

GENERALS DIVIDE HONORS WITH NORTH CAROLINA NINE

Slugging Rally In Ninth Snatches Victory From Invaders--Inner Defense Weakens in Second Game

North Carolina and the Generals split even in the two-game series played on Wilson Field, Thursday and Friday. The Generals romped off with the first contest, by a sensational eighth inning rally, but dropped the second contest to the visitors by the score of 6 to 3. The games furnished some of the best and some of the worst baseball played here recently. Dame fortune smiled on the White and Blue Thursday—but she chose Carolina Friday—when the Generals' inner defense "blew up"—its ten misplays contributing materially to the Tarheel victory. Each team secured five hits.

FRIDAY'S GAME

Although "Gus" Lindburg was in the box for the Generals, misplays and bad judgment on the part of the inner defense were the big factors that contributed to Carolina's victory yesterday. The star portsider pitched a consistent game, allowing but five clean bingles, and pulling himself out of hole after hole when runs seemed certain for Carolina. Johnson came to bat first for the visitors in the second inning and gained the initial stop when Mattox dropped the last strike, Terry muffing his late throw. Lindburg made Bouner whiff the air, but Tenney next up connected squarely for a terrific drive to deep center, which would have gone for a homer, but for the quick work of Frew who stabbed the sphere one-handed as he was running backwards, preventing what looked like two runs. This was the fielding feature of the afternoon. Hardly had the crowd finished applauding Frew, when Wilson, hurler for the Tarheels, stepped against one of Lindburg's twisters for a three-base clout, scoring Johnson. McDonald, lead-off man, then connected for a circuit wallup over the close left field fence. McLean ended the inning when he fled to Switzer.

Tarheels Add One.

Carolina annexed another in the third. F. Morris gained first on Collins' error and moved up a base on R. Morris' sacrifice hit. Shirley singled,

THURSDAY'S GAME

Thursday's game, opening the two-game set with North Carolina, turned out to be about the weirdest specimen of baseball witnessed in this valley in many athletic moons. It all happened in the eighth inning when the entire Carolina "works" blew sky high. Previous to this eventful stanza everything indicated that the game would be listed in Carolina's "games won" column. Bryson had world's of stuff and the best the Raftermen could do was to glean two lone hits, while their opponents held the field with an eighth run lead. But when the dust finally cleared after the eighth inning bombardment, the Big Team, as usual, was on the long end of the score, 9 to 8, which was the final tally.

Carolina started off with a rush and in a short time had such a commanding lead that a victory for the Generals seemed out of the question. Their first runs came in the second inning. R. Morris, the first man up, beat out a slow grounder to short. Shirley singled and went to second on McCallum's error. After Wilson had popped to Terry, Johnson sent a swift one through Huffsttler, both Morris and Shirley scoring. Bryson placed a safe one between first and second, but the side was retired a few moments later when McDonald hit into a double play, Huffsttler to Collins to Terry.

The visitors were retired without further scoring from the second un-

NON-FRATERNITY MEN ORGANIZE

Convention Elects Officers and Selects Committees To Carry Out Plans.

The first non-fraternity convention of the year was held last week in Newcomb Hall. The meeting was called to acquaint the new men with the political system at Washington and Lee and to make preliminary plans for the spring campaign. A short introductory talk was made by K. D. Abbott, temporary chairman, in which he explained the situation and told the new members of the clique what would be expected of them in the coming election.

Officers for the organization were elected: R. P. Asbury, president, and L. S. Meriwether, secretary. A permanent committee, consisting of seven members, was elected to look out for the interests of the clique and to call any necessary meetings. This committee is to remain in office throughout the coming campaign and also next year till another set of officers

WEIGHT MEN NEEDED

Coch Fletcher Wants Men To Put Shot; Track Team Weak In This Event.

The remaining meets on the track schedule include Richmond University here, May 1; V. P. I. here, May 6, and the South Atlantic meet in Charlottesville, May 12 and 13.

On May 1 the meet with Richmond University will be started at two o'clock to be followed immediately by the baseball game with West Virginia. Last year the Richmond team was defeated by the Generals by the score of 87 to 39.

W. & L. will be represented by a strong team at the South Atlantic meet. Other schools that have entered are: North Carolina University, University of Virginia, V. P. I., V. M. I., Maryland University, Richmond University, Georgetown University, and Johns Hopkins University.

The team is weak in the line of shot putters and Coach Fletcher desires that some strong men come out for this event at once. They will be especially needed in the meet with V. P. I.

SEMESTER SYSTEM TO START NEXT SESSION

Decision Reached At Faculty Meeting Monday; Exams In January.

Washington and Lee will go back to the semester system with the opening of next session, according to the decision reached in the faculty meeting last Monday. After trying the three term system for a period of twenty-five years, the old two term semester, which is now used in many of the larger schools of the country, will once more be in vogue.

