ELEVEN OFFICES TO BE FILLED FRIDAY

Annual Spring Contest to be Keenly Contested; Non-Frats Combine with Smaller Phi Gam Faction

With many strong candidates in the field for election, everything is in readiness for the annual General Student Body Election next Friday in the Chapel. The non-Fraternity organization, at a meeting held last Tuesday night, voted by a substantial majority to join forces with the Fraternity faction commonly designated as headed by the Phi Gamma Deltas.

The vote was taken after a report had been rendered by a special committee, which had been elected a week before, to ascertain the propositions

FINALS 1921 SUFFERING FOR FUNDS

Subscriptions Ample but Cash Necessary to Prevent Curtail

Preparations for Finals are at present in a bad way, and there is considerable danger that the present elaborate program for commencement as announced in the Ring-tum Phi, will have to be cut materially. This statement came from Sam Raines, President of the Final Ball, following a meeting with his executive committee at which the entire financial situation of this year's Finals was discussed.

The present program for Finals calls for a total outlay of $3,700. The total possible assets, including student subscriptions, contribution from the University, etc., are $4,400, leaving a fairly comfortable margin for unforeseen expenditures, should everything be paid in. But therein lies the rub. Wilfred B. Webb, chairman of the Finals executive committee, has only a scant thousand dollars in the Finals treasury, this being the amount paid in by students to date.

President Raines has announced that unless practically all subscriptions are paid within the next week it will be necessary to curtail drastically the present program for Finals. The contracts for music, programs, decorations, favors, suppers, etc., must be made at once, but Raines is naturally unwilling to assume the heavy financial responsibility incurred by signing the proposed contracts until the money with which to meet them is in sight. He states that Finals will certainly be held; but unless the present clouds on his financial horizon are rolled away at once the student body will have to be content with a much more meager program than the one which has been outlined. Promptness in paying subscriptions is the only cure for the sickness which is at present troubling the 1921 Finals.

CALYX-FINALS DANCE SUCCESSFUL

Over Forty Girls Here Saturday For Informal Dance

The Calyx-Finals Informal Dance held in the gym Saturday night came as a very welcome diversion for all as a break in the monotony between Easter and Finals week, and was a great success from all standpoints. No doubt the presence of the many fair ones on the campus will prove a great source of inspiration for the men as they look forward to exams and Finals following.

Better music than that furnished by the Washington and Lee All Southern Seven could not have been desired. The celebrated Weidmeyer Orchestra has nothing on the home product. On the financial side, the Calyx and Finals cleared about one

FRESHMAN COUNCIL TO BE VOTED ON

Amendment to Constitution Proposed; Everybody Expected to Express Opinion

Besides the eleven student-body officers to be elected at the annual election next Friday, there is an amendment to the constitution, approved by the Executive Committee, to be voted upon. It should be thoroughly understood by every one that the proposed amendment is a non-political question, and merits consideration from every voter. The proposed amendment provides that Article VII of the constitution defining the duties and powers of the Executive Committee be amended by the following section 13:

Section 13: "Each year, not later than June 1st, the Executive Committee shall appoint a Freshman Council of not less than eight or more than fifteen members from the Academic School. The executive officers of the student body and the presidents of the sophomore, junior, senior academic, and senior engineering classes shall be members, and the president of the student body chairman of this council.

"It shall be the duty of the Freshman Council to formulate and enforce freshman rules and regulations, and to guide, control, and assimilate the Freshmen class and its individual members." Every voter is requested to express his opinion on this matter in casting his ballot Friday.

NOTICE TO STAFF

SOUTHERN INVASION UNSUCCESSFUL

Games in Georgia With Mercer, University of Ga., and Ga. Tech Result in 5 Defeats and One Victory

RANDOLPH - MACON DEFEATED YESTERDAY

The Generals returned yesterday morning after completing a rather disastrous southern tour when viewed from the angle of games won, coping one and leaving five distributed among the leading college teams of Georgia. Mercer, University of Georgia, and Georgia Tech were met in the order named, only the first game with Georgia terminating successfully for the invaders.

Even the most censorious must admit, however, that the team had more than its share of the company of George G. Jinx. First of all, Dick Hancock could not be carried along because of the first-year rule in Georgia. Then Sammy Raines was taken ill in Lynchburg and was unable to accompany the nine South, and, finally, Ty Cobb collided with the grandstand during one of the games and was painfully injured by the encounter.

