUND DRIVE TO CONCLUDE TOMORROW

The stadium drive, which was commenced in earnest by the Monogram Club yesterday morning, will be concluded tomorrow. Every member of the Student Body will be interviewed about this matter before noon tomorrow. E. M. Cameron, the president of the club, declares that he hopes every student will contribute to the fund, since it is more desirable to secure small amounts from all the men interviewed than to obtain large sums from a few students and nothing at all from others. The results of the campaign will be announced tomorrow night.

The question of inserting in the platform a plank for the soldier bonus was also the cause of keen argument. It was finally voted down by a decisive majority of nays. Argument against the bonus was based on the necessity for higher taxes for generations to come should the measure pass, and that reward for service on the field of battle cannot be fittingly bestowed by "filthy lucre."

RESOLUTIONS

The Resolution Committee, of the Democratic National Convention of May 13, 1924, recommend and submit to the Convention assembled the following resolutions:

I. The Democratic Party here assembled in National Convention desires to express its deepest sympathy to Mrs. Woodrow Wilson in the irreparable loss suffered by her in the death of the late Honorable Woodrow Wilson. In such a time of bereavement words are inadequate.

We also commiserate the people of this nation in the untimely loss of one of its most brilliant statesmen and distinguished leaders, one on whose shoulders the mantle of Jefferson had fallen with such distinction. For eight of the most fateful years in the history of our country Woodrow Wilson occupied, and by his character, learning and power, adorned the highest office in the gift of his country. Generations yet unborn shall live to call him blessed and join with us in reverent acclamation of this servant of democracy and world benefactor.

II. To the townspeople of Lexington we wish to express our appreciation for their unparalleled welcome and generosity, truly exemplifying the time-honored and world-famed

Books and Old Clothes.

You have many old text books and more discarded clothing piled up in your room. Make use of them in a manner that will benefit those who are in need of them.

The libraries of the Japanese universities have suffered a great depletion as the result of the cataclysm that wrought havoc in their land recently. They have come to America to ask for those books that are not especially desired by the student and which he would be likely to abandon at the end of the term, but which could be used to advantage in the island empire.

Clean out those trunks, chests and boxes now instead of two weeks later. Those old clothes that you have been keeping—too good to throw away yet a little worn and out of style—would be a windfall to those who notice not the cut of the clothes, but care only to cover their bodies decently. This clothing will be sent to the needy students in Europe.

A little house-cleaning is in order. The Y. M. C. A. will pay a little social call sometime in the near future.

The College World

The feature events of the Soph Triumph at Columbia University last Friday night were boxing bouts between freshmen and sophomores. No sophomores were admitted to the triumph unless they were clad in loud colored pajamas.

Students in the commerce department at the Ohio State University recently operated a large Columbus department store for one day. Further plans whereby stores may be used as laboratories for the business students are being arranged by the college of commerce with the Ohio council of retail merchants.

"Spirit Week" was observed last week at Penn State to revive and strictly enforce the customs of the college. This method was found urgent due to the growing laxity of class and general customs at Penn State.

More than 100 students attended the 1924 competition of the Golden Fleece held recently at the University of Nebraska. Prizes were awarded to the woman having the reddest hair, the most fascinating bob, the most attractive freckles, or the most devilish dark eyes.

Three instructors were mysteriously attacked by an unknown man on the University of Minnesota campus. Later it was found that a former student was guilty.

First place in the 400-meter hurdles in the Penn Relays went to Ivan H. Riley of the Kansas Aggies. Riley holds the American record for the 440-yard hurdles and is a formidable Olympic hope.

Sound-amplifiers were installed in the bleachers during the Carolina-Virginia baseball game last week as an experiment by the Western Electric Company. Its effect was to make the music of the band clearer and to carry to the crowd the announcements by the umpire.

Charles Paddock, world's fastest sprinter, clipped four-tenths of a second off the world's mark for the 125-yard dash, established 35 years ago, when he covered the distance recently in 12 seconds.

In addition to the Annual Interfraternity Sweepstakes and Skooter Race held at the University of Pittsburgh during Pitt Week, there will be a Co-ed roller skating race for the championship of the University. A large trophy has been donated by the Pitt Week committee to be awarded the champion.

President's Paragraphs

(This space will be devoted to the regular contribution of Dr. Henry Louis Smith.)

No. 15.

Don't Put It Off!

The wise student is now hard at work reviewing: the idle, immature, and weak-willed are engaged in their usual drifting-match toward the Niagara of the examination period. To trust to a belated strenuousness at the last moment is to place your chances of success at the mercy of a sudden bad cold, a spell of indigestion, a touch of eye-trouble, or any other possible interference with your one "last chance."

Those omitted "papers" or experiments, that unread "parallel," the ground covered during your absences, those problems you "never did understand," that part of your newly-won knowledge already growing hazy and indistinct—now is your only opportunity to re-learn, re-capture, and revitalize them all and have them ready for instant use during the hurried and harried hours of examination.

