Flavin on End Run Tackled by Capt. Moore in Georgetown Game.

THANKSGIVING DANCES NEXT WEEK

Scores of Girls and Wiedemeyers Orchestra Coming; Two Dances and Dansant; Freshmen Can Attend

Formal social festivities for the 1920-1921 session will be ushered in with a bang next Monday night when the Sophomore Class will give their annual class dance. This will be followed on Tuesday by a Troubadour Show, a Dansant and the Cotillion Club Thanksgiving German. With Wiedemeyer's Saxophone Orchestra from Huntington furnishing music and with an unusually large number of visiting girls promising their presence, the dances' success is assured.

Forrest W Cobb, President of the Sophomore class, will lead the opening dance with Miss Jessie Gray Boggs. The Cotillion Club dance will be led by the President of the Club, Lewis S. Musgrove, assisted by Miss Lillie Maddox, of Birmingham, Ala., who was sponsor at the V. P. I. game.

An overture to the formal festivities will be presented Monday afternoon in the form of a show by the Pi Alpha Nu goats, which will be free to the public. In order that a full program may be crowded into the afternoon, Tuesday, the faculty has consented to have recitations conducted on the assembly day basis, thus causing classes to be disbanded at 12:45. At two o'clock the Troubadours will present the big show, fol-

GENERALS CLOSE 1920 SEASON DEFEATING GEORGETOWN 16-7

Washington's Annual Classic Scene of Generals' Comeback—Forward Passes Bring Victory—Captain Moore Stars for W. and L.—Flavin Best for Hilltoppers

It has been done, and 16-7 tells the tale. The Generals Football season came to a glorious close last Saturday in Washington when, before a crowd of amazed onlookers they handed out to their ancient foes a decisive beating. Entering the game with the odds heavily against them the Blue and White warriors displayed a brand of football the like of which had not been in the Capital for years.

The snap and speed of the backfield and the wonderful work of the line made up a machine against which the strongest Georgetown eleven was powerless. It was the air attack which in the first few minutes started the Blue and White on the way to victory and which later clinched it in the third period. The spectacular tosses of Mattox into the arms of the Generals' speedy ends provided the thrills of the contest. A few minutes after the game started a 30 yard throw to Leake was responsible for the first touchdown.

The second touchdown came as the direct result of more fancy air work. In the third period Bemis snatched a pass in the midst of Georgetown players on the 5-yard line and a few minutes later Tucker went across the line to receive the throw for the counter.

The masterly playing of Silverstein, the offensive work of Capt. Moore, and the consistent show of ability by Tucker were also bright lights of the game. Joe, the genius of the drop-kick, put the Generals in the lead in the second period when he booted the ball just over the bar from the 36 yard line. It was a difficult feat for the pass was bad and Kenyon was almost on top of him. Cogbill, being hurt in practice, Silverstein was placed at the helm and his strategy and direction of the play was of the highest order. He was a power both on the offense and defense.

Tucker played a great game. Especially brilliant was his running back of punts. This speed merchant more than once returned the ball for good distances, and his end runs were good for splendid gains.

Capt. Moore played one of the best games of his career. The big tackle put up a splendid exhibition of offensive play and was the first down the field under punts, several times smothering Flavin in his tracks.

Georgetown's score came in the first period when Leighty got away

W. & L. GETS SECOND PLACE IN MEET

Va. First With 25 Points to Blue and White's 39; Garard Comes in Second

At the annual South-Atlantic Cross-Country Meet held Saturday at Charlottesville, Va., Washington and Lee's Quintet, with a total score of 39 points finished a close second to the Virginia team which placed first with a total of 25 points. The other two schools entered in the meet, Johns Hopkins University, and Maryland State placed third and fourth, respectively.

Shands of the Virginia team, running the course in 34:49, was the first man to finish. Garard of Washington and Lee placed second. The first five men to finish for Washington and Lee were Garard, Caldwell, Smith, Stevens, and Pass in the order named. By pre-arrangement with the competing schools Washington and Lee was permitted to run the nine men making the trip to Charlottesville, though only seven were officially entered. Loving, Swope, Parthlow, and Burch were the other W. & L. men who made the trip and were entered in the race.

