GENERALS LAY 27-0 BLANKET OVER E. & H.

Scrappy Visitors Give Good Fight, But W. & L. Wins With Comparative Ease.

With many changes in the line-up, Washington and Lee white-washed the strong Emory and Henry eleven 27-0 on Wilson Field this afternoon.

The victors employed only simple line backs and end runs, attempting but one forward pass, in the second half, while their lighter opponents used a ten-man shift which was disconcerting at times and which was effective enough to hold the Generals scoreless during the initial period. During the second quarter, however, the Big Team began breaking through with comparative ease while at no time during the game were they forced to punt.

As usual, the line held well, while Cameron, Hall, Wingo, and Hamilton reeled off consistent and often spectacular gains. Arbogast supplied a thrill in the final quarter when he broke through and nailed Perry before he could punt.

The visitors fought stubbornly and reached our 22 yard line at the opening of the second quarter. Perry, Caldwell, Weaver, and Kelley showed up well for them.

First half—E. & H. kicked; Arbogast ran back 15; Cameron thru line for 5; Cameron 5 thru tackle; Hamilton 2 thru center; Hall 2 to first down; Dawson 3 thru tackle; Cameron fumbled, loss of 1; Kelley intercepted pass, downed in tracks; Hamilton 2 thru center; Kelley (E. & H.) failed to gain; White (E. & H.) 1 around left end; Perry (E. H.) punted 40 to Hall, who ran back 15; Cameron thru center for 5; Cameron 6 thru tackle; first down; Hamilton 5 thru tackle; Hall 1 around end; Cameron 6 thru guard; 1st down; Cameron 3 thru tackle; Dawson 4 around end; Hamilton thru line for 3; first down; Perry (E. H.) intercepted pass; Kelley 1 around end; White 2 thru tackle; White 3 thru tackle; Perry (E. H.) punted 35 yards; time out, W. & L. Hall 30 thru center on brilliant run; W. & L. off-side; Cameron 2 thru center; Hamilton 1 thru center; pass to Arbogast intercepted; pass incomplete; E. and H. ball; Perry thru center for

"Jackets" Hard Nut To Crack for "Keydets."

V. M. I. won from Wake Forest in a hard fought game here today. Although acknowledging defeat the "Yellow Jackets" made a gallant fight, proving themselves no small amount of trouble for the "Flying Cadets," whose backs were thrown repeatedly for losses by invading ends.

V. M. I.'s first score came after a series of passes and end runs which carried the ball to the one yard line, and Farley bucked it over. Drewry kicked goal. Shannon went through center for the next tally. Drewry missed goal. V. M. I. scored again in the second half.

Farley for V. M. I. and Fulton and Westerhoff for Wake Forest starred.

PENNSYLVANIANS TROUNCE RUTGERS

Lehigh Scores Its Lone Touchdown In Third Period.

(Special to the Ring-tum Phi.)
New Brunswick, N. J., Oct. 8.—Lehigh defeated Rutgers here this afternoon 7-0 on a rain-soaked field. Neither team used anything but straight football, coupled with a few short passes.

In the middle of the third quarter, Lehigh gained possession of the ball in mid-field, and worked it to the twenty yard line on straight line plays. From here Storer tossed a short lateral pass to Greer, who raced around left end from the fifteen yard line for the only score of the afternoon.

Henderson kicked the goal.

TROUB. PLANS PROMISE PEP

Try-Outs In Progress; Two Skits Written; Columbia Using "Let's Dance" Music.

"Something never seen on any stage before" will characterize the Troubadour show to be given November 29, says J. L. Peck, president, after seeing the try-outs and the plans for the vaudeville show to be presented on the Tuesday afternoon during Thanksgiving dances.

About sixty men turned out for the Dramatic Club try-outs, among whom there was a great deal of good material. About twenty-five men that are out for the orchestra will make up "the best ever" along that line. A large crowd is out for the Banjo-Mandolin Club, also, as well as for the Glee Club. The band is doing much better than last year and the trip to the West Virginia game as well as the V. P. I. game is probable. The Dramatic Club will have its next try-out Tuesday night in the Troubadour room at 7:30. About four male parts and three female parts are

DORMS AROUSED BY FIRE AT DR. KERNS

Blaze Cuts Off Telephone; Students Quick To Use "Pyrene."