Notwithstanding the jolts received during the past week, the Fighting Generals met the fast Randolph-Macon aggregation yesterday afternoon and annexed their several scalps to the tune of 6 - 0, thus giving them the decided edge on the two-game series to be terminated today. Brother Jinx was still with us, however, and revealed his satanic presence in the sixth when Frew sprained his ankle sliding into second.

FIRST MERCER GAME

An account of this game was published in last week's Ring-tum Phi, q. v.

THE SECOND MERCER GAME

The second game with Mercer, resulting in a 5 to 4 victory by the Georgia team, was a thrilling, hard-fought game of ball in which the decision was not reached until the last of the ninth. The Generals tallied in the first but ciphers accumulated until the seventh when Mercer scored three.

Washington and Lee came back strong in their half of the eighth and tied the score, only to lose the advantage in the last of that inning when Cogdell smashed a circuit-clout over the right field fence. The Generals' desperate rally in the ninth netted the necessary tying run, as a result of two hits and an error.

The see-game was terminated after one was down in the last of the ninth, on a single, an error and a second single. Frew and Burke starred with the stick, the former garnering 4 out of 5, and the latter 3 out of 3. Patrick allowed eight hits, two less than his opposing slabman, and struck out

GRAHAM-WASH MEETING

The Graham-Washington Literary Society held its regular meeting last Saturday night but in order to close in time for the Informal Dance the program was made shorter than usual. The feature of the program was a debate on the subject: "Tucker, rather than Trinkle, should secure the Democratic nomination for governor of Virginia." J. H. T. Sutherland and S. A. Glickstein favored Tucker while C. G. G. Moss and Fitz Flournoy defended Trinkle.

A heated discussion followed this debate including several extemporaneous remarks from the audience. The other two numbers of the program were a declamation by P. Kohen and a parliamentary drill conducted by J. W. Bowyer. Although the program was purposely made short it was well prepared and interesting.

UNIV. OF N. C. TENNIS TEAM
HERE TOMORROW

The Tennis Team will have their final match of the season Wednesday afternoon with the University of North Carolina. The season this year has been hampered both at home and away by rain and thus far only three of the many scheduled matches have been played. In all probability Captain Burch, Cohn, Snively, Mason and Tschudy will be the five representing W. & L.

BLUE BADGES OUTNUMBER REDS

Crew Membership Race Keen

The race for membership in the Albert Sidney and Harry Lee Boat Clubs, which was put on last week, and evidenced by the blue and red badges appearing on the persons of the supporters of the two crews, was very keen and also successful for each Club. The Harry Lees were surpassed in their efforts by the workers for the Blues, the Albert Sidneys securing about 150 members in their campaign. It is not known just how many members were secured by the Harry Lees, but the number is perhaps not over 100 at present. These figures do not include the members of the Clubs who failed to secure a badge, but who have a preference for either the Blues or Reds.

Much interest was manifested among the students in this campaign to arouse the old enthusiasm in the boat races, and to line up every person with one of the Clubs and leave no one neutral. And while the interest and sharp division of the students into two distinct camps, as was the case until the last few years, have not yet revised as it is hoped they will in the remaining days before the race, it is felt that the campaign has done much to secure the old interest and show the students that they are expected to become enthusiastic supporters of one of the crews.

Both crews are rapidly rounding into shape, and a close race may be expected. The racing hulls will be put on the river at the first of this week, and the necessary touches put on the crews for their dash in June.

GWALTNEY'S FIELDING PRAISED

The following appeared in the Covington daily Virginian of May 9th, under the head, C. H. S. Defeats W. & L. Freshmen:

Gwaltney, the center-fielder for W. & L., played a star game in center-field, and saved the visitors' pitcher more than once as he captured everything hit in his direction. Once he ran all the way from right-center to left center and pulled down Catlett's fly while leaning up against the fence thereby preventing a home run as the ball would have cleared the fence by at least a yard.

Many of the older fans give him credit for being the best center-fielder they have seen on Nettleton Field, not excepting any of the Mountain League players.