ALL STUDENTS INVITED

The Y. M. C. A. has decided to have a Thanksgiving Party instead of the regular mid-week meeting. Next Wednesday night at 8 p. m. is the time and every student is invited. A good time is guaranteed.

WASHINGTON AND LEE ALUMNI ASSOCIATION OF WASHINGTON, D. C. HOLDS MEETING

The Washington and Lee Alumni Association of Washington, D. C., held a very interesting and enthusiastic meeting at 8 P. M., Friday, November 19th. It was a "get together meeting" for the Georgetown game. Judge S. J. Graham, President of the Association presided. Coach Raftery was the first speaker. He gave a very interesting talk, covering the football season and stated plainly that he and his team were in Washington for the one purpose of getting sweet revenge. We all know they got it. E. P. Davis, Secretary of the Washington and Lee Alumni, Inc., was the next speaker. He outlined the plans of the Alumni, Inc., urging everyone to become an active member. A resolution was passed by the meeting pledging one hundred per cent of the Washington Alumni for the Alumni, Inc. Dr. Thom was then called upon. It need not be said that Dr. Thom made an interesting talk,—he always does. In his talk he urged that all Alumni cooperate in keeping up the records, and in this way make possible the early publication of an up-to-date Alumni Register. Then followed several short talks by Col. R. E. Lee, Judge James Quarles, Roland Waddill and others. Judge Graham turned over the Chair to Bob Williams, Vice-President of the Association, before closing. Mr. Williams declared the meeting "informal." A general handshaking was indulged in before adjourning.

Present at that meeting were, Judge S. J. Graham, '81, President; R. K. Williams, '13, Vice-President; Col. R. E. Lee, '92, W. Taylor Thom, '70, W. Taylor Thom, Jr., '13, Judge James Quarles, '89, R. A. Waddill, '12, T. A. Hamilton, '17, A. M. Cromwell, '19, F. B. Potter, '18, R. C. Shaw, '15, A. J. Harbert, '12, B. H. Levy, '21, R. J. Fristoe, '18, E. M. Bristow, '15, Samuel P. Kohen, '16, E. P. King, '20, E. C. Miller, '04, D. D. Utt, Torrence Wolford, '21, W. H. Smith, '18, E. C. R. Humphries, '96, Geo McP. Minetree, '08, L. D. Arnold, '18, J. H. Tabb, '11, H. R. Phillips, '11, R. M. Bear, '18, F. H. Styles, '18, T. B. Benson, '07, H. R. Mills, '05.

Among the most interested spectators at the W. & L.-Georgetown game were Newton D. Baker and his son, who sat behind the W. & L. team's bench.

FRANK GILLIAM ON WAY TO AFRICA

Letter Received Recently by Secretary Davis

R. M. S. "Kaiserin Auguste Victoria."
Monday, October 18.

Dear Eddie:

As you possibly know, I am on my way to take up educational work in the Belgian Congo under the Southern Presbyterian Board. It is in the mission in which Dr. Morrison, from Lexington, was one of the pioneers and Shepherd, from Waynesboro, was one of the founders. I expect to stay in Brussels, studying French until January the first, as that is the official language out there and it is necessary for one to know it in transactions with the Belgian officials of the government. I shall sail about the first of the year for the Congo and should reach there early in February.

My address until about December 15, then, will be: in Care of M. le Pasteur Henri Anet, 15 Avenue Brunard, Uccle Bruxelles, Belgium and after that time: Care A. P. C. M., Luebo, Congo Belge, Africa, Par Kinshasa.

I shall be quite a long distance away but my interest in Washington and Lee, in the Alumni and in your work in particular will always remain warm and keen. With kindest personal regards, believe me, Eddie,

Sincerely your friend,
Heine Gilliam, '17.

TEAM AND VISITORS ENTERTAINED ROYALLY BY ALUMNI IN BIRMINGHAM

From the time the team arrived in Birmingham until they started for home, nothing was left undone by the Alumni to make their visit there pleasant in every way. No one will deny that, except for the "late unpleasantness" with Auburn, the trip was a success. That part of the story was fully set out in last week's issue. Mention it no more, except to say that there will be another game with them we hope. Up to the time of the game everything possible was done for the comfort and entertainment of the members of the team.