If, therefore, you are not now "cutting out" all sorts of outside interests and diversions and putting from one to three hours daily on this essential task, write yourself down, as that sort of a track-man who won't run his level best even on the home stretch.

DR. RIVES MAKES INTERESTING ADDRESS

An interesting and beneficial talk on "A Man's Life Work" was given by Dr. J. J. Rives in the Y. M. C. A. room Friday night.

In his talk, Dr. Rives said that the first thing to do is to make a complete character examination of one's self, listing the good and bad qualities. The next task is to make an analysis of the world's needs. Then one must compare his own character with the world's needs to see wherein he can do the greatest service. "In main," Dr. Rives stated, "there are three fields in the world for service. They are: first, the realm of thought; second, the realm of production; and third, the realm of idealism. These fields are not exclusive, but a person will do the greatest part of his work in one particular field."

Dr. Rives then gave three tests by which to judge whether the choice was a success. The first test to apply is: "What importance to society is this particular choice which I have made." The second test is: "Does the choice serve as a channel for self-expression and self-realization." The third test is: "Does the choice give opportunity for leading on activities."

INTENSIVE PRACTICE TO BE HELD BY BOTH CREWS

Condition of River Has Caused Temporary Layoff Past Few Days.

The crews, both Albert Sidney and Harry Lee, are making plans for intensive work during the coming weeks in order to fit themselves for the race during Finals, which will be held Monday afternoon, May 9. All men on both crews have been placed under strict training rules.

The condition of the river during the past few days has made practice impossible, but it is hoped that it can be resumed tomorrow. The racing shells will be put into use this week so that the men may accustom themselves to them.

The men who are doing exceptionally well and from whom the racing crews will be picked are: Harry Lee, Captain Dunn, Stoltz, Guerrant, McMath, Willcox, Reynolds, Latham, C. Turner, L. M. Turner, Roberts, and Durham. Coxswain, Nichols, Griffin, Clark, and Patterson. Albert Sidney, Captain Cooper, McVay, Fischer, Edgerton, Poole, Cooper, Rice, Munholland, H. O. Smith, Holland, Darnell, and Gibson. Coxswain, Walton, Mayhew and Acevedo.

BOOKS TO BE COLLECTED FOR JAPANESE STUDENTS

Recent Earthquake In Nippon Left Libraries Almost Entirely Depleted

A campaign will be conducted in the near future by the Y. M. C. A. for the collection of books, not needed by student, to be donated to Japanese University libraries which have suffered great depletion because of the recent earthquake.

The people of the United States came promptly and generously to the rescue of those who suffered physical or material loss. There is still opportunity to bring much needed aid to repair the destruction in the general field of education.

There are undoubtedly many students and members of the faculty who have old books which are not being used. These books would be of great value to help rebuild the Japanese libraries. The kinds of books especially desired are those in the fields of law, philosophy, political economy, sociology, fine arts, literature and the natural sciences. Dr. Smith has taken the lead by expressing his willingness to contribute thirty or more valuable text books.

A number of American colleges and universities have already organized committees to gather these books. The Carnegie Endowment for International Peace is taking charge of the forwarding of the books collected.

NEXT YEAR'S LYCEUM COURSE ARRANGED

Three Numbers Secured Consisting of Entertaining Musicals of Highest Class.

The Y. M. C. A. lyceum course for next year, which includes three numbers of the highest class, has been definitely arranged. It was necessary to sell 100 tickets to the townspeople in order to get the course. This number has recently been subscribed.

The first number, "Beside the Bonnie Briar Bush," returns the same personnel which recently received high compliments for its production of "The Cotter's Saturday Night."

The "International Artists" is the second attraction. The tenor in the company has sung here previously with the Russian Quartette and Sextette. All the members of this number are highly talented.

The last and probably the best of the series is Della Baker and the Russian Balalaika Orchestra. Miss Baker's voice has been compared with Galli Curci's.

Character in Cravats

That subtle something that is so apparent to the eye, and yet so difficult to describe—Cravat Character—makes its presence felt in Graham's Cravats in a highly satisfactory degree—satisfactory to the man who wears them and to the shop that sells them. SUCCESSFUL FIRE HELD IN EAST LEXINGTON

And Many Students Enjoy It Thoroughly—As Well As a Drenching.

A fire in a lower Lexington shack caused considerable excitement last Thursday night. At about nine o'clock a cry went up in the dorms for our student firemen and for any others who would like to participate in the fun of getting wet and dirty. Needless to say the entire Student Body, more or less, turned out for the first bit of excitement since the elections and many voices were recognized as they called for music and comedy. The music failed to show up, but the comedy was furnished when the hose broke loose from the firemen (?) and gave every one within fifty feet their "annual Saturday night."

The fire itself was quite a success as fires go, even if the firemen did have to play a game of "you burn now and we'll work in a minute." The expense ensuing, judging from first appearances, will be mainly included in the upbuild of the Student Pressing Shop. However, there will be need of a new roof and upper floor to the burned house in all probability, though it was a shame the edifice didn't burn up entirely. Although roll wasn't called, no doubt the Secretary of the Student Body will not have to put up any names for missing the first un compulsory assembly this year, but it should be stated that the Student Body missed a good comedy. 'Tis a pity indeed that there wasn't any fair damsel to rescue—better luck next time, old man.