CHI GAMMA THETA ELECTS OFFICERS

The annual election of officers of the Chi Gamma Theta Fraternity (Chemical), was held May 10th. The following officers were elected to serve throughout the 1921-22 session: President, D. A. Reynolds; Vice-President, R. E. Sherrill; Secretary, L. M. Harrison; Treasurer, T. R. Rolston. The Fraternity has enjoyed a very successful year and will probably banquet at the Dutch Inn before disbanding for the summer.

The Ring-tum Phi

(ESTABLISHED 1897)

Washington and Lee University Weekly
PUBLISHED EVERY TUESDAY

Subscription $1.75 per year, in advance.

OFFICE—THIRD FLOOR, NEWCOMB HALL

Entered at the Lexington, Va., post-office as second-class mail matter.

After reading the qualifications and platforms of the candidates for Editor of the Ring-tum Phi for the coming year, we feel very insignificant, and wonder if it would not be better to quit right now and not let this issue go to press. On second thought we won't. The old College Paper might be worse, and those platforms must be presented. We are the goat.

We are sorry that we are unable to present the entire list of candidates with their qualifications, but at the time of going to press seven candidates are unopposed. In presenting the facts about the aspirants to be found elsewhere in this issue we have been strictly unprejudiced thruout, presenting in every case the qualifications as given by the candidates. If you don't know how to vote after reading the facts see the candidate's campaign managers.

By all means do not fail to read the Student Body President's letter in this issue, and vote for the amendment proposed. After a thorough study of the local situation the Executive Committee has decided on this means of remedying conditions on the campus. The Student Body can at least give the proposed council a chance to show its efficiency, proved in other institutions of learning.

After all, that Southern trip was not so disastrous. In no game were the Generals badly outplayed, and in several they outthit their opponents. Welcome home, Generals.

The next issue will be the last before the Big Final Issue. If you have any notices to insert, any story you want run, or a matter you wish to present to the Student Body in a letter, you must get it in the next issue or not at all, this year.

THREE CENTS—LIFE'S LOWEST QUOTATION

In the midst of our spring politics are we big enough to hear a cry from the other side of the world?

Together will all the cities and towns of the country Lexington and the community is now in the midst of a China Life-Saving Stamp Campaign. Stamps sell for three cents each because three cents save one life for one day in China.

The next month and a half is tremendously important because, if the Chinese of the famine stricken area can be kept from starving until July first, the crops will be ready for harvest. The great danger now is that the half-ripe crops be consumed unless food is imported.

Fifty stamps will preserve a life thru the continuance of the famine—fifty stamps cost $1.50—the price of the informal dance on last Saturday night, or six picture shows. Surely all Washington and Lee students will be willing to deny themselves some pleasure in order that others may live.

Do not fail, Washington and Lee men, to do your part. Seven hundred dollars was subscribed to the Moomaw Memorial Mission Fund last winter by Washington and Lee, and this sacrifice in itself will do much to prevent future famines by training agricultural and engineering experts, but a need for food is an immediate one, and if we are men of heart we must hear China's cry for life.

Let each outgoing letter you write for the next month bear this stamp of unselfishness upon it.

A FRESHMAN COUNCIL?

May 16, 1921.

To the Editor of the Ring-tum Phi,
Dear Sir:

Friday the Student Body will vote on a proposed amendment providing for a Freshman Council composed of men from all upper classes, the duty of the council being to guide, control, and assimilate generally by appropriate methods, the incoming Freshman Class of the year.

I wish to take this opportunity to speak for this proposal of the Executive Committee.

Without dwelling long on an unpleasant fact, suffice it to say those of us who have long been in touch with campus problems and campus ideals have been forced to see, with grave apprehension, that there is a growing decay in our standards of honesty, both in college work and in business obligations with townspeople. Mere mention of this will probably recall to the reader numerous illustrations.

The effect has not been without its causes. The change probably got its headway when the campus life was upset by the S. A. T. C., its non-collegiate and unassimilable elements weakening our wholesome traditions and ideals of honor and honesty. The trouble this began has been aggravated by the fact that our ever-growing Student Body has been top-heavy with first-year men. Having no definite, efficient means to cope with this situation, there has been a serious failure to assimilate the new men to our old ideals properly.

The Freshman Council would supply this need of definite, recognized machinery for the assimilation of the new men. It would function in formulating needed and helpful rules, and in giving advice and proper information. It would insure the proper impressions in the beginning, and see that the new man was "started right." If we are to save the situation it must be done now!

