

MORRIS HARVEY WILL PLAY HERE SATURDAY

Shannon Is Punting Well.

The next opponent of the Generals is Morris-Harvey College, whose eleven will be met on Wilson Field Saturday. Although the Methodists from Barboursville have lost a number of their games this season, they have lately shown considerable improvement and have won their last two contests by comfortable margins.

The West Virginia Trades School, coached by "Red" Weaver, Centre's All-American center, is the latest victim of Morris-Harvey. They were defeated last Saturday 21-0. The West Virginia Methodists have one of the best coaches in the country—Beckelheimer, the old Vanderbilt star, and former All-Southern tackle, and during his stay at Morris-Harvey he has turned out some strong teams. Unfortunately he has had to use new and inexperienced material in building up his team this year. Besides this, the Barboursville outfit has been taking on opponents entirely out of their class.

Rezannico, fullback, is one of the best backs in secondary collegiate ranks today, while Shannon, tackle, is above the average in punting, his work in this department averaging 60 yards against Centre last year. Outside of these two veterans, the visitors have little to boast of, but Coach Beckelheimer is known for turning out a fighting aggregation, and the crowd at Wilson Field Saturday afternoon will see a lively mix-up.

GOOD ASSEMBLY HELD IN CHAPEL

Dr. Frank N. Seerley Held Attention of Student Body.

Dr. Frank N. Seerley, B. Ph., M. D., dean of the International Y. M. C. A. College at Springfield, Mass., was the speaker at the regular monthly University assembly in the chapel this morning. He spoke at the request of the Department of Education of the University.

Dr. Seerley is a man with a wide reputation in his line of work and has given his life to the Y. M. C. A. to aid it in its work of training young men to fit themselves for life.

The speaker began his talk by drawing an analogy between a battleship and the human body. He spoke of the great number of parts that go into a ship and of how absolutely perfect they must be. But this huge mechanism, he added, is as nothing

CALYX EDITORIAL STAFF SELECTED

Plans Well Under Way; War Reminiscences Section Features.

The Calyx editorial staff for 1921-22 has just been chosen by the Managing Board, made up of the editor, J. T. Bowyer, the assistant editor, G. T. Holbrook, and the managing editor, D. R. Snively. The following men were selected as editors of the various departments: University, W. B. Hesseltine; Photographic, S. M. Wiltshire; Society, C. W. Hall; Athletics, J. C. Morrison; Fraternities, W. A. Williams; Campus Organizations, W. E. Holt; Feature, E. B. Jackson. The general staff as selected so far consists of H. D. Leake, C. E. L. Gill, R. S. McLemore, C. O. Handley, W. G. Sale, and W. L. Leap. Two of the departments, the Art and the Humorous, have not been filled as yet. A large number of qualified men are out for these positions and the staffs will be picked from them shortly.

Several new features will appear in the Calyx, the most important of which is the section which will be devoted to reminiscences of the war. The class of '22 is what might be called a war class, most of its members taking part in the World War. This section is to be made up of the different men's experiences in France and elsewhere.

A staff of student photographers will be busy all year taking pictures of interesting college events for the Calyx. All of the photography work this year will be done by students.

In order to make it possible that every student possess a Calyx this year the price has been set at five dollars. Four hundred subscriptions have been sold to date. It is asked that those wishing to subscribe, do so as soon as possible in order that the manager may know how many copies to order. All Academic Seniors and Juniors, and Senior and Intermediate Law students, are requested to fill out the blanks to be found in the Co-op store now, as a discount is allowed by the publishers on all work in proportion to how soon it gets in.

TEXAS CLUB ORGANIZED TUESDAY EVENING

Elect T. W. Erwin, President.

At a meeting of the Texas Club Tuesday night the following officers were elected: President, T. W. Erwin; vice-president, J. M. Dockery; secretary and treasurer, P. W. Peden; and Ring-tum Phi reporter, E. C. Smith.

The eleven men present to organize the club were: S. R. Miller, J. M. Dockery, P. W. Peden, J. B. Price, J. P. Aylmer, T. A. Graves, W. L. Richardson, J. Hellen, Tom Lyle, T. C. Blair, and E. C. Smith.

