

FIRST INFORMAL COMES NIGHT OF N. C. STATE GAME

All Southern Seven Will Make Its First Appearance for the Year.

REGULATIONS ARE SAME

Freshmen Will Probably Be Allowed On Floor Few Minutes.

The social season at Washington and Lee will open informally on October the seventh, the day of the football game with North Carolina State. A week from Saturday at eight-thirty p. m., in the Doremus Memorial Gymnasium, the Cotillion Club will give an informal dance, which has prospects of being the best informal held here in quite a while.

Every man must try to get a girl here. The success of the event, as we all know, depends on the number of girls in attendance. Washington and Lee always sets the standard for dances, and that standard is high. Don't let this be an exception because you failed to wire that girl.

The North Carolina State game will attract people from all over this section of Virginia. It is the best game of the season here, and will afford the best opportunity for a dance. A large number of alumni will be back, and we hope about a hundred girls will make the pilgrimage to Lexington to enjoy the attractions of the occasion.

The All-Southern Seven will make its first appearance this year on October 7 and will burst forth with the usual supply of good music that is to be heard at all Washington and Lee dances. The orchestra now consists of nine pieces. Charlie Wright and Bill Manley are with the aggregation again and insure as excellent musical entertainment as could be desired.

Sam Raines Again In Grid Uniform

Former W. and L. Star To Shine In Backfield of U. of Tenn. Medical School.

"Sammy" Raines, according to the Memphis Press, has entered the University of Tennessee and is out for a backfield berth on the Doctors aggregation. Raines, as all men who were in school in '21 will remember, was one of the best athletes ever turned out at Washington and Lee. He was for three years a member of the baseball team and was a regular on the football team in '17, '19, '20, playing also on the S. A. T. C. team in 1918. In addition to being an athlete he was a member of most of the honorary clubs on the campus and winner of the Young Scholarship. In his last year he was elected to the highest social honor in the gift of the Student Body, President of Finals.

Raines' entrance into the University of Tennessee after spending the past year as coach at the Memphis University School will greatly strengthen their football team. With Phil White, all-American halfback, also in uniform, the Doctors are assured two fleet and experienced backs.

Greek Pledges Are Fewer Than Formerly

Many Changes Are Seen In the Location of the Frat Houses.

After the strenuous and busy week of fraternity rushing, the local Greeks have settled down and are beginning another year's existence at Washington and Lee. The addition of several new fraternities during the last few years has made itself evident through the smaller number of pledges in each organization than is usually the custom.

Several fraternities have new locations this year. The Phi Psi's have moved from 86 Main to 91 Main; the Phi Delta's are now on University Place; the Arcades Club is in the old Alpha Chi Rho house, and the Alpha Chi's have moved into Dr. Easter's old home, which they bought last year; the Pi Kappa Phi's moved from their old place on Main Street to 58 Washington.

The statistics show that the twenty fraternal groups on the campus have amassed a total of one hundred pledges, and have drawn about thirty transfers from other institutions.

ANNUAL LAUNCHES ACTIVE CAMPAIGN

1923 Calyx Has Promising Material On Hand; To Be Cash Payment.

The 1923 Calyx is under way. More than fifty candidates met in Newcomb Hall last night. From such a wealth of material an excellent staff for both the editorial and business departments should be chosen. Plans are being rapidly made for the book, and from present indications the Calyx this year will be one of which Washington and Lee may be justly proud. This, however, is impossible without the support of the Student Body, regardless of how energetic the staff may be.

Beginning today an intensive subscription campaign will be carried on until October the 10th. During this

CENTRE WILL PLAY V. P. I. IN RICHMOND

Centre College will carry out its scheduled game with V. P. I. at Richmond Oct 14, due to the Faculty having given its permission for the team to go direct from Richmond to Boston. Centre sought to cancel the game because of the Harvard game the next Saturday, thinking the long jump from Danville, Ky., to Richmond and return and thence to Boston would have a bad effect on the team.