W. O. BURTNER.

CANDIDATES IN GENERAL ELECTION

For President of the Student Body:

H. A. Holt entered Washington and Lee in 1915, secured his A. B. in 1918, and after two years absence is now a member of the Junior Law Class. His plans for the Mink are to publish a bigger and better magazine and to get closer co-operation from the Student Body proper. "The magazine will be clean without being puritanical and snappy without being vulgar."

He won the Physics Scholarship in 1919. He is a member of the Sigma Phi Epsilon Fraternity and the White Friar Ribbon Society. His plans for a better Mink are, first, an increase in subscribers with a resulting decrease in selling price; second, a slight enlargement of the staff in order to secure more talent and keener competition; third, snappier and neater pictorial work thruout the magazine.

WASHINGTON'S SATIN BREECHES GIVEN TO UNIVERSITY

The family of Mr. Theo. G. Empie, of Wilmington, N. C., have treasured thru generations an invaluable relic of Revolutionary times in the shape of a pair of very handsome satin breeches, made for, and worn by, George Washington. After the death of Washington, they became the property of Mrs. Fielding Lewis, his near relative, and were by her bequeathed to her children and descendants.

The family finally decided to give them either to the regents of Mount Vernon, or to Washington and Lee University, that they might be properly preserved and displayed. After a hot competition of some months, the arguments of Dr. Smith prevailed and the priceless heirloom arrived a week or two ago, and was placed in the University safe until a suitable method be found for its display.

GIFT TO ENGINEERING DEPT.

The Engineering Department announces that Major W. F. Lee, one of the prominent Engineers of Virginia, and formerly connected with the State Highway Engineering System, has promised a collection of Engineering Books from his up-to-date library to the Department. This donation will come as a very welcome addition to the equipment and facilities of the Engineering school.

UNIVERSITY ASSEMBLY ON 26TH

The next formal University Assembly will be held on Thursday, May 26, at 10:30 A. M. The address will be by Dr. Smith, who will take the subject, "Three Lessons from the Life of Lee."

FRESHMEN LOSE CLOSE GAME

John Marshall High School's One Tally Sufficient to Take Game

John Marshall High School of Richmond defeated the Washington and Lee Freshmen last Saturday on Wilson Field by the close score of 1 to 0.

The game turned out to be a pitchers duel, with Red Wilson for the Freshmen superior to the opposing pitcher in twirling ability. Wilson allowed the batters of the visiting team only three hits during the game and struck out nine men. Crouch, pitching for John Marshall let the Freshmen get five hits. His offerings were found frequently by the Freshmen but they were unable to place the ball effectively.

By a walk and a series of bunts the opposing team forced in their winning run. The Freshmen had good chances to score twice during the game but failed to do so. There were four errors made during the game, one by Freshmen and three by the visitors.

The following was the line-up for John Marshall:

Tyson, cf.; Kahn, ss.; Green, rf.; Liesfeld, 3b.; Sharp, 1b.; Sutton, 2b.; Walden, lf.; Dudley, c.; Crouch, p.

PRESIDENT SMITH AT 'Y'

President H. L. Smith spoke at the meeting held in the Y. M. C. A. Room last Thursday night on the subject of "Organization of One's Life and work." It is the opinion of those that heard him that the address was one of the most forceful and instructive this year.

The speaker emphasized the necessity of a routined daily program, with all the expected and known work systematized. He explained how to organize this schedule so that everything would fit into its proper place, and he laid emphasis on the fact that such a systematized routine was necessary to efficiency in the student's work.

He gave such a planned daily life as one of the essentials of good health and happiness, altho, he said, the initial effort and will-power needed to begin the practice would certainly be great.

ALL 1921-22 MATRICULATES MUST PAY $10 FEE

On account of the fact that many more students applied for matriculation last year than the authorities were willing to admit, and that a number of those applying for entrance, by failing to appear, thus deprived others of the privilege of registration, the authorities of the University have decided to collect a registration fee from all students, old and new, who desire to have places held for them.

No one, therefore, will be accepted as a candidate for matriculation next session until he has made an advance deposit of ten dollars on his tuition fee. To anyone deciding not to enter, and notifying the authorities before Aug. 1, this deposit will be returned.

The present prospect for the opening of the fall term is that the rush of applicants will exceed that of last year and the authorities have fixed the maximum number to be admitted to the University at 725.