There will be another meeting of the club next Tuesday night. Every one from Texas is requested to be present as plans for the year will be made.

Football Rally.

There will be a Student Body Rally in Doremus Gymnasium Friday night at 7:30. In addition to the usual program the trip to Lynchburg on the 29th will be discussed. Every W. & L. man is urged to be present.

VA. TECH LOOMS UP WITH POWERFUL TEAM

Hess, Former Star Fullback Penn State In In Backfield.

October 29th now looms up as the next big date on the Generals schedule, when V. P. I. will be met in the annual clash at Lynchburg. This game is especially important, due to the fact that the students are given a holiday on that date and a special train is run to the "hilly city" so that the Student Body may back the big team to the limit. Another reason why this game is important is because the Gobblers this year have one of the best teams in their history, and are priming themselves for this encounter, with a bitter determination to avenge the defeats of the past two years.

Some idea of the strength of the Tech aggregation may be had by looking over this season's scores. In the four games played to date, the Maroon and Orange has scored 62 points to its opponents 21, and only once has it tasted of defeat—that time at the hands of Bo McMillan's Centre College team. Included in Tech's list of victims are University of Richmond, Hampden-Sidney and Bill Fincher's William and Mary machine. Incidentally Tech amassed a total of 34 points against University of Richmond, while the best Virginia could do was 14 points against the same team. Little else than straight football was used by Tech in this game.

In looking over Tech's line-up this season, one does not wonder at the strength being displayed by the Gobblers, for their team is practically a veteran outfit, but ably supplemented by such stars as Hess, former Penn State star, and some lesser lights from prep schools. Sutton, the diminutive halfback who ran 102 yards against the Generals last year, would have been a touchdown if he for what would have been a touchdown if he had not stepped out, is one of Tech's brightest lights this year, and everywhere the team has played, his individual work has won him much praise. In the line are to be found such men as Capt. "Tex" Tilson, Sheretaz, and others who have played two or more years.

Y. M. C. A. PLANS BUDGET DRIVE

Totals $6,273; Local Association Has Long History.

Within a few days the local Y. M. C. A. will ask the Student Body and members of the Faculty for contributions toward a $6,273 budget. The program planned under this budget is more comprehensive than any previously undertaken. The expenditures will be made upon the budget system, and a copy of the budget will be before each student, when he is asked to subscribe, so that he may know for what his money is to be spent.

There are many individuals on the campus who themselves do not come into personal contact with the Association's program, but who realize that the University is better off with a Y. M. C. A. than without one. These feel the claim of the Association budget upon their material resources, as

INFORMAL DANCE TO BE SATURDAY

Begins At 8:30; Floor Rules Strictly Enforced.

The first general social function of the year will be an informal dance at the Doremus Memorial Gymnasium on the coming Saturday. It will be given by the Cotillion Club in conjunction with the football team for the benefit of the Sweater Fund. The dance will start promptly at eight-thirty and all participants are urged to bring their girls on time, since the dance will end before midnight.

The Cotillion Club has passed resolutions that no member will drink intoxicants from five o'clock Saturday afternoon until the dance is over. All members of the Student Body, visitors, and alumni are expected to come to the dance under the same conditions. The Cotillion Club and the Floor Committee will enforce these regulations. This step has been taken to eliminate some of the criticism of W. & L. dances and to prevent a few students and visitors from acting in a manner to cause criticism of Washington and Lee.

All visitors and spectators will be required to have a card for admission to the building. This does not apply to members of the Student Body. The cards may be obtained from members of the Cotillion Club, and no one will be admitted to the gallery without one. No Freshman will be allowed on the dance floor.

The famous All-Southern Seven, which toured the South last summer, will furnish the music. They are at their best and will come forth in harmonious triumph Saturday night. It will be made up as follows: Piano, W. W. Manley; saxophone, T. K. Fountain and G. D. Conrad; clarinet, T. R. Harrell; drums and traps, R. A. Fulwiler; banjo, C. S. Lawson and C. B. Wright.

RUTGERS USES 31 MEN TO STOP GENERALS

Home Team Outplayed But Too Many Subs Spell Defeat.