After the game the team and all visiting Alumni were entertained at the Southern Club, a most enjoyable banquet being held. Mr. Borden Burt, '98, presided as Toastmaster. Several of the Alumni present were called upon for short talks, among them Colonel T. O. Smith, '79, of Birmingham, and E. P. Davis, '15 Lexington, Va. Coach Raftery and Captain Moore responded in fine style for the Washington and Lee team. Mr. "Cy" Young '17 of Helena, Ark., expressed eloquently the appreciation of the visiting Alumni.

Never has there been such an exhibition of loyalty as was shown by our Alumni, and that following the worst defeat ever suffered by a Washington and Lee Football Team. It showed the real Washington and Lee spirit of the "old-timers."

About fifty Alumni registered at "Alumni Headquarters," Saturday morning, at the Tutwiler Hotel.

ALUMNI NOTES

Miss Theo Terrell and Irwin P. Graham, '10 were married in Charlotte, N. C., November 11th. Mr. and Mrs. Graham have taken up their residence at Coolemees, N. C.

Harper Poling, '18, is Treasurer of The Markohoma Oil and Gas Company, Cumberland, Maryland.

Carl Hinton, '09, is in the Engineering Department of the Shiplett-McCormick Company, Anderson, South Carolina.

Judge Harry M. Wurzbach was recently elected to Congress from the Fourteenth Congressional District of Texas. Judge Wurzbach belonged to the class of 1896, and the University and Alumni should feel honored to have one of the few Republican Representatives from the South in Congress.

LYCEUM COURSE START EXCELLENT

Concert at High School Auditorium Well Attended; Five Musical Artists Entertain

Lexington was treated to one of the best concerts obtainable at the High School Auditorium last Wednesday night. The W. and L. Y. M. C. A. was the beneficiary, all students being admitted free.

The performers included three harpists, one soprano soloist and one tenor soloist. All five of these were up to the mark and the entertainment they gave showed that they were very far from amateurs.

The program was opened by the harpists, Misses Nellie and Ethel Zimmer and Miss Louise Harris. They won an ovation at the beginning and were not allowed to withdraw until they had given a second proof of their ability at picking the music out of the strings.

In the second selection, Miss Lindhorst, soprano, delighted the audience with "The Chant of the Stars" by Hobart. Miss Lindhorst proved definitely, to anyone who might have doubted it, the class to which she belongs.

The whole concert included eleven appearances, all of which were good. Altho Mr. Cappelle, the tenor, gave a considerable part of his renderings in Italian, he had the wonderful ability of singing the meaning as well as the words. He sang "Nina" and "The Merry Life" in Italian. One of his best productions in English was "Little Voices are Calling Me." The soprano showed wonderful ability and was especially good in "Love in Springtime" and in "Come Down to Keu in Lilac Time." Among the best selections by the harpists may be included "The Wooden Shoe Dance" and "Irish War Song." The latter was especially good, the effect produced being that of soldiers marching, as they approached from the distance, as they passed the listener and then as they passed on out of hearing into the distance again. The concert was concluded by the harpists with the Welsh National Hymn.

The first Lyceum course given by the Y. M. C. A. this year was a great success. One of the professors said that it was the best thing of its kind that has been in Lexington during the twenty odd years that he has lived here.

CHEMICAL SOCIETY HAS INTERESTING MEETING

Last Tuesday night the regular meeting of the Chemical Society was held and papers of interest in live chemical topics were read and discussed. Papers were read by the following men: J. G. Kincheloe, "The Early History of Chemistry;" Richard Sherrill, "The Development of Alloys and Future Prospects;" J. W. Miller, "The Recent Progress of the By-Product Coke Industry."

The three professors in the Chemical Department are members of this organization, and a large number of men who are taking higher courses in Chemistry are also active members. Prof. J. L. Howe, Jr., is President of the Society.

VENGEANCE IS OURS

Speaking of comebacks, the Generals, 1920, are a classic example.

The Generals wound up the season in a blaze of glory, and it was the heaviest season ever attempted by a W. & L. team.