Occupants of the dormitories were aroused about ten o'clock Thursday night by a fire alarm at the home of Dr. J. W. Kern, on West Washington St. The blaze cut off access to the telephone so some one called from the front porch for help. At once several students rushed over from Lee Dormitory with fire extinguishers and soon had the situation under control. It was quite fortunate that the fire was noticed when it was, for it was gaining headway rapidly and would have been quite hard to manage in a short while. The first student on the scene was E. Carlisle Smith of the Ring-tum Phi staff.

The fire originated in a pile of papers in a narrow passageway in the center of the residence. It is not certain what started the papers to burning, but it is suspected that a stray cigarette stub was the cause.

"Red" Schneider and A. M. Pickus were prominent in the roles of fire-fighters.

The damage resulting was slight, only a hall tree containing minor articles being burnt, and the walls of the passageway scorched.

PRINCETON MAN SPEAKS HERE SUN.

Dr. C. R. Erdman Will Be Guest of Dr. Smith.

Dr. C. R. Erdman, head professor in the Princeton Theological Seminary which is closely allied with Princeton University, will speak in Lee Chapel tomorrow morning. Dr. Erdman is quite a well known author as well as an eloquent and polished speaker. He has a most pleasing personality and is in great demand as a Chautauqua lecturer and at all kinds of summer gatherings such as Winona Lake, Wis., Blue Ridge and Montreat, N. C. He is in Lexington on special invitation of Dr. Henry Louis Smith and will be his guest while here.

Dr. Erdman is the first of a number of men who will speak in the chapel at the regular church hour on the second Sundays of each month. The names of speakers following him will be published soon.

Dr. Nehemiah Boynton, who has just resigned as pastor of one of the largest Congregational churches in Brooklyn, N. Y., will speak Nov. 11.

INFORMAL DANCE TO BE HELD 22nd

Given By Cotillion Club; No Freshman Can Attend.

The first general social function of the season, an "informal," will be given in Doremus Gymnasium Saturday night, October 22, under the auspices of the Cotillion Club. The dance will follow the football game with Morris-Harvey that afternoon, and was made possible by the faculty granting permission for the use of the gymnasium, after some deliberation.

The All-Southern Seven, strong rivals of Weidemeyer, will probably furnish the music. Alumni attending the game and the visiting team will be guests of the Cotillion Club. No Freshmen will be allowed to attend this dance.

FISHBURNE ELEVEN NOSES OUT FROSH

Junior Generals Improve Greatly, But Lose By a Single Touchdown, 7-0.

The Freshmen played in hard luck again today, being defeated by Fishburne at Waynesboro, by the score of 7 to 0.

Straight football was used thruout the game, and a marked improvement in the work of the line was noticed, while the backs were also more steady.

The only thrill of the afternoon game when T. Waugh intercepted a forward pass and got away for a twenty yard run. Salmon, Walters, Cummings, and Taliaferro starred for the first year men, and Griffin, Ridgewell and Luke for Fishburne.

Line-up:

Freshmen.	Fishburne.
Walters	Rogers
	Left End.
Atkins	Luke
	Left Tackle.
Weaver	Trout
	Left Guard.
Cummings	Hoover
	Center.
Hoeker	C. Waugh

GOOD RALLY HELD LAST NIGHT IN GYM

Band Greatly Improved; Brett Talked; Sports Calendars Sold.

With enthusiasm running as high as at the initial gathering the Student Body rallied for the second time in the gymnasium Friday night under the standards of the Varsity.

The rally was opened by the singing of the Swing led by the cheer leaders, after which, by the exercise in giving a few yells, all vocal cords were cleared of the dust which had settled upon them since last Saturday's game.

At this juncture the W. & L. Band arrived upon the scene and gave a short concert of march music. Well merited was the applause they received.

Assistant Coach Brett explained in a few words the financial standing of Freshman athletics, and urged that all, especially Freshmen, buy the sports calendar, prepared by A. J. Lester, Junior manager of football. The money derived from the sale of these calendars will go toward repaying the fund borrowed from the Varsity treasury. A large number of them were sold at the meeting.

Yells led by the individual candidates for Cheer Leader and the singing of the Swing concluded the meeting.

She—"What are you thinking of?"
He—"Same thing as you."
She—"If you do, I'll scream."

WILLIAM E. HOLT, Jr.

All matter of business should be addressed to the Business Manager, and all other matters should come to the Editor-in-Chief.

