BILL HOLT ELECTED STUDENT PRESIDENT

LARGE SQUAD WILL GREET NEW MENTOR

DeHart Arrives Monday To Take Charge of Grid Training.

Spring football practice will start in earnest Monday afternoon when Coach DeHart will be here to take charge of the work. Graduate Manager Smith received a telegram from DeHart Friday, expressing his regret that he could not arrive here before Monday, but stating that he would surely be here then. It is not positively known yet whether he will arrive in time for practice Monday, but if possible notice of the fact will be posted. All men who have any intention of becoming candidates next fall are urged to be on the field for the first practice under the new coach to give him a hearty reception.

Continual rains and the elections yesterday put a temporary stop to the practice this week, but work will be resumed today. About fifty candidates have reported to date, many of whom are new men.

Manager Smith is very anxious to get in touch with all men coming out next Fall, and urges that those who can not come out for Spring practice see him within the next week. He wants to know as nearly as possible who will be out next year in order that there may be no delay in giving every man proper equipment.

TRACK TEAM HAS VARIED SEASON

Several New Stars Developed; Prospects Bright For Next Year's Team.

The Washington and Lee track team completed its schedule last Saturday afternoon when they took fifth place in the annual South Atlantic Track and Field Event Program held at Charlottesville. This year's team has had what appears in some respects a rather varied season but some of the scores do not show the real quality of the team.

In the first meet of the season, at Charlottesville, the University of Virginia defeated the Generals 83 to 44 after a hard fight. In the second meet at Baltimore, Maryland was easily defeated 76 to 50 by a small squad of men. The Johns Hopkins meet was rained out here April 18, and the U. of Richmond was completely defeated the next Monday, 107 to 19. At Blacksburg, V. P. I. succeeded in defeating the White and Blue 79 to 47, and the season ended with the South Atlantic where W. and L. took fifth place with a total of 15 points.

In the dashes "Jimmy" Thomas has been a consistent first placer during the season and should show up still better next season.

J. E. Humphreys and W. A. Williams have been the outstanding stars of the middle distances, Jimmy Humphreys taking third place in the South Atlantic half mile against a very strong field, with a time of 2 minutes 2-5 seconds.

W. C. Smith has shown exceptional form and wonderful development

CALYX EXPECTED LATE NEXT WEEK

Will Be Shipped From New York May 23; New Copies Will Likely Be Scarce.

According to an announcement made yesterday by A. J. Lester, the Calyx will be shipped from New York, May 23, and should arrive in time for distribution the latter part of next week.

The 1922 annual is bound in a handsome dark blue, unpadded, solid leather cover with a silver embossed design of the Memorial Gateway on the front.

The Calyx was planned this year with the purpose of making it a memory book as well as a school advertiser. Therefore there are two pages in the back for autographs and several striking campus views finished in chestnut-brown ink on cameo paper, giving a very pleasing effect. The Athletic and Society departments are especially attractive due to the good work of J. C. Morrison and C. W. Hall, respectively, editors of the departments.

So far, only eighty per cent of the students have subscribed to the Calyx, and on account of the limited number of copies printed those who have not subscribed may not be able to get a copy unless they subscribe at once.

Manager Lester wishes to announce that no annuals will be distributed until all class and society representative fees have been paid, so those who have not paid up are urged to do so immediately in order to cause no delay.

FIGHTING GENERALS CLOSE GOOD SEASON ON DIAMOND

MONAGRAMS ARE AWARDED VARSITY

Twelve Men Receive Coveted Trident In Baseball; Ten In Track.

At an Athletic Council meeting held last night, R. D. "Dick" Jordan was appointed baseball manager for the season of 1922-23. Harry Clemmer and Hunter H. Hancock were appointed Junior Managers. The track managership was postponed until the next meeting of the Athletic Council. Coach "Cy" Twombly was appointed manager of the swimming team. On the motion of Mr. Glasgow, the manager for any of the minor sports of Washington and Lee should be a member of the team, and two applications for this job were rejected. A new rule was passed that the manager of the crews should be a neutral man and that he should be appointed by Graduate Manager Dick Smith. Heretofore the clubs have been alternating, one year the Albert Sidneys nominating the manager and the next year the Harry Lees.