The Big Team returned from New Brunswick, N. J., Sunday, naturally disappointed at the heart-breaking result of the Rutgers battle and eager for vengeance at the expense of the remaining grid contests of schedule.

Spectators at the Saturday clash witnessed a real scrap, with the Generals having a wide margin of aggressiveness and superiority until the fatal final quarter. Rutgers was trailing with the blanket end of a 13-0 score at the opening of the last period and had flung more than twenty substitutions into the fray in a desperate attempt to head the steam-roller from the South. We used two. Eleven replacements in the Scarlet line took place in that last spasm, one of them the 235 pound Gardner, who was literally picked up and hurled at our line. The North-erners fought hard and finally pushed over a touchdown.

Then came that thrilling last few minutes. Foot by foot the home eleven crept, crawled, hurdled, and squirmed toward the last white line. They reached the one-yard marker and W. and L. held them for three downs there. On the final play, with seconds remaining till the whistle, Rutgers' battering-ram, the huge Gardner, hit the line and bodies piled high. It seemed quite evident that the last attempt had failed and that victory was still ours, but when the mass was untangled, a Scarlet back had wiggled across.

There are no alibies to offer. It was a tough game to drop but thirty-one substitutions as against four demonstrates the comparative freshness of the two teams during the

All matters of business should be addressed to the Business Manager,

the Editor-in-Chief.

We are always glad to publish any communication that may be handed to us. We desire to call attention to the fact that unsigned correspondence will not be published.

THE STAFF

It is with genuine pleasure and a feeling of pride that we announce the first appointments to the editorial staff of this year's Ring-tum Phi.

Forty-eight men competed for positions, and forty have worked cheerfully and consistently in the preparation of the first eight issues. Twenty-six have been appointed, and nine more with about the same individual totals of ability, energy and initiative are still competing for the other positions to be filled.

All try-outs have been on the same competitive basis and each man now on the staff has deserved a place for merit alone. Accuracy, speed and promptness in covering assignments, interest, initiative, and original or executive tendencies have all been given consideration.

Our aim and policy this year shall be to maintain the most efficient staff possible, and changes may be made necessary from time to time, for a newspaper is entirely dependent upon the co-operative activities of the men behind it. Any man in college who can show that he is capable of filling a staff position better than some man now on the staff, will get the job.

The staff has been increased in number to care for the added work on a larger paper, and has been completely reorganized according to the plan outlined in a recent issue of this paper.

To the men whose names appear or will appear in the editorial head above this column, then, belongs the credit for the first month's Ring-tum Phi, and in their hands lies its future.

Give 'em news!

GET IT STRAIGHT

Entirely too much credence is being placed in rumors on the campus.
An unconfirmed report was responsible for the premature celebration Saturday night, which not only reflected on the calm judgment of the Sophomores, but on the Student Body as well.

Be loath to believe the first thing that comes to your ears, avoid hasty conclusions, and shun sensationalism.
Get the facts first!

V. P. I. OPENINGS LAST FRI-DAY AND SATURDAY

Large W. and L. Representation.

About twenty-five W. and L. men attended the V. P. I. opening dances last Friday and Saturday, among whom were: Max Barker, W. W.
Taylor, R. D. Maben, E. P. Crockett,
J. C. Morrison, J. S. McMath, G. L.
Gibbons, Sam Gray, D. N. Farnell,
W. D. Kelly, A. B. Carruthers, C. H.

W. E. Bentley, Norfleet Turner, A.
A. Payne, A. B. Martin, H. E. Rietze,
W. C. Mead, J. F. Fulmer, A. O.
Lambert, and J. F. Seals.

Wiedermeyer's Orchestra of Huntington, W. Va., furnished the music for the German Club dance, while "The Serenaders," of Lancaster, Pa., played for the dance given by the Cotillion Club. Both orchestras were excellent, the girls keen, and these facts with the well known hospitality of the cadets resulted in the success of both dances.

ENGINEERS ELECT NEW OFFICERS

Will Inspect Iron Works Soon.

The David C. Humphries Engineering Society at a meeting last week completed the election of officers and formulated definite plans for the coming year. The officers for 1921-22 are: President, J. W. Child; vice-president, W. A. Williams, Jr.; secretary-treasurer, J. M. Russell. The society has planned a trip this week to Buena Vista to inspect the iron works and foundry. Under the leadership of Dr. Lyle, they will observe processes in the manufacture of iron.