We are always glad to publish any communication that may be handed to us. We desire to call attention to the fact that unsigned correspondence will not be published.

THE NEW BUSINESS STAFF

We take pleasure in announcing that a new Business Staff of eleven assistants has been selected by the Business Manager of the Ring-tum Phi.

An advertising manager, two circulation managers, and four Sophomore assistants for each of the latter form the basis of organization. The number of Sophomore assistants has been doubled to care for the two issues weekly. Four Sophomores, working under the direction of the Local Circulation Manager will wrap and mail the Wednesday issue, and the other four will repeat the process on Saturdays, supervised by the National Circulation Manager.

The men who tried out for positions on the Business Staff during this last month have been unusually energetic and self-sacrificing. Our student and local subscription list numbers close to 600, while the total semi-weekly circulation is 1,200.

Several Sophomores have shown business ability in securing advertisements, and each trying out has done consistent work in a willing and cheerful spirit.

These men are working for the University, and serve the Student Body as faithfully as those in other major campus activities. If one seems persistent in his arguments for a subscription, and you are financially unable to produce the three berries, or, perhaps, had rather read a friend's paper, don't turn the ardent assistant manager away with raucous word or lame excuse; at least encourage him, and be fair.

The means of selection used by the Business Manager placed the try-outs on a strictly competitive basis. A final contest which closed Wednesday night, and was figured on a point system, furnished him with an accurate check on the capabilities and initiative power of each man.

From the fourteen aspirants for the Business Staff, 1921-22, these eleven proved themselves true in the fires of competition and often when confronted with the sour face of discouragement:

George Good, '23, Advertising Manager; J. M. Russell, '23, National Circulation Manager; H. L. Elias, '23, Local Circulation Manager. Circulation Managers named in the order in which they made the staff: W. H. Cluverius, '24; J. N. Thomas, '24; Norfleet Turner, '24; D. C. Lake, '24; R. Mc. Jenkins, '24; A. B. Carruthers, '24; S. A. Glickstein, '24; H. W. Jones, '24.

Give 'em room!

Wire That Girl!

A large number of girls is necessary to make the opening dance a success.

Wire that home town talent or that new girl now, and introduce her to the first little dance of the "best in the South."

W. Sidney Foreman is in the hospital recovering from a recent injury to his knee, which has been troubling him for some time. He expects to be out again next week.

V. P. I. OPENING HOPS WILL BE HELD OCT. 14-15

Music By Serenaders and Weidemeyer; Keen Ones Expected To Attend.

The Virginia Polytechnic Institute dances of 1921-22 have been officially set for October 14 and 15. The Cotillion Club there has engaged the Serenaders of Charlotte, N. C., while the German Club has engaged the Weidemeyer Saxophone Orchestra of Huntington, W. Va.

Both these clubs have always had a reputation for giving excellent dances and from all indications the opening dances of this year will probably be the best set of opening dances in Virginia. Numerous "good looking" girls and "good dancers" will attend from Sweet Briar, Sullins, Hollins, Randolph-Macon, and other centers of femininity in Virginia.

Washington and Lee students have always attended each set of dances, through invitations extended by the cadets and by the good grace of the Dean. Quite a few are counting on attending the opening hops this year.

HONOR CHEMICAL SOCIETY RETURNS NINE OLD MEN

Four To Be Initiated Monday Night; Good Speakers Coming for Open Meetings.

The Chi Gamma Theta is beginning the new session with nine old men back in college—L. A. Dunlap, A. G. Harman, L. P. Haynes, R. D. Howerton, A. A. Sproul, T. R. Rolston, R. P. Hanger, D. A. Reynolds, and R. E. Sherrill. In addition to these old members four new men will be initiated Monday night.

There has been a series of nine interesting programs arranged for this year, also a number of out of town speakers who will talk at different meetings. The main feature of the program for Monday night will be a paper on the Mussel Shoals Project, read by Mr. Reynolds.

Meetings will be held the second and fourth Monday nights of every month. The program is open to any one in school who is interested. Notice of the meetings will appear in the Ring-tum Phi.

Alumni Column

The following alumni journeyed up to Lexington last Saturday to witness the defeat of Randolph-Macon at the hands of the Generals: R. B. Stephenson, '09; W. C. Armentrout, '08; Chas. Ellison, '10; J. G. Glass, '16; J. Shirley Riley, '16; and John Thompson, '21.