The following men were awarded monograms in track: Jimmy Thomas, W. A. Williams, W. C. Smith, G. Simmons, R. A. Rhodes, J. O. Lewis, Leroy Ward, Jimmy Humphreys, P.

Carr, Merriwether and Thomas Are Others Elected on the Second Ballot

CROCKETT, KELLEY, LINDSAY, ABBOTT, PETERS, SNIVELY AND FOREMAN WIN ON FIRST VOTE

Friday's Election Results in Many Surprises-- "Politickin" Causes Dope to Be Upset-- 650 Votes Cast

William E. Holt, Jr., of Memphis, Tenn., by a majority of thirty-two votes over G. T. "Doc" Holbrook won the Presidency of the Student Body on the second ballot in the general elections yesterday, when eleven Student Body officers were voted upon, in one of the warmest waged and most uncertain election held on the campus in a number of years. The election was the first to be held under the recently adopted amendment to the Student Body Constitution which provides that a preliminary ballot be cast to eliminate all but two candidates for offices where more than two are contestants, and a final ballot be taken to decide the winners, instead of the old first and second choice methods. Despite some misgivings, as full a vote was cast on the second ballot as upon the first.

The winners for the other offices are as follows: "Bob" Carr, Vice-President; L. S. Meriwether, Secretary-Treasurer; "Red" Peters, Cheer Leader; A. C. Kelley, Editor of Ring-tum Phi; Jack Thomas, Manager of Ring-tum Phi; D. H. Lindsay, Editor of Mink; K. D. Abbott, Manager of Mink; D. R. Snively, Editor of Calyx; W. S. Foreman, Manager of Calyx; E. P. Crockett, President of Finals.

The race for the Presidency, as was predicted, was closely contested. Upon the first ballot Holbrook received 251 votes, Holt 215, and Ellis 176, thus eliminating the latter candidate. However, upon the second ballot Holbrook's early lead was wiped out entirely, and Holt was elected with a majority of 32 votes.

Bob Carr for the vice-presidency was the strongest man on the first ballot. His count was 246 and that of W. T. Spencer, his nearest rival, was 199. R. P. (42) Asbury and E. W. Poindexter were eliminated on this ticket. The final ballot showed Carr still in the lead, his final majority over Spencer being 34 votes.

L. S. Meriwether ran an unusually strong race against C. G. Rice and Archie Phelps, receiving only seven less than enough to elect him on the first ballot. Meriwether's vote was 311 and Rice, his next rival, had 236. On the second ballot Meriwether was elected with a majority of 106 votes over Rice.

A. C. Kelley and Howard Leake were opponents for the position of Editor of the Ring-tum Phi. Kelly with a vote of 426, as against Leake with 212 votes, was declared elected. As Kelley and Leake were the only two contestants for this position the winner was determined on the first ballot.

Jack Thomas and D. N. Farnell were the two "fortunates" in the quartet out for the managership of the Ring-tum Phi. The votes on the first ballot were: Thomas 280, Farnell 143, Turner 132, and Elias 80. Thomas was elected—Thomas 381, Farnell 218.

D. H. Lindsay, for Editor of the Mink, received 407 votes, while Geo. W. Good received 230.

K. D. Abbott for managership of the Mink was unopposed and received a count of 617 votes, the highest number cast for any candidate.

D. R. Snively polled a total of 34 votes over his only opponent, Matt Wiltshire, for Editor of the Calyx. Snively's vote was 332, while Wiltshire's was 298.

Sidney Foreman ran a good race and received the managership of the Calyx, by a majority of 309 votes over W. A. Peavy. Foreman totalled 469 votes while Peavy received 160.

E. P. Crockett was elected President of Finals on the first ballot despite the fact that he had two strong opponents. Crockett received 339 votes, Corbett 157, and Jimmie Thomas 141.