Even the Washington Post had to admit that Georgetown never had a chance.

In the midst of all the happiness after Saturday's game, our esteemed contemporary, the Mink, made its appearance at the P. O. and on the campus. An improvement is noted in the printing and in some of its departments and features. We are glad that no one connected with V. M. I. can take offense at the current issue.

That was a rare reception given the team on its return from Washington. We congratulate the Student Body officers who engineered the blowout. It was an unqualified success.

Every W. & L. man appreciates the prompt action taken by the V. M. I. Honor Court and Corps in regard to the painting of our columns and the Memorial Gateway a week ago. To speak frankly, gentlemen of the Honor Court, we are expecting results.

We were back of the team when it won. Are we just as strong for them when they lose. They need more backing after a defeat.

We are indebted to Turner Rice of Mink fame for the drawing entitled "The Fall Drive." He forgot to attach his name or initials.

The Contest for picking a Contributing Editor for Ring-tum Phi which has been open for the past two weeks closed a few days ago. James L. Allgood of the Class of 1923 is the successful contestant. Competition has been keen and we desire to thank every man who took part in the contest for the good sketches and articles that were submitted.

PERPETRATORS OF PAINTING NOT YET APPREHENDED

There is little need in printing in detail what was done last Monday night, for everyone in Lexington knows of the great Painting Outrage. Let it be suffice to say that on the night of Nov. 15th, some deluded, malicious, and as yet unknown persons took it upon themselves to thoroughly besmear the columns of the Main Building and the Gym in addition to several buildings in town, with sundry insulting letterings and designs in black paint. The unbelievable sacrilege in defacing the Memorial Gateway shows plainly that no mercy should be shown them when apprehended.

The Executive Committee met at once on Tuesday morning and began the collection of evidence, which was presented to the student body in an assembly held last Friday afternoon, together with the action that had been taken. Since all the evidence—the paint-stained V. M. I. glove found on the campus, the phone calls for paint received from V. M. I. at a drug store on the night of the happening, the testimony of several persons that they saw men who looked like cadets uptown about one-o'clock, and various minor clues — directed suspicion strongly against V. M. I., a special committee from the Executive Committee laid the facts before the Honor Court of that institution and asked them to conduct an investigation at once. Although they were unable to fix the guilt on any specific persons, they agreed that it was possibly done by some misguided individuals of the Cadet Corps. A meeting of the Corps was called, and upon the facts being presented, the Corps voted to adopt the following resolutions, which were transmitted to the Executive Committee and read at the Assembly of the Student Body on Friday.

Virginia Military Institute
Lexington, Virginia,
November 18, 1920.

WHEREAS: On the night of November 15, 1920, the property of the Washington and Lee University and of the citizens of the town of Lexington was defaced by a person, or persons unknown, and

WHEREAS: It is rumored that some members of the student body of Washington and Lee University are of the opinion that cadets of the Virginia Military Institute were implicated in this pernicious act, and

WHEREAS: The sentiment and attitude of the Corps of Cadets is in direct opposition to deeds of such nature.

BE IT RESOLVED: That the Corps of Cadets of the Virginia Military Institute shall express their sincere disapprobation of the above stated occurrence, and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED: that the Corps of Cadets wishes to express to the Student Body its eagerness to cooperate to the fullest extent with the Executive Committee of the Washington and Lee University in its endeavor to apprehend the perpetrators of the deed, and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED: That a copy of these resolutions be presented to the student body of the Washington and Lee University and, that they be published in THE CADET.

Corps Cadets, Virginia Military Institute.

R. McC. Pate
H. P. McCuiston
J. H. Jordan
M. K. Berry
Committee.

In reply to the above resolutions, by a unanimous vote the Student Body confirmed a letter drawn up by the Executive Committee, in which acknowledgement of V. M. I.'s resolutions is made. The letter sent V. M. I. states plainly the attitude of the Student Body and does not overlook the fact that evidence points strongly toward V. M. I. However, awaiting any developments that the investigation now being conducted by the V. M. I. Honor Court may disclose, the Student Body will take no further action, until such developments may take action necessary.