Line-Up For Saturday's Game Unknown Until Friday Night

FRESHMEN AFTER FISHBURNE'S GOAT

Determined To Wipe Out Last Year's Defeat—F. M. A. Has Strong Squad.

The opening game of the Freshman schedule will be played with the strong Fishburne Military Academy team at Waynesboro Saturday afternoon. Last year the Little Generals suffered a defeat by the score of 7-0 at the hands of the Keydets and inasmuch as the Valley prep school has lost only two of the 1921 line-up, Coach Brett's charges are sure of lots of opposition. Luke, the 190-pound tackle, and Branch, who was rated as one of the best prep quarters in the state last year, together with Trout and the Waugh brothers in the line and Ridgewell and Bean, backs, form a nucleus of veteran players worthy of many college teams.

Due to the fact that the equipment for the Freshman squad arrived, but a day or two ago the squad has been held down to about 35 men. However, about 20 more men have signified their intention of coming out and these men should do so at once as the full equipment is now here.

The Freshmen have been scrim-

Arrangements Made For W. & L.-Va. Game

The Virginia Graduate Manager of Athletics, Mr. Ellis, was in Lexington Saturday to arrange advance sales of tickets to W. & L. students and Lexingtonians for the Virginia-W. & L. game. Tickets will cost $2 and will be on sale at the Co-op and the Corner October 8-15. The W. & L. Student Body is to have the middle section of the stadium and W. & L. Alumni will be seated to left and right of this section. As over 15,000 spectators are expected for this event and the demand for tickets will be greater than the supply it is absolutely necessary that every man who is going to Charlottesville get his ticket here since at the close of business on the 15th the tickets that remain unsold will be returned for advance sale to the general public. Special trains will be run from Roanoke, Richmond and other cities in the state and the South. Nothing has been definitely decided about a train from Lexington as yet but "Dick" Smith promises one unless the strike or some other contingency prevents it.

ATTENTION ALUMNI!!!

You will find a subscription blank inserted in this issue. If you want your name to remain on the mailing list, please fill out the blank and mail immediately. Unless this is done, your name will be dropped from the mailing list after the next issue is sent out. We will appreciate YOUR subscription.

TECH & CENTRE ARE DANGEROUS

Both Teams Off To Flying Start Saturday; Virginia Is Idle.

With the opening of the football season last Saturday, the Generals got their first chance to get a line on some of their opponents. Saturday's games, however, failed to give much information as to the real strength of the teams. All the teams played ragged ball, since none of them have had the practice necessary to put a smooth running machine on the field, flukes, fumbles, and penalties accounting for many scores. Furthermore, the stronger teams, such as V. P. I. and Centre, were never put to a test, while the smaller teams like Emory and Henry, Carson-Newson and Lynchburg College were completely out-classed.

Five future opponents of the Generals played games Saturday. Emory and Henry, the first team on the schedule, lost to the University of Tennessee, 51 to 0. They were never able to stop the long end-runs and passes of the Volunteers, or to gain ground when in possession of the ball.

V. P. I. defeated Hampden-Sidney 38 to 0. Though the Gobblers' varsity seemed to lack driving power, their second team showed considerable strength. Sutton at half performed in a manner which indicates that he is going to be a source of trouble to opposing teams again this year.

Lynchburg College was defeated by V. M. I., but scored on the Cadets through an intercepted pass—final score, 34 to 7.

Centre College had an easy time with Carson-Newman, piling up a score of 72 to 0, and using mostly second string men after the first quarter. Washington and Lee plays Carson-Newman here Oct. 14 and Centre at Louisville, Nov. 11.

BAND PRACTICE IS UNDER WAY

Manager Jesse Houck has issued a call for band candidates and in response a large number of aspirants are expected to report for the initial practice.

The football season is here and with the acute shortage of material from last year's band now in school, Manager Houck faces a difficult problem.

All men who can play any band instrument at all are urged to come out immediately and help along with this highly important work.

J. W. McCartney, "Hop" Abrogast, Horace Murphy, "Judge" Brannon, D. N. Farnell, Filmore Norfleet, J. G. Guerrant, and K. E. Hines broke the monotony of Sunday by motoring over to Hollins, where a very enjoyable time was reported.