A supplement to the 1922 catalogue will be sent out to inform the public of the change. The first set of examinations will be fixed for the last week in January, thus necessitating a change in the system of holidays. The duration of the examination period will also be lengthened. The holiday dates, however, have not yet been fixed. Mid-term reports each semester will enable the students to determine their exact standing.

NOTICE!

Try-outs for the new W. & L. Dramatic Club will be held Tuesday night in the Literary Society Hall at 7:30 p. m.

"Bob" Ramsay, '12 and '14, is living in El Paso, Texas, where he is connected with his father, W. K. Ramsey, in the real estate business. "Bob" is well remembered by older alumni as president of the final ball while in school.

CAROLINA STATE COMING TUESDAY

Tarheel Aggies Have Brilliant Record; Strong In Box and With Willow.

The Generals' nine will next encounter the State College of North Carolina, the teams meeting on Wilson Field next Tuesday afternoon.

The Aggies have a record probably even more brilliant than that of the State University. To date they have won seven games out of eight starts, and numbered among their victims are Delaware, which was defeated by a score of 3 to 0, Wake Forest 4 to 2, and Guilford 8 to 3.

State seems to have a wealth of slappers, Cline, Curtis, Allen, and Hill having all proven themselves formidable moundmen. The entire team has shown unusual ability to play consistent ball and to support its pitchers. The Tech nine has a swatting outfit, Ruth and Redfern standing out in this particular department. If this Ruth has habits like his more famous name-sake, we at least hope that he also bats left-handed.

The line-up for the game will probably be as follows:

Carolina—Ruth, lf.; Norwood, cf.; Johnson, c.; Floyd, rf.; Redfern, ss;

PROFESSOR LYLE IS SPEAKER AT ROANOKE

Delivered Principal Address Before Association of Commerce Tuesday Evening.

Professor W. T. Lyle of the department of engineering, returned Wednesday from Roanoke, where, on Tuesday evening he was the principal speaker at the annual meeting of the Association of Commerce. His subject, "City Planning," was especially timely to Roanoke people, as the city is now taking steps to make a number of improvements, in keeping with the policy of the more progressive cities of the country.

Dr. Lyle was actively identified with a city-planning program in Houston, Texas, for several years, and his success along this line qualifies him to speak with authority on the subject.

FRANK SWITZER

W. & L. CREW TO RACE AT RICHMOND MAY 22

Reds and Blues Working Daily; Time Trials Will Decide Entrants.

With arrival of necessary equipment, crew practice has started in earnest, and both the Harry Lee and Albert Sidney Boat Clubs report a wealth of promising new material. At this time there are over 25 men out for the Reds and 45 for the Blues, but since the squads will be cut down within the next few days, the roster of both crews will be greatly reduced.

For the Harry Lees, the following oarsmen have showed promise: Riggs and Bear of last year's first crew, Mason and Shropshire of last year's second crew, and Quarrier, Oast, Shuey, Dunn, Guerrant, Watson, Milbourne, Holmes, Daughtrey, Cook, and McMath among the new material. Also coxswains, Allen, Burch, Terry, Black and Harding. Among the Albert Sidneys showing up exceptionally well are: Sutherland, Hatcher, and Rangely of last year's crew, and Hurlburt, Walters, and Blackburn of the new men. Ellis, Balliet, and Summerfield are showing up good at coxswain positions.

Much interest is attached to the fact that Manager "Bill" Holt has secured a meet with the Virginia Boat Club of Richmond to be held in Richmond on May 22 as part of the pageant of those dates. This is the only race that has been arranged with an outside crew this year. As is the custom, the annual race between the Harry Lee and Albert Sidney crews will be held during Finals. Time trials within the next few weeks will determine the crew which will enter the race at Richmond.

NEW DRAMATIC CLUB ISSUES CALL FOR MEN

Tryouts Will Be Held Tuesday Night; Will Enact Original and Modern Plays.

The Washington and Lee Dramatic Club has issued its call for try-outs to be held in the Literary Society Hall Tuesday night of next week.

This club is new on the campus and has for its purpose not only the presentation of original plays and local talent acting of good modern plays, but also to take the proceeds from these plays and use it to bring good professional productions here.

The new organization, according to its promoters, has no intention of interfering with any other organization of like nature on the campus and intends to hold strictly to its own field of work. It should be a help to the others where the same kind of material is used.

It is hoped that a great number of students who have talent along the line of acting or stage technique will turn out Tuesday night and take their parts in the try-outs. Those who are successful in their try-outs Tuesday night will be admitted to the club.