PHI-LINGS

S. Q. DUNK WRITES

Some Food For The Thoughtless Concerning "The Mystery"

Lexington, Virginia,

Nov. 22, 1920.

To the Editor of The Wring Tum Fie.
Dear Sir,

In regard to the grave, serious, baffling, weighty, all absorbing, and most highly momentous question which is at present occupying the minds of the Professors, Student Body and Freshmen of Washington and Lee, to-wit: "Who Spilled the Precious Fluid." Quoth the Raven: "Search Me, Isadore."

To state the question so that even Sighmees could see thru it: "Who was the low-down, contemptible Scoundrel, Crook and Reprobate who, deliberately, and with malice aforethought, perpetrated, consummated, and otherwise brought to pass, the unspeakable and wanton outrage and desecration of our sacred Campus and Buildings?"

I fear that in our eagerness to bring to light the said scoundrel and reprobate, we might possibly have overlooked some solution of the mystery, which, altho not very probable, perhaps, still are certainly possible, and therefore worthy of our careful consideration.

For example, have any of our sagacious Herlock Sholmes' considered the possibility of this act of vandalism having been committed by our esteemed and popular friend, Prof. Liv. W. Smith, while in a state of despondency verging on a nervous breakdown brought on by the unusual amount of dumbness and blockheadedness exhibited by his freshmen this year?

Is there not a remote possibility that, Dr. Howe was merely attempting to discover the reaction resulting from the combination of PaInT (taken several times) and CaCO₃?

Someone has also suggested that a clue which might have a deep hidden significance, was a remark which Miss Annie White was heard to make the morning after, to her beautiful Russian Rat-hound: "Vengeance is Sweet."

It will be rememberer that a few years ago, this self-same progeny of the well-known species received a coat of tar at the hands of some well-meaning students. This insult has rankled within the heart of Miss Annie for lo, these many years, so why should she not retaliate with a coat of paint?

Again, it is not unreasonable that McCrums might have taken this exceedingly unique way of advertising the merits of their in-famous Brand of "Nigger n de Cane Patch" Paint.

Perhaps that well-known and justly-famous body, the Cotillion Club, wished to prove their unswerving loyalty to their good friends the Cadets.

And lastly, allow me to leave with you for your profound consideration, this idea, which I trust you will ponder well,—Is it not possible, yea probable that our most worthy and honorable friends of the Mink Staff might have taken this rather singular and bizarre method of advertising their budding off-spring.

Trusting that these suggestions may be of some service in leading to the clearing up of this awful mystery, I am,

Yours in terrible suspense,
S. Q. Dunk.

SOME NIT WIT

We all traveled up to George's town, To pick their feathers and lay them down.

We had a team of eleven strong men; They didn't believe us so we showed them then.

We didn't stop to Barrow trouble, We got our revenge and we crossed them double.

They called for a kick and we gave them Moore.

Our team didn't stop to Paget when they got sore.

Sanford tore a hole in their whole line, George's men didn't like it but the Leake was fine.

Mattox shot them passes a natural every time,

They couldn't Bemiss-ed; they were our prime.

Our crippled team never tarried from hurt or pains,

Once we got started, they couldn't hold the Raines.

The Generals never got tired or Tuckered out,

So ends by Patter, son, it leaves no doubt.

The last we Herndon George's town, We were home and they couldn't be found.

So let's vote a Silverstein for our good team,

And drink a toast to Coach Raftery and his scheme.

BIG SHOW OF YEAR NEXT TUESDAY

Program in Ten Parts; Tickets On Sale at $1.50 and $1.25

The Troubadours are planning a big day for Lexington next Tuesday. Everything is giving way for their opening show.

On account of the dansant later in the afternoon, the performance will start promptly at two o'clock. The Lexington business houses will close between the hours of two and four and the university will run on a forty-five minute schedule. Lexington boarding houses and eating places are expected to serve lunch at that time.

Tickets went on sale yesterday at McCrums at the price of $1.50 and $1.25. It is advisable to get these early as the management expects to sell to standing room only at the door, and no reservations will be held longer than next Monday night.

The performance will be over by four o'clock and will allow plenty of time for attending the dansant.