B. P. (Red) Peters was unopposed for Cheer Leader for next year and received a vote of 601.

When two young people get their heads together they are dancing.

IN RE POLITICS

The major political excitement of the year is over. With the class elections Monday politics and things political will vanish like the mists on old House Mountain before the rays of the rising sun.We extend heartiest congratulations to the successful candidates and to the Student Body. Both deserve them to the fullest, for under the new non-factional system which has proved itself in accord with the high ideals of its inception, a winning candidate may rightfully consider himself the choice of a majority of the voters. The Student Body itself and the various components of the old cliques are to be congratulated on one of the cleanest and most broad-minded elections ever held at Washington and Lee.Scarcely a friendship was strained, cut throat methods and arguments were very much in the minority, although opinions were as various as the flashing colors of the kaleidoscope, and fast friends were moving spirits in rival camps,
through it all was a free, open, almost joyous atmosphere of goodfellowship and cheerful confidence that the University would not be lost if the result were not as expected.This is the sensible condition of campus politics. There is left plenty of latitude for ambitious Mark Hanna's and budding statesmen to plan campaigns and receive the undoubted worth of clean political training. More and more, the keynotes of future campaigns will not be personal popularity or "drag" with the old line manipulators but principles and platforms looking to the common advancement.In regard to the elections held yesterday and those approaching next week, bear this in mind: the non-factional agreement is working even better than was predicted by the ma-majority, and is an inestimable benefit to the campus, and though politics will never satisfy everybody, as proceeds from their fundamental nature, the present system is the most democratic method of electing representative student officers that has been employed—work for your convictions and candidates, but accept the outcome unreservedly. Harbor no rankling memories of politics after they are over and have served their useful purposes.

IN THE OLD DAYS

The following extract from the Richmond Times-Dispatch of May 9, was sent in by Sandy P. Figgat, '87, and is taken from the "News of Fifty Years Ago" column. It gives a very interesting sidelight on athletics of "the good old days," and shows the rivalry that has always existed with the Orange and Blue of Virginia.

"There was an exciting game of baseball in Lexington yesterday between the Monticello Club of the University of Virginia and the Shoo-fly Club of Washington and Lee University. Monticello won by a score of 24 to 20.—Richmond Times-Dispatch."

HOME RUNS WERE TOO
MANY TO TABULATE

Los Angeles, Cal.—Girl baseball teams of the University of Southern California and Occidental College met Thursday in a seven inning game which ended with a score of 66 to 16 in favor of U. S. C. At the end of the fifth inning the score was 30 to 7.

Home runs were too numerous to tabulate. The contest would have gone the regulation nine innings had one of the players not torn a hole in her stockings. She refused to play any more until repairs had been made. The delay shortened the contest to seven innings.

Virginia, losing three times to V. M. I., twice to North Carolina, and once to W. & L., Virginia, and Roanoke.

Roanoke the First.

The local season was opened March 31st with an 8-0 romp over Roanoke College. For an opener that was played in a drizzle, the game was singularly free from errors and was featured by the heavy clouting of the victors and the great pitching of Captain McCallum and Lindburg, Roanoke securing but one hit. The first defeat of the season came in the next game when South Carolina took full advantage of six costly bobbles during the opening innings and piled up a seven-run lead that was almost wiped out by a brilliant four-run rally in the seventh. The next battle was waged in Blacksburg where the Generals took the measure of V. P. I. in most approved style, banging out an 11-3 victory behind masterly pitching by Gus Lindburg.

Panthers Helpless.

The Pitt Panthers came to Wilson Field on the twelfth and were given a taste of southern slugging. The White and Blue machine functioned perfectly behind Riddick and McDonald who together yielded but four lonesome hits. The final score was 10-2, two Pitt hurlers being driven to the showers during the slaughter. Virginia came next, renewing athletic relations after a fifteen year lapse, and was taken into camp, 10 to 7, after having amassed a seven-run lead in the second inning as a result of local miscues and timely hitting, only to have the advantage dissipated by a startling General rally that netted ten runs and the contest. It was a highly spectacular contest in which the victory was well earned. The team then played a return game with Virginia at Charlottesville and came from behind to defeat the Orange and Blue, 3 to 2, after a gruelling 13-frame battle, which was terminated by Lindburg's slashing double in the 13th that won his own beautifully-pitched game.