The total enrollment for the current year is 738.

SECOND GEORGIA GAME

The Georgie Bulldogs came back against the Generals on Thursday and took the final game of the series by a 5 to 4 count. Frost, the Red and Black slabman opposed Patrick. The former was touched for seven hits, two of them three base clouts by Switzer and Frew. Georgia found Patrick for nine hits, two of them doubles.

W. & L. scored first in the initial frame. Hisle walked, was sacrificed to second and scored on Cobb's single to center.

Georgia got two in the second and run-getting ceased until the seventh when the Generals evened matters up, on Switzer's triple to deep center and Terry's following one-base smash. We annexed two more in the eighth. Burke, first up, drew a pass and scored a moment later on Frew's opportune triple. Frew scored immediately after when Switzer singled.

Georgia won out in the same stanza on a double and three singles, the Generals being unable to score in their half of the ninth.

FIRST TECH GAME

In the last half of the seventh Friday afternoon, Georgia Tech coupled two hits, two sacrifices, a walk, two errors and tallied three times for enough runs to win the first game of the series in Atlanta.

McCallum pitched airtight ball and held the Yellow Jackets hitless until the last of the sixth when Morgan singled over second and then went out attempting to steal. Wash and Lee tallied first when in the fourth Frew on two hits and an error crossed the plate, and it looked as if the Generals were due to win.

The seventh was the unlucky frame. Ingram first up led off with a sharp hit to center. He was sacrificed to second and a little later romped home when Hisle fumbled Settle's grounder and then threw wild. Webb, next up, hit to McCallum who shot the ball to second for a force out, but Burke dropped the ball and both were safe. A hit to right field by Roane and a sacrifice fly in the same garden by Flowers accounted for two more runs. Tech came back in the eighth for her last run. Barron beat out a hit to short, reached second safely and came home on Settle's single over short.

Washington and Lee started the scoring in the fourth. With one out, Frew singled to left and went to second on Correll's grounder. Switzer poked a short hit to left which Ingram let roll between his legs and Frew came home with the only run for the Generals during the game.

SECOND TECH GAME

Tech made it a clean sweep with the Generals in Saturday's game, taking the fourth game the teams have played this spring by the score of 8 to 4. Circuit clouts off the willows of Burke of the Generals and Settle of Tech featured the game.

It was a slugfest all the way, W. & L. bagging 9 hits and Tech 8, the latter smashes being more effectively bunched than the Virginians. Four errors by the Generals contributed to the defeat.

Tech started off in the first scoring one, added two in the second, and accumulated three in the third. The Generals got their first safety off the delivery of Ashbury in the third but no runs resulted. The fifth frame saw four hits coupled with good base-running produce their total of four runs.

With one down Terry singled to center and took second when Maben singled to left. Hisle got the third hit of the round, a single to left, and Terry tallied, Maben taking third. With these two men on bases Burke caught a high one out at the end of his war-club and sent it sailing into the corner of the bleachers for a homer, scoring three runs. No more runs were forthcoming.

Tech's last two runs came in the sixth, and after this frame the Georgians were not able to do very much with Maben's curves.

Settle's two two-baggers and home run stood out in the hitting as did the three singles off the bat of Terry and the home run clout by Burke. A good crowd witnessed the last appearance of the W. & L. team on its southern invasion.

FIRST GAME WITH RANDOLPH-MACON

The team celebrated its homecoming yesterday by decisively drubbing Randolph-Macon by the score of 6 to 0. The contest was slow and rather loosely played. The Generals pushed across a tally in the first and that score stood until the sixth when the boys from Ashland blew up long enough to allow five more locals to cross the pan. McCallum was steady in the pinches and granted only three hits. Washington and Lee had chances to score several more runs in the early innings but failed to take full advantage of their opportunities. A fuller account of the game will be published in next week's issue.

MABRY INJURED

Harvey M. Mabry suffered a very painful accident in a suicide game last Thursday afternoon. He collided with one of his opponents with the result that his face was badly cut about the mouth. Altho the cut is painful, no permanent injury or disfigurement is expected.

At a meeting of the Interfraternity Council held last night it was decided that in the future the standard shall be raised for the initiation of pledges. Not only must future fraternal neophytes have passed two tickets but they must also have successfully evaded the merciless footwork of the Automatic Rule.