The following alumni spent the week at the Sigma Nu house:
Jno. W. B. Thompson and Jim Alexander.

Alumni Column

MANY ALUMNI ATTEND RUTGERS GAME

The Generals were loyally supported by over one hundred alumni at the game with Rutgers in New Brunswick last Saturday, and the backing given the team by these and students, who went up to witness the game, no doubt went a long way in making our team fight to the limit. A complete list of the alumni attending was not available, due to the fact that but a few signed the register placed for that purpose. Some of those who attended were: W. L. Webster, '12; "Al" Pierotti, ex-'20; Duncan Birch, '21; "Dave" Bone, '14; J. W. Steer, ex-'23; O. T. Gregg, '12; G. W. Allison, '10; W. M. Farrar, Jr.; D. A. DeVane, W. Ordeman, H. J. Blackford, F. W. Sanford, Jr.; Edwin Gaffrey, R. H. Walker, H. R. Hawthorne, '10; R. J. Grimley, '21; H. E. Moran, '13, and Wm. Kern, ex-'23.

Dean Owens, '21, entertained a group of graduates and former students of Washington and Lee at a dinner party last week at his home in Rome, Ga. The following were present: Louis Musgrove, Willie Barron, James O'Neill, Dick Watts, Re-well Stanton, Felix Cantrell, LeRoy Glover, and Bruce Woodruff.

H. S. "Buck" Bryant, '21, was a visitor at the Sigma Chi house last Saturday while attending the V. M. I.-University of Virginia football game. "Buck" is with the Imperial Coal Co., of Lynchburg, Va.

"Matt" Henderson, ex-'21, was a visitor in Lexington last Saturday.

Dan Blain, '21, and "Heavy" Henderson, '21, instructors at Augusta Military Academy, came up with the A. M. A. team on last Saturday, when that aggregation played the V. M. I. scrubs.

"Duke" Parry, ex-'21, is cheer leader at the University of Indiana this year.

Sam Kirby, ex-'21, is playing the political game in Louisville, Ky.

Announcement has been received of the marriage of Miss Caro Louise Porter, of Huntington, W. Va., to Howard Porter. Porter is prominently known in Charleston, W. Va., where he is engaged in business.

J. M. Glickstein, '20, who is practicing law in Jacksonville, Fla., is working on an annual of the law class of '20. He requests that all members of this class get in communication with him and offer any suggestions that they might think of.

J. L. Howe, Jr., arrived in Hang Chow, China, on October 10. He will immediately take up his work as Professor of Chemistry in the Christian College there.

The Alumni who visited the Sigma Chi house last week-end were: C. Pearle, Buck Bryant, Shirley Riley, and M. Henderson.

WASHINGTON LIT. SOCIETY POSTPONES MEETING

On account of the excitement of last Saturday night the Washington Literary Society postponed its meeting until next Saturday night. The program for last Saturday will be given then.

The question for debate is: Resolved: That an Adjusted Compensation for all Ex-Service Men should be Enacted at the Present Time. The affirmative will be upheld by J. B. Gould and D. H. Lindsay; the negative by H. M. Taylor and J. C. Ragsdale.

LONG DISTANCE TEAM IS ON REGULAR COURSE

Several New Men Running Well; S. A. Meet To Be At Baltimore.

The Cross Country squad went over the full six-mile course last week for the first time. The squad took the course in slow time, paced by the more experienced men of last year's team. All candidates finished within thirty seconds of the time assigned.

According to Coach Forrest Fletcher, the aspirants have the fundamental qualities necessary for a good team and will likely develop into first class shape by the date of the first meet.

In addition to Garard (captain), W. C. Smith, Pass and Swope, members of the team last season, Williams, Balliet, Copper, Elms, Guerrant, Howard, and Graves are showing up well.

The South Atlantic Meet will be held at Johns Hopkins University, at which the following institutions will be represented: University of Maryland, University of Virginia, Washington and Lee, V. P. I., V. M. I., and Catholic University.

V. M. I. CADETS HOSTS AT INFORMAL AFTER GAME

Many Alumni and Visitors Were Present As Guests.