Split With Carolina.

The University of North Carolina came next to engage the Generals in a two-game series. The first exhibition was a weird affair in which the Carolina infield blew up after acquiring an eight-run lead and W. & L. came out of the contest with the best of a 9-8 result. The second game witnessed ten errors by the locals and a 6-3 victory by the visitors. North Carolina brought along one of the best teams ever seen here and, although the contests were unusual, they certainly were not lacking in interest. The nine from N. C. State was the succeeding victim, losing to the locals, 5-6, in a struggle featured by four homers and McCallum's great hurling.

Golden Tornado Gets It.

The Generals put over another 6-5 victory on the 29th when the famed Georgia Tech team could not compete with the brilliant playing of the victors, although "Red" Barron slammed out two circuit clouts. The second game required ten innings for settlement in favor of the visitors, 4 to 3. McCallum yielded but five hits but they were bunched and spelled defeat. Revenge for a succession of defeats came in the game with West Virginia which W. & L. won after twelve innings of exciting baseball. More brilliant fielding behind Lindburg was the big reason. This was about the most keenly relished victory of the season. Randolph-Macon was overwhelmed, 16-0, in the last home game of the schedule. McDonald gave up but three hits while his teammates sent the pill to all corners of the lot.

Southern Trip.

W. & L. won the first game of the southern trip from Elon, 8-4, poling out 17 hits and playing a great fielding game. Trinity captured the next, 3-2, largely because of Sanderson's effective delivery. The team then slumped badly, losing to N. C. State, 10-0, and U. of N. C., 9-1. They came out of it in Atlanta, defeating Tech 3 to 2, due in great measure to McCallum's hurling and Terry's opportune smash in the third. McCallum tried to duplicate the next day against the same team, Lindburg having a sore arm, and should have repeated. Inability to hit, however, caused the Generals to lose, 3-0, and the 1922 season was over.

COMMUNICATION

Dick Smith Urges Need for Reorganization of the Monogram Club and Active Functioning.

Editor of the Ring-tum Phi:

Dear Sir: A Monogram Club is needed at Washington and Lee that will function. The trouble with so many college organizations of this kind is they never accomplish anything other than elect officers, hold a banquet and do a lot of talking. Is this to be the case here? If so let's do away with it and help to eliminate from the campus any other organizations that merely have a name and do no work.

If the proposed Monogram Club will take over a few obligations, one at a time of course, and each member pledge himself to support such obligations until they are accomplished, then the Monogram Club will be a great movement. We need an organization of this kind to bring pressure to bear on the University authorities and our Alumni for the urgent need of a new athletic field. We are cramped for space and will be unable in a few years to hold our own with the other Southern Intercollegiate Conference teams unless we have facilities at once to develop material for our Varsity teams. W. & L. needs three football fields as well as three baseball diamonds and we must get them somewhere.

If the Monogram Club will organize with this in view (as well as other things that are needed) and with determination to see it through—why let's go! I am for it and will support any movement that will help accomplish the above end.

R. A. SMITH,
Graduate Manager.

DR. HOWE BACK AFTER FIVE MONTHS' ABSENCE

Dr. and Mrs. J. L. Howe returned to Lexington Thursday night after an absence of more than five months. Due to a general breakdown in health, Dr. Howe was unable to take up his regular duties as head of the Chemistry Department of the University and Dean of the School of Applied Science at the opening of the fall term. He went to Philadelphia in November to undergo treatment in a hospital there. He left there about a month ago very much better, going to visit his daughter, Mrs. Chalmers Moore, of Birmingham, Alabama.

Dr. Howe expects to resume his regular duties here again next fall.

COURT TEAM HAD UNLUCKY YEAR

Netmen Win But a Single Match; Miller and Payne Show Best Form.