DELTA SIGMA RHO PLEDGES FOUR

Recognition Given For Exceptional Work Done On the Platform This Year.

In its last meeting Delta Sigma Rho, National Forensic Fraternity, gave recognition to four men on the campus in electing them to membership in the fraternity. These men were Roach, Hamilton, R. B. Hilton, and C. H. Coan, all men who have done exceptionally well in the debating contests which Washington and Lee has participated in this year.

Delta Sigma Rho is the largest fraternity of its kind in the country, boasting of some sixty chapters. The other men on the campus included in its membership are Professor R. N. Latture, J. N. Thomas, H. M. Gould, S. A. Glickstein, Professor Tyree, and Ralph Masinter.

III. To the people of the Irish Free State, who after many years of valiant and ceaseless effort have at last attained that inherent right due to every son of God, the right of government of the people, for the people and by the people, the Democratic Party in National Convention assembled wishes to extend congratulations on their success and notable advancement during the short length of time that they have been in possession of these rights.

Resolution three suffered short shift at the hands of the Convention. It was refused. Resolution one was unanimously adopted. Resolution two, while arousing some opposition, finally went through.

cause complaint from the college correspondents.

Work is being pushed forward on the trestle, and it is thought that a train will once more be seen in Lexington toward the last of the week.

Student at the New York State College of Forestry are experimenting with the making of synthetic wood. They have been able to manufacture a sort of wallboard, and hope to make wood soon. It is said that the synthetic lumber manufactured by the students is superior in many respects to natural wood.

GENERALS CLOSE BASEBALL SEASON WITH VIRGINIA HERE TOMORROW

right on McMillan's pop foul also proved disastrous in this frame.

Gus Lindberg twirled fine ball, scoring his second victory on the trip and letting his opponents down with seven hits. He kept them so scattered that Fordham was unable to collect more than one in one frame. Dunn, Fordham's first baseman, secured three of his team's seven hits, a triple, a double and a single. He also drove in all of his team's runs.

Here is the way it happened in the first inning: Switzer walked. McMillan hit a pop fly which Cartright, the Maroon catcher, dropped. "Bo" then shot a stinging single to the center garden. Dawson went out. Lindberg singled to right. Seehorn tripled over Graham's head in center field, scoring Switzer, McMillan and Lindberg. White, the Fordham twirler, was relieved in the box by O'Donnell. Hawkins greeted O'Donnell with a single to center, scoring Seehorn. Wilson was thrown out by Landry, ending the side.

Fordham tallied her first counter in the third stanza with two outs. Landry drew a base on balls and Dunn doubled to left scoring the keystone sacker. The Maroons threatened again in the following inning, but a quick double play nipped the rally in the bud. McQuade opened the frame with a blow to right and took second on Wilson's error on the infield return. Cartright grounded to Wilson and McQuade was caught between second and third. Seehorn, however, dropped Hawkins' throw at the far corner and McQuade was safe, Cartright going to second on the play. O'Donnell popped to Seehorn for the first out. John White hit to Wilson and the Generals' shortstop caught McQuade at the plate and on McMillan's throw to catch White at the keystone sack, Cartright also tried to score, but Wilson's perfect throw to McMillan retired the Fordham catcher.

Woerner was hit by a pitched ball in the fifth. Landry singled to right. Dunn drove both of these men in with a long triple to center.

Dawson got all the way round in the Generals' half of the fifth on a blow to left, an error by Woerner, and a wild pitch by O'Donnell. The Generals tallied again in the ninth on Gwaltney's safety and a two-base blow by Switzer which scored "Tip."

North Carolina in both. This marks Davis' first defeat in the high hurdles in two years.

Winning third place in this meet is a fitting climax to the best track season enjoyed by Washington and Lee in several years. Although having no outstanding stars the team was well balanced and capable of defeating almost any team in the South Atlantic section in dual meets as proved by its successive victories over Richmond, North Carolina State, Davidson, and V. P. I.

With all the present varsity returning to school for another year except Captain McCartney, and with the addition of several stars from the freshman team, next year should see Washington and Lee with one of the best, if not the best, team in the South. Much credit goes to Coach Fletcher for the success of the team. Taking the remains of a mediocre varsity of last year with its one star absent and developing it into the team of this season is little short of a marvel.

Results of the meet were as follows:

100 yard dash—Won by Foster, V. M. I.; Castleman, Virginia, second; Byrum, N. C. State, third; Roberts, V. P. I., fourth; Summerson, W. & L., fifth. Time: 10 2-5 seconds.

The New Clothes For Spring Are Easy Fitting

The loose, straight hanging effect is the thing today. It's accepted everywhere; welcomed because it's comfortable; it's smart, however, only when it's correctly cut. The Boulevard is the correctly cut suit in this new style; an easy, loungy coat, with just a suggestion of the shaped back; a long, soft roll to the lapel; straight, wide trousers; a very evident tailored look.