The corps of cadets of V. M. I. were hosts at an informal dance Saturday night held in their gymnasium in honor of the V. M. I. alumni in town for the Virginia-V. M. I. football game. The cadet orchestra furnished excellent music for the occasion. The dance was well attended by students of the University of Virginia and Washington and Lee, cadets of V. M. I., A. M. A., and S. V. A., alumni of Virginia and V. M. I., and about fifty girls who were in town for the game.

A. J. Cummings has been elected captain of the Freshman football team. Pat has been ably filling his position at center and is well-liked by all of his team-mates. He is a Beta Theta Pi pledge.

UNIVERSITY WILL PRINT NEW BULLETIN

Wall-Hanger Will Have Campus Views for Students' Rooms.

For the first time in four or five years the University is preparing a handsome illustrated bulletin. When opened out, the bulletin becomes a large wall-hanger fourteen by eighteen inches in size, and will contain four new and exceptional pictures of the campus and buildings.

A part of this edition will probably be put on sale at a nominal price so that all who so desire may use them in decoration of rooms or may send them home. The remainder will be sent to high schools as well as to libraries and Y. M. C. A.s throughout the country.

The plates for the bulletin are now being prepared and the bulletins are expected from the printer within the next ten days.

The School of Commerce Faculty has been enlarged by the arrival of Solly A. Hartzo, Commerce '21, as Instructor in Politics and Economics.

in comparison to the human body. The talk by Dr. Seerley was very highly enjoyed by the students. He had, together with a remarkable personality, an excellent delivery and a keen sense of humor. The talk was an unusual one and treated a side of the question that other speakers on the same general subject usually slight.

After the speech E. B. Shultz, general secretary of the W. and L. Y. M. C. A., urged all students to hear Dr. Seerley again to night in the chapel at seven forty-five, where he will speak under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A. It was also announced that all students should get their Y. M. C. A. membership cards now as these alone admit them to the Y. M. C. A. Lyceum concerts to be presented during the winter.

game. The obvious break of the game occurred when Frew's attempt at goal after the first touchdown hit the crossbar and bounded back—spelling the difference between victory and defeat. The gang came through in fine shape, considering the terrific fight, only a few bruises remaining as casualties. But let's forget Dame Fortune's little fiasco at New Brunswick and look forward to making the others pay.

well as those who take an active part in the work.

Every man will be asked to give all that he conscientiously believes to be his part, measured by his ability.

The W. and L. Y. M. C. A. had its birth on May 28, 1867. It has had a continuous existence since that day. Washington and Lee organized about the seventh student Association in the country, and there are now about seven hundred and eight such Associations, with necessary means of supervision, communication, and conferences.

GRAHAM-LEE ELECTS MEN TO DEBATING COUNCIL

Since two of the main speakers were absent at the meeting of the Graham-Lee Literary Society Saturday night it was decided that the program should be postponed until next Saturday night.

The election of the delegates to the Debating Council was then held, R. G. Wickersham and E. C. Smith being elected to serve in that capacity.

The question for next Saturday's debate is: Resolved, That it is to the Best Interest of the People That Public Utilities Be Owned by the Municipality. On the affirmative are R. G. Wickersham and M. F. Hummer and on the negative J. J. Wright and L. S. Starbird.

AT THE THEATRES

New.

Notice!

All men who have been issued football equipment and who are no longer members of the squad are held responsible for all equipment issued them. Turn it in at once if you are not coming out for practice daily.

Character in Clothes

Those men who prize character in dress will find the new models especially interesting this season.

SOCIETY BRAND CLOTHES

Are the result of genius in designing, craftsmanship in the making, and character in the materials. They impart the keen joy of good apparel. If you have never worn such clothes try one of these suits.

NEW TENNIS COURTS
READY SOON

The seven tennis courts on the north side of the athletic field are being remodeled and should be ready for use in a few days. The workmen have practically finished except for the final harrowing and leveling which cannot be done until a hard rain puts the ground in workable condition.

Until the new courts are completed players using the old ones are asked to double up as soon as they finish their first set, if they are playing singles, and to give up the court on the completion of their second set if they are playing doubles.