The tennis team experienced a rather unsuccessful season this year, losing all except one of the matches played. The loss of Burch, last year's star player, was keenly felt. The fact that all except one match were played on foreign courts was also a handicap to the local racquetters.

The initial match, which was played here with George Washington University, resulted in a tie score. However, all the games were close and a good brand of tennis was furnished to the spectators. The team, composed of Snively, Mason, Payne, Miller, and Manager Elias, then made a northern trip, visiting V. P. I., George Washington, and the Navy. On this trip, V. P. I. won 4-2, George Washington University won 6-0, and the team representing the Navy won 4-0 in a match that was halted by rain.

In all these matches, Miller and Payne, new members of the team, showed up well. All men on this year's team are expected back next year.

"SENIOR NIGHT" AT "Y" OBSERVED THURSDAY

Lyceum Plans For Next Season Are Announced; Will Undertake To Form a "Hi-Y."

"Senior Night" was observed at the Y. M. C. A. last Thursday night when four Seniors spoke on the subject of what the "Y" has meant to them during their college careers. All four speeches were full of interesting details of the things that have made the association mean so much to them. After the regular religious program the meeting was turned into a heartily enjoyable and rather unexpected social.

It was announced that during the past year the Y. M. C. A. has witnessed one of its most successful seasons. So much enthusiasm was manifested in the Crawford Adam Company on the Lyceum program this year, that they will make a return trip in the first number for the Lyceum course for 1922-23. The Lyceum entertainments will consist of three numbers as before. It is planned to have an even more systematic program for religious meetings next year, having one prominent out of town speaker and one local speaker a month. The Freshman Reception will have a number of added features. In "Bible Study," students will continue to act as leaders, with an active program before them. Sending out gospel teams and the starting of a "Hi-Y" club will be undertaken by the Social Service Committee. All officers and committee-men have taken up their respective duties and a most successful year is predicted in every phase.

TRACK RESUME SHOWS VARIED CINDER SEASON

in the mile and two-mile, taking first place in both events against Richmond University. Guerrant and Howard have also shown up well in the two mile.

In the hurdles Simmons, Stolz or Rhodes have taken a first place in nearly every meet.

Ward and Lewis have been the outstanding stars in the field events. Ward has been by far the highest point man on the team, having run up a total of 63 points before the South Atlantic meet. Lewis has also shown up well, especially in the discus and broad jump.

The final results of the season's work have been satisfactory, although several defeats have been sustained, and the prospects of a winning team for next year are excellent.

COMMERCE FRAT INSTALLED HERE

Dr. Roy B. Kester of Columbia Has Charge of Work; Many Visitors Here for the Event.

Alpha Delta, Washington and Lee's chapter of Alpha Kappa Psi, national commerce fraternity which was founded at New York University in 1904, was installed last Saturday. The members of Alpha Delta are J. A. Cranford, F. J. Daughtrey, R. M. Frew, C. H. Griffin, J. C. Hoover, A. J. Lester, W. F. Livingston, R. D. Maben, F. E. Pass, W. J. L. Patton, H. B. Robinson, D. R. Sniveley, R. W. Terry, Garland Alexander, Guy Campbell, Professors Hancock, Tucker, Campbell, and Coan.

The installation was in charge of Dr. Roy B. Kester of Columbia University, Grand President of Alpha Kappa Psi; Mr. Morris Lasher of New York University; Messrs. Oakes, Stauffer, and McNair, of the University of Virginia; and Mr. East, of William and Mary.

At the installation banquet held at the Dutch Inn, Professor Coan was toastmaster. Talks were made by Doctor Kester, Messrs. Lasher, East and McNair to which Dr. Hancock and J. A. Cranford responded.

After the banquet the student members and visitors went on to the Troubadour dance, and an informal reception was given Doctor Kester by Professor Coan at his home.

Dr. Kester, widely known as an author, is Professor of Accounting at Columbia University. He was formerly at the University of Denver. Alpha Delta was glad to welcome him to Washington and Lee.