Albert Newman, '24, on his way to Massachusetts Institute of Technology, dropped in for a socialable visit.

Peabody Howard, ex-'23 Law, is practicing in Chattanooga, Tenn.

DeHart to Experiment In Game With Emory and Henry

With the Emory and Henry fray, the first game of the Generals' 1922 football season only three days distant, little can be guessed as to the make-up of the team which will represent Washington and Lee in the big games this fall. The competition for most of the positions on the team is exceedingly close and Coach DeHart said he would have no idea of the line-up for Saturday until Friday night after the scrimmage.

Emory and Henry always presents a fighting team and last year held the Generals to twenty-seven points, seriously threatening their goal line at one time. While the Wasps are expected to put up a good game and are not being underestimated, Coach DeHart is going to experiment with different combinations in order to see which works best together. Observations made from this game will go a long way towards picking the eleven men who will face N. C. State October 7. Emory and Henry was defeated by Tennessee in her first game of the season, 51-0 and showed considerable weakness in meeting an aerial attack, the Doctors scoring four touchdowns by this route.

Those men who will probably see action against Emory and Henry Saturday are: Ends, "Tom" Bemis, "K" Thomas, Dawson, Snively and Seehorn, tackles; Vogel, Wagner, Potts, Asbury and Tifton, a new man who is showing considerable promise. Guards, Tilson, Walters, D. Bemis and Taylor; centers, Beard and Terry; backs, Frew, Wingo, Cameron, Mattox, McDonald, McVey, Hamilton, Taliaferro and J. Thomas. All the squad is in good condition with the exception of Arbogast who will probably be in uniform tomorrow, but will not be in condition to play before the N. C. State game. A

DR. SMITH SPEAKS TO LITERARY SOCIETY

Professor Fulbright and W. E. Holt Also Address Society. Many Present.

President Henry Louis Smith was the principal speaker at the opening meeting of the Washington Literary Society last Saturday night.

The meeting was called to order by President S. A. Glickstein, who gave a few words of welcome to both the old and new men.

President Smith was first introduced, and delivered a brief but eloquent speech of advice to all who would become effective speakers. Dr. Smith was elected to honorary membership of the Washington Literary Society.

Professor Fulbright followed the President, with a convincing talk on the importance of literary societies on the campus.

W. E. "Bill" Holt, President of the Student Body, concluded the program, giving brief outline of the policies by which the Student Body will be governed during the session.

SCHOOL SPIRIT

No team ever stepped on a gridiron, court or diamond that could play winning ball without support from the sidelines, bleachers or gallery. Particularly is this true of college athletics. A team may be perfection itself, well trained and coached in the principles of play, but without the necessary reserve strength in the bleachers, it can at best play but mediocre football.

Aspire as they will, all men cannot be football stars, but all can play a part in turning out a winning team, and the result of any season can be pretty well measured by the spirit of the Student Body back of the team. Men who play football, do so primarily for the love of their school and not for the sprains and bruises which come as a result of their training on the gridiron.

Coach DeHart's proteges have been going through the most grueling training period a Washington and Lee team ever did. DeHart himself, has been greatly handicapped by lack of material and the failure of several stars of last year's team to return to school. In spite of this, however, he has worked untiringly with the nucleus on hand and the new material to weld it into a team, worthy to represent Washington and Lee and to command the united support of the Student Body.

Starting Saturday when Emory and Henry comes to Wilson Field for the initial encounter of the Generals' 1922 season, the White and Blue faces one of the most difficult schedules ever carded for a Washington and Lee team.

A new season is just beginning, and now is the time to start backing that team. Put your whole soul into the thing and be there to "give all you've got" to the men who are fighting your battles. Start right! Stay right. Keep right all the time! Let us not be found wanting in that school spirit which has made Washington and Lee famous. Back the team to the limit!

WHAT ABOUT IT, MEN?