NEW MARATHON RECORD

Charles H. DeMar of Melrose, won the American Marathon road race on last Monday for the second time, having won it eleven years ago. He established a new record, covering the 25 miles in 2 hours, 18 minutes, 10 seconds, cutting 47 3-5 seconds off the previous record. De Mar is thirty-three years old.

All matters of business should be addressed to the Business Manager, and all other matters should come to the Editor-in-Chief.

We are always glad to publish any communication that may be handed to us. We desire to call attention to the fact that unsigned correspondence will not be published.

We regret very much that we could not secure a half tone of Captain McCallum of the baseball team in time for publication. The cut which we have had of him cannot be found, and the new ones being secured through co-operation between the Athletic Association and the Ring-tum Phi have not yet arrived.

HOW MANY WANT IT?

A suggestion was made to us yesterday that shows both interest in the Ring-tum Phi and appreciation of its purposes. It was, in brief, that a certain space in each issue be devoted to short informative articles on the technicalities of baseball scoring and umpiring.

There is undoubtedly an amazing amount of ignorance of some of the simplest points of the game, and many elaborate structures of argumentation are built upon a lack of knowledge and maintained with unwavering tenacity. Yet there are men on the campus who have scored or umpired many big league games and are authorities on such points.

However, we want to know how our subscribers feel about the column before opening it, as we are always pressed for space. If you wish to settle a point that has been doubtful in your mind or that has provoked discussion, drop a line to the editor with your question. If there is sufficient demand for it, the series will be begun at once.

We are printing below an editorial
from the Ring-tum Phi of February 8, 1921. With the exception of the first paragraph we believe it is just as applicable today. There are far fewer "high Moguls" now on the campus, but we republish the article because those few that are addicted to the habit of royal silence are apparently more distantly removed from the petty things of this earth.
The extract follows:

HI, GENTLEMEN!

Yes, here it is. The Ring-tum Phi contains one of these every year but then every year there is need for one of them and this year there is need for about a half a dozen.

We train Freshmen from the time they first get off the train to speak to every other Student, and it is in this way that the custom of W. & L.
students speaking to each other is perpetuated. The Freshmen are as a class speaking better than formerly, but there are some men in school who were Freshmen three and two and one years ago and some men who were never Freshmen here, who refuse to speak unless they are passing their own roommates or fraternity brothers.

We do not believe the noble custom of gentlemen saluting each other when they are passing on the campus will ever die away, but we do hope some of these high Moguls who either go along with their heads in the air or their eyes on the ground thinking about their importance to the University will chance to read this, and condescend to speak to those men who greet them in passing.

There are some men on our campus whom it is a pleasure to meet.
You know they are going to speak pleasantly and give you a smile that will warm your heart when you pass them. We are blessed with a good many of that kind but most of us just speak and go on without uncork-ing that smile. Then there is the other kind, yes, we hate to admit it, self-confessed leaders on the campus, some of them, and all of them not adding a tinker's dam (we promised ourselves not to use any cuss words) to the democratic feeling of the campus. We know you have dire matters of state on your mind, fellow-student, but why not get in the habit of saying "Hello" or something to that effect?

The Freshman who said "Hi, Gentlemen" when he was passing two students with their lady friends on the campus last week had the right spirit even if he did get his terms mixed.

WITH THE ALUMNI AT TULANE

Word has recently been received of the prominence of Washington and Lee alumni at Tulane University. In the three college years since 1919 "Boots" Gladney has been manager of basketball and captain of track; "Booker" Madison has been President of the Student Body and on the Varsity crew; "Buddy" Madison, '20, has made the Varsity basketball team two years, and was stroke on last year's Varsity crew, and Gus Fritchie was manager of the 1921 football team and is captain of this year's Varsity crew. Congratulations to these men who developed the qualities on our campus that have enabled them to assume responsible positions at a sister institution.

FOSS AND PATTERSON HEARD FROM

Dr. Henry B. Wright, of Yale, who was on our campus last week in the interest of Y. M. C. A. work, brought news of the great work that Carl Foss, '20, and "Bill" Patterson, '21, are doing at the University of Alabama. Foss has been General Secretary of the Y. M. C. A. there for two years and has won such a place for himself that President Denny (President of W. & L. 1902-1912) built an apartment in one of his new dormitories for Foss' family. "Bill" Patterson is Student Pastor of the Presbyterian Church at Tuscaloosa, and is doing the same type of consecrated Christian service that he performed on our campus.

CHANGE IN BASKETBALL

Alteration of the foul rules of basketball, including the extension of the foul line across the playing court and allowing two tries for a basket to victims of personal fouls, was made recently by the National Board of Approved Basketball Officials. This is the first radical change made by a recognized board of basketball officials in twenty years.

For minor offenses, such as violations of the running with ball and dribbling rules, the ball will be given to the opposing team out of bounds, instead of allowing them a try for goal.