The program in brief is as follows:

1. Overture—Orchestra.
 2. "That Mule"—Edgar Thompson.
 3. Teasing the Strings—Mandolin Club.
 4. Back to Beal Street—Osborne and McClintock.
 5. Magic Melody—Shelton's Synopators.
- Intermission
6. Overture—Orchestra.
 7. Lost and Found—Troke Moore's Bathing Beauties.
 8. Horrors of a Hotel Lobby—John Morrison.
 9. The One Way Out—Skit by J. L. Peck.
 10. Selections—Glee Club.

The members of the Glee Club to participate in the opening Troubadour show were chosen last week by Director O. W. McClintock. Out of thirty-five candidates the following sixteen men were chosen: R. W. McNabb, G. G. Stone, L. D. Danforth, W. J. L. Patton, J. N. Thomas, J. C. Morrison, E. G. Woodson, S. A. Lawler, J. W. McDonald, Jr., H. K. Gibbons, D. R. Snively, R. D. Jordon, J. R. SPECTACULAR PARADE
AND RECEPTION TO TEAM

Last Saturday night after the news of our victory reached Lexington, the Freshman Class, led by the student body cheer leader, held one of the biggest night shirt parades that has ever been held in Lexington. The Freshmen were assembled at the Economics room and from there the procession moved up town where many upper-classmen joined in. At one time the parade came near being broken up by an autoist, but the unfortunate man was caught by some Freshmen and made to apologize before the crowd.

The best and biggest reception ever given a Washington and Lee team was given the Generals Sunday night. The entire student body was at the station to greet the victorious team when the old C. & O. rolled in. The returning players were carried on willing shoulders to the two big trucks at the station entrance. The parade then started, led by Siamese and the band; then came the old men, the Freshmen, and the team. The Students marched in twos up from the station to Main St. and down to Washington Ave., and at that point the men lined up on both sides. All along the way red torches were burning and on the campus in front of our "White House" the score was made by torches which showed up wonderfully well. The crowd gathered in front of the Gym and each member of the victorious FIGHTING GENERALS was given a cheer. Speeches were made by Coach Raftery and some of the players.

GENERALS CLOSE SEASON

Behind good interference for a 34 yard run to touchdown. They never threatened again except in the 4th period. Flavin with a smashing attack rushed the ball to the 20 yard line but there the Generals magnificent defense held the Hilltoppers' star. Flavin proved to be the star for Georgetown and several times showed dangerous rushes but was always stopped before any damage was done. Leighty and Kenyon shared honors with Flavin, the latter being good on the defense.

The whole Washington and Lee line outdid itself and formed a wall against which the opposing line beat itself in desperation until in the last period, realizing the futility of it, they resorted to passing.

Georgetown tried 11 forward passes none of which were successful. Eight were attempted by the Generals and they succeeded on four occasions.

The injured members of the team played as if they had never been out of the lineup. There was no gaining over Paget and Raines played a splendid game at halfback, with sure tackling and good line plunging.

Georgetown excelled only in one department of the game and that was in punting. Flavin's punt averaged ten to 15 yards more than Silverstein's.

THE GAME

First Quarter

Silverstein kicked off and Flavin returned the ball to Georgetown's 45 yard line. Leighty at left end and Flavin in two line bucks made first down. Flavin then skirted right end for 45 yards, being brought down by Tucker on the 3 yard line. Cronin made two and Leighty went over but fumbled and Leake recovered. Ball went into play on the 20 yard line. Three plays netted 7 yards and Silverstein punted to midfield, W. & L. recovering when Flavin fumbled. After one failure Mattox shot the 30 yard pass which brought the first score. Leake received it, sidestepped Flavin and ran 20 yards for a touchdown. Silverstein missed goal.

Score: W. and L., 6; Georgetown, 0. Kenyon kicked off, Tucker returning to the 20 yard line. First down on three line plunges. A fumble and fifteen yard penalty caused Silverstein to punt, the ball going 25 yards to W. & L.'s 35 yard line. Leighty circled left end for 35 yards and touchdown. Kenyon kicked goal.