In response to Coach DeHart's call for more football candidates, less than a dozen men reported. Such a response is indeed discouraging. A team is no stronger than its substitutes, and right now there is a crying need for more men who can be trained to strengthen the reserve force of the team.

It isn't too late yet, but every day's delay means that much time lost. New equipment has arrived, so the time-worn excuse of having no uniform no longer holds. This applies to Freshmen as well as to men who are eligible for the Varsity. Don't wait until the season is half gone, but don your togs immediately and have a share in making the 1922 football team.

FIND YOURSELF!

Campus leaders are made, not born. No man ever had a campus honor thrust upon him—"they don't come that way." Only the fellows who get out and work for such honors ever receive them. And the time to start is right now.

Classroom duties come first, there can be no denial of that fact. On the other hand, no man's college education is complete without some extra-curricula work, be it athletics, dramatics, journalistic work, music, or religious work. Pick the field for which your particular talents or desires fit you, and make your first year at W. & L. count for more than a few paltry points of college credit. Just as sure as you find a man who is a leader on the campus, you will find a man who started out his first year and kept it up. Find yourself. Freshman, and go out for something!

"DOGS" AGAIN TO BE SOLD ON WILSON FIELD

Proceeds To Go for Purchase of Sweaters for Monogram Men.

The "Hot Dog" stand on Wilson Field will be operated again this year by the Athletic Association. The proceeds from this stand will go towards buying sweaters for football letter men, and all students are asked to give their hearty co-operation. Because of the comparatively small proceeds from games played in Lexington the Athletic Association is often unable to purchase sweaters for all monogram men.

This stand was begun last year to make up for the deficiency and served its purpose well, due to the backing of the entire Student Body. It is estimated that nearly two hundred dollars were cleared. The same amount must be turned in again this year, and every man must do his share toward attaining this sum.

"Hot Dogs," dopes, and peanuts comprise the menu, which more than makes up in quantity and quality what it lacks in variety.

GRAHAM LEE HAS FORMAL OPENING

Dr. Shannon Makes Principal Address of the Occasion.

The Graham Lee Literary Society formally opened Saturday night with one of the most interesting programs ever rendered at a meeting of the society. Dr. E. F. Shannon, head of the English department, was the principal speaker. The subject of his address was "Utilizing Your Opportunities." Following Dr. Shannon, two members of the society gave short talks on the "Real Advantage of Membership in a Literary Society," pointing out the number of medals awarded for distinction in public speaking.

The attendance was small, but each man seemed to be in dead earnest. No definite drive for new members will be made, but all those interested in public speaking will be welcomed.

The program for next meeting will consist of oration by D. O. Marston, Jr.; a declamation by E. H. Howard; Current Events by W. Sinberg, and a debate: Resolved: That the Federal Courts Should Be Prohibited from Issuing Injunctions in Controversies of Labor and Capital. W. C. Smith and R. B. Campbell will uphold the affirmative, while R. G. Wickersham and E. J. Spady will defend the negative.

FROSH. ATTENTION!

Wednesday night all Freshmen will meet in the Chapel at seven-thirty. Cheering practice will be conducted on the campus immediately afterward.

DR. FARRAR RECIPIENT OF HIGH HONORS FROM MASONS

Square and Compass Name
Scholarship Cup for W. & L.
Professor.

The Square and Compass organization on the campus has recently accepted a handsome silver cup presented to them by the official jeweler of the organization. This cup will be used as a scholarship cup in the future, and will be awarded to the Square having the best average scholarship during the previous session.

The Square and Compass has been extraordinarily successful since its small beginning in 1917, and will open its scholastic year with squares at Washington and Lee, Tulane, Colgate, Louisiana State, University of Arkansas, North Carolina, Howard, Saint Lawrence, Columbia, Auburn, Emory, Missouri School of Mines, Vanderbilt, Medical College of Virginia, University of Idaho, Millsaps, Washington and Jefferson, Brown, Clarkson College of Technology, University of Illinois, State College of Washington, and University of Wisconsin. At present, the organization has 1,100 members, a great change from the nine Washington and Lee students who founded the organization. Dr. Farrar, professor of German here, was included in this number and was the first National Vice-President, and the second National President of the fraternity. Four of the members of the General Council are W. and L. men—Prof. Lewis Tyree, National President; Carl A. Foss, University of Alabama, National Secretary; Fred M. Davis, Lynchburg, Va., National Historian, and Everett W. Cummings, Glen Rogers, W. Va., member at large. The Square and Compass is planning to have its next convention at Lexington on January 8-9, 1923.