PENN STATE-V. P. I.

Penn State defeated the Virginia Polytechnic Institute Saturday in a track meet by the score of 68 1-2 to 57 1-2. Potts of Tech distinguished himself by winning both the javelin and discus. Allan Helffrich, national 880-yard champion, showed the best form ever seen on the Tech field.

W. & L. PLAYERS MAKING GOOD ON THE DIAMOND

Former College Stars Report To Clubs for Work; Twombly Leaves June 1st.

Coach "Cy" Twombly, who pitched for the Chicago White Sox last year, has been farmed out to Minneapolis, in the American Association. He expects to leave for Minneapolis about the first of June.

"Jimmy" Mattox, '20, former star catcher of the Generals and brother of our present backstop, is on the squad of the Pittsburgh Pirates, and has already played in several games this season. "Jimmy" is one of the most promising young catchers in the big leagues and is well remembered by many men on the campus.

A. F. (Al) Pierotti, who left school shortly after Christmas to report to the Braves at their training camp in St. Petersburg, Florida, has been farmed out by the Braves to Worcester in the Eastern League. "Al" is a first-class pitcher and great things are expected of him this season.

Brower, a former W. & L. man, is now playing with the Washington Americans where he is making good. Brower is at present used as general utility man by the "Senators."

This dance is one of the most elaborate given at Virginia during the year, and is one of the features of the big Easter Hops at the Charlottesville school.

FRIDAY'S GAME

F. Morris taking third, and R. Shirley stole second and Morris scored on Johnson's out, Hisle to Terry. Bounner finished the inning when he lifted a high one to Switzer.

The Generals confined all their scoring to the third inning. Lindburg opened with a sharp single through the infield between first and second. Switzer grounded to Morris, forcing Lindburg at second, but Switzer was safe at first on the play. Huffstettler gained his base on balls, and "Pete" Hisle cleared the sacks by his circuit clout to left center. Terry was retired, Morris to Shirley.

The "Unlucky" Seventh.

The Tarheels were held scoreless until the "unlucky" seventh, when they added an extra pair to their quartet of runs. In the seventh and eighth innings the Generals only sent three men up to the plate. However an attempt was made to rally in the final inning when with one man out Collins hit a clean one to left field for two bases. Terry next up was safe on first by an error of F. Morris, third baseman. The chances for scoring seemed poorer when Harrelson struck out. Frew then dropped one to short and forced out Terry at second, McDonald to McLean.

THURSDAY'S GAME

til the sixth innings, when they put another across the rubber. In the seventh they added another pair, and in the eighth came three more counters to make the total of eight. Up to this stage of the contest the Generals were unable to connect squarely with Bryson, who had them at his mercy.

The old "jinx" now appeared on the field for the Generals' opponents and for a while it seemed that the balls severed up by Bryson had nothing on them but the cover. The Generals sent twelve men up to the plate in this inning and each one got "his share." Terry grounded out. Mattox was safe on McDonald's miscue of his roller. Lindburg, bathing for McCallum, then lined out a beautiful hit between first and second for one base, Mattox taking second. Switzer scored both Gwaltney, who was running for Lindburg, and Mattox, on his hit.

Salmon smacked a grounder to third, which was muffed by Morris, Switzer scoring. Hisle reached first on an error by McDonald, Salmon taking second. Collins then came through with a timely swat, which got through Johnson's legs, Hisle and Salmon coming across the rubber. "Student" Frew connected for a single to right, scoring Collins. After Harrelson struck out, Terry reached first on Wilson's error, Frew going to third. The score was evened up when Mattox hit a Texas Leaguer which rolled through Wilson, sending Terry and Frew across. Bemis who batted for McCallum, was responsible for the winning run by laying down an easy one before the plate, and reaching first on the catcher's bad throw, Mattox scoring on the play. The eventful inning was closed when Switzer fanned out.

DIAMOND DUST

"Fish" Salmon plays short like a veteran and has the "stuff" when it is needed.

All three outs were engineered by "Pete" Hisle in the first inning of Friday's game to Charlie Terry.

The Wyoming, Del., police force lost a mighty good officer when "Terrible" Terry decided to be a lawyer. Charlie got the ball by fair means or foul in the ninth while McDonald lingered off first and after tagging the Tarheel held him "in statu quo" until Twombly could spare time to cast a glance toward the initial corner. Like the rabbit, Terry trusts no mistakes!

"Student" Frew contributed his usual circus catch when he kept Tenney's long drive out of the tennis courts in Friday's game.

No matter who lost, Fishburne won. Bill Fetzer, Dick Smith, four Generals, and three Tarheels claim the Waynesboro school as their Alma Mater.

"Pete" Hisle struck out for the first time this year in the first inning of Thursday's game.