Score: W. & L., 6; Georgetown, 7. Kenyon kicked to Tucker who returned to 23 yard line. Time out for Paget. Raines and Mattox gained 2 yards and Silverstein punted to Georgetown's 38 yard line. Quarter ended. Score: W. & L., 6, Georgetown, 7.

2nd Quarter

Leighty and Flavin fail to gain and Flavin punted 40 yards to W. & L.'s 40 yard line. Mattox lost three yards and Tucker tried right end for no gain. Silverstein punted 30 yards to Flavin who was downed in his tracks by Moore. Flavin hit line for 5 yards, but on next play Georgetown was penalized 5 yards. Cronin and Flavin are held and Flavin punted 45 yards to Tucker who returned 5. Mattox in three plays made the necessity ten yards and it was first down on the Generals 40 yard line. Mattox tore off 5 thru center and a pass Mattox to Herndon was good for 25 more. A criss-cross play gave Tucker 5 yards, but on the next he was tossed by Quinn for no gain. Silverstein went back for a drop kick which although at a difficult angle cleared the bar by a scant two feet. Score W. & L., 9; Georgetown, 7.

Kenyon kicked to Tucker who put the ball in play on the 25 yard line. After two yards over line by Silverstein plus a 5 yard penalty Mattox made first down. Three tries by Mattox, Silverstein and Raines netted 5 yards. Silverstein punted and Moore threw Flavin on Georgetown's 20 yard line. Leighty and Flavin smash thru for 8 yards and Cronin made it first down on their 35 yard line. Quarter ended. Score: W. & L., 9; Georgetown, 7.

3rd Quarter

Kenyon kicked off to Tucker on the 25 yard line. Silverstein made 5 yards a right end. A line play fails and Silverstein punted to Georgetown's 35 yard line. Flavin and Ward get only 5 yards in three attempts and Flavin punted to Tucker for a fair catch on W. & L.'s 20 yard line. Mattox and Raines bucked the line for 5 yards. Flavin fumbled Silverstein's punt but recovered. Flavin is thrown for a two yard loss and on the next try at right end was tackled fiercely by Raines after gaining 4 yards. Flavin punted to Tucker on W. & L.'s 20 yard line. A 5 yard gain by Raines was nullified by a 15 yard penalty. Silverstein punted to midfield and Flavin was downed by Tucker. After a three yard gain by Flavin, Silverstein intercepted a pass and dodged thru for 20 yards. A 15 yard penalty advanced the ball to Georgetown's 25 yard line. Sullivan goes in for Leary. A double pass, Tucker to Mattox to Bemis, who had replaced Leake, put the ball 5 yards from the goal. A criss-cross play failed. On a fake end run and lateral pass Mattox made a forward pass to Tucker back of the goal line for a touchdown. Silverstein kicked goal. Score: W. & L., 16; Georgetown, 7. On kickoff Tucker by brilliant running 25 yards to 30 yard line. Quarter ended. Score: W. & L.,

16; Georgetown, 7.

4th Quarter

Silverstein and Raines went over right guard for 7 yards. Mattox no gain. Silverstein punted 20 yards to Flavin, Moore tackling. Ball on Georgetown's 43 yard line. In a series of line smashers Flavin made three first downs advancing the ball to W. & L.'s 32 yard line. The General's line here tightened and threw Flavin for a 2 yard loss. Cronin made 2 yards at right end and after 2 incomplete passes the ball went over to W. & L. on their 20 yard line. A 5 yard penalty and a 5 yard gain by Raines made first down. Tucker lost 4 yards on a run across field and Silverstein punted. Tucker intercepted a pass and Silverstein and Raines made it first down on W. & L.'s 30 yard line. A pass was intercepted by Cronin in midfield. Flavin with good interference circled left end for 15 yards. Leary gets 2 yards. A trio of passes failed and it was W. & L.'s ball on her 5 yard line. A pass was grounded. Mattox made 5 and Silverstein punted out on Georgetown's 30 yard line. A short gain by Flavin and a 15 yard penalty gave Georgetown first down. Raines intercepted a pass in midfield and game ended with ball in Generals possession. Score: Wash. and Lee, 16; Georgetown, 7.