The "scholarship" cup was presented to the local Square in commemoration of the friendship and interest shown by Dr. Farrar in the Square and Compass when it was founded here five years ago. The cup is engraved: "T. J. Farrar Scholarship Cup presented by The Hoover and Smith Company to the square of Square and Compass having the best record for scholarship during the year."

FRESHMEN START GYMNASIUM WORK

Having undergone their physical examinations held last week, the Freshmen will immediately take up their regular work in Hygiene. Their classroom work comes on Wednesdays and Thursdays from 10 to 12 a. m., and is divided into four sections. In addition to this there will be two gym classes a week for the Freshmen. These meet on Mondays, Tuesdays, Fridays and Saturdays from 10 to 12.

All men out for football and cross-country are excused from the two gym classes, but are required to take the classroom work. The gym work for the fall will consist largely of competitive sports and swimming. There are fifty-five men out for Freshman football and forty-three out for cross-country.

SOPHOMORE HYGIENE

The Sophomore Hygiene classes are in charge of Mr. Twombly. All Sophomores, except those out for football or cross-country, are reporting to Mr. Twombly at one of the following hours: Mondays at 12, 1 and 3:30; Tuesdays at 9 and 12; Wednesdays at 10, 11, 12, 1 and 3:30; Thursdays at 9, 10, and 11. All Sophomores not assigned to classes should report to Mr. Fletcher at once.

"Red" Schneider returned Monday night after spending the week-end in Roanoke.

EX. COMMITTEE ELECTS TONIGHT

Managers of Calyx and Mink
To Be Chosen By Student Officials.

The Executive Committee meets tonight in order to fill the vacancies caused by the failure to return to school of business managers-elect of both Calyx and Mink.

Elections of managers to these two positions have been delayed by the necessity of completing the elections of the Executive Committee. Sidney Foreman was elected last spring as business manager of the Calyx defeating W. A. Peavy. K. D. Abbott was unopposed for the managership of the Mink. Neither Foreman, Peavy or Abbott returned this year.

Ed Woodson, D. N. Farnell and S. A. Glickstein have worked extremely hard since returning to school to keep the Mink going in the unexpected absence of its manager. Glickstein, however, has too much outside work to do and must withdraw, leaving the election to be decided between Woodson and Farnell.

Woodson, who was not in school last year, was assistant business manager of the Calyx the year before. Farnell has served on the Ring-tum Phi business staff. Both of the candidates agree upon the fact that subscriptions are far under normal, and must be increased in the near future or calamity will result.

H. L. Shuey, sole candidate for the office of business manager of the Calyx, has had extensive experience in this line. After several years on the business staff of the Augusta Military Academy year book, Shuey was well equipped to serve on the business staff of the Calyx last year. He is an intermediate law student this year.

Although he has toiled arduously since the opening of school, the prospective manager is very doubtful as to the success of the year book unless many more subscriptions are forthcoming.

With this end in view, a subscription campaign will be started Wednesday to run until October the tenth.

great deal of interest is being evidenced in who will play the center position vacated by "Pat" Collins. "Charlie" Terry and "Dick" Beard are the two leading candidates and although Terry has the edge in the matter of experience, Beard is running him a hard race. In the backfield one man sure to break in the big games this year is "Jimmie" Thomas, who, although one of the lightest men on the team, has been standing a lot of punishment and shown great form in tackling and open field running. He is probably the fastest man on the field.

The punting this year will be taken care of by Frew and Cameron with a possibility of Potts falling back from the line. Frew has been showing up particularly well, getting a lot more length out of his spirals than last year. "Tom" Bemis, Dawson and Wingo will take care of the drop kicking. Bemis, as will be remembered, won the V. P. I. game last year with a field goal.