Word has been received that R. E. Milling, '19, has received the signal honor of election to the staff of the Harvard Law Review. This is Milling's third year at Harvard, during which time he has made the name of being one of the best students in his class.

G. B. Dudley, '12, who later received his medical degree at the Medical College of Virginia, has now located in Danville, Va., with a practice limited to diseases of eye, ear, nose, and throat.

Blair Price, '21, is traveling for the Southern Biscuit Co., with territory in western North Carolina.

"Ike" Kinchloe, '21, is in the employ of the Department of Weights and Measures, Washington, D. C.

Fadjo Cravens, '20, is practicing law in Fort Smith, Ark.

Henry Trotten, ex-'21, spent a few days visiting with friends last week. He will attend the University of Tennessee this year.

"Potsy" Cole is in the Insurance business in Richmond, Va.

J. L. Howe, Jr., '19, well remembered as Assistant Professor of Chemistry last year, is now an instructor in Hangchow College, Hangchow, China.

Dan Cain, '19, instructor and assistant coach at Augusta Military Academy this year.

Charles Kupfer, ex-'18, came up to witness the football game and attend to business matters last Saturday.

NEW V. C. APPOINTED; OUTLINES FIXED POLICY

Consists of Seventeen Men; Bulletin Box Provided for Complaints.

According to advices from Homer A. Holt, president of the Student Body, and W. Sidney Foreman, president of the Sophomore Class, the Vigilance Committee has been put on its reorganized basis, and is now ready for the performance of its duties. The new committee is composed of the following men:

Sophomores—J. B. Pruitt, W. W. Poole, J. P. Long, J. F. Seals, J. T. Rice, W. W. Heiskell, C. E. Shropshire, O. W. Howe, J. W. McCartney, W. S. Foreman, I. W. Stoltz, T. H. Clay.

Juniors—F. L. Sattes, G. C. Mason, G. L. Cothran.

Seniors—H. B. Robinson, D. E. Carter.

No other man is authorized to take part in the meetings.

The purpose of the committee is to instruct the Freshman Class regarding its proper conduct on the campus, and to interview each and every Freshman reported for violations of the Freshman rules, any ungentlemanly conduct, or general freshness, whereby he becomes obnoxious on the campus.

When any man is reported, he will be told wherein he made his mistake, why he was called before the committee, and will be ordered as to his future conduct. Any Freshman who fails to heed the orders of the committee, or who does not receive the same in the proper manner, will receive suitable punishment.

A box will be provided at the bulletin board for receiving reports on the Freshmen with the offense for which each is reported, and with the signature of the person giving the same. The Freshman so reported will be summoned before the committee at its next meeting. The complainant may be present to prefer charges.

This committee is composed of men respected by the upper classmen, and should certainly command the respect of the Freshmen.

necessary for the skits.

The one-act skits, already written and ready for staging, several individual features, special features by the different clubs, and a special saxophone quartet now organizing under direction of C. B. Wright will probably make up the bill for the initial show.

What marked strides have been made by the Troubadours during their three years' of growth may well be shown by the fact that the music written by John A. Graham and used in their first show, "Don't Let This Happen to You," is being used by Columbia University in a presentation of theirs this year. The University, as well as the Troubs themselves, is much pleased over this recognition and success. John Graham, who is the composer also of the music for "Let's Dance," is now at work on the music for the new February show.

The mid-winter show will be a little different from that of last year in that it will be a complete plot without slapstick lines and will feature Dayton Carter. Plans are being made for a more extensive trip than ever and the All-Southern Seven, which also reports unusually good prospects for this year may be taken along to play for dances.

R. H. Brooks Donates 1,000 "Humps"

The Washington and Lee Football Sweater Fund is rapidly increasing with the help of the newly established "weinie" and cold drink stand on the campus. Cigarettes, cold cream, soap, pens and cigarettes will be on sale every Saturday the team days in Lexington.

Mr. Robert H. Brooks, "The Camel Man," has presented Manager Webb with 1,000 Camel cigarettes to be sold for the Sweater Fund. Mr. Brooks attended a recent rally and made the donation because of the enthusiasm shown on that occasion.

Character in Clothes

Those men who prize character in dress will find the new models especially interesting this season.

SOCIETY BRAND CLOTHES

Are the result of genius in designing, craftsmanship in the making, and character in the materials. They impart the keen joy of good apparel. If you have never worn such clothes try one of these suits.