On the whole, Coach DeHart reports himself as being greatly pleased with the spirit of the candidates and the way they have buckled down and worked. Since Friday, Sept. 15, when scrimmage started the squad has scrimmaged every day but one and will continue to do so until Saturday. The only thing that has hindered the coach in his work has been the lack of heavy material, particularly for use on the line. Seven new men reported for practice the first of the week, but lots more can be used.

The interest of the Student Body in football is greatly increasing as the opening of the season draws close. A large crowd watched the team scrimmage Monday when the gates were opened. After this week the gates will be opened to the students Wednesday instead of Mondays.

maging almost daily against the Varsity for the past week and although it is too early in the season to pick individual stars the team as a whole has shown good progress under this heavy work. Another bright point of view to the Freshman eye is that due to the one-year rule the Freshman coach has fallen heir to material that would have figured in Varsity games under the old regime.

Coach Brett will carry a squad of eighteen men to the Fishburne game, leaving Lexington Saturday morning. These men will be selected from the following: Ends, Daves, Richardson and Montgomery; tackles, Stevens, Fentress and Budneck; guards, Daugherty and Stemmons; center, Burnam; backs, Bruder, Taylor, Ingram, Llewellyn, Benson, Jones, Horton; quarterbacks, Seehorn, Blakeley and Little.

period all men paying the cash price of $5.00 will have their name stamped on the cover in gold, free of charge. It is hoped that at least 80 per cent of the upperclassmen and a full 100 per cent of the new men will sign up at once and take advantage of this rate. After the close of the campaign an extra charge of 50 cents will be made for imprinting the owner's name on the cover.

From past experience it has been found necessary to run the Calyx on a strictly cash basis this year. This will insure the publishers against any books being left over at the close of the year, and will allow the expenditure of every possible dollar on the book itself.

Every W. and L. man is certainly anxious to see a good year book for 1923. Then do your part to help us make it one by subscribing now.

ELMS AND BRUDER ARE MANAGING CO-OP

Bigger and Better Stock This Year—$1200 Cleared Last Year—Benefits Athletic Association.

The Co-op Store reopened this session with a brighter future before it. It has a bigger and better stock of candy, cold drinks, stationary, tablets, pencils and books. A full line of note books and fillers are on hand, and a large shipment of pennants and pillows are expected in a few days. The store is under the capable management of Elms and Bruder and they are in a position to do a larger volume of business this year than last year, when twelve hundred dollars was cleared. This is a record that can hardly be excelled, even by similar stores in larger colleges.

The profit realized from the store is used to help finance the Athletic Association. While this is the main object of the Co-op, it is always ready to aid students.

If there's a special book, a box of stationery or anything along that line that is not carried in stock, the Co-op will be glad to order it.

SENIOR ENGINEERS ELECT FOR THIS YEAR

The Senior Engineering class held its election Friday night to decide officers for the coming year.

M. I. Dunn was elected president over F. L. Sattes. Dudolph Jones was unopposed for vice-president. In the race for the secretary and treasurer, D. G. Grimley won a close decision from W. T. Kilmon and Paul MacTaggart, while Mac Taggart defeated Kilmon for Historian. R. J. Sturm was chosen over W. L. Leap to represent the class on the Executive Committee.

ALBERT SIDNEYS ELECT OFFICERS

Rangeley Will Lead Blues Coming Season; Hatcher To Manage. Few Attend.

The first meeting of the year of the Albert Sidney Boat Club was held Monday night in Newcomb Hall and officers for the 1922-23 session were elected.

Due to the small attendance the elections required only a few minutes. J. A. Rangeley defeated Richard Beard by an 8 to 3 vote for president, and Preston Hatcher defeated R. B. Campbell 7 to 4 for manager. As no other business was brought up after these elections the meeting was adjourned.

Freshmen will probably be allowed to participate for a few minutes, but no definite announcement has yet been issued about this matter. Half the proceeds will go to the Monogram Sweater Fund.
